Riverview Health receives 2015 Business of the Year Award

Riverview Health was recently chosen as the recipient of the Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce Business of the Year Award. The award was presented at the Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce (NHCCC) Dinner and Casino Night on Oct. 14.

"Riverview Health was named as the Northern Hamilton County Chamber's Business of the Year to recognize the organization's commitment not only to the health needs of the county's residents, but also its commitment to the economic vitality of the communities it serves," said Jane Hunter, Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce executive director. "Riverview supports different initiatives in the Sheridan, Cicero, Arcadia and Atlanta communities with presence at events and financial support. The Chamber particularly appreciates the guidance Riverview Health offers in terms of board volunteerism."

All NHCCC members were given the opportunity to nominate businesses for the award. The nominees are then reviewed by the members of the NHC-CC executive board and selected based on certain criteria.

In July 2015, the Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce and Sheridan Chamber of Commerce merged to create Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce. This is the first year the newly created chamber has given this award.

Best value for Hoosier taxpayers

The IFA and Indiana Department of Transportation sought the proposal that would deliver the best value to Hoosier taxpayers. Design-build teams submitted competing bids that were compared to determine which would accomplish the most within an $85 million budget.

The IFA and INDOT reviewed and scored proposals from three short-listed Milestone Contractors of Columbus design-build teams using criteria described in the request for proposals. The Milestone proposal scored highest for its detailed project management, traffic and public involvement plans. An extended design

INDOT asks motorists to...

Report signal, school zone flasher timing errors; overhead lighting outages

The Indiana Department of Transportation asks Hoosier motorists to report signal timings and school-zone flashers that did not change over automatically with daylight saving time on Sunday, Nov. 1. In addition, motorists may report overhead lighting outages above interstates, U.S. highways and state routes to INDOT's district offices around the state.

Signals and school-zone flashers

Flashers that alert motorists entering school zones and traffic signals are timed using computerized controllers. This allows traffic signals to use different patterns for periods of heavy traffic, such as the morning and evening commutes.

INDOT is now confirming that the internal clocks in traffic signals and schoolzone flashers changed over automatically. INDOT technicians may remotely access the computerized controllers within most traffic signals. INDOT crews must manually patrol and confirm timings for school-zone flashers.

Overhead lighting

Photosensors turn on most lighting above state and federal highways, and are not affected by daylight saving time. But turning the clocks back each fall changes daylight during commuting times and may make overhead-lighting outages more noticeable.

INDOT also urges commuters to be more alert when driving at night. About half of the nation's crashes occur at night even though nighttime driving makes up a quarter of the miles traveled.

Report timing errors, outages

To report an overhead-lighting outage, signal timing change or school-zone flasher that displays an hour early, contact the INDOT district office for your region. A map INDOT's districts with links to contact information is at https://entapps.indot.in.gov/dotmaps/districtmaps.

INDOT maintains numbered state routes, U.S. highways and interstates, including their intersections and interchanges.

Tigers win in overtime....

Fishers blanks LC, 10-0

They said finding points without Kara Gerka in the lineup would be tough.

And, it was.

They said winning games without Gerka would be tough.

And, it was.

But, in a Hamilton County season opener in the Tiger Den Tuesday evening, Coach Michael Gaines proved tougher the better.

Fishers scored all 10 points in an overtime thriller to knock off Lawrence A. Gerka Central 50-40.

Fishers played the game and likely will play the season, or most of it, without the injured Gerka.

The Tigers led by eight points at halftime, but Lawrence Central kept coming and coming, finally tying the count at 40-40 and forcing the overtime.

The overtime period belonged to the Tigers. Fishers scored all 10 of its overtime points from the charity and at the same time blanking Lawrence Central in the period.

Actually, there was a Gerka on the court. Sophomore Ali Gerka notched 11 points to lead her team in scoring. Also in double figures with 10 points was senior veteran Hannah Kroehler, while junior Audrey Turner added nine points.

Kroehler

Jaela Baskin, a 5-10 junior, pulled

Kroehler is a six-footer and Turner

down 10 Fishers rebounds.

Fishers will return to action on Saturday in the Hamilton Southeastern Shootout, meeting Southport in the morning round and Ben Davis at 5 p.m.

Bang, bang....

Welch, Reed 1-2 punch

By DON JELLISON

Last girls basketball season two of Hamilton County's top six scorers were a freshman and sophomore. Both from Sheridan.

Sophomore Brittany Welch led the way with a 20.2 average. Freshman Audrey Reed averaged 14.5 points a game. The only Sheridan player ever to lead Hamilton County girls basketball in scoring, Welch is back for her junior season. Reed is a sophomore.

The coach knows it, too. That's why Guenther continues to load Sheridan's schedule. Along with regular season games against 4A foes Zionsville and McCutcheon, the Lady Blackhawks will play in a Jan. 2 tournament at Plainfield, which includes 4A Plainfield and Martinsville, along with 3A Vincennes Lin-

"We will be challenged this year," said Guenther. "The schedule is very difficult. We've added Plainfield and Martinsville, giving us four 4A opponent," said the coach. "We also have three 3A opponents against Tri-West, Frankfort and Tipton.

"Hopefully, our schedule will help prepare us for the sectional, which is brutal," Guenther added.

That 2A sectional will include Frankton, Lapel, Monroe Central, Muncie Burris and Wapahani.

Guenther said he doesn't as yet have a starting lineup, although Blackhawk fans can figure on Welch and Reed and 6-2 senior forward Faith DeVaney, who last year averaged 2.8 points and 3.0 rebounds a game.

Slated to be in that lineup might have been Payton Buckner, who is sidelined with an injury. Buckner averaged 4.8 points a game while a senior last year.

"Buckner is hurt and unavailable until possibly sectional time," said Guenther.

Other spots are opened. In the hunt are senior forward Morgan Leonard, sophomore Nixon Williams, sophomore guard Cherysh Bishop, sophomore guard Izzy Mangin and freshman guard Jillian O'Flaherty. There will be a learning curve and our young kids will have to grow up quickly," Guenther said.

Sheridan will open its season on Nov. 10 at home against Speedway.

The Lady Golden Eagles have been knocking on the door for success the last few seasons. Now, said 6th year Guerin Catholic coach Scott Miller, this could be the turning point in the program.

"Our upcoming season could be a real turning point in our program," said Miller. "We have an experienced team returning. We have two things that we believe can change our program for the better.

"The first is that we are focusing on creating a culture of toughness in our players which includes physical, mental, emotional and spiritual toughness.

"Secondly, we are focusing on personal development for our players. We want them to get better in all the fundaments as well as in the mental aspects of the game to improve our team's basketball IQ. Our four seniors are all National Honor Society students and we want to leverage their brain power on the floor to allow them to be the best they can be."

Guerin returns experience players in junior Kate Anderson, senior Anna Marie Augustinovicz, junior Grace Demas, junior Becca Fillip, junior Erin Fuller, senior Tori Sullivan, senior Abbigail Wampler and senior Sarah Yount.

Yount, who missed portions of the past two seasons with injuries, last year played in 21 games and led the team in scoring with a 12.9 average. She is the best 3-point shooter in the school's history.

Another player who has battled injuries is Wampler.

"Wampler missed most of the summer and is battling to get back," said Miller. "She is our most complete player from an offensive and defensive standpoint. She did a tremendous job in our preseason scrimmage with Lawrence North. Last year she averaged 4.3 points a game"

Sullivan returns after a breakthrough season, averaging 4.7 points and 3.6 rebounds. Fuller is coming back from offseason procedure on both of her knees. Fillip brings great rebounding and toughness in the post. Demas is a very physical player. Anderson is a tenacious rebounder.

Augustinovicz last season scored at a 6.4 clip and averaged 5.6 boards a game.

"We believe this will be our deepest team in the program's history and if this team remains fully healthy and continues to improve our toughness in all areas of the game, it will make for an exciting season," Miller added.

Guerin Catholic will play in two regular season tourneys. The Eagles will join Illinois teams Casey-Westfield, Charleston, Marshall and Mount Carmel at the Nov. 24-28 Robinson Tourney. On Dec. 22, Guerin Catholic will host Elkhart Central, Broad Ripple and Park Tudor.

Greyhounds appear loaded

By DON JELLISON

Tod Windlan believes his second Carmel Lady Greyhounds team has a nice blend of experience and youth.

"We return four starters and three kids off the bench that provided good quality minutes," said the coach.

That group is led by Emily Kmec, a 6-2 senior who averaged 12.7 points a game and 6.3 rebounds a contest last season while shooting 40 percent from the 3-point range and 81 percent from the free throw line.

Then there are sophomore Amy Dilk, senior Carrie Larson and sophomore Blake Smith. Dilk scored at an 8.8 clip; Larson averaged 7.5 points and 5.0 rebounds a game and Blake tossed in 3.3 points an outing. A pair of guards who started as freshmen last season, Dilk is 5-10 and Smith

"Lipscomb University recruit Kmec has improved her overall game as well as he physical strength," said Windlan. "Dilk and Smith have each grown in height and strength and both have numerous D1 offers.

"Olivia Christy had an awesome summer and fall," Windlan continued. "She can be a valuable asset. Celene Fnke is a tough kid and a great vocal leader. Andi Kwasniewski has been a great leader, as well.

"Practices have been very competitive with numerous kids fighting for a spot.

"Sophomores Molly Gillig and Natalie Nickless have a chance to play a lot of minutes, as well as our five freshmen, 6-2 Mackenzie Wood, Madison Ferguson, Reagan Hune, Sophie Bair and Macy Berglund.

"Depth will be a strength, and being a year older and stronger from last season weights has also shown a big improvement.

"I'm excited for the season to get started and anxious to see the kids play," Windlan added.

Carmel will start on Thursday at Lawrence Central. Windlan believes the always tough Carmel schedule will be even tougher this year.

"We play one of the toughest schedules in the state, and adding Pendleton Heights, Jeffersonville and Heritage Christian will make the schedule even more difficult. I know this will help us in the state tournament. Our goal is to make a run in the tournament," Woodlan added.

Hamilton County Reporter Girls Golf Player of the Year Cailyn Henderson, Westfield

In a year full of history, new faces and young talent, Westfield's Cailyn Henderson was able to stand out from the crowd. Although just a sophomore, Henderson's consistency and leadership (and some low scores) make her this year's choice for the Hamilton County Reporter's Girls Golf Player of the Year.

Henderson began the season by shooting sevenunder par in her first three rounds, then continued to play consistently over the remainder of the season. She won the regional championship at Smock Golf Course, then placed 10th at the IHSAA State Meet at Prairie View.

Pacers beat Detroit for season's first win

New Orleans

By KYLE GRAND

Courtesy nba.com/pacers

Looking for their first win of the season, the Indiana Pacers traveled to Detroit to take on the Pistons and came out victorious, besting their Central Division foe 94-82. Indiana leaves the Motor City with a win thanks to an excellent second quarter and the play of former Piston Rodney Stuckey.

Indiana began the second quarter trailing by six, but took control of the game by starting the period with a 20-0 run. The outburst enabled Indiana to dominate the quarter 35-17, and the Pacers led 59-47 at halftime.

The second half was the "Stuckey Show." The veteran guard made big play after big play throughout the half. With 2:00 remaining in the third quarter, his three-point play pushed Indiana's lead to 20, its largest of the night. At one point in the second half, Stuckey scored 15 straight points for Indiana, single-handedly keeping the Pistons at rebounds.

"[Stuckey] showed us that he could do that last year," Pacers head coach Frank Vogel said. "Our second unit is all new this year, so we've been feeling ourselves out, but you know we've got to remind ourselves of what he's capable of doing. [It was] just a great performance and if we had that off the bench every night then it's another reason why we can be really good this year."

He finished with a team-high 23 points on 9-of-14 shooting. With Stuckey leading the way, Indiana's bench outscored Detroit's 43-2.

"Their bench had a lot more minutes than our bench, so we got to factor that in, but the 20 to nothing run was the deal in the game," Pistons head coach Stan Van Gundy said.

Indiana's offense struggled in the final quarter, scoring just nine points, but the defense held Detroit to 15. The Pistons cut the lead to 11 midway through the period, but wouldn't get any closer.

"It feels good to get off of this losing streak and build towards something positive," Pacers forward Paul George

George scored 16 to go along with nine rebounds and six assists. Monta Ellis had his best game since donning a Pacers uniform, finishing with 15 points. Finally, George Hill contributed 12 points, six assists, four steals and three Detroit's Andre Drummond was named the Eastern boards. Conference Player of the Week and continued his excellent play tonight. The big man scored 25 points on 12-of-17 shooting and grabbed 29 rebounds. Reggie Jackson scored 20 and dished out six assists and Ersan Ilyasova added 12, including two three-pointers, to support Drummond.
