Noblesville Police K9 officer Jerry Fenimore searches downtown Westfield for the suspect that robbed the 21st Amendment liquor store located in the 200 block of east Main St. Westfield.

Westfield Police investigating 21st Amendment robbery

At 10:20 a.m. a male entered the 21st Amendment liquor store located at 220 E. Main Street in downtown Westfield and demanded money from the store clerk.

Police stated the suspect did not display a weapon; however, implied that he had one.

Police say the suspect fled on foot. A perimeter was established by officers from Westfield, Noblesville and the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department. A few local streets were closed to traffic during the search for the suspect. Police K9 units searched the area but were unable to locate the suspect.

The suspect is described as a white male, six feet tall, wearing a dark colored jacket and had a scarf covering his face.

Nearby Westfield High School, along with Westfield's Middle and Intermediate schools, were placed on lockdown.

Today's robbery was the second of its kind in downtown Westfield.

On Sunday, February 8th Westfield police responded to a reported robbery at the Speedway Gas Station located at 201 W. Main Street, just four blocks from today's incident.

Police are requesting anyone with information on either robbery to contact the Westfield Police Department at 317-804-3200.

Thank you, Commissioner

There hardly is a day go by that someone doesn't ask me why, at my age, I'm still involved in producing a newspaper.

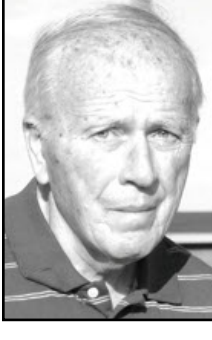

With a birthday coming up later this month, I've thought about that question.

It's clear. I pound the beat day after day because of you, the reader. I want

Hamilton County folks to have a great local newspaper every day, including Sundays and holidays.

I think that's why all of us here at the Hamilton County Reporter work as hard as we do.

Especially so since we started our email edition about a year ago, I get comments about how The Reporter has become a daily treat. But, not just a daily treat, The Reporter has become a daily source of Hamilton County news and sports.

RE/MAX Ability Plus announces redevelopment plan in Fishers

The City of Fishers, together with RE/MAX Ability Plus, announced plans for a new redevelopment project on the recently reconstructed Maple St., just north of 116th Street in the Nickel Plate District. RE/MAX plans to build a new two-story, 6,800 square foot office building at 11634 Maple St. Construction is expected to start in late second quarter of 2015. RE/MAX Ability Plus plans to invest $1.8 million in the project and grow its Fishers office to over 80 agents in the next two years.

"More and more businesses want to be a part of the Fishers community," said Mayor Scott Fadness. "The recent infrastructure updates to the Maple St. corridor not only improved access to the businesses already in the area, but also paved the way for future development. RE/MAX's office concept is a perfect addition to Maple St. and further the connected vision for this part of the Nickel Plate District."

In October 2014, the Fishers Redevelopment Commission issued a request for proposals to purchase and develop the quarter acre lot. The City received two proposals. Under the selected proposal, RE/MAX Ability Plus would pay $25,000 for the land and the City would waive development and impact fees related to the development. The City Council will consider the fee waiver request at its meeting on Monday, February 16, 2015, and the Fishers Redevelopment Commission is expected to consider the sale of the property at a meeting in late February.

"We are recommending RE/MAX Ability Plus because of their vision for the

I was reminded of that earlier today when I received an email from Hamilton County Commissioner Steve Dillinger, who is on vacation in Mexico. If you know Dillinger, you know that the commissioner, even while on vacation, never misses a day of doing county work.

"Again," Dillinger said in his email, "your paper has been a great source of information for me down here. It is the first thing I read every morning. Information like my Uncle Wendell dying to the passing of Mary Kay McGlinch, who was a very close friend of mine. "Some good news as well, like the girls beating Carmel in the first round of the sectional," Dillinger added. The Reporter's top goal is providing local news. Those who have followed me for years will recall the times I have written, "How can you live in Hamilton County a day without reading the local newspaper?" I admit, I have been surprised with some of the comments I've received. A long-time friend of mine, who I once coached as a kid and now is a daily advertiser in The Reporter, told me that he never read a newspaper until we came along with our email edition. I've had others tell me how much they enjoy having a print edition in their hands, but they've joined the crowd which now daily gets their news from our email edition. Of course, we have a print edition, too, which is published every Monday. For many months I thought our success was the email edition. Having the newspaper in your computer every morning, rain, snow, or shine. Even on Sundays. Even on holidays when other newspapers don't publish. But, our success is not just having an email edition. Our success is producing the latest news and the best sports section around. That's why you folks read The Reporter. I had to laugh when I read how another newspaper is partnering with an Indianapolis television station to bring its readers the best sports coverage in Hamilton County. I promise you that for the best sports coverage in Hamilton County, The Reporter will never need the help of an Indianapolis television station. It's nice having folks like Steve Dillinger to take time while vacationing to write us and give us a pat on the back. We always will have the best news and sports in your computer every morning, no matter how many competitors will try to duplicate that.

Noblesville’s Emily Kiser (30) and Rachel Shipman (22) run up the court as Cori Cain (3) drives the ball during the Millers’ sectional game with North Central on Friday. Noblesville won 68-39.

It was different, a whole bunch different from that Dec. 6 afternoon in Nora when Noblesville trailed host North Central for three quarters. The Lady Millers rallied to win by 17 points.

Last evening in the semi-final round of the sectional at Hamilton Southeastern, there was no trailing for Noblesville as Donna Keck’s high-powered machine flat out pounded the Panthers 68-39.

The only contest, if you could call it that, was between the Noblesville starters and the Noblesville reserves for top scoring honors. The bench won out, notching 36 of the Lady Millers’ 68 points.

That bench play, Keck said after the win, was extremely important.

“We were able to rest our kids tonight,” said the Noblesville coach. “I don’t know who will win the second game (between Fishers and Southeastern), but both teams will be going hard throughout the game.”

That’s exactly what happened in Game 2, won by Fishers 36-35.

So, this evening at 7:30 o’clock it will be Noblesville taking on the defending sectional champion Tigers for the sectional championship.

“We made some adjustment from that first North Central game,” Keck said, “and tonight we did a good job hitting our shots. We shot better.

“The bench played so well,” said the coach. “Cori Cain really gave us a lift early.”

There never was a question in winning and losing. Not on this night. Noblesville led 9-6 after one quarter and then in the second period, sparked by a pair of 3-pointers from Becca Bergman, pulled away with a 19-7 run.

Noblesville’s defense never allowed North Central a double digit scoring quarter until the fourth period. The Millers took a 46-31 lead into that final frame.

Among the starters, Bergman led Noblesville’s scoring with 10 points. Erin Wood scored nine points and Katelyn O’Reilly rested after scoring eight. O’Reilly had a big night on the boards with seven rebounds and Wood pulled five during the time she spent on the court.

Among those coming off the bench, sophomore Brooke Herron led with 10 points, followed by Audrey DeFoe with eight points and Emily Kiser with seven. Kiser, the 6-2 freshman center, collected five rebounds.

Kayleigh Herron, a starter, had five assists and four rebounds.

The Millers, as their coach said, shot the ball well. They hit 24-of-50 shots, a 48 percent number for a 12-player effort.

Noblesville’s Erin Wood goes for a loose ball.

The win gives Noblesville a 21-3 record entering tonight’s championship game. The Millers defeated Fishers, 45-33, back on Dec. 12. That was six days after the Millers had won at North Central.

It was one of those high school basketball games that if you weren’t cheering for one team or the other, you probably were wishing that the battle would never end. It was that good of a game.

Most worthy of a typical athletic contest between the Mudssock kids.

Defending sectional champion Fishers remained alive in the tourney by beating school district rival Hamilton Southeastern.

Barely.
Adrianna Murphy, the 5-1 Fishers fleet-footed flash, hit a game-winning shot with seven seconds left to give Fishers a 36-35 victory.

Even then, the game wasn’t over. Coach Michael Gaines, with a foul to give before Southeastern would make a 1-and-1 trip to the charity line, had his Tigers intentionally foul the Royals with 2.3 seconds remaining. After that, HSE threw away the basketball, and, finally, that was that for the evening.

Fishers now will attempt to defend its title in a battle against a very strong Noblesville team tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Gaines’ mind already was tuning up for that challenge as he stepped out of the Fishers dressing room.

“I’m already thinking Noblesville, and our kids will need to put this game behind them before tomorrow (Saturday) night. We have a great group of seniors who can lead us in doing that,” said Gaines

After fighting tooth and nail with Southeastern for 32 minutes, Gaines talked of the challenge ahead meeting a Noblesville team which had breezed to a win in the semi-final opener earlier in the evening.

“The physical part will be the thing,” he said. “Noblesville had a chance to rest their starters most of the night.”

Fishers did not. Eight Tigers got into the game, but none of Fishers’ 36 points came off the bench.

Murphy’s game winner followed a wild fourth quarter during which turnovers cost both teams.

Fishers entered the final frame with a 31-29 lead. That advantage was erased when Southeastern scored the first six points of the quarter on a bucket by Madi Taylor, a field goal by Bre Lloyd and two free throws by Megan Walton.

When Walton hit the two charity shots with 2:30 left in the game, Southeastern had a 35-31 advantage, and Fishers had not scored in the period.

With two minutes left, junior Kara Gerka canned a huge, huge 3-pointer for Fishers, bringing the Tigers to within a point at 35-34.

Following Gerka’s boomer and until Murphy scored at the end, the two teams turned over the basketball six times, three times by each team.

Murphy had scored 11 of Fishers’ 23 points in the first half, but was shutdown in the final two periods by a smothering defensive job by Southeastern’s Taylor Graham.

Defense was the name of the game most of the night. Graham and Walton did a tremendous job against Murphy and Brooke Sugg and Sugg and Murphy did the same against Walton and Lloyd.

“Murphy’s shot was huge for us,” Gaines said. “Us not panicing tonight was a work in progress throughout the season,” Gaines added.

Murphy and Gerka shared scoring honors for Fishers, each scoring 15 points of the Tigers’ 36 total points.

Lloyd, the outstanding sophomore, led HSE with 12 points. Taylor had nine and Walton eight.

It was a tough loss for Coach Chris Huppenthal’s Lady Royals, who fought off injuries throughout the season. Playing the sectional without 6-1 center Elaina Ededuwa, HSE finished the year with a 16-7 record.

Host Bruins romp, 61-39

Hamilton Heights’ season came crashing down on the Lady Huskies Friday evening at the Blackford Sectional as the host Bruins dropped a 61-39 bomb on Heights.

Blackford got off to a good 14-8 start and kept getting better in the final three quarters.

The second period was a killer for Heights as the Huskies scored just two points and fell behind 27-10 at halftime. Blackford put away the Huskies with a 21-13 run in the third period.

Even with previously injured Kayla Kirtley back in the lineup, Hamilton Heights simply didn’t have an offensive punch. Heights hit just 14-of-68 shots; was 3-of-21 from 3-point range, and made only 8-of-15 free throws.

Meanwhile, Blackford sophomore Faith Morris drilled 23 points for the Bruins and senior teammate Lauren Godfrey added 16 points.

Sophomore Ashton Runner was the leading scorer for Coach Scott Fernung’s Heights team with 11 points.

Kirtley, the freshman scoring leader for Heights throughout the season, was next in line with nine points.

Ana Collar, another freshman, led Heights’ rebounding with seven.

Hamilton Heights ended its season with an 8-16 record.

Another outstanding defensive performance...

'Hawks beat Tipton to reach final

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

It was so simple, really. Just defend well and make shots.

That's what Sheridan did Friday night in its semi-final game with Tipton at the Class 2A Taylor sectional. The Blackhawks made big baskets and played smart defense against the Blue Devils, and that led to a 60-44 victory. Sheridan advanced to the championship game with the win; the 'Hawks take on Elwood at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

Sheridan never trailed after Audrey Reed made a layin midway through the first quarter to give her team a 7-6 lead. Tipton stayed within five to 10 points of the Blackhawks through the third period, and actually got the lead down to 36-32 with under six minutes left to play in the fourth.

But Sheridan took over from there, outscoring the Blue Devils 13-3 in a huge run. Brittany Welch scored eight points, Reed helped out with a putback, and Payton Buckner delivered the second of her two 3-pointers to cap the run.

Buckner's first '3' of the game came as the clock wound down in the first quarter. Her downtown shot gave Sheridan an 11-6 lead to end the period. The 'Hawks followed that up by only allowing Tipton eight second-quarter points, slowly working their lead to 22-14 at halftime. Welch scored four points, while Peyton Fleener began the quarter with a basket.

"I thought we defended really, really well the first half," said Sheridan coach Jeff Guenther. He credited his players with defending Tipton star Macie Lively well; Lively wound up with 25 points, but it didn't come easy. Guenther said that Katie Hybarger and Rebekah Hopper took turns defending Lively, and made her earn those points.

"She's one heck of a basketball player and I thought we defended her well," said Guenther.

Star of the Game: Audrey Reed scored 23 points.
Sheridan's Record: Won 19, Lost 6.
Next up: The Blackhawks play Elwood for the sectional championship at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

Sheridan led by 34-23 with three minutes left in the third quarter, with Welch scoring seven more, but then Tipton cut the lead back to 34-29 after Lively drained a pair of 3-pointers. Another Lively '3' got the Blue Devils to within 36-32, after which the Blackhawks made their afore-mentioned run to jump ahead 49-35.

Sheridan held on to that advantage for the final two-and-a-half minutes of the game. The freshman Reed made sure of that with a 5-of-6 effort from the free throw line during the last 1:07. Of course, once someone is 25 games into a basketball season, she isn't a freshman anymore.

"She was a freshman the first two or three weeks," said Guenther. "Now, she's just a player. And that's what we need and want from her."

Reed led the scoring with 23 points, while Brittany Welch earned a double-double of 20 points and 10 rebounds. Reed grabbed nine boards as well.

Indy Fuel win fifth straight

In the seventh of nine head-to-head meetings between the two teams this season, the Indy Fuel defeated the Cincinnati Cyclones in overtime at U.S. Bank Arena in Cincinnati on Friday by a final score of 3-2. With the win, the Fuel's fifth consecutive victory, Indy improved to 19-22-4-3 overall this season and with 45 points, vaulted into a tie for fifth place in the ECHL's North Division standings.

The Cyclones snatched a 1-0 lead late in the first period when David Pacan tipped home a power-play goal at 18:18 with Josh McFadden and Chris Reed collecting assists on the play. In the second, Indy was able to equalize, as Fuel centerman Nicklas Lindberg tallied an extra-man score of his own at 11:48 thanks to a slick setup by Pete Massar and Garrett Bembridge.

The Fuel and Cyclones traded goals in the third as Rhett Bly knocked a puck out of mid-air at 7:01 to make it 2-1 Fuel before a late equalizer from Reed at 16:42 forced overtime. In the extra session, the Fuel converted on the power-play at 2:44 as Mike Duco slammed home a centering feed from Kyle Stroh for his 12th goal of the season.

Shane Owen provided a spectacular 28-save performance in net for the Fuel to earn the victory while Rob Madore took the loss for the 'Clones, despite a 15-save performance. Friday's win pushed the Fuel's record in February to a perfect 4-0-0-0 and a near-perfect 13-1-1-0 in the team's last 15 games.
