The County Line

Community, cultural organizations will share $4 million in funds

By FRED SWIFT

A dozen non-profit community assistance and cultural organizations will share nearly $4 million in county funds next year, courtesy of the Hamilton County Council and Commissioners. In what has become a tradition, county officials grant considerable subsidies to what they feel are deserving organizations which offer services to the community.

The largest of these grants is not really voluntary on the part of the county. The regional mental health facility known as Aspire Indiana will receive $1.9 million next year with the amount mandated by state law as the county's share. Hamilton, Boone, Madison and portions of Marion County contribute to the service.

The next largest recipient of local tax money is Janus Developmental Services which will get $675,000 toward general operations, and about $385,000 to support its countywide bus transportation system. This on-demand service transports the handicapped, the elderly or any member of the public to any requested destination within the county for a modest fee.

Primelife Enrichment is scheduled to receive $220,000 toward its operation which provides county elderly residents with various wellness, fitness and transportation services.

The Hamilton County Economic Development Corporation will get $250,000 to help finance its efforts to draw industry and jobs to the county. It was formerly known as the Hamilton County Alliance, a public-private partnership.

The others include Alternatives at $40,000 and Prevail at $150,000 both of which work to assist and shelter abused women and children; Promising Futures (formerly Hamilton Centers) at $36,000 and Chaucie's Place at $25,000 both of which deal with juveniles in trouble; the County Humane Society, $94,000, which shelters homeless pets;

the Hamilton County Leadership Academy $10,000 and Conner Prairie $15,000.

Many of the cities and townships in the county are also granting funds to some or all these non-profit services.

If you wonder why county money should go to these private organizations, think of it this way: If these groups were not addressing the needs of the dependent elderly, the handicapped, the abused, youngsters with problems and even unwanted domestic animals then the government would end up having to tend to these needs directly.

So, for those who feel the government has control of too many social programs already, then why not let private charitable groups do some of this work with some public financial aid?

Seems like a logical approach, and by the way each of these organizations hustles constantly to raise a lot of their own money through fundraisers, donations and fees.

It might be a good idea if other levels of government would try harder to use this approach for some of the services they develop and control.

World class diver to compete for Heights

There is a new class diver who will participate in Hamilton County at Hamilton Heights High School this coming season.

Brooke Schultz, the daughter of Dale and Darby Schultz, is a sophomore at Heights. She has earned three Junior Nationals diving titles and two Senior Nationals bronze medals.

She began competitive diving in 2008 at the age of nine, competing in her first Junior Nationals in 2009 and her first Senior Nationals in 2011.

Last year, as a freshman, Schultz won the Arkansas High School state championship, setting a state record with a score of 638.07 points.

She represented the United State in the 2013 Junior Pan America Championships, earning the bronze medal in the three-meter synchronized diving event.

Just last month, in Penza, Russia, Brooke won the FINA Junior World Championships in the girls 14-15 age meter event. Brooke's gold medal was the only medal earned by the United States.

Noblesville Main Street presents Live Mannequin Night

Live Mannequin Night will kick off this holiday season as part of Noblesville Main Street's First Friday and "Shop Local" Holiday Promotion. On Friday, Nov. 7, downtown storefronts, restaurants and businesses will come alive depicting scenes from favorite Christmas or holiday movies.

Live mannequins will be comprised of volunteer members of our community who will pose perfectly still, like mannequins, as they recreate a scene from a beloved Christmas or holiday movie. At the end of the night, our community will vote for the business with the most creative window display in the People's Choice competition.

Downtown retailers, restaurants and businesses are being encouraged to stay open late and create a fun holiday feel with dinner specials and holiday shopping enticements in this community holiday open house. This special evening is created to remind our community to "shop local" for their holiday gifts this season.

Visit the Noblesville Main Street Web site at www.noblesvillemainstreet.org to see more details. Complete the online registration form to secure your top choice in movie scenes. Should local citizens have a flair for the dramatic and would like to help make this event come to life, please contact Mike Chesser, event chair, at mwchesser@yahoo.com or 317-645-5022. Carmel safety officials plan Ebola response Safety officials have begun working on guidelines for local fire, police and EMS in the event of a suspected case of Ebola in our jurisdiction.

"Let me first say that while Ebola is highly infectious, it is not highly contagious," said Carmel Fire Chief Matt Hoffman. "But given the events of the last week, we feel a certain level of training and preparedness is in order so that we are ready in the event of a suspected case."

Carmel's plan includes a coordinated effort among city safety departments. Elements include:

>>> Working with Carmel Police to finalize and approve any procedures for the dispatchers at Hamilton County Communications Center when alerting responders of suspected cases of Ebola.

>>> Creating a plan for the protection of Carmel Police officers who might come in contact with potentially infected people.

>>> Updating the Carmel Fire Department response plan, adding a checklist for responders to do an in-field assessment for Ebola based on the most recent guidance from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration and the Centers for Disease Control.

>>> Distribution of video-based training created by Carmel Fire Department medical director Dr. Michael Kaufmann, Medical Director for St. Vincent Emergency Medical Services, on the proper way to put on and take off protective chemical suits and hospital gowns designed to protect the wearer from blood and virus contamination, yet still allow a level of breathability, plus a PowerPoint presentation on Ebola awareness for the firefighters.

>>> Hands-on training to supplement the video-based training for all firefighters from Oct. 18-21, conducted by Carmel Fire Department's Hazardous Materials Coordinator Chuck Plumer.

>>> Exploring logistical options for obtaining more equipment and supplies in the event of a locally identified case of Ebola, including the potential designation of a reserve ambulance for Ebola patients; the procurement of extra entry suits, impermeable gowns and respirators; exploring the current back-order times for commonly required protective equipment; and supply chain integrity among our current vendors.

City officials hope to finalize the plan quickly and be ready to respond to situations or changes as dictated by federal health officials as this Ebola crisis continues.

"While the chances of an Ebola outbreak in Carmel may be slim, being prepared best serves our community. This is not the kind of situation where we can wait to train after the fact. An immediate and well thought out plan is the prudent course of action," said Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard.

Zionsville named eCity for Indiana by Google

Press Release
Google has named Zionsville as the 2014 eCity for the State of Indiana. The eCity Awards recognize the strongest on-line business communities in all fifty states. The businesses in these communities are embracing the web to find new customers, connect with existing clients and fuel their local economies. Zionsville joins the ranks of America's leading cities in the digital economy.
"Zionsville serves as a prime example of how innovation and growth in e-commerce can successfully contribute to bolstering economic progress and competitiveness," said Emma Ogiemwanye, a representative from Google. "Google is proud to recognize Zionsville's accomplishment, and the role it plays in creating Indiana jobs."
BACKGROUND:
Ninety-seven percent of Internet users look online for local products and services.

Businesses need to be where their customers are and in 2014, that is online. The impact of being online is significant—businesses that are online grow twice as fast and are twice as likely to create jobs as their offline counterparts.
Google and independent research firm, Ipsos, analyzed the online strength of local small businesses across all fifty states. They weighed a variety of factors to determine the leading cities and towns across the US, including the likelihood of small businesses to have a website, use a blog, promote themselves on a social network, sell goods directly from their webpages and whether they had a mobile-friendly website. The winning cities exhibited strong engagement and potential for growth within the digital economy. This is the second year Google has announced a list of eCities for the United States. Featuring an exciting entertainment line-up, stimulating sights, plenty of food and drink and a unique midnight extravaganza, Downtown Indy's New Year's Eve Celebration brought to you by The Indiana Union Construction Industry promises to become a new Indy holiday tradition.
Headlining the event will be The White Panda – a nationally recognized and very popular act. They will bring their electrifying EDM (electronic dance music) craze to Downtown. And at 11:59 p.m. on 12/31, when in most cities the traditional "ball drop" takes place, a suspended IndyCar hoisted high above the crowd will descend to a collective countdown amidst great fanfare and fireworks at midnight.
"Indy showed the world it could host a great celebration Downtown during the Super Bowl," said Mayor Greg Ballard. "I am excited to see a similar kind of excitement continue here on Georgia Street as people come together to ring in the New Year."
Joining The White Panda at other times throughout the evening on New Year's Eve will be:
o An Innocent Band – a great regional Billy Joel tribute band
o Corey Cox
o The Groove Factor
o Greta Speaks
o And our House DJ: Fred Lockett AKA DJ Lockstar
The all-ages evening will also feature a chance for revelers to step inside out of the cold thanks to Pacers Sports & Entertainment. Family-friendly activities are planned inside the Entry Pavilion at Bankers Life Fieldhouse with the united support of the Pacers, Fever, Colts, Indians, Fever and the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.
"We couldn't even attempt this event without the support and involvement of our civic partners and sponsors," said Sherry Seiwert, president of Downtown Indy. "We want the entire community to feel welcome to this free event – and that would only be possible with our growing list of sponsors, which currently includes the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, the Indianapolis Star, Visit Indy and our title sponsor, The Indiana Union Construction Industry. Thanks to them – and those who are still considering our sponsorship appeal, we will deliver a top-notch celebration this year and for years to come."

Noblesville falls 21-16...

Millers fight until the end with Avon

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor
Noblesville never gave up against Avon Friday night.
The Millers fought until the end, and played well against the red-hot Orioles, who came flying into Hare Chevrolet Field with a four-game winning streak.
But Avon rode a 200-plus yard performance from its star running back to a 21-16 victory over Noblesville. The win gave the Orioles at least a tie for the Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship at the instant they won. Minutes later, Avon was the outright champion after Fishers lost to Zionsville.
As for the Millers, they finished the regular season 5-4, and tied for third in the HCC with a 3-3 mark.
"For the first time, I felt like we outplayed them," said NHS coach Lance Scheib. "And that's the disappointing part. We had momentum. We've got to finish."
Noblesville played with a remarkable amount of daring. In their first series, the Millers found themselves at 4th-and-16 at the Avon 20. No problem: Luke Melloh made a perfect throw to Jarel Youree, who made a perfect catch and took the ball in to score. Andrew Little's extra point kick put Noblesville up 7-0.

Avon tied it up later in the first quarter, when Derrick Tennant took the ball in from two yards. A second-quarter pass play gave the Orioles a 14-7 lead, which is where the score stood at halftime.
Noblesville began the second half with a big defensive play: Harris Camp intercepted Avon on its first drive at the half. The Millers drove down to the Oriole 3-yard line, but couldn't get it in. Noblesville had to settle for a field goal, which Little nailed in from 21 yards.
"That hurt," said Scheib. "We've got to be able to score it."
Avon responded with another touchdown, with Tennant zooming in to the end zone from 12 yards. Tennant totaled 202 yards for the night.
The Millers refused to go away. Camp stepped in with another interception, and it led to another NHS touchdown. Carl Hardy threw this one, making a 34-yard pass to Brian McLean. Noblesville's two-point conversion try didn't go, but the Millers were back within striking distance at 21-16 with 9:20 left.

But Avon used up almost six minutes of clock with a long drive that ended after Austin Ginther turned a pass on 4th-and-7 into a seven-yard loss. Noblesville got back into Oriole territory, but that ended with two incomplete passes. Avon couldn't run the clock completely out, so the Millers got one more try - but were intercepted on the final play.
The Orioles held the Millers to 15 yards rushing, but Noblesville made up for it with 202 yards passing. Hardy was 10-of-20 for 117 yards, while Melloh was 4-of-6 for 85 yards. Stinnett ran tough for 18 yards.
Noblesville is back home next week for the opening round of sectionals, hosting Carmel.

Sterling Weatherford gets the pick six for Hamilton Heights during its 40-0 win over Peru Friday night at the Husky Dome.

Series ends as it started 15 years ago...

Heights again cages Tigers

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

With Hamilton Heights leading 33-0 and most certainly assured of a 15th straight victory over Peru, it seemed approximate to play the last half of a series ending series between the Huskies and the Tigers by playing a running clock.

The right thing to do. The merciful thing to do.

The Huskies won the Mid-Indiana Conference event with a 40-0 victory and, coupled with Lewis Cass' victory over Western, the Huskies finished second in the MIC.

Coach Mitch Street will take a 7-2 record to a first-round sectional matchup at Indian Creek next week, an Indian Creek team which a year ago eliminated the Huskies from the post-season.

Game time at Indian Creek is set for 7:30 p.m.

"It was a sloppy game," said Street after the victory. "We've got to clean up our game. There were too many footballs on the ground tonight."

But, in all honesty, there weren't lots of reasons for the Huskies to get excited about this game, on this night, against this opponent.

The outcome was decided very early.

Heights' first touchdown came at the 6:01 mark when Grant Weatherford picked up a Peru fumble and returned the ball all the way.

Sectional tickets on sale Monday

Game 1 of the Football Sectional will be played at Indian Creek at 7:30 p.m. next Friday, Oct. 24

Pre-sale tickets will be available in the HS Athletic Office beginning Monday, Oct. 20. Tickets will be $6. See Kurt Ogden for pre-sale tickets.

Then, with 11:42 remaining in the second period, Ethan Jones hit Weatherford on a 12-yard TD toss.

Hamilton Heights' only problem to this point, the Huskies leading 12-0, were a pair of missed extra point kicks.

After scoring just six points in the first quarter, the Huskies put away the game with a 27-0 second period, starting with the Jones to Weatherford TD pass.

Jones went to the air again, this time for Heights' third touchdown, on a 17-yard pass to Jesse Brown. Jacob Glover's kick was good for a 19-0 Husky lead.

Just three plays later, Heights scored again, this touchdown coming on a 42-yard pass interception by the other Weatherford, sophomore Sterling. Glover added the PAT.

Heights ended the first half with a 33-0 lead when Jones hit Evan Ward for a two-yard TD. Glover's kick was good.

The second half was, as Street said, sloppy. Neither team played well. Heights had most of its starters on the sidelines.

The Huskies did score. The touchdown came with only 38 seconds left when backup quarterback Josh Feltz fired the final three yards to sophomore Jason Beck, who had set up the score with a 28-yard run.

The best thing about the second half was that, with the running clock, the final two quarters were played in about 40 minutes.

The individual numbers weren't great, not even for Heights, because the starting Huskies weren't on the field that long and because of the second half running block.

The Huskies ran for just 84 yards. Through the air, Jones had a strong night, hitting on 11-of-18 passes for 133 yards. He threw to Grant Weatherford five times for 88 yards and he hit Brown four times for 41 yards.

Heights' defense gave up very little allowing Peru just 57 yards rushing and only two yards passing. Heights recovered three of Peru's four fumbles.

After good first half...

Bad finish for Sheridan

What started out to be a promising Friday night for Sheridan in Tri-Central turned into anything but that as the Blackhawks fell to the Trojans, 40-21, and, thus, finished second in the Hoosier Heartland Conference.

J. Chesney

Hybarger

The game was tied at 14-14 at halftime, but then the Trojans outscored the Blackhawks 26-7 in the second half. The two teams could meet again, soon. They both play in the same sectional and could meet in the championship game. Sheridan will open the sectional at home against Tindley. Tri-Central's opening game has been canceled. Clinton Prairie had a group of seniors which refused to play the last game of the regular season and also in the sectional and that school has forfeited to Tri-Central. Tri-Central last evening played a style of football usually reserved for Sheridan. The Trojans got off 60 running plays and 20 passes compared to just 25 running plays and 12 passes for the Blackhawks.

Sheridan flatout couldn't get the Tri-Central offense off the field as the Trojans ran for 249 yards and passed for 182 yards. Sheridan finished with 192 yards on the ground and 139 yards through the air. The Blackhawks' opening touchdown came with 1:43 left in the first quarter on a 55-yard run by Austin Hoover. Katie Hybarger kicked the extra point. Tri-Central also scored in the first quarter and then successfully went for a two-pointer, giving the Trojans an 8-7 lead.

quarter on a 51-yard run by Jacob Chesney. Hybarger added the extra point. Hoover had a big game for Sheridan. Hamilton County's leading rusher ran 21 times for a total of 121 yards. Garrett Chesney completed 5-of-11 passes for 139 yards, including four to brother Jacob Chesney for 119 yards.

Undefeated season for...

Carmel's MIC champions

Carmel finished with its first undefeated football season since 1986 and captured, outright, its only championship in the 17-year history of the MIC Conference (the other was in 2009) with a 27-20 home turf victory over Lawrence Central last evening.

Miller

Burks

It wasn't easy, not from the beginning when Carmel trailed 13-7 at halftime. It wasn't easy in the second half when Carmel outslugged the Bears, 7-0, scoring the winning touchdown with 1:57 left in the game and then protecting that margin by intercepting a pass in the final seconds. Thus, Coach Kevin Wright's No. 1 ranked Greyhounds finish the regular season at 9-0 and are waiting a sectional opener next Friday at Noblesville. Last evening, Carmel's defense flatout couldn't stop running back Gerrid Doaks or quarterback Brian Haas. Doaks carried the ball 30 times for 201 yards and two touchdowns. Haas completed 9-of-36 passes for 156 yards. Haas was intercepted once, and that was a big interception. With Lawrence Central driving to Carmel's 37-yard line in the closing seconds, the Greyhounds' Logan Miller intercepted a Haas pass to end the fight between two MIC giants. Carmel had taken a 27-20 lead with 1:57 left on a 41-yard pass from Issac James to Chris Perkins and a PAT kick by Nick Stacy. James, who carried the football nine times for 116 yards and a TD, was just 3-of-6 throwing the football, good for 69 yards and the 41-yard game winner. Carmel used its muscle from all areas. Shakir Paschall, the all-state running back, carried 20 times for 136 yards. He, James and Perkins each rushed for a touchdown. Perkins caught the one pass for 41 yards and the game-winner. On the defensive side of the ball, Cameron Hunt led the Greyhounds with nine unassisted tackles. Noah Burks had eight tackles and two assists; Alex Osleger seven tackles and Kendal Hune finished with six solos. It took all of that defense for Carmel to get Doaks and Haas under control. After Carmel had taken a 7-0 first quarter lead on a 56-yard run by James and a PAT by Stacy, the high-powered Lawrence Central offense went to work, outscoring Carmel 13-0 in the second frame. The first six LC points came on 22-yard and 28-yard field goals. Then Doaks ended a 10-play, 42-yard drive with a one yard TD run. That sent Lawrence Central to halftime with a 13-7 lead.

The Greyhounds broke out of the second half gate by scoring twice. Paschall went four yards with 10 minutes left in the third quarter and Connor Coghlan kicked the extra point to tie the game at 13-13. Perkins then went off tackle for one yard and Stacy kicked the extra point go give Carmel a 20-13 lead with 1:56 remaining in the period. LC bounced back to tie the game before the quarter ended on a 74-yard run by Doaks. That set the stage for James' winning pass to Perkins.

Guerin pounds Culver

Guerin Catholic turned a long road trip to Culver Academy Friday evening into a short joy drive home as the Golden Eagles unloaded for a 27-0 victory. Coach Tom Dille's first Guerin team, thus, finished the regular season with a 6-3 record and will put that mark on the line against Lawrenceburg next Friday in the first game of the sectional. Guerin led Culver just 14-0 at halftime before breaking the contest open with 13 more points in the third quarter. The winners got the job done with quarterback Matt Labus throwing to a pair of outstanding receivers, Brian Matthews and Arion Shinaver, and with young Johny Swidan running wild on the ground. Labus hit on 8-of-13 passes for 105 yards and three touchdowns. Matthews

The Guerin defense turned in an outstanding game, holding Culver to 27 yards rushing and 87 yards passing. Labus opened the scoring n the first quarter on a 16-yard pass to Matthews. Caleb Quick kicked the extra point. The Eagles made it a 14-0 game before halftime, this time on a short two-yard pass from Labus to Fettig. Guerin Catholic put the icing on the

A 27-17 shocker in the ‘Ville...

Fishers loses HCC title

What had been an unbelievably great season for Fishers Tigers ended as an unbelievable flop Friday evening at Zionsville as the Tigers dropped a 27-17 decision to the last place team in the conference.

Fishers needed a victory from Noblesville over Avon, which it didn’t get, and a victory over Zionsville, which it didn’t get, to win the conference outright. But, the Tigers forgot to bring their game on the road and, thus, had to settle for a second place finish in the HCC.

Avon won the conference outright with a 5-1 record. Fishers finished second at 4-2. Now, next Friday, Fishers will try to pick up the pieces when the Tigers open post-season play against backyard rival Hamilton Southeastern.

The game last evening was in doubt until the Eagles outscored the Tigers 12-2 in the fourth quarter.

Kinder

Fishers had trailed 6-0 after one quarter; 12-7 at halftime and the game was tied at 15-15 entering the final period.

Zionsville blew it open on a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns by quarterback Drew Bertram, the first on a six-yard quarterback keeper and the second on a 13-yard pass to Joel Janak.

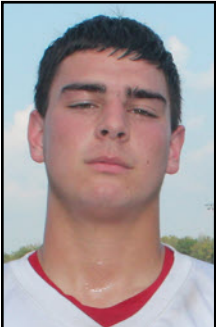

Bertram gave the Fishers pass defense trouble all evening long, hitting on 13-of-22 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns.

At the same time, on the other side of the football, Zionsville’s defense held Maurice Campbell to under 100 yards rushing for the first time this season. Campbell carried 23 times and finished with 90 yards.

Bertram drew first blood when he hit Ben Hudson for 30 yards and a TD with 2:25 left in the first period.

The Eagles went up by two touchdowns on a second-quarter 39-yard run by Matt Penola.

Fishers finally got on the board with just 49 seconds left before halftime when Eaton tossed six yards to Joey Shemon.

Both teams put points on the board in the third quarter. Connor Drake kicked a 22-yard field goal for Zionsville. Eaton tied the game at 15-15 on a one-yard run.

That set the stage for Bertram’s two big touchdown plays in the fourth quarter. Fishers, in the period, was limited to a two-point safety.

Fishers’ defense was held by Michael Kinder with eight solo tackles. Luke Harbison had five.

Sold out crowd welcomes pro hockey back to Indy

In front of a capacity crowd of 6,477 at the Fairgrounds Coliseum, the Indy Fuel were edged 5-4 in a dramatic shootout loss on Friday by the Fort Wayne Komets in the Fuel’s inaugural game as a member of the ECHL. With the loss, the Fuel fell to 0-0-0-1 on the season and with one point sit alone in second place in the ECHL’s North Division standings.

Inspired by a memorable rendition of the Star Spangled Banner delivered by Chicago Blackhawks’ national anthem singer Jim Cornelison, the Fuel started briskly on Friday, rattling off back-to-back first period goals at 10:18 and 17:42 of the frame courtesy of Mathieu Brisebois and Pete Massar, respectively. In the second period, a give-and-go power-play tally by Robert Czarnik at 6:47 of the middle frame, assisted by Rhett Bly and Nick Jones, pushed the Indy lead to its largest point at 3-0 entering the third.

Fort Wayne came to life in the final period, however, as Matthew Pistilli, Paul Crowder, Kaleigh Schrock and James Martin tallied four unanswered Komets goals, but a Patrick Cullen deflection with just one minute remaining in regulation, assisted by Brisebois and Massar, lifted the Fuel into a 4-4 tie and the team’s first overtime period in franchise history.

After a scoreless extra session, the Fuel and Komets engaged in a shootout that lasted nine full rounds. Despite Indy shootout scores from Brett Perlini and Brisebois, an Eric Faille score for Fort Wayne delivered the Komets a 5-4 shootout win in the first of 11 head-to-head meetings between the two teams this year.

Next up for the Fuel, it’s a Saturday rematch with the Komets set for 7:30 pm at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum in Fort Wayne. Full coverage of Saturday’s game begins at 7:15 pm on the CBS Sports 1430 live stream on www.cbssports1430.com with Fuel broadcaster Tony Brown providing the play-by-play. The Fuel drop the puck on their next home game at 7:05 pm on Wednesday, October 22nd vs. the Kalamazoo Wings at the Fairgrounds Coliseum on “College Night.” All ticket holders that present a valid college I.D. will receive a $5 concessions voucher.

In 2014-15, the Indy Fuel, the proud “AA” affiliate of the NHL’s Chicago Blackhawks and AHL’s Rockford IceHogs, drop the puck on their first season in the ECHL. Season ticket packages for the Fuel’s inaugural campaign are available now starting at just under $12 per game! To reserve your seats, contact the Fuel today at (317) 925-FUEL or visit www.indyfuelhockey.com for more information. Be sure to follow the Fuel on Twitter @IndyFuel and don’t forget to ‘Like’ the official “Indy Fuel” fan page on Facebook.
