"The trash issue is the only matter we have on today's agenda," said Cook when opening the meeting.

"I will not vote," Cook added.

The issue at hand was whether or not the Town of Arcadia would have one trash company to pick up the town's trash and then each of the town's 500-plus residents would be billed equally for the service.

Arcadia had asked for companies to bid on the project. Republic surfaced as the top choice at a price of $18.50 per month, per Kmec's double-double leads the way...

'Hounds beat Tigers, 55-43

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

Girls basketball sectionals are on the horizon, so teams are ready to start building momentum for that goal.

Carmel certainly has a little bit of momentum, as it is on a four-game win streak. The Greyhounds added to their streak with a 55-43 win over Fishers - a county and sectional rival - Tuesday at the Eric Clark Activity Center. Carmel slowly built a second-half lead, and got some big-time numbers from Emily Kmec, who had two 3-pointers in the third quarter.

"It's a huge win for us," said 'Hounds coach Tod Windlan. "They're a well-coached team, they're a great team, so it was a nice win for us."

The Tigers led early, getting up 9-3 after Brooke Sugg hit a 3-pointer. Carmel then went on a 12-0 run, which featured baskets from five different players, including a 3-point play by Kmec and a 3-point shot by Carrie Larson. That run helped the Greyhounds secure a 16-11 lead after one quarter.

Carmel led 30-27 at halftime. Amanda Shaw scored six points, while Fishers got six points each out of Kara Gerka (on two 3-pointers) and Adrianna Murphy. Kmec opened the third quarter with her first '3', after which Fishers responded with a 6-0 run to tie the game at 33-33.

But that was as close as the Tigers could get. Carmel scored eight unanswered points, during which Kmec made her second '3' of the quarter. Fishers was getting good looks, but just couldn't get a basket to fall.

"We got looks that we wanted," said Tigers coach Michael Gaines. While he admitted that his team struggled with shooting, he also wasn't ready to hit the panic button.

"Those games happen," said Gaines.
"That's part of it. I felt like our effort was there. Our execution, some of our defensive tactics could have been a little bit crisper, but realistically, the shooting was a big thing that hurt us tonight."

Carmel led 43-35 after three periods, and held the lead by around that margin in the fourth quarter. When all was said and done, the 'Hounds had three players in double digits, with Kmec leading the way. She had an outstanding game, with a double-double of 14 rebounds and 13 points. If that wasn't enough, Kmec also had three steals and three blocked shots.

"We were doing good in the first half, but I knew we could do better," said Kmec.
"And I just knew that I needed to step up as a captain of our team, and help our team hit some big shots and have some big plays.

Shaw added 12 points and seven rebounds, with Amy Dilk scoring 11 points and grabbing five rebounds. Larson had five rebounds as well. Dilk also handed out four assists.

Murphy and Abby Mozingo both scored nine points for Fishers. Gerka and Blake Inglis both got six rebounds, with Murphy also making five steals.

Lady Millers score 106

Just another blowout. Just another cakewalk. Noblesville's third 100-point plus game of the season.

Coach Donna Keck's Lady Millers blew to a 35-12 first quarter advantage and led 52-16 at halftime in a knockout punch 106-38 victory over Western Boone Tuesday evening in The Mill.

Four different Millers finished in double figures, led by a near double-double from junior standout Katelyn O'Reilly. She scored 26 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

Also in double figures were Alexis Shannon with 21 points, Rachel Shipman with 15 and Kayleigh Herron with 12 points.

Keck used 12 different players and all

Noblesville connected on 44-of-59 shots and canned 12-of-29 attempts from 3-point territory. Shipman, who came off the bench, hit 5-of-7 attempts from 3-point range, which ties a school record.

Noblesville collected 39 rebounds, led by O'Reilly with nine and freshman Emily Kiser with eight.

The Millers dished out an unbelievable 35 assists. Becca Bergman had nine, Brooke Herron six and Cori Cain five.

Noblesville had 10 blocks, led by Brooke Herron and O'Reilly with three each. Noblesville Turnovers: 14.

Star of the Game: Katelyn O'Reilly scored 26 points and collected 9 rebounds Noblesville's Record: Won 16, Lost 1. Next Up: Noblesville will host Kokomo on Jan. 26

Southeastern falls by 27

Star of the Game: Megan Walton scored 13 of Southestern's 32 points. Southeastern's Record: Won 13, Lost

Next Up: Southeastern will host Zionsville on Saturday afternoon.

Going into a game against Lawrence North at HSE Tuesday evening, the host Lady Roylas had lost three games, a five-pointer to Carmel, a five pointer to Springboro, Ohio and a one-pointer to Westfield.

This loss wasn't close. No. 2 ranked, undefeated Lawrence North polished off Hamilton Southeastern 59-32.

Southeastern stayed close for one quarter, battling the Wildcats to a 12-12 first quarter tie. After that, LN allowed the Score by Quarters: Royals just 20 total points in the next three Southeastern 12 periods.

It was Lawrence North's 17th straight win of the season.

Megan Walton scored 13 of Southeastern's 32 points.

The Royals hit just 12-of-57 shots against the tough Lawrence North defense.

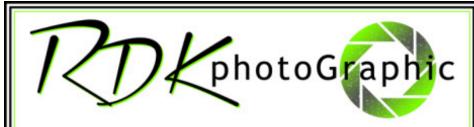

Southeastern played the game without two of its starters, Bre Lloyd and Elaina Ededuwa.

No. 4 Carmel at No. 5 Pike tonight....

NHS, 'Hounds play Friday

By DON JELLISON Reporter Editor

Noblesville-Carmel has been a hot high school basketball rivalry for what has seemed to be forever. Still is Friday in The Mill, Carmel already will have played the "game of the week." The Greyhounds will play tonight at Pike. It's an important game in the MIC. It's a battle between No. 4 ranked Carmel and No. 5 ranked Pike.

Carmel is 11-1, having lost only by seven points to another MIC foe, North Central. The Greyhounds have won eight straight games. Pike is 10-2, having lost only to Ben Davis by eight and Rockford Auburn (Illinois) by three. The Red Devils playing each other is like looking got revenge from the Dec. 5 loss to Ben Davis by last week by beating the Giant 54-51 in the championship game of the Marion County Tourney. That win followed a 92-86, four-overtime victory over then No. 1 ranked Southport.

Not only does Carmel play Pike tonight and Noblesville on Friday, the Greyhounds will host No. 15 Brownsburg on Saturday. The Bulldogs have lost only three times, twice to Southport and also to Pike.

"This will be a tough week playing three good teams and two on the road," said Carmel coach Scott Heady. "We'll have to be ready to compete at a high level each night. Pike is a key MIC game. They are playing as well as anyone in the state, winning the game. Jake Mills is averaging 11.9 Marion County Tourney last week. points and Sean Wilson 10.6

"This week will be as challenging as any week we'll have 3-pointers, 39-of-90. Wilson has all season. Our guys are looking forward to it," Heady said.

It also is a challenging week for Noblesville. After hosting Carmel on Friday the Millers will entertain an 11-2 Merrillville team on Saturday. Merrillville will play Portage on Friday before visiting the Millers.

Merrillville's only losses have been to Warsaw 63-60 in overtime and to Hamilton Southeaster 72-46 in a holiday tourney game.

Noblesville, which has dropped two straight and four of five, is 9-5 entering the weekend.

"We have a very demanding But, when the two teams meet schedule, and this stretch of opponents has really challenged us and forced us to improve," said Noblesville coach McCauley.

> "Carmel is having another outstanding season," McCauley continued. "They have several very experienced players and have played a very demanding schedule. Carmel is very good defensively, and they have extremely talented offensive players. It will be another great test for us."

Sellout expected when....

Brebeuf hosts Guerin

By DON JELLISON

Guerin Catholic, still a very strong 10-6 play and they took advantage of it." on the year, has lost two straight and three

"Practices have been very spirited this week, let's say," offered coach Pete Smith. "We're trying to find our mojo again. Sometimes it takes some tough time to get it back."

One way for the Golden Eagles to get it back is playing a rival like Brebeuf. The Golden Eagles will play at Brebeuf on Friday.

A rival, yes, and a very tough rival. Brebeuf is better than its 7-7 record might indicate.

The Braves have won three of five. In their last game they lost 44-42 to a very tough Ben Davis team in the Marion County

The game is expected to be a sellout in the 1,500 seat Brebeuf gym. A pre-sale is being held at the Guerin Catholic athletic

"Our team had a rough weekend playing two good opponents," said Smith. "We felt Friday night against Tech that we had chances and at inopportune times we made some bad decisions with the basketball and had too many empty possessions. Then

Saturday we played a red-hot Terre Haute South team and we got out of our style of

To make mater worse, Christian Munson went down with an injury in the fourth quarter and as of Tuesday he had not returned to practice.

"If Munson can't go we will go with either Nick Schneider or Matthew Godfrey," Smith said.

Four of Brebeuf's seven losses came in the Braves' first five games. They have been hot ever since. 'We've seen Brebeuf make huge strides improvement-wise from the start of season to now," said Smith. "That doesn't surprise me; they are always well-coached. They are very patient and don't play up-tempo. They will want to keep the score down. Banks and Terrell are really solid players that we've faced a lot of the years. They almost pulled another win over Ben Davis after beating them a week earlier. They are playing well right now."

Playing without Munson, should that happen, would be a big blow to Guerin. The junior sharp-shooter is averaging 17.5 points

Matt Holba is scoring at a 17.1 clip and averaging 7.2 rebounds a game. Godfrey is scoring at an 8.9 clip.

NWMS eighth boys basketball wins Black and Gold Classic

The Noblesville West Middle School eighth-grade boys basketball team won the Black and Gold Classic on Saturday.

The Millers beat Decatur Central 43-14 in the first game. Jordan Schmidt scored nine points, Xavier Hines eight, and Kian Sills six. Also scoring were Keever-Hill 4, Ferbrache 3, Black 3, Youree 2, Unger 2, Holzworth 2, Hancock 2 and Pollard 2.

The Millers beat Pendelton in the Championship game 58-37. Sills scored 22 points, Schmidt 16, and Hines 10. Also scoring were Keever-Hill 4, Holzworth 4, Black 2 and Pollard 2.

NWMS 7th boys split at Black and Gold Classic

The grade Noblesville West Middle School seventh-grade boys basketball team split their games in the Black and Gold Classic on Saturday.

The Millers fell 30-49 to Decatur Central in the morning game. Collin Cates led the Millers with 13 points. In the second game, the Millers defeated Noblesville East 43-34. Cates led the Millers again with 19 points.

Royals split with Zionsville

Hamilton Southeastern split a pair of dual meets with Zionsville on Tuesday. The Royal girls won 97-89. Southeastern was down early 10-4 after the Eagles won the medley relay, but Kylie Sutherlin's win in the 200 free and Natalie Mudd's individual medley win tied the meet up at 23-23, and gave HSE momentum that carried it to the

"Now, back to some training before the Championships which are quickly approaching," said HSE coach Andy Pedersen. "Some of these girls have swam meets 5 of the last 6 days so a change of pace is needed."

Southeastern's boys fell 115-71. Nick Pfanstiel won two events for the Royals.

'Zionsville is very good but just like the North Central meet last Thursday, we had some chances that we did not take advantage of," said Pedersen. "Nick Pfanstiel and Matthew Netherton were again outstanding, but it was not enough for the Royals tonight. These boys are resilient, tough, and strong - they will recover and we will be on track as we head to the Championships."

Indy Eleven learns NASL fall season slate

League's release of the 2015 Fall Season schedule today, Indy Eleven fans now finally have the chance to mark down the final 20 dates on the club's calendar between July and October.

With the full 2015 NASL schedule now public, Indy Eleven will soon announce details on the availability of single-game and group tickets for all 15 regular season

With the North American Soccer games to be held at its home of IUPUI's Michael A. Carroll Stadium. Meanwhile, a limited amount of 2015 Season Ticket packages remain on sale starting at just $144, which will include every regular season match and an additional exhibition or Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup game (to be determined). Fans can head to the Tickets section of IndyEleven.com for more details.

> "The release of the Fall Season schedule means the club can really start to fine tune all the exciting plans we've been working on surrounding our matches during the 2015 season," said Indy Eleven President/General Manager Peter Wilt. "More importantly, it gives the best fans in the NASL time to square away plans to support their 'Boys in Blue' during what will be a memorable second season starting in 74 short days."

> When the NASL's three-week midseason break concludes in early July, Indy Eleven's Fall Season fireworks will appropriately enough start on Independence Day weekend, when Indiana's Team will travel to Long Island to take on the New York Cosmos on Sunday, July 5. Indy Eleven will return to Carroll Stadium the following weekend on Saturday, July 11, for its Fall Season opener at "The Mike" against the Carolina RailHawks.

> Nine of Indy Eleven's 10 Fall Season home games - and 14 of the team's 15 home dates overall – will be played on Saturday evenings with 7:30 p.m. kickoffs, with just one contest at Carroll Stadium on Wednesday, Aug. 19, against the Tampa Bay Rowdies, set for a weekday. Meanwhile, Indy Eleven will contest three midweek matches on the road - all on Wednesdays – at FC Edmonton (Aug. 5), Minnesota United FC (Sep. 2) and Tampa Bay (Sept.

> Following the Fall home opener against Carolina and an "NASL Class of 2014" clash at Ottawa on July 18, Indy Eleven fans will be able to pack "The Mike" during a busy stretch of four out of five games at home from late July through mid-August, starting with the Cosmos' visit on July 25 and ending with the afore-mentioned Aug. 19th game versus the Rowdies. That stretch of home cooking will be followed by Indy Eleven's lone three-game road trip of the year, which will see the squad travel to play the Atlanta Silverbacks, Fort Lauderdale Strikers and Minnesota in a span of 12 days. After a two-game, four-day jaunt to Florida to take on Tampa Bay (Sept. 30) and newcomer Jacksonville Armada FC (Oct. 3), Indy Eleven will close out its Carroll Stadium slate with a three-game homestand against the defending NASL champion San Antonio Scorpions (Oct. 10), Minnesota (Oct. 17) and Fort Lauderdale (Oct. 24). The "Boys in Blue" will round out the regular season on Friday, Oct. 30, against Carolina at the scene of its first-ever NASL victory, WakeMed Soccer Park.
