Multiple injuries...

Stage collapses during Westfield Musical

By JEFF JELLISON

Nearly two dozen people were injured Thursday evening, at least one critically, in a stage collapse at Westfield High School auditorium during a performance of the musical American Pie.

Westfield Police Department Captain Charles Hollowell said at least one person was critically injured and numerous others were being treated at area hospitals.

Just before 10 p.m., during the show's finale, the stage collapsed and nearly two dozen students fell approximately 8 feet into the orchestra pit below.

Hollowell, a 16 year veteran police officer, said he has never seen anything like this before.

Witnesses reported immediately following the collapse doctors and nurses, in the audience of nearly 900 people, rushed to the stage and jumped into the pit to assist injured students.

Multiple police and fire agencies responded to the scene. Westfield emergency personnel were assisted by the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department, Indiana State Police and Noblesville Police Department. Paramedics and ambulances were dispatched to the scene from Carmel, Fishers, Noblesville and Zionsville. Local hospitals, including Riverview Health, St. Vincent Carmel and St. Vincent Hospital 86th Street all reported receiving injured people from the stage collapse.

St. Vincent reported three patients had been treated at the 86th Street location and 10 patients at its Carmel location.

Riverview Health reported treating two injured from the collapse.

Local investigators confirmed they will be looking at the structure of the stage for the cause of the collapse. Westfield Mayor Andy Cook confirmed the Indiana Fire Marshall's office will assist in the investigation.

School officials announced Thursday night that school would be in session on Friday.

Desire to lead Noblesville

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

The one obviously thing coming across to the audience at the League of Women Voters forum for the upcoming Noblesville city primary election was that: Noblesville can't lose come election time.

It was a talented, dedicated, passion-filled group which Wednesday evening took the stage at Noblesville City Hall. A group which has and is putting in hours and hours trying to convince the voting public that each is the best candidate to lead Noblesville in the present and the future.

It will be a new Noblesville, for sure, in 2016 when the city becomes a second class city. (Only Indianapolis is first class in the state). But that means changes, highlighted by the City Council increasing from seven to nine members and by the Mayor of 2016 naming Noblesville's first City Manager, replacing what was an elected City Clerk Treasurer.

The two men running for mayor, current Mayor John Ditslear and second-time challenger Mike Corbett, were featured, appearing last in what were four groups of candidates. Ditslear and Corbett took off the gloves and slugged it out, a little. Mayor Ditslear talked about his achievements and his plans for the future of the city. Corbett suggested things could be done better.

A question was addressed concerning the mayor's salary. Ditslear said it was about $110,000 annual and that he hadn't received a raise in two or three years.

Corbett said he was not in it for the money.

Ditslear touted his record as mayor, pointing to bringing Ivy Tech to the city, enhancing the downtown, and he said 44 percent of the investments in Hamilton County came in Noblesville.

Bunnell watches Plawecki's MLB debut

By RICHIE HALL

Many people have always believed that Westfield's Kevin Plawecki would play in the major league someday.

Westfield baseball coach Ryan Bunnell told Plawecki a long time ago "that whenever that day came, that I would be there." That day came on Tuesday, and Bunnell was there.

The coach got quite a show, too, as his former star catcher had two hits for the New York Mets in his big league debut. Not only that, but Plawecki helped the Mets continue their long winning streak. The Mets stretched their streak to nine with a 7-1 victory over Atlanta on Tuesday.

The streak has since grown to 11, as the Mets swept the Braves with wins on Wednesday and Thursday. Plawecki was 0-for-3 on Wednesday and did not play on Thursday, although he is expected to be back behind the plate when the Mets begin a three-game "Subway Series" with the New York Yankees at 7:05 p.m. tonight at Yankee Stadium.

Bunnell said Plawecki's goal, No. 1, was that he wanted to win that debut game, saying "he didn't want to come in and take over, and then lose." The second goal was to have good at-bats and get through the game.

The coach also said Plawecki was looking to get all the "firsts" out of the way.

"I know he was really excited that he was able to get his first hit, everything, all that out of the way, and now there's a level of comfort, I think, for him," said the coach.

Plawecki was in the middle of catching a game with the Mets' AAA affiliate, the Las Vegas 51s, Sunday afternoon when he got the call that he would be moved up to replace Travis d'Arnaud, who was injured

Weather moves Earth Day ArborFest inside Moose Lodge

Anticipating rain, wind and cold weather, Noblesville officials have moved the location of Saturday's Earth Day ArborFest celebration from Forest Park inside Moose Lodge, 950 Field Drive. The one-day free event to celebrate the community, its trees, the earth and ways to improve and properly care for them will still be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"Everything will be the same; it will just be inside the Moose Lodge," said Cindy Benedict, community engagement manager. "We greatly appreciate the Moose Lodge for providing us a dry and fun environment to host the event rain or shine."

This year's Earth Day ArborFest will feature nationally-known speaker Tim Womick, also known as Appleseedz, at 10 a.m. Womick will engage audiences with his highly animated "Trail of Trees" show. The event also will include free tree seedlings, planting and pruning information, local environmental exhibitors and kids' activities.

Free seedlings include Tulip Poplar, Redbud, Sugar Maple and White Oak.

Because of the move inside, the recycling of e-waste, old bicycles and the Community Shred Day will be canceled.

"It is our hope to reschedule the recycling efforts to a date later this summer," Benedict said.

during the Mets' Sunday game with Miami. As soon as that happened, Bunnell began making arrangements to get to New York and Citi Field. He flew out Tuesday morning with several coaches and some of Plawecki's teammates, "and then I got in about 1:30 last night."

That meant missing Westfield's Tuesday game, a win over Western. Bunnell said "it was tough leaving a game," and wasn't sure if he would've missed a game that involved a Hoosier Crossroads Conference team.

But now that he had the experience of attending the Mets game, he said the game doesn't matter - "You go."

"It was a really, really neat experience," said Bunnell. "Kevin and I have kept in contact a lot, and I think that helped make it a little more special, because we've kept in contact and all that. But it was, seeing him run out on the field there, it was just surreal."

Bunnell talked to Plawecki "Monday morning and asked him if he had slept." Plawecki responded that he was awake at 2:30 a.m., "ready to go."

"And then it was just a matter of trying to settle down and get back to sleep," said Bunnell. "And he said luckily he was able to get back to sleep and he didn't have to be at the ballpark 'til like 12:30 or 1. So he got there."

Plawecki got there, but his catcher's gear actually didn't get there until late.

"When he went out to warm up, he was using d'Arnaud's catcher's glove, and then his stuff got there and he was able to use it," said Bunnell. "He was starting to make adjustments for what he was going to have to do with his stuff."

Same thing with the bats: When Plawecki took early batting practice, he actually was using David Wright's bat

("He refers to him as David now," said Bunnell) since his bat hadn't arrived yet. Wright, one of the Mets' superstars, uses the same model bat as Plawecki.

But even through all the whirlwind of changes, Bunnell sees Plawecki as someone who will succeed in the major leagues.

"He's just got the personality," said Bunnell. "He's got a calming effect on pitchers."

When Mets pitcher John Niese gave up a home run, he said that Plawecki called a different pitch then what Niese had thrown. Niese said "Man, I should've gone with what you said," and Plawecki responded, "Aw, that's all right. We're all right, we're still in good shape."

"He just has that calming effect," said Bunnell. "He calls a good game. He already is fitting in in the clubhouse. I'll be shocked if it doesn't turn into a long thing for him."

NOBLESVILLE

Corbett said Noblesville has the second-highest tax rate in the county.

Corbett said he would be a pro-acting mayor, saying that Ditslear was not. Ditslear said great things have been done and he pointed to his list of “greater things to do” in growing the economy, strengthening the hometown and enhancing the downtown

The three candidates for judges, although stressing there were different opinions how to run Noblesville’s City Court, were on the whole supportive of each other. Term limits was the most harsh brick tossed at the current man on the bench, Judge Greg Caldwell, who defended his time as judge by citing his record down through the years.

Candidate Trenna Parker was criticized for having yard signs (banners) to large, breaking a city ordinance. Candidate Paul Paclor sat in the middle of Caldwell and Parker and, for the most part, escaped any such harsh dressing down.

Because there are so many, those running for City Council were presented in two groups, those in districts and those running at-large.

The City Council ballot will include a mixed group. Nearly all professed a love of Noblesville and a passion to lead.

The group includes veteran officer holders, led by former Mayor Mary Sue Rowland and by current Councilmen Roy Johnson, Rick Taylor, Stephen Wood, Gregory O’Connor, Mark Boice and Brian Ayer.

O’Connor could flash the largest smile. He is unopposed, in the Republican primary, in District 5.

Johnson is challenged by political newcomer Henry Cole in District 1.

District 2 will have a new face, for sure. None of the three running are incumbents. New faces are Christopher Jensen, Peggy Barts and Michele Leach.

The District 3 race is among another incumbent, Rick Taylor, and newcomers

Gary Duvall, who currently serves on the Noblesville School Board, and David Carter, who was a no-show at the forum.

District 4 also is a three-man race among incumbent Stephen Wood and new faces Darren Peterson and Wil Hampton.

There will be a new Council person in District 6. Running are Sean Brady and Megan Wiles.

Three will be selected among the seven Noblesville residents running at-large. The list includes incumbents Mark Boice Brian Ayer and Jeff Zeckel, pitted against newcomers Dave Johnson, Ray Ade, Patrick Berghoff, and Mary Sue Rowland.

Currently, there are no women on the Council. Barts, Leach, Wiles and Rowland hope to change that.

There were, believe it or not, two Democrats on the stage. Both, of course, will be elected in the primary. Both, Marie DeMore and Paula Gilliam, are running at-large.

In the primary election, voters must declare whether they are a Republican or a Democrat.

First Merchants reports earnings increase

First Merchants Corporation has reported first quarter 2015 net income of $16.2 million, compared to $13.6 million during the same period in 2014. Earnings per share for the period totaled $.43 per share, an increase of $.05 per share, or 13.2 percent over the first quarter of 2014.

Total assets equaled $5.9 billion as of quarter-end and loans were $4.0 billion. The Corporation's loan portfolio increased $349 million during the past twelve months. Of the increase, $204 million, or 5.6 percent, was the result of organic growth and $145 million resulted from the acquisition of Community Bank of Noblesville in November 2014.

Michael C. Rechin, President and Chief Executive Officer, stated, "First quarter 2015 results continue to represent effective execution of our core banking strategy. We are focused on growing organically while maintaining an emphasis on efficiency and expense control in this low interest rate environment." Rechin also added, "Management was pleased to close our acquisition of Cooper State Bank on April 17th and confident about completing our integration of Community Bank of Noblesville this coming weekend."

Net-interest income totaled $47 million for the quarter, and net-interest margin remained strong during the quarter totaling 3.78 percent, as yields on earning assets totaled 4.24 percent and the cost of supporting liabilities totaled .46 percent. When adjusted down for fair value accretion, net-interest margin totaled 3.61 percent for the quarter, 22 basis points less than the first quarter of 2014 total of 3.83 percent.

Non-interest income totaled $16.2 million for the quarter, an increase from first quarter of 2014 total of $15.4 million. Gains on sale of mortgage loans increased during the quarter by $766,000 reflecting lower rates. Non-interest expense totaled $41.2 million for the quarter, a decline of $1.9 million from the prior year. Of the decline in non-interest expense, salary and benefit expense accounted for $760,000 and other real estate owned and foreclosure expense accounted for $528,000.

The Corporation did not expense a provision for loan losses during the quarter despite net charge-offs of $1.2 million due to improvements in non-performing loans of $5.1 million, which now total $45.6 million. The allowance for loan losses totaled $62.8 million, or 1.58 percent of total loans and 1.87 percent of non-purchased loans. Non-performing assets declined by $5.4 million from year-end and now total $64.7 million.

As of March 31, 2015, the Corporation's total risk-based capital ratio equaled 15.12 percent, common equity tier 1 capital ratio equaled 11.37 percent, and tangible common equity ratio totaled 9.31 percent.

Westfield Parks giving away tree seedlings this Saturday

The city of Westfield is celebrating Arbor Day by giving away seedlings this Saturday to residents.

500 seedlings containing five varieties of trees will be given away on a first-come, first-served basis from 10 a.m. to Noon in Asa Bales Park. Selections will include Red Pine, Bur Oak, Sugar Maple, Redbud, and Tulip tree seedlings.

“This will be a great event for families to come out and get a tree to add to their yard,” said Director of Parks and Recreation Melody Jones. “A new tree can be a great way to not only enhance your lawn, it can serve to commemorate a new birth, anniversary or honor a loved one.”

Westfield was recently named a Tree City by the Arbor Day Foundation. This will be Westfield’s eighth year with that distinction.

Asa Bales Park is located at 205 W. Hoover Street. Trees will be distributed in Shelter 1.

Fishers Police provide...

Vehicle break-in, theft prevention tips

This week the Fishers Police Department has responded to several incidents where suspects have rummaged thru and removed property from unlocked cars. Please consider implementing the following safety tips:

1. Never leave your vehicle unsecured, even if you are only going to be away from it for a short time. Thieves only need a few seconds to open an unlocked door and retrieve valuables that are left in plain sight.
2. Secure valuables in the trunk before leaving your vehicle. Thieves will often take the time to look into windows before choosing a particular vehicle to break-in. Unsecured items such as GPS devices, CD’s, computers, purses, cellular phones, audio systems, keys, and other items are often the targets of a thief.
3. Etch your driver’s license number on all items of value and that are removable, e.g., audio equipment, computers, GPS devices.

4. Park in your garage, if you have one. Don’t leave your vehicle in the street, in an alley or in your driveway. If you have to park in the street, avoid dark or isolated areas.
5. Install an alarm system that will sound when someone attempts to break-in, move, or start your vehicle. Always activate the system when leaving your vehicle unattended.
6. Don’t leave spare keys attached to the outside of your vehicle or hidden inside your vehicle. An experienced thief knows all the hiding places.
7. Park in open, well-lighted, and populated areas near your destination. Avoid parking near trucks, vans, dumpsters, or other objects that obstruct visibility and provide hiding places. Avoid parking near strangers loitering or sitting in vehicles.
8. Turn off your engine, roll up all your windows, lock all doors, and take your keys with you even if you are making a quick stop at a store or gas station, or even in your driveway.

As always if you see or hear something suspicious please call 911 immediately!

At Farmers Market...

Carmel’s Arbor Day Ceremony is May 2

Carmel will hold its 27th Annual Arbor Day Ceremony at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 2nd at the opening day of the Carmel Farmers Market on Center Green. The City of Carmel along with the Carmel Urban Forestry Committee will be present at Booth #9 from 8-11:30 a.m. to answer landscaping questions and promote proper tree planting, mulching and pruning while providing free tree seedlings for attendees. A ceremony at the Rotary Amphitheater will begin sharply at 9:30 a.m. with Mayor Brainard reading the Arbor Day Proclamation and the Urban Forestry Committee presenting the annual Donna Manlove Award.

Carmel was named a 2014 Tree City USA by the Arbor Day Foundation. This makes the 21st consecutive year the City has been honored for its commitment to effective urban forest management. Moreover, Carmel received its 19th consecutive Tree City USA Growth Award for demonstrating environmental improvement and a higher level of tree care. The Tree City USA program is sponsored by the Arbor Day Foundation in cooperation with USDA Forest Service and the National Association of State Foresters.

“Everyone benefits when we educate and implement proper tree care practices. All we have to do is look around this spring season and see all the beauty the urban forest gives to our community,” said Nichole Speth, Urban Forestry Specialist for the City of Carmel. “Only when trees are cared for properly will they grow and provide countless environmental, social and economic benefits.” Please join us at the Arbor Day Ceremony on May 2 at 9:30 a.m. at the Rotary Amphitheatre.

Lady Huskies score with 2 out....

Heights edges Westfield

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

After two were out, host Hamilton Heights put together three consecutive hits to edge Westfield, 3-2, Thursday afternoon in girls softball action.

Jessica Kaurich doubled, Ashlee Herrington singled and Ashley Roberts delivered the walk-off single for the victory.

“It’s the most complete game we’ve played this season,” said Heights coach Landi Lockwood.

Roberts, a sophomore who collected two hits in the game, also was the wining pitcher, allowing the Shamrocks just three hits.

“We’re just not hitting the ball, and we have kids who can hit,” said Westfield coach Dan Runge.

“We’re playing good defense and getting good pitching, but we’re just not hitting,” said the Shamrocks’ first year coach.

Freshman Madison Seigworth went all the way on the mound for Westfield, allowing just six hits and fanning four batters.

Westfield’s three hits came off the bats of Seigworth, Dory Thompson and Shelby Jellison.

Westfield scored in the third on a walk and then two stole bases by Kristin London. The Shamrocks tied the game at 2-2 in the sixth when Savanna Young walked and scored on an RBI single by Thompson.

Hamilton Heights plated its first run in the first on a single by Roberts and a RBI single by Morgan Burtron. The Lady Huskies scored again, this time on an unearned run, in the fourth.

Roberts and Burtron each collected two hits for the Lady Huskies.

“We had been having a bad inning in previous games that had been costing us and tonight we cleaned that up,” said Lockwood. “Our defense did a nice job behind the pitching of Roberts. This was Roberts’ best pitched game of the year.

“The girls have been working hard on their hitting in practice and tonight we saw some improvement in that area,” Lockwood continued.

“There are some things we still need to work on but overall tonight I was pleased with what I saw from the girls,” the coach added.

Partlow hits three doubles...

Shamrocks win big in series opener

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor
When you get seven hits in the first inning, it's going to be a good day at the ballpark.

Westfield pounded out seven hits in the bottom of the first Thursday, and that carried the Shamrocks through to an 11-2 victory over Hamilton Southeastern in the opening game of that Hoosier Crossroads Conference series. The two teams play again tonight at the Royals' field, with the series wrapping up Saturday at Westfield.

"I can't say that I expected that we'd come out and jump on them for eight runs and hit the ball the way that we hit," said 'Rocks coach Ryan Bunnell. "I do think that we've got a good hitting ball club. I do think we've got the right line-up. We're starting to get the pieces in the right place."

The Shamrocks' seven hits turned into five runs. In the first inning alone, Bailey Partlow's double sent two runs home, while Chris Ayers, Harrison Freed and Brian Skelton all got one RBI. Nick Rhodes and Milo Beam were the first to cross home plate, followed by Ayers, Partlow and Freed.

Westfield scored in each of the first four innings. In the second, Partlow batted Beam home, while Freed's sacrifice fly got Ayers in to score. Partlow was later scored by Ryan Pepiot's single.

Partlow got two more RBIs in the third inning, with a double to score Jackson Garrett and Ayers. That gave Partlow a total of five RBIs for the game; he would finish 3-for-3 on the night, all doubles. Julian Lytle scored in the fourth inning on a wild pitch for Westfield's 11th run.

Southeastern scored its two runs in the top of the fifth on an error. J.B. Washburn and Nick Kiehl each crossed home plate. Kiehl reached on a double; Aaron McGee also hit a double in the first inning.

Ayers pitched a solid game, going six innings. He tossed 11 strikeouts while only giving up three hits. Elvin Caldwell closed the game by throwing a perfect seventh inning.

Conway lights out on the mound...

Millers win Zionsville series

That licking Noblesville took from Zionsville Tuesday in a three-game Hoosier Crossroads Conference series might have been just what the doctor ordered for Coach Justin Keever’s defending state champion Millers.

After drawing even in the series with a win at Noblesville on Wednesday, the Millers returned to Zionsville last evening and won the series with a 3-2 victory over the Eagles.

Noblesville scored the winning run in the top of the seventh. Ty Lindstrand opened the frame with a double to right. Michael Carmosino walked. Connor Christman reached on an error. Bryce Masterson hit a liner to left to score Lindstrand.

“Great series win for our guys,” said Keever.. “Especially so bouncing back after game one and then getting the series win on the road

“Cory Conway was dominate tonight,” Keever added.

The junior lefty worked 6.2 innings and allowed just six hits while striking out 15 and allowing two walks. Another junior, Clayton Marowski came in for the final out and picked up the save.

Noblesville had 10 hits in the game, including two each by Travis Gillian, Dax McLochlin and Masterson.

McLochlin and Lindstrand each cracked a double.

Noblesville’s next outing is scheduled Saturday at 7 p.m. at Carmel.

Sheridan runs short on pitching....

Comets streak to 10-0 win

In baseball, pitching often is everything.

Sheridan coach Matt Britt, coming off a pair of tough conference games with Clinton Prairie, had to use two freshmen pitchers Thursday evening in a non-conference game at Eastern. Sheridan, on the other side of the coin, faced Eastern’s ace, Bob Simmerman.

Eastern won the game, 10-0, in five innings, the Comets scoring five times in the bottom of the fifth.

“Simmerman had nice velocity and had our number tonight,” said Britt.

The Blackhawks collected just three hits, a double by Sam Crail and singles by Jordan Kyriakopoulos and Austin Sexson.

Sheridan, now 7-2 on the year, is idle until facing Hamilton County rival University on Monday.

Duermit tough luck loser, again....

Fishers edged by Brownsburg

Brandon Yoho hit a double for Fishers in its Thursday game with Brownsburg.

You may not want to schedule Luke Duermit with any planned trip to Las Vegas. The Fishers pitcher isn't having lots of luck this spring.

Pitching well, yes. He's pitching very well. But!

Last evening the sophomore lefty threw a complete game, allowing just six hits and only one earned run while striking out three. Fishers lost at home to Brownsburg, 3-2

Previously, Duermit lost 2-1 and 2-1 games. He's 1-3 on the year.

It was a tough Hoosier Crossroads Conference loss for Fishers, which now must face Brownsburg in the second and third games of the series today at Brownsburg. The Tigers moved their home game originally scheduled for Saturday to Friday at Brownsburg to avoid the bad weather conditions expected.

Offensively last evening, the Tigers had their chances in three different innings. They left the bases loaded in the first; had a runner in scoring position in the second and had a runner in scoring position with no outs in the fifth.

Andy Bennett led the Tigers with two hits and an RBI. Brandon Yoho and Duermit each cracked a double.

The Tribe tallied 14 hits, including two home runs, in the series-opening victory. After scoring just two runs in their first three games of the season earlier this month, the Indians have scored 21 runs in their last three.

The Indians extended their lead in the eighth, as Tony Sanchez followed a Steve

The Huskies were led by two juniors Alex Trachtman and Josh Lucas in their dual match with both players posting low rounds of the season. Alex Trachtman won medalist honors with a round of 41 that included two birdies on holes No. 3 and 6.

Josh Lucas scored a strong round of 42. Senior Alex Beale posted a 46 while junior Jesse Reed posted a 46 to complete the team score.

The Beale brothers, Sam and Jake, posted rounds of 49 and 50 respectively. Sophomore Nate Arrowood scored 52 freshmen Christian Broshears and Tanner Sexton recorded rounds of 58 and 59 respectively.

INDIANS

Lombardozzi run-producing single with a two-run homer off of the scoreboard in left field. The Mud Hens (7-6) pushed a run across in the ninth, but the deficit was too great to overcome as the Tribe posted its third win in their last four tries.

Casey Sadler (1-0) hurled seven innings and conceded just two runs to earn the victory for Indianapolis. His counterpart, Tim Melville (0-2), allowed four runs and was handed the loss. The win moves Indianapolis back to .500 (7-7) as it approaches the mid-point of an 11-day road trip through the International League West division.
