Assistant principals.....

“Received consequences”

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Superintendent of Noblesville Schools Beth Niedermeyer has said administrators made an “error in judgment” when dealing with the “camp out” held on school property and has promised to be “more aggressive” to ensure that it doesn’t happen in the future.

Niedermeyer was interviewed Tuesday afternoon in her office by the Hamilton County Reporter following this newspaper’s aggressive request for information on what exactly happened in an incident which resulted in the arrest of three Noblesville seniors for underage drinking.

The Reporter questioned whether or not the “camp out” was sanctioned by Noblesville Schools and what type of supervision was provided for approximately 200 seniors who had set up tents on school property.

“The camp out was not a school sanctioned event,” Niedermeyer told The Reporter.

“Administrators recognized their error in judgment and received consequences in line with our policies,” said the Superintendent.

Niedermeyer would not reveal who the administrators were, but did say they were three assistant principals. She also would not reveal what the “consequences” were.

“Three students violated our code of conduct and received consequences in line with our policies,” Niedermeyer added.

Niedermeyer outlined the series of events connected with the camp out.

*A concerned citizen contacted the Noblesville School Resource Officer around 10 p.m. to inform him that students were camping out on school property.

*The Noblesville School Resource Officer immediately contacted our assistant principals who arrived on campus shortly thereafter.

*The assistant principals checked tents and talked to students. They reported that students were behaving appropriately, so they made the decision to let the students stay.

*Students attended school the next day.

*The Administrators recognized their error in judgment and received consequences in line with our policies.

*Three students violated our code of conduct and received consequences in line with our policies.

*We will be more aggressive to ensure that it doesn’t happen in the future.

Another HAND project...

Construction begins on phase three of Spicewood Gardens

Current residents from Spicewood Gardens in Sheridan kicked off construction last week of phase three of Spicewood Gardens developed by HAND. When construction is done, phase three will provide eight additional units similar to the existing 52 units in Sheridan. HAND (Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development) provides quality affordable housing to low income residents.

“The current residents are really excited about us offering more units. What makes this property special is the sense of community that has grown from these residents,” says Lichti. The residents plan pot-luck dinners, euchre tournaments and other events. According to Beverly Frederick a Spicewood resident, “We are a family, we take care of each other.”

“Our wait list for phase one and two has approximately 180 people on it. Some have been on the wait list since October 2009. The need for affordable senior housing is great.” reported Nate Lichti, Executive Director of HAND.

HAND’s mission is to invest in neighborhoods, build partnerships and provide housing solutions to improve lives and build community in Hamilton County. HAND does this by providing affordable housing options through the development of rental properties, assisting low income homeowners with repairs, and partnering with neighborhood groups on beautification and improvement projects.

This project is possible due to support from various local and state organizations as well as private donors. HAND received support through competitive grants awarded late last year by

Prevail raises $30,000

Prevail hosted its 4th annual “Spring into Fashion” show at Woodland Country Club, an event which raised $30,000 to support victims of violent crime.

The inspirational speaker, a survivor of sexual assault, said it best, “It took me a week to call Prevail. I was never a person who needed help; counseling had never been for me. I was tough. But suddenly I was lost. They helped me understand that I didn’t ask for this...that it was ok that I didn’t have this superwoman plan and get away; that I just tried to stay alive and that was enough.”

The Presenting Sponsor of the event was Smith’s Jewelers and the emcee, Karen Hensel, Jeanne Rush from The Secret Ingredient, Woodland Country Club and Prevail’s courageous speaker.

Sponsors included: BMO Harris Bank, Chloe’s Cupcakes, Church, Church, Hittle & Antrim, Ciano Bella Salon & Anita Fisher, Cloud 9 Salon & Spa, Crosser Family Foundation, Sally Crow, The Current, First Merchants Bank, Friends of Prevail, Gaylor Electric, Hare Chevrolet, Libertad Real Estate, Orthodynamics, Platinum Living, Karen Roller, Riverview Health, The Secret Ingredient, Saks Fifth Avenue, Smith’s Jewelers, Stephanie Kantis, Woodland Country Club.

Prevail also is urging to mark calendars for the 2015 Signature Gala on August 22 at the Renaissance Hotel in Carmel.

Fast-moving post season....

Boys golf regionals begin today

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

There aren't too many sports that move as fast in the post-season as boys golf does. Several teams that played in sectionals Monday will be competing at the regional level today. That includes Hamilton County two teams (Westfield and Carmel) and one individual (Guerin Catholic's Nate Isenthal) who got out of the brutal Zionsville sectional. They will be traveling to Battle Ground Golf Club this morning to play in the Lafayette Jeff regional.

In fact, of the five regionals, four of them take place today. The fifth one, with Muncie Central as the host, is set for Friday at The Players Club in Yorktown. Three county teams - Hamilton Southeastern, Noblesville and Fishers - will be among the competitors there.

Carmel coach Richard Reid said that many consider the Zionsville sectional at the Golf Club of Indiana to be the toughest in the state. There's not much to argue about that. The Shamrocks and the Greyhounds just happen to be the second and third-ranked teams in Indiana, and they were close together again, with Westfield outscoring Carmel 300-304 for the championship.

Normally three teams advance from sectionals to regionals, but Zionsville will actually send out four teams to Battle Ground. There were several controversies regarding scoring at the sectional, which left the third advancing team - either the Eagles or Brebeuf Jesuit - in doubt.

Initially, Zionsville was to be the third team, but it was later reported that the Braves would also be allowed to advance. So, 19 teams will compete at Battle Ground instead of the usual 18. All that does is make the tournament tougher. Brebeuf scored a 306 at the sectional, while Zionsville carded a 307.

There are several other teams to watch out for today at Battle Ground. Two other Top 10 squads will be in the mix. Ninth-ranked Harrison won the Lafayette Jeff sectional at Coyote Crossing in grand fashion, shooting a 302. In fact, the Raiders had the top three individual finishers, with Jack

The Hamilton Southeastern golf team won the Noblesville sectional at Purgatory Monday, and will be one of three Hamilton County teams at Friday's Muncie Central regional at The Players Club.

Newton beating teammate Cole Bradley in a playoff for medalist honors after both finished with 73s.

Crown Point is the 10th ranked team, and it comes into the regional as the Lake Central sectional champion. The Bulldogs won with a 319 and also have the lowest-scoring individual entering the regional. Michael Lee carded a 72 at Palmira Golf Club. Also, look out for Chesterton - the Trojans won the Valparaiso sectional at Forest Park Golf Club with a 306.

Thursday's other three regionals are hosted by Warsaw (at Stonehenge), Washington (at Country Oaks) and Providence

(at Champions Pointe), so that means all of the Indiana golf world's attention can be focused on The Players Club on Friday. It should be a good regional, with four ranked teams among the 18 competing.

The best score comes from the No. 6-ranked Royals, who totaled a 302 to win the championship at Purgatory. The sectional host Millers, rated 18th, weren't too far behind with a 308, and also had the individual medalist: Josh Keating scored 72. Fishers was third with a 327, earning its first-ever trip to the regional as a team.

The highest-ranked team coming into The Players Club won't have far to travel.

It's Yorktown, which is ranked No. 4 and champions of the Monroe Central sectional at Hickory Hills. The Tigers cruised to a 27-shot win, scoring a 306. In addition, Monroe Central produced the lowest-scoring individual: Muncie Central's Keenan Bronnenberg carded a 71 for medalist honors there.

Another team to watch is Cathedral, which hosted the sectional at Maple Creek on Saturday. The 20th-ranked Irish have the lowest team score entering the regional, with a 301.

Noblesville’s Aly Compton is shown here keeping her eye on the ball, but she spent more time crushing the ball. The senior Compton was the Millers’ biggest hitter, and she is this year’s choice for the Hamilton County Reporter’s Softball Player of the Year. She was a big part of Noblesville’s sectional and regional championship victories.

Compton averaged .542 for the season, with 45 hits in 83 at bats. She also batted in 32 runs, and led the team with 17 doubles.

The fast-paced, competitive action of the 31st Annual IHSAA Softball State Finals will take center stage Saturday including four former state champions, one rematch from a year ago and four others making their first appearance in a state championship game.

The first of the four games begin at 10:30 am ET originating from Ben Davis High School on Indianapolis’ far west side. The opening game features Class A #3 Hauser (25-4) and #9 Carroll (Flora) (24-4). Both teams will make their initial state championship game appearance.

Two of the state’s powerhouse programs will meet as #3 Center Grove (28-2) and No. 5 Lake Central (28-6-1) will decide the big-school state title just as they have four times in previous years.

All four games will be televised live by Fox Sports Indiana (FSI) and available as a live stream to those outside of the FSI coverage area at IHSAAtv.org. The broadcast team for the Class A and 2A games includes Greg Rakestraw, David Cook and Allison Hayes. The team calling the 3A and 4A games is Jerry Baker, Kevin Britt and Jeremiah Johnson.

Cline scores 28 for All-Stars

Carmel's Ryan Cline poured in 28 points to lead the Indiana Boys All-Stars, but this time around the Indiana Junior Boys were the winners by the score of 103-89 Wednesday at Memorial Gymnasium in Columbus.

Cline's 28 included five 3-pointers. He also grabbed four rebounds and handed out two assists.

The Indiana Girls All-Stars were 86-83 winners over the Indiana Junior Girls. Playing for the Junior Girls team, Hamilton Southeastern's Megan Walton had three points, two rebounds and a blocked shot. Fishers' Kara Gerka had two rebounds and two assists.

Indians win sixth straight

Casey Sadler pitched a quality start, both Keon Broxton and Elias Diaz hit two-run homers and the Indianapolis Indians completed a three-game sweep with a 5-3 victory over the Rochester Red Wings on Wednesday afternoon at Frontier Field.

The Tribe (38-23) has won a season-high six straight games and is 16-5 in 21 contests since May 20.

Starter Sadler (6-3) helped pace the victory with a strong showing of one earned run (three runs) over six innings of work. The ace has led the team to a 24-9 record during his career with the Tribe and authored a quality start in 24 of 33 Triple-A assignments.

Diaz erased a 2-0 deficit with his second home run of the season, taking Pat Dean (5-4) - who owned the second-best ERA in the International League - deep to left field with Tony Sanchez on base in the fifth inning.
