Grand Junction project

The city of Westfield has received $50,000 to be used for economic revitalization after being named as a quarterfinalist in the America's Best Communities Competition.

"We are thrilled to receive this award as Westfield continues to move ahead with the community's vision for downtown," said Mayor Andy Cook. "We will make every dollar count as we build a community that residents and business owners can be proud of."

America's Best Communities is a competition supported by Frontier Communications, DISH, CoBank and Vince Gill, and is designed to spark economic vitality in small towns. Hundreds of communities from 27 states served by Frontier Communications, DISH, and CoBank applied to the com-

After launching in September 2014, the America's Best Communities competition successfully attracted entries from 138 applicant teams, representing 347 communities across the country. In Indiana, 20 teams, which brought together a total of 23 communities, applied.

"As soon as I saw this competition I knew it would be a perfect fit for the Grand Junction Plaza project," said Ken Kingshill, who submitted an application on behalf of the Downtown Westfield Association. "Every day we are getting closer to seeing the Grand Junction project become a reality. This funding will give us another resource we can leverage in order to preserve Westfield's small-town identity while creating an environment where businesses can thrive."

Heirbrandt's comments came as Commissioners prepare to coordinate a workshop session with the Hamilton County Council to discuss the importance of a proposed county-wide emergency training center. Heirbrandt said, "The intent of the workshop will be to discuss the importance of training our first responders and the impact it can make with the communities that we serve. We also intend to answer questions & concerns of the County Council in hope that they will feel comfortable investing in this effort."

"The Public Training Facility mission will be to focus on ensuring that our first responders are able to get the necessary training needed to best protect our citizens and be prepared for emergency situations similar to this one (referring to the Westfield incident.)"

Caused crash at 146th and Gray Road...

Sheriff deputies looking for hit and run driver

Hamilton County Sheriff deputies are looking for information on a black passenger vehicle involved in a hit-and-run crash that occurred on Gray Road at 146th Street on Thursday, April 30, at approximately 6:20pm. According to a crash report, four vehicles were involved in the minor property damage crash allegedly caused when the black car rear-ended a line of vehicles causing a chain reaction crash. The driver of the black car left without exchanging information with the other drivers. No injuries were reported in the crash but the other three drivers were unable to provide a definite description of the black 4-door passenger car that left the scene. Anyone with information should contact Deputy David Needham at (317)773-1282.

Indiana law requires, at a minimum, drivers involved in a crash to stop and remain at the scene to exchange information with anyone else involved in the incident. If a crash involves injury, the driver must provide reasonable assistance to anyone injured and notify law enforcement of the crash. In the case of a crash with an unattended vehicle or property, the driver must make a reasonable attempt to notify the owner of the damaged property. Failure to follow these laws is chargeable with at least a B misdemeanor and can rise to a Level 3 felony (Indiana IC 9-26-1-1.1).

The 50 quarterfinalist communities have six months to complete their comprehensive Community Revitalization Plans and compete for additional investment. In early 2016, 15 semifinalists will be selected to attend the America's Best Communities summit to present their strategies and eight finalists will be awarded another $100,000 to continue implementation of their plans.

In April 2017, America's Best Communities will name its three competition winners — those communities best able to dream big and deliver on those dreams. The winning community will be awarded $3 million, with $2 million for second place and $1 million for third.

New health care facility...

Wellbrooke of Carmel hosting Sunday open house state-of-the-art health care now have a new and compassionate caregivers in the Mainoption in Carmel. Mainstreet and Trilogy Health Services are celebrating their latest development, Wellbrooke of Carmel. The transitional care center is the first of its kind in Carmel, where Mainstreet is also headquartered.

Wellbrooke of Carmel will host a community open house for visitors from 1 to 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Located at 12315 Pennsylvania St., Wellbrooke of Carmel provides transitional care (short-stay rehabilitation and therapy) and assisted living in a service-rich environment. The property hosted a VIP ribbon cutting this evening.

Construction started on Wellbrooke of tentatively scheduled to open the end of April. Mainstreet developed Wellbrooke of Carmel and Trilogy operates it.

According to Randall Bufford, president and CEO of Trilogy, "Our commitment to a servant leadership culture and our dedication to providing exceptional customer service that exceeds our customers' expectations are the cornerstones of Trilogy's operating philosophy. When you com-

Hoosiers looking for resident-centered, bine great services with a team of dedicated street Next Generation model, the result is an outstanding senior living experience."

With 94 beds and 68,590 square feet, Wellbrooke of Carmel boasts with amenities such as a large therapy gym, an outdoor rehabilitation courtyard, a movie theatre, a game room, a spa, an on-site chef and more. The property was designed to reflect Carmel's nearby Arts & Design District and is unlike any other Mainstreet property featuring faux Juliet balconies and a porte-cochére. The project, which represents a total investment of $15 million in the community, created 374 construction jobs and 120 permanent jobs.

"It's only fitting that Wellbrooke of Carmel in April 2014 and the property is Carmel would embody the coming wave of health care in the same community Mainstreet proudly calls home," said Zeke Turner, founder and CEO of Mainstreet. "The innovative designs and hospitality-oriented care of our Next Generation properties give aging Americans what they want today more services, amenities and attention. Wellbrooke of Carmel is our latest commitment toward transforming the health care industry."

Flaggers will be on the scene...

Brief stoppages on 181st Street near US 31 on Monday

During daytime hours on Monday, May 4, crews plan to set bridge beams at 181st Street near US 31. To safely set these beams, brief stoppages of up to 10 minutes each should be expected on 181st Street at Sun Park Drive (to the west) and Union Street (to the east). Flaggers will help direct traffic during these stoppages. Because the stoppages are expected to occur during school hours, no impacts to regular school traffic are expected.

Shanteau blanks Bulldogs

By DON JELLISON

Reporter Editor

Westfield has helped itself, and all the other contenders in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference baseball race, by twice knocking off Brownsburg so far this week.

The Shamrocks won a second straight game from the Bulldogs Friday evening at The Rock, roaring to a 6-0 decision.

Brownsburg came into the week with a 5-1 conference record.

Game 2 was all Westfield.

"We've been able to get our pieces together and to get some of our players back in the lineup," said Coach Ryan Bunnell after Westfield's latest win.

"Our defese has gotten better," Bunnell added.

The pitching yesterday came from sophomore Noah Shanteau. He hurled six innings of shutout baseball, allowing just five hits. He fanned three and walked only

"It was his best game of the season," Bunnell said.

Jackson Bard relieved in the seventh and kept the shutout in check.

Westfield's defense, as Bunnell said, was outstanding and Shanteau was tough under pressure. He allowed Brownsburg a pair of hits in the first and two more hits in the fourth, but no Bulldog runs.

Westfield scored twice in the first without getting a hit. Milo Beam, Nick Rhodes and Chris Ayers led off the inning with walks. Beam scored on a sacrifice fly by Bailey Partlow and Rhodes scored on a sacrifice fly by Harrison Freed.

In the second, Brian Skelton and Jackson Chris Ayers Garrett each singled and Shelton scored on Bailey Partlow a double by Beam.

Westfield broke the game wide-open Harrison Freed with three runs in the fourth. Garrett reached Ryan Pepiot on an error, Beam walked, Rhodes singled, Ayers had a ground out RBI and two more runs scored on a two RBI single by Partlow.

The two teams will play the third game of the series today at 11 a.m. at Brownsburg.

"It's another big game," said Bunnell. "We will be idle from conference play the last week of the season, so we will need to sit and watch."

Hanson's four, Sampson's seven bury Lehigh Valley

Top prospect Alen Hanson collected a career high-tying four hits and Adrian Sampson captained a combined shutout with seven innings of four-hit ball as the Indianapolis Indians defeated the Lehigh Valley IronPigs 4-0 on Friday night at Victory Field.

Hanson singled in four consecutive atbats while also crossing home in the first and seventh for all the run support his pitching staff needed.

Spotted the early lead, starter Sampson (1-3) cruised to his first win of the season with seven strikeouts and just four hits. He retired each of his last six batters faced, including recording two of his final three outs via strikeout, before giving way to one-inning efforts from relievers John Holdzkom and Blake Wood.

Gustavo Nunez and Elias Diaz also produced multi-hit games in the Tribe's (13-10) win. Nunez finished 3-for-3 with a run scored and Diaz went 2-for-4 with a teamhigh two RBIs.

Lehigh Valley (6-17) starter Phillipe Aumont (1-1) took the loss with three runs in three innings pitched.

We think it's time for new leadership in Noblesville and we're voting for Mike Corbett for Mayor in the Republican primary. In fact, we're so committed to Mike's campaign that most of us pitched in to pay for this ad.

Public service shouldn't be a career and the current mayor has been in office for 12 years. It's time for fresh ideas and new initiatives in City Hall.
