The County Line

Commuter tax would be more fair than mass transit tax

By FRED SWIFT
In Indianapolis the suggestion of a commuter tax has been tossed around for some time as a way to get their out-of-county residents to pay for improving roads. The idea is simple: assess those who live in Hamilton and other surrounding counties and work in Marion County to pay a fixed amount of money per month or per year for the privilege of using the city streets.

While not advocating for it, I would say this proposal offers a greater degree of fairness than the plan of some government leaders who wish to have all residents of Hamilton and other surrounding counties pay a higher local income tax (COIT) whether they drive into the city on a daily basis or not. The added COIT money would help pay for public bus transportation often called mass transit.

A commuter tax and a mass transportation tax are not designed to accomplish the same thing. But, they both provide Indianapolis more revenue which could be directed toward improved transportation. And, a commuter tax might accomplish something else for a lot of Hamilton County taxpayers.

It is unlikely that the public in this county would stand still for both a COIT in-

Preliminary Resolution for IDI Expansion

The Noblesville Common Council has approved the preliminary resolution designating an economic revitalization area for Industrial Dielectrics, Inc., 407 S. Seventh St., Noblesville.

"Industrial Dielectrics, Inc. is a long-standing business in Noblesville and it is great to see them continue to grow and add to the economic development within the city," Mayor John Ditslear said.

Industrial Dielectrics would like to locate a research and development facility and pertinent equipment at its current location in downtown Noblesville. The facility expansion will be a capital investment of $300,000 and will include an additional 175 square feet in the entry area and some conversion work within the building. Total capital investment for this project will be approximately $1.3 million. Personal property capital investment is estimated at $1 million.

"Once again, Industrial Dielectrics, Inc. has chosen downtown Noblesville to expand here through the purchase of personal property for research and development. They have several locations across the world and they could put this anywhere they are located," Economic Development Director Judi Johnson said. "For Noblesville it is important we keep that machinery here. It doesn't give

The chief retires

Noblesville Fire Chief Ken Gilliam has announced his plans to retire on Friday, May 22. Gilliam began working for the Noblesville Fire Department in 1974 and has served two stints as fire chief (1993-1995 and 2004-2015).

"Fire Chief Gilliam is a true Noblesville success story. We are honored not only by his years of service but how he impacted the city throughout his career. Chief Gilliam has diligently served the community with devotion, courage and integrity. He will be missed, but we wish him the best of luck as he enters the next stage of his life," Noblesville Mayor John Ditslear said.

Gilliam was born and raised in Noblesville. He was a 1970 graduate of Noblesville High School and graduated from Wabash College in 1974 with a degree in economics. Gilliam started working for Noblesville Fire on Feb. 16 during his final semester at Wabash.

"The opening was here and had to be filled," he said. "I got to know the fire fighters and it seemed like a pretty cool job."

Westfield High School announced the hiring of three new coaches on Tuesday.

While they may be new to their positions, two of them aren't new to the school. Shane Sumpter will switch to the head coach of the boys basketball team after seven highly successful seasons as the head coach of the Shamrocks' girls basketball team. Michelle Mapes, a four-year assistant coach for Westfield's volleyball team, has been promoted to the team's head coach.

The "new" new coach is from a neighboring town: Christopher Little, a Fishers graduate, is the Shamrocks' new head fall and competition cheer coach.

Sumpter coached the Westfield girls for seven years, compiling a 122-36 record. He also guided the Shamrocks to two sectional championships, in 2010 and 2013. Prior to coaching the Westfield girls, Sumpter mentored the Anderson girls team for a season, leading the Indians to North Central Conference and sectional championships.

But Sumpter is no stranger to the boys' game. He actually assisted at Westfield for a season, then was

This Week's Indiana Agriculture Report

Temperatures increased, pushing farmers into overdrive for spring planting during the week ending May 10, according to the USDA, NASS, Great Lakes Region. Spotty rains and warm temperatures were conducive to seed germination and plant growth. Most of the rain fell in the Northern region of the state, while the central and southern regions experienced minimal amounts of rainfall. Temperatures were above average throughout the state, keeping the soil moisture adequate for farming equipment. Days suitable for fieldwork remained at 4.7 this week. Regionally, winter wheat jointed was 63% complete in the North, 74% in Central, and 83% in the South. Winter wheat was 2% headed in the North, 13% in Central and 27% in the South. By region, corn was 56% planted in the North, 47% in Central, and 58% in the South. By region, corn was 12% emerged in the North, 8% in Central, and 14% in the South. Farmers continued to plant corn and soybean fields while the weather was warm, prior to the rainy weather towards the end of the week. Warm temperatures throughout the state led to quicker emergence in planted fields. Vegetable fields are also beginning to emerge. Winter wheat conditions have improved and are growing well. Hay is growing quickly and pasture fields are lush and in good condition. Rains towards the end of the week led to some ponding in fields and muddy conditions for livestock. Herbicide applications have begun for weed control. Other activities for the week included tilling, applying fertilizer and pesticides, clearing fences, and hauling grain.

Westfield employees raise over $6,000 for Relay for Life

Employees at the city of Westfield have raised over $6,000 to go toward the American Cancer Society following the annual Relay for Life Pie Auction. “There isn’t anyone in this room whose life hasn’t been affected in some way by cancer,” said Chief of Staff Todd Burtron, who served as the event’s master of ceremonies and auctioneer. “This is a great way for our city staff to contribute to a worthy cause.” Employees bid on a variety of prizes that included pies, cakes, gift baskets, mystery boxes, fire engine rides to school and customized street signs. Three employees put themselves on the auction block in order to receive a pie in the face. Erin Murphy, Westfield’s communications director, was covered in sausage gravy to the tune of $400. “Cancer has affected my family and this is a small price to pay to help our Relay for Life team,” Murphy said. The pie auction itself raised $3,200, with an additional $3,000 donation coming from the city’s administration and city council budgets. The pie auction is part of the Westfield-Sheridan Relay for Life event that will take place at Westfield High School on May 15-16. # Fishers releases proposal request

The City of Fishers Redevelopment Commission (FRC) announced a call for applicants to submit a plan for acquisition and development of a parcel on Lantern Road in the Nickel Plate District. The parcel is currently owned by the City of Fishers and will be transferred to the FRC as part of the plan to continue the redevelopment of downtown Fishers. “The RFP continues the next phase of redevelopment in the Nickel Plate District,” said Tom Dickey, Fishers’ Director of Community Development. “The time is right for a shift in redevelopment efforts, and our strategy has set the stage for smaller-scale, private opportunities in the heart of Fishers.” The .46 acre parcel is located at 11671 Lantern Road, and the FRC will consider any proposals that further the goals and policies of the redevelopment and economic development initiatives for the Nickel Plate District, including a mixed-use development with commercial and residential uses. Proposal responses should be submitted no later than noon (EST) on Friday, June 12, 2015. City officials are requesting a construction schedule along with the proposal that includes a completion date by the spring of 2016. For more information or for a copy of the RFP, please visit www.fishers.in.us crease and a commuter tax at or near the same time. Given the choice between the two, if it comes to that, the commuter tax makes more sense than having Hamilton County residents pay for proposed mass transportation system that many of our residents would rarely use especially not on a daily basis. There is no doubt our county has many, many commuters, but we also have thousands of residents whose employment is within the county, thousands more who are retired, who are farmers or whose employment takes them to Anderson, Kokomo or elsewhere.

Advocates for a mass transportation system will claim large scale use of buses will reduce heavy traffic on our roads. It would take some of the auto traffic off at rush hour, but only a careful and objective study could estimate how much. Critics doubt it would be overwhelming. Anyone concerned for the average Hamilton County taxpayer will come to the conclusion that while no tax is widely popular, generally speaking a true user tax is more acceptable than any other kind of tax and certainly more fair than a tax from which a significant part of the population will not regularly benefit.

GILLIAM

I was always active in sports in my younger days so it really appealed to me. Being a fireman is very similar to playing sports – you’re always preparing for the big game and when it comes it’s an adrenaline rush. Although, I wasn’t absolutely certain it was what I wanted to do. When they talked to me about it I said, ‘I’ll give it a try and see if I like it.’ And 41 years later I’m still here.” Commuting to and from Crawfordsville, Gilliam scheduled his classes for just a couple days each week and swapped his work schedule to free days. “I missed one of my final exams because of a huge fire we had on the south end of town. I was really sweating that because they are really strict about finals over there,” Gilliam recalled. “The fire actually occurred on my duty day but went through the night to the next day when I was supposed to be taking this exam. I went and told the professor and he said, ‘I’ve never heard that excuse before, it’s got to be true so I’ll let you take it.’” Recalling his early years, Gilliam said being a fire fighter and its demands were different than today. “You were on call every day of your life. If you even went out of town on your day off, you had to call in and say ‘I’ll be out of town,’ because since there were only 13 of us everybody had to show up to every fire. We didn’t get overtime in those days, if you got called in it was just part of the deal. We didn’t have quite as many runs compared to today, but every run you had you went on so we were actually quite busy,” he said. When Gilliam became fire chief in 1993, Noblesville had three fire stations. Because of a change in city leadership, Gilliam left Noblesville and served as fire chief in Sandusky, Ohio from December 1995 to February 2004. Gilliam returned to Noblesville 30 years to the day in which he started on Feb. 16, 2004. During his almost 22 years as fire chief, Gilliam has overseen the construction of five fire stations – the last four built in Noblesville and one in Sandusky. “That’s been a really unique experience for me. It’s probably where I feel the most fortunate – my career coincided with all the growth that occurred here. I’ve really been able to be a part of and watch the fire department grow from one station with 13 guys to seven stations with 131 people. Most people aren’t fortunate enough to see that amount of change in their career so I consider that a tremendous opportunity I’ve been given,” Gilliam said. Gilliam said one prime example of how fire safety is conducted at a far higher level than when he joined is the use of air tanks. “The philosophy was you weren’t supposed to use them unless it was a last resort because it took too much time to get them on and there were only two of them anyway. So we just breathed smoke. You went in there and held your breath as long as you could and then you came out,” he said. “It’s a rule, now you have your breathing apparatus on anytime you are on the fire ground – in or out. We’ve come a long way on that issue.” Gilliam said the one thing he is most proud of since he became chief is the department’s implementation of incident management or the structure with how fire fighters operate on scene, which was adopted before it became an industry standard.

“Back in my early days it was all freelancing. You jumped off the truck, grabbed a hose and went wherever you needed to go based on your own judgement,” he said. “We are much more organized today. I haven’t the slightest doubt that has helped keep people from being injured and/or killed and have served the customer far better.” During his 41-year career, Gilliam said there have been countless runs and large fires and good times and laughs while on the job. Gilliam said there also are incidents that are always on his mind that he tries to learn lessons from. “The ones you are never able to emotionally distance yourself from are runs that involve children. There are a lot of those that I remember throughout my career and those are probably the toughest and the ones that you carry with you. I can still remember my first fatal fire, which sadly involved a 5- or 6-year-old little girl on Christmas morning. The mother got out but the daughter did not. That was still my rookie year. You learn to cope with them but you never forget about them,” he said. An avid trout fisherman, Gilliam and his wife, Wendy, plan to split time living in Indiana and the Ozark Mountains of Arkansas. “It’s been a wonderful experience that I would do over in a heartbeat. I really feel blessed to have a job and do something that made a difference for the community,” Gilliam said. A public open house for Gilliam’s retirement will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, May 22 at Noblesville Fire Station No. 71, 135 S. Ninth St. (the Public Safety Building). Ditslear plans to announce the next fire chief in a week.

COACHES

an assistant at Anderson for six years, part of a staff that coached the Indians to a 104-35 record, two NCC titles, a sectional championship and a Hall of Fame championship. “I am very excited and thankful for the opportunity to be named the boys basketball coach at Westfield,” said Sumpter. “I look forward to a great off-season and getting to know the kids. We will work hard this summer as we prepare to compete in a very tough conference and sectional. We look forward to the challenges ahead.” “Shane has proven that he can prepare a team to compete at a high level every night,” said WHS athletic director Bill Davis. “We are excited for Shane and our boys’ basketball program. We are confident that Shane has the ability to develop our team to become a force in the very strong Hoosier Crossroads Conference and IHSAA Sectional”. Mapes will become the head coach of a team that is already a force. And she knows it. Westfield’s volleyball team is consistently one of the strongest in the state. The Shamrocks won a sectional and regional in 2011, and advanced to the semi-state championship game. Mapes has been around high-level volleyball for years. She was a standout college player at Ball State University from 1989-93. Mapes also was an assistant coach for Muncie Central, part of a staff that led the Bearcats to three state championships and a runner-up finish. “My future plans for Westfield Volleyball are simple... I want to build on the traditions and success of the current program and our feeder program,” said Mapes. “I am looking forward to developing student athletes with solid fundamentals at the younger ages, so I can prepare the high school athletes to compete at the state level.” Davis said, “we look forward to future success under Coach Mapes’ leadership. Michelle’s experience with traditionally great volleyball schools will help our program grow. Little has literally grew up in cheerleading: He started competitively at age 5 and has been involved in cheerleading ever since. After graduating from Fishers, Little moved to the Westfield area to continue coaching competitive cheerleading and began studying Psychology at IUPUI in Indianapolis. Little was a member of the Tigers’ cheerleading program, and also had the opportunity to compete with some of the most prestigious all-star programs in the industry. He has seven years of coaching experience and has worked with athletes at all levels and ages, and is currently coaching at Ice All Stars Indy, formerly known as Speed Athletics, where he has coached teams to numerous top three finishes and multiple national championship titles. Over the past two seasons Little has coached the Level 5 squad that has received paid bids to The Cheerleading Worlds, where they have competed against some of the most competitive cheerleading squads in the world. While he continues to coach all-star cheerleading Little is excited to branch out and coach at the high school level. He has choreographed several Indiana High School State champion routines and has worked with some of the most successful high school squads in the state. “I’m honored to have the opportunity to be a part of this growing program,” said Little. I look forward to working with the incredible talent that this community has to offer.” Davis said “we are excited about the future of our cheer program. We pride ourselves in always having a very collegiate style of team. Christopher will bring a passion to the team.”

James Andrew “Jim” Perry, Sr. September 3, 1919 - May 9, 2015

James Andrew “Jim” Perry, Sr., 95, Anderson, passed into eternal rest with our heavenly Father on Saturday, May 9, 2015. His devoted wife of 40 years, Helen Louise, preceded him in death in 1984 and welcomed him to heaven.

He was born on September 3, 1919, in Anderson, Indiana to Lewis “Andy” and Bertha (Osborne) Perry.

Jim was very proud to have served this country from 1941 to 1945 in the U. S. Army’s 128th Anti-Aircraft Battalion out of Fort Bliss, Texas. He met his sweetheart, Helen Godbehere, while stationed in Galveston, Texas and spent the early days of their marriage overseas, as part of General Patton’s Third Army. His European Tour included landing on Utah Beach in the Normandy Campaign and advancing through Northern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe. He later wrote that the most horrid destruction he saw was an Auschwitz Concentration camp after U.S. soldiers had taken control, freed the captives, and were burying the dead in trenches. Upon returning home to the States, Jim and Helen settled in Anderson where Jim learned the water well drilling trade from his father and later formed Perry Well Drilling, which his two sons continue to operate.

Jim was an avid fisherman. With his family, he traveled from the beaches in Galveston to most of the fresh water lakes in the states between Florida, Texas, and Indiana, trying his hand at catching that “big one.” Jim and Helen had a lake cottage in northern Indiana where the family spent almost every summer weekend fishing, boating, and enjoying the outdoors.

After retiring, Jim followed in his parent’s footsteps, living in Florida during the winter months, fishing on Lake Okeechobee.

He was a member of Bethel United Methodist church; a lifetime member of the Indiana Groundwater Association; Lapel American Legion Post 202; and the Aqua Bassmasters.

As a great father and role model for his five children, he taught them responsibility, the value of hard work, a love of nature, and of course, how to fish. He never tired of “just one more cast.”

He is survived by five children, James Andrew (wife, Barb) Perry, Jr., Steven E. (wife, Vicky) Perry, Shirley Perry all of Anderson, Janice Perry and Mary Helen Hicks both of Houston, TX; twenty-two grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren; a sister, Donna Smith of Alexandria; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members in Indiana and Texas.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife, Helen Louise (Godbehere) Perry; his second wife of 14 years, Helen Campbell Perry; three brothers, William, Willard, and Rhue Perry; and a sister, Marybelle Perry.

James Perry was truly a man who knew no strangers. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him and loved him.

The family extends a special thanks to the staff of Bethany Pointe Health Campus and Heartland Hospice, whose love and laughter helped Jim and his family through a difficult year.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 am Wednesday, May 13, 2015, at Scott E. Hersberger Funeral Home in Lapel with Rev. Dr. Don Weston officiating. Burial will follow in Anderson Memorial Park Cemetery, Anderson where the Lapel American Legion Post 212 will conduct military graveside rites.

Visitation will be from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm Tuesday, May 12, 2015, and one hour prior to the funeral on Wednesday at Scott E. Hersberger Funeral Home, 1010 North Main Street, Lapel.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Jim Perry Memorial Fund, c/o First Merchants Bank, 1011 North Main Street, Lapel, Indiana 46051. Funds will be donated to Shadyside Bait & Tackle Shop in Anderson to supply fishing poles and equipment to local children learning to fish.

It's tough winning in MIC...

Carmel does it big with 9-1 win

Winning in the MIC Conference in baseball is like winning in the MIC Conference in most sports. It's tough. Carmel, coming off a double loss to Lawrence Central in conference play, Tuesday evening got back on the right track with a 9-1 victory over North Central.

The game was at Hartman Field in Carmel. The same two teams are scheduled to play again today, this one at North Central.

Coach Dan Roman's Greyhounds will take a 12-9 overall record and a 6-5 conference record into the game today.

Carmel had very little trouble with the Panthers last evening, putting the victory on ice with five runs in the bottom of the sixth. The Greyhounds powered a dozen hits, including a home run and a double by Matthew Chernoff. Trevor Kinnard blasted a triple and Rhett Wintner, Greene and Elliott Shebek each added a two-bagger. Chernoff had a terrific night, going 4-for-4 and driving home four runs. Kinnard went 2-for-3 and drove home three runs.

Senior Mitchell Sparks was credited with the hurling victory, allowing just seven hits in five frames.

Royals edged by Pendleton....

Tigers “doubles” New Pal

Fishers and Hamilton Southeastern got away from the grind of the Hoosier Crossroads Conference and on Monday survived the rain to each get in a high school baseball game.

The Tigers, playing on the road, defeated New Palestine 6-4, while HSE, playing at home, lost to Pendleton Heights 6-4.

Coach Matthew Cherry's Fishers team turned in some late game magic, scoring three times in the fifth and single runs in the sixth and seventh to defeat New Palestine.

“We connected on seven doubles and we received five scoreless innings of relief pitching,” Cherry said.

Leading the way for the Tigers was senior Jacob Totman with a 3-for-4 night, two doubles, two RBIs and two runs scored. Andy Bennett also had two double and a pair of RBIs. Brendan Toungate contributed double and a single and Alex Wright and Taylor Soper each added a double.

On the mound the Tigers received great relief pitching from Soper, Bennett and Elliott Gilmore. After the Dragons hit a grand slam in the third off starter Nathan Carroll, Soper entered with a runner on first and no outs. A fielder's choice and a line drive double play eded the inning. Soper also ptched the fourth. Bennett picked up his first win of the season after pitching the fifth and sixth and striking out two. Gilmore pitched the seventh for his third save of the season.

Fishers will begin a series on Thursday with Hoosier Crossroad leader Westfield. The Tigers will host the Shamrocks on Thursday and Saturday and play at Westfield on Friday.

Southeastern, in the loss to Pendleton, was outhit 11-8, and the Royals made four errors on defense.

J.B. Washburn led the way for Coach Scott Henson's HSE team with a double and two singles. Cole Jacobs continued his hot hitting of late, going 2-for- 3 at the plate. Matt Gorski drove in two of Southeastern's runs.

The Royals, idle from HCC play this week, on Thursday will play at McCutcheon.

Huskies beaten by Maconaquah...

Heights’ early lead disappears

Hamilton Heights led 5-1 entering the bottom of the fourth inning in a Mid-Indiana Conference baseball game Tuesday evening at Maconaquah, but then the wheels fell off the Huskies’ attack and the host team pulled out an 8-5 victory.

“We had some good at-bats, particularly early,” said Heights coach Rick Hawley. “But, we couldn’t come up with anything over the last three innings.”

Christian McGill hit a home run and a single; Aaron House had two singles and a double and Mitch Howie collected a double and single to lead an 11-hit Husky offense.

Heights, now 6-14 and 1-4 in the conference, will host Eastern in a conference game on Thursday.

Hamilton Heights' Nathan Watson signs with Trine University

Nathan Watson, Hamilton Heights' senior, has signed a letter of intent to play baseball for Trine University in Angola, Indiana this fall. Trine Uni-versity is a member of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAA). He is the son of Ken and Kim Watson.

Watson has held a life-long love of sports, especially baseball. He is a well-rounded multi-sport high school athlete who has played base-ball and run cross-country all four years of high school. In addition, he was a member of Heights' swim team for two years and basketball and soccer teams for one. Watson earned Varsity letters in three of the 5 sports played and was ultimately awarded the coveted Varsity blanket for earning eight varsity letters, an honor reserved for only a handful during their athletic career at Heights. Watson helped bring stability, support and competitive spirit to his teams, especially for the underclassmen, as well as bring home a Boys Soccer Sectional Championship this year.

TIME OUT

New faces for boys sectional teams...

Coaches talk about changes

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Don't let anyone pull your leg. Not having North Central in the local Class 4A boys basketball sectional will make a difference.

Year after year, North Central has entered the post-season as a team capable of winning the state championship. Capable of winning the local sectional. That situation won't change as long as Doug Mitchell is the coach at NC.

Zionsville, the other team removed from the local sectional as the IHSAA announced this past week new assignment of teams in all class sports, is not a North Central. But, Zionsville has a very good boys basketball program.

So, losing North Central and Zionsville, regardless of the teams the IHSAA has moved in, has made the local sectional different.

Weaker? No, not weaker. Not from top to bottom. Any sectional with the likes of Carmel, Hamilton Southeastern Noblesville, Fishers and Westfield is not going to be weaker.

Then, you add Guerin Catholic and Anderson into the mix.

Guerin Catholic, in boys basketball, will move from Class 3A to 4A because of what the IHSAA likes to label as the "success factor." Win too many championships in a two-year-period and a school is moved up a notch. Even though the players responsible for winning those championship have graduates. At least, most of those players.

Guerin Catholic, with Pete Smith at the helm, will be very good next season. Good enough, perhaps, to win another 3A state championship. Good enough to compete in the Noblesville/Carmel sectional? That remains to be seen.

The other team coming in is Anderson. Remember the Indians during their golden years. Playing in the Wigwam, Anderson was year after year one of the Top 5 programs in the state. Now, Anderson will play in the Noblesville/Carmel sectional.

Anderson is looking for a new coach. Anderson in recent years has lost basketball players to Lapel, Pendleton Heights, Frankton and other schools because the Indians no longer played in the famed Wigwam and because Anderson didn't have the right mix in its coaching.

Will that all change with the naming of a new coach? Only time will tell, and a great testing ground for the Anderson program will be playing in the local sectional.

The sectional, if all goes as expected, will be back in Noblesville at The Mill next season. Noblesville and Carmel have alternated hosting the sectional the past several years. The Fishers area (Southeastern and Fishers) are hoping to be added to the mix soon with the construction of the huge athletic facility in Fishers.

In talking with the local coaches, it's interesting talking with Pete Smith. It's always interesting talking with the Guerin Catholic coach. Smith knows and Pete always tells it as he sees it.

"With Anderson as close proximity-wise as they are to all of us in Hamilton County, the move makes sense to me," Smith hold the Hamilton Count Reporter. "We already play them at every level.

"I hate to see Zionsville go but I'm glad to see Mitch (North Central's Greg Mitchell) get the heck out of this sectional. The sectional North Central has been moved to is as tough on paper as any sectional I think there's ever been."

Smith, in a way, is coming "home" playing in the local sectional. He coached both at Carmel and Noblesville. He still teaches at Carmel. Should Guerin end up playing Noblesville, Smith will be coaching against a former assistant, Noblesville's Brain McCauley.

"I don't enjoy coaching against former assistants," said Smith."That's why we not scheduling each other (Noblesville and Guerin) in the regular season, although we do play each other's junior varsity and freshman teams.

"In regards to playing Carmel," Smith continued, "it's uncomfortable for me to think about playing them. I am a faculty member at Carmel and enjoy teaching there. We respect each program. I certainly don't think our kids fear them."

Carmel coach Scott Heady said he really hasn't thought about the new seven team assignment in the local sectional.

"You have to be ready every night in our sectional, regardless of the opponent," Heady said.

Brian McCauley spent his first season coaching in the Carmel/Noblesville sectional this past season.

"Sectional 8 will continue to be the most competitive in the state," McCauley told The Reporter. "Guerin Catholic and Anderson are two great additions. There will be a lot of rivalries and familiarity between players and fans since six of the seven teams are in Hamilton County."

Hamilton Southeastern coach Brian Satterfield agrees with McCauley.

"This is still one of the toughest sectionals in the state," Satterfield said. "We lost two and gained two. The two we lost have been very solid and have some key players returning. North Central has most of its team returning and should be ranked in the top five pre-season. The two newcomers will be able to challenge. Guerin won the state title this past year and Pete does a great job. Anderson is still in limbo as they are trying to hire a new coach."

"The two teams, Carmel and Southeastern, which has won our sectional the most the past five seasons are still there," points out Fishers coach Joe Leonard. "I hear that potentially Anderson will be good. It will be a very competitive sectional with the addition of Guerin Catholic.

"We always try to focus on ourselves and that is the way we will treat the new grouping," Leonard added.

Hamilton Heights will continue to play Class 3A, now, with the exit of Guerin Catholic, the only Hamilton County team in 3A boys basketball.

"It's pretty much as I expected," said Heights coach Chad Ballenger. "We're making the tour of the North Central Conference schools. Before I came to Heights, the Huskies played in the New Castle Sectional. We've been playing in the Muncie Central Sectional. Now, we'll play at Marion.

"Boy, how times have changed!" "We're getting prepared. We picked up Lawrence North and we still have New Castle, Guerin Catholic and we'll play in the Richmond Tourney.

"It will be exciting with Tipton, a big rival, playing in the same sectional.

"I have learned," Ballenger continued, "you don't sweat what you can't control. It will be exciting going to another gym with a lot of Hoosier Hysteria and a lot of banners hanging in their gym. It doesn't matter what sectional you are in. They all are tough," added the Hamilton Heights coach.

Sheridan will play in Class 2A, Sectional 40, which Lapel hosted last season.

"I had heard that we could go any number of directions, so I'm happy to have the speculation over with," said second-year Blackhawks coach Chris Schrank.

Sheridan will play in a sectional along with Frankton, Lapel, Monroe Central, Muncie Burris, and Wapahani.

"We ended up in an interesting sectional," Schrank said. "We do have a couple of familiar opponents in Frankton and Lapel. I thought it was interesting to see the three schools from the Muncie area.

"It will be an exciting sectional and a tough sectional. The winner will certainly have earned it," Schrank added.

"Honestly, nothing really changes for University except that we now have seven teams instead of eight now with the loss of Fall Creek," University coach Brandon Lafferman talked about what is ahead for the Trailblazers. "I expect our sectional to stay competitive."

University will play in Class 1A, Sectional 58 along with Bethesda Christian, Indiana Deaf, International, Math & Science, Metropolitan, and Tindley.

Castillo's walk-off single sinks the Tribe in the 10th

Rusney Castillo delivered a game-winning single in the bottom of the tenth to send the Pawtucket Red Sox to a 2-1 victory over the Indianapolis Indians. The Tribe had the bases loaded in the top of the tenth with just one out, but Pawtucket reliever Dana Eveland ended the rally by recording the final two outs of the frame.

Luke Montz singled to lead off the bottom of the tenth, and he would move up to third base when back-to-back Pawtucket batters were hit by a pitch. Castillo then clubbed a single to left field to plate Montz and end the game.

The extra-inning defeat spoiled Adrian Sampson's gem, as he went seven innings and struck out a season-high eight batters. Eveland (2-0) received the win for the Paw-Sox, while Josh Wall (0-1) took the loss for the Tribe.

Indianapolis now stands at 18-15, while Pawtucket improves to 20-13. Five of the last six games for the Indians have been one-run contests.

LEFT-HANDER RICHARD JOINS INDIANS

Clayton Richard, a former Indiana Mr. Baseball and Mr. Football from Lafayette, Indiana, has officially been activated on the Indianapolis Indians' roster as of Tuesday afternoon. The left-handed pitcher is the Tribe's probable starting pitcher tomorrow - Wednesday, May 13 - for the finale of a three-game series in Pawtucket at 12:05 p.m.

Richard is slated for his first appearance at Victory Field as the Indians' starting pitcher on Monday, May 18.

Tomorrow's start against the Triple-A Red Sox will mark Richard's first career appearance with the Indians and his second overall outing of the 2015 season. He originally debuted on May 7 for the Bradenton (Fla.) Marauders, where he struck out five over six innings with no earned runs for the Hi-A Minor League affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

A two-sport standout at McCutcheon High School, Richard was the first athlete in Indiana to be named both Mr. Football (2002) and Mr. Baseball (2003). He played both sports collegiately at the University of Michigan before being selected by the Chicago White Sox in the eighth round of the 2005 MLB Draft (245th overall).

The southpaw's decorated stint in the minors featured an All-Star Futures Game selection and praise from Baseball America as the White Sox's No. 5 prospect and as possessing the "Best Control" in the International League in 2008. Richard made his Major League debut with Chicago during the 2008 campaign, and after pitching in 39 games (22 starts) with the White Sox from 2008-09, was acquired by the San Diego Padres as part of a package deal for former Cy Young Award winner Jake Peavy at the trade deadline in 2009.

Richard owns a career record of 46-47 with a 4.33 ERA and 480 strikeouts in 147 MLB appearances (129 starts) between the White Sox (2008-09) and Padres (2009-13). He established a career high in innings pitched (218 2/3) and matched his personal bests in wins (14) and starts (33) during his last full season in the Majors with the Padres in 2012.

In addition, Richard has also posted a 30-33 record with a 3.37 ERA and 323 strikeouts in 90 career Minor League appearances (86 starts).
