Committee looks to balance enrollments at elementary schools

Due to large increases in enrollment at Promise Road and Noble Crossing elementary schools, the school board and district administration appointed a rebalancing committee to look at adjusting enrollment districts to accommodate the growth at those schools.

After careful consideration of enrollment and trends in the local housing market, the committee has developed a proposal for the rebalancing. The proposed plan includes moving the following neighborhoods:

Rivers Edge Apartments to North from Noble Crossing
The area bounded by Conner Street, Pleasant Street, 10th Street. and SR 37 from Stony Creek to North

Fox Glen and Arbor Grove from Promise Road to Stony Creek

Monarch Springs, Fishers Oakwood, and other students east of Promise Road and north of 32 or east of 37 and north of 186th St. from Promise Road to White River.

The proposal will be presented at forums at all seven elementary schools during January and early February to allow for patron feedback. It then will be presented to the school board at the board's February 18 meeting. At that time, the board could either adopt the proposal or request additional changes. Patrons are encouraged to attend the forums at their elementary schools, but may attend at other schools if their schedules so require. The school board meeting also is open to the public.

The forums are scheduled as follows:

Monday, January 13, 7:00 p.m. at Hazel Dell
Wednesday, January 15, 7:00 p.m. at Hinkle Creek
Thursday, January 16, 7:00 p.m. at Noble Crossing
Wednesday, January 22, 7:00 p.m. at North
Thursday, January 23, 7:00 p.m. at White River
Thursday, January 30, 7:30 p.m. at Promise Road
Wednesday, February 5, 7:00 p.m. at Stony Creek

Kroger announces results of 'Share Your Feast' food drive

The Kroger Co.'s Central Division announced the results of its largest annual food drive, "Share Your Feast," in support of regional food banks and local food pantries across the operating division. The food drive ran from Friday, November 1st thru Tuesday, December 24th. Each of Kroger Central Division's 136 Kroger, Scott's, Pay Less and Owen's stores was matched with a local food bank or food pantry.

Kroger customers purchased pre-bag food in $3, $5 and $10 bags, totaling $156,082. In addition, Kroger customers donated cash in increments of $1, $3 and $5 totaling $75,128. Total proceeds for 2013 are $231,210 or 115,605 meals for hungry families in the local communities Kroger serves.

Kroger Central Division Public Affairs Manager John Elliott said, "There is no cause more important than feeding our hungry neighbors, especially now as so many families are struggling. Even as we see signs of an improving economy, there are many local families who are hungry. This food drive benefits nine regional food banks and 69 local food pantries. Through hard work, our hunger relief efforts are setting one record after another in helping feed hungry families amidst a need that has increased as much as 40 percent in some local communities. With the significant increase in food donations through Kroger's Perishable Donation Partnership, Central Division's total food and financial donations to hunger relief organizations in local communities in 2013 is on track to exceed the $8.5 million in support we shared in 2012 to regional food banks and local food pantries. It is truly heart-warming to see the generosity of our associates and our customers as they meet the need in our local communities."

The Kroger Co. has been serving local communities for 130 years. The Kroger Central Division has 136 food stores, 114 pharmacies and 79 fuel centers operating under four banners; Kroger, Scott's, Owen's and Pay Less, with locations primarily in Indiana and Illinois, in addition to three stores in Missouri, one in Michigan and one in Ohio. Kroger Central Division is dedicated to supporting every local community it serves, contributing more than $13.3 million in 2012 to local organizations, primarily focusing on hunger relief, K-12 education, health causes and diversity. The Kroger Co. was recently named the most generous company in America in a Chronicle of Philanthropy listing detailed in Forbes Magazine. At Kroger we value: honesty, respect, inclusion, diversity, safety and integrity.

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

With "mixed emotions," Sharon McMahon has resigned her position after a 13-year term as president of the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce.

"I have enjoyed this opportunity to serve the membership of the Noblesville Chamber the past 13 years," McMahon wrote in her resignation letter to Chairman of the Board Dr. John Paris. "I never felt that I worked at the Chamber, but for the Chamber. I have a great deal of pride in that this organization has weathered a post-Depression era economy, a World War, three major military conflicts and economic downturns during its almost 79 years of existence. I am pleased to say that I have striven to conduct myself both professionally and personally in a manner which reflects well on this organization. The input of you, the volunteers, has been crucial to the positive growth of the Chamber and I would like to personally thank all of you for your professional counsel and expertise in leadership," McMahon added.

Her resignation, effective Feb. 28, comes after a 30-year career of a non-profit executive career.

"I have several things I want to do in my life," McMahon continued, "but right now I am ready to enjoy some time with my husband just resting at our condo in North Carolina. I'm looking forward to my work day not starting at 5:30 a.m."

"I am very much looking forward to 'catching up' with family and friends; working on DAR and church-related projects; renewing my fitness teaching credentials, and spending additional time at our condo in the mountains near Asheville, NC. I will also be in the process of writing a book (self published, of course) related to

Lady Blackhawks' Pink Out game is Thursday

Sheridan's Thursday, Jan. 16 game with Clinton Prairie will be its annual "Pink Out Night," designed to raise awareness and money for the Megan S. Ott Foundation.

All of the proceeds from Thursday's game will benefit the foundation, which is named after a Noblesville woman who battled with breast cancer. Megan and her husband Tom began the foundation in March 2010, a month before Megan passed away.

Kim DeVaney, one of the Lady Blackhawk team moms, said the team has developed a connection with the foundation. Last year's Pink Out raised around $2,500, exceeding the team's goal of $2,000.

"We're going to sell T-shirts, we're taking donations, monetary donations," said DeVaney. The team is looking to reach the $2,000 mark again.

"We have T-shirts for sale for $10, they can contact me in the bookstore," said DeVaney, who works at the Sheridan High School bookstore. Her number is 758-4431, ext. 4400.

"They can also contact any girls basketball player, they all are selling T-shirts," said DeVaney.

Arctic blast keeps troopers busy

The Arctic blast that paralyzed much of Indiana last week kept area troopers extremely busy on the roads assisting motorists, working crashes and slide offs.

While much of the motoring public made the wise decision to wait out the storm that passed through Indiana last Sunday, Monday and Tuesday many ventured out and fell victim to the deep snow, slick roads and extreme temperatures.

In preparation for the storm, the Indiana State Police suspended most officers' days off and had extra units working the roadways across the state. The state police setup a Crisis Action Center (CAC) in Indianapolis that was staffed 24 hours a day during the event. They tracked all major storm related incidents where state police officers responded. The CAC worked directly with the State Emergency Operations Center (EOC) providing situational awareness and resource needs.

Locally, trooper's from the Indianapolis Post, which covers Marion, Hendricks, Boone, Shelby, Hancock, Hamilton and Johnson Counties responded to 21 personal injury and 237 property damage crashes. Troopers assisted with 322 reported slide off's that did not result in any damage and assisted 513 motorist's with weather related requests. Trooper's also responded to 300 calls for service during this time period of January 5-8th that was not weather related.

Firearms Public Safety Forum is Thursday at Fairgrounds

On Thursday, Jan. 16., Hamilton County Sheriff Mark Bowen invites area residents to participate in a public education forum on Firearms Safety. This special meeting, to be held at the Hamilton County 4H Fairgrounds from 7:00-8:00pm, will focus on what gun owners can do to promote responsible weapon ownership. Led by Indiana Law Enforcement Training Board certified instructors and Sheriff's Office deputies, participants will come away with practical ideas and suggestions on how to increase safety around firearms.

Hamilton County has recently experienced the loss of two of its citizens due to incidents with charges of reckless homicide involving firearms. Gun ownership has steadily increased with over 450 permits issued each year in 2012 and 2013 by the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office alone. Recent estimates put gun ownership at more than 30% of the population across the country. With the increase in gun ownership comes an increased chance of negligent discharges or accidents with firearms. In 2010, there were over 15,000 people injured and 600 deaths due to firearms related accidents in the United States. Research shows that half of gun-owning households do not lock up their guns. Many, if not most, of these tragic incidents could be prevented with education and practice in safety and responsibility.

There is no cost to attend the forum and no registration is required. The forum is designed for ages junior high school through adult. Free child care will be provided for pre-school and elementary age children. Free gun locks will be distributed while supplies last. Vendors will be available to show a variety of firearms safety products and classes. This is not a shooting course and firearms should not be brought to the meeting.

Some kind of cookie

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Some kind of basketball cookie, this Haley Cook kid from Hamilton Heights.

In a 72-46 cakewalk Mid-Indiana Conference victory over visiting Lewis Cass Monday evening, Cook fired in 24 points to become the 22nd player in Hamilton County girls basketball history to reach the career scoring mark of 1,000 points.

Cook now has 1,001 points, joining former Lady Huskies Jessica Carr, Dakota Weatherford and Libby Ogden as Ha

On any other evening the star of the game for Heights might have been Caitlyn Hays, who hit six 3-pointers and scored 19 points. Or, Kiley Walters, who drilled 13points, Or, even freshman center Taylor Boyd who, despite sitting out half of the game in foul trouble, scored eight points and pulled 11 rebounds.

But, not on this night. Star of the Game honors were reserved for Cook, the 5-5 senior leader who had three 3-pointers and 11-of-12 free throws in her performance.

“We talked a little about it, but it was no big deal,” said Dawn Runner, the Huskies assistant coach who was filling in for head mentor Scott Fernung, who had a death in his family. “We wanted to get the 1,000-point thing out of the way.”

Cook got the job done on a pair of free throw in the fourth quarter.

The game was a no-brainer for the Huskies. They exploded out of the gate, taking a 27-10 margin in the first quarter behind four 3-pointers from Hays and a nine-point quarter from Cook. Heights led 46-19 at halftime.

“It was all about our quick start tonight,” Runner continued. “Cass was never able to recover once we jumped out on them.

“It was a total team effort,” said Runner. “Hays’ shooting and Walters’ point guard play were crucial in our win.”

The blowout came on a night when Heights was in foul early in the game. Walters, Boyd and even Cook found themselves with some bench time because of fouls.

“Our defense set the tone early,” Runner said, “but we got into foul trouble. We want to play defense, but we’ve got to play smart. On most nights we can’t foul like that and win games.”

Because of the weather problem, Hamilton Heights had not played since Dec. 27. Now, trying to play catch-up with their schedule, the Lady Huskies will play three more games this week ... hosting Western on Wednesday, playing at Peru on Thursday and entertaining Eastern on Saturday. All four games this week are conference game, where the Lady Huskies stand 2-0.

Overall, Heights has a 4-7 record.

‘Hawks get easy win, preparing for HHC leader

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

The Sheridan girls basketball team got what it needed Tuesday - a nice win over Liberty Christian at Hobbs Hall.

The Blackhawks cruised past the Lions 80-37, improving to 11-5 on the season and getting some momentum heading into a huge Thursday home date with Clinton Prairie, the current leader of the Hoosier Heartland Conference standings. It will also be Sheridan's Pink Out night, focusing on awareness and fundraising for breast cancer. Proceeds from the game will benefit the Megan S. Ott Foundation.

Liberty made things interesting early on by taking a 6-3 first quarter lead, and was still within 10-8 late in the first quarter. But the 'Hawks started to fly after that, scoring 21 straight points on their way to a 44-12 halftime lead.

Sheridan's defense was intense throughout the game, with the 'Hawks getting several deflections and steals. Payton Fleener had seven takeaways all by herself.

"I think we were just a little more active," said Sheridan coach Jeff Guenther. "I was really pleased the first half with our ability to switch defenses."

Liberty continued to compete into the second half, but a 17-0 run late in the third quarter sealed the win for Sheridan. Three players reached double figures: Fleener scored 18, Amanda Summe had 16 (including three 3-pointers) and Faith DeVaney added 14.

Hannah Roaten grabbed four rebounds. Fleener, Rebekah Hopper and Payton Buckner all handed out four assists.

Prairie will come into Hobbs Hall with a 9-2 record, including a perfect 3-0 mark in the HHC. The Gophers' conference wins have been over Rossville 57-24, Carroll

"Their strength is their interior play," said Guenther. "They've got a big kid that's really solid, so the key for us is going to be to contain her, control her. Roaten has, throughout her career, done a nice job of defending bigs, so we'll see how we do."

Never got started

University's Trailblazers never really got started in a Tuesday night game at Indianapolis Lutheran and came home with a 50-21 loss.

"This was a hard game on the road tonight," said Coach Stacey Summitt-Mann. "We just didn't get off the bus, and Lutheran was ready to play."

Lutheran led 12-4 after one quarter and 30-9 at halftime.

"We did find some energy after halftime," Summitt-Mann continued. "Reilly Small helped kick us off in the third quarter with two back-to-back plays, an assist into the inside and a lay-up."

Elizabeth Orians led University in scoring with six points.

University, now 3-9 on the year, will return to action on Thursday at home against Faith Christian.

Eagles still flying on the road

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor
On the road, again.

Guerin Catholic's Golden Eagles have not played a game in their comfortable Eagle Nest since beating Indianapolis Howe back on Dec. 20. Coach Pete Smith's club will play on the road again this Saturday evening when the Eagles make a long road trip to Terre Haute South.

"South is our only game this week," Smith said. "We are finishing a 10-game road trip. We have not played at home in almost a month."

The plus-side of all of that is that Guerin has survived playing on the road 11 times by coming away with an overall 11-3 record.

Another good thing, Guerin Catholic now will play at home five consecutive times before ending the regular season on Feb. 25 at Fort Wayne Luers. The next home game will be Jan. 24 against rival Brebeuf.

Terre Haute South will come into a Friday game against Northview with a 6-4 record. The Braves had a six-game winning streak snapped last weekend while falling to Lawrence North 75-41 and Carmel 63-38. Guerin owns a 49-32 victory over Lawrence North.

Smith lost junior guard Matt Labus to a MCL sprain three games ago against Evansville Harrison. He will not be back for Saturday's contest and likely will miss another week. He will be replaced by 6-3 sophomore Christian Munson, joining a starting lineup of Matt Holba, Aaron Brennan, Cris Burrough and Whit Rapp.

Smith said he is enjoying coaching this team.

"We have not played up to our potential, yet," he said, "but have played some pretty good games. We had the game against (Kentucky No. 1 ranked) Louisville Ballard tied at 61-all at Freedom Hall, but they made some plays down the stretch and we didn't match them.

"It didn't help our cause with 13-for-24 free throw shooting," the coach added. "We also committed 15 turnovers, which is too high for us. But, we took some positives out of this game, that's for sure."

Terre Haute South had not played a tough schedule until the back-to-backer last two times out against Lawrence North and Carmel. The Braves' best game probably was a 58-48 loss to city rival North in the finals of the Wabash Valley Tourney.

"South has really played some good basketball, but like all young teams has had trouble maintaining consistency," Smith said. "As they continue to get experience they'll play even better. We fought hard to hold them off two seasons ago at Terre Haute. We need to take advantage of our inside people offensively to be successful, while limiting Timmy Herrin's touches, as Carmel tried to do last week. Herrin has a bright future on the hardwood, and he is such a versatile, all-around player. He makes his young teammates better."

Zdobylak, Jones are Hoop Shoot winners

The champions from the Noblesville Elks Lodge's Hoop Shoot Free Throw Contest competed this past Sunday in the Elks District Competition in the Rockville High School Gymnasium. The district contest featured lodge champions from the other lodges within the West Central District.

Noblesville Elks Lodge #576 had two of their lodge champions win on Sunday. In the Girls 12-13 age group, sixth grader from Carmel Middle School Ariana Zdobylak connected on 19 out of 25 free throws to win her competition.

On the boys competition, Matthew Jones from Mohawk Trails Elementary School drained 24 out of 25 to win the Another bad quarter, and...

Blackhawks a little short

Sheridan made a run at the end, but the Blackhawks couldn't recover from a bad second quarter as they dropped a 63-60 Hoosier Heartland Conference boys basketball game Tuesday evening at Tri-Central.

The Blackhawks led 15-12 after one period, but then were outscored 26-13 in the second period. Sheridan battled back with a 24-15 run in the fourth quarter, but fell a little short.

"We are playing better, but we have some things we need to improve on," said Sheridan coach Cory Dunn.

Cory Christy exploded for 23 points to lead Sheridan's scoring and Chris Roberts (15) and Brock Kitchel (12) also scored in double figures.

Roberts (12) and Christy (8) both had a strong night on the boards, while Jake Chesney dished out 10 assists.

"We need to be more mentally tough and be sharp for 32 minutes," said Dunn. "We have given up one big quarter in every game. We have to be more consistent.

"The guys fought hard and came back from being down in double figures and had a shot to tie at the end."

Eastern leaving Mid-Indiana

It's official: Eastern High School is switching conferences, and that will affect the schedules of two Hamilton County schools.

The Eastern school board voted on Tuesday to leave the Mid-Indiana Conference and join the Hoosier Heartland Conference beginning in the 2015-16 school year. Rumors about the move started percolating last month, but nothing official had happened until Tuesday.

Hamilton Heights is part of the MIC, while Sheridan is a recent member of the Hoosier Heartland. The HHC is beginning to undergo a sizable expansion, with Frontier and Tri-County both set to join the league in the 2015-16 school year. The current membership is Carroll, Clinton Central, Clinton Prairie, Rossville, Sheridan and Tri-Central.

The remaining Mid-Indiana schools are Heights, Lewis Cass, Maconaquah, Northwestern, Peru, Taylor and Western. Taylor was also thought to be leaving the MIC and joining the HCC, but nothing official with that has happened yet.
