The Guerin Catholic boys basketball team defended its Greencastle regional championship Saturday evening. The Golden Eagles overcame Tri-West in an epic title game, this after easily beating Lebanon in the morning semi-finals.

Eagles fly on to semi-state

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

Guerin Catholic has now won three boys basketball regional championships. All of them are memorable in their own way, but the third one was a special kind of unforgettable. The Golden Eagles scored nine unanswered points in the final 2:20 of Saturday's title game at Greencastle to get past Tri-West 52-46. Guerin will play Vincennes Lincoln in next Saturday's semi-state game, which will take place at either Richmond or Seymour. The IHSAA will announce semi-state assignments later today.

The Golden Eagles were dancing on the edge late in the game, as Tri-West led 46-43 with 2:20 left. But the Bruins would not score another point. Instead, Matt Holba drained both foul shots to cut the lead to 46-45, then came up with a huge block on the defensive end.

Tri-West rebounded the block, but would have it taken away by Matthew Godfrey. Seconds later, Godfrey launched the ball from beyond the 3-point arc - and made it. Guerin had a 48-46 lead, but needed one more defensive stop.

I held my breath. I tried to think of all the wonderful moments that we had shared during the past week while we were on vacation in Tampa. But then...the tears ever so gently made their way down my cheeks. Emily, Drew, Aiden and Leah were packing their suitcases and heading to the airport. They were going home. We would be staying in Tampa for a few more days.

The memories that we made, the Kodak moments that we captured and the laughter that we shared would be

Noblesville Parks offering six bus trips

By RICHIE HALL

If you're ever looking for a chance to get out of town, then the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department has some opportunities for you.

Noblesville Parks is once again sponsoring its Bus Trips, with six planned for 2015. The trips have been a mainstay of the Parks Department for over 15 years. While the line-up has stayed mostly the same over the years, there is a new trip in store for Spring Break, and there's still time to register.

On April 8, the Noblesville Parks bus will travel to Fair Oaks Farms for what's being billed as a Spring Break Family Trip. Fair Oaks is located several miles northwest of Rensselaer, at the intersection of I-65 and State Road 14. Fair Oaks offers such attractions as the Dairy Experience and the Pig Experience, as well as fresh ice cream, cheeses and a restaurant.

One of the more popular offerings is the twice-yearly trip to the Shipshewana Flea Market. The flea market is located in the small northeastern Indiana town that says it's in "the heart of Amish Country." Almost 900 vendors take part in the flea market. This year, Noblesville Parks is conducting the Spring trip on May 19 and the Fall trip on Sept. 15.

Another twice-yearly excursion is to Chicago. The Summer in Chicago trip is set for Aug. 1, with the Chicago Christmas Shopping trip to take place on Dec. 5. The Christmas shopping trip is so popular that two buses are needed to accommodate all of the participants. Noblesville Parks' remaining bus trip is a trip to Nashville, Ind. for shopping and sightseeing; that is scheduled for Oct. 28.

The costs of these trips vary. The Fair Oaks and both Chicago trips are $50 per person, while both Shipshewana trips are $46. The Nashville trip is $38.

Noblesville Parks requires pre-registration, and must be done no later than two weeks prior to the trip. Registrations can be done either over the phone (317-776-6350), online (www.noblesvilleparks.org) or by stopping in the Parks Office at Forest Park.

held in our hearts forever. I just wanted more time with them.

I had this overwhelming sense of sadness that I had felt, years ago, when I dropped Emily off at Indiana State University. We had spent the summer having so much fun gathering all the essentials for her college dorm room. All that gathering had created memories that my heart would hug onto. And then I would leave her to begin a new adventure, without me, or so it seemed.

I have always loved being a mom. I loved the "to do" lists that found their way into my purse every day. I loved looking at my calendar for all the reminders that I needed to be somewhere for my kids. Simply put...I loved being needed.

I thought when Emily and Brandon were raised and out of the house that they would not need me. I was wrong. They still do. Maybe not in the same way but there are needs that only a mom can fill. It's just that Mother's Love.

And so for the last week I found that I was needed. Chuck was too.

GrandChuck brought Leah a donut with sprinkles from the the grocery every morning. I introduced Aiden to Oreos. GrandChuck took Leah and Aiden to the park where they looked for alligators. I danced along the beach with my two very sandy grandmunchkins who thought the sand was like snow. They rolled around in it. At first the ocean seemed like a roaring lion but they soon discovered that it could be tamed as you tiptoed gently into it. You could dance and jump the waves as long as Gam-maw Janet or Mommy were holding onto you.

Even Emily and Drew seemed to need us, not like Aiden or Leah, but in different ways. Emily found out that when she stays with me that I become the laundry fairy. She goes out for a few hours and when she comes home she finds the laundry is done. She also found out that it makes her mom happy to fix family dinners with food that not only comforts the belly but also the heart.

Drew found a lot of comfort in those dinners too. He also discovered that there were Kodak moments on the golf course with Chuck.

Perhaps that is what being a mom or dad is all about. We are needed to love on our kids. The need changes over the years, but it is still there.

And we have the need to hold onto our children. For the first few years of their life we hold their hands. For the rest of our lives we hold onto their heart. So I guess am still needed...at least my tears think I am.

Proposed project at Exit 210...

INDOT public hearing regarding I-69 expansion, interchange modification

The Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) will hold a public hearing on Thursday, March 19, 2015 at the Fishers City Hall Auditorium, One Municipal Drive, Fishers, Indiana 46038, the public hearing will begin 6:00 p.m. The purpose of the public hearing is to offer all interested persons an opportunity to comment on current plans for a proposed I-69 Interstate Expansion project which includes added travel lanes from 106th Street to 0.5 mile north of Southeastern Parkway/Campus Parkway and added travel lanes from 0.5 mile north of Southeastern Parkway/Campus Parkway to 0.5 East of S.R. 13 in Hamilton and Madison Counties. In addition, the proposed project involves an interchange modification at exit 210 (Campus Parkway/Southeastern Parkway) in Hamilton County.

The proposed I-69 expansion project involves the construction of additional lanes within the existing median from Exit 205 (116th Street and SR 37 in Fishers) to 0.5 mile north of Exit 210 (Southeastern Parkway/Campus Parkway). An outside auxiliary lane will be added on SB I-69 from 106th Street to 116th Street. Existing pavement will be resurfaced. All mainline bridges will be widened in the median (including the Sand Creek NB bridge and SB bridge). In addition, the project will construct additional lanes within the existing median from 0.5 mile north of Exit 210 to 0.5 mile east of S.R. 13. Existing pavement will be resurfaced. All mainline bridges will be widened in the median (including the Mud Creek NB bridge and SB bridge, the Thorpe Creek NB bridge and SB bridge, and the S.R. 13 NB bridge and SB bridge). The interchange at Exit 210 (Campus Parkway/Southeastern Parkway) is proposed to be modified. The project also involves noise analysis as part of the interstate expansion. INDOT is evaluating noise impact to determine abatement measures as part of this project. Additional details regarding the interstate expansion and interchange modification will be presented in greater detail at the public hearing. The environmental document and related project documentation are available for viewing at the following locations:

1. Hearings Examiner, Room N642, Indiana Government Center North, 100 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204-2216, Phone # (317) 232-6601 (8am to 5pm)

2. Fishers City Hall, One Municipal Drive, Fishers, Indiana 46038, Phone # (317) 595-3111 (8:30am to 4:30pm)

3. INDOT website at <http://www.indot.in.gov> Greenfield District Page

The tentative timetables for construction will be discussed during the formal presentation. This project does not involve the acquisition of right-of-way as work is proposed to take place entirely within existing right-of-way. The proposed maintenance of traffic plan will be presented as part of the formal presentation. Public statements for the record will be accepted as part of the public hearing procedure. All verbal statements recorded during the public hearing and all written comments submitted prior to, during and for a period of two (2) weeks following the hearing date, will be evaluated, considered and addressed in subsequent environmental documentation. Written comments may be submitted prior to the public hearing and within the comment period to: INDOT Public Hearings, IGCN Room N642, 100 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, IN 46204.

With advance notice, INDOT can provide special accommodation for persons with disabilities and/or limited English speaking ability and persons needing auxiliary aids or services such as interpreters, signers, readers, or large print. Should special accommodation be needed in regards to the attendance and participation during the public hearing, please contact the Office of Public Involvement at (317) 232-6601, or email rclark@indot.in.gov.

God desires mercy

By LEANN WILSON

“For I desire mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings” Hosea 6:6 (NKJV).

Written around 750 to 722 BC to primarily the northern Kingdom of Israel but also to Judah, the theme of the book of Hosea is one of love, disloyalty and forgiveness. In way of ensample, God had told Hosea to take a “wife of harlotry” (Hosea 1:2) leading the prophet Hosea to marry a woman named Gomer. Many believe Gomer to have been either a shrine or temple prostitute while others think she was referred to in this way only after being unfaithful to her loving, patient, and merciful husband, Hosea. Either way, God was providing a living example of the Israelites disloyalty toward Himself, the personification of an unfaithful bride, for His unfaithful bride. Gomer as a wife would go after my lovers (Hosea 2:5) just as Israel would run after many foreign gods. Gods covenant people had turned to Baal worship which included the use of shrine prostitutes for blessings of abundance in field, flock, and family and they were worshipping calf images in Samaria while engaging in a multitude of sins detestable to God. “Treacherous” is what God called Israel’s unfaithfulness (Hosea 7:16) as there does not appear to have been a single commandment that His betrothed was not breaking. Of this time Hosea proclaimed “there is no truth or mercy or knowledge of God in the land. By swearing and lying, killing and stealing and committing adultery, they break all restraint, with bloodshed upon bloodshed” Hosea 4:1-2 (NKJV). In the midst of this treacherous sin God’s bride was treating The God like a god amongst a host of gods violating the first of the ten commandments “You shall have no other gods before Me” Ex 20:3 (NKJV) – this being the greatest of their sins and primary problem. The land had committed great harlotry by departing from the LORD (Hosea 1:2). Yet their spiritual harlotry did not stop them from performing the external duties of their religion to which God said, in the book of Amos, “I hate, I despise your feast days, and I do not savor your sacred assemblies. Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I will not accept them, Nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings. Take away from Me the noise of your songs, For I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments” (Amos 5:21-23). God heralds to his adulterous bride - “I desire mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings” Hosea 6:6 (NKJV)!

The Hebrew word for mercy used in this context is “cheched” (kheh-sed) or, as some say, Hesed meaning kindness or loving kindness, by implication, toward God. There is a mutuality to the word that speaks of relationship, as in the relationship between a husband and wife, or between God and His people, or between the saved and the savior. Many theologians think the word as used in this scripture would have been better interpreted as loyalty. It was the lack of loyalty whilst feigning loving faithfulness with superficial praises, prayers, and sacrifices that hurt and angered God (yes, God can feel pain and grief read Gen 6:5-6) and the covenant of God and His people demanded for loyalty and faithfulness. God speaking through Moses said to His people “be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you (Deut 5:32-33) and Jesus has said “No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God” Luke 9:62 (NKJV). Scripture, including the Old Testament, teaches us the nature, attributes, expectations and promises of God and God does not change for He is the LORD (Mal 3:6). The Good Book is not a book of antiquity no longer applicable today. God still desires, demands, mercy, our loyalty, over even the best of sacrifices which become a stench to God when done with the wrong heart making the sacrifice unacceptable. This remains the first and greatest commandment “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets” Matt 22:37-40 (NKJV).

Are we today any different from Hosea’s bride, from God’s backslidden betrothed? Most of those calling themselves Gods people do nothing more but go along to get along when what we are called to be is salt and light in a world gone upside down calling wrong right and right wrong. Evil thrives across the nations where Christianity was brought into being and governments do, at best nothing and, at worst aide the atrocities. As a nation founded on Christian moralities God is cast aside for a god of political correctness. As individuals do we claim to know Him but walk with the world? Do we sing praises to His name while skipping along the wide road knowing He has called us to walk the narrow path? Do we practice a superficial piety which is our devotion and reverence toward God demonstrated through loyalty? We live in a time where we have become increasingly self-centered. We look out for ourselves, position ourselves to maximize self-potential, whole households are run around children and childhood egos. In our self-centered, materialistic what’s in it for me society we don’t regard God above all. If the extent of your walk consists of an hour and a half on Sundays with occasional lip service to the Lord, your loyalty may be questionable – God calls all this whoredom. What if we did receive the just recompense for our transgressions based on the strength of our loyalties? Where would we be in the end of days? I do not remember where I read this quote - “mercy leads man up to God, for mercy brought down God to man”. Just as Gomer was bought back by her loving and forgiving husband, Hosea, God has bought us back with the life of His Son Jesus. With arms stretched across that cross the nails pierced deep into His flesh and it was finished. We need only to repent and believe. We have forgiveness by Gods own sacrifice; any chastisement, and He does chasten those He loves (Heb 12:6), pales in comparison to the sufferings of the cross. “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” 1 John 1:9 (NKJV). He sees our sin, our backsliding, and loves us anyway just as Hosea did Gomer but love does not overlook sin. Mercy, loyalty, calls for repentance, this is what is meant by “The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart-- These, O God, You will not despise” Psalms 51:17 (NKJV). “Dakah”, is the Hebrew word for contrite. It means collapsed, broken to pieces, crushed into powder. We should be devastated in regards to our transgressions toward God and the Son. Mercy calls for us to be wholly repentant, this cannot be replaced with ritual activity and prayers of impenitent apology coupled with insincere promises to do better just spare me Lord, amen. "Now, therefore," says the LORD, "Turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning." So rend your heart, and not your garments; Return to the LORD your God, For He is gracious and merciful, Slow to anger, and of great kindness” Joel 2:12-13 (NKJV).

In the winter of my life I look back upon the years of deeds worthy of naught.

Oh LORD nothing good has resided in me. Even now there is no good in me.

The Shadows within the chambers of my heart You have swept clean yet I do no good.

With eyes pure and holy how can You bear to look to toward the way of man?

But look my way and repentance grant for the fear I know is that which is known.

Nothing has been hidden from your sight. Surely In sorrow you bore me and in sorrow I repent.

Let not the repentance bestowed be wasted for I am just flesh a breath that passes away and does not come again.

“He has shown you, O man, what is good; And what does the LORD require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?” Micah 6:8 (NKJV)

The Golden Eagles got it when Christian Munson took a charge with 38.1 seconds left. Tri-West had to foul, which it did, and Holba made two more free throws to make the score 50-46.

The Bruins put up one more 3-point attempt that didn't go, and Holba rebounded. The ball wound up in Munson's hands, he was fouled, and made his two free throws. Soon, the regional plaque was in the hands of all the Golden Eagles.

"I just thought we played very good defense, good help-side defense by Christian Munson to take the charge, and we executed well on offense," said Guerin Catholic coach Pete Smith.

The Golden Eagles' nine straight points turned out to be the longest run of the night. That's what made the game so memorable - it was just simply that close. In fact, the only other time Guerin led by six points was early in the game, when GC skipped off to a 9-3 lead on the strength of 3-pointers by Munson, Godfrey and Cameron Lindley all right in a row. It was a run nine straight points - the Golden Eagles ended the game where they began.

Tri-West answered that early run with a 7-0 run of its own, and the fight was on. There was a little bit of everything - scrappy sequences when both teams exchanged steals, to a breathtaking spurt midway through the third quarter where Guerin and Tri-West exchanged basket after basket. Peyton Hendershot's 3-pointer was answered by Munson's triple. Hendershot made a layin, Holba responded with his own layin.

"I thought Matt Holba just played his rear end off and didn't get rewarded very much," said Smith. "They held him, scraped him, pulled him down all night, and towards the end of the game when they were tripling him, they finally started calling some fouls on him."

Holba, in fact, scored more points from the free throw line (seven) than he did from the field (five). The Bruins' defense didn't allow Holba any of his trademark dunks, but Matt was solid from the line, making 7-of-9, including 6-of-6 in the final four minutes.

Munson had an outstanding game, scoring 16 points. He drained three 3-pointers, was a perfect 5-of-5 from the line and of course took that big charge.

"It's just a team effort," said Munson. "They have great players, they were hitting 3s and making nice drives all night. But those last couple minutes, we were just rotating really well, playing for one another, and we got the job done."

Godfrey's three 3-pointers equaled nine points, while Lindley did a little bit of everything: Eight points, five assists, three rebounds and three steals.

"I thought Cameron Lindley made some great anticipation plays, like a world-class soccer player would," said Smith.

In the morning semi-final game, Guerin Catholic defeated Lebanon 59-45.

Labus had eight first half points as the Golden Eagles led 29-23 at halftime. Lebanon fought back to take a 31-30 lead midway through the third quarter, but a pair of three-point goals by Godfrey swung the momentum to Guerin's way as the Golden Eagles got on an 11-0 run and were only slightly threatened after that.

Munson again was the scoring leader with 17 points, followed by Holba with 13.

Guerin Catholic coach Pete Smith cuts down the nets after the Golden Eagles beat Tri-West 52-46 to win the Greencastle regional. It's the third regional championship for Guerin in the past four years.

Matt Labus added 10 points, and Godfrey added nine, again with three 3-pointers. Holba led the rebounding with nine boards, followed by Labus with eight and Godfrey with seven.

After beating McCutcheon...

Carmel goes cold at the end

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Just when it looked as if Carmel was about to punch its ticket for the next stop, Homestead canceled the flight while beating the Greyhounds in a 41-37 heartbreaker Saturday evening in the championship game of the Marion Class 4A Regional.

After trailing most of the night, Carmel led 37-31 with 5:27 remaining.

Cat and mouse time for the Greyhounds. But, on this night the formula which led Carmel to so many victories this season didn't work.

In those five minutes and twenty-seven seconds, Carmel never again scored, while Homestead put 10 points on the board.

The rally was, perhaps, not as one would think. It wasn't powered by 6-9 Caleb Swanigan, who had hurt Carmel most of the evening. The comeback was started by an eight-point spurt from 6-1 senior guard Jordan Geist. Swanigan put on the final touch with a field goal.

Until this point in the game, Carmel had controlled Geist, the defense of Ryan Cline holding him to just five points. Swarigan scored 18 points and pulled 11 rebounds to lead the Spartans.

"Their big guys are good," said Carmel coach Scott Heady, "but so are their guards."

With Swanigan's effort, Homestead outscored Carmel 30-14 in the paint.

Carmel, down 11-8 after one quarter and 19-16 at halftime, finally caught up on a drive and bucket by Cline with 4:32 left in the third quarter.

Cline scored 10 points in that quarter and Carmel led 32-29 when the period ended.

In the fourth quarter, at that fatal 5:27 mark, Cline scored from the field and added a free throw as Carmel went up 37-31.

Carmel's demise started with Homestead scoring off a Carmel turnover. Then the Greyhounds missed two shots, and suddenly it was trouble in River City.

Geist's eight point surge came on two free throws, a bucket and a free throw and then a 3-pointer.

Cline finished the night with 21 points, the only Greyhound in double figures. He also led Carmel in rebounds with nine.

Keegan Culp was next in the scoring column with seven points.

In the afternoon game, the Greyhounds' 60-44 victory over McCutcheon, it was all-Carmel, from wire to wire.

McCutcheon's only run came at the end of the first half, just as the Greyhounds appeared to be ready to run off and hide with a 23-11 lead.

Stars of the Games: Preston Flamion scored 23 points against McCutcheon and Ryan Cline notched 21 points and pulled 9 rebounds in the championship game.

The Mavs drilled four consecutive 3-pointers, three coming from Tre'shon Heard, to cut Carmel's lead to 27-23 before intermission.

That spurt, Carmel coach Scott Heady said after the game, surprised Carmel.

"We hadn't seen them shoot 3's like that," said he Carmel coach. "Heard was shooting 29 percent on 3-pointers coming into the game."

That spurt by McCutcheon didn't last long as Carmel opened the third quarter by scoring seven straight points on a lay-in by Preston Flamion, two free throws by Ethan Merriweather and a 3-pointer by Flamion.

McCutcheon didn't score in the third period until the 3:14 mark on still-another 3-pointer by Heard.

Cline scored 14 points in the game and got lots of help from his mates. Flamion led Carmel's scoring with 23 points and Culp also was in double figures with 12 points.

Trying to shutdown Cline and Culp, McCutcheon's defense left lots of space for Flamion, Carmel's 6-5 junior. He took advantage by hitting 9-of 16 shots, including a trio of 3-pointers.

"Flamion did a nice job, and so did Ethan (sophomore Merriweather)," said Heady.

"McCutcheon threw some junk defenses at us.

"I thought our defense was real good," Heady added.

Carmel dished out a dozen assists in the game. Cline had six and sophomore Sterling Brown three. Merriweather had six deflections at the defensive end of the court. Flamion had five and Trenton Richardson four.

The Greyhounds, led by Culp with seven and Cline with four, had a thin 22-18 advantage on the boards.

Heard finished with 23 of McCutcheon's 44 points.

With stifling defense ...

Celtics ends Pacers' win streak at seven

By WHEAT HOTCHKISS
Courtesy nba.com/pacers
The Celtics' stifling defense put an end to the Pacers' seven-game win streak. Boston (29-36) gutted out a 93-89 victory over Indiana (30-35) on Saturday night at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

With the win, the Celtics have now won four straight games and nine of their last 12 to remain hot on the Pacers' tails in the race for the final few playoff spots in the Eastern Conference.

After a back-and-forth first quarter that featured six lead changes and two ties, Boston took the lead for good on a 3-pointer from Jae Crowder with 1:57 to play in the first and seized control in the second. The Celtics started the period with a 12-2 run and stretched their lead to as many as 15 points before the Blue & Gold closed the half with an 8-2 run to trim their deficit to single digits.

Indiana hung around for much of the second half, thanks in large part to the efforts of George Hill, who repeatedly attacked the basket and either scored or found open teammates in the final two quarters. But Boston extended its lead back to 12 after another 3-pointer from Crowder with 7:30 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The Pacers, though, mounted a rally. C.J. Watson hit two 3-pointers during an 8-0 run that made the score 80-76 with 4:41 to play. After a couple baskets by Tyler Zeller doubled the Celtics' lead, David West converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:58 remaining, but Brandon Bass' jumper 43 seconds later gave the Celtics enough breathing room to grind out the victory.

Indiana managed to get within one possession of the lead after Rodney Stuckey's

3-pointer with 5.8 seconds to play, but Bass hit two free throws on the other end to seal the win.

"It was just a tough game for us," West said after the loss. "We couldn't get a good rhythm or flow. We cut the game close a couple times. We weren't able to execute well enough to get a win."

Despite a late surge, the Pacers shot just 40 percent from the field on the night. Boston's defense forced Indiana into 17 turnovers, leading to 19 points on the other end.

"(Celtics) Coach (Brad) Stevens got them in a great defensive plan," George Hill said. "They play extremely hard and they make it tough for us on the offensive end."

Hill led the Pacers with a season-high 30 points, five rebounds, and eight assists. The Pacers point guard made 11-of-18 shots and had 24 points and five assists in the final two quarters.

C.J. Miles added 13 points for Indiana, while Watson and Stuckey both chipped in 12 off the bench. West added 11 points and four rebounds.

Zeller led Boston with 18 points. The Washington, Ind. native was 8-for-10 from the field and also collected seven rebounds. Jae Crowder and Avery Bradley each added 16 points for the visitors. Brandon Bass finished with 16 points and five boards.

The Pacers close out a four-game home-stand on Monday night, when they host Kyle Lowry and the Toronto Raptors at 7:00 PM ET. After Saturday's loss, Indiana remains in seventh place in the East, but they are now just a half-game ahead of Charlotte and a game ahead of both Miami and Boston.

"(Our confidence) is still high," Watson said. "We still think we're one of the best teams in the NBA. We've just got to take it one game at a time."

Teams meet for fourth time...

Fuel earn one point in 4-3 shootout loss to Walleye

In the fourth of five head-to-head meetings between the two teams this season, the Indy Fuel earned one standings point in a 4-3 shootout loss to the Toledo Walleye on Saturday at the Huntington Center in Toledo, Ohio. With the shootout loss, the Fuel improved to 25-25-4-5 overall this season and with 59 points, sit tied for fifth place in the ECHL's North Division standings.

After Toledo claimed a 1-0 lead at 7:11 of the opening period on a Cody Lampl power-play score, Indy's Kyle Stroh tied the game at one at 14:37 as the Vibank, Saskatchewan native took advantage of a Toledo turnover and posted his 19th marker of the season. In the middle frame, even-strength Fuel scores from Chris DeSousa at 2:01 and Rhett Bly at 17:35 bookended a Walleye tally from Troy Schwab at 11:11 to send Indy to the third period up by a 3-2 margin. The Walleye notched the final period's only goal at 13:58 as Kyle Bonis forced overtime with his team-leading 28th tally of the season.

After a scoreless extra session, the Walleye received shootout conversions from Troy Schwab, Tyler Barnes and A.J. Jenks in the second, third and fifth rounds as Indy conversions from Pete Massar and Nicklas Lindberg weren't enough for the Fuel. Former Walleye goaltender Mac Carruth was sensational in net for the Fuel with 37 saves in defeat while Neil Conway earned the win in net for Toledo with 28 stops.

Next up for the Fuel, it's a St. Patrick's Day tilt vs. the Kalamazoo Wings with the opening faceoff set for 7:00 pm on Tuesday at Wings Stadium in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Full coverage of Tuesday's game begins with the "Jose Cuervo Pregame Show" at 6:45 pm over the air on CBS Sports 1430 WXNT-AM, online at www.cbssports1430.com and on smartphones everywhere via the free "TuneIn" Radio app with Fuel broadcaster Tony Brown providing the play-by-play.

Dungey dominates again for third consecutive Monster Energy Supercross win

Red Bull KTM's Ryan Dungey picked up his third consecutive Monster Energy AMA Supercross, an FIM World Championship, win of the season at Lucas Oil Stadium in front of 60,491 fans. Red Bull KTM's Marvin Musquin earned his third consecutive Eastern Regional 250SX Class Main Event win, extending his points lead to 16 points.

Andrew Short put his BTO Sports.com/KTM across the SupercrossLive.com Holeshot Award line before Dungey and Team Honda HRC's Cole Seely to start the 450SX Class Main Event. Discount Tire/TwoTwo Motorsports' Chad Reed, who captured his first win of the season at the first race in Atlanta, crashed in Turn 2 and remounted in last place.

Dungey moved into the lead on Lap 1 as Seely took over second place. Tomac, who came into tonight in third place, crashed on Lap 1 and lost several valuable positions. On Lap 2, Autotrader.com/Toyota/Yamaha's Weston Peick passed Short for third place.

Team HRC's Trey Canard charged through the field, eventually passing Peick for third place on Lap 10. Canard held on for third place, his seventh podium finish of the season.

Seely earned a season-best second place finish and moved into fourth place in the season standings, up from seventh place.

"I thought I would have something for Ryan [Dungey] tonight, but I dropped back a bit, but I will take a second place," said Seely.

With a 45-point lead in the season standings, Dungey has five wins on the year and is the fifth rider in history to win back-to-back races in Indianapolis. In the 23 races held in Indianapolis, the winner of the race has gone on to win the 450SX Class Championship 17 times.

"This is a week-by-week battle," said Dungey. "I knew how important the start was, and Andrew [Short] was up front early on, so I knew I had to get around him," said Dungey. "It was a tough track; on the last lap, I took it nice and easy."

GEICO Honda's Justin Bogle, the defending class champion, started the Eastern Regional 250SX Class Main Event with the SupercrossLive.com Holeshot Award. Rockstar Energy Husqvarna Factory Racing's Martin Davalos quickly moved around Bogle to take over the lead. Musquin followed closely in second place on the opening lap and passed Davalos on the next lap.

While riding in second place on Lap 1, Davalos crashed and dropped several positions. On Lap 2, Davalos would crash again, and at the halfway point of the race, he was running in 19th place.
