"When responding to an incident like this everyone has a role." Emergency personnel Thursday included teams of firefighters, paramedics and police officers specially trained in hazardous materials, technical rescue such as confined spaces and triage teams.

Erickson indicated his agency responded two mobile. command trailers to assist at the scene

In September of 2012, Indiana Sports Corp renamed the CHAMPS Grant Program to the Susan Williams CHAMPS Grant program. The renaming recognizes the significant contributions of Susan Williams, who retired as the president of Indiana Sports Corp after more than seven years in the position. At Indiana Sports Corp, Williams made impacting the lives of youth a priority, helping to grow the number of youth influenced by Sports Corp programming significantly.

"Indiana Sports Corp's mission includes encouraging opportunities for the young people in our community," said Ryan Vaughn, Indiana Sports Corp president. The ability to support organizations that teach life skills and promote fitness through sports is a key initiative in fulfilling that mission. We greatly appreciate what these organizations do for young people each and every day, and we are proud to contribute to their impact."

This year, grants have been awarded to organizations serving youth in the following Indiana counties: Boone, Clay, Delaware, Dubois, Hamilton, Hancock, Harrison, Hendricks, Jefferson, Johnson, Lake, Lawrence, Marion, Morgan, Monroe, Madison, Morgan, Putnam, Randolph, Shelby, Vigo, Wayne, and Whitley.

Since 1988, Youthlinks Indiana has generated more than $6.5 million that have been reinvested to support various youth sports programs and initiatives. A total of 230 youth-serving organizations have received more than $2 million in CHAMPS Grants since 1988. This year's Susan Williams CHAMPS Grants are divided among 18 organizations that serve 5,374 youth.

The 28th Annual Youthlinks Indiana Charity Golf Tournament, hosted by Indiana Sports Corp, tees off on Monday, June 22 at the Sagamore Golf Club of Noblesville, Ind. The tournament will consist of morning and afternoon shotgun tee times. Teams will compete in a scramble-style tournament over the 18-hole course. Carmel Invitational...

'Hounds, Millers find opportunity in openers

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

The Carmel and Noblesville softball teams both got something different out of their opening games at the Carmel Invitational Friday.

The Greyhounds won their first game, a 2-0 victory over a strong Cathedral team. The Millers lost to just-as-strong Franklin Central 6-1, but Noblesville was playing with a much younger team than normal. Friday was prom night at NHS, so several of the varsity players were off dancing the evening away.

"Tonight was an opportunity for some kids that hadn't had a chance to get out there and see what the varsity level's like," said Miller coach Mike Ramsey.

The Flashes leaped out to a 5-0 lead in the top of the first inning; Ramsey said his players "just came out a little bit anxious," thus the lopsided start.

But Noblesville settled down and played Franklin Central even for the remainder of the game. The Flashes scored another run in the top of the fifth, while the Millers got on the board in the bottom of the sixth. Brooke Herron batted Rachel Peigh in.

Maddie Moore and Brianna Gaskill both were 2-for-3 on the day.

"We're trying to prepare for some bigger things, and we think we have a special group this year," said Ramsey. "Hopefully we made some progress as far as getting bly say it made some progress as well. Greyhounds coach Emily Good said it had "been kind of a crazy week" for her team, since Carmel just played a tournament in Louisville last weekend, had another three games this week and will be competing at this tournament over the weekend.

"It's not a lot of time to really break things down in between," said Good. "So we've kind of had to use our game situations as practice opportunities at the same time."

The 'Hounds scored one run each in the bottom of the third and fourth innings. Em-Tournament host Carmel could proba- ma Morton and Whitney Foyer each crossed the plate, with Ava Walker and Darby Roberts batting in the runs. Roberts was 2-for-3, Morton and Karly Combs both hit a double.

Buckner threw eight strikeouts in a complete game.

It was nice to get her some more innings since she has not pitched much and she is looking better every time she gets on the mound," said Blackhawks coach Joe Grant. "All around it was a great game. Shamrocks take series....

'Rocks, Royals split 2

By DON JELLISON Reporter Editor

Before the high school baseball season started, Westfield coach Ryan Bunnell made a deal with third baseman Jacob Robinson.

Pitch for us son, and we'll use you only in relief. That's the offer which was made to Robinson, who next fall will be headed to Indiana University.....to play football.

"Robinson is lifting a lot this spring, getting ready for football," said Bunnell after Friday evening watching the big guy sit down three consecutive Southeaster hitters in the seventh and protecting a onerun lead to give the Shamrocks a 6-5 victory over the Royals.

The victory was a huge one for Westfield, assuring the Shamrocks of capturing the three-game Hoosier Crossroads Conference series over the Royals. The game was the first of a doubleheader. With rain predicted for Saturday, instead of returning to Westfield, the two teams decided to end the series last evening.

Also noteworthy to Westfield fans, back behind the plate for a second consecutive game was veteran catcher Bailey Partlow, who had missed Westfield's first seven games.

"Jackson Garrett did a really good job when Partlow was gone," Bunnell said. "But, Garrett is just a sophomore and having Partlow back in the lineup has made us better.

"What we have to do is improve our defensive game," the coach added.

Partlow, at the plate, was on base all four trips against HSE. He had a single and he had three walks, one of which was intentional.

The game was a bang, bang battle between the two conference and Hamilton County rivals. Each had a four-run inning, Westfield in the fifth and Southeastern in the fourth.

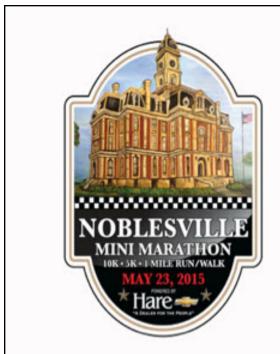

Westfield's blast in the fifth decided the game. A three-run home run from another Westfield football player, quarterback Ryan Pepiot, was the difference in the final score.

Southeastern loaded the bases on three walks in the sixth, but didn't score. Bunnell

The Royals broke a 2-2 tie by scoring Jon McGee two times in the fifth and adding two runs in the sixth

"Overall, this was a good series for us," said Bunnell. "Our goal is always to win 2-of-3 and if we can steal a few sweeps we'll take that

"I still need to see more consistent Gorski 1, Washburn 1, Howard 1. Andrew Bohm, who caught the first defensive effort out of us. We're fielding at a 91 percent clip and that's tripping us up too much. In game 3 tonight we were in a position to possibly win and the wheels fell off defensively.

'We have been pretty good on the mound and I really like our lineup right now offensively. If we find a consistent defensive effort we could go from a good team to a great team," Bunnell added.

Rally in sixth inning fuels third straight win for Tribe

Hitless and trailing 2-0 entering the sixth inning, the Indianapolis Indians offense erupted for four runs in the frame and held off the Toledo Mud Hens for the Tribe's third consecutive victory. With the triumph, the Indians (8-7) have now won four of their last five games, and are above the .500 mark for the first time this season.

The sixth inning began with a walk to Hunter Morris by Toledo (7-7) starter Thad Weber. Three batters later, Gustavo Nunez stepped to the plate with the bases loaded. He delivered a two-run single to left-center field to tie the game. Deibinson Romero put Indianapolis in front by doubling to left field, plating two more runs to give the Indians the 4-2 advantage.

The Mud Hens were able to score one run in the bottom of the eighth, but Tribe closer Blake Wood would not allow any such rally in the ninth. He entered the game to open the frame and retired all three batters to earn his fourth save of the season.

Indians starter Wilfredo Boscan (1-0) worked six innings and conceded just two runs (one earned) to receive the victory. Weber (2-1) lost his perfect game, no-hitter, and shutout in quick succession in the sixth, and the right-hander was tagged with the defeat.
