Election talk....

Sheridan folks talk about Sheridan

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Sheridan is a community, at election time, which is caught between a rock and a hard place.

Sheridan is a small town in northern Hamilton County. Lots of folks who live there like it that way.

"I like the small town feeling," Silas DeVaney III told a good turnout of Sheridan residents at a candidate forum Thursday evening.

Sheridan also is a small town which is badly in need of money to keep the community rolling. Money for street and sidewalk repair. Money for sewage and drainage needs.

"We need ways to increase our revenue," DeVaney added.

DeVaney was one of one of seven candidates at the front table in the Sheridan Community Center, seven Sheridan residents hoping to get the vote of those in the audience. He's running in District 2, along with Glen Bougher. Running in District 1 are Brenda Bush and Darryl Waters.

David Kinkead is the only candidate in District 3. Two candidates are squaring off for Clerk-Treasurer, Elizabeth Walden and Regan Kercheval.

The two-part message was the same, even from the Clerk-Treasurer candidates.

- *Keep Sheridan small.
- *Find more funds to improve town living conditions.

"We need to control growth," said Kinkead.

"We need to guard our borders," offered Bush.

"We need more alternatives for senior citizens and our youth. Change will happen," predicted Walden.

"We need to look at annexing our borders," suggested Bougher.

"We need to keep up the good fight; lifting us up," challenged Kinkead.

"We need to control growth," said Waters.

The great hope is a new industrial park in the community. The big question is how to attract business to the industrial park.

The Reporter's Primary Election Coverage

"I'm not sure we have anyone committed to coming," Bougher said. "We've got to cut roads through there to get people interested."

"Economic development comes slow," DeVaney said.

"We need to continue pushing forward."

"Roads are coming," Kinkead told the voters.

"Economic development can be a hush, hush deal."

The County Line

Primary candidates should speak out on the issues

By FRED SWIFT

With spring vacations now over we can expect the primary election campaigns to begin in earnest. That is assuming our candidates want to launch campaigns.

You would think those running for office would want to speak out on issues of the day and plans they have if elected.

But, too often our local campaigns are mostly conducted with yard signs, mailers, social appearances and maybe some door-to-door work by the serious office-seekers. Name ID seems to often be the only name of the game.

It would be refreshing to hear a candidate say they favor or oppose a specific project the city is planning or should consider. Or, it would be enlightening to have candidates express their opinion on some issues of the day.

Such things are often considered controversial, so it's safer to only advertise how long the person has lived in the community or how many grandchildren they may have. This information may be interesting to some folks, but hardly provides a good basis for electing a person to public office.

It is somewhat interesting, but not surprising, to see that in the race for Carmel mayor challenger Rick Sharp has made city spending and transparency in local government as his major issues. Mayor Jim Brainard has served notice that his aggressive city redevelopment will continue and he defends his record and method of providing information to the public.

Changes coming soon at Noblesville Foundry

The old Noblesville Foundry will see big changes in the coming months. ID Castings, the current owner of the Foundry site, is reportedly investing over $50 million to redevelop the property.

Mayoral campaigns have been expensive

By FRED SWIFT

Campaigning for the office of mayor in Hamilton County is not cheap. The evidence of this showed up Friday when pre-primary expense reports were due in the county elections office.

It is no surprise that the top spender was Carmel's five-term incumbent mayor Jim Brainard who is seeking a sixth term in the May 5 Republican primary. He started the year with a campaign treasury of $142,567, then received contributions of $115,167 for a total war chest of $257,764 of which he has spent $155,373 until April 10, leaving a current balance of $102,391.

His opponent, Rick Sharp, started the year with $69,850, got contributions of $65,252 for a total of $135,102. He has spent $88,813 leaving an April 10 balance of $46,289 for the remainder of the campaign.

The Noblesville race for mayor has been waged at significantly lower cost. Mayor John Ditslear in his quest for re-election started the year with a campaign fund of $88,438 and added to that $43,275 in contributions prior to April 10. He has spent $50,547 which leaves him with $81,116 at present.

Challenger Mike Corbett had only $599 on January 1. He took in contributions of $7,833, has spent $3,288, leaving a current balance of $5,144.

Westfield's mayoral contest is being waged on even a lower level. Challenger Jeff Harpe started the year with no money. He raised $7,507, spent $4,975 and owes $6,266 in various campaign related expenses.

Incumbent Mayor Andy Cook had $5,699 on January 1. He received contributions of $18,999 and has spent $5,851. He reported an April 10 balance of $13,148.

New face at Noblesville Parks...

Haberlin hired as new recreation director

The City of Noblesville has hired another welcoming face to expand its parks and recreational offerings to the community. Nichole Haberlin, is the new recreation director for Noblesville Parks and Recreation. Haberlin, originally from DeMotte, Ind., started the new role on Jan. 5 and replaces Susie Davis.

Haberlin

"Susie has brought our programs to where they are now and has done a fantastic job with it. Nichole is a very different personality and has different experiences. With that, we'll expand on everything that we are doing to continue to offer more and more viable programs to serve the community," Noblesville Parks Director Brandon Bennett said. "We hired Nichole because we thought she would be an ideal fit for our team. She's energetic and passionate about this field and that is exactly the type of culture we are trying to maintain and she was a perfect fit for that."

Haberlin graduated from Ball State University with a bachelor's degree in exercise science-aquatics and a master's degree in sports administration. She spent her first five years in the field working as the assistant director of aquatics at the University of Dayton. In addition she was an adjunct faculty member and on-call Firefighter-EMT. After her time in Dayton, Haberlin began working at Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation managing the waterpark and daily operations.

After earning her Certified Parks and Recreation Professional certification, Haberlin joined Noblesville Parks and Recreation. Her main responsibilities will include operations and programming for the Recreation Division.

"I have found my dream job here at Noblesville Parks and Rec," Haberlin said. "I am surrounded by great leadership, a great community, and I am excited to help them grow by building upon their solid base of programs and parks."

Haberlin's resume also includes being a 29-year American Legion Auxiliary member, a Girl Scout for life, and a member of the National Intramural Recreation Sport Association since 2004. Haberlin said her favorite part of her job is the people.

"You've got find the right people," she said. "It's hard work but fun too. Every day is a new challenge."

Haberlin, whose favorite outdoor activities are hiking and photography, said her personal goals are focused on service and development.

"Service to the community, the people I work hard for and watching those I help develop, whether that's children growing through the parks department or interns/people learning the recreation field," she said. "I want to see it grow. I want to reach out to Noblesville and make sure I am providing the programs that are needed as well as making it the place people are talking about."

If you would like to meet Haberlin, join the Noblesville Parks and Recreation staff for a meet and greet from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. April 17 at the Forest Park Lodge.

SHERIDAN

"Bush questioned what comes first, roads or commitments from businesses. "It's kind of like the chicken or the egg," she said.

A question was addressed to those running for Council about the looks of the community. Junk in the streets and yards.

"We have ordinances, but they are hard to enforce," Bougher said. "What is junk to one may be treasure to another."

Bush said a ticket for littering issued in Sheridan might end up being a $1 fine in the court.

Kinkead said going to court can be costly.

"This isn't something new. Every Council has faced the problem," DeVaney said.

"We have a community clean up day planned, but what do you do trying to depose of old televisions and appliances?" asked Waters.

The Sheridan cleanup day is planned for 9 a.m. on May 16

How can revenues be raised in a small town? The answer was the same from all of the five trying to find that answer in Sheridan.

Grants, grants, grants, grants, and grants.

One big move which would raise revenue is selling the town's utilities. It's a quick answer to big bucks. But, a move which would sell away Sheridan's future income.

"It's a short-term solution," said Kinkead.

DeVaney said he has an "open mind" to such a sale.

Kercheval said she's willing to listen, while Bougher countered he isn't in favor of selling.

"It would mean having money up front," said Waters.

Another revenue saving move discussed was doing away with the Sheridan Police Department and turning the protection of the town over to the Hamilton County Sheriff Department, a move recently made by the nearby town of Atlanta.

The two women running for Clerk-Treasurer were asked their thoughts of filling that role.

"I think our staff is doing the job of handling things, said current Clerk-Treasurer Walden. "There always are ways to improve things," answered Kercheval.

COUNTY LINE

A challenger such as Mike Corbett in Noblesville should lay out his specific plans for city leadership if he is to be successful. Mayor John Ditslear should vigorously defend his record and give the voters a view of his plans for the next four years.

Almost nothing but generalities have been heard from candidates for other offices. The city council is of great importance in any city government. A mayor cannot carry out a program without the support of his council.

So, with most of our candidates saying little of pertinent substance on the issues or needs of their communities the voters have little to base their decision upon. And, this probably contributes to our pitifully low election day turnout.

Let's hope the campaign picks up steam in the next three weeks because time's a wasting.

Samuels named SYAP Early Intervention Advocate

Samuels

Lisa Samuels, 17 year school employee and community volunteer, has been announced as the Sheridan Youth Assistance Program (SYAP) Early Intervention Advocate. SYAP will focus on preventative services for at-risk youth referred to the program. Joining in the announcement about the creation of SYAP were Hamilton County Superior Court 1, Judge Steven R. Nation, Hamilton County Circuit Court, Judge Paul A. Felix, and Superintendent of Sheridan Community Schools, Dr. Dave Mundy.

The goal of SYAP is to help youth and families identify, coordinate, and take advantage of services or programs in Hamilton County and surrounding areas. The program is voluntary and youth will be referred to the program by parents, Sheridan Community School counselors, the Sheridan Police and Fire Department, and members of the community or other agencies.

"I look forward to continuing to serve my community and assisting our youth to become productive and responsible citizens." Lisa Samuels, SYAP.

"Not only are we looking forward to starting this invaluable program, we are also elated to have Mrs. Samuels as our local lead. She will be the perfect fit to make this program a success." Dr. Dave Mundy, Sheridan Community Schools Superintendent.

"Sheridan Youth Assistance could dramatically impact the Sheridan community, but especially the youth. I know first-hand, as I have been a mentor in Westfield for several years." Dr. Kent Erb, Sheridan Family Physicians.

The program will assist referred youth ages 3 to 17 years old and their families. The youth will be evaluated and referred to programs based on their specific needs. Some examples are mentoring, tutoring, camp and recreational opportunities, counseling and anger management classes.

This program brings together all segments of local governmental, juvenile courts and the community, including citizens, school, business, church, and service organizations so that there is a comprehensive approach for the children and families.

The SYAP will be asking for support from community members by volunteering in various capacities. Adults of any age are needed to tutor, mentor young people and assist at events and fundraisers.

For questions and more information about the program and/or volunteer options with the program, contact Lisa Samuels at 317-758-4431 ext. 4400.

Third Annual Earth Day ArborFest is next Saturday

Sustain Noblesville will host the third annual Earth Day ArborFest on Saturday, April 25, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Forest Park, 701 Cicero Road. This one-day event will celebrate the community, its trees, the earth, and ways to improve and properly care for them.

"This free event will be a great way for families to have fun and learn ways to protect and enhance our environment," said Mayor John Ditslear.

The festival will be held in Forest Park Shelters 3 and 5 and at the Forest Park Aquatic Center parking lot. This year's Earth Day ArborFest will feature keynote speaker Tim Womick, also known as Appleseedz, at 10 a.m. Womick is a nationally-known speaker who engages audiences with his highly animated "Trail of Trees" show. His entertaining presentation helps people of all ages learn about the importance of trees for their community's health and their own human potential.

Visitors also may enjoy a fundraiser breakfast and lunch provided by the Noblesville Sunrises Kiwanis; get free seedlings as well as planting and pruning information; speak with local environmental exhibitors; recycle their e-waste items such as office equipment, small appliances and gaming systems; enjoy kids' activities; recycle old bicycles; and much more. Free seedlings include Tulip Poplar, Redbud, Sugar Maple and White Oak. The event will once again feature a Community Shred Day which will take place during the entire three hours of the festival. People may bring documents to be shredded for just $5 per box/bag. Documents will be shredded on site.

Earth Day ArborFest visitors can send private, direct feedback during the event using the Peoplocity app. Visitors can download the free Peoplocity app from the App Store or Google Play and send questions, comments, problems, or praise during the event. Event staff will respond to the feedback.

Nickel Plate Arts will have their Welcome to Fairyville event and other activities in partnership with this event. For more information, visit <http://nickelplatearts.org/fairyville/>.

Hamilton County Council on Alcohol and Others Drugs will also be helping the earth that day through their prescription take back program from 9 a.m. to noon at the Riverview Hospital parking lot and at the Marsh at Ind. 37 and 146th Street. The program will also take place at the Sheridan High School and Hamilton Heights High School parking lots.

Sponsors of Earth Day ArborFest include American Water, Commuter Connect, Courtyard by Marriott, Duke Energy, Conquest Cycling, Keep Noblesville Beautiful, Nickel Plate Arts, Noblesville Sunrises Kiwanis, the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department, Noblesville Tree Board, ProShred and Recycle Force.

Jensen receives endorsement of Noblesville FOP Lodge #198

Jensen

Jensen has done in his run for a seat on the Noblesville Council," said Mike Sadler, President of the Noblesville FOP #198.

The Noblesville Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) Lodge #198 has officially endorsed Chris Jensen for Noblesville Common Council, District Two.

"Mr. Jensen is a long time resident that we believe will bring great ideas and solutions to Noblesville. The Noblesville FOP appreciates the hard work Mr.

The new Noblesville Common Council District 2 encompasses residents in voting precincts Noblesville 11, 30, 31, 33, 34 & 36.

"I am humbled by the support from the men and women who play such a key role in keeping Noblesville safe," said Jensen. "It would be a privilege to work side by side with them to move our community forward."

Jensen, a longtime aide to former Lt. Governor Becky Skillman, now works in business development in the architectural and engineering field. He is a 2002 graduate of Noblesville High School, a 2006 graduate of Butler University and lives in Mill Grove subdivision with his wife, Julie, and son, CJ.

Letter to the Editor

Costs of licensing, registering motorcycles is too high

I understand your busy busy schedules and I have a limited understanding of how the State House SAUSAGE grinding works..

Included with this correspondence is the original (10-15-2014) of three separate pieces of correspondence on this subject.. For some time I've been waiting on some type of news that may relate to equity , logic and in some cases constituent service regarding this subject and the obvious error and ridiculous cost appropriate relating to a two wheel motorcycle unit that is usable in Indiana at best 5-6 months per year and causes no damage to our streets etc etc.... As we have discussed in person and with this and follow up e-mails, the cost of licensing and registering motorcycles in the state of Indiana is out of line and not representative of any logic or equity as has been discussed , proven and illustrated in this and follow up correspondence ...

I've elected to not reiterate my prior correspondence including content in total..I now have a feeling you have no interest in this presented inequity that affects every motorcyclist in this state ...Consequently all parties receiving this correspondence most likely have no interest in curing or pursuing a cure thru the BMV / Legislature of this non agenda item not previously endorsed by the House Speaker ,Senate Pro Tem and/or Governor...

I honestly thought you would have an interest or desire to cure this inequity however I am now getting the feeling that no interest exist ...I've completed all your surveys and have yet to have a response from Representative Richardson /Williams or Senator Kenley..I recognize Representative Torr represents Carmel and not Noblesville however Representative Torr has suggested a possible interest in this inequity but now nothing so I must assume that no news is not good news for motorcyclist who elect to license their bikes in Indiana..

Am I to assume I am not connected enough , young enough or smart enough to understand this non interest in this obvious inequity issue applicable to all motorcyclist including ever HOG (Harley Owners Group) member in Indiana ...

To cure this inequity , is being a voting citizen not enough to spur an interest resulting in a cure of this inequity ?

Will it be appropriate to hire an expensive lobbyist or contact Representative Bosma or Senator Longs office direct or go direct to the Governors office on the possibility of getting this topic on the approved agenda if such a document exist....

How does a legitimate issue affecting many Hoosiers get on the Republican approved Legislative Agenda ?

Any recommendations for a menial voter?

Thank You for your interest!! If no interest please advise!!

David Hermann, shown here in Thursday's game, got the pitching win for Hamilton Southeastern in its Friday 2-1 victory over Fishers. The Royals have a 2-0 lead in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference series, and won the Mudsock Trophy.

The Mudsock Trophy goes to HSE...

Royals get 2-1
comeback win

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

On Thursday in the first game of the Fishers-Southeastern 3-game Hoosier Crossroads Conference series, HSE scored a total of 10 runs. Friday, in a rematch at Fishers, the Royals scored just two runs, but those two tallies came much harder than the runs on Thursday.

Coach Scott Henson's Royals scored two times in the top of the seventh inning to notch a 2-1 victory over Fishers.

The double wins by HSE sent the Mudsock Series Trophy, sponsored by the Dub Clark family, to the Royals. Game 3 of the conference series is set today at Southeastern. Game time has been changed from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The victory yesterday by Southeastern was a thriller. The loss by Fishers was a heartbreaker.

Fishers lefty Luke Duermit had blanked the Southeastern hitting attack on just six hits until the Royals' rally in the seventh. Three of those hits were collected in the first, but the Royals didn't score.

"I've learned to never doubt this team," Henson said after the comeback win. "We had the bottom of our lineup coming up (in the seventh), and they hadn't done well."

Nick Kiehl led off the seventh with a hit. "Nick didn't have a hit until then, but he had three yesterday," pointed out Henson.

Then, after striking out Nathan Williams, Duermit walked pinch-hitter Jackson Howard. It was Duermit's only walk of the game and his last batter of the game, as Fishers coach Matthew Cherry went to the pen and brought in his ace reliever, Elliott Gilmore, who intentionally walked the red-hot Matthew Gorski.

"Howard had a good at-bat, drawing the walk," said Henson. "You knew they would walk Gorski, and for good reason."

On a mis-fire fielder's choice attempt at third off the bat of David Hermann, Kiehl scored from third with the tying run. Aaron McGee grounded out to short as Howard scored with what was to be the winning run.

Herrmann, another lefty, allowed Fishers just four hits and one run until Henson replaced him in the seventh with Southeastern's ace reliever, Mike Pachmeyer. He allowed a walk to Christian Chapman, but got out of the inning without giving up a run.

McGee had two of Southeastern's seven hits. J.B. Washburn collected a triple for the Royals Duermit had two of Fishers' four hits. Evan Ruthsatz collected a double.

The third game in the series today is just as important as the first two.

"It really is," said Henson, whose Royals are now 8-2 and have won series over Avon and now Fishers.

Fishers will travel to HSE with a 6-5 record.

Robinson's walk-off homer wins it for 'Rocks...

Westfield takes 2-0 lead over Millers

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

A dramatic baseball game like the one Westfield and Noblesville played on Friday deserved a dramatic ending.

And is there nothing more dramatic than a walk-off home run? That's how the Shamrocks won.

Tied with the Millers at 6-6, Jacob Robinson smacked his first pitch over the left field fence, scoring two of his teammates before he crossed home plate. With that, Westfield owned a 9-6 victory over Noblesville, which gave them the first two games of the three-game Hoosier Crossroads Conference series.

"We'll take that," said 'Rocks coach Ryan Bunnell after the game. Bunnell called Robinson "one of the more competitive kids that we've had" on the Westfield baseball team. Here's the thing - Robinson is more well-known as a football player; he has committed to play that sport at Indiana University. But he can play baseball well, too.

"We'll always take a kid that competes the way he does," said Bunnell.

Robinson

Robinson's homer was the final word on what had been a truly back-and-forth game. The Millers darted out to a 3-0 lead in the first inning. Michael Carmosino started a two-out rally with a walk, then scored on a double by Connor Christman. Bryce Masterson was walked on to first, then Travis Gillian hit a single to score Carmosino. Masterson also scored on a throwing error.

Westfield got two of the runs back in the bottom of the first. Nick Rhodes scored on a passed ball, this after he singled, then advanced to third on a double by Ayers, who made it home himself on a fielder's choice. Ryan Pepiot got the RBI for Ayers' run.

Things were quiet for most of the game, although Noblesville scored one run in the third. Gillian batted Christman in; both hit singles that inning.

Westfield was still behind 4-2 in the bottom of the fifth inning, but that's when the 'Rocks poured in four runs. They did so with small ball: One single each from Ayers, Pepiot, Jackson Garrett, Robinson and Logan Schneider.

Ayers

Pepiot's hit scored Ayers, with Robinson getting Pepiot home. Julian Lytle came in to pinch run for Garrett, and he scored on an error. Schneider sent Robinson home.

Ayers was 3-for-4 at the plate, with Pepiot, Garrett, Robinson and Schneider all getting two hits.

Noblesville tied the game in the top of the seventh. Christman and Gillian each had base hits, which gave them perfect numbers at the plate: Christman was 4-for-4, Gillian 3-for-3. Gillian's hit scored Carmosino, while Christman made it home on a sacrifice fly by Austin Shirley.

That set up Robinson's game-winner. Robinson was coming off of a 3-for-3 performance in last night's Westfield-Noblesville win game; Friday he was 2-for-4.

Gillian

Carmosino

Robinson said he felt "really confident last night," so he had no trouble taking a big swing.

Since Robinson pitched the final inning, he got the win. Noah Shanteau threw the first five innings, striking out four. Julian Lytle pitched the sixth, striking out two.

Dax McLochlin pitched the first five innings for the Millers, striking out five.

The series concludes this morning at 11 a.m., at Don Dunker Field.

"Tomorrow will be another hard-fought game," said Robinson.

Blowout win for Sheridan

Sheridan was a better host to Indianapolis Washington off the diamond than on the diamond on Friday evening.

Off the diamond , Sheridan folks helped Washington after a tire burst on their bus on Mule Barn Road.

“I felt Sheridan showed why it is a special place with how they helped the Indy Washington team with several of our people checking on the team,” said Sheridan coach Matt Britt.

On the diamond, Sheridan romped over Washington, 15-3.

The Blackhawks scored six times in the first, five times in the second and four times in the third in a game ended after five innings.

Sam Crail, Austin Hoover and Austin Sexson each collected two hits in Sheridan’s 10-hit night. Sexson drove home three runs.

Crail slammed a triple and a double and Garrett Chesney, Jordan Kyriakopoulos and Sexson each hammered a double.

Chris Hunter, Hunter Pflugh and Zach Mannies shared the pitching duties for the Blackhawks. Combined they allowed just four hits and fanned 12 batters.

Sheridan, now 5-0 on the year, will play Guerin Catholic on Monday evening at Grand Park. Tuesday the Blackhawks will resume conference play at home against Clinton Prairie.

Royals pull out 2-1 victory

Hamilton Southeastern scored a run in the bottom of the seventh inning to pull out a 2-1 victory over visiting Mt. Vernon in softball action Friday evening.

Sydney Cooley hit a single with one out to start the HSE scoring in the seventh. Savanna Copeland put down a perfect sacrifice bunt and Madi Maloof followed by driving in the winning run with a hard hit ball to the fence.

Maloof had the only extra base hit, a double, for the Royals.

Maggie Armstrong pitched six strong innings, striking out three. Copeland came in and pitched the seventh and got the hurling win.

Southeastern 5-2 overall will be back in action on Tuesday hosting Westfield in a Hoosier Crossroad Conference game. The Lady Royals are 1-1 in the HCC.

Shamrocks blast Heritage

Westfield was in control from the start, but sprinted to the finish line Friday in a dominating 17-3 victory over Heritage Christian Friday at the Eagles' field.

Westfield scored five runs in the top of the first inning, and were ahead 9-0 by the middle of the fourth. Heritage cut the Shamrocks' lead to 9-3 after five innings, but Westfield blasted in eight runs in the top of the seventh.

Kristin London, Ashley Swartout and Claire Haffey all had three hits in the game. Swartout smacked a triple and two doubles, totaling five RBIs. Cassidy Ferrer, Savannah Young and Claire Haffey each hit one double as well. Dory Thompson, London and Ferrer all scored three runs, with Ferrer batting in another three.

If that wasn't enough, Ferrer was the winning pitcher. She threw six innings, striking out four.

The Shamrocks will play at the Lawrence Central Invitational today.

That's right. After making the top 50 for years, in 2011 we barely made the list at #50 and in 2013 we dropped off completely.

The fact is, we've been falling behind for years.

Grand Park adding fields for recreational soccer

At Monday’s City Council Meeting, a partnership was announced with Westfield Youth Soccer (WYSA)/Indiana Fire Juniors (IFJ) to construct 7-8 additional soccer fields at Grand Park. This will allow the park to serve as the primary location for the recreational soccer program.

The fields will be constructed on land adjacent to the park that is currently not being utilized. Additional parking spaces will also be added. The cost is approximately $160,000. The Westfield City Council was instrumental in making this partnership possible.

“After the sale of the fields at Shamrock Springs, we felt it was important to find a way to make sure the youth recreational program could have a permanent home at Grand Park,” said Westfield City Council President, Chuck Lehman.

The WYSA Recreational Soccer program, in partnership with the Indiana Fire Juniors Travel Soccer program, serves more than 1,500 local youth soccer players each year.

Recreational soccer focuses on developing and nurturing a love for soccer in a family friendly atmosphere. The staff has been privileged to watch many children grow from clumsy 4-year-olds trying to kick a ball to young adults making their marks in the community. Club leaders have received volumes of feedback from parents whose children were changed by the sport. These same players often continue to participate as college or adult recreational soccer players and as coaches and referees.

“We couldn’t be more thrilled to be moving our Recreational Soccer program to Grand Park,” said Mark K. Anderson, WYSA/IFJ co-chairman. “The City of Westfield’s generous plan will allow us to continue offering soccer practices and games in one convenient location, with a consistent schedule that is sensitive to today’s busy families.”

The WYSA/IFJ Recreational Soccer program is open to anyone from age 4 to 18. The program’s outreach includes several area families who qualify for a reduced fee scholarship program. Volunteer coaches generously share their time and talents to mentor young players both on and off the field.

“Over the years, we have found that the Recreational Soccer program makes a difference in the lives of area families,” Anderson said. “We strive to offer a program that is cost-effective, family oriented and open to all young players, regardless of soccer experience. The program has grown consistently over the years, as more and more players discover their love for the game.”

Elias says...Tribe walks on pinch hit in 13th

Elias Diaz delivered a pinch-hit, game-winning single in the bottom of the 13th inning to send the Indianapolis Indians to a 3-2 walkoff victory over the Louisville Bats on Friday night at Victory Field.

Diaz lined the second pitch of his at-bat over the drawn-in center fielder’s head to plate Mel Rojas Jr.

Jaff Decker and Rojas both walked to open the frame, and Steve Lombardozzi tied the contest with his RBI single that scored Decker from second.

Lombardozzi also doubled home the Indians’ (4-5) first run of the game in the fourth, extending his hitting streak to each of his seven games of 2015 in the process. The utility fielder is hitting .423 on the year and currently ranks third in the International League in batting average.

Starter Casey Sadler worked six innings with just one earned run in his first start since returning from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Sadler was followed by five Tribe relievers who combined for one run over the final seven frames, including the winning pitcher of Friday’s marathon, Charlie Leesman (2-0).

Nick Christiani (0-1) took the loss with two runs through 1 1/3 innings for the Bats (4-5).
