The County Line

Dill tracing the 192 years of the Silas Moffitt family

By FRED SWIFT
One of Hamilton County's oldest and largest families is the subject of a unique project by volunteer historian Katherine Dill. She is tracing the Silas Moffitt family through its 192 years in this county. Katherine is not a Moffitt descendant, she came from Vincennes, Indiana. But, her current home is located on former Moffitt property. She is young, energetic and crazy about history.

In 1823 Silas and Hannah Moffitt came from North Carolina and settled on the west bank of White River in what is now Clay Township. On the east bank of the river William Conner was making a name of himself as a trader, politician and land speculator. There were no other settlers in the area, but that was about to change as pioneers surged into Hamilton County in the 1820s and 30s.

Ms. Dill, former director of the Carmel Clay Historical Society, thought an interesting project and historical exhibit would involve tracing the Moffitt family down to the living descendants. Her work has turned up about 750 members of the clan essentially started by Silas and Hannah. Many from the Moffitt line live in the area and many more are yet to be located.

Last Friday night the Moffitt Exhibit opened at the Monon Depot Museum with dozens of the Moffitt clan attending. They found a 50 foot family tree (actually a horizontal chart) in which the Moffitts are all listed by generation, some with photos. Elsewhere in the museum are pictures and personal effects on loan from family members.

The work is not complete, Ms. Dill continues to search for Moffitts with the various surnames that have come about through generations of marriages to other Carmel area families like Hinshaw, Myers, Pursel, Williamson, Morgan and many others.

REPORTER TAKING A HOLIDAY
The Hamilton County Reporter will not publish on Sunday, July 5, so its staff can enjoy the Fourth of July holiday.
We will resume our normal publication schedule with our print and online editions on Tuesday, July 7.
All of us at The Reporter wish you a happy Fourth of July.

In August the entire clan will be invited to a "reunion" at River Heritage Park which borders the 190 year old home of Silas and Hannah, still standing along River Road north of 116th Street. Some of the distant Moffitt cousins are just now learning they are related thanks of Ms. Dill's work.

As if this project was not enough, Dill is also working to preserve another historic site in the area. The former Wilkin-

A novel escape

By JANET HART LEONARD
It's about the dog-eared pages of books. It's about the feel of the crisp or well worn pages. It's the idea of seeing how much more you have to read until you get to the end.

I love a real "hands on the paper pages" feeling of books. I have tried to read a book on my iPad. I have seen the fancy Kindles and Nooks. I just like the real thing.

I have to have a book with me. I love the places that books take me. I truly fell in love with reading in Mr. Purvis's literature class in junior high. We read the classics. Huckleberry Finn. The Old Man and the Sea. To Kill A Mockingbird. We dissected them. I found it fascinating.

At least every couple of weeks Chuck and I can be found in the Noblesville Public Library. He patiently waits while I meander through the fiction. He has his "go to" favorite mystery and history writers. I have a hodge podge of my "gotta read" drama and romance writers. Then we go home and have ESPN or the Golf channel as our background noise as we read. Of course we also indulge in a glass of sweet tea.

This week I am reading the second novel in less than a month of a new writer that I have discovered. Liane Moriarity. If you want to read any of her books...get in line. There is a waiting list.

Farmers visit Council

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

A very special group of farmers appeared before the Hamilton County Council earlier this week to share what is happening in agriculture in the county here in 2015.

Headed by John Hiatt, the group represents the Hamilton County Farm Bureau.

What they shared was surprising to many Hamilton County residents, especially those living south of 146th Street where pigs and cattle, and even crop land, is something in the past.

For example, it might be surprising for you folks who live in Carmel and Fishers and perhaps even Noblesville and Westfield to be informed that 52 percent of land in Hamilton County still is in farmland.

That number, of course, might change in a day or two, looking to more huge housing areas.

According to statistics, the population in Hamilton County in 2013 was 296,693. The total land area was 252,333 acres and total land in farms was 130,854.

The number of farms in the county in 2013 was 594.

There was a total 120,899 cropland acres; 7,574 pasture and woodland; 61,000 acres in corn with 174 bushels an acre in corn.

Hamilton County had 65,000 acres in soybeans, yielding 51 bushels an acre.

Wheat acres was 2,500, yielding 66 bushels an acre.

In the 2013-14 time period there were 2,300 head of cattle in Hamilton County,

When reading a mystery novel from the library, I find it interesting where pages are dog-eared. It's never where there is the most suspense. Every reader has to know, as soon as possible, who committed the murder, what will be the decision or where will the characters end up? When I really get into a book, I stay up way too late. I sit in the car on my lunch hour, under a shade tree. I consume the words and thoughts like that of a starved food critic. Characters become part of my life even for just a few days unless the book is part of a series then I wait with anxious anticipation for the next novel. Kind of like waiting for the next family reunion.

What is the writer trying to say? Are their thoughts from personal experience? What would I do if I was in their circumstance? Can I relate?

I have books that I have passed on to friends and then they are passed on to their friends. I often purchase a non-fiction book so I can highlight and write in it. Some books are like old friends. I revisit them on occasion.

I remember as a child going into the basement of the old library where city hall now stands. I remember the smell of the old books. I even remember the table that held a stereoscope and old pictures. Another remembrance is the rubber stamps that stamped the date in the little rectangle in the front of the book. Card catalogs organized the entire library. It was the old fashioned way but it holds such good memories. Packed away in those drawers were lessons learned and stories that years later, still touch my heart.

I have taken my grandmunchkins to the library since they were toddlers. Nine year old Jake is probably my most voracious reader. If he is not on the ball field then he has his nose in a book.

I believe one of the greatest gifts you can give a child is a library card. A child who loves to read will never be bored.

I can't wait to get home from vacation next week and get Susan Crandall's new book that will be released on Tuesday July 7th. A Flying Circus. Susie and I have been friends since kindergarten. She has a true gift with how she tells a story. You find yourself right there with each character as the story progresses.

Speaking of telling a story. If you live in Noblesville, grew up in Noblesville or love a great book about history with a little romance thrown in then you need to read Kurt Meyer's book titled...Noblesville. Kurt holds your attention with the story as well as giving you a tour of old Noblesville. Trust me, it is fascinating.

Once upon a time a column is written and when this writer has said all she has to say she hopes she sends her readers craving an escape from the tv, the iPad, video games and noise. She hopes you grab a sweet tea and a book and you enjoy a little old fashioned reading. Oh the places you will go but you have to leave the electronics behind.

Work continues on the demolition of the long-time grain terminal on south 9th Street in Noblesville.

FARMERS

5,800 hogs, 946 sheep, 1,065 chickens and 69 turkeys.

The total farm income in 2011 was $180,714 and expenses were $142,366.

The average cost to plant an acre of corn was $709 and the average cost to plant an acre of soybean was $474. Both of those numbers were last reported in 2013.

Estimated property tax paid by farmers was $5,744,252.

The Farm Bureau folks also talked about the agriculture changing in Hamilton County, explaining why the long-time grain terminal on south 9th Street in Noblesville is coming down.

Farming has moved north and access to land at the grain terminal is hard for large semi trucks.

Also, many larger farmers now have their own grain storage.

The Farm Bureau pointed to reasons the organization is so important today.

- *Caring and using the productive land to sustain farm families and landowners.
- *Supporting schools and county services through property taxes and personal income.
- *Maintaining a rural lifestyle and landscape.

Interesting night at the Hamilton County Common Council.

John Bush, Jr. "Jack"

April 12, 1925 - July 2, 2015

John Bush, Jr. "Jack" passed away peacefully on July 2, 2015 at the age of 90. John was born in Sheridan, Indiana on April 12, 1925, to the late John A. and Dolly (Thurman) Bush.

John graduated from Sheridan High School in 1943 and went on to attend Purdue University. On December 6th, 1947, he married the love of his life and best friend Wilma K. (Owen) Bush. They established their home in Sheridan and together raised their four children (Brendalee, Terry, Peggy and Joe). The couple provided a supportive home filled with laughter and love. They went on to welcome eight grandchildren (Deidra, Brett, Audra, Danny, John, Brian, Katie and Dustin) and seven great granddaughters (Alicia, Ashlynn, Halee, Alexis, Aurora, Ella and Parker) to their family.

John was a natural athlete, playing football and basketball in high school. He was a proud veteran of the US Army Air Corps (US Air Force) and served in WWII as a pilot. John was proud to have served his country and ensured to stay in touch with his fellow veterans by attending their reunions. He worked at Chrysler as a machine repairman where he retired after 35 years of service. "Jack" was known as the "go-to" man, the one who everyone knew to call when no one else could fix it.

John had a passion for cars that he shared with his family. He was always willing to help others as well as servicing cars of friends and family in his expanded three car garage. John was active in the community and an avid Sheridan Blackhawks fan. Slate (his loving cat) was always by his side.

He was a devoted husband whose love for Wilma only continued to grow and shine brighter each and every day. Together they created a loving foundation within their home for the entire family. The door was always open and provided words of wisdom, laughter, hugs and lots of home-cooked meals.

John (the husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather) will be dearly missed. But, his memory will live on with all of those he loved and lives he touched. Our family is truly blessed to have had such an amazing man in our lives.

John was active in many organizations within the Sheridan community. He attended the Sheridan First United Methodist Church, where he is listed on the Church's Cradle Roll. He is also a proud member of the K.V. Elliott post 67 of the Sheridan American Legion. John was a member of the Sheridan Masonic Lodge F&AM 309 and Scottish Rite. He was also the first DeMolay Dad of the Sheridan Chapter of DeMolay.

John is survived by his loving wife, Wilma K. Bush of Sheridan; his 2 sons, Terry W. (Linda) Bush of Greenwood and Joe Bush of Sheridan; 2 daughters, Brendalee Bush and Peggy Ann Bush-Kellam, both of Sheridan; 8 grandchildren, Deidra K. Bush, Brett A. Kellam (Tera), Audra Carrel (Matthew), Danny J. Bush, John J. Bush (Chia), Brian L. Bush, Katie M. Bush and Dustin G. Stephenson; 7 great grandchildren, Alicia, Ashlynn, Halee, Alexis, Aurora, Ella and Parker; and his best friend, his loving cat Slate.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Mildred Quinn.

Graveside services with military honors will be held at 1:00 PM on Thursday, July 9, 2015, at Crown View Cemetery, Sheridan, Indiana. Pastor Carol Fritz will be officiating. Visitation will be held from 4:00-8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 8, 2015 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th Street, Sheridan, Indiana.

Memorial contributions may be presented to the Sheridan Historical Society Roofing Project, 308 South Main Street, Sheridan, Indiana 46069.

Welcome home, Sister Cities of Italy and Brazil

By MARY SUE ROWLAND

The annual Sister Cities student exchange will be held in Noblesville this summer when six Italian and four Brazilian students arrive on Thursday July 9th. Traveling with the students in addition to chaperones will be the Mayor of Cittadella, Italy Giuseppe Pan and Sister Cities Brazil President Mr. Pandolfo, Brazil Council member Hermes Stomoski and Brazil representative Roberta Pegoraro. Founding member of the Noblesville, Cittadella and Nova Prata Sister Cities connection, Bruno Zoppe will also be part of the visitation. Noblesville students visited Cittadella, Italy in 2008, 2011 and 2014 and Nova Prata in 2010 and 2012 and will travel to Brazil in 2016. The Sister Cities friendship began in 1996 with the link of Noblesville to Nova Prata, Brazil. Nova Prata is the southernmost state of Rio Grande do Sul. Since 85% of Nova Prata has an Italian heritage in common, the effort was made to form a Tri-Lateral Agreement with Nova Prata and Cittadella, Italy and Noblesville. Cittadella is a walled city in the Veneto region of Italy. The Tri-Lateral Agreement was sealed by the mayors of the three cities in July of 2006.

Each summer student ambassadors from the three cities visit one of the Tri-Lateral Communities. This year Noblesville has the honor of hosting the two other countries in home stays with ample hoosier hospitality extended. Money to support the exchange is raised by the local Sister Cities group through grants, charitable events and generous donation. Sponsors for the event that will last 10 days include Legacy Fund of Hamilton County, City of Noblesville, Tom Sheehan, Industrial Dielectrics, Smith Jewelers, Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, The Marina Limited Partnership, MacInnis Construction Corp, John Hirschfeld, Kaho Chrysler Jeep Co, Janet Crosser Foundation, Ice Miller Attorneys, Rowland Printing Company, Matteo Ristorante Italiano, The Hamilton Restaurant, Deb and Richard Wofford and Aspire CPA Firm who collectively donated, along with in kind, totaled over $30,000.00 for the event. Adding in home stays, committee hours and hours of planning and more, the event is priceless.

Accomplishing a mission to promote peace through mutual respect, understanding and cooperation is the goal of the International exchange. Sister Cities International, based in Washington D.C was founded in 1956. Currently, there are close to 760 U.S. cities linked with 2,300 foreign cities in 137 countries around the world.

The three cities have agreed on three things they would do together: 1) Youth exchange every July, alternating the host city and placing youth and chaperones in private homes for the 10 day stay, 2) Economic development and 3) Tourism between the three cities. On time in July, the cities have come together. Fun, food and discovery is the agenda for the group as they spend 10 days of activities from tubing down White River, visiting the Farmer Market, Street Dance, Conner Prairie, Economic Development meeting and lunch with Mayor Ditslear, the Fray and Matt Nathanson Concert at Klipsch Music Center, volunteer opportunity at the Good Samaritan warehouse in Fishers to help, a State House tour, lunch with the Italian Heritage Society including bocce ball for all, a walk on the Indianapolis Canal, a day at King's Island, a day at the Speedway/museum, concert at Forest Park, a day at Morse Park Beach, visit to the Hamilton County 4-H Fair, special welcome dinner and farewell brunch will be included in the activities.

The visiting delegation of students include Sofia Busatto (Italy), Alessia Toniato (Italy), Elisa Simioni (Italy), Marco Pan (Italy), Milena Primieri Fernandes (Brazil), Gabriele Tancredo Stella (Brazil), Felipe Assis Lunelli Dutra Rodrigues (Brazil), Renata Pretto (Brazil) who will be staying with Cori Chatterson, Mia Kerr, Melissa Baker, Bryce Hines, Nick and Christie Hanna, Mitch Brown, Amanda and Sophia Carmosino, who are students from Noblesville (Parents included of course). Adult home stays include Allison Larty hosting Talane Ferretto of Brazil, Carol Danielson hosting Elena Busatto and son Nelson of Italy, Henry and Jacqueline Cole hosting Bruno and son Francesco Zoppe and Mayor Giuseppe Pan of Italy, Richard and Deb Wofford hosting Mr. Pandolfo, Roberta Pegoraro and Hermes Stomoski of Brazil.

It is difficult to tell the guests from the locals but if you do and you can, please greet them with warm hugs and kisses. They have come a long way to keep the student exchange vital toward meeting the vision of Sister Cities Noblesville, Cittadella, Nova Prata and the International efforts. In today's world, international relationship building may be the most important effort for all of us to work toward. In American, we can never have too many friends. But when you share a meal, your home, your town that makes friends for a lifetime.

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man

By LEANN WILSON

“There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death” Prov 16:25 (KJV).

And the serpent said unto the woman, “Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die” Gen 3:1-3 (KJV). When Eve partook of the forbidden fruit in the garden her actions signified agreement with the evil one that God really didn’t say what God had said. It seemed good, the fruit was good for food, it enlightened the mind and opened the eyes but what was harvested and sown into the soul was seeds of doubt and fruits of shame. The evil one had assured Eve of transformation and evolution - “ye shall be as gods” (Gen 3:5). But the true result was as God had ordained, judgement fell from the throne and man fell into a state of depravity apart from the grace of God.

Over the course of time man has continued to take the way which seemeth right unto man and the court of man has decided that they within themselves are their own gods. On the thrones of their own hearts they are, in their own eyes, wiser than (or at least as wise as) the LORD who hath made heaven and the heaven of heavens with all their host. Wiser than the LORD who has made the earth and all things that are therein, wiser than He who preserveth them all (Neh 9:6)! It is by deliberate decision we decide to live independent of God but any decision to live out from under the wing of God in no way changes the sovereignty of God or His providential plan. His mercy and justice will be administered as He has ordained. Polite and impolite society will continue in attempts to impose its will and wisdom with no acknowledgement of God, leaning only toward their own understanding (Prov 3:5-6). Living in the creation they stand upon the high places and think they have placed creation under their feet! The world by wisdom knows not God (1 Cor 1:21) but “O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? Or who hath been his counsellor? Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again” Rom 11:33-35 (KJV)? A.W. Tozar wrote “The philosopher and the scientist will admit that there is much that they do not know; but that is quite another thing from admitting that there is something which they can never know, which indeed they have no technique for discovering. To admit that there is One who lies beyond us, who exists outside of all our categories, who will not be dismissed with a name, who will not appear before the bar of our reason, nor submit to our curious inquiries”. “Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him” Prov 26:12 (KJV).

Now, “see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called” 1 Cor 1:26 (KJV). We continue by witness to be salt and light and glorify the Father in Heaven (Matt 5:13-16) knowing most will scoff with insolent ridicule and mockery, that we will be hated, as was Jesus, as we will not take up eternal citizenship with the world of the lost (John 15:18-19). We carefully follow the doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith and the way of longsuffering, love and perseverance knowing persecutions and afflictions will come to all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus while evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived (2 Tim 3:10-13). “But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them” 2 Tim 3:14 (NKJV). Persecution is not new to Christians, beginning with the first Christian martyr, Stephen (Acts 7), it continues to this day, and in this unique country we have not suffered as the likes of a Polycarp, who was martyred in the 2nd century AD by the enemies of God, proclaiming unto his death “Eighty and six years have I served him, and he never once wronged me; how then shall I blaspheme my King” (Foxe’s Book of Martyrs), but the buds of persecution now has its roots thriving in the fertile dirt of the politics of a country who has become willfully ignorant of its own history and of God in His eternal and holy state of being. Yet the willful ignorance changes not God. It changes not our salvation which is sure in Christ. The church does not breathe nor die by a law of man; it does not lie within a building or live within a corporation. The church lies within the hearts of those that belong to Christ Jesus. Furthermore, any loss suffered here is but gain in the eternal (Phil 3:8). The enemies of God will remain the enemies of God with their consciences seared in darkness. “Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; Do not fret--it only causes harm.....The wicked plots against the just, And gnashes at him with his teeth. The Lord laughs at him, For He sees that his day is coming. The wicked have drawn the sword and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to slay those who are of upright conduct. Their sword shall enter their own heart, and their bows shall be broken” Psalms 37:8-15 (NKJV). As the day of the Lord draws ever closer we are told by God not to be surprised and not to fear. The battle belongs to God. We are called to love and mercy, the Holy Ghost will reign with convicting power and the only wise God will judge justly. Let this band together the brethren, “neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” Rom 8:38-39 (KJV). Look up and lift your heads redemption draweth nigh (Luke 21:28). Eternal bliss is on the wake and it is He who has appointed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness (Acts 17:31). Kneel in faith, stand in courage, and walk in hope and in God’s love.

“The LORD is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy. He will not always strive with us, Nor will He keep His anger forever” (Psalms 103:8-9) so let any wise of the world having done foolishly yet seeking the path of righteousness say: “Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man. I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy. Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? Who hath gathered the wind in his fists? Who hath bound the waters in a garment? Who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son’s name, if thou canst tell? Every word of God is pure: He is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar” Prov 30:2-6 (KJV). Let the believer say: “Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD” Psalms 27:11-14 (KJV)! He will keep in perfect peace him whose mind is steadfast because he trusts in Him. “Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD, the LORD, is the Rock eternal” Isaiah 26:3-4 (KJV).

Summer basketball....

As usual, Leonard is excited

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor
It has been a good summer basketball season for Fishers’ Tigers. Joe Leonard, a guy who gets excited anytime he talks about Tigers basketball, is excited.

And, for good reason. “We miss Keegan Kollmeyer (17.3 points a game) and Luke Wehner,” said the coach. “But, we have some good talent returning.”

When Leonard talks about talent returning, at the top of the list are a pair of big men, 6-6 Lance Dollison and 6-8 Cameron Wolter. Both are seniors and both seem to be primed for a great final year with the Tigers.

“Dollison is bigger and stronger,” Leonard said. “He has grown an inch since last season. He is playing very well.”

Dollison averaged 10.3 points a game last season and appeared to get better late in the season.

“Wolter is such a talent,” added Leonard.

Wolter scored at a 12.3 clip as a junior and led Fishers in rebounds, pulling 5.2 boards a game.

Leonard also is excited with the return of two other seniors, 6-1 guard Andre Small and 6-0 guard Zach Eaton. Small was a scoring factor last year, averaging 5.3 points an outing.

“We played a whole bunch of games this summer,” Leonard said. “We probably won 50 percent of the games we played. We played some tough teams.”

Leonard talked about two of those games against Merrillville.

“Merrillville is a good team,” he said. “They beat us both times but one of the games was an overtime war.”

“We played North Central and Lawrence North, many of the top teams in this area of the state.”

Along with Dollison and Wolter, there are other seniors who saw solid varsity action last year. Shawn Moore (6-5) played in 21 games. Tyler Wolfe (a guard) saw action in 17 games. Shawn Taylor (6-5) played in 23 games.

Somewhat of a surprise for Leonard this summer has been junior guard Reid Stephens. As a sophomore, Stephens saw action in 22 varsity games and averaged 2.8 points.

“Stephens is one of those guys who is everywhere,” said Leonard. “He’s only 5-8, but he is everywhere on the court.”

Fishers’ summer high school play is done for the year, but some of the players will go on to AAU play and will get looks from college scouts through July. It will be interesting to see the looks Dollison and Wolter will get.

Fishers’ Cameron Wolter averaged 12.3 points and 5.2 rebounds for the Tigers last season. Wolter and fellow senior-to-be Lance Dollison will be two of the top returners for Fishers this winter.

Seniors stepping up for GC in the summer

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor
The Guerin Catholic girls basketball team has two things going for it as it begins the 2015-16 school year: Senior leadership and senior talent.

There are four seniors coming back for the Golden Eagles, which will be key as they prepare for what will be their toughest season yet.

That class includes GC's leading scorer Sarah Yount, who averaged 12.8 points per game and drained 55 3-pointers last year. Another senior-to-be, Annemarie Augustinovicz, was a force on the boards with 5.6 rebounds per game. Tori Sullivan and Abigail Wampler are the other seniors back, and they have also made contributions.

Guerin coach Scott Miller said that Augustinovicz has give the team "incredible leadership" over the summer.

"She has been a senior that has been at everything this summer," said Miller. "She and Tori Sullivan were both healthy throughout the year last year."

There will be a large junior contingent for the Golden Eagles, many of whom saw some varsity time last season as sophomores. Returners are Grace Demas, Erin Fuller, Becca Philip, Kate Anderson, Mauray Murphy, Julie Gallina and Sarah Eberhart. Miller said that almost all of those players were on junior varsity "for at least parts of last year," although Demas primarily played varsity.

Guerin Catholic played in two tournaments in June, and will be participating in another on in July. The first was an Area Youth Basketball Tournament event in Plymouth, followed by some play at the D-I Basketball Tournament at Fort Wayne's Spiece Center. The Golden Eagles will be heading back to Fort Wayne for another AYBT event, a national tournament that is scheduled for July 19-22.

Miller said that playing at those camps has "definitely shown us that we've got a ton of work to do" for GC to get where it needs to be.

"We still have a lot of room to grow," said the coach. He noted that his team might have moved from a 2 to a 6, but pointed out that the Golden Eagles need to get to "a 9 or a 10" in order to compete this season.

That's because Guerin will be playing a much more difficult slate of opponents. Miller said his team's schedule has been loaded up with several new Class 4A schools, including Bloomington North, Decatur Central and Warren Central. This is all in preparation for a Class 3A sectional that includes such strong teams as Hamilton Heights and Tipton, along with Heritage Christian, which moves up to 3A after years of dominating in 2A. Heritage won back-to-back 2A state championships, and jumped up in class due to the success factor.

Once healthy, young Huskies will be good

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor
If it weren't for injuries, the Hamilton Heights girls basketball team would be in a pretty good place this summer.

The Huskies have almost everyone back from the previous season, with Caitlyn Hays the only graduate. And Heights still trends to the young side, as there are three seniors and a nice number of juniors and sophomores.

Unfortunately, injuries are limiting summer court time for some of these young-but-experienced Huskies. Heights assistant coach Dawn Runner said that junior Taylor Boyd was having her ACL operated on Thursday and isn't expected back until late in the season. Sophomore Lexi Branham, the team's starting point guard, is also injured.

Nevertheless, Runner is happy with how the summer is progressing for the young Huskies.

"It'll still be a young squad, but it's another year older, another year more mature," said Runner. Many of the players on the team got varsity experience, and Runner said they are "coming in with a more mature mindest and understanding of the game."

Heights participated in events such as the All Star Shootout, played three games at IPFW, followed by several games at the D-I camp.

"I think we ended up 10-7 in the month of June," said Runner.

In addition, the junior varsity won a tournament at the D-I camp, which made the coach happy.

"We did all that without Lexi Branham and Taylor Boyd, so those are a lot of kids playing in positions they're not used to playing," said Runner. "I'm pretty pleased with how the month of June went. Hopefully we'll get everybody back and healthy. That'll be a good indication of things to come."

Heights will return its leading scorer, Kayla Kirtley, who averaged 12.3 points per game as a freshman. Boyd was one of the county's top rebounders, pulling down 6.4 boards per game.

Seniors returning are Bri Henson, Logan Wiley and Amy Griffey, with juniors Audrie Catron, Ashton Runner, Claire Schildmeier and AireAnna Stretch joining Boyd. Ana Collar is another sophomore-to-be, along with Emma Knowles and Brooke Pennington coming up from JV.

The Huskies will be moved over to a new sectional this year, joining fellow county school Guerin Catholic, longtime rival Tipton, and Heritage Christian, which moves up to Class 3A after dominating 2A for the better part of a decade. Heritage's back-to-back 2A titles move it up due to the success factor.

Triple-A Indians’ Clayton Richard acquired by Cubs

Indianapolis Indians pitcher Clayton Richard has been acquired by the Chicago Cubs. Richard went 4-2 in nine starts for the Indians with a 2.09 earned-run average and 25 strikeouts.

Clayton Richard has been acquired outright from the Triple-A Indianapolis Indians by the Chicago Cubs. The Lafayette, Indiana native originally signed a minor league deal with the Pittsburgh Pirates this December, and as part of that contract, an "upward mobility" clause triggered Tuesday to open a 72-hour window in which the Pirates must make him available to the other 29 teams in Major League Baseball.

If any team agreed to put Richard on a big league roster, he was to be either promoted to Pittsburgh or traded to the interested team.

Richard will start tomorrow for Chicago at Wrigley Field against the Miami Marlins, per Cubs beat reporter Carrie Muskat.

Richard went 4-2 with a 2.09 ERA (13 ER in 56.0 IP) and 25 strikeouts in nine starts with the Indians prior to his scratch from tonight’s start. He began his Triple-A stint with a 4.02 ERA over his first three outings, before going 3-1 and ranking fourth in the International League with a 1.34 ERA through his final six starts, beginning May 29. He worked an impressive stretch of 28 2/3 consecutive innings with no earned runs during that six-game span.

The former Indiana Mr. Football and Baseball pitched professionally in his hometown for the first time of his career when the Indians hosted Pawtucket on May 18. His guest list for that outing featured more than 100 friends and family at Victory Field, including his former coaches from McCutcheon High School.

Last Sunday (June 28), Richard made his final appearance at Victory Field, tossing seven innings of one-run ball and retiring 19 of the last 20 batters faced in a win against Syracuse. He concluded his Indians stint unbeaten in five total home starts with a 2-0 record and 1.64 ERA while pitching in downtown Indianapolis.

Right-hander Chris Volstad has been outrighted by the Pirates to fill Richard’s roster slot and make tonight’s spot start in Toledo.

2-out rally spells difference in 4-1 loss to Toledo

Indians (49-33) righty Chris Volstad (5-3) made the start and took the loss in place of late-scratch Clayton Richard – who was acquired by the Chicago Cubs just prior to tonight’s game – yielding a two-out triple to Mike Hessman that sent the Mud Hens (36-45) to a 4-1 victory on Friday at Fifth Third Field.

The Lafayette, Indiana native Richard went 3-1 and ranked fourth in the International League with a 1.34 ERA over his final six starts for the Indians. He finished unbeaten at home with a 2-0 record and 1.34 ERA when pitching at Victory Field, and will depart for a now-scheduled Cubs debut tomorrow night against the Miami Marlins at Wrigley Field.

Alen Hanson and Tony Sanchez both had two hits for the Tribe, while Brent Morel doubled to extend his hit streak to 10 games.

Willy Garcia scored the lone run on a sac fly by Keon Broxton.
