Deck collapses in South Harbour

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Saturday, at approximately 12:58 p.m., the Hamilton County Communication Center dispatched the Noblesville Fire Department to 213 Redwood Circle in the South Harbour housing addition on a report of a collapse of an outside wooden deck.

The incident involved one side of a wooden deck collapsing and the occupants that were on the deck slid to the ground level.

There were 12 occupants on the deck. Two of those occupants were transported to Riverview Health in Noblesville. None of the injuries sustained were life threatening, the Fire Department told the Hamilton County Reporter.

The home owners are Chad & Rebecca Yoder.

The Fire Department would not release the names of those injured in the accident.

“Being our agency is an ambulance transporting/billing fire department, we fall under all HIPPA regulations,” said Rick Russell, Division Chief. “You will find that all of my press releases regarding a fire, or rescue incident will only list the number of civilian and firefighters, not their names, unless they provide written consent.

The Fire Department, said Russell, is the only agency in the city that falls under HIPPA regulations. The Noblesville Police Department does not. The NPD, Russell said, does not provide an ambulance service. They are not a billing agency, nor do they provide emergency medical services.

“There is nothing I can do unless I have written permission from the individual(s) that are injured,” Russell added.

Oh the places your children will go...

By JANET HART LEONARD
"For Sale"

The sign went up on the lawn last Thursday. No, not at our house...Emily's.

That's right. My daughter and son-in-law and Aiden and Leah are moving...away.

I have been spoiled by having both my son and his family as well as my daughter and her family living within fifteen minutes of my house since they got married. I have always felt sorry for my friends whose children lived out of state. Now I will soon feel their pain.

Yes, we can visit. But I want to text Emily and meet her for lunch. Yes, we can do Facetime. But I want to hug her. Yes, I have had her close by for thirty three years. But I want more. My heart is selfish.

Actually I am handling it much better than I expected.

Why?

Because I know it was a decision that was made after much thought and prayer by both Emily and Drew. I have been amazed at how all the details of the move have come together so quickly. Every decision has been affirmed in ways that cannot be argued with. Oh trust me, my heart has tried.

When I see the excitement in Emily's eyes. When I hear the plans that have come together so quickly. I know, without a doubt Emily and Drew are making the right move.

But I have to admit that when I see the "For Sale" sign my heart feels a twinge of sadness but that's the way a mother's heart reacts.

Our ordinary days have become more intentional. I never say "no" to a chance to spend time with Emily. I find myself noticing how much that Emily is like me. Scary for her, I am sure.

Emily will not understand how I feel until Leah moves away.

Moms have a hard time letting go of their children, no matter their age. I keep saying "I can handle this". I just wish my heart would listen.

Anybody want a "For Sale" sign? I know where you can pick one up!

New water treatment plant

Citizens Energy Group has opened its new Harbour Ground Water Treatment Plant near Morse Reservoir to serve growing water demand in Hamilton County. Citizens hosted an open house at the plant on Monday to allow neighbors and other community residents an opportunity to see how the plant functions.

The new $15 million plant is able to supply an additional 6 million gallons per day of water supply capacity to the growing residential and commercial markets in Hamilton County.

"The addition of our new Harbour Ground Water Treatment Plant provides significant benefits to our water system because it is located near high demand areas, reduces stress on our water distribution system and lowers energy and pump costs. The construction of this plant is part of our ongoing commitment to a sustainable long-term water supply for the people of Central Indiana," said Jeff Willman, Vice President, Water Operations for Citizens.

The Harbour Project also included construction of a new transmission main under Cicero Creek to connect the east and west portions of the Harbour Well Field providing supply to the plant. In addition, the project included rehabilitation of six existing ground water wells. Two additional wells will be added in 2015 to further ensure adequate water supply for the plant.

Citizens has invested more than $156 million in the water system since acquiring it in 2011. Improvements include well field expansions for new source water; water main replacements to reduce costly main breaks and improve system flow; a comprehensive fire hydrant testing and maintenance program; and new ultraviolet disinfection systems at treatment plants to ensure safe drinking water.

"While much work remains, we are excited about the progress we have made over the past four years toward improving and modernizing our water system, which is critical to maintaining quality of life and economic development in Central Indiana," said Willman.

HAND's Annual Meeting

Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development (HAND)'s Annual Meeting touched upon how important it is for people to have affordable housing and what can be done to make sure this vision is put into reality. Together, this can be accomplished, especially utilizing HAND programs such as Neighborhoods NOW and Helping HAND.

The Lieutenant Governor Sue Ellspermann spoke about how important affordable housing projects are: "And how those projects help so many communities across the state, large and small - and I realize that really hundreds of Hoosiers will have housing opportunities that they might not otherwise have except for these new developments that are being completed. You know, some studies show that some affordable housing opportunities can provide that path out of poverty, particularly when they're in mixed income neighborhoods, and that's such an important challenge that we want addressed."

She also touched on how important it is to have long range planning for communities, particularly involving the next generation: "I hope that, as you do, community visioning activities here in your community, that you will bring those young people forward, that we are hearing their voice at the table, because really, we are designing these communities for them; they are the future."

She also spoke about how important it is for cities to work together; no city is an island, they must coexist by working together. Communities that work together are generally much stronger than those who do not.

HAND hopes to continue this message through its hard work.

HAND would like to thank all who attended, to all who made this event possible - including event sponsors Kuhl & Grant and Meyer Najem.

We are to be unashamed of Him and His words

By LEANN WILSON

“For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels” Lk 9:-26 NKJV.

Jesus had just sent the disciples out to preach the kingdom of God. He told them to take nothing with them on their journey - no food, no money. Not even an extra set of clothes as their supply would come from the Lord. And off they went. Not knowing who would receive them well, accepting the message or who would reject them which in essence would be a rejection of the Lord. Let us go a little deeper - "Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven" Mt 10:32-33 NKJV.

Around the brethren, in our usually safe church environment (beware of wolves – read your instruction manual, i.e. – your Bible, to identify correctly) it really takes no effort to remain unashamed. We can debate the words of the Lord and their meaning, discuss the pitfalls and stumbling stones that have seemingly been strategically placed mid path, right under foot. We can even venture to opinion our thoughts regarding how, why and exactly when the lost of the world will be going to hell in their own personalized hand baskets. But watch out, at some point after the praise, the message, a little fellowship time - complete with Aunt Martha’s testimony - it will be time to go out into that lost world. Into our place of work, into the schools, the ballpark and everywhere else life is lived. And what does He expect His children to do in the World? According to 1 Pe 3:15, we are to be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks a reason for the hope we have in Christ. We are to speak the truth in love (Eph 4:16). We are to let our light “shine before men, that they may see our good works and glorify the Father in heaven” Mt 5:16. We are to be unashamed of Him and His words and confess Him before man. But what does it mean to be ashamed of Jesus and his words. Usually we feel shame or are shamed because we have committed some offense that is wrong, or because we have made a mistake, or said something in error. Obviously a Christ follower does not belief his faith is mistakenly or wrongly placed in Christ! The unashamed in the biblical context here is not because of a wrong that has been committed but is “epaischynomai” – to be ashamed or embarrassed from a fear of being singled out or ridiculed due to your beliefs.

The apostle Paul said “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes...” Rom 1:16 NKJV. He cautioned us with the reminder that “God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord” 2 Tim 1:7-8 NKJV. I want to encourage you to let your affiliation be known not just by your bumper stickers and jewelry but by your actions and words. Let the Spirit within you shine like a beacon. You can proclaim the truth with boldness! Take another look at 1 Pe 3 in verses 14-17 Peter writes “But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. ‘And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled’ But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.”

Sanctify God in your heart by making a commitment to give God the reverence that is due. Overcome epaischynomai by being prepared: “.... incline your ear to wisdom, apply your heart to understanding..... And find the knowledge of God” Pr 2:2-5 NKJV. “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” 2 Tim 2:15 KJV. “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge” Hosea 4:6 NKJV. Know what you know and know why you believe it. To preparedness add unshakable faith: settle the matter once and for all in your heart. Let the spirit guide you “do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak” Mt 10:19 NKJV. And always remember to speak the truth in love: “Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal” 1 Co 13:1 NKJV. Take comfort in the words of our Lord Jesus who said "If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you” John 15:18-20 NKJV. Remember our disciples who had gone out into towns and cities to preach that the Kingdom was at hand? Jesus had also told them: And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them" Lk 9:5 NKJV. We speak truth, if the word is not accepted that is not our responsibility. We speak, the Spirit draws, the decision to believe belongs to the individual.

Jesus willingly made the ultimate sacrifice for us, leaving the throne of heaven to die a torturous death so that we may have forgiveness and life everlasting in Glory. Faith and a loving witness are not too much to ask for in return. We must never be ashamed of Christ and His gospel. Proclaim it and apply it to your lives. After all, what good are we to the Kingdom if we have lost our saltiness? Consider these words, red letters, spoken by Jesus. Are these harsh words or loving warning: "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men” Mt 5:13 NKJV.

Jesus promises great reward in Heaven to his faithful, unashamed children therefore “To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in You; Let me not be ashamed; Let not my enemies triumph over me” Psalms 25:1-2 NKJV. I can think of no greater reward than when I enter into His presence on the day of my physical death than to be confessed before God and hear those words “Well done, thou good and faithful servant” Mt 25:21 KJV.

"This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent." John 6:29 NKJV. Don't be afraid to join Him in his work.

Rain delayed game worth the wait...

Millers beat Bulldogs in eight innings

Christman

The Noblesville baseball team had to wait until morning to finish the second game of its Hoosier Crossroads Conference series with Brownsburg, but it was worth it.

The Millers scored a run in the bottom of the eighth inning to beat the Bulldogs 5-4 at Don Dunker Field. The game was tied at 4-4 after the regulation seven innings.

Connor Christman had two of Noblesville's five hits; both he and Dax McLochlin batted in a run. Patrick Coleman got the pitching win.

Bohm throws 7-hitter....

Southeastern splits up north

Hamilton Southeastern's baseball Royals traveled into northern Indiana on Saturday and split a pair of games. HSE knocked off Crown Point, 7-1, and lost to Andean, 6-1.

Andrew Bohm threw a complete game on the mound against Crown Point, allowing just seven hits and striking out six.

Bohm

Bohm got plenty of offensive support, the Royals pounding out 14 hits. Nick Kiehl and Owen Callaghan each pounded out three hits and Matt Gorski, J.B. Washburn and Aaron McGee each banded out two. Washburn and Callaghan each delivered a double, Southeastern's only extra base hits.

The win over Crown Point was a completely different game than the loss to Andean. In this game, Southeastern collected just three hits, singles by Kiehl, Spencer Irick and Aaron McGee.

It was a 0-0 game until Andean exploded for six runs in the bottom of the sixth.

Southeastern scored its lone run in the seventh.

The road to state begins at Guerin Catholic for Hamilton County's girls track and field teams.
The Golden Eagles are hosting the sectional, which takes place Tuesday evening. Hamilton Southeastern is the defending team champion, and will once again battle with Carmel and Fishers for the trophy. Noblesville will be in the mix as well, and talented athletes from Westfield, Guerin Catholic and Hamilton Heights will also be looking to make an impact.
While team bragging rights are nice, foremost on everyone's mind will be placing in the top four, which qualifies an athlete or relay team for the regional at West Lafayette. Also, anyone who equals or betters the state standard in her event advances to regional.

Westfield's Karen Hubbard has already done that in the 100 dash this season, with a top seed time of 12.32. The standard is 12.45, which has also been matched by Fishers sophomore India Johnson. Hubbard, a junior, is the defending champion in both the 100 and 200, where her seed time of 25.47 is just ahead of the standard of 25.49.
Carmel's Rachel Dixon is seeded first in the 400 dash, and of course will have several of its distance stars in the longer events. Haley and Kelsey Harris are the first two seeds in the 800 run, with seed times that are both under the standard. Noblesville's Abby Crouch is third, while defending champion Rachel Nichwitz is seeded fourth.
Haley Harris is the top seed in the 1600 run, with defending champion Nichwitz also entered and seeded second. Stacy Morozov is the first seed in the 3200 run.

Hamilton Heights' Macey Policka is top seeded in the 100 hurdles, while Carmel's Jessica Cowen is the 300 hurdles' top seed.
The relays will be interesting, as Noblesville is seeded first, a second ahead of Carmel. The Millers have a seed time of 9:24.44 and the defending champions Greyhounds come in at 9:25.40, both well ahead of the standard of 9:28.45. As for the other relays, Fishers is the top 4x100 seed, while Carmel is the first 4x400 seed.
In the field events, Fishers looks to have the edge. The Tigers have top seeds in three events: Adrianna Murphy in the long jump, Emily Fletchall in the pole vault and Katilyn Thompson in the shot put. Southeastern's Alyssa McDougall is seeded first in the discus, with Carmel's Jill Sutton the top-seeded high jumper.

High Jump: Carmel senior Jill Sutton could be in a battle with Noblesville junior Madeline Helslott and Fishers sophomore Sydney Street, and others, for the blue ribbon. Sutton placed 7th last year. Also in the group is Southeastern junior Lindsey Schuler, who has cleared 5-2 this year and last season finished fifth in the event. Eight athletes have cleared 5-foot.
Long Jump: Fishers senior Adrianna Murphy has the best leap in the sectional area, 17-5. Next bests are Southeastern junior Ashley Perry with a 16-11.50 leap and Carmel junior Cailyn Etgen at 16-10, who was fourth in the sectional last year.
Pole Vault: Fishers' Emily Fletchall has a healthy margin over the field. Fletchall has vaulted 11-9, while in second place is Noblesville senior Dilan Palmer at 10-6. Southeastern senior Emily Obear has a 10-0 season best. Last season, Fletchall, Palmer and Obear placed 2-3-4.

Discus: The leader with the best toss entering the meet is Southeastern senior Alyssa McDougall at 122-7. That's a good margin over second-best Kaitlyn Thompson, a Fishers junior with a 114-4 toss. Then come Carmel sophomore Natalie Cotherman at 113-0 and Hamilton Heights junior Hannah Reecer a 111-10.
Shot Put: Kaitlyn Thompson of Fishers, a junior, has a sectional-area best of 38-0. It's an edge over senior teammate Blake Inglis at 37-7.75 and Westfield sophomore Jada Caldwell at 37-7.50. Inglis was runner-up and Thompson placed third last year
100 Dash: Westfield's Karen Hubbard, now a junior, set a sectional record last season with a 12.45 zip. She has been 12.32

this season, the best dash in this sectional. She has plenty of competition, including Fishers sophomore India Johnson at 12.45, Fishers' Danielle Harrison at 12.52 and Southeastern freshman Camille Christopher at 12.54.
100 Hurdles: Hamilton Heights sophomore Macey Policka has been caught at 15.85 and Hamilton Southeastern sophomore Meghann Cullen at 15.9. Policka was second last season behind outstanding Heights teammate Sierra Brown. Two more young hurdlers in the mix are Westfield sophomore Emily Robertson, 16.06, and Southeastern freshman Mia Mackenzie at 16.14.
200 Dash: Westfield's Karen Hubbard will try to defend. Her best has been a 25.47. The fastest seed time is 25.44 by sophomore India Johnson of Fishers. Hamilton Southeastern freshman Camille Christopher has a 25.63 and Guerin Catholic sophomore Lily Hess has been clocked at 25.81.

400 Dash: Two runners have been under one minute, Carmel junior Rachel Dixon at 58.77 and Fishers sophomore Paris Carver at 59.08. Dixon was the sectional runner-up last spring. Noblesville's Lillian Walter has a fast 1:00.50.
800 Run: Both Harris sisters are slated to run the 800 for Carmel. Haley Harris has a 2:15.40 clocking and Kelsey Harris a 2:15.60. Noblesville senior Abigail Crouch has the third -best seed time with a 2:16.30. The defending champion is Southeastern's Rachel Nichwitz, whose best time this season is 2:18.4.
1600 Run: Carmel senior Haley Harris is the only runner under five minutes. She was second last under behind. Her best time this season is 4:56.40. The defending champion, Southeastern's Rachel Nichwitz, a senior, returns this year with a 5:03.70 romp. Carmel freshman Maddie Dalton has run a 5:09.80 and Noblesville freshman Abigail Little has been 5:10.31.
3200 Run: The top seeds in this event is Carmel junior Stacy Morozov at 11:04.80 and Southeastern senior Courtney Pfanstiel at 11:06.46. Carmel's Kelsey Harris was second and teammate Stacy Morozov was third last year.

Benedict's debut spoiled by Tides

A pair of last-minute call-ups led to a battle between spot starters as reliever Michael Bowden outdueled Triple-A rookie Matt Benedict in the Norfolk Tides' 2-1 victory over the Indianapolis Indians on Saturday night at Victory Field.
Benedict (0-1), who made his Triple-A debut in place of regularly-scheduled starter Wilfredo Boscan, tossed five solid innings with two runs on four hits and two strikeouts. He allowed just one extra-base hit – a double to Chris Parmelee – and induced 10 groundouts during the defeat.
His counterpart Bowden (2-1) also went five innings but earned the win with a scoreless effort through his longest outing of the season.
After Bowden gave way to the bullpen, Deibinson Romero drove home the Tribe's (21-16) lone run with a double to left field off Pedro Beato in the bottom of the sixth.
Hunter Morris singled in the ninth inning to put the tying run on base with no outs, but Norfolk (20-16) closer Oliver Drake retired his next three batters to halt the rally and preserve the victory.
