Mary Alice (O'Shea) Gregoline February 11, 2015

Mary Alice (O'Shea) Gregoline died February 11, 2015 at home, surrounded by her five loving daughters, from complications of a hip fracture she received on the morning of her husband, Paul's, funeral service. They had been married for 70 years, beginning their life together March 18, 1944 before Paul reported for service in the Army during World War II. The past several years, she cared for him at home as his health declined, even though her eyesight was failing due to macular degeneration and she was hampered by severe arthritis in her feet. They were together, sleeping side by side the morning Paul passed away on January 16, 2015. Mary was the daughter of George and Agnes (Muno) O'Shea and the first of 6 chil-

Education was important to Mary. While raising a family of five girls, Mary got her GED so she could pursue a college degree. She received her BS in accounting from IU

Northwest in 1970, the same year her middle daughter graduated from high school. Mary worked for a local accountant, Joe Alonzo, while attending college and for several years after. She started her own business in 1985. She was active in her profession, serving several years on the board of the Indiana Society of Public Accountants, receiving an award in honor of her many years of service by being inducted into the Indiana Society of Public Accountants Hall of Fame in 1995.

She also served for many years on the board of Lakes of the Four Seasons, a community of about 2,500 homes. She was instrumental in enhancing the quality of life, and constructing and enhancing tennis courts, baseball fields and parks. She loved the outdoors and after her career as an accountant, took up nature photography, winning many awards over multiple years at the Indiana State Fair statewide competition.

Fitness, too, was important to Mary and ensuring access for all was a lifelong pursuit. Not only did she coach many of her girls' basketball and volleyball teams, ensuring that every team member regardless of ability had a chance to play, she single-handedly brought physical education space and programming to the local parochial school, St. Joseph the Worker in Gary. She convinced the pastoral leadership to convert an old church into an indoor gym and worked with the local public school system to arrange access to outdoor track facilities.

Her Irish heritage was a strong part of Mary's identity, and she is survived by her five lucky daughters: Kathy (Dennis) Miller, Susan (Michael) Rusnak, Lauri (Michael) Waldner, Kim Gregoline, and Lisa DeHayes (Phil Waite); her 7 grandchildren; and 8 greatgrandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Connie Koopmann; and sister-in-law, Pauline Zancanaro. She is preceded in death by her brothers, Jack and William O'Shea; and sisters, Kay Porter and Nancy Nanos.

Private family services were held.

Carmel Kroger closes for renovations on Sunday

Kroger Central Division will temporarily close its store at 1217 Rangeline Road in Carmel, Indiana for 16 weeks starting midnight Sunday, Feb. 15. The temporary closure will allow a major renovation and expansion of the store.

Kroger will operate a smaller store, with limited food and general merchandise, at an adjacent store previously occupied by Walgreens. A temporary, full-service pharmacy will be set up next to the former Walgreens building. Pharmacy operating hours will not change.

CNO Financial announces fourth quarter earnings

Press Release

Carmel-based CNO Financial Group, Inc. (NYSE: CNO) announced its fourth quarter earnings report on Thursday.

CNO reported 2014 fourth-quarter operating earnings (1) of $59.3 million, or 29 cents per diluted share, compared to $66.2 million, or 29 cents per diluted share, in the fourth quarter of 2013. For the full year 2014, CNO reported operating earnings (1) of $259.5 million, or $1.19 per diluted share, compared to $248.4 million, or $1.07 per diluted share in 2013. Net income and operating earnings in the fourth quarter of 2014 reflect an unfavorable $9.8 million (5 cents per diluted share) after-tax mark-topensation plan liability which was impacted by the use of a new mortality table and the low interest rate environment. We have elected to recognize the mark-to-market change in the estimated value of this liability through earnings as assumptions change.

"We continued to profitably grow the enterprise in the fourth quarter, along with advancing Bankers Life agent recruiting," said Ed Bonach, CEO of CNO. "For the year, we made important progress on several fronts, in particular further reducing risk with the sale of CLIC, returning capital to shareholders, investing in our franchise, and growing our core businesses with in-

Defense shines again for Carmel over HSE

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

It's become a trademark, the way the Carmel boys basketball team wins games.

The plan is simple: Play tough defense, and let your superstar get things going. That's how it worked for the Greyhounds in their Thursday 48-31 victory over Hamilton Southeastern at the Eric Clark Activity

After a patient (bordering on cautious), first quarter, Carmel began building its lead over a Royals team that doesn't play bad defense itself. In fact, the 48 points HSE allowed ties it for sixth in fewest points given up this season.

The 'Hounds, meanwhile, gave up their fewest points of the year in 31.

"Our defense was consistent," said Carmel coach Scott Heady. "We did a good job defensively all night. Then when our offense got going, we got the lead."

The Greyhounds broke the ice in the first quarter, getting their first points at the 4:53 mark when Preston Flamion scored. Southeastern answered with 4:17 left when Zach Gunn hit a 3-pointer.

The lead went back and forth for all but the final minute of the first quarter. Ryan Cline had the last basket of the period, a 3-pointer which pushed Carmel ahead 10-8.

The second and third quarters followed the same pattern. Neither team scored in the second period until the third minute, when Cline and Gunn exchanged 3s. That would be the first of three downtown shots for Cline, who had 12 points in the half. A floater by Keegan Culp made the score 22-13 at halftime.

Southeastern refused to go away. On an early third-period possession by Carmel, Gunn blocked four Greyhound shots in quick succession, then eventually hit a jumper for the first score of the quarter, at around the 5:23 mark.

But Carmel knows how to answer, and the 'Hounds did it with Cline. The Purdue commit soon drained his fifth 3-pointers, then followed that up with a pair of foul shots. Meanwhile, the Carmel defense was doing its job: Gunn's basket were the only points the Greyhounds allowed HSE during a roughly eight-minute stretch that bridged the second and third periods.

"They're always a fundamentally sound team both ends of the floor," HSE coach Brian Satterfield said of Carmel. Satterfield said that his team "had to play very smart at both ends of the floor, and from an offensive standpoint, we just needed to take great shots, whether that took 10 seconds, or whether that took 60 seconds.

"I thought we got some good looks at es." said Satterfield. "Some of the times were able to knock them down, other times we didn't."

The 'Hounds led 34-19 after three quarters, with Preston Flamion hitting a layin soon after Cline drained his sixth '3' of the night. The Royals used an 8-0 run to cut the lead to 37-27 with about six minutes to go; Tyler Janney and Gunn hit 3s and Chris Ford's basket got HSE to within 10.

Stars of the Game: Ryan Cline scored 22 points for Carmel, while Zach Gunn had 15 points for Southeastern.

Carmel Record: Won 17, Lost 2 Southeastern Record: Won 7, Lost 13. Next Up: The Royals host Pike on Feb. 17, while the Greyhounds welcome Warren Central on Feb. 20.

Game on TV 40 tonight

The Hamilton Southeastern vs Carmel game will be replayed on CH 40 TV at 10:30 p.m. Tonight.

But Carmel wouldn't let the Royals any closer. Britt Beery's basket started an 8-0 run, which ended with Sterling Brown hitting a jumper to make the score 45-27, Carmel's largest lead of the night.

"I thought Ethan Merriweather and Sterling Brown played really well out on the floor," said Heady. "They didn't turn the ball over, played good defense. And I thought our post guys did a good job. (Trent) Richardson, we used Richardson, (Liam) Duncan and Beery. We kind of rotated them all, and I thought they were physical inside and they rebounded well."

Cline wound up with six 3-pointers, on his way to 22 points. He also grabbed nine rebounds. Carmel outrebounded HSE 30-23, with Culp grabbing six boards, and Flamion and Richardson both getting five. Brown handed out four assists, while Beery blocked two shots.

Gunn wound up with 15 points, along with five rebounds and four blocks. Janney and Brennan Schofield also had five boards, with Janney dishing out four assists.

Fishers' Brady Fleming, shown here in an earlier game, scored six points for the Tigers in their Thursday game with Pendleton Heights.

Cool 2nd quarter nails Sheridan...

Blackhawks beaten at Carroll

On a cold night at Carroll, Sheridan suffered a cold second quarter and never recovered while losing a tight 53-48 Hoosier Heartland Conference decision to the host Cougars.

The Blackhawks trailed only 15-13 after one quarter, but then Carroll went on an 11-5 second quarter run to take charge of the Saturday, hosting Tri-Central. The varsity Brock Kitchel poured in 22 points to lead Coach Chris Schrank's Sheridan team. Kitchel hit 3-of-7 shots from 3-point territory.

Also in double figures for Sheridan was Chris Roberts with 14 points. Roberts yanked eight rebounds to lead Sheridan on the boards.

Sheridan had a cool-shooting night, hitting only 18-of-47 shots, including going 4-of-15 from 3-point range.

Jake Chesney recorded six assists and collected five rebounds for the Blackhawks.

The loss dropped Sheridan to 5-12 on the year. The Blackhawks will play again on with Carroll.

Star of the Game: Brock Kitchel netted 22 points to lead Sheridan. Sheridan's Record: Won 5, Lost 12. Next Up: Sheridan will host Tri-Central in a 2:30 p.m. Saturday game.

Reporter Editor Fishers suffered a double blow Thursday evening in a basketball game against visiting Pendleton Heights.

Blow No. 1: the Tigers lost a 50-48 battle against a very good opponent.

Blow No. 2: Coach Joe Leonard lost scoring ace senior Keegan Kollmeyer with an ankle injury, perhaps a season-ending ankle injury.

"It's a high ankle sprain," Leonard said after the game. "Sometimes it takes six weeks to recover from that type of injury."

Not only is Leonard concerned about not having Kollmeyer for the sectional, Fishers next game is on Feb. 20 at home against Zionsville. The winner of that game will capture the Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship.

"I'm really upset about the injury. Keegan was just beginning to come around," Leonard said. "But, I'm so proud of my basketball team. We had kids who stepped up their game tonight. Tyler Wolfe came in and hit two 3-pointers, and Shawn Moore came off the bench and played well.

"I think we had kids who gained lots of confidence tonight."

Fishers also played without another starter. Andre Small was sidelined with a

When Kollmeyer, who was averaging 17 points a game, went to the bench with 4:51 left in the half, Fishers was trailing 21-16.

The Tigers rallied and took a 25-23 lead on a 3-pointer by Lance Dollison, but Sean McDermott canned a 3-pointer for Pendleton just before the half-time horn and the Arabians went to intermission with a 26-25 lead.

Fishers never again led.

Pendleton Heights outscored Fisher 17-9 in the third quarter to take a 43-34 advantage.

But, Fishers had a chance to win at the end. A 3-pointer by Wolfe brought the Tigers to within three, 46-43 with 27

McDermott, an outstanding 6-5 senior, connected on a pair of free throws to put Pendleton up 48-43. Cameron Wolter was fouled while making a Fishers bucket and he followed with a free throw to draw the Tigers within two.

That's when the game was won by Pendleton and lost by Fishers.

Following a time out, Pendleton broke McDermott down court on an in-bounds pass and he dunked a layup to give Pendleton a 50-46 lead.

Following another time out, Pendleton gave Fishers' Brady Fleming an uncontested lay-in as time ran out.

With the victory, Pendleton Heights moved to 16-4 on the year and Fishers fell to 11-9 and ended a two-game winning streak.

Kollmeyer finished the game with 12 points. Wolter also notched 12 points and Dollison also was in double figures with 10

Golden Eagles soar past Heritage

Matt Holba poured in a career-high 38 points and grabbed twelve rebounds to lead Guerin Catholic to a 63-46 victory over Heritage Christian Thursday night in boys basketball action.

Heritage Christian led 11-2 before GC mentor Pete Smith called time out with 3:55 left in the first quarter. The Golden Eagles responded and ended the period scoring the last nine points to tie the game as the teams started the second period. Twelve secondquarter points by Holba paved the way as night at Pendleton Heights. Guerin lead at halftime 27-19.

Sophomore reserve Matthew Godfrey gave Holba some scoring support after halftime, scoring seven points while Holba scored nine more in the third period. GC held a 20-point lead at the end of three periods 49-29 over the hosts.

Heritage Christian (7-12) fought hard and tried to make some runs, but Holba added five more field goals in the final stanza. Guerin Catholic (14-7) held its biggest lead at 59-36 in the before reserves finished the contest.

Holba's 38 points were two points shy of tying the Guerin's single game scoring record of 40, set by Jordan Rapp in the 2010 2A regional championship game at Tipton. Holba had a 3-point field goal attempt rattle in and out on his last shot of the evening before Smith pulled the 6-6 senior out of the ### University's win streak ends...

Covenant runs away from 'Blazers in 4th

Star of the Game: Tyler Diehl scored 21 points. University Record: Won 12, Lost 7 Next Up: The Trailblazers play at Shortridge tonight

The University Trailblazers had their six game winning streak snapped Thursday night, falling 56-46 at Covenant Christian.

The Trailblazers led for all but 67 seconds of the first three quarters of the game, but the Warriors broke away from a 34-34 tie after three quarters and pulled away for the win

Tyler Diehl led the way for University with 21 points and Connor Holly added 16.

University jumped on top six seconds in to the game on a Holly three pointer and UHS led by as many as six in the quarter before settling for a 15-13 after one. Diehl had nine in the first quarter and Holly had

The Trailblazers maintained a small lead through most of the second quarter before Covenant Christian took their first lead of the night at 20-19 with 1:02 left. Jazen Cosby's only basket of the night put University back on top with 35 seconds remaining in the half and Diehl knocked down a three pointer from out front with five seconds left in the half to put the Trailblazers on top 24-20 at the half.

University threatened to take control in the third quarter. Another Diehl triple and a steal and bucket from Holly staked University to a 29-20 lead just 34 seconds in to the half. The nine-point lead was the largest of the lead for University. The Warriors clawed back in the game and finally pulled even at 34 with just 33 seconds left in the Covenant Christian hit two quick baskets to open the fourth quarter and led the rest of the way. University was within 44-41 midway through the fourth quarter, but the hosts stretched the lead to as many as 11 as the Warriors hit their free throws down the stretch.

University is next in action Friday night at future Pioneer Academic Athletic Conference opponent Indianapolis Shortridge.

Victory Field to host Indiana-Notre Dame baseball game on April 21

nized universities will face off in downtown Indianapolis at the state's premier baseball facility as the Indiana Hoosiers take on the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame. Victory Field will be the site of the contest on April 21, 2015. Gates nation's finest ballparks, and we cannot thank the Indianapwill open at 5:30 p.m. with first pitch at 7:00 p.m.

Tickets, which start at just $8, are on sale now at IndyIndians.com. Students, faculty, children ages 3-14 and active members of the military receive $3 off the gate price, while children age 2 and under will be admitted for free.

"Playing Indiana University at Victory Field is an outstanding opportunity for our Notre Dame baseball team," baseball sport administrator and senior associate athletics director Jody Sadler said. "Victory Field is an amazing facility in a vibrant community. Not only do we have four current members of our team from the Indianapolis area, but we also have over 2,500 Notre Dame Alumni living in elite minor league ballparks in the country against a great Indy and its surrounding suburbs. We are excited to get down there to play and we are hoping to see many Irish fans at Victory Field for the game April 21."

The 2015 Irish return 28 players and add eight standout freshmen from a 2014 squad that finished 22-31 overall in its first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Notre Dame also continues to see recent alumni make an impact in the Major Leagues led by All-Star Jeff Samardzija, starter David Phelps and OF AJ Pollock.

"We are excited about the game against Indiana at Victory Field," said Aoki. "I think it's awesome to be able to go to Indianapolis and play at a great field like that. It's a beautiful place and I'm looking forward to getting down there and playing against a program that has certainly had their fair share of success over the last couple of years."
