Our 2014 results evidence our commitment to execute on organic growth while adding franchise additive acquisitions. In 2015, we expect similar strong results through the integration of Community Bank of Noblesville, having closed the transaction in November 2014. The recent announcing of the agreement to acquire Cooper State Bank in Columbus, Ohio, complements our prior acquisitions in fortifying our best growth markets. Our management is focused on achieving additional prudent growth and our overall 2015 plan."

Noblesville Main Street announces Devour Noblesville participants

The second annual Devour Noblesville promotion, a downtown dining event promoted by Noblesville Main Street, will take place from Friday, Feb. 6 to Thursday, Feb. 12.

Downtown Noblesville restaurants featured in this year's event include: The Ville, Syd's Bar and Grill, The Hamilton, Noble Coffee & Tea, Matteo's, Copper Still, Ginger's Cafe, Sunrise Cafe at Uptown, Barley Island Brewing Company, Courtney's Kitchen, Rosie's Place and Sweet Home Cupcakes.

While the restaurants will be the drawing card to get people into downtown, Noblesville Main Street is inviting those diners to take advantage of what else the area has to offer. Chris Owens, executive director of Noblesville Main Street, notes that "there's all kinds of shopping obviously around the square," so patrons are invited to visit the retail locations around the square anytime during the six days of Devour Noblesville.

And since there are so many restaurant choices in the square, visitors don't have to limit themselves to just one. Owens said the promotion is a nice chance for the "restaurant community to encourage people to come down and visit at what may be a little bit of a slower time," since the weather isn't always the best in February.

The Ville, which opened its doors last fall, is one of the restaurants participating in the Devour Noblesville promotion, which runs fom Feb. 6-11.

A list of specials featured at some of the locations can be found at noblesvillemainstreet.org and other specials will be promoted on-site at each participating location. "This promotion is an opportunity to remind people about the great dining choices in downtown Noblesville or to get at first-timers to visit, see the courthouse square and enjoy some wonderful food," said Owens.

Congresswoman Susan Brooks to emcee Cherish Center anniversary event Thursday evening

Advocates for Children & Families (AFCF) will celebrate their very special milestone anniversary with two very special guests. This Thursday evening, January 29th, at Ruth's Chris Steak House Indianapolis north side location, AFCF's The Cherish Center will host a fundraiser dinner with Congresswoman Susan Brooks serving as the event emcee and featuring Former U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft as the keynote speaker. A sponsor VIP hour will open the event at 6 p.m. with the main program/dinner at 7 p.m.

"We are absolutely in awe of the opportunity we have to share this special anniversary with Congresswoman Brooks and Mr. Ashcroft," said Wendy Rayburn, Executive Director of Advocates for Children & Families/The Cherish Center. "The work they have done in public office and as public servants is inspiring and we're grateful for their willingness to join us for this great event."

The Cherish Center is a 501c3 organization, located on the Riverview Health campus in Noblesville. The Cherish Center serves as an advocate for children and families who have been impacted by intimate abuse or neglect. The center conducts forensic interviewing with a team of multidisciplinary professionals, enabling victims to receive immediate resources and action to ensure the abuse does not continue. In addition to the abuse intervention services, AFCF and The Cherish Center provide prevention-based programming.

The dinner fundraiser event will benefit the ongoing intervention and prevention programming provided by AFCF and The Cherish Center.

"This event would not be possible without the very generous contributions of our table and corporate sponsors," added Wendy Rayburn.

The full list of individual and corporate sponsors for the 5th Anniversary Dinner Fundraiser include:

Westfield Announces new director of Grand Park

The city of Westfield announced today that Grand Park will have a new director beginning in February.

Alexander

Kenneth Alexander will oversee the operations of the sports complex in a few weeks, just as the second year of operations for the park begins.

“The success of Grand Park during its first year was phenomenal,” Mayor Andy Cook said. “I’m excited to see we have Ken in place to continue and expand on the momentum of the park as we begin another year of activity at the park.”

As Director of Grand Park, Alexander will work closely with the two anchor tenants, Bullpen Tournaments and Indiana Sports Properties, and community youth organizations, Indiana Fire Juniors and Westfield Youth Sports Inc. (WYSI). He will also be responsible for managing the park’s contracts and vendor relationships.

“We’re excited to work with Ken at Grand Park. His hands-on leadership style and familiarity with the city will be an asset in making this year of operations even better than the first,” said Mike Mundy, executive director of LIDS Indiana Bulls.

“Ken’s understanding of the vision and purpose of the Grand Park Sports Campus will help provide continued confidence in the economic impact of this fantastic facility,” said Don Rawson, Executive Director of Indiana Sports Properties. “I look forward to working with Ken to ensure we remain focused on providing Grand Park users with an outstanding customer experience.”

A lifetime sports enthusiast, Alexander managed construction projects for 20 years, including high profile jobs at Discovery Channel’s World Headquarters (Silver Spring, MD) and Eskenazi Hospital (Indianapolis, IN).

Most recently, Alexander served as the director of public works for the city of Westfield.

“When I made the decision to leave the private sector for the Government sector, I sought after the City of Westfield due to the possibility of being involved in one of the most unique and groundbreaking projects – Grand Park,” Alexander said. “This director opportunity is a dream come true and one that will involve many of my passions in life. My whole family is excited about this new role for me and my career.”

Originally from San Diego, Alexander is the son of a Navy officer and grew up in several states throughout the country. He holds a degree in construction and engineering management from Purdue University, and lives in Carmel with his wife and three children.

December home sales increase; total for 2014 slip

December home sales increased 8.5 percent statewide, but it wasn't enough of a boost for the total number of home sales in 2014 to best the year before. Home sales for 2014 slipped 1.6 percent compared to 2013. This is according to the Indiana Real Estate Markets Report today released by the state's REALTORS.

However, home sale prices were better in both the monthly and annual comparisons. December's median sale price is $125,000, a 5.2 percent increase, and the average is $153,643, a 4.8 percent increase. The median sale price of all homes sold in 2014 is $126,000, a 3.3 percent increase, and the average is $152,095, a 4.2 percent increase.

Other monthly comparisons (December 2014 vs. December 2013) from the report show -

- The number of pending home sales increased 18.3 percent to 4,390
- The percent of original list price received increased 2.6 percent to 93.4 percent
- The number of new listings increased 5.9 percent to 5,480

Other annual comparisons (2014 vs. 2013) from the report show -

- The number of pending home sales increased 1.6 percent to 73,086
- The percent of original list price received increased 1.7 percent to 93.5 percent
- The number of new listings decreased 2.9 percent to 114,201

"The year as a whole shaped up to be much better than most believed it would be at the start of 2014," said Brownsburg's Bruce Bright, 2015 President of the Indiana Association of REALTORS. "Interest rates remained low, and the number of private sector jobs grew. This coupled nicely on the government side with mortgage debt forgiveness and interest deduction preservation.

"The increase in December pending home sales suggests that 2015 will be off to a faster start than 2014," continued Bright. "Whether real estate stays on this positive path depends on the job market, and particularly on wages, access to credit, and consumer confidence."

Sun King Brewing closes on Delaware Park deal

106th Street Partners, LLC recently closed on the sale of 12.76 acres of its Delaware Park commercial development to Indianapolis-based craft beer maker Sun King Brewing Co.

Sun King plans to build a second production facility and a tasting room on the Delaware Park property which is located at the southeast corner of Kincaid Drive and Park Central Drive in Fishers. Designs call for up to a 40,000-square-foot facility which will include the brewery, office and retail space as well as an expansive tasting room. Construction is expected to begin soon with the goal to be brewing at the new facility by this summer.

The new Sun King Brewery will be an important anchor for the 75-acre mixed-use development in Delaware Park. The remaining acreage will include various office and retail properties.

As interest in the new development increases, the partnership continues to speak with numerous businesses that have expressed interested in locating in Delaware Park. Discussions are also underway with the Town of Fishers to extend the future Nickel Plate Trail through the park. Extending the pedestrian and walking trail would connect Delaware Park to downtown Fishers and several parks in the community.

Indiana farmers plant, produce record popcorn crop

Indiana farmers last year planted more acres in popcorn than ever before and produced a record crop despite abnormally wet conditions, according to a new report from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Farmers planted 91,000 acres of corn used to make popcorn, up 10,000 acres from 2013, according to a National Agricultural Statistics Service report produced for Purdue University. They harvested 90,000 acres, also up 10,000 acres from the previous year.

Although the amount of Indiana acres harvested in popcorn was small compared with the 5.77 million acres in corn grown for grain, Indiana is regarded as the second-largest popcorn producer in the nation behind Nebraska.

The NASS said total Indiana production was a record 4.32 million hundredweight, or cwt, equal to 432 million pounds. That was up 16 percent from the 3.72 million cwt in 2013.

The average yield of 48 cwt per acre, up 2 cwt from 2013, also was a record.

Greg Matli, Indiana state statistician for NASS, noted that while some farmers initially were concerned that planting delays caused by wet conditions would affect production and yield, the weather seemed to have had little effect in the long run.

"Although some producers lost a percentage of their crop due to scattered, severe weather in the early spring, many fields handled the storms well," he said. "Producers were able to harvest the majority of the crop, which led to the highest production in the state on record."

The average price that farmers received for their crop, however, was down $2.80 per cwt from a year earlier, at $18.90 cwt, compared with $21.70 in 2013. The crop value was $81.65 million, up nearly 1 percent from the previous year.

The NASS report is available free for download at Purdue Extension's The Education Store at www.edustore.purdue.edu. The report can be obtained by entering the product code, D-463-W, in the search box.

Kroger support of The Salvation Army sets fund-raising record of $1.12 million

The Kroger Co.'s Central Division led an expanded fund-raising campaign on behalf of The Salvation Army from Friday, Nov. 14 through Wednesday, Dec. 24. The fund-raising goal for the campaign was $1 million. The campaign raised $1,135,676.67, well above the $1 million goal and 21.3 percent more than the $936,144 raised in 2013.

Kroger Central Division stores hosted red kettle bell ringers in front of stores from Friday, Nov. 14 through Wednesday, Dec. 24. The red kettles at 129 Kroger Central Division stores across Indiana and Illinois, as well as three Missouri stores, one Ohio store and one Michigan store, raised $1,076,871.80 in 2014.

On Thursday, Dec. 18, division president Jeff Burt rang the bell at the division's 86th and Township Line store in Indianapolis from 9:00 AM to noon. Burt was joined by other Kroger leaders and vendor partners. A total of $37,246 was raised in three hours.

In addition, all Kroger division managers volunteered for a bell-ringing shift on Tuesday, Dec. 23 at their stores, raising an additional $20,203 for The Salvation Army. During the Dec. 18 and 23 bell-ringing shifts, Kroger leaders made 15 "surprise" donations into the kettles of $1,000 each across Indiana and Illinois.

Central Division's Pay Less banner stores in Anderson, Lafayette and West Lafayette did not have bell-ringers, but did have red kettle scan icons at all check lanes, raising an additional $1,356.

Kroger was proud to be the new WIBC Salvation Army radiothon sponsor on Friday, Dec. 5. Kroger volunteers manned the phones that afternoon and matched some call-in donations during the period.

Kroger Central Division president Jeff Burt said, "The Salvation Army and their mission aligns very effectively with Kroger's community engagement priorities. Their local food pantries, often with food donated by Kroger, help feed our hungry neighbors. They are usually the first to respond when disaster strikes, helping care for Kroger associates and customers in need in so many local communities. They are compassionate and caring. It is a privilege for Kroger to gather resources for The Salvation Army during this holiday season. I realize that $1 million was an ambitious goal for this Kroger operating division, and I am very, very proud of the generosity and hard work of our own associates, our customers and our vendor partners across Indiana and Illinois for not only achieving, but exceeding that goal."

Salvation Army Indiana Divisional Commander Major Bob Webster said, "We simply can't say enough about our friends at Kroger. They have once again gone the extra mile to ensure that people in need, in the hundreds of communities where we serve together with Kroger, will have their needs met in 2015. We are humbled by their continued trust in us to do the most good with the resources they provide for us. Together, we are building better communities throughout Indiana and Illinois."

Kokomo files legal action against IDHS over stadium

The City of Kokomo has filed legal action against Director David Kane and the Indiana Department of Homeland Security seeking declaratory and injunctive relief in an effort to continue building the Kokomo Municipal Stadium.

The complaint, filed in the Marion County Environmental Court, states that, "IDHS has no right to prevent the proposed construction on the Parcels that comply with the Agreed Terms. The Agreed Terms, which IDHS and the City agreed to govern the future use of the Parcels, allow the City to build on the Parcels pursuant to and consistent with the Redesign." The stadium project encompasses approximately 70 total parcels—eight of which have had construction halted due to IDHS.

The suit comes after months of communication with IDHS officials, including a July 17, 2014 letter from the City of Kokomo to IDHS requesting a meeting to address any concerns the agency might have with the project. IDHS ignored the City's request, and the letter, for months. The City and its contractors had over 25 communications with IDHS, IDEM, and DNR regarding the stadium and flood mitigation between July and mid-October in which no concerns were expressed by the State. Beginning in mid-October, IDHS took unprecedented action in interfering with the construction.

"We have honored our agreement with IDHS and it is unfortunate that the City of Kokomo has to file this legal action," said Kokomo Mayor Greg Goodnight. "Kokomo Municipal Stadium is a catalyst for economic growth. Local high schools and the Prospect League Kokomo Jackrabbits will call it home. It is the center of nearly $40 million in investments, job creation and economic development. IDHS's actions are big government overreach at its worst."

IDHS Statement:

The City of Kokomo is still not in compliance with the baseball stadium construction according to the grant agreement with the Federal Emergency Management Agency. FEMA reinforced this decision with a letter on January 22, 2015. Since October, IDHS has attempted to find solutions so the baseball stadium could move forward.

The agency does not wish to halt economic development, but at the same time, the terms of the grant agreement are clear and IDHS will not risk FEMA penalizing the entire state by withholding what could be tens of millions of dollars over an extended period of time. IDHS will present its side of the case in court.

Millers looking for a win over Royals....

NHS at HSE this Friday

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Can a game be labeled as a rivalry game when one of the two teams has dominated the series? Seriously?

Most folks here in Hamilton County will think of Noblesville-Southeastern as rivalry game. Seriously?

Hamilton Southeastern has defeated Noblesville seven consecutive times. Noblesville's last win in the series was a 43-42 barnburner five years ago in the sectiona, after HSE had beaten the Millers 57-55 in the regular season game.

Speaking of regular season games, Southeastern has defeated Noblesville seven consecutive times. Eight years ago the Millers won 46-45.

In the last seven years Southeastern has eliminated Noblesville from the sectional three times in four tries.

The two clubs will meet again this Friday at Hamilton Southeastern.

Record-wise, it hasn't been a good season for the Royals. Coach Brian Satterfield's team is just 5-11.

Southeastern played two of its better games of the season last weekend, losing 38-37 at Zionsville and knocking off Mt. Vernon 62-55.

In Southeastern's last five losses, all have been by a margin of five points or less. The five-point setback was a 71-66 double-overtime decision to Lawrence Central.

"Last weekend was good one," said Satterfield, "but we are still not satisfied. We had the opportunity to win both games. Having the four-point lead with about three minutes left in the fourth quarter at Zionsville was nice, but we missed opportunities at both ends of the floor to close the game.

"We continue to make good strides," the HSE coach continued. "But, that is the final hurdle we need to cross to make that big jump.

"The team bounced back on Saturday with a very solid defensive effort against Mt. Vernon, especially in the second and third quarters."

Southeastern is led in scoring by Zach Gunn, one of the best sophomores in the state. He is averaging 18 points and 10.9 rebounds a game.

Next in the scoring column is Chris Ford at 9.3 and Greg Miller at 8.8. Next best rebounding average is 3.3 by Miller.

"The key for our group is we are finally starting to get healthy," Satterfield said. "We still aren't there, but getting close. The ones who were sick or injured are starting to get their legs and the team is getting a better feel for each other. We just have to keep progressing in the right direction each day, which we have done for the most part."

Noblesville, coming through a very tough streak of games, will take a 10-6 mark to Southeastern. The Millers had dropped three in a row before beating a good Merrillville team 57-50 last Saturday.

"Our team played really well versus a very good Merrillville team," said Noblesville first-year coach Brian McCauley. "It was a great response to a challenging game versus Carmel the night before."

The Millers took Carmel to the wire before losing by 10.

Noblesville has three Millers scoring in double figures, led by junior John Kiser at 13.7 points a game. Kiser also is the rebound leader at 6.7. Next high rebounding average is 2.8 by guard Sean Wilson.

Jake Mills is scoring at a 12.4 clip and Wilson is averaging 10.4 points a game.

"Friday's game with Noblesville will be a big one," Satterfield said. "Coach McCauley has done a nice job with this group. The Millers have always competed and I am sure this game will be a dog fight. The Millers have a lot of weapons, as every player can knock down the perimeter shot. We have to find a way to limit open looks without giving up easy buckets inside."

"Gunn leads them in scoring and rebounding," pointed out McCauley. "In addition, they have a great senior leadership in Ford, (Tyler) Janney, (Ty) Scholl and (Tiger) Guillory.

"Southeastern shoots very well and they have both size and athleticism," McCauley added.

This is the only game of the weekend for Noblesville and for Southeastern.

Huskies are exhausted....

No rest for Heights this week

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor
Hamilton Heights basketball coach Chad Ballenger said his Huskies are “exhausted.”
Rest isn’t on the way. At least not this weekend, nor next weekend. This weekend the Huskies play twice on the road, Friday at Tipton and then Saturday a Mid-Indiana Conference game at Taylor. Next weekend Heights will play a Friday conference game at Maconaquah and then on Saturday will host Hamilton County rival Westfield.
“We played in the Richmond Tourney, which fell on Jan. 1, so we did not really get any time off at Christmas,” Ballenger said. “We played four games in three days, plus all of our double weekends after that.”
Also the Huskies have injury problem. Starter Garrett Paull and reserve Sterling Weatherford won’t play again this weekend. Grant Weatherford has been playing with a swollen ankle.
“As a whole, our team needs rest,” Ballenger said.
Paull has played in only 11 of the Huskies 17 games. He’s averaging 12 points and 7.7 rebounds a game. Sterling Weatherford has played in just seven games of this his sophomore season.

Even so, Heights has offensive power. Hunter Crist is averaging 15.0 points a game; Jadon White 12.4 and Grant Weatherford 11.8. The big loss of Paull is rebounding. Crist is averaging 4.9 boards a game and Weatherford 4.7.
The Huskies are 10-7 after dropping three of their last five games
Friday’s opponent, Tipton, is having a good season. The Blue Devils are 9-3 and last time out had a five-game winning streak snapped by Kokomo, 54-40. The Blue Devils other losses have been to Frankton 78-54 early in the season and to Lafayette Central Catholic in a 65-60 overtime.
Playing a little comparison between the two team, two weeks ago Tipton beat Sheridan 85-41. Last time out, Hamilton Heights defeated Sheridan 78-37.
The Saturday game at Taylor is a conference game. Heights is 2-1 in the MIC after being upset by Eastern last week. The Huskies have four conference games remaining and all four are on the road at Taylor, Maconaquah, Northwestern and Peru.
Taylor has been struggling. The Titans are just 5-9 and have lost five of their last six games. Like Heights, Taylor also has lot to Eastern. This 55-42 defeat was a non-conference, tourney game.
“We are looking to get back on track,” Ballenger said.

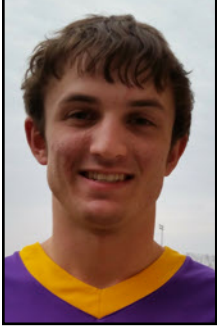

“Tipton is a big rival game. Heights has not won at Tipton since 2003. They are led by Mason Degenkolb, and he is a good one. They run everything through him. They are controlling tempo and are very aggressive on defense. Coach Lou Lefevre is well known for hi grind it out game and stifling defenses. Tipton always is a tough place to play.
“Last weekend’s loss to Eastern was very disappointing,” Ballenger continued. “I don’t think the guys were ready. I am disappointed in myself for not getting them ready. That is my job.
“We can still win the conference by winning out. That has been a goal all season. If the los helps us grow and refocus it will pay off in the long run.
“In the Taylor game we will see all zone. They have been struggling of late, but got a win against Clinton Central.
“It is always tough to go against Coach Basil Mawbey,” said Ballenger. “I was an assistant for him for six years at Kokomo and have a lot of respect for him. I owe him a lot for all my coaching opportunities and what he has done for me.
“The Taylor game will be huge because we must win every MIC game left, and this one is on the road,” said Ballenger.

Guerin leads Bishop Cup series....

Eagles to visit LCC Friday

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor
Guerin Catholic and Lafayette Central Catholic have been playing basketball only a few years but the series has developed into a good rivalry.
Coach Pete Smith’s Golden Eagles leads in the battle for the Lafayette Diocese bragging right and the Bishop Cup, leading three wins to two.
The two schools first met in 2009 at Conseco Fieldhouse as part of the Wooden Tradition Basketball Classic.
Last year Guerin won 47-45 as Matt Holba scored on a backdoor lay-in from Whit Rapp with one second left.
Guerin and Central Catholic will go at it again this Friday in Lafayette. It’s a girls/boys double-header, with the boys scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

“Boy, they always play us tough,” said Smith. “They are having another great season. Jackson Anthrop makes them go. They are a perimeter-dominated team and can shoot, drive it well, or can find guys open for 3’s. They are athletic and fast. We must contest their shots and bloc them out.”

Holba

Guerin Catholic is 11-6 and has lost three of its last five games against some very tough competition. The Eagles are coming off a 65-48 win over Brebeuf.
“We played with much more energy and purpose at Brebeuf last Friday,” Smith said. “That was a positive. We developed some bad habits over the holiday break that we’re working to clean up. But, to win in a hostile environment as we did can only help us get ready for Central Catholic.”
Holba, the hero of last year’s game, is back and he is averaging 17.6 points and 9.7 rebounds a game.
But, Smith isn’t sure Christian Munson will play. Averaging 17.5 points a game, Munson suffered a concussion in the Terre Haute South loss.
“It will be a game time decision,” Smith said of Munson. “He started back with us over the weekend. I sure as heck hope he is able to play. Our trainer, Doug Keen, is really keeping close tabs on Christian in drills during our practices.”
Central Catholic has an 8-3 record. The Knights have won three of their last four games, losing during the period only to Andrean 61-59. They defeated Frankfort 73-57 last time out.
“I like how our schedule is playing out heading into February,” Smith looked ahead. “We front-load our schedule, and hope the single weekends give us some rest and solid practice time as we prepare for the state tournament series.”

Millers blast Pendleton

Star of the Game: Katelyn O'Reilly scored 25 points in 88-50 blowout.
Noblesville's Record: Won 18, Lost 1.
Next Up: Hamilton Southeastern will come to The Mill Saturday evening to decide Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship. The Lady Royals have defeated the Lady Millers 17 straight times.

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Most coaches, at this point late in the season, might be concerned about playing three games in one week. Especially when the third game will decide the conference championship.

Not so with Noblesville mentor Donna Keck.

After Noblesville unloaded on Kokomo earlier in the week, the Lady Millers returned to The Mill last evening and powered past Pendleton Heights 88-50.

The third game of the week will come in a prime time special, also in The Mill, Saturday evening when Hamilton Southeastern comes calling for a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game. Noblesville already has clinched a share of the conference championship. Southeastern needs a victory to tie the Lady Millers for the crown. In HCC play, Southeastern has lost to Westfield 38-37.

Noblesville will enter the game with an 18-1 overall mark, beaten only by 19-2, No. 4 ranked Homestead. The Millers are ranked No. 6. Southeastern is ranked No. 17 with a 14-5 mark. The Lady Royals are 14-5 after a close loss to Pike earlier in the week.

"Southeastern is a good team," said Keck after watching the explosion against Pendleton Heights last evening. "They gave (No. 12 ranked) Pike a good game."

There's a little sidebar to the Noblesville-Southeastern game on Saturday. Southeastern has defeated Noblesville 17 straight times, 15 during the regular season and two in sectional play. The Millers' last victory over the Royals was a 75-56 verdict in the 2001-02 season.

Keck said she isn't concerned about the HSE game being Noblesville's third this week.

"We've got depth," said the coach. "Our team is built for this situation. We used all 12 players in the Kokomo game and again tonight against Pendleton Heights."

Keck removed her starters from the game one last time with the Millers leading 75-46 and 5:25 remaining in the game.

That didn't seem to matter as Noblesville continued to roll.

Noblesville started slow, trailing 21-18 after one quarter. The Millers fell behind by seven points, 25-18, before the machine started to roll. The hosts went in front at 26-25 on a bucket by Katelyn O'Reilly.

The floodgate opened after that. Noblesville outscored Pendleton 26-13 in the second quarter, 24-8 in the third period and 20-8 in the fourth frame.

Noblesville's pressing defense was a big factor Pendleton had eight turnovers in each of the second and third quarters and 22 in the game.

O'Reilly hit 7-of-7 shots while scoring 14 points in the second quarter. She went to halftime with 18 points.

In the third quarter, Alexis Shannon exploded for nine points.

Four Millers finished the game in double figures. O'Reilly led the way with 25 points, followed by Shannon with 17, Becca Bergman with 14 and Erin Wood with 11 points.

Bergman was 4-of-6 from 3-point range.

Freshman Emily Kiser, who scored seven points, led Noblesville on the boards with six rebounds.

O'Reilly hit 11-of-15 shots.

Breaking down the Hamilton Heights sectional

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

The road to Bankers Life Fieldhouse for Indiana’s high school wrestlers start with Saturday’s sectionals.

Hamilton County teams will split across two sectionals. First, Guerin Catholic and Noblesville travel up to Hamilton Heights, where the Millers are the five-time defending champions. The Millers are a young team this year, but they won’t let their trophy go without a fight.

The biggest competition appears to be from the host Huskies and Pendleton Heights. The Arabians have two wrestlers ranked in the My House state rankings, and two additional athletes in the New Castle semi-state rankings, along with the other two. Pendleton and Noblesville both have five top seeds, Heights has three and Tipton one.

Here’s a complete list of the sectional brackets, along with a brief breakdown of each weight class.

Participating teams: Alexandria (AL), Anderson (AN), Elwood (EL), Frankton (FR), Guerin Catholic (GC), Hamilton Heights (HH), Lapel (LA), Noblesville (NOB), Pendleton Heights (PH), Tipton (TI), Tri-Central (TC).

106 pounds
David Bryant (HH), junior, 23-1 vs. bye
Forfeit (FR) vs. bye
Wyatt Shupperd (TC), freshman, 18-14 vs. Forfeit (AL)
Blake Archart (EL), freshman, 17-22 vs. bye
Jon Duran (AN), sophomore, 17-11 vs. Forfeit (TI)
Anthony DeInnocentes (GC), sophomore, 13-17 vs. bye
Nick Brady (NOB), sophomore, 11-20 vs. Forfeit (LA)
Elijah Bauer (PH), 24-17 vs. bye

Breakdown: Bryant, with only one loss this season, is ranked seventh in the state rankings, and third in the semi-state rating, and also will receive safe passage to the semi-finals, with a bye and a forfeit in the next match down. DeInnocentes and Brady, both of whom have some good wins this season, would be a nice semi-final match.

113 pounds
Mateo Barnnates (NOB), sophomore, 12-9 vs. Forfeit (FR)

Brian Reddick/File photo

Noblesville’s Josh Marlow (gold) and Hamilton Heights’ Isaac Ray (orange) are in opposite ends of the draw in the 160-pound weight class at this Saturday’s wrestling sectional, which the Huskies will host.

bye vs. bye
Chester Mills (AN), sophomore, 15-18 vs. bye
Cody Turner (HH), junior, 10-6 vs. bye
Cully Upperman (LA), sophomore, 25-5 vs. bye
Steven Thompson (TI), freshman, 14-17 vs. Forfeit (AL)
Chris Semler (GC), freshman, 12-16 vs. Forfeit (TC)
Blake Lowe (PH), junior, 33-8 vs. Forfeit (EL)

Breakdown: Lowe is 10th in the semi-state rankings, with more than twice the wins of anyone else in this small division - there are only seven wrestlers, and the "bye vs. bye" is not a misprint. Barrantes and Turner could be a good semi-final match in the top half of the draw. Semler will take on Lowe in the quarter-finals, which will be a good test for the freshman.

120 pounds
Aaron Sikorski (PH), junior, 30-11 vs. Tyler Robinson (TI), junior 13-16
Chris Loy (HH), sophomore, 20-10 vs. DJ Rambo (AL), freshman, 21-13
Bryston Sprecher (NOB), junior, 14-18 vs. Chance Mason (TC), sophomore, 19-13
Marc Fensler (LA), freshman, 24-4 vs. bye
Mike Feters (AN), senior, 26-6 vs. bye
Korbin Lane (GC), freshman, 24-10 vs. bye
Andrew Hawes (EL), sophomore, 4-11 vs. bye
Cance Carpenter (FR), senior, 26-7 vs. bye

Breakdown: Finally, some pigtail matches! Loy will get a tough match with the freshman Rambo, but the Huskies have been wrestling well as of late. Sprecher faces a good Tri-Central wrestler, while Lane will be eager to prove himself in a tough bottom half of the draw.

126 pounds
Trezdon O’Neal (HH), junior, 23-1 vs. bye
Keagan Hezmer (LA), freshman, 7-20 vs. Keegan Planalp (FR), sophomore, 12-21
Jack Wishart (NOB), senior, 16-8 vs. bye
Trent Shaffer (TC), freshman, 3-7 vs. Steven Peavler (AL), senior, 20-1
Tyler Flood (PH), junior, 26-11 vs. bye

Indy Fuel extend win streak with OT victory

In the first game of a three-game home stand at Indiana Farmers Coliseum, the Indy Fuel battled through adversity and eventually defeated the Gwinnett Gladiators in overtime on Wednesday by a final score of 3-2. With the win, the Fuel's seventh straight victory and eighth in the team's past nine games, Indy improved to 14-21-4-3 overall this season and with 35 points, remain alone in sixth place in the ECHL's North Division standings, just four points out of playoff position.

After a sluggish start, the Gladiators claimed a 1-0 lead late in the first period as Greg Carey was credited with a power-play goal at 18:10 after the Gwinnett winger banked his tenth marker of the season off Fuel defenseman Nick Bruneteau. After the majority of the middle stanza slid by scoreless, Vincent Arseneau leveled the score at 14:49 thanks to a slick, end-wall centering feed from Garrett Bembridge at even strength. Bembridge then delivered Indy their first lead at 16:06, as the veteran winger popped a power-play marker past Glads goaltender Kent Patterson to make it 2-1 Fuel.

Indy allowed a late third-period equalizer to Gladiators forward Brenden Walker, but in overtime, the Fuel claimed their second-consecutive extra session victory thanks to a Pete Massar score at 2:20, assisted by Nicklas Lindberg, that extended the Fuel's team-record point streak to nine games.

Indy goaltender Mac Carruth, the reigning CCM ECHL Goaltender of the Week, was sensational in victory, turning aside 31 of the 33 Gwinnett shots he faced en route to his sixth straight victory while Gladiators net-minder Kent Patterson was impressive as well in defeat, turning in a 31 save performance.

Next up for the Fuel, it's a Friday showdown with the Reading Royals with the opening faceoff set for 7:35 pm on "Nitro Night" at Indiana Farmers Coliseum. Join the Fuel in celebrating the team's number-one fan, "Nitro the Dragon," as the first 1,000 ticket holders through the gates will receive a free Nitro mini hockey stick. For tickets, visit any Ticketmaster outlet, visit www.ticketmaster.com or swing by the Indiana Farmers Coliseum box office during regular business hours, Monday through Friday from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Full television coverage of Friday's game begins at 7:30 pm on HTSN with Jim Mirabello on the call while full radio coverage starts with the "Jose Cuervo Pregame Show" at 7:20 pm over the air on CBS Sports 1430 WXNT-AM, online at www.cbssports1430.com and on smartphones everywhere via the free "TuneIn" Radio app with Fuel broadcaster Tony Brown providing the play-by-play.
