Partnership for a Healthy Hamilton County presents...

Tobacco prevention and cessation overview

Partnership for a Healthy Hamilton County presented information about its management of a countywide Tobacco Prevention and Cessation grant to the Hamilton County All-trustees Meeting Wednesday, Oct. 14, at the Noblesville Community Center. The presentation included an overview of Indiana State Department of Health tobacco prevention and cessation priorities, how they relate to community indicators and PHHC's work plan objectives to fulfill grant requirements (<http://www.in.gov/isdh/tpc/>).

"It was a terrific opportunity to meet and present to Hamilton County's trustees," said Holly Wheeler, PHHC assistant director and Hamilton County TPC interim coordinator. "The trustees are vital to working with residents and assisting them in times of crisis. They have a unique perspective as far as the health needs of those they serve. PHHC was honored to be included in the meeting."

Attendees included trustees John Patrick, Sheridan; Danielle Carey Tolan, Washington; Debra Driskell, Delaware; Jeff Hern, Fall Creek; Jamie Rulon, White River; Diane Crim, Wayne; and Douglas Callahan, Clay; Glen Schwartz represented Chris Miller of Jackson. Tom Kenley, Noblesville trustee, hosted the meeting. Other attendees included Judge Steve Nation, Steve Dillinger and Christine Altman, county commissioners; Steve Schwartz, county counselor; Kevin Jowitt, Noblesville chief of police; Rick Taylor, Noblesville city councilor; Peggy Pfister, Joe Arrowood and Terry Busby, Noblesville Township Board members; and Kathy Richardson, state senator, Noblesville, District 29, who also addressed the audience. Susan Ferguson of Prevail, Jim McGee of Good Samaritan Network and Lauri Schwartz of Keep Noblesville Beautiful represented their organizations.

"It was a positive meeting," Kenley said. "As the first year of my first term as trustee I wanted to invite a good representation of local politicians and not-for-profits from across the county to promote commu-

The County Line...

Pat Reed was a true gentleman

By FRED SWIFT

For nearly half a century Pat Reed has treated public service in Noblesville as his calling. Pat died Monday in his home on Roosevelt Drive at the age of 87. He was a true gentleman of the type we need so much and is so hard to replace.

I met Pat 40 years ago when he was elected to the Noblesville City Council. He was later a member of the Plan Commission and then a member of the Park Board for 25 years. He was also involved in Boy Scouts, a member of the Noblesville Elks Lodge and an avid golfer.

Pat was a native of Noblesville, the son of Frank and Helen Reed. A graduate of Noblesville High School, he attended Butler University where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta. He was employed in management at Firestone Industrial Products for more than 30 years and also a realtor in Hamilton County most of his adult life.

Pat and his late wife, Jean, were the parents of Mike Reed, Cicero and Melinda Reed Utken, Carmel. Two grandchildren and a sister also survive. No services are planned at this time. Burial arrangements are being handled by Randall and Roberts Funeral Home. Burial will be in Crownland Cemetery.

Mayor John Ditslear spoke highly of Pat in a statement Tuesday, saying he was "an engaged public servant who gave back to the community. His passion, knowledge and love of Noblesville made him an invaluable asset to this city."

How true.

Pilgrimage of Mercy comes to Westfield

Hundreds of people made their way to St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church in Westfield Tuesday as the Pilgrimage of Mercy made a stop there. The Pilgrimage is a tour of the church's namesake, St. Maria Goretti, whose relics are touring the United States. St. Maria is the patron saint of youth, young women, purity and victims of rape. She was attacked and murdered at the age of 11, but in her last words said that she forgave her killer.

Hamilton County football fans will have an opportunity to watch former Carmel and former Noblesville coach Kevin Wright on the gridiron this Friday evening

Wright and his IMG Academy squad out of Bradenton, Florida will take on Paramus Catholic of New Jersey on ESPN2 at 7 p.m.

"It's going to be a big game," Wright, a Sheridan graduate, told the Hamilton County Reporter Wednesday in an exclusive telephone interview. "We just found out today that University of Michigan coach Jim Harbaugh will attend the game. Also planning to attend is Notre Dame coach Brian Kelly."

Fire damages home at 146th and Olio

A passing motorist helped to alert three people from a residential fire at 146th Street and Olio Road Wednesday afternoon.

At approximately 1:45 p.m., Lynn Boram, Noblesville, was traveling on Olio Road when he saw a working fire behind the residence at that intersection. Mr. Boram, and other passers-by quickly alerted the occupants inside the home at 14598 Olio Road that their attached two car garage was on fire. The three occupants inside the home made it outside safely.

Noblesville Fire Department fire suppression crews arrived on the scene at 1:51 p.m. with smoke and flames showing from the garage. The initial attack on the fire had the incident under control at 2:20 p.m.

The fire originated outside the structure in a trash can that was up against the exterior of the garage. There are no injuries to report. The garage structure, contents, as well as the two vehicles parked inside the garage have sustained major damage. The interior of the structure has no fire damage. The estimated damage caused by the fire is approximately $70,000.

Wright’s IMG squad is ranked No. 6 nationally. IMG will take a 6-0 record into the contest.

Paramus, the two-time defending New Jersey state champion, has lost a couple of games this season but still is ranked in the top 10 nationally.

“They have the No. 1 ranked player in the nation,” said Wright. “He’s a 6-5, 311-pound defending end.”

Wright said he and his family are enjoying the Bradenton area and Kevin is enjoying coaching at IMG Academy.

“It’s a great place to live. We have a 500-acre campus which is located just six miles from the Gulf of Mexico,” Wright said.

Wright’s team is made up of 52 percent players from the United States and 48 percent from other countries.

Wheeler offered the Indiana Quitline, 1-800-QuitNow, as a resource for trustees to offer the individuals and families they serve. The free phone-based service includes trained cessation counselors, nicotine replacement, specialized programs for youth and pregnant women and web and text cessation services. Since trustees provide monetary assistance, recommending eliminating smoking during income and spending assessments is a way to help their clients’ physical and financial health.

“The Quitline is a program that’s free, confidential and can be supplemented by other, in person, cessation programs available in the community,” she said. Further information about the service can be found at www.indianaquitline.net.

The Partnership for a Healthy Hamilton County was created to respond to the county’s primary health needs as identified by a Community Health Needs Assessment, an Internal Revenue Service requirement for not-for-profit hospitals (cdc.gov/policy/chna/). Community Health Network, IU Health, St. Vincent Health and Franciscan St. Francis Health collaborated to complete the assessment, which included resident surveys and data collection that measured the effectiveness of current programs and determined outreach to address shortfalls. Aspire Indiana of Carmel and Noblesville, the Hamilton County Youth Assistance Program, the YMCA of Greater Indianapolis, Westlink Consulting and Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County also are represented on the partnership’s council.

U.S. 421/SR 32 roundabout closing for repairs Nov. 2

U.S. 421 and State Road 32 will close at the new roundabout for 2-3 weeks, weather permitting, beginning Monday, Nov. 2. Crews with Calumet Civil Contractors of Whitestown will be repairing the mountable curb on the roundabout's center island.

The new roundabout is designed to allow the rear tires of tractor trailers to mount the curb and use a concrete truck apron. Indiana Department of Transportation staff inspected the construction and found the new mountable curb was taller than was called for in the design plans.

After the new mountable curbs are poured, the roundabout will remain closed with no workers on site while the concrete cures.

The detour for U.S. 421 traffic follows I-465, I-865, I-65 and State Road 47. The detour for S.R. 32 follows I-65, S.R. 47, S.R. 48 and U.S. 31.

Updated information and a map of the closure are available on the Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) TrafficWise service at indot.carsprogram.org. Roadway information is also available by calling 1-800-261-ROAD (7623) or 511 from a mobile phone.

Crawfordsville is no cupcake...

Feltz will start at QB

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

High school football, played by 14-15-16-17 year old young people, isn't always what it seems to be.

Take, for example, Hamilton Heights' Class 3A, Sectional 28 opener this Friday at Crawfordsville.

Crawfordsville's record, for example, may not look all that good. But, on paper the Athenians have put some numbers into the book this season.

The Athenians are 3-6. One of those wins was a 29-7 victory over Class 2A Cascade. Another was a 34-31 victory over 2A Southmont. The third was a forfeit awarded to Crawfordsville by Lebanon after the Tigers won 51-0 on the field.

Crawfordsville's losses have been to West Vigo 46-26 Western Boone 49-20, Frankfort 58-22, North Montgomery 73-20, Tri-West 56-21 and Danville 55-0.

But, on paper, Crawfordsville has a quarterback who has tossed for 1,438 yards and 14 touchdowns. Trent Johnson is 115-of-173 through the air. He has been intercepted just five times. Johnson also has rushed for 262 yards in 102 trips. He is second in rushing to Cage Godell who in 70 carries has gained 339 yards. Johnson has two outstanding receivers in Daulton Bridgewater with 33 receptions for 346 yards and Tyler Blyeu with 43 catches for 570 yards.

Take, for example, Hamilton Heights. The Huskies are 6-3 and have won three of its last four games. But, at Crawfordsville, Coach Mitch Street's club will play without injured starting quarterback Ethan Jones. For a second time this season Jones went down after being injured in the second quarter of Heights' 37-22 win last Friday at Northwestern.

Josh Feltz will start as quarterback for the Hamilton Heights football team when it travels to Crawfordsville for first-round sectional play on Friday.

White 19 for 180, and Caymn Lutz 18 receptions for 206 yards.

On the ground, it's no question who will have the ball. Junior Clayton Cowan has carried 205 times for 1,099 yards.

"Cowan is a north/south runner," said Street. "He is big time when he carries the ball

"We've been playing well," Street continued. "But, we still haven't yet played a complete game. We're starting to finish drives, and last week we took care of business. We finished drives.

"This is one of toughest sectionals in the state to win," Street added.

Mudsock 2....

This one for “keeps”

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

At playoff time coaches who are faced with having to do so always talk about how tough it is to defeat an opponent two times in one season.

With the Hamilton Southeastern-Fishers series, it's a 50-50 toss up.

Four times in the last five years the Royals and the Tigers have played Mudsock 2. They'll do it again Friday at Reynolds Tiger Stadium. The winner will advance to the Class 6A, Sectional 4 championship game, facing the winner of another first round matchup between Noblesville and Carmel.

There have been just two sweeps in the series. Fishers did it in 2014 and Southeastern did it in 2011. In 2012, Southeastern won the regular season game and Fishers won the sectional tilt. In 2010, Southeastern also won the regular season game and Fishers won the sectional matchup.

This season in a game also played at Fishers, Hamilton Southeastern stormed from behind in the second half to post a 39-33 win. Coach Scott May's Royals went on to an 8-1 regular season and finished undefeated in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference. Coach Rick Wimmer's Tigers finished 6-3, winning their last two games.

Little that happened during the regular season would lend a clue to the outcome of the sectional game. Playing basically the same opponents, Southeastern scored at a 28.3 clip and allowed 19.4 points a game. Fishers averaged 28.1 on offense and 21.8 on defense.

"HSE is a great team that has played with tremendous confidence and resolve this season," said Wimmer. "Offensively they have several weapons that can strike quickly. Aaron Matio, Carter Poiry and Greg Miller are certainly playmakers who can break a game open quickly. Defensively, we must play the run much better than we did in our previous meeting and not allow big play in the passing game. Offensively, we must protect the football and move the chains with a balanced attack. They have the best defensive lineman we have played against in Collin Miller and a defense that has played pretty well of late. Our offensively efficiency and productivity will need to be very good for us to come out on top.

"We must play four quarters," Wimmer added.

Fishers has a balanced attack. Quarterback Zach Eaton is 106-for-196 through the air for 1,462 yards and 12 touchdowns. He has been intercepted just two times. His top receivers are Kade Orris with 30 receptions for 461 yards; Keyshaw Burrell with 21 catches for 336 and DeVonte Adams with 21 for 258. It is reported that Burrell will be back this week after missing three games.

On the ground, Wimmer has a three-headed monster running the pigskin. Jermaine Huddleston has carried 95 times for 527 yards; Trevor Newman 83 times for 474 yards and Jeremy Chinn with 72 trips for 454 yards.

"We are the healthiest we have been since Week 3 and have been playing much better the last couple of weeks after a rough four-week stretch against some very good teams," said Wimmer. "We are certainly playing with more confidence and believe we are ready for he challenges this week's opponent brings."

"Fishers is a good team and I am sure they feel like they should have beat us the first time," said May. "We are going to have to go out and play four quarters to win this game. Practice this week has been good and the kids are business-like about this game. I know this team believes they are going to win games and will be ready. We always talk about playing through highs and lows. This group has done just that in big games."

Southeastern's offense is led by three terrific football players. Poiry is 123-of-207 for 1,928 yards and 12 touchdowns. He has been intercepted just five times. Greg Miller has caught 47 passes for 713 yards. Matio is a double threat. He has carried the pigskin 85 for 578 yards and has caught 31 passes for 613 yards.

"Overall," continued May, "I feel like we are playing well. For the most part we are healthy and that is a big deal this time of the year. When I think about what would I change right now, I wouldn't change much of anything. We just have to keep spreading the ball around to Matio, Miller, (Curtis) Goss, (David) Tsetse, (Matt) Klink, (Max) Brooks, (Will) Coudret and (Carter) Lohman. I'm sure I am missing someone; we have had a lot of guys making plays on offense and found ways to get the ball to them. Coach (Toby) Jacobs and the offensive staff have done a great job with a new offense this season.

Fishers center Jeremy Chinn (22) and Hamilton Southeastern left tackle Collin Miller are probable starters for Friday's sectional semi-final, another Mudsock showdown between the Tigers and the Royals.

"No one picked us to win the conference. I am very proud of this group and especially our seniors. They really have done a great job after struggling last year. They have been great leaders. Collin Miller has been a big part of that. When you have guys that put the team before themselves and make players around them better, good things will happen," May concluded.

Mets win NLCS, Toronto forces ALCS Game 6

It looked as if the National League Championship Series would be a battle between the New York Mets' strong pitchers and the Chicago Cubs' big hitters.

Four games later, the Mets have proved that they're pretty good at hitting, too.

And four games are all New York needed to sweep the Cubs and advance to its first World Series since 2000. The Mets clinched the NLCS by beating Chicago 8-3

Wednesday at Wrigley Field in Game 4 of the series.

Four was indeed the magic number for New York. The Mets blasted onto the scoreboard in the top of the first with four innings, most of which came off the bat of Lucas Duda, who smashed a three-run home run to get the Mets on the board. Travis d'Arnaud joined the homer parade later in the inning, with a solo blast to make the score 4-0.

New York added two more runs in the second innings, and another two in the eighth from Daniel Murphy. The second baseman stretched his remarkable home run streak to six consecutive games with a two-run homer. That helped the Mets hold off a two-run inning for the Cubs in the bottom of the eighth; Kris Bryant provided the scoring with a home run that scored two.

Murphy was 4-for-5 in Game 4, with Duda batting 3-for-4. Wilmer Flores also had two hits. Bartolo Colon got the pitching win.

The Cubs ended their most successful season in years, winning 97 games and advancing to the NLCS for the first time since 2003.

The Mets will have to wait a few days to find out who their World Series opponent will be. Earlier on Wednesday in the American League Championship Series, the Toronto Blue Jays beat the Kansas City Royals 7-1 to force a Game 6 and move the series back to Kansas City. The Royals lead the series 3-2. Game 6 is scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday.

Toronto blew the game open with four runs in the sixth inning. Jose Bautista and Troy Tulowitzki both had two hits, while Chris Colabello hit a second-inning home run. Marco Estrada went seven-and-two-thirds innings for the win.

Salvador Perez hit an eighth-inning home run for the Royals.
