Sheridan featured during TV broadcast

HCTV kicks off new programming

By JEFF JELLISON

On Wednesday Hamilton County Television, a local internet based television company, launched new programming titled Hamilton County Newsmakers.

The premier featured Sheridan Schools Superintendent Dr. David Mundy. Mundy discussed with HCTV's General Manager Perry Williams topics relevant to the Sheridan Community.

The newly appointed Superintendent talked about current collaboration between community leaders, the Chamber of Commerce and Sheridan schools.

During the interview Mundy indicated how serving as an assistant superintendent in Westfield prepared him to lead Sheridan Schools into the future. "Sheridan is about to experience some of the same growth and experiences that Westfield went through," said Mundy.

Mundy also talked about school technology, provided an update on the repair of the high school gym floor, announced Sheridan's graduation rate is up five points to 89% and discussed an anti-bullying program conducted Tuesday night by Sheridan school teacher Amy Lentz which drew nearly 30 elementary students.

Hamilton County Television President Jim Wafford said, "The program's goal is to bring the behind the scenes people from around the county to the forefront." Williams said, "It is a great opportunity for Hamilton County residents to meet people like Dr. Mundy."

Election names should be rotated for fairness

By FRED SWIFT

We need a change in local election procedure to promote fairness in our all-important primary voting.

The Hamilton County Election Board could if it wished, provide that names on the ballot are rotated instead of being listed in only alphabetical order as they are now.

I realize it would be more work for the voting machine mechanics, but fairness should outweigh convenience.

It is probably no accident that over any period of time there are more candidates elected whose last names begin with upper letters of the alphabet.

This situation becomes more obvious as fewer and fewer of our voters are acquainted with the candidates, and may vote for the first name that appears.

It's probably unfortunate, but true, that many people do this. And it leaves candidates with names toward the end of the alphabet at a disadvantage through no fault of their own.

What proof is there that the current order on the ballot favors those fortunate enough to have names early in the alphabet? Well, 19 of the 25 elected county officials have names in the first half of the alphabet. And, 15 of the 25 have names beginning with A-F.

Total coincidence? Logic would say no. But, let me hasten to say this does not mean we have poor officials. As far as I know every current county official is honest and competent. But, over the years, it does appear that we could miss out on other good candidates whose names are far down on the ballot.

The election board should look seriously at changing this practice and rotating the names so that each candidate comes to the top of the ballot an equal number of times in primary elections. It's not rocket science, it's just fairness.

With Bike to Work Day set for May 16... Noblesville students enjoy Bike to School Day

Hamilton County got its first 80-degree day since October on Wednesday, but it was already pleasant when the morning dawned.

Some Noblesville elementary school students got the chance to enjoy the weather, as it was National Bike to School Day. The event started at Hazel Dell Woods subdivision and ended at Hazel Dell Elementary. Kids and their parents rode on the trail going from the subdivision to the school. Noblesville Police Department officer Lonnie Guith was there to hand out temporary tattoos for all participants.

Adults will get the chance to hop on their two-wheelers when Sustain Noblesville and Hamilton County host the National Bike to Work Day on Friday, May 16. The event will last from 7 to 8 a.m. and take place outside on the west plaza of the Hamilton County Judicial Center. Bike racks will be made available.

A free breakfast will be offered, and any rider that RSVPs ahead of time will be entered into a drawing for prizes. Contact Sustain Noblesville chairperson Amy Shankland at ashankland@noblesville.in.us

The City of Noblesville is offering bike route maps on its Web site, www.cityofnoblesville.org.

Hamilton County girls meet...

Records likely will fall

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

If you're looking for record-breaking performance this Friday in the Girls Hamilton County Meet at Carmel, you might start with a pair of sisters from Carmel.

The Harris sisters, Haley and Kelsey, both juniors.

Haley has recorded a Hamilton County season-best of 2:14.72 in the 800 run, while Kelsey is second in the county with a 2:16.12. The County Meet record is 2:15.4, set way back in 1993 by another Carmel runner, Amy Morris.

The Harris' best shot for a record appears to be in the 800. In the 1600, Haley has a 4:57.12 and Kelsey a 4:57.39. The record there is 4:56.80, set by still another former Lady Greyhound, Sarah Bennett, in 2011.

There could be more.

Hamilton Heights' Sierra Brown has run a 15.20 in the 100 hurdles. The county record of 14.94 is held by Portia Bailey of Southeastern, who did it in 2007.

In the 100 dash, a pair of Westfield sprinters has been burning up the track. Karen Hubbard has a 12.45 and Rebecca Pronschinske has a 12.70. The meet record there is 12.5, set by Alicia Bundy of

Watch for the boys preview in Friday's Reporter

Hamilton Heights in 1993. In the 200, Hubbard has been clocked at 25.90 and Southeastern's Brittany Goggans at 25.94. Another Westfield sprinter, Hilary McEowen, had a 25.57 in 2004.

All eyes in the field events will be on Noblesville's Rachel Mather in the high jump and pole vault. Mather has cleared 5-8 in he high jump. The meet record of 5-7 by Carmel's Cori Werling goes back to 1993. In the pole vault, the county meet record is 12-1, set last season by Mather. She has been 12-0 so far this season.

The long jump record of 17-8.25, set by Michelle Harrison of Southeastern in 2007, is in great danger. Fishers' Lexi Smith has leaped 18-8.5 this season.

The meet on Friday at Carmel Stadium will begin with the field events at 5:30 p.m. The 3200 relay will start at 5:45. Running trials in the dashes and hurdles are set for 6:15, and the official running event finals will start one hour later at 7:15.

Huskies softball gets comeback win

Hamilton Heights scored two runs in the extra eighth inning to beat Alexandria 4-3 on Wednesday.

Kelley Baker and Ashley Roberts threw four innings each to combine for the win. Morgan Burtron went 3-for-4 with three RBIs and a walk-off double. Shelby Wills added a double and an RBI. Roberts and Kayla Zink added a hit each. Ashlee Herrington and Rachel Cross added key sacrifice bunts in the eighth to move runners and help put the Huskies in a position to win.

"We played better tonight in that we found a way to come from behind and win the game," said HHHS coach Landi Lockwood. "We still are not disciplined hitters making poor decisions in our at bats and that is hurting our all around game. We have to find a way to be a more successful at the plate."

Crawley, Mannies, Aikman awards announced by statewide coaches group

Thirty-six Indiana high school seniors have been presented 2014 scholarship awards from the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association, it was announced Tuesday (May 6).

The IBCA -- a statewide coaches group with more than 2,600 members -- presents grants of $750 to each recipient in the names of Marion Crawley, Junior Mannies and Pat Aikman. Through the years, the IBCA has awarded more than $572,000 in scholarships to Indiana students.

"I would like to congratulate you for being selected as a recipient," IBCA executive director Steve Witty wrote in informing winners of the various selections. "... Thanks for your contributions to Indiana high school basketball, and best of luck as you move on to the college of your choice."

David Glander, a boys' basketball manager at Roncalli, was awarded the only 2014 Junior Mannies Scholarship. Mannies Scholarships are presented to students who have a physical handicap but have contributed to their respective school's athletic program.

Mannies won 311 games as the boys basketball coach at Elwood, Mississinewa, Delphi and other schools. He served as the IBCA Job Placement Director from 1977-83.

A total of 31 Crawley Scholarships were presented to a variety of boys players (10), girls players (17), student managers/statisticians (three) and cheerleaders (one). Criteria for the Crawley Scholarship includes achievement in basketball, achievement in academics, participation in extracurricular activities and service to one's school and community. A list of the 2014 winners is below.

Crawley was a former four-time boys basketball state championship coach -- two with the Washington Hatchets and two with the Lafayette Jeff Bronchos -- who amassed 644 career wins. He later became the first executive director of the IBCA.

Tanner Davis of Wapahani, Caleb Gabler of Mishawaka, Daisy Heath of Hebron and Skyler Overleese of Eastern Hancock were chosen as winners of the fourth Pat Aikman Character and Leadership Awards, named for the former Indiana All-Star game director and former IBCA Coordinator of Special Projects.

Criteria for the Aikman Scholarship include achievements and contributions in basketball, scholastic achievement, extracurricular activities, and service to school and community. Also, those considered for the Aikman Scholarship are students who plan to enter the fields of journalism, sports management, athletic training or physical therapy.

"These are deserving young people who help make coaching a great profession," Witty said of all the winners.
