The Eternal and Immortal Soul

By LEANN WILSON

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.” Romans 6:23 (NKJV). At death the body gives up the soul or rather, the soul sheds its flesh. We see this in Acts 7:59 with Stephen, the first Christian martyr, who in the midst of a fatal stoning cries out to the Lord "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit" just prior to his “falling asleep”- a term oft used throughout the Bible to denote physical death. Jesus is also said to have “yielded up His spirit” at the time of His death Matt 27:50. In both cases the word “spirit” is a word that the Greeks used for the word “soul” - “pneuma” which is a human spirit or rational soul (also meaning angel, demon or divine spirit depending on which scripture you are reading).

The soul rid of its temporary housing ventures on into eternity. Into “everlasting punishment” or “eternal life” Matt 25:46. It may not sit well with the sophisticated of society whose ears are closed and who have poisoned their own minds to even the consideration of a literal place called Hell, but it does exist! There are scoffers scoffing "Where is the promise of His coming?" 2 Peter 3:4 (NKJV) but then, the “message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing” 1 Cor 1:18 (NKJV). Satan’s greatest weapon is that people no longer believe that he or his abode really exist! But my Bible tells me that hell, hades, is a real place. A place that is underground in the lowest parts of the earth (Amos 9:2 & Psalm 63:9), it is a prison with gates (Matt 16:18) holding souls (Acts 2:27) in eternal “blackness of darkness forever” (Jude 1:13). It is a place of torment (Luke 16:23) where “There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Matt 13:50) filled with “shame and everlasting contempt” (Dan 12:2). Hell my friend is eternal (Matt 25:46 &) and here the souls of the lost “shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb and the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night” Rev 14:10-11 (NKJV). It is a place that was prepared for Satan and his angels (Matt 25:41). One day this holding cell will give up its dead for judgment and in the end all whose names are not written in the Book of Life along with Death and Hades will be cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death (Rev 20:14). Here will reside all the “condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness” 2 Thess 2:12 (NKJV), “ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ” Jude 1:4 (NKJV) for “If we deny Him, He also will deny us” 2 Tim 2:12 (NKJV). “...He who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him” John 3:36 (NKJV). All these will be forever separated from anything that is good, separated from presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power (2 Thess 1:9).

But THUS SAYETH THE LORD “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last. I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death” Rev 1:17-18 (NKJV)!! “Our God is in heaven” (Psalms 115:3). “A habitation, holy and glorious” (Isaiah 63:15). Described as “Paradise” by the Apostle Paul (2 Cor 12:4). Here we will see our Lord and the Father face to face (1 John 3:2). He is on His throne in His holy temple (Psalms 11:4), surrounded by the heavenly host (1 Kings 22:19) and “His kingdom rules over all” (Psalms 103:19). Where the “The wolf and the lamb shall feed together” (Isaiah 65:25) and a child “shall play by the cobra's hole” Isaiah 11:8 (NKJV). A place of pure light as “God is light and in Him is no darkness” (1 John 1:5). A place of pure love as “God is love” (1 John 4:8). “It is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him” 1 Cor 2:9 (KJV). And in this place is a place prepared for you (John 14:2)! Here together and forevermore, we will be with God who will wipe away every tear. Here there will be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying, and there will be no more pain (Revelation 21:3-4). Here will live the redeemed.

Jesus who was crucified on Good Friday came out of the grave, raised from the dead He ascended in body to heaven and sits at the right hand of God making intercession for us (Matt 27:35, Rom 8:34, 1 Cor 15:4). This redemption came at a cost for it took blood to atone for fallen man. It was God who declared “For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul” Lev 17:11 (NKJV). “In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins” 1 John 4:9-10 (NKJV). This is a word worth lingering on, propitiation – “Hilasmus” – expiator – to put an end to, to make amends for, to extinguish guilt. It’s a verb as it took an action. Betrayed, bound, stripped, spat on, mocked, beaten – innocent (Matt 26:47 – 27:50). “He raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come” 1 Thess 1:10 (NKJV). Jesus said “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me” John 14:6 (NKJV). God is “longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance” 2 Peter 3:9 (NKJV) “But your iniquities have separated you from your God; And your sins have hidden His face from you, So that He will not hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, And your fingers with iniquity; Your lips have spoken lies, Your tongue has muttered perversity. No one calls for justice, Nor does any plead for truth. They trust in empty words and speak lies; They conceive evil and bring forth iniquity” Isaiah 59:2-4 (NKJV). But glory to God, who proclaims "In an acceptable time I have heard you, And in the day of salvation I have helped you” “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” 2 Cor 6:2 (NKJV)! "Look to Me, and be saved, All you ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other” Isaiah 45:22 (NKJV).

The Bible says that now, in this lifetime, “at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” Phil 2:10-11 (NKJV). But there will come a day when “we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written: As I live, says the LORD, Every knee shall bow to Me, And every tongue shall confess to God” Romans 14:10-11 (NKJV). The emphasis is in the tense of the verb, we should bow now because we will bow then. A gift of salvation and eternal life with Him has been given. It is through faith this gift is accepted for "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” Romans 10:8-10 (NKJV).

"Today, if you will hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion” Heb 3:7-8 (NKJV), “Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. He who has an ear, let him hear” Rev 3:20-22 (NKJV).

At the joint meeting with the County Council, the Commissioners said if there is not a change by the State Legislation the County may not move forward with this project at this time.

“We are in the process of hiring a construction manager to help us along with this project,” Dillinger said. “We’ve got the money, but after $12 million the State Legislation won’t let us use it.”

At the meeting, County Council president Rick McKinney asked what offices will be put in the expansion. County Attorney Mike Howard replied the first floor will be the auditor, assessor, treasurer and recorder. Councilman Rick Ayers said he does not see the value of moving all of the Assessor’s office to downtown Noblesville. Altman replied almost every assessing function can be done online.

Another item of concern is the County becoming a part of building a public safety training facility, located on the west side of Noblesville and east side of Westfield.

“We’re getting a lot of pressure from fire chiefs and police chiefs to do something,” said Dillinger. “Such a facility would save the cost of sending our people elsewhere for training, and, we’re told, will become a revenue raiser for us with other areas coming to train here.”

At the time of the meeting, the Commissioners said the training center was “third or fourth on the list of priorities.”

Another project brought into the discussion was a domestic violence shelter in Hamilton County. Altman reported this is “not a dead issue,” even though the group Alternatives pulled out.

There also is a need, the Commissioners told the Council, for more space at the County Jail. A change in the law means that the County will need to house more “D” felons after July 1, 2015. The State is supposed to be sending money for this project, but no one seems to know if that will be for capital expenses. The County is budgeting $50,000 for a study to finish the third floor on the Community Corrections building.

“All of these projects are valued,” Dillinger said. “But, the county is like schools, businesses, residents, we have only so much money in our budget.”

County residents wishing to talk to their Commissioner can do so by calling Heirbrandt at 776-8498; Dillinger at 776-8410 and Altman at 575-0599.

Fall agri-tainment in Noblesville

By BRIAN REDDICK

One of the best kept secrets in Hamilton County is Noblesville's Russell Farms. Located at 12290 E. 191st Street on the northeast side of Noblesville it's a short drive from anywhere in the county. Each fall owners Laura and Daryl Russell open their farm to the public to celebrate old fashion family fun on the farm.

Russell Farms has been a working farm for over fifty years functioning as a dairy and grain farm as well as raising livestock. The Russells love teaching kids and adults alike about life on the farm and their experiences in agriculture.

Take one of the tractor pulled hay wagons out to the pumpkin patch to select your very own hand picked from the vine pumpkin. Or maybe take some time to complete a scavenger hunt through one of the two enormous corn mazes.

Owner Laura Russell said this was their thirteenth year in operation and the entertainment side of the farm grows bigger and bigger every year. This year the Russells added a 26 foot triple lane inflatable slide. Russell Farms offers hay rides, a pumpkin patch, a ten acre and five acre corn maze, farm animals, a farm themed miniature golf course and much much more. Definitely make sure you take time to visit the country store. They offer fall decorations, fudge, apple butter, toys, candles, clothing, candy and warm apple cider just to name a few things.

The farm is open on Friday's 2pm – 6pm and Saturday and Sunday from 10am – 6pm through October 26th. For a full list of all the attractions at Russell Farms visit www.russell-farms.com or call (317) 773-9078.

Going to the Dogs

By AIMEE GEBHART

For the past few days, Ed and I have been watching my parents' dog, Kelsey, while they are out of town. Kelsey is a feisty little Westie who looks like a ball of coconut but acts like a ball of fire. She is truly adorable...until she gets together with my dachshund, Scout. Then the two of them turn into Thelma and Louise, leaving a trail of destruction in their path.

My first major mishap with this dynamic duo happened about a year ago. I came home sick from work one day while Kelsey was a house guest, and all I wanted to do was make some soup and go to bed. Instead, I ended up in the middle of a wrestling match when a solicitor came to the door and the two dogs went nuts trying to kill each other in the doorway.

As I stood there, sick and tired, trying to hold the snarling beasts, I really wasn't sure who I resented more: the dogs or the solicitor who had the audacity to continue with her spiel as though nothing was happening in front of her. Needless to say, she didn't make her sale, and I didn't make my soup. I was too spent from playing referee.

Fast forward to yesterday. You'd think that in the span of a year these two furry friends would have aged enough to mellow out a bit. Not so much. Once again I came home from a rough day and walked right in to a scene from the movie Beethoven.

As I wrangled the girls out the back door to go potty, I realized that the recent rain had turned my backyard into a mud pit. In case there's any confusion, muddy yard = muddy paws = muddy carpet. No thanks. So, I made the decision to put each dog in the bathtub. Picking Kelsey up to carry her upstairs was an Olympic feat. I'm not sure how one little dog can weigh so much, but I'm pretty certain she's made of lead.

As I tried to heave the Tasmanian devil up the stairs to the tub, the doorbell rang. When I opened it up, there were about 8 teenage boys on my front lawn staring up at my favorite tree. Their spokesman explained that they accidentally threw a football and got it stuck in said tree. He politely asked for permission to get it down. At that point, I didn't care if they sawed it in half. I just needed to get the muddy beast in the bath! So I gave him my blessing and headed for the tub.

After washing Kelsey's little feet, I was starting to think that she was cute again. That's when she took off out of the bathroom and headed straight for the guinea pigs in Faith's room. After a game of chase, I finally snatched her up and hauled her downstairs where I could hear Scout barking her fool head off in the backyard. I repeated the same routine with my little sausage, and at that point, I was whipped. I was sweating, tired, cursing, and covered in muddy paw prints.

As I finally fell into my recliner, I heard the doorbell ring again. I leaned forward just enough to see a little kid on my front porch. He was clearly there to sell me something. Behind him, the teenage boys were still trying desperately to get the ball out of the tree. Inside, the dogs were barking like crazy again. And me? I just slowly leaned back in my recliner and thought, "Nope. Not today, kid. Not today." The next time my parents go out of town, I'm going with them.

Five county schools stopped in conference chases

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Entering Friday's regular season finales, six of Hamilton County's eight football teams still were in the running for conference championships. Guerin Catholic is not in a conference, and Westfield was out of the picture in the Hoosier Crossroads.

Only Carmel, playing in the Metropolitan Conference, came away with a trophy.

The Greyhounds defeated Lawrence Central, 27-20, to finish 7-0 in the MIC.

Playing in the conference for 18 years, this is only the second time for Carmel to outright capture the championship. The other time was in 2009. Carmel did share the title in 2012, 2008 and 2000.

For the other five county teams which had a chance, last Friday was a terrible ending for all five.

Fishers needed only a victory over last place Zionsville to tie with Avon in the Hoosier Crossroads. A Fishers victory at Zionsville and a Noblesville victory over Avon would have given Fishers the championship outright. Neither happened. Fishers was upset and Noblesville didn't win. Fishers and Westfield shared the crown last year. This is only the second time in the last eight seasons that a team from Fishers or Hamilton Southeastern did not win the HCC.

As things turned out, had Noblesville beaten Avon the Millers, Avon and Fishers would have tied for first place. That didn't happen.

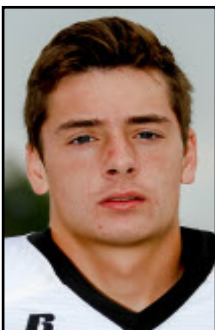

Sheridan needed a win at Tri-Central to claim the Hoosier Heartland hardware. That didn't happen. Sheridan had won the first two championships since joining the conference but now has placed second to Tri-Central each of the last two seasons..

In the Mid-Indiana, Hamilton Heights did its part in trying to catch Lewis Cass. The Huskies needed a victory by Western to tie Lewis Cass for first. That didn't happen. Heights had won outright or shared the Mid-Indiana crown four of the last five years.

The Carmel boys tennis team had another heated battle with North Central on Saturday, this time for the IHSAA state championship. The Panthers won 3-2, but the Greyhounds' No. 1 doubles team of Matt Quammen and Radha Vishnubhotla qualified for next weekend's state doubles tournament.

Panthers edge 'Hounds for state title

By RICHIE HALL

Between them, Carmel and North Central had won 26 state championships in boys tennis coming into this year's state meet.

Saturday morning, that number would become 27, as the Greyhounds and the Panthers clinched semi-final wins. It was another tense meeting between the two, and North Central won this round, beating Carmel 3-2 to win this year's IHSAA boys tennis state championship.

The final was played at Indianapolis Racquet Club, as showers and threatening skies forced the tournament away from North Central's Barbara Wynne Tennis Center. The morning semi-finals were played outside, but that was all the weather would allow.

It's the 19th state title for the Panthers, while the Greyhounds have won eight. North Central finished the season with a 22-1 record, while Carmel ended at 21-1.

"It's been going on for 40-something years, probably," said 'Hounds coach Mike Bostic. "Back and forth. Tip our hats to them. Played great. They got the momentum early, and we just couldn't recover. They played like champions today. But our guys fought hard all year long, and if you're one of the last two teams standing at the end of the year, you should be very proud of your season."

The Panthers won at Nos. 2 and 3 singles first, giving them a 2-0 advantage. Carmel won its first point at No. 2 doubles, with Patrick Fletchall and Zach Hennessey emerging victorious in a roaring second set tiebreak. The score was 6-1, 7-6 (5).

That gave the Greyhounds a little bit of hope, but NC snatched it away by winning at No. 1 singles. Carmel did prevail at No. 1 doubles, with Matt Quammen and Radha Vishnubhotla coming back to win in three sets. That victory is important, as it sends Quammen and Vishnubhotla into the IHSAA state doubles tournament next week-end.

"That's why we kept playing, we had something to play for," said Vishnubhotla. "I thought it was really special that we could fight back and come back and win that."

Vishnubhotla received another honor after his match, when he was named the IHSAA's Mental Attitude Award Winner. The son of Vishnu and Lakshmi Vishnubhotla, Radha has distinguished himself as an academic star as well: He carries a 4.27 grade-point average - that includes 29 Advanced Placement or honors classes.

"Receiving the Mental Attitude Award means a lot to me," said Vishnubhotla, who said he has been "working hard in everything I do, scholarship, leadership," as well as trying to represent Carmel High School the best he could.

The Greyhounds advanced to the final with a 4-1 win over Jasper in the semi-finals. Both Carmel doubles teams won in straight sets, as did No. 1 singles Nick Werner and No. 3 singles Azad Koya. North Central advanced by beating Delta 5-0; the Eagles were undefeated all the way through the state semi-finals.

‘Hounds, Tigers win regionals, Heights falls

After squeaking past Cathedral in penalty kicks in Wednesday's regional semi-final, Carmel coach Frank Dixon wanted his team to remember how to start scoring goals. The Greyhounds figured it out just in time for Saturday's championship. Host and No. 2-ranked Carmel stunned No. 1 Brebeuf Jesuit 3-1 to win the regional for the first time since 2011. The 'Hounds will travel to Evansville Harrison next Saturday to compete in the semi-state. Carmel had been walking a dangerous path throughout the post-season, needing overtime against both Guerin Catholic and Zionsville to win the sectional, followed by the dramatic showdown with Cathedral. But something switched on between the semis and the final.

"Partially we figured it out, and partially the way they defended helped us out a little bit, because they're a high-scoring team," said CHS coach Frank Dixon. "They want to go forward, and they're not changing just because they're playing Carmel. They didn't change a whole lot." The Greyhounds got their first goal in the 28th minute. Amanda Shaw received a free kick, and she sent it into the net with a perfect kick. Shaw is a senior, and she played on the 2011 team as a freshman - Carmel didn't stop at regionals that year, it went all the way to win the 2A state championship.

Shaw struck again in the second half, making a direct kick from the 30 in the 55th minute to put the 'Hounds up 2-0. "We just put away our chances when we had them," said Shaw. "We had a few other ones we should have had we didn't get, but everyone stepped up, we put them away. Our defense had a great game." The Braves threatened late in the second half, when AnneMarie Meyers kicked a ball in from the left side with 7:52 remaining. Ryanne Brown had the assist. Brebeuf looked like it would get another chance with around a minute left on a corner kick. But Carmel fended it off, then soon took the ball down the other side of the field, where Samantha Eastes scored with 21 seconds left. Chandler Backes had the assist. It was a good example of how Dixon called soccer a "game of transition." "It's those seconds in between when it's going from offense to defense where you can get caught or you can catch the other team," said Dixon. "That last goal's a good example of that." Celene Funke had a great game as goalkeeper. She had five saves, including some crucial ones when Brebeuf was charging in the second half. Carmel is now 16-1-3 and plays Center Grove in the first game of the semi-state. FISHERS WINS Fishers defended its regional championship at Logansport Saturday, beating Marion 4-0.

Maryna Clark scored two goals, with Kylie Hohlt and Kennedy Turner both scoring one. Alex Reibel had two goalkeeper saves, and Hannah Sullivan made one save. The Tigers (13-1-6) will play Lake Central next Saturday in the South Bend St. Joseph semi-state. HEIGHTS FALLS TO WEST LAFAYETTE By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor For a fourth consecutive year West Lafayette has defeated Hamilton Heights in the girls soccer regional. This time the Lady Red Devils did it 2-1 in overtime Saturday in Arcadia. Kylie Tracanna scored a goal for the winners in the first five minutes of the game and then scored again in the overtime. The Lady Huskies had tied the count at 1-1 on a goal by junior Hannah Cochran with 2:35 to play in regulation. "This one is really hard to take," said Heights coach Travis Kauffman. "We thought all week and throughout the game that we could defeat this team. "I thought when we scored the goal that we were going to win. There was new life in the team. "Coaches always can find mistakes," Kauffman continued. "Today, we lost too many balls at midfield. "We'll lose four starters, including our keeper, so it will be tough coming back without them next season."

The Guerir Catholic boys soccer team won its fourth consecutive regional championship on Saturday, beating Northwestern 4-1 at the Golden Eagles' field. Guerir will play Blackhawk Christian in next Saturday's LaVille semi-state semi-final.

Four goals give Guerir boys four-peat

Guerir Catholic made it four in a row Saturday, taking care of Northwestern 4-1 in the championship game of its own regional.

The Class 1A No. 1 Golden Eagles scored early in the first half, then scored often in the second half to beat the No. 6 Tigers. Guerir qualified for the LaVille semi-state, where it will take on Blackhawk Christian in a semi-final next Saturday.

"I think we were able to break their pressure in the second half," said GCHS coach John Cech. "The last 10 minutes of the first half and then for the entire second half, we played with a lot of patience, and we controlled the ball, moved it around a lot better than we did in the middle 20 minutes of that first half. And I think that was the difference."

The Golden Eagles got on the board in the fifth minute, with Khalid Hunter scoring the goal. That 1-0 lead would hold for quite a while, past halftime and well into the second half.

But Guerir Catholic started to pour it on in the second half. Andrew Kaskie scored off a corner kick by Mason May with 13:27 left in the game, then Luke Bestard touched in a kick from Zach Garvey four minutes later.

Jim Kiffmeyer scored on a long kick with 5:07 left, giving the Golden Eagles their fourth goal. Northwestern scored with 29 seconds left, but the game was well in hand by then.

Guerir Catholic is now 19-2 for the season.

Cross country regionals...

Carmel wins team crowns, HSE's Nichwitz takes girls race

Hamilton County had six teams advance to semi-state on Saturday: Three girls squads and three boys squads.

All the teams were top five finishers at the Noblesville regional, which took place at the Chanquapin Ridge cross country course. In the girls race, Carmel won the team championship, with Hamilton Southeastern second and Noblesville third.

All three will run to Northview Church next Saturday for the Carmel semi-state. In addition, four individuals from Fishes, three from Guerin Catholic runners and one from Westfield qualified for semi-state as well.

The Royals had the race winner, with Rachel Nichwitz racing home in 18:06.70. Courtney Pfanstiel had a great race for HSE, placing third. After that, Carmel came through, taking five positions in the top 11 to add up its score. Anna Schmitz finished fourth to lead the 'Hounds.

Noblesville had two runners in the top 10: Abby Crouch was fifth and Abigail Little ninth.

The Tigers' four individual qualifiers were Corinne O'Leary, Elizabeth Rogers, Hope Scanlon and Lorinda Kirk. The Golden Eagles had Megan Slamkowski, Rachel Yuska and Bella Bucklew advance to semi-state, and Westfield's Devon Leahy qualified as well.

In the boys race, Carmel held off Brebeuf Jesuit 72-78 to claim the regional crown. While the Braves had three of the top eight, the Greyhounds had five runners in the top 20, and that was enough to win.

Teddy Browning led Carmel with a seventh-place finish.

Fishers was fourth, edging Hamilton Southeastern by one point, 114-115. Trevor Thompson took ninth for the Tigers, while freshman Gabe Fendel finished 16th for the Royals.

Westfield had three advancing individuals: Sam Henthorn (sixth place), Alec Hartman and Aaron Bennett. Noblesville qualified Eric Hoffman and Jordan Warne to semi-state, while Guerin Catholic's Christopher Bluish and Kip Curtis also advanced.

Fuel fall in Fort Wayne, 4-3

In the second of 11 head-to-head meetings between the two teams this season, the Indy Fuel were defeated by the Fort Wayne Komets on Saturday by a final score of 4-3 at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum in Fort Wayne, Indiana. With the loss, the Fuel fell to 0-1-0-1 on the season and with one point, dropped to fifth place in the ECHL's North Division standings.

For the second consecutive game, the Fuel stuck first as rookie forward Jamie Wise took control of a loose puck in the right circle of his offensive zone at 9:51 of the opening period and slipped the first goal of his professional career through Fort Wayne goaltender Pat Nagle to make it 1-0 Fuel with Justin Holl collecting the lone assist on the play.

After the Komets tied the game late in the first, Robert Czarnik put Indy back in the driver's seat at 5:04 of the second period with a power-play tally from the top of the left circle, set up by Holl and Nick Jones, that made it 2-1 Fuel. Urged on by a crowd of 8,788 fans, the Komets rallied the rest of the way in the middle period, collecting goals from Kaleigh Schrock and Mikael Tam at 7:49 and 9:52 of the frame to claim a 3-2 lead heading into the second intermission.

In the third, a fortuitous bounce for the Komets delivered Marshall Heard a rebound score at 2:30 of the period to extend the Fort Wayne lead to 4-2. The Fuel made things interesting late in the third, as Indy defenseman Nick Jones pulled Indy within a goal at 4-3 with his first of the season on the power-play at 15:25, but the Komets hung on in the waning moments for their second consecutive victory over the Fuel.

Indy goaltender Cody Reichard stopped 23 of the 27 shots he faced in his first appearance and first start for the Fuel while Nagle followed up a 32-save performance on Friday in net for the Komets with a 31 save showing on Saturday in the Fort Wayne netminder's second consecutive victory.

Next up for the Fuel, it's a Wednesday night showdown with the Kalamazoo Wings at 7:05 pm at the Fairgrounds Coliseum on "College Night!" All ticket holders that produce a valid college I.D. will receive a $5 concession voucher. Full coverage of Wednesday's game begins at 6:50 pm on your flagship station for Indy Fuel hockey, CBS Sports 1430, with Fuel broadcaster Tony Brown providing the play-by-play.

In 2014-15, the Indy Fuel, the proud "AA" affiliate of the NHL's Chicago Blackhawks and AHL's Rockford IceHogs, drop the puck on their first season in the ECHL. Season ticket packages for the Fuel's inaugural campaign are available now starting at just under $12 per game!
