Indiana invests all $897 million in federal highway funds

As the federal government prepares to close the books on its fiscal year Sept. 30, the Indiana Department of Transportation announces it has invested all $897,920,888.32 in federal highway funds available to Indiana. Funds not assigned to projects by the end of September each year are sent back to Washington, D.C., and shared among all U.S. states and territories.

About federal highway funding

Included in the pump price for a gallon of gas are state and federal fuel taxes dedicated to transportation. While gas prices change often, the federal tax is fixed at 18.4 cents per gallon and the state tax is 18 cents per gallon. Federal fuel tax revenue goes into the Federal Highway Trust Fund, and Congress approves payments from the fund separate from the rest of the federal government. Current federal highway funding levels have been approved through Oct. 29.

At Noblesville Elevator... Commissioners say “no” to HAND

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Sometimes you win a few. Sometimes you lose a few. And, there are times you’re not sure of winning or losing.

So it has been early this week for HAND and for local businessman Rocky Shanehasz for control of the Noblesville Grain Elevator property located on the north side of Walnut Street between 8th and 9th Streets..

On Monday evening, HAND appeared in front of the Hamilton County Commissioners, requesting:

- *Asking that the Commissioners pledge $225,000 of CDBG funding (federal grant money that the Commissioners control)
- from its existing housing budget towards the Noblesville Granary. These funds will go towards the acquisition of the property because of funding restrictions of CDBG funds.
- *Asking the Commissioners to pledge $250,000 towards the Noblesville Granary

Pleasant Street 14-day road closure to begin Monday

The City of Noblesville is preparing for the third step in Phase I of the Presley Boulevard extension. As a result of this work, a 14-day full closure beginning on or after Monday, Oct. 5 will take place on Pleasant Street for construction of the south half of the roundabout from Mercantile Boulevard to Union Chapel Road. The detour route utilizes Mercantile Boulevard to Town & Country Boulevard to Union Chapel Road.

“The project is moving along nicely and we’re doing everything we can to limit the effect on residents and businesses. This phase has the most impact on motorists since it is a closure instead of lane restrictions but it will be completed in a short time frame. We appreciate the public’s patience as we create a portion of the new roadway,” said City Project Manager Jim Hellmann.

This is the third continuous step taking place in Phase I. The previous two have included traffic restrictions as downstream pipe connections and the north half of the roundabout was built. At a later time, Pleasant Street will have three consecutive 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. daytime closures for asphalt surface and markings.

Advance notice signs and message boards are currently posted about the up-

Newest addition to downtown Noblesville...

Riverwalk Depot to open Friday

The City of Noblesville will host the opening of Riverwalk Depot Pocket Park at 4 p.m. Friday.

Riverwalk Depot is located Just west across the railroad tracks from Bolden’s Dry Cleaners (151 N. Eighth Street) and north of the Duke Energy Eighth Street Substation in downtown Noblesville.

Riverwalk Depot, the newest addition to Downtown Noblesville’s landscape, sits perfectly tucked away as a trailhead for the intersection of the White River Greenway and the freshly minted Riverwalk. The park design also integrates art with function. It was made possible through the work of several city departments and the support of generous donations from local businesses and organizations at no additional cost to taxpayers. Using an irregular piece of vacant land, the Depot is a placemaking and beautification initiative.

“Booktoberfest” on Oct. 10...

Fishers Library to host all day author fair

Celebrate the talents of twenty-one local authors at Hamilton East Public Library’s inaugural “Booktoberfest”. On Saturday, October 10 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Fishers Library, enjoy a day filled with programs, book sales and signings, and even sweet treats from Gigi’s Cupcakes food truck.

Throughout the day, hear from three of the most successful authors in Central Indiana. Keynote speakers include Susan Crandall (10:00 a.m.), Dan Wakefield (11:00 a.m.), and Mike Mullin (2:00 p.m.). Each speaker will share their insights into the writing world and be on hand for sales and signings.

Eighteen additional authors will also be showcased as they meet the community, sign books, and discuss their experiences as well. From 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., participants will have the opportunity to meet authors Lyn Jones, Nicole Kobrowski, K.B. Laugheed, Tracy Line, Kurt Meyer, Suzanne Purewal, Denise Rezsonya, Kate SeRine, and Amy Shankland. In the afternoon, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., visit with Shannon Lee Alexander, M. Katherine Clark, Jennifer Gabou, Debra Knapp, George Kramer, Kristen Mott, Francesca Quarto, Pamela Woods-Jackson and Morgan K. Wyatt.

Don’t miss out on this exciting author fair! This special group of writers represent a wide variety of interests, genre, and age groups - promising something for everyone.

No registration is required. For more information, visit our website at hepl.lib.in.us or contact the Fishers Adult Services Department at 579-0306.

Fire Prevention Week starts with Saturday Pancake Breakfast

Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 4-10. Each October, the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) sponsors a fire prevention campaign to highlight the importance of fire safety education. That’s why the Noblesville Fire Department continues to team up with NFPA to remind residents of safety tips. This year’s Fire Prevention Week Campaign is “Hear the Beep Where You Sleep: Every Bedroom Needs a Working Smoke Detector”.

The Noblesville Fire Department kicks off Fire Prevention Week with an (All You Can Eat) Pancake Breakfast from 7 a.m. to noon Saturday. The event is held at the downtown Noblesville Fire Department located at 135 S. 9th St. This year’s event is sponsored by Noblesville Fire Department, Hare Chevrolet, Teacher’s Credit Union, Stanz Food Services and Noblesville Main Street.

Furthermore, October is also Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The Noblesville Fire Department and the NFD Auxiliary would like to announce that proceeds from the NFD t-shirt sales will go to the Megan S. Ott Foundation. Megan S. Ott, who attended Noblesville High School, lost her battle with Breast Cancer in 2010 at the age of 34. The Megan S. Ott Foundation helps families who are coping with the devastating effects of breast cancer.

The Noblesville Fire Department encourages all citizens to perform a fire inspection of their homes. Be sure your home, or rental property, is equipped with working smoke detectors on each level, or have your property monitored by a fire protection system. By equipping your home or rental property with an early notification device and paying attention to potential fire hazards in your home, you can make a difference that will last a lifetime and reduce injuries, deaths and property loss.

The Noblesville Fire Department’s first line of defense against fire loss and other public risk is through our Fire Prevention Programs. We strongly believe prevention of fires is far more cost effective and beneficial to our citizens than suppression efforts after a fire occurs.

So, come on out Saturday and enjoy the pancakes, fire trucks, a fire safety trailer, learn about smoke detectors and early notification systems for the deaf or hard-of-hearing, Project Lifesaver, and much more.

Forum in Fishers to host Hair Ball

The 11th annual Hair Ball to benefit Spay-Neuter Services of Indiana (SNSI), presented by Petco Foundation, will be held from 6 to 11 p.m. Saturday at the Forum Conference Center in Fishers.

“This year’s Hair Ball promises to be a fantastic event that animal lovers from all over the area won’t want to miss,” said SNSI Board President and Hair Ball co-founder Cheri Storms. “The Hair Ball is SNSI’s signature fundraiser and this year’s Hair Ball is being billed as a beatnik hootenanny. Attendees are invited to dress up in their best beatnik fashions or to come as is.” “As always, we will have a selection of great silent and live auction items that we have become known for as well as a live band, and complimentary food, beer, and wine,” Storms said.

“With the support from Hair Ball attendees over the last several years and sales of the Pet Friendly license plate, we have been able to expand our services statewide and grow our impact on the pet overpopulation issue in Indiana,” Storms continued. “Last year alone, we were able to fund more than 9,200 spay/neuter surgeries for limited-income individuals and rescue groups across the state.”

Tickets for the 2015 Hair Ball, which will feature music by Fernando Tarango & the Wickersham Brothers and a signature Hair Ball beer from Sun King Brewing, are available for $50 each at www.indyhairball.org.

coming closure. Access will be maintained to all homes and businesses throughout the construction process.

Presley Boulevard will run parallel to Ind. 37. It will connect Pleasant Street to Ind. 32 with roundabouts at each end when completed in 2016. The first phase is expected to cost $2,150,000. The second phase is the roundabout at Ind. 32, which will be overseen by the Indiana Dept. of Transportation. Hellmann said that project is expected to go out for bid in November with construction in late spring 2016.

“We have to have the roundabout in place because Pleasant Street will be a detour route when the state is working on the other roundabout,” Hellmann said.

For questions about the project, contact Jim Hellmann at jhellmann@noblesville.in.us or 776-6330.

The Federal Highway Trust Fund typically reimburses 80 percent of construction project costs and requires 20 percent state or local matching funds. The Federal Highway Administration will reimburse up to 90 percent federal funds on safety or interstate highway projects.

Federal funds for local projects

INDOT makes a quarter of its federal highway funds available for local construction projects. The Metropolitan Planning Organizations decide which local projects are funded in urban areas, and INDOT distributes funds for the rural areas.

The local communities or their consultants design the projects, purchase the land, and pay the required 20 percent match. INDOT then bids the projects and oversees them to ensure compliance with federal rules.

and 300,000 towards Blackhawk Commons (the old Sheridan high school) for the provision of quality affordable housing, preservation of historic properties, and the economic development of two distressed areas. We ask for these funds to be available upon the receipt of a tax credit reservation on or around Feb. 25, 2016. HAND will record a covenant on the property assuring the County that these developments achieve their expected aims. If not delivered, and maintained for 20 years, HAND will repay the County the $555,000 in full.

The Commissioners said yes to the CD-BG $225,000.

The Commissioners said yes to the $300,000 funding from the general fund to the Blackhawks Common project.

The Commissioners said no to the $250,000 request for the Noblesville Granary project.

The basic reason for the no given to the Noblesville Granary project was that in doing so the Commissioners would be giving money for funding of a project that a local businessman, Shanehasz, also is attempting to develop.

HAND would like to build apartments and retail stores on the land. Shanehasz, who owns the Model Mill just across the street from the property in question, would like to expand his business with a facility for outdoor wedding and additional parking.

The property still is owned by North Central Co-Op.

Shanehasz claims since 2004 he has been negotiating with the company for the purchase of the Grain Elevator.

HAND says it has a written document to purchase the land, once funding is in place.

HAND and Shanehasz Tuesday evening moved to the Noblesville Common Council meeting. Neither was allowed to speak about their projects while the Council considered an ordinance for a change of zoning from “12” Heavy Industrial to “DT Downtown”.

That request passed on first reading and will be voted on at the next Council meeting.

HAND has planned additional meetings, including a public meeting this Thursday, Oct. 1, concerning the Noblesville Granary at the Noblesville Township Trustee Community Center at 5 p.m.

HAND also will meet with the Sheridan Plan Commi9ssoner on Oct 6 at 5 p.m.; at the Hamilton County Council Meeting on Oct 7 at 7 p.m.; at the Sheridan Town Council meeting for a rezoning request on Oct 8 at 7 p.m.; and then a return trip to the Noblesville City Council on Oct. 13 at 7 p.m.

News: Hamilton County United Fund Officials today again urged wage earners who reside in Hamilton County, but work in the adjoining counties to make certain any money given to the United Fund be earmarked for deposit within the home fund. Officials say this is arranged simply by writing the name of the home county (Hamilton) on the reverse side of the individual United Fund registration card.

Sports: It never rains, but it poured and this September has proved to be more like April. Coach Bill Nevitt, head boss-man of the Noblesville Millers, isn't so much concerned about the weather as he is about his high school gridders who will try to bounce back from last year's Central.

Westfield out to recover...

'Rocks face tough Avon

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor
Westfield football coach Jake Gilbert said his Shamrocks "got killed" last week in a 59-30 Hoosier Crossroads Conference loss to Brownsburg.

And, the coach adds that the same thing could happen this Friday when Westfield travels to Avon unless the Shamrocks turn things around.

"We got killed," Gilbert looks back a week. "We won the special teams battle, but nothing else. Our defense got torched and couldn't force a takeaway. Our offense wasn't nearly good enough and struggled to find an identity."

Now, this Friday, it's off to Avon. The Orioles are 4-2 overall and 2-1 in the conference. They have won three straight, including HCC wins over Brownsburg 56-21 and Fishers 36-14. That's the same Brownsburg team which last week belted Westfield 59-30.

Plus, more bad news for Westfield, Avon has handled the Shamrocks four times in their last five games, including a 23-6 Oriole victory last season.

"Avon looks amazing on the film," said Gilbert. "It doesn't get any easier this week. Another big time D1 quarterback. We will have our hands full stopping them."

The quarterback is Michigan recruit Brandon Peters who has hit on 108-of-169 passes for 1602 yards. He has tossed for 21 touchdowns and has been intercepted just one time. His leading receivers are Andrew Griffin with 43 catches for 726 yards and Matt Moore with 35 receptions for 381 yards.

Avon can also run the football. Corey Dupriest has carried 68 times for 344 yards and Darian Love 53 times for 293 yards.

Avon's only losses were a 49-42 non-conference game to Ben Davis and 21-18 HCC loss to league-leading Southeastern. Westfield also has lost to Southeastern, 34-18.

"Defensively, they are aggressive, fast and talented," Gilbert said "Points will be hard to come by. They make you earn every single yard."

Westfield has some offensive muscle to throw at the Orioles Quarterback Ryan Pepiot is 122-of-205 through the air for 1297 yards. He has fired for five touchdowns and has been intercepted five times. Evan Manley has 32 catches for 433 yards; Max McCool 31 catches for 299 yards and Lucas Schultz 22 receptions for 241 yards.

On the ground for the Shamrocks, Brandon Karsnick has carried 87 times for 392 yards and Pepiot 81 times for 377 yards.

Volleyball...

Millers, Huskies double up for wins

The Noblesville volleyball team picked up two straight-set wins this week.

On Monday, the Millers defeated Lawrence Central 25-17, 25-20, 25-15. Josie Sanders hit 12 kills, while senior Delaney Kluger hit 11. Kluger had a great Senior Night, hitting those 11 kills on .500 hitting efficiency. She also had three digs, one ace and one solo block.

Allie Phillips handed out 33 assists. Sanders also made 11 digs and served four aces.

On Tuesday, Noblesville defeated Guerin Catholic in an all-county match. Sanders hit 13 kills, with Ashley Birkhimer putting down 12. Kluger and Victoria Dittmar both had eight.

Phillips handed out 34 assists and also served four aces. Stephanie Meysembourg had 14 digs.

Hamilton Heights also got two early-week wins, first defeating Seecina in four sets on Monday 25-16, 23-25, 25-10, 25-23.

Sarah Sipe blasted 19 kills and had 21 digs. Kenna Burman put down 12 kills, made 10 digs and served three aces.

Ana Collar hit nine kills, with Ashlyn Bedwell dishing out 23 assists.

The Huskies' junior varsity won 25-19, 25-16.

On Tuesday, Heights won a tough match over Heritage Christian 25-27, 25-16, 23-25, 25-21, 15-6. Sipe smacked 21 kills, and also had 18 digs and two aces. Burman had 23 digs, 12 kills and six aces.

Shelby Hoover dished out 23 assists and served three aces. Bedwell handed out 18 assists while serving four aces. Mallory Morphew made 18 digs, and Tori Hayden hit eight kills and made three blocks.

Hamilton Southeastern, still ranked third in 4A, won another tough match on Tuesday evening against 3A No. 4 Delta 25-23, 20-25, 25-21, 23-25, 15-7. Hayden Huybers had a big night with 22 kills, including two huge serving runs that helped seal the match. Sophomore Lark Jones had her best match of the year with five kills and 4.5 blocks all at critical moments.

Outsides Caitlin Kane had 13 kills and Meredith Phillips had nine. Setter Kenzie Hinshaw led the offense with 45 assists and Olivia Burgess had 21 digs.

The Royals are ranked 15th in prepvolleyball.com's national rankings, improved to 26-2 on the season and travel to Noblesville on Thursday night.

The junior varsity Royals succumbed to a solid Delta Eagles squad Tuesday evening by the score of 25-23, 25-18, in spite of what HSE coach Jason Young called "an excellent finish."

"Maddie Carter did a superb job running the entire offense for the first time. Kat Wagner played her best defense so far this year. The outside trio of Brianna King, Taylor Shelton and Julia Patras were a thorn in the Eagle side all evening.

The JV is now 13-4.

Carmel earned its third straight program sweep on Monday, beating Metropolitan Conference opponent Pike 25-13, 25-9, 25-13.

Madeline Armstrong led the Greyhounds with seven kills, six digs, five aces and one block. Carmel is now 13-10 for the season.

The Greyhounds' junior varsity won 25-14, 25-12 and is now 14-5 for the year.

Carmel's freshman team was a 25-9, 25-7 winner, improving to 14-2 for the season.

On Tuesday, Carmel was swept by Class 4A No. 1 Cathedral 25-19, 25-17, 25-17. The Irish also won the JV match 25-12, 25-19 and the freshman match 25-16, 25-19.

Fishers was swept by Mount Vernon Tuesday, 25-11, 25-17, 25-21.

The Marauders played strong defense throughout the match leading to frustration from the Tiger attackers. Fishers was routed in the first set 25-11.

The second set saw the Tigers look a bit crisper and more engaged in the match. Outside attackers Disney Stallworth, a senior, and Maggie Markwood, a junior, each registered three kills each during the second set. As Fishers looked to get a grasp on their offense and tie the score up, missed serves and aggressive defense helped the Marauders go on a six-point run to finish the second set by a score of 25-17.

The third set featured many of the same mistakes that plagued the Tigers in the first two sets, ultimately leading to a final score of 17-25 in favor of the Marauders. Sophomore Mallory Hernandez was shuffled around a little bit tonight between the middle and outside hitting positions. She responded with 7 kills to go along with a .222 hitting percentage. Markwood led the team with 10 kills while sporting a hitting percentage of .214.

Carmel girls soccer beats Westfield

Carmel, the top-ranked girls soccer team in Class 2A, beat Westfield 2-0 Monday in a preview for next week's sectional game.

Macy Miller scored both of the Greyhounds' goals, with assists coming from Emily Roberts and Katie Soderstrom.

Hamilton Southeastern tied with Marion 2-2 on Monday.

The Class 2A No. 4 Royals scored both goals and earned player of the game honors. Brooke Barnes and Sam McKenzie each had one assist.

Southeastern hosts 2A No. 3 Noblesville tonight in a game that will decide the Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship.

University fell to Triton Central 4-3 on Tuesday.

Kelsey Miller scored all three goals, with Jordan Palmer making one assist.
