It will provide a link between Strawtown Koteewi Park and the White River Campgrounds, both operated by the Hamil-

Parks officials acquired the pieces of three century-old bridges, two from other iron counties and one that was formerly used (pronounced Ko-tay-we) is one of Hamilton bridge across White locally, to engineer a "new" bridge which promises to have the charm of an old iron bridge that was common in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

The project is on a historic site. Unashamed

By LEANN WILSON

"For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels."; Lk 9:-26 NKJV

Jesus had just sent the disciples out to preach the kingdom of God. He told them to on their journey - no food, no money. Not even an extra set of clothes as their supply would come from the Lord. And off they went. Not knowing who would receive them well, accepting the message or who would reject them and thereby essentially reject the King.

Let's go a little deeper - Mt 10:32-33 NKJV "Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven."

Around the brethren, in our usually safe church environment (beware of wolves read your instruction manual, i.e. - your Bible, to identify correctly), we are in a comfort zone where it really takes little effort to remain unashamed. We can debate the words of our Lord and their meaning, discuss the pitfalls and stumbling stones that have seemingly been strategically placed mid path, right under foot, by the evil one. We can even venture to opinion our innermost thoughts regarding when, why and how society lost its values and morality. But at some point after the praise, the message, a little fellowship time - complete with Aunt Martha's testimony - it will be time to go out into that lost world. Into our place of work, into the schools, the ballpark and everywhere else life is lived. And what does He expect His children to do in the World? According to 1 Pe 3:15, we are to be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks a reason for the hope we have in Christ. We are to speak the truth in love; Eph 4:16. We are to let our light shine before men, that they may see our good works and glorify the Father in heaven; Mt 5:16

We are to be unashamed of Him and His words and confess Him before man. But what does it mean to be ashamed of Jesus and his words? Usually we feel shame or are shamed because we have committed some offense that is wrong, or because we have made a mistake, or said something in error. However, the unashamed in the biblical context here is not because of a wrong that has been committed but is "epaischynomai" wrongly placed in Christ!

The apostle Paul said "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the my God, I trust in You; Let me not be power of God to salvation for everyone ashamed; Let not my enemies triumph over who believes..."; Ro 1:16 NKJV. He cautioned us with the reminder that God had "not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord"; 2 Tim 1:7-8 NKJV.

I want to encourage you to let your affiliation be known not just by your bumper stickers and jewelry, but by your actions and words. Let the Spirit within you shine like a beacon. You can proclaim the truth work. with boldness!

Take another look at 1 Pe 3 in verses 14-17 NKJV Peter writes "But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. 'And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled' But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be plays some piano and mandolin.

ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil."

Sanctify God in your heart by making a take nothing with them commitment to give God the reverence that is due. Overcome epaischynomai by being prepared, ".... incline your ear to wisdom, apply your heart to understanding..... And find the knowledge of God."Pr 2:2-5 NKJV, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." 2 Tim 2:15 KJV. "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" Hosea 4:6 NKJV. Know what you know and know why you believe it. To preparedness add unshakable faith - settle the matter once and for all in your heart. Let the spirit guide you "...do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak" Mt 10:19 NKJV. Always remember to speak the truth in love - "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal."1 Co 13:1 NKJV

Take comfort, in John 15:18-20 Jesus himself said "If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you.'

Remember our disciples who had gone out into towns and cities to preach the gospel. Jesus had also told them: And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them." Lk 9:5 NKJV. We speak truth, if the word is not accepted that is not our responsibility. The Spirit draws. The decision to believe belongs the individual.

Jesus willingly made the ultimate sacrifice for us, leaving the throne of heaven to die a torturous death so we may have forgiveness and life everlasting in Glory. Faith and a loving witness are not too much to ask for in return. We must never be ashamed of Christ and His gospel. Proclaim it and apply it to your lives! As a Christ follower you are salt of the earth and what good are we to the Kingdom if we have lost our saltiness. Jesus himself tells us ".....if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be - to be ashamed or embarrassed from a fear thrown out and trampled underfoot by of being singled out or ridiculed due to your men." Mt 5:13 NKJV. Harsh words or lovbeliefs. And obviously a Christ follower ing warning? Jesus promises great reward does not belief his faith is mistakenly or in Heaven to his faithful, unashamed chil-

"To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul. O me." Psalms 25:1-2 NKJV.

I can think of no greater reward than when I enter into His presence on the day of my physical death than to be confessed before God and hear those words "Well done, thou good and faithful servant". Mt 25:21 KJV

We decided that Aiden would make a great attorney when he grows up. He tried so hard to convince us that his Mommy and Daddy let him jump on the bed and wear his shoes on the wrong feet. He rearranged his clothes that were matched up for each day. They didn't always coordinate but the fashion police were not at at daycare.

Getting ready for work while keeping up with two little ones was interesting. I admit to being "that" lady, putting on her makeup as she drove on 126th street about 8:30 in the morning for several days. Sorry 'bout that.

Bedtime was a marathon. I would read them a couple of books, sing them quite a repertoire of songs and say their prayers with them. I'd tuck them into bed and say goodnight...over and over and over again.

One night after several trips upstairs I looked at Chuck and said "how about strawberry sundaes from Culvers?" He waited in the drive thru for 30 minutes and when he returned with them we sat in Emily and Drew's bed and ate them. A sweet reward!

Oh yes, we were tired but we do have wonderful stories to tell. Oh no, we can't tell all of them because what happens with Gma and GrandChuck, stays with Gma and Grand-Chuck.

HSE's McAree medals at Trojan Classic

By RICHIE HALL Reporter Sports Editor

With the IHSAA moving the site of the golf state finals to Prairie View in Carmel, that meant the annual Trojan Classic - also known as the State Preview meet got moved to that course as well.

Twenty-one teams played at the golf club on Longest Drive, and it likely was the longest day they had in a while. Prairie View was a challenging course on Saturday, with difficult pin placements and a tough layout. The golfers slogged through it in a meet that lasted well over six hours.

But in the end, there were some reasons to smile, especially for Hamilton County teams. Hamilton Southeastern's Ciara McAree was the individual medalist. The four county teams all finished in the top five.

The top local squad was -Westfield? Believe it. The Shamplay on Saturday, finishing in second place with a team score of 335. Martinsville won the event by shooting 326.

That meant Westfield finished ahead of Carmel (third), the Royals (fourth) and Noblesville (fifth), which have been the county's Big Three for years. If the 'Rocks keep this standard up, the Big Three could become the Big Four very quickly.

Westfield has a "big three" on its team, with a trio of freshmen that has quickly taken to high school golf. Cailyn Henderson led the way with a 76, followed by Margaret Wentz with 79 and Adrienne Montalone with 84.

"I'm really pleased with how everybody played," said 'Rocks coach Trevor Neu. "It's a really tough course, there's a lot of holes out there that you can be aggressive with, but it kind of brings a lot of big numbers into play. I think our girls did a good job of managing the course and not ending up with having to card those big numbers."

"On this course, that is significant," said Kelly. "It's already a challenging course playing at 5200 yards."

Alyssa Cook was part of a three-way tie for runner-up honors, carding a 75. Maggie Rees helped out with an 81.

'She had a lot of birdies out there to bring herself back," said Kelly of Cook. "She started out with an eagle on 3, that was really

"It was really cool," said McAree. "I've never really won before, so it was new. I'm just trying to put out a good score."

"We're really excited for her," said HSE coach Steve Guenin. "She's been working awfully hard rocks continued their head-turning and for her to come out and hold it together today the way she did, she made some nice putts. Just stayed away from big numbers and really managed the course."

Noblesville's fifth-place score was 364. Peyton Gigante led the Millers with an 83.

"I think they did pretty well for as tough as the course was," said NHS assistant coach Kathie Von Itter. "We have some young girls out here today, so they'll get better as the season goes on."

Guerin Catholic finished second in the Monroe Central HS Invitational at Hickory Hills GC.

The Golden Eagles were led by Marissa Singer, who finished in second place with a very solid individual score of 74. Singer was supported by Sarah Baxter with a solid 82 after shooting 45 on her front side and recovering nicely with a 37 on her back nine.

Patricia Leonardo shot a personal best score of 91, she came so close to breaking 90 for the first time. Maggie Kroeff hit some great shots but because of a few tough holes shot a 101. Guerin coach Mark Mathews said that 'was not a true reflection of how she played."

Dani VanBuren, one of Guerin's newest team members shot a 112, in only her third round of golf ever. Mathews said Van Buren "also hit some very nice shots but had a few tough holes that kept her score from being lower.

"All in all a very solid day of golf girls," said Mathews.

Fishers placed second in the New Castle Invitational Saturday, shooting a 340.

Leading the way for the Tigers was senior Katie Brooks with an 81. The shot of the day was recorded by freshman Emma Mc-Cord, who holed out from 109 yards for an eagle.

Marquez wins pole position for Sunday's Red Bull Indianapolis GP

Reigning MotoGP World Champion Marc Marquez of Spain posted a lap of 1 minute, 31.619 seconds on Saturday on his Repsol Honda to win the pole for Sunday's Red Bull Indianapolis GP at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Marquez, the winner from the pole at last year's Red Bull Indianapolis GP, has now won eight pole positions this season and 17 in his MotoGP career. A perfect nine-for-nine in MotoGP races this season, Marquez will look to tie Australian legend Mick Doohan's modern-era record of 10 consecutive wins. He will also be chasing his fourth win at IMS to go along with his Moto2 victories in 2011 and 2012 and his MotoGP win last year.

The 27-lap MotoGP race starts at 2 p.m.

"We found a really good setup with the new layout and corners," Marquez said. "We changed a little bit from last year because it's less stop and go, and you need to the previous standard of 214.5 mph (345.2 keep more corner speed. So we tried to do that. And I feel good, especially for the race. I have a good rhythm. I feel comforthappy for the pole because after holidays, again to get the confidence, it's important. Tomorrow I hope for a normal race, dry race, and try to fight for the victory."

at Indianapolis, Andrea Dovizioso of Italy time of 1:36.883. The 25-lap Moto2 race posted the second-fastest qualifying time of will start on Sunday at 12:20 p.m. 1:31.844 on his Ducati and will start on the grid next to Marquez. This is Dovizioso's Australia, who crashed this morning during best qualifying effort of the season. He a practice session, won his sixth Moto3 pole started third in France in his only other of the season with a lap of 1:40.727. The front-row start this season.

Rounding out the front row will be twotime MotoGP World Champion and 2009 Red Bull Indianapolis GP winner Jorge Lorenzo of Spain on his Movistar Yamaha, who turned a best lap of 1:31.869. With his performance Lorenzo continues his streak of starting on the front row in each of the seven years of this event.

Other notables in qualifying today include Valentino Rossi of Italy, the six-time MotoGP World Champion and winner of the inaugural Red Bull Indianapolis GP in 2008, who posted a lap of 1:32.160 on his Yamaha to land in the middle of Row 2. Dani Pedrosa of Spain, last year's runner-up and winner in 2010 and 2012, will start on his Honda from the middle of Row 3 after posting a time of 1:32.331.
