Old Conner School

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Conner School, once the home of hundreds of Noblesville elementary students on the east side of the city, currently is in its last days, the victim of the wrecking ball.

The land on which the school sits is owned by the Noblesville Boys & Girls Club.

“We have no plans for the land at this time,” said Boys & Girls Club Director Becky Terry. “We thought it would be a good time to remove an eye sore.”

It has been rumored that in the future a new Club or extension to the Club would be built on the property, which sits to the south of the Club’s Community Center. The Center is a multi-purchase sports facility which houses, among other events, the Club’s huge basketball program.

The Conner School property recently was purchased from Noblesville City by the Boys & Girls Club. The Club also now owns the land on which the Community Center sits. Previously, the Community Center property was under a 99-year lease with Noblesville Schools.

The sale of the Community Center property, Terry said, did not include any of the parking area between the Community Center and what now is Ivy Tech. The parking area had been used by the Club to park cars during basketball tournaments and other events at the Community Center.

Terry said the Club has an agreement with Ivy Tech to share the parking area.

The construction equipment has begun the process of bringing down Conner School. The one-time elementary school sits on land that’s owned by the Noblesville Boys & Girls Club.

Removing the Conner School building could provide parking area directly to the south of the Community Center.

The main Boys & Girls Club center is located approximately two blocks west of the Conner School property. Once the home of Noblesville High School, the Boys & Girls Club long ago has run out of space at this facility.

Near-total loss...

Overnight fire damages Cicero home

The Cicero Fire Department responded to an overnight fire at 240 Bay Shore Drive Thursday morning. Damage to the home is estimated to be $250,000. More photos from the fire appear on Page 2.

An early morning fire on Thursday resulted in extensive damage to a Cicero home.

At 3:14 a.m. The Cicero Fire Department was dispatched to 240 Bay Shore Drive on a report of a residence fire. Neighbors spotted the fire shortly after 3 a.m., woke up the residence and called 911. They then proceeded to alert the other neighbors directly next door. Mike Ohler the owner of the residence, his fiancée, Nancy Franklin and his 20-year-old son all made it out without injuries.

Cicero Fire crews arrived at 3:20 a.m. to find heavy fire conditions with nearly two thirds of the residence on fire. This fire was isolated to this single residence and there was no damage from the fire to the neighboring houses.

Damage to the home is estimated to be $250,000, a near total loss . Cicero Fire Crew were able to salvage a few personal effects for the occupants of the residence.

The cause of the fire is undetermined and remains under investigation at this time. There are no civilian injuries to report, however one Cicero Firefighter sustained a minor injury to his hand. He was treated and released at Riverview Health Emergency Room.

Cicero Fire was assisted with this incident with crews from Jackson Fire Territory, Sheridan Fire Department, White River Township Volunteer Fire Department and Noblesville Fire Department.

AgReliant breaks ground on expansion

AgReliant Genetics is already a big deal in Westfield. Now it's about to become bigger. Various reports have announced that AgReliant, the nation's third-largest corn seed company, has broken ground on an expansion of its headquarters. AgReliant is located at 1122 E. 169th St., just west of U.S. 31.

The company will grow to twice the space. According to a news release on the Great Lakes Hybrid Web site - Great Lakes is one of seven brands that is marketed through AgReliant, the expansion includes "additional capacity for leadership functions as well as administrative and support personnel, a large group training and conference center and additional flexible space for future expansion."

The project will be led by Mitsch Design and Pepper Construction, and is scheduled to be completed by early 2016, according to Great Lakes Hybrid.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Atlanta Plan Commission will meet June 23rd at 6 p.m. in the town hall to discuss general business.

Adopted by New Joy Lutheran Church...

Westfield opens roundabout at 156th and Spring Mill today

Westfield's latest roundabout will open tomorrow, and a new community initiative will start making the rounds as well.

The new roundabout, located at 156 Street and Spring Mill, will be maintained in part by the New Joy Lutheran Church as part of Westfield's newly launched 'adopt-a-roundabout' program.

"We contacted the city with the intention of adopting this roundabout as a project for our congregation, and it seems to have sparked a larger interest city wide," said Pastor Chris Duckworth.

"Some of the best ideas in this community have come not from the top down, but from residents who want to get involved" said Mayor Andy Cook. "I'm thrilled that New Joy had the idea, and I know other groups in Westfield have already expressed an interest in pursuing similar volunteer opportunities."

The city will host a brief ribbon-cutting ceremony at 2:00 p.m. tomorrow. A&F Engineering and Crider and Crider, the design and construction firms responsible for the roundabout, will be in attendance, as will Mayor Cook, who will officially open the roundabout with an inaugural trip around it in his yellow Jeep.

Kroger announces results of fund-raising campaign on behalf of American Red Cross

The Kroger Co.'s Central Division has announced results of its annual fund-raising campaign on behalf of the American Red Cross. Kroger customer and associates made coin box donations from Sunday, February 1st thru Saturday, May 23rd totaling $22,213. This represents an increase over 2014 of $3,273 or 17 percent. Proceeds are used to support the Red Cross' disaster relief efforts and other emergency response efforts in local communities also served by Kroger.

According to Kroger Central Division Public Affairs Manager John Elliott, "Taking care of our associates, our customers, their families and our local communities is an integral part of how we react to natural disasters and other emergencies. When disasters strike, Kroger supports emergency response centers with food, water and other supplies even as we focus on keeping our retail stores, distribution centers and food manufacturing plants open and fully operational. We do this in partnership with the American Red Cross, our long-term existing partnerships with food banks and other community organizations. This collaboration allows us to be there swiftly and effectively when our neighbors in each local community need us most. The Red Cross is a critical player in times of crisis and we must continue to provide them the resources they need."

The Westfield boys golf team defended its regional championship at Battle Ground Golf Club on Thursday. The Shamrocks scored a 297, ensuring a good pairing when they play at the state meet next week at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel.

Tweedy advances for Carmel...

Westfield repeats at regional, heads to state

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor
As the weather has gotten warmer, so has the Westfield boys golf team.

The Shamrocks raised the temperature a few more degrees Thursday at Battle Ground Golf Club, putting together a solid round of golf to defend their Lafayette Jeff regional championship. Westfield carded a team total of 297, putting itself in good position when the IHSAA state meet begins Tuesday at Prairie View Golf Club in nearby Carmel.

Tweedy

The 'Rocks have been putting together tournament wins left and right over the past month, including three in one week during the third week of May. Westfield scored 300 at Monday's Zionsville sectional, so it would seem the Shamrocks are peaking at the right time.

Westfield was led by Thomas Lewis, who shot a three-under par 69. That tied him for second individually; Zionsville's Drew Wood won medalist honors with a four-under 68. Shamrocks coach Jon Hoover said that "Thomas definitely carried everyone through today, and that's why we're a team."

Jeremy Ray helped out with a 74, while Timmy Hildebrand carded 76. Andrew Lewis and Keith Ponsler rounded out the score with 78s, meaning that Westfield got everyone in the 70s - or better.

"I wanted to get the win so we get the pairing that we want in the state," said Hoover.

This will be the fourth state appearance in a row for Westfield.

Zionsville finished second with a 302, with Harrison placing third at 305. Those two teams will join the 'Rocks at state.

Unfortunately, the crowded field pushed Carmel out of state contention, as the Greyhounds finished fourth and just missed moving on to state. Carmel scored a 308, which proves how tough a regional this was.

"We played really well on the front nine, and thought we had a good chance of even winning," said 'Hounds coach Chard Reid. "We played the fourth hole eight over as a team. Just one hole."

"We just didn't finish strong like we have been in the previous weeks."

Carmel does have an individual advancing in Palmer Tweedy. His 74 was good enough to grab one of the spots reserved for the five individuals not on an advancing team. But of course, Tweedy would rather have his teammates competing with him.

"I thought it was really cool shooting that, but it would've been a whole lot more fun if I was my teammates," said Tweedy.

This will be Tweedy's first time at state, and he thinks a Top 20 finish is realistic.

"I want to shoot in the 70s both days," said Tweedy. "That's my main goal."

Guerin Catholic's Nate Isenthal played as an individual at regional, shooting an 80.

Boys Track and Field Athlete of the Year Ben Veatch, Carmel

Following a successful cross country season, Carmel junior Ben Veatch picked up where he left off during the track and field season, running away with the long distance events. For his consistent and dominant performances, Veatch is this year’s choice for the Hamilton County Reporter’s Boys Track and Field Athlete of the Year.

Veatch earned a clean sweep of the 3200 run in the post-season, winning the sectional, regional and state championship in that event by an average margin of 19 seconds. He also won the event in the Metropolitan Conference meet. As for the Hamilton County meet, Veatch raced and won the 1600 run there.

Senior Emily Huffine has announced her intent to continue her cheerleading career at the collegiate level. Emily will attend Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. The Cardinals are an NCAA Division I school that competes in the Mid America Conference under the direction of Coach Brenda Jamerson.

Emily is the daughter of Steve and Carolyn Huffine. She earned four varsity letters in cheerleading at HSE. In addition to being a 4-year varsity cheerleader, Emily was also named an ISPA All-State cheerleader this season. Emily helped lead the Royals to an ISPA State Championship in 2011-12, a State Runner Up in 2013, and a National Championship in 2013.

Seated: Carolyn Huffine (mother), Emily, & Steve Huffine (father). Standing: Kaylee Johnson (HSE Competition Cheer Coach), Amanda & Erica Huffine (sisters).

After winning the team state championship last week, the Carmel girls tennis team will go for championship in the singles and doubles tournaments this weekend.

Carmel girls go for “Triple Crown”...

Singles, doubles championships up for grabs this weekend

Eight singles players and seven doubles teams will take to the hardcourts at Park Tudor School in Indianapolis this weekend to settle the 34th singles and 25th doubles state championships in girls tennis.

Four singles and three doubles matches will be played in the quarterfinal round on Friday beginning at 2 pm ET/ 1 pm CT. Saturday morning’s semifinal round begins at 10 am ET followed by the state championship and consolation matches at 2 pm. A detailed schedule is listed below.

Five of the eight singles players enter the weekend with unblemished season reords led by defending state champion Denise Azcui of Bloomington South (26-0). Azcui will meet Chesterton senior Meg Modesto (21-1) in the quarters. Azcui was presented the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award following the team competition on Saturday. The award is based on demonstrated excellence in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability. In other quarterfinal round contests, Evansville Memorial sophomore Mackenzie Myers (27-0) will take on Pendleton Heights junior Emma McCardwell (29-0) in a matchup of undefeated players.

Fort Wayne Canterbury senior Leah Barnes (24-0) will face sophomore Lauren Winchell of Christian Academy of Indiana (29-1). Barnes competed in the state finals her first two years and finished as the runner-up as a freshman in 2012.

And North Central (Indianapolis) junior Claire Reifeis (24-0) is set to play Carmel freshman Kiersten Carlson (22-2). Carlson helped the Greyhounds capture their third consecutive team title last Saturday but Reifeis is responsible for both of Carlson’s defeats this year.

Carmel’s doubles team of Emma Love and Lauryn Padgett (18-0) drew the bye into Saturday’s semifinals, courtesy of winning the team championship last weekend. Love is one-half of last year’s doubles state championship pair when she teamed with Molly Fletchall. Love and Padgett await the winner between Amanda Padilla and Regina Padilla Llaguno of Culver Academies (19-2) and Seymour’s Karen Dringenburg and Emma Wood (12-0), the only other unbeaten tandem in the field.

Only three schools have won the girls tennis “triple crown” – winning the state tournaments in the team competition, singles tournament and doubles tournament – North Central (Indianapolis) in 1977, Evansville Memorial in 1995 and Park Tudor in 1998.

Results will be available at IHSAA.org well as on Twitter @IHSAA1 following each session.

Volstad and Co. Power seventh straight win

Jaff Decker scored once and drove in two runs behind Chris Volstad’s seven innings of one-run ball as the Indianapolis Indians extended their winning streak to seven games with a 4-2 victory over the Gwinnett Braves on Thursday night at Victory Field.

The Tribe’s (39-23) win streak is tied for the third longest in Victory Field history (1996), trailing only an eight-gamer during 2012 and a stretch of 14 consecutive wins in 1997.

Decker helped deal opposing left-hander Manny Banuelos (5-1) his first loss in 12 starts this year, scoring in the first inning on an errant pickoff throw to first base and plating both of his runs with a double in the bottom of the seventh.

The only run Volstad (5-2) allowed was on a Wil Nieves double that nearly cleared the fences. The Indians’ starter otherwise scattered five additional hits while matching his longest outing of the season.

While Gwinnett (29-30) threatened with an unearned run in the eighth frame, closer Blake Wood shut the door in the ninth for his league-best 17th save in 19 opportunities.
