Obituary

Mary Lou Young

October 28, 1939 - October 27, 2014

Mary Lou Young, age 74, of Lebanon, Indiana, formerly of Sheridan, passed away surrounded by her loving family on Monday morning, October 27, 2014, at Homewood Health Campus in Lebanon, one day shy of her 75th birthday. Born October 28, 1939 in Sheridan, Indiana, Mary was the daughter of James Allen and Addila Anna Matilda (Koehler) Beam. She was a homemaker who was very devoted to her family and grandchildren and taking care of her four-legged best friend, her cat Candy. She loved taking walks, working her crossword puzzles and reading her Bible. Mary never missed her twice weekly bingo game either.

Mary is survived by her son, Jeffery Lee (Amanda) Young of Sheridan; her 2 daughters, Rebecca Ann (Scott) Bluck of Lebanon and Janet Marie (Ernest) Truax of Whitestown; 5 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; 4 brothers, Earl Scrogam, Leonard Scrogam, James Robert Beam and Paul Edwin Beam; and an infant sister Emma Pauline Scrogam.

A Celebration of Mary's Life will be held at 7:00 PM, Wednesday evening, November 5, 2014, at Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan. Visitation will be from 4:00 PM until the time of service. Burial will occur at a later date at Hills Cemetery in Pickard, Indiana

Brooke Schultz, a world champion diver who will be attending Hamilton Heights this year, concentrates intensely during diving practice Friday afternoon at the Huskies' pool. Schultz is one of several world-class divers that will be training in the Noblesville/Hamilton Heights area under the supervision of Olympic coach John Wingfield. Read more about Wingfield and some of the divers he coaches in Sunday's edition of The Reporter.

Central Indiana housing sales decrease slightly

Press Release
According to the latest housing data compiled by RE/MAX of Indiana, the number of homes sold in Central Indiana remained steady with a decrease of 1.80 percent during the third quarter of 2014 compared to the third quarter of 2013. From July through September, 8,712 homes sold and closed, compared to 8,872 that sold during the same time last year in the nine-county area.
"Overall, the market experienced stable home sales but little growth during the third quarter, partly due to the heavier scrutiny by mortgage lenders for potential loans," said Chris Schulhof, broker/owner with RE/MAX Realty Services located in the Geist area of Indianapolis.
Home sales in Hancock County saw the most significant increase. Sellers in that market saw the number of homes sold increase by 8.15 percent for the third quarter. Johnson County experienced a 6.14 percent increase in the number of homes sold with Hamilton County holding at .05 percent over the same time last year. Meanwhile, Marion County experienced a decrease in the number of homes sold of 4.14 percent during the third quarter.
Consumers in Central Indiana who sold their homes during the third quarter experienced higher average sales prices, which increased 3.68 percent when compared to sales transactions in 2013. This increase brought the average price for homes up to $176,818.

Shelby County saw the most significant increase in average sales price by 21.21 percent to an average of $122,460, followed by Boone (10.40 percent), Johnson (8.47 percent), Hamilton (3.43 percent) and Marion (2.91 percent) counties.
Meanwhile, the length of time a home sat on the market in Central Indiana increased 1.35 percent to an average of 74 days on market for homes sold from July through September.
Real estate professionals remain optimistic about the market's prospects for the remainder of 2014 based on a stronger indication of sales during the month of September. Closed home sales for Central Indiana increased nearly 10 percent compared to September 2013.
"Lenders are starting to introduce new programs with more options for buyers seeking a mortgage. These programs helped increase activity in September to close out the quarter. That coupled with lower interest rates have led to this momentum, which we expect will continue through the rest of 2014," added Schulhof.
Schulhof recommends sellers consider "staging" as an important part of positioning the home against others in the market while heavily marketing the home. In addition, pricing the home correctly is a critical part of ensuring a successful sale for top dollar.

"We find that old school, traditional print advertising has been as effective as new school advertising on the Internet," said Schulhof. "But no amount of advertising can save a house that's overpriced, which can result in selling the home for less money than it would have if it had been priced correctly from the beginning. The longer a home sits, like a loaf of bread, the less appealing it is."
Broker Mark Linder with the Linder/McClurg Team at RE/MAX Select, which covers the south side of Indianapolis, agrees.
"Homes that were priced correctly and showed well typically sold within 30 days, and many times within the first week," said Linder. "As a result, we've seen more multiple offer situations on homes recently than I had seen in over 10 years."
While the fourth quarter is typically the time sellers take their homes off the market, Linder encourages sellers reconsider that strategy.
"We encourage people whose homes have not sold stick with the market through fall and winter. Those who do will face less competition and have a better chance of selling," said Linder.
Likewise, Linder encourages buyers do not wait until spring to purchase a home, given current low interest rates and sellers willing to sell for a little less than they would have in the spring and summer.

Since Nov. 1 of last year... Vera Bradley Foundation raises $3.2 million for breast cancer research

Press Release
On Friday, the Vera Bradley Foundation for Breast Cancer announced that it has raised a total of $3.2 million for Breast Cancer Research since November 1, 2013. All funds support breast cancer research at the Indiana University (IU) Melvin and Bren Simon Cancer Center in Indianapolis, a nationally ranked cancer center. The Foundation recently pledged an incremental $15 million to the IU cancer center, and the $3.2 million will be the first payment toward this pledge. To date, the Vera Bradley Foundation for Breast Cancer has donated just over $23 million, with a goal to eradicate breast cancer.
"The work the Vera Bradley Foundation for Breast Cancer funds is truly remarkable, and I'm proud that each year this research brings us closer to a cure," Barbara Bradley Baekgaard, Vera Bradley Foundation and Vera Bradley Designs, Inc. Cofounder.
"The support we receive from the Vera Bradley Foundation is astounding, both in dollars that pay for vital research, and also with their energy and passion for making real progress," says Dr. Bryan Schneider, Vera Bradley Investigator.
Schneider is an associate professor of medicine and of medical and molecular genetics and the Associate Director of the Institute for Personalized Medicine at the IU School of Medicine. He is also a member of the breast cancer research program at the IU Simon Cancer Center.

The Carmel football team held off the snow and Fishers to defend its sectional championship Friday at Carmel Stadium. The Greyhounds won 14-7 and will host Fort Wayne Carroll in next week's regional championship game.

Grinding it out in the snow...

'Hounds hold off Fishers to defend sectional title

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

Football teams that go deep into the postseason usually get a bad-weather game at some point. Normally not on Halloween, though.

Mason Davis

It was cold, windy and snowed at Carmel Stadium during the second half of the Greyhounds-Fishers Class 6A Sectional 4 championship game Friday. That made the game even more of a grind, and ultimately Carmel won 14-7 to defend its title. It's the state record 26th sectional championship for the Greyhounds, who will now host Fort Wayne Carroll in next week's regional, hopefully with better weather. Even if it had been 60 degrees without a cloud in the sky, though, the competition between Carmel and the Tigers would've still made this game a classic.

"In a game like this, you're fortunate to win at all," said CHS coach Kevin Wright. "For both teams, hats off. It's a good county for football, all the way across the board."

Carmel helped itself out by scoring on its first drive of the game. Chris Perkins found an opening and ran the ball in 41 yards to score. Nick Stacy made the extra point kick, and the 'Hounds led 7-0 three minutes and 20 seconds into the game.

Fishers got some momentum when it stopped Carmel's drive with a turnover on downs. The Tigers then resolutely marched down the field, with Maurice Campbell leading the way. Fishers finished the first quarter and then began the second period with a 67-yard scoring drive - with Campbell rushing for 63 of those yards.

Zach Eaton completed the drive as the second quarter began, sneaking the ball in from one yard. Anthony Beck tied the game up with his kick.

After that, it became a defensive battle for the remainder of the half. The Greyhounds were stopped twice after going for it on fourth down, while Fishers punted once in the second quarter.

The second half began like the first one did: Carmel scoring quickly. It was Perkins again, running in from 10 yards to score. Stacy converted the extra point to make the score 14-7.

That margin held into the fourth quarter, which became a wild one. Fishers looked like it was on its way to score, getting down to Carmel's 3-yard line. But a penalty pushed the Tigers back 15 yards, and they fumbled on the next play.

However, the Greyhounds fumbled on the very next play, so Fishers had one more chance. Carmel's defense held on, though, recovering a Tigers fumble with less than two minutes left. A first down by Isaac James secured the win.

"It was a heck of a football game, back and forth," said Wright. "We were fortunate to make a stop at the end. Again, this is six games we've won this year by a touchdown or less, so that says a lot about the heart of our kids."

Perkins rushed for 117 yards, including the two touchdowns, while James and Shakir Paschall each had 59 yards.

Campbell had an incredible game, with 202 yards in 34 carries. Fishers coach Rick Wimmer said he was proud of his whole team. He was especially pleased with the defense, saying that the defense "really played well."

"Well enough for us to win," said Wimmer.

Fishers finished its season 7-4.

It was snowy conditions at the Husky Dome Friday night during the Class 3A Sectional 30 semi-final game between Hamilton Heights and Rushville. The Huskies won 31-6 to advance to the championship game.

Weatherford’s 98-yarder breaks it open....

Jesse’s 4 TDs lead Huskies

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Jesse Kerfoot, in and out of the Hamilton Heights lineup throughout the season with an injury, was in big time last evening and just in time as the Huskies fought off a young Rushville team to win 31-6 and advance to Class 3A, Sectional 30 championship game next week at nearby Guerin Catholic.

“We needed Jesse tonight,” said Heights coach Mitch Street as his Huskies, arguably, fought off a let down from their huge victory at Indian Creek last week, or, perhaps, looking ahead to the much anticipated showdown with Guerin Catholic.

What Street got from Kerfoot was four touchdowns and 218 yards rushing on 21 carries.

He wasn’t the whole show, but Kerfoot sparked his team to its 9th victory in 11 games.

This one was expected over a 4-7 Rushville team, but it didn’t come easily. Especially not in the first half when the snow fell and the Huskies started slowly. Snow covered the Husky Dome by halftime as the hosts trotted to halftime with only a 13-6 lead.

The weather cleared in the second half as the Huskies outpointed Rushville 18-0 in the final two periods.

“We didn’t play well in the first half,” said Street, “and I let them know about it at halftime.”

It didn’t take the Huskies long to get the message in the second half. Grant Weatherford returned the second half kickoff 98 yards, and the Huskies were on their way to being home free.

“That was a big play by Weatherford,” said Street.

“On the next series, we got a stop and then went on to score another touchdown. Those were two huge plays,” said the Heights coach.

“I was concerned during the week about a let down after the game at Indian Creek,” Street said. “But, we practiced well during the week.”

But, the first half the Hamilton Heights defense had a tough time getting the Rushville offense off the field as sophomore Jacob Wilson carried the pigskin 20 times for 83 yards. In the second half, Heights held Wilson to 10 carries for 20 yards.

“We just weren’t hitting low enough in the first half and they were getting extra yards even after we made the tackle,” Street said.

Junior lineman Tyler Anderson played a very strong defensive game for the Huskies. “Our offensive line blocked well,” Street said. “The guys up front did a nice job.”

Kerfoot opened Heights’ scoring with an eight-yard run at the 9:03 mark of the first period. Chase Fisher attempted a pass for a two-pointer, but it failed.

Heights, on some outstanding running by Kerfoot, took a two-touchdown lead in the second quarter. The Huskies went 80 yards in eight plays, including 36 and 24-yard carries by Kerfoot, who scored from the five at the 3:55 mark. Cameron O’Malia kicked the extra point for a 13-0 Heights spread.

But, Heights allowed Rushville to get back in the game before halftime. The Lions scored with just 26.5 seconds remaining in the second quarter and trailed just 13-6 at halftime.

Weatherford then broke Rushville’s back, and maybe Rushville’s spirit, by returning the second half kicked for 98 yards and a touchdown.

After stopping Rushville after seven plays, the Huskies scored again. Kerfoot had a 21-yard run and on fourth down Ethan Jones hit Weatherford for 11 yards and a first down. Weatherford made a great sliding catch on the wet turf. At the 4:28 mark of the quarter, Kerfoot scored from the 10 to make it a 25-6 Heights lead.

Heights put the icing on the cake in the fourth quarter when Kerfoot got his fourth touchdown of the evening on a two-yard run.

Heights came away with a thin 236-194 yards rushing margin. Rushville ran 53 rushing plays to Heights’ 28. With the weather, neither team tried many passes. Heights was 2-of-3 for 16 yards.

Rushville didn’t complete a pass against the Heights defense, the Lions going 0-for-5.

Stop Sheridan’s rushing game?

Not when Hoover nets 466

Sheridan football coach Bud Wright doesn’t get upset about lots of things on the gridiron. Maybe when his Blackhawks don’t block, the way Wright thinks they should. Maybe when his Blackhawks don’t tackle, the way Wright thinks they should.

Actually, what is there not to like when you’re a Hall of Fame coach who has won more games than any other coach in Indiana high school football history.

But, one thing, for sure, which gets Wright a little hot behind the ears is when opponents believe they can stop his famed running attack. And, they talk about it.

Wright heard enough from Clinton Central this week. Clinton Central, you know, being the oldest rival on Sheridan’s schedule.

“They said they could stop our running game,” Wright said after the Blackhawks unloaded on Clinton Central, 60-24, in the second round of Class 1A, Sectional 44

Friday evening at Larry Wright Stadium in Sheridan.

In that victory, Sheridan carried the football 64 times for 517 yards.

In that victory, senior running back Austin Hoover carried 54 times for 466 yards.

“We’ve never had a running back gain more than 400 yards in any one game,” said Wright, who has produced a bundle of great running backs during his 49 years at Sheridan. “Of course,” Wright added with a chuckle, “we’ve never had anyone carry the football 54 times in a single game.”

The school’s old single-game rushing record was set by Hoover, 388 yards....last year against Clinton Central.

Last evening, Sheridan scored nine touchdowns and Hoover got eight of those.

Hoover had TD runs of 40, 1, 38, 2, 3, 2, 2, and 5 yards.

Sheridan’s other touchdown, the Blackhawks’ last of the evening with 3:47 remaining, came on a 30-yard run off a pass interception by freshman Joey Callahan.

“Our offensive blocking was very good,” said Wright. “Brooks Lewman, Kent Hollingsworth and Jacob Eidson did a nice job.”

Of course, Wright wasn’t all smiles last evening.

“Our defense didn’t play well, especially in the first half,” he said.

Believe it or not, in the 36-point blowout, Sheridan trailed 12-6 after one quarter and led only 27-18 at halftime. The Blackhawks, after scoring 21 points in the second quarter, outscored Clinton Central 33-6 in the second half.

So, it will be Sheridan and Tri-Central again on Friday in still-another sectional championship game between the two Hoosier Heartland teams. Tri-Central, the defending state champion, has defeated Sheridan three straight times.

No. 1 tumbles on great...

Defensive gem by ‘Rocks

No question, the one big “trophy” Westfield won at McCutcheon Friday evening was a 28-7 victory over the Mavs in Class 5A, Sectional 11 action Friday evening.

That gives the Shamrocks a shot at Harrison, at Westfield, this week for the sectional championship.

But, Coach Jake Gilbert was pleased with lots of other things, too.

“We’re the only Hoosier Crossroads Conference team still standing,” Gilbert announced with great pride.

“And,” he added, “every week in which you win a playoff game, it gives your young kids another week of practice for next season.”

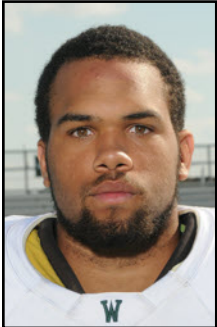

There’s another kicker to Westfield’s latest victory. Westfield defeated the No. 1 ranked team in Class 5A. McCutcheon, which this season played in the North Central Conference after leaving the Hoosier Crossroads, came into the game last evening undefeated. McCutcheon also came into the game with some awesome rushing stats.

Sweet

“That was our goal,” said Gilbert, “stopping their running game. We wanted to stop their

Westfield’s defense held McCutcheon famed ground attack to just 82 yards in 27 carries. McCutcheon, including only 59 yards through the air, had a total offense of just 141 yards.

John Elming, one of the state’s top running backs, carried 22 times and gained just 77 yards

There was even another story to this unbelievable night by Westfield. The

“(Starting quarterback) Ryan Pepiot was injured in practice last week,” said Gilbert. “He could have played had we needed him.”

Sweet directed a running game led by Elvin Caldwell, who carried 26 times for 121 yards and all four Westfield touchdowns.

But, Sweet also had his own game. He hit on 10-of-13 passes for 99 yards. Ben Lotfolian caught six of those passes for 63 yards.

“Sweet did a good job,” said Gilbert. “He had played a little in varsity games this season. He was our freshman team quarterback two years ago and our junior varsity quarterback this season.”

Westfield’s defense was outstanding, led, as usual, by senior linebacker Matt Crupi with three soli tackles and eight assists. Noah Smith had three and four; Cameron Harrison two and four and Bailey Partlow with six assists.

McCutcheon’s only touchdown, a one-yard run by Elming, came after Westfield had jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead.

Westfield got off to a quick start thanks to a pair of plays by the special teams. The Shamrocks forced a fumble on a kickoff to set up the first touchdown and the second score was set up on a punt return by Koby Hauser.

Caldwell gave Westfield the lead by scoring on a 1-yard run with 9:17 left in the first quarter. Nick Dowd kicked the extra point.

Westfield took a two-touchdown advantage when Caldwell scored from six yards out with 3:11 still remaining in the first quarter. Dowd kicked the extra point.

Caldwell added his third TD on a three yard run at the 5:28 mark of the second period. Dowd kicked the extra point.

The Shamrocks ended their scoring in the third period when Caldwell went six yards and Dowd added the PAT.

Westfield, now 6-4 on the year, will enter the sectional championship game next Friday against a Harrison team the Shamrocks opened the season against with a 35-14 victory.

Big third quarter sends Grizzlies past Pacers

The Indiana Pacers made a big statement in their second quarter with Memphis Friday night at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

Unfortunately, the Grizzlies answered, outscoring Indiana 33-14 in the third period and ultimately winning the game 97-89. It was the first loss of the year for the Pacers, dropping their record to 1-1.

Chris Copeland came off the bench to score 16 points. CJ Miles added 13 and Donald Sloan 12 points, also dishing out seven assists. Lavoy Allen pulled down 10 rebounds to go with his eight points.

The Pacers go on the road for the first time this season tonight, playing at Atlanta. Tip off is 7:30 p.m.

Hitchcock TD is his first this season...

Guerin Eagles fly on, 20-13

Guerin Catholic made a long trip to Batesville last evening to earn the right to return to the Eagles Nest next Friday for the championship game of Class 3A. Sectional 30 taking on Hamilton Heights.

And, earn it Coach Tom Dilley's Eagles did. They pulled out a 20-13 victory over Batesville.

In a head-knocker of a defensive battle, Guerin Catholic gave up very little.

Batesville finished with just 28 yards rushing and just 91 yards passing.

Batesville scored first in the opening period on a fumble recovery.

Guerin Catholic took the lead with 14 points in the second quarter. Then, the two teams battled on even terms in the second half, each scoring a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Batesville's second TD also came on a fumble recovery.

Guerin Catholic scored twice in the second quarter. Evan Hansen scored on a five-yard pass from Matt Labus. Jordan Hitchcock scored on a 40-yard fumble recovery. Caleb Quick booted both extra points.

Fuel ice Evansville in 4-3 shootout

In the first half of a two-game week-end home-and-home series, the Indy Fuel defeated the Evansville IceMen in a shootout on Friday by a final score of 4-3 at the Fairgrounds Coliseum. With the win, the Fuel improved to 2-3-1-1 this season and with six points, claimed third place alone in the ECHL's North Division standings.

Evansville claimed an early first period lead as Myles Bell made it 1-0 IceMen at 5:07. The Fuel were quick to respond, however, as Matt White potted back-to-back scores, at 8:41 and 10:12 respectively, to deliver the Fuel their first lead of the hockey game at 2-1.

In the middle frame, Mike Duco's second tally of the season, a power-play marker at 5:59, made it 3-1 Fuel, but Bell's second score of the game followed for Evansville at 15:58 and drew the Ice-

Men within a goal at 3-2 heading into the second intermission.

After a tight start to the third, the IceMen capitalized at 12:25 when Kale Kerbashian lased a tying goal past Fuel goaltender Cody Reichard that eventually forced overtime. After a scoreless extra session, the Fuel received shootout scores from Brett Perlini, Mathieu Brisebois, Robert Czarnik and Jamie Wise to claim a 4-3 victory in front of 2,559 fans at the Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Next up for the Fuel, it's a Saturday rematch with the IceMen with the opening faceoff set for 8:15 pm EST at the Ford Center in Evansville. Full coverage of Saturday's game begins with the "Jose Cuervo Pregame Show" at 8:00 pm on the Fuel's flagship station, CBS Sports 1430 AM with Fuel broadcaster Tony Brown providing the play-by-play.
