“Anyone found to be driving impaired will be arrested,” Bowen stated. “Also, occupants not using seat belts or who are not properly restrained will be cited and given a ticket.”

In November 2013, there were 490 alcohol-related crashes across Indiana resulting in 224 injuries and 13 fatalities. A total of 735 drivers were arrested for driving under the influence and 9,504 seat belt citations were issued to drivers and passengers who were not properly restrained.

“Wearing your seat belt can save your life,” Bowen added. “In Indiana, nearly 50 percent of fatalities in passenger car accidents are due to occupants who did not buckle up.”

Officers also noted that vehicle crashes are the leading cause of death for kids between the ages of 8 and 15. For families with young children, it’s important to have a properly installed child safety seat or booster seat for each child. Parents can visit childseat.in.gov for a list of locations and a toll-free phone number to speak with experts about the proper installation of child safety seats.

Law enforcement agencies from across the state, including the Hamilton County Sheriff’s Office, the Carmel Police Department, the Fishers Police Department, the Noblesville Police Department, and the Westfield Police Department, and troopers from the Indiana State Police are jointly participating in this holiday enforcement effort.

Noblesville Mayor John Ditslear cuts the ribbon during the grand opening ceremony for The Ville Restaurant on the Square Thursday morning.

THE VILLE

Palace, a historic restaurant in New Orleans, under the famous chef and Food Network superstar Emeril Lagasse.

The Ville started its soft launch in September, beginning by serving its dinner menu for about a month and a half before switching over to a soft opening of its lunch menu. Raquel Brooks said that the restaurant tried out its dinner menu first because it's the most elaborate menu, and it was necessary "to make sure our staff could learn the menu," she said.

Lunch is casual at The Ville, with menu items that includes sandwiches, soups, salads, barbecue and Jambalaya. The dinner menu is more upscale, with steak, sea bass and halibut among the offerings.

While the dinner menu is definitely upscale, Keith Brooks wants people to know that one doesn't have to wear a suit and tie to enjoy it. Jeans are fine to wear at The Ville.

"I don't want to call it a stuffy restaurant," said Keith. "It's just a nice place to come and enjoy yourself and have a great evening."

Keith said The Ville is a "family-style restaurant," so children are welcome. The restaurant offers a kid's menu, plus booster seats and high chairs for little ones. (There is a bar area, and you must be at least 21 to sit there.)

Art fans will find something to love about The Ville, as works by local artist

Gabriel Lehman are on display. Lehman has a studio a block away from the restaurant, which made him a perfect partner for the Ville. Raquel Brooks said the artwork "is all his artwork on the main floor, and it's for sale. So we're serving kind of as his gallery."

Business has been going well so far at The Ville.

"So far it's been pretty decent," said Keith Brooks. "The customers that are coming in, I'd say 95 percent of them have been very well pleased. I see them coming back as repeat customers, and they are also bringing friends."

Raquel Brooks said that weekends are the busiest, and that dinner is going very well. She noted that The Ville is on Open Table, which allows customers to make online reservations.

"We have event space upstairs, so we can have a party of 10 and they can all sit together at a big table, and I think that's attractive for people," said Raquel.

The Ville is open for lunch from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and for dinner from 5 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. The restaurant also hosts a Sunday brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. - $18 for adults, $10 for kids. It is closed on Mondays.

Noblesville Police offers.....

Holiday safety tips

Now that the holiday season is officially upon us, the Noblesville Police Department would like to remind citizens of a few safety tips to protect themselves during the holiday season.

PARKING AND SHOPPING AT SHOPPING CENTERS AND MALLS

Parking lots at shopping centers and malls can be a magnet for crime such as thefts from vehicles, vehicle thefts, and purse-snatchings especially during the hectic holiday season. It is important for citizens to always be aware of their surroundings in order to minimize the potential for becoming victimized.

- Park only in well-lighted and highly visible locations.
- Park in areas where there is regular vehicular/pedestrian traffic.
- Always lock doors and activate the car alarm.
- Remove any and all valuables that can be seen from the outside of your vehicle and place them in your trunk (items such as GPS devices, cellular phones, cash and coins and recently purchased merchandise are highly sought after by criminals).
- Be very alert when walking to and from your vehicle in parking lots as it is much easier for criminals to hide between vehicles. Try to avoid talking on your cellular phone or engaging in conversation with anyone that may be accompanying you. This will only serve to distract you as you're walking to and from your vehicle.
- For women, be sure to secure your purse in such a way that it would be difficult for a stranger to walk up and grab. When possible, leave as many valuables at home or secured in your vehicle in order to become less of a potential target.
- Trust your instincts if you see someone that concerns you...find another parking space, change directions or yell for help.
- Keep your keys in your hands and use your remote "panic" alarm as a warning

Be alert for whitetails on blacktop

As days shorten, farmers harvest crops and hunting season begins, drivers should be extra cautious because the probability of encountering deer on roadways increases significantly.

Nearly 50 percent of all vehicle crashes involving white-tailed deer occur between October and December. Deer are generally more active in the early morning (pre-dawn) hours or the hours just after dusk. They also become more active during late October into early November during the "rut," or deer mating season. And because of the crop harvest, deer could be on the move at anytime. This leads deer to encounter roads more frequently, increasing the potential for collisions.

There were 15,390 reported deer-related collisions in Indiana in 2013, including deer-vehicle collisions as well as vehicles crashing as a result of attempting to avoid a collision with deer.

With the number of deer and the number of vehicles, deer-vehicle collisions will happen. The best thing drivers can do is to take measures to keep them to a minimum. Knowing the following information and practicing defensive driving will help reduce your chances of becoming a deer-vehicle collision statistic:

Deer are most active between sunset and sunrise, especially in rural areas.

Deer often travel in groups. If you see one, others are likely nearby. Be alert!

Pay special attention in areas where you have seen deer before and in areas near deer crossing warning signs.

Exercise caution along woodlot edges, at hills and blind turns.

Use high beam headlights at night when there is no opposing traffic.

Scan for illuminated eyes and dark silhouettes on or near the side of the roadway.

If you see a deer, slow your speed drastically, even if it is far away.

NEVER swerve to avoid hitting a deer. More serious crashes occur when drivers try to miss a deer but hit something else.

BUCKLE UP!

Even when practicing safe driving, sometimes hitting a deer is inevitable. Caution is also the best approach after the fact. If you hit a deer, remain calm and do not touch it or approach it. Despite their gentle nature, a frightened or wounded deer can cause serious bodily injury. Their hooves and antlers are sharp and powerful and can be extremely dangerous. Remain in your car, make sure you and your passengers are safe, and call the police to obtain a crash report for your insurance company. Motorists must report any crash where there is at least $1,000 in property damage or if someone is injured.

To report a deer carcass on an interstate, US highway or state road, the INDOT East Central District can be contacted by calling toll-free 1-855-463-6848 or emailing eastcentralin@indot.in.gov.

device in order to draw the attention of others and to potentially ward off any strangers when you feel concerned or threatened.

- Avoid carrying large amounts of cash. If you are carrying cash, try to keep it in your front pocket.
- Generally speaking, consider the idea that most property can be replaced. A physical confrontation with a criminal may not be in your best interest if the issue is just over property.
- If you must use an ATM, choose one that is located inside a mall or well-lighted location. Withdraw only the amount of cash you need. Be sure to protect your PIN by shielding the ATM keypad from anyone who is standing near you.
- If you must take children, teach them to go to a store clerk and ask for help in case your child is separated from you.
- Teach children their full name, address and telephone number to give to police officers or mall security. Teach children to immediately inform you if a stranger is bothering them.

RESIDENTIAL SECURITY

Our homes can also be rather attractive to criminals during the holidays. Criminals are well aware that most citizens store their newly purchased gifts and presents in one central location which happens to be under the holiday tree. This makes for quick work if the criminal is able to easily access your home since little, if any, searching will be necessary for them. Additionally, high-dollar items that normally have serial numbers will be difficult for law enforcement to track down since most items will likely be unopened and no record of the serial number will be recorded.

- Be careful to not block windows with outdoor or indoor decorations. Blocking windows makes it easier for criminals to go unnoticed if they attempt to peer into windows.
- Do not replace outdoor security lights with bulbs of seasonal colors such as red and/or green. These colors significantly reduce the amount of light emitted making it easier for an intruder to navigate around your property undetected.
- It is not uncommon for criminals to take advantage of the generosity of people during the holiday season by soliciting donations door-to-door for charitable causes although no charity is involved. Ask for their identification, and find out how the donated funds will be used. If you are not satisfied, do not donate.
- Be a responsible neighbor and report any suspicious people, vehicles or activity in your neighborhood to the police. All it takes is a phone call.
- If you are planning a vacation or will be out of town for an extended period of time, consider contacting the Noblesville Police Department for a Vacation Watch form. Forms can be located online at cityofnoblesville.org/police.

If citizens have any questions or would like more information about the Vacation Watch program they are encouraged to contact our department at 776-6340 ext. 1261 for Lt. Bruce Barnes, Public Information Officer.

Regional championship on the line...

Powerhouses Guerin, Tri-West meet for the first time

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

In order to win its first regional championship since 2011, the Guerin Catholic football team must beat a squad it's never played before.

Labus

The Golden Eagles will travel to Lizton tonight to face Tri-West in a 7:30 p.m. Class 3A regional game. The Bruins have a long football tradition, with three state championships: Tri-West won a 1A title in 1996 and back-to-back 2A championships in 2003 and 2004. The Bruins have won 11 sectionals, with their first back in 1984.

Guerin is just starting its football tradition. The Golden Eagles have won a sectional title in four of the last five years, and were back-to-back regional champions in 2010 (1A) and 2011 (2A).

Tri-West is 11-1 this season. The Bruins are only a point away from being undefeated, as they lost their opener to West Lafayette 18-17. Tri-West then ran the Sagamore table by defeating Lebanon 11-5, Danville 28-6, North Montgomery 37-6, Frankfort 61-7, Western Boone 20-13, Southmont 56-0 and Crawfordsville 63-14. The Fishers girls basketball came together and fought back from a 12-point deficit to beat Ben Davis 58-54 on Thursday.

Fishers trails Ben Davis by 12...

Tigers rally for 58-54 win

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Down 12 points early in the fourth quarter, after trailing by two at halftime, Fishers coach Michael Gaines had his Lady Tigers just where he wanted them for a come from behind season opening 58-54 victory over a good Ben Davis quintet.

“We were out of foul trouble (for the first time in a long time) and then were able to apply (defensive) pressure,” said the Fishers coach. “That was the different between the third quarter and the fourth and the difference in the game.”

The Tigers trailed only 27-25 entering halftime, but Ben Davis opened the third quarter with back-to-back 3-pointers and in the frame outscored Fishers 12-6.

Gaines spent the third quarter juggling Brooke Sugg and Kara Gerka from offense to defense, trying to protect his two stars who each were riding with three fouls.

“When the fourth quarter came and Brooke and Kara still had just three fouls, we were able to get them back into the game (fulltime) and then applied the pressure,” said Gaines.

Star of the Game: Adrianna Murphy with 12 points, 6 assists, 6 steals.
Fishers’ Record: 2-0.
Next Game: Valparaiso at 10 a.m. and Lake Central at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Fishers Classic.

Ben Davis turned over the basketball 11 times in the fourth quarter against the Fishers pressure. At the offensive end of the court, Gerka scored 11 points; Adrianna Murphy notched eight points and Sugg hit a key 3-pointer which gave the Lady Tigers a 49-48 lead with 2:33 remaining.

Fishers never again trailed.

But, it was tight at the end until Murphy hit 1-of-2 free throws for a 56-52 advantage with 14 seconds left and Gerka put the icing on the cake with two more free throws at 2.3 second mark.

“The girls willed their way to the victory tonight,” said Gaines.

“Give credit to Ben Davis,” Gaines continued. “Their 2-3 zone did a good job of covering up our shooters. They had the length to get on us pretty good.”

Free throws made the difference as Fishers canned 20-of-32 charity shots. It wasn’t that way early in the game, but then the Tigers hit 14-of-19 free ones in the fourth period.

Ben Davis had 22 turnovers in the game; only one with Gerka and Sugg sitting out on defense in the third quarter.

Gerka, an outstanding junior coming off an outstanding sophomore year, led Fishers in scoring with 20 points, while Sugg finished with 16 and Murphy with 12. Sugg hit a trio of 3-pointers in the game.

Hannah Kroehler, a 6-0 junior center, had eight points, six of which came when Fishers was struggling in foul trouble.

Gerka also led Fishers in rebounds, grabbing eight of the Tigers’ 23 total. A taller Ben Davis team collected just 19 boards.

Murphy had a great floor game, coming up with six steals and dishing out a half-dozen assists.

Fishers now will turn its attention to the Fishers Classic on Saturday. The Tigers and Valparaiso will play at 10 a.m. and Lake Central and Southeastern at noon. In the night session, it will be Southeastern and Valparaiso at 5 o’clock and Lake Central at Fishers at approximately 7 p.m.

Carmel falls to No. 7 Roncalli in 97-75 opener

In Tod Windlan’s first game as coach at Carmel High School his Lady Greyhounds put big offensive numbers on the board, but the new defense Windlan hopes to bring couldn’t stop Roncalli, the state’s No. 7 ranked team, as the Rebels, at home, defeated Carmel 97-75 Thursday evening.

Amanda Shaw poured in 20 points and collected three rebounds for the Greyhounds.

Celene Funke added 11 points and four rebounds; Amy Dilk scored 10 points in the freshman’s first varsity game; Carrie Larson also added 10 points and Abby Abel and Emily Kmec finished with eight and six points, respectively.

“I’m proud of the hard play by the girls, but we need to work on mental misakes and urnovers,” Windlan said.

Carmel’s next game is Saturday at Cathedral at 1:30 p.m.

Carmel did not have a box score available.

Welch sizzles for Sheridan...

Blackhawks win 55-12

When Sheridan’s Blackhawks fly into Larry Hobbs Memorial Hall Saturday evening for their first home girls basketball game of the season, Sheridan fans will have the opportunity to view a squad which so far this young season has been unbeatable.

Coach Jeff Guenther’s young crew made it two in a row Thursday evening, and once again got the job done in easy fashion on the road by gunning down Faith Christian, 55-12.

Sheridan held the host team to single digit scoring in each of the fourth quarters. Faith Christian scored just two points in each of the first an third periods and didn’t score at all in the second quarter.

The Blackhawks led 18-2 after one quarter and 39-2 at halftime.

On offense, Sheridan exploded from the field, hitting 25-of-52 shots. The Blackhawks were 3-of-7 from 3-point range, with Brittany Welch leading the way by nailing 2-of-3 boomers.

Welch, the exciting 5-11 sophomore, led all scorers with 21 points, canning 9-of-11 shots. She also dished out four assists and had four steals.

Welch was Sheridan’s only double digit scorer in a game which saw Guenther call off the wolves early. Rebekah Hopper, one of only three seniors on the team, scored eight points, as did freshman Audrey Reed.

Reed, Hopper and Faith DeVaney led Sheridan on the boards, each with three rebounds.

Reed had five steals to lead in that department.

Star of Game: Brittany Welch with 21 points, 4 steals, 4 assists.
Sheridan’s Record: 2-0.
Next Game: Saturday at home against Eastern.

The Eastern team which will play at Sheridan on Saturday (7:30 p.m., varsity action) is 0-1 after losing to Eastbrook, 52-26, in its opener.

The Fishers crowd had plenty to cheer about, especially in the fourth quarter when the Tigers came from behind to beat Ben Davis.

Kara Gerka made 8-of-12 free throws, which was a key factor in Fishers' comeback win over Ben Davis.

Hannah Kroehler was 3-for-3 from the field in Fishers' victory.

Book it; another MIC champ

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

What are the chances of a team from the MIC Conference winning the state football championship this season. Again! If you believe the past repeats itself, those chances are pretty good. Counting Lawrence Central's title in 2012 when Lawrence was placing in another conference, current MIC school have won he championship three consecutive times. Last year two MIC clubs, Warren Central and Carmel, faced off in the title game. MIC teams have won the state 12 of the last 13 years; 13 of the last 14. Fishers defeated Lawrence Central in the 2010 championship game. Penn won over MIC foe Center Grove in 2000.

Five times in the last eight years, two MIC schools have battled it out for the championship. Forget the past, if you will. Three of the four Class 6A teams which will play tonight are MIC teams. It's Carmel and Penn and Center Grove and Ben Davis, a game which, for sure, the MIC winner will play in the Big House when the 6A title contest is played in two weeks. Carmel during the regular season defeated Center Grove 21-14 and Ben Davis 37-14. If Carmel defeats Penn tonight, it will be the first time in history of a State Final 4 that a team has defeated the other three Final 4 teams. Even with the new 6-class system that the IHSAA uses, there probably are 10, at the most, schools in the state capable of winning the big-school state championship. Five or six of those schools are from the MIC. The IHSAA's new success plans doesn't work for Class 6A. There is no place for these MIC teams to go, except to college football. Football is a different game outside of Central Indiana. Few teams from the north and the south are capable of competing with MIC teams. One of those schools is Penn, Carmel's opponent tonight. Also, if the IHSAA's new plan was to slow down the success of the private schools, that, too, hasn't worked. Yes, some of the private schools because of their success have moved up a class. They win there, too. Take Class 5A this season as an example. There now sits Cathedral, and with just a 6-5 record the Irish could go on and win it all. While 6A rests next week before its championship game, all other classes will have moved to the semistate. Westfield is in an excellent spot to return to the 5A championship game. Getting past Snider tonight is the big step. The winner will take on LaPorte or Elkhart Central, the other game tonight. LaPorte is 6-5 and Elkhart Central is 5-6. In the southern bracket of 5A tonight, Whiteland (8-3) will face Cathedral and Terre Haute South (10-1) will take on Bloomington South (10-1). Remember Terre Haute North when the Patriots never won many games while playing in the MIC? In Class 3A, Guerin Catholic, of course, is one of those private schools still playing. Two others in that eight-team race are Andean and Ft. Wayne Luers. The 3A schedule tonight has Jasper (9-3) facing Andean (12-0); Yorktown (11-1) and Luers (10-2); Guerin (9-3) and Tri-West (11-1) and Heritage Hills (11-1) and Charlestown (10-3). No matter what the IHSAA does or the number of class tourneys are played, two things will never change in post-season football in Indiana. The MIC will dominate. The private schools will win.

Hamilton Heights girls swimming preview...

New faces bring excitement to Huskies team

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

It can safely be said that a new chapter in the Hamilton Heights girls swim program will begin on Monday.

The Huskies have several new faces that are expected to make immediate impacts for the team. Meanwhile, a group of four juniors and a senior will bring the necessary experience to the Heights squad this year.

But all eyes will definitely be on the freshman swimmers. There are of eight of them, and second-year coach Amy Lustig said that they are all club swimmers, and swam during the summer in addition to participating in conditioning.

Among the freshmen expected to swim well are Claire Sloderbeck, Allison Osborne, Lauren Sears and Lucy Uhrick. Lustig said all four are "very competitive" in club swimming.

"Those four girls are going to make up my relays, and we're hoping to break our medley relay school record with them this year," said Lustig. "We have high hopes for them."

Another good thing about the freshman class is its depth. Lustig noted that "they all can swim all the different strokes, so I can pop them in wherever I need them."

And then there's sophomore Brooke Schultz. She's the only sophomore on the Heights team, but she might be the most experienced person in the pool. Schultz is a world-class diver, having won international championships in her career.

"We're very excited about that," said Lustig. "I have not been around while she trains because she trains during the day with obviously her Olympic coaches, but we are very excited to have her starting Monday at our first meet against Oak Hill."

As for the experienced members of the group, there are four juniors and all of them are captains: Sarah Mangas, Mariah Oxley, Mady Rednour and Brianna Schildmeier. The lone returning senior is Taryn Dissett; there are also two other seniors, Britt Borger and Micah Kunzer, who are new to swimming.

Heights didn't have anyone reach the sectional finals in any event last year, so one of Lustig's goals for the season is to have at least two of her freshmen do just that. She also hopes to finish in the top three of the Husky Invitational.

"Last year we didn't get to swim in the Husky Invitational because of the bad weather," said Lustig.

Noblesville senior Emily Christophersen was a state qualifier in the butterfly and on two relays for the Millers girls swimming team last season as a junior. The Noblesville team this season has a group of experienced high school swimmers, plus several incoming freshmen that have performed well as club swimmers.

High school experience complements freshmen’s club experience

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

Since so many swimmers are involved in the sport from an early age due to swim clubs, they don't go into high school swimming as wide-eyed, inexperienced freshmen.

Such is the case with Noblesville. The Millers swim coach said his girls team "will have talent spread across all four grades," including the freshmen.

"The Freshman class comes in with a lot of experience at the championship level," said Wolfred.

The ninth-graders will immediately put their club experience to use, while the older NHS swimmers will be there to guide them - and use their experience to deliver another good season for Noblesville.

Several Miller swimmers competed at the state meet last year. Senior Emily Christophersen is one of them; she placed 20th in the butterfly and swam on the medley and 400 freestyle relays.

Other returning state relay racers are senior Taylor Parrish, juniors Lydia Conner, Amy Hayes, Kate Holtkamp and Leigh Roberts, and sophomores Samantha Cripe and Julianne Kaess.

Several more Noblesville girls reached the sectional finals in their respective events last season: Senior Rachel Mackesey (individual medley), juniors Megan Hays (diving), Maura McBride (500 free) and Caylee McComb (50 free), and sophomores Alexa Akers (backstroke) and Josie Griffin (breaststroke).

Noblesville starts its season Tuesday at Zionsville for a dual meet, then hosts Hamilton Southeastern on Dec. 4, when the Miller boys join them for most of the remainder of the season. Big meets on the Noblesville schedule include the Millers' diving (Dec. 6) and swimming (Dec. 13) invitationals, and the Hoosier Crossroads Conference meet, which is set for Jan. 10 at Fishers.

"We plan to improve in all of our events to have a deeper team," said Wolfred. "All season long we want to improve so that at the end of our season we will be having our best races. We will be relying on our senior class to provide our necessary leadership that is important to a successful team."

Noblesville roster

Seniors: Delaney Brake, Emily Christophersen, Erin Decocq, Rachel Mackesey, Tessa Pappas, Taylor Parrish, Sarah Potter, Elaina VerBrugge, Lysny Woodahl.
