At approximately 7 p.m., police officers and a community service officer from the Noblesville Police Department responded to the area of 8th and Mulberry streets in reference to a report of a stranded motorist complaint. Officers arrived on the scene a short time later and began to investigate.

Upon arriving on the scene, Community Service Officer Terry Jewell parked her vehicle in the south bound lane of 8th Street and activated the emergency lights on her vehicle. They also assist with stranded motorists, conduct vehicle lock-outs, and remove traffic hazards and debris from roadway, to name a few of their duties. CSOs are civilian employees.

Courtyard by Marriott opens its doors

By RICHIE HALL

After nearly two years, Noblesville's latest hotel is ready for guests.

The Courtyard by Marriott officially opened its doors Monday afternoon. It didn't take long for the hotel to get its first customer, and those that follow will get to stay in a fantastic-looking facility.

The Courtyard, located at 17863 Foundation Drive, on the northeast corner of the intersection of State Roads 32/38 and 37, has 92 rooms, and is the second Marriott property in Noblesville, joining its sister hotel and next door neighbor, the Fairfield by Marriott. The two hotels will complement each other, with the Courtyard a business-friendly property, and the Fairfield more for leisure and family activities. However, all are welcome at either hotel, whether they are staying for business or pleasure.

"Our hotel next door was sold out many nights, and there's definitely a demand for more rooms here," said Neal Patel, vice-president of MHG Hotels.

The Courtyard officially opened at 2 p.m., with a ribbon-cutting ceremony featuring Mayor John Ditslear, Marriott and MHG employees, and other dignitaries. Patel said there were five reservations already scheduled for Monday night.

As it turned out, the very first guest arrived about a half-hour later. David Joe, Chicago, just happened to be driving through, and was looking for a place to stay for the next couple of days.

"I just walked in," said Joe, a senior business analyst with Global Resources, LLC. "I just got lucky. I'm generally pretty brand loyal, and Marriott is my hotel of choice. So, I just got super lucky this time, I suppose."

The Courtyard is a business -friendly hotel, and just for those who stay in the property. One of the highlights is the spacious meeting center, which can hold up to 80 people. Anyone is welcome to use the meeting center, one does not have to be a guest.

The meeting center is located on the first floor, along with The Bistro, a bright restaurant and bar with plenty of seating. There is also a lounge area for people to relax and hang out. Other amenities include an indoor pool and exercise area.

‘Focused’ Royals earn program’s shut out

By RICHIE HALL

Hamilton Southeastern wrestling coach Luke Poyer said he was nervous going into his team's dual meet with Noblesville Tuesday at The Mill.

"They got some really good wrestlers and I was really nervous about my kids because we got a really academically-focused team, and I was nervous about what they were thinking about, because their finals are tomorrow," said Poyer.

The coach need not have worried, as the Royals won 71-0. It's the first shutout in HSE wrestling history, and it came at a time when Southeastern is preparing for the Hamilton County meet, which is Saturday at Westfield.

"I feel like their focus just got tighter and tighter," said Poyer. "They really wrestled well, I was really proud."

The Royals won eight of their 14 matches by fall. Spencer Irick got the quickest pin of the night, winning the 170-pound match in 15 seconds. Other HSE pinners were Austin Holmes, Jack Chastain, Alec Jessop, Kolby Ferris, Jimmy Ford and Bryce Chastain. Klayton Anderson won the 113-pound match by forfeit.

The closest match of the night was at 145 pounds, where Adam Dombrowski beat Stephen Kitko in double overtime by the score of 4-2.

Many of these wrestlers could meet again in Saturday's county meet

"As a coach, you think about things like, you get a little nervous that you peaked three days too soon," said Poyer. "But for our kids, the momentum of winning is a really nice thing, and I really appreciate how our kids compete."

SHS Blackhawks roll, 85-19

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Jeff Guenther, like many in the world of girls high school basketball in Indiana, is concerned about what is happening today.

He said as much after watching his Sheridan Lady Blackhawks defeat visiting Anderson Prep Academy 85-19 last evening at Hobbs Memorial Hall in Sheridan.

Earlier, Anderson Prep cancelled the junior varsity game because of lack of players.

"It's not just Anderson Prep," Guenther said. "Lots of schools don't have junior varsity teams this season. We had two girls come out late or we wouldn't have enough for a junior varsity squad."

"It's a different world today," Guenther. "Some kids, if they don't make the varsity as freshmen, leave the game."

The contest last evening, of course, was no contest at all. Sheridan roared to a 36-7 first quarter lead and went to halftime with a 57-9 advantage.

Guenther played everyone, 14 Lady Blackhawks, in all.

In that first quarter freshman Audrey Reed notched 12 points and sophomore Brittany Welch added 10. Welch led all scorers with 22 points; Reed finished with 17 and Payton Fleenor added 10.

Twelve different Blackhawks scored.

"Are we a better team having played this game?" Guenther asked. "No, but lots of things made us a closer team."

"(Freshman) Sydney Beechboard is a figure skater," Guenther explained. "The kids came to me at halftime and said they wanted to make sure she scored tonight. They got her the ball and she scored."

Star of the Game: Payton Fleenor with 8 points and 7 rebounds.
Sheridan Record: Won 8, Lost 2.
Next Up: Tri-Central at Sheridan on Dec. 20.

Sheridan now is 8-2 and has won four straight. Guenther knows the competition will get tougher, starting next week with games at Sheridan against Tri-Central and Lapel.

"Tri-Central has lost one game and Lapel is undefeated," pointed out the coach..

Lady Huskies upset Stars

Some of the lessons Hamilton Heights has learned the first half of the season may begin to pay off the second half.

Guerin, LN to decide Friday

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor
Who's the favorite in a loaded Noblesville Holiday Tourney, set for Dec. 29-30? Lots of good teams will be in The Mill.

The favorite likely will be decided this Friday when Guerin Catholic hosts Lawrence North. Both will play in the Noblesville Tourney, Guerin facing New Haven in the opening game and LN taking on Columbus East in the final first round battle.

In this week Indiana Basketball Coaches Association's poll, which includes teams from all classes, Guerin Catholic is ranked No. 8 and Lawrence North is rated No. 16. In the 3A poll, Guerin Catholic is No. 1.

The game Friday at Guerin's Eagles Nest will be Lawrence North's tune-up for the Noblesville Tourney. Guerin Catholic has a Saturday date at Lafayette Jeff before coming to The Mill.

Guerin Catholic has won 17 straight home games in the Eagles Nest. Guerin's last loss was on Dec. 21, 2012 to Lawrence North, 53-40.

"LN will be a great challenge for us," said Guerin coach Pete Smith. "They have better size than us, and their guards are really quick. They're the most talented team we'll have played so far this season, no doubt. We'll be hard-pressed to block them off the boards, and they'll be tough to fast break against, which is what we like to do. So, offensive execution and great half-court defense will be the key for us."

Guerin Catholic is 6-0. Lawrence North is 4-0 with wins over Detroit Cornerstone 91-66, Marion 76-65, Lawrence Central 66-48 and Brebeuf 59-51.

The Eagles haven't played anyone Lawrence North has faced. Guerin is coming off a big 64-54 win over Muncie Central.

Guerin Catholic is a little short-handed. Nick Schneider wasn't back last week after suffering a sprained ankle in the Heights game. One of the best leaders and rebounders on the team, Smith is counting on Schneider to be available for us. Starting point guard Cameron Lindley also did not play last weekend. He left on Wednesday for Spain as part of the Men's National Soccer team, the one that will play in Germany twice this week. He will not return until Sunday.

"It is such a neat honor for Cam; an experience of a lifetime," said Smith. "We will miss him, but we also understand that he's one of the best soccer players in the United States, and this is important for his development in his best sport. We will be excited to have him back for the Noblesville Tourney."

Lindley has already verbally accepted a scholarship to attend the University of North Carolina.

Guerin's Saturday trip to Lafayette Jeff will bring together two long-time coaching friends, Smith and Jeff's mentor Scott Radeker.

Radeker moved to Noblesville in 1993 to become Smith's junior varsity coach. The two coaches became close friends. When Smith left to coach at Penn in 1994, Radeker stayed on the Millers staff when Dave McCollough was hired to replace Smith.

"When Lafayette Jeff left the Hoosier Crossroads Conference and their game with Noblesville was no longer scheduled, I jumped at the chance to pick up the Bronchos," Smith said. "My wife is a Jeff grad and Scott's wife is from Noblesville. It just made sense to play each other."

Lafayette Jeff is 2-3 with wins over Harrison 53-47 in overtime and Kokomo 57-51 and losses to McCutchen 43-40, Lafayette Central Catholic 61-49 and Crown Point 76-52.

"Scott has a really scrappy team that just does not have much size, but is quick. They had a nice conference win over Kokomo," Smith continued, "and Scott does a great job of game coaching. We'll have to regroup after such a big game the night before against Lawrence North."
