The County Line

Senate Bill 251 allows county to expand Judicial Center

By FRED SWIFT
With the passage of legislation (Senate Bill 251) in the recent session of the Indiana General Assembly, Hamilton County is now free to proceed with plans for expansion of the Government and Judicial Center. This new law allows the county to spend more than $12 million on the project if it chooses to bond for that amount and then use cash on hand to fund what is needed in excess of $12 million.

Until the recent change in the law, local government was required to submit any proposed bonding for a capital project that exceeded $12 million to a voter referendum whether the county had cash reserves or not. County commissioners did not want to have a countywide referendum on the Judicial Center project.

The county is awaiting a study by professional architects and engineers to see how much space is needed and how an addition to the existing building can be configured to provide for the needs of more courts, office space and storage. That report is expected soon.

In the meantime County Commissioner Steve Dillinger has suggested an alternative to adding onto the present structure. He wants to explore building a separate facility on the southside of Conner Street for expansion needs and parking with a connecting tunnel or overhead walkway to the present Judicial Center.

The Judicial Center was occupied in 1992 and anticipated to meet county government needs for at least 20 years. Now, 23 years later, officials say the need in fast approaching for more space. They believe as many of two more courts will be coming in the reasonably near future.

Parking needs in the downtown area have also become a topic of conversation in both county and Noblesville city government. Dillinger has pointed out that the addition of office and court space without consideration of parking needs will only lead to a bigger problem.

Annual Noblesville event...

Fireworks Festival needs funding, volunteers

As organizers finalize details for the annual Noblesville Fireworks Festival, the Noblesville Fourth of July Planning Committee is in need of financial donations and volunteers.

To raise funds for the free event, the committee has once again partnered with Citizinvestor to create an online program which allows citizens or businesses to make secure, online credit card donations of any amount. Committee Chairwoman Alaina Shonkwiler said this program is designed to provide residents with an easy way to donate and support the community activities they believe are meaningful. To donate, visit www.citizinvestor.com/projects and click on 2015 Noblesville Fireworks Festival.

Shonkwiler said tax dollars are not used to pay for the fireworks display or the festival activities and entertainment. Only sponsorships and donations pay for the festival, which costs approximately $33,000.

"We would appreciate your support in becoming a donor or sponsor of this year's Noblesville Fourth of July festivities. Celebrations like this bring the public together and create memories for our families and our community. Whatever you can donate helps and together we can preserve the Fireworks Festival in our great city," she said.

Those wishing to donate by check may mail donations to Noblesville Fireworks Festival; c/o Noblesville City Hall; 16 S. 10th St.; Noblesville, IN 46060.

The city also is seeking volunteers to serve two-hour shifts. Available times are 4 to 6 p.m., 6 to 8 p.m. and 8 to 10 p.m. with parking assistance needed from 5:30 to 7 p.m. The majority of jobs involve greeting, assisting people with the children's activities, helping with parking and setting up the festival area.

Westfield-Sheridan Relay for Life

Westfield High School's gymnasium was full of activity overnight, as the Westfield-Sheridan Relay for Life is currently taking place.

The relay started at 6 p.m. Friday, and will continue until noon today. At the start of the relay, a total of $63,663 had been raised and there were 711 participants.

"We had 711 participants, and our goal is to end up with a thousand participants, and we've love to have $100,000, said Sharon Brimberry of the Westfield-Sheridan Relay for Life.

The relays are normally outdoor events, but this year the Westfield-Sheridan relay was moved indoors due to the construction on Westfield High School's new football stadium. Westfield's gymnasium hosted the Luminary Ceremony, while the track at the school's multi-purpose instructional facility (MPIF) welcomed the walkers. There were other things going on in the MPIF as well, including Midnight Madness activities such as "Minute to Win It" games, a cardboard car race and a Tae Kwon Do demonstration. A DJ was playing music throughout the night, and there will be Jazzercise and Zumba classes taking place this morning.

Kitchen fire injures firefighter, causes $50,000 damage

A firefighter suffered minor injuries in a Friday evening fire at The Bluffs Condominiums, located off Little Chicago Road on the north side of the city.

At 7:19 p.m., the Noblesville Fire Department was dispatched to 203 Bluffs Circle, Apt. D, on a report of a condominium fire. Upon fire suppression crews arrival at 7:24 p.m., they benchmarked smoke showing from the second floor.

Kyle Bartlett, who lives in the Bluffs Condominium complex, heard the sound of a smoke detector in an adjacent condominium. Mr. Bartlett stated he opened the door to the condominium where he believed the smoke detector was sounding, and discovered heavy smoke. Mr. Bartlett quickly shut the door to the condominium and alerted the other occupants within the building to exit the structure.

Fire suppression crews made an interior attack on the fire, and had the incident under control at 7:31 p.m.

The condominium owners, Bill and Darlin Linden were not home at the time of the incident.

The fire originated in the kitchen of the condominium. The fire has caused approximately $50,000 dollars damage.

One firefighter was transported to the local hospital where he was treated for minor injuries he sustained. The firefighter was later released.

The Westfield baseball team won a weather-delayed 3-2 game over Fishers Friday that clinched an outright Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship for the Shamrocks. Westfield finished HCC play 14-4.

With dramatic win over Fishers, Shamrocks are...

Outright HCC champions

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

Of all the Hoosier Crossroads Conference games that Westfield has won, Friday's game against Fishers might be the most memorable.

It has to be the most dramatic. After waiting out an hour-and-a-half weather delay that halted the Shamrocks-Tigers showdown in the middle of the seventh inning, Westfield broke a 2-2 tie with only two at-bats to claim a 3-2 victory over Fishers.

The win was significant because it clinched an outright HCC championship for the 'Rocks. Westfield finished conference play at 14-4.

"If we had not come away with this outright, we would have been pretty disappointed, and I know the kids wanted it pretty bad," said Shamrocks coach Ryan Bunnell. "They made some plays when they needed to tonight. Made enough plays, anyway."

It never rained at the Shamrocks field during the delay - lighting was the cause. The storms weren't close enough to send everyone running for cover; in fact, most of the fans, players and coaches spent the delay out on the field.

Once play resumed, Westfield took care of getting the win in lightning speed. Brian Skelton punched a hit into right field to get on first base. That brought up Logan Schneider for his first at-bat of the game.

One was all he needed. Schneider laid a perfect bunt down the left field line, and quickly sprinted to first as Skelton headed to second. But a series of overthrows allowed Skelton to round third, and finally get home.

The game was a good one from start to finish. Westfield struck early, with Chris Ayers hitting a two-out triple in the bottom of the first inning. Bailey Partlow got Ayers in quickly with an RBI single. That 1-0 lead held for four innings.

Fishers got on the board with a well-crafted run in the top of the fifth. Brendan Tougate singled on to first, then hurried to third on a Jacob Totman single. A couple at-bats later, Tougate was on his way home thanks to a sacrifice fly by Joe Michel.

The Tigers took the lead in the sixth inning. Taylor Soper drew a walk, advanced to second on a passed ball, then scored when Tougate hit a double.

But Westfield tied the game up in the bottom of the sixth. Ayers and Partlow hit singles, then each advanced when Harrison Freed hit a sacrifice fly. Ayers then scored on a wild pitch.

Ayers was perfect at the plate, hitting 3-for-3 with two runs scored. Partlow and Skelton both had two hits. Ryan Pepiot pitched five innings, scattering five hits.

"I thought Fishers' pitchers did a nice job," said Bunnell. "They gave us trouble all weekend.

Jackson Bard threw the sixth inning, then Jacob Robinson pitched the seventh, winding up with the win.

"We got to get back to putting some better at-bats together, but we also did some things when it counted in this series," said Bunnell.

Tougate and Andy Bennett both had two hits on the night for the Tigers.

Heights unloads in 10-0 win

Hamilton Heights put on a show at the plate; on the mound and on defense in beating visiting Madison-Grant, 10-0, Friday evening.

Reese Wills tossed a complete game two-hitter, striking out five in the five-inning contest.

“Reese threw quite well all night, and only went to a 2-0 count on one hitter,” said Heights coach Rick Hawley.

“It was a good night for a game which allowed action for multiple players who don’t always get as much time. Defensively, we had some nice plays tonight. Joe Gollner and Seth Harris had diving/sliding catches and Austin Sauerteig ranged well behind first base for another good play,” Hawley added.

The Huskies collected nine singles, plus a double from Jacob Hammel. Harris and Hammel each collected two hits.

Austin Sexson was 3-for-4 on the night. Sam Crail threw all nine innings, tossing five strikeouts.

Sheridan is now 18-5, and plays at Western Boone at 10 a.m. this morning.

At suspended HCC boys track meet...

Southeastern sets three new field records

All but on event got finished at the Hoosier Crossroads Conference boys track meet, which took place Friday night at Avon.

The only event that was not completed was the shot put; that will resume at 7 p.m. Monday. As for the other events, there were several record-setting performances, and Hamilton County athletes were among them.

Hamilton Southeastern's Ethan Bray won the pole vault with an astonishing 16-1.75, leaping over the old record by two feet. His Royal teammate Tiger Guillory set a new long jump standard of 23-2.25, while HSE's Francis Ehigbai tied the high jump record of 6-6.5. Aaron Brown gave the Royals another win, in the 110 hurdles.

Fishers set a new 4x100 record, with Lloyd, Jeremy Chinn, Hackett and Tres Carver taking that race in 42.23. Lloyd also won the 200 dash.

Noblesville got two sprint wins, with Dontay Wells pacing the 100 dash and Jake Owens easily winning the 400. Westfield's Martell Fletcher placed second in the 110 hurdles.

HSE's Beegle sitting in fourth...

UIndy women lead by 11 going into final round

After a third-round 309 Friday, the University of Indianapolis women's golf team will carry a sizable 11-stroke lead into the fourth and final round of the 2015 NCAA Division II Championship. Senior Chanice Young (Evansville, Ind./Reitz) carded a three-over 75 Friday to take sole possession of third place.

The Greyhounds (305-299-309) have combined for a 54-hole team score of 913, 11 clear of second-place Rollins (306-314-304). The final round will be played tomorrow at The Meadows Golf Course in Allendale, Mich. The Hounds are not only in search of their first women's golf national championship but are also chasing the first-ever team national title for any UIndy athletics program.

In her final collegiate tournament, Young (76-74-75) capped round No. 3 with eight pars and a birdie on the back nine. She sits four strokes back of leader Brenna Moore (74-73-74) of Midwestern State. If Young can make up the difference, she would join former All-American Lyndsay McBride (2009) as the only Greyhounds to win an individual national title.

Junior Brooke Beegle (Fishers, Ind./Hamilton Southeastern/Purdue) is just one back of Young. The recently-crowned Great Lakes Valley Conference Player of the Year is at +10 through three rounds, good for a share of fourth in the 71-golfer field.

The Greyhounds will be paired with Rollins and defending-national-champ Lynn Saturday. Their groups will tee off between 9:40 a.m. and 10:20 a.m. ET.

Tribe pours it on in rain-shortened win

The weather was the only thing that stopped the Indianapolis Indians, as the offense pounded out 13 hits and starter Casey Sadler pitched seven innings of one-run ball in a 9-1, rain-shortened win over the Norfolk Tides on Friday night at Victory Field.

Each of the Tribe's (21-15) nine batters reached base safely, eight had hits and seven scored at least one run. Deibinson Romero paced the effort with a 3-for-5 night, while Gorkys Hernandez, Tony Sanchez and Jose Tabata finished with two hits apiece.

Sanchez also drove in a pair of runs with a towering homer to left-center field off right-hander Eddie Gamboa (2-2).

Sadler (3-2) surrendered a home run in return during the first inning before retiring 19 of 20 Tides (19-16) batters with just one single as his only base runner.

The staff ace has now led the Indians to a 20-8 record in his time at the Triple-A level.
