Mills in Paris at time of the attacks

By FRED SWIFT
When Robin Mills gets home from visiting her daughter and son-in-law she'll have something to tell her friends. She was in Paris the night of the terrorist attacks.
Mills, Chief Deputy Auditor for Hamilton County, was in Europe to meet daughter, Shelby, and her husband, Daniel Clayton, who is serving with the U.S. Air Force in Turkey. The family members met in Germany, then planned a sightseeing trip that included Paris, London and Amsterdam.

Last Friday night at the time of the attacks Mills was at her hotel. She heard sirens, but otherwise had no contact with the fateful events that have made world news. The next day Mills with Shelby and Daniel flew to London to continue their vacation.

On Facebook Mills says overall the trip "has been awesome. The best part is spending time with the kids."

Strawtown man charged after firing gun at vehicle

Hamilton County Sheriff Deputies and Indiana State Police Troopers peacefully resolved an incident involving a firearm in the 23000 block of State Road 27, north of Noblesville, late on Sunday, November 15. Deputies were first dispatched to the location, near the Strawtown Auction Barn, shortly before 8:00pm, on a report of a vehicle being shot at by a homeowner in the area. Members of the Sheriff's Office and Indiana State Police Emergency Response Team concluded the incident around 11:00pm.

An initial report of the incident states that Zachary Klock and Chandler Epps, both of Noblesville, were driving to a location in the 23000 block of SR 37 when an area resident, Michael J. Campbell, allegedly fired a shotgun at their vehicle. The two complainants stated they returned to the area a short time later and were shot at a second time before they called for police assistance. According to the report, Mr. Campbell initially refused to exit his residence when deputies arrived.

Patrol and K9 deputies along with members of the ISP Emergency Response Team responded to the area. After a short time, negotiators convinced Mr. Campbell to leave and he was taken into custody. No one was injured throughout the incident.

Michael J. Campbell was arrested and taken to the Hamilton County Jail on an initial charge of Criminal Recklessness with a bond of $10,000. As in all cases, all suspects are innocent until and unless proven guilty in a court of law.

HAND hosts Neighborhoods NOW Conference

Various Hamilton County leaders participated in the Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development's Neighborhoods NOW Conference on Nov. 10. Those that attended participated in workshops that centered around four themes: Growth, Affordability, Seniors and Neighborhood Development.

The Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development (HAND) hosted the Neighborhoods NOW Conference last Tuesday, Nov. 10, in Fishers. Over 125 people participated in the conference, where they heard from 35 professionals who conducted 15 workshops that centered around four themes: Growth, Affordability, Seniors and Housing Development.

According to a news item on HAND's Web site, "The purpose of the day was to explore how diverse stakeholders can work together to address prevalent community development issues. During his opening remarks, Nate Lichti, Executive Director of HAND, recognized Hamilton County leads the state in several quality of life indicators, but this doesn't mean local leaders are stopping there."

"We know we're going to continue striving for excellence, and with 7-8,000 new residents every year, the dynamics are always changing," Lichti said.

One of the big topics was affordable housing, with Lichti saying, "We addressed the stigma head on today and our presenters showed many examples of affordable housing done right." In addition, there were also workshops on Transit, Healthcare and Economic Development, among others.

The conference also welcomes students from Hamilton Heights High School, who attended during the morning. Two Noblesville High School students, Olivia Goad and Adam Van Dam, also produced videos for the conference.

Annual Coin Harvest Raises $3,678.29

Noblesville Mayor John Ditslear is happy to announce that after all the change was calculated Noblesville Schools' students collected $3,678.29. The annual Coin Harvest was held October 26 through 30 at Noblesville's seven elementary schools.

"Within our classrooms there are conversations taking place about students connecting to and making a difference in the community. This is one example of how students are making an impact. Their generosity will benefit many families and children in Noblesville and makes our city a better place to live," Ditslear said.

Money raised from the Coin Harvest will be donated to the 2016 Mayor's Charity Ball beneficiaries – Noblesville Youth Assistance Program, Noblesville Firefighters Christmas Food and Toy Drive and Noblesville Young Life.

Students were asked to bring loose change or complete chores for money, which they dropped into a classroom bucket. The classroom that collected the most money at each school will win a pizza party with Mayor Ditslear.

"While the program may be small or simple, I hope it establishes the importance of helping others and donating to worthy local charities in our kindergarten through fifth-grade students. If the sentiment of this program has a lasting impact on our students, it will serve our community well in the future," Ditslear said.

The 2016 Mayor's Charity Ball will be held May 13 at Mustard Seed Gardens.

The Cherish Center receives National Children’s Alliance Associate status

The Cherish Center, a division of Advocates for Children and Families, is being recognized for receiving National Children’s Alliance (NCA) Associate Membership status after empowering the community to serve child victims of abuse. The Cherish Center is the only Associate Member CAC in Hamilton County and one of only six Associate Members in the state. To receive Associate level CAC’s must apply and meet the standards set by the National Children’s Alliance. These standards ensure that child abuse victims throughout the country receive effective, efficient and compassionate services. A few of these standards include representation of a multi-disciplinary team, quality of forensic interviews, and offering of victim advocacy services. Associate Membership is the second highest level of membership with the NCA.

“To be acknowledged as the only CAC in Hamilton County is an honor in itself but to have received Associate status with recommendations from the state chapter just affirms that we are meeting the needs of children and families here in Hamilton County,” said Wendy Haberstock, executive director of AFCF and The Cherish Center.

AFCF’s The Cherish Center conducts an average of 350 interviews a year with their comprehensive forensic interviewing process. A multi-disciplinary team that consists of Hamilton County Law Enforcement, child protective services, victim advocacy professionals, and the prosecutor’s office assist the Cherish Center’s efforts to provide a successful interview process. AFCF also works in partnership with Prevail, Inc., Riverview Health, and mental health providers to provide support services to victims. AFCF also provides prevention education and programming for schools and youth serving organizations.

There are 24 CAC’s located throughout Indiana. The Cherish Center will be one of six CAC’s that are functioning at Associate Member status in the state.

Rep. Cook supports Indiana House, Boys and Girls Club partnership

On Tuesday's Organization Day, the Indiana House of Representatives announced a partnership with the Boys and Girls Club that will last until the end of the 2016 legislative session.

“One of the main issues I intend to focus on this session is K-12 education, particularly the aspect of improving teacher quality,” State Rep. Tony Cook (R-Cicero) said. “We need to attract our best and brightest into the classroom, so I look forward to finding ways to incentivize Hoosier students to stay and teach in Indiana while working to retain our best educators as well.

“It was also an honor to support the Boys and Girls Club. I have worked with this organization as a principal, teacher and superintendent and coached boys’ basketball at the Noblesville Club. My wife even served on the state and Clinton County board for United Way, which is connected to the Boys and Girls Club. ## Former Indianapolis Enterprise Center... Fishers-based Alcatraz completes renovations on A&P Building

Indianapolis, IN (PRWEB) November 15, 2015 - The A & P Building at 55 S. State St., formerly the Indianapolis Enterprise Center in Indianapolis, has just completed a major, 2-year renovation, one of the most significant updates since it was constructed in 1929.

Alcatraz IEC, LLC, a real estate investment company headquartered in Fishers, IN purchased the 190,000 square-foot office/Industrial building in 2013. The 3-story multi-tenant industrial and office building has been remodeled only once, back in 1985 when it was converted from a Grocery depot to a Small Business Incubator.

Recent Renovations include a completely redesigned lobby along with new common area finishes featuring new LED Lighting, major restroom renovations, carpet, paint and new Artwork. Exterior renovations include a new Façade and painting, new Signage, Painting of all Dock and entry Doors, Parking lot resurfacing, landscaping and many other exterior enhancements.

“It is very rewarding to successfully revitalize this historic and important property in our community. We are very happy that The A & P Building’s transformation has been so well received by the tenants and the community,” said Scott Meyers, president and founder of Alcatraz IEC, LLC. “In a market with some of the most attractive commercial office and Industrial values in the country, we saw The A & P Building as an excellent opportunity to acquire a well-located, irreplaceable asset, and dramatically improve it through extensive renovation.”

The building is located along the very desirable Revitalization corridor of East Washington St., conveniently located less than a mile from Downtown Indianapolis, ½ mile from the I-70 and I-65 Washington St. exit and 15 miles from Indianapolis International Airport.

Major tenants include IU Health, HGTV’s studio for 2 chicks and a Hammer, Pinnacle Propane Express, Roberts Environmental, National Library Bindery, and artist Phil O-Malley. Currently, the building is 94% leased.

Scott Meyers, Principal of Alcatraz Management, LLC and Lisa Brookfield lead the renovation and leasing efforts on behalf of the parent entity’s partners.

Fishers City Council approves IKEA incentives

The Fishers City Council gave its approval for IKEA, the renowned Swedish furniture store, to open its doors in the city.

At a Monday meeting, the council approved an economic development agreement for IKEA, which announced plans last week to build a store near the intersection of 116th Street and Interstate 69. IKEA has a target date of Fall 2017 to have the store open. The incentives include waiving $1.6 million in fees and finishing road and infrastructure projects on time.

Some residents have expressed concern about the increased traffic that the new store will bring, but Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness told Fox 59 that the city is "going to continue to be aggressive about dealing with those issues."

IKEA's opening should come well after the completion of a major road project in Fishers: The construction of an exit at 106th Street and I-69. But it could come at the same time of another big project, the addition of a third travel lane between 116th Street and State Road 38.

The IKEA store will comprise 296,000 square feet, along with a 35-acre parking lot with approximately 1000 spaces on the eastern side of I-69, just south of the 116th Street exit. IKEA is hoping to begin construction next summer.

Noblesville will be young

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Plumer

A possible Indiana All-Star here in 2015-16; a possible 2017 all-state candidate, and a new player to the mix. Those are the highlights for Coach Brian McCauley's second Noblesville High basketball team. The Indiana All-Star candidate is 6-5 senior John Kiser, arguably Noblesville's best basketball player in several years.

Kiser also is the one returning Miller with lots of experience returning from last season, especially in the stat column. He averaged 14 points, 6 rebounds and 3 assists his junior year. Likely he will attract lots of defensive attentions from opponents this season.

McGwire Plumer, a 6-1 guard, is the junior who potentially will be another standout. Plumer scored at a 3.0 clip and dished out 2 assistants a game.

"We have a solid nucleus returning from last year's team," said McCauley, who came from Kokomo to coach the Millers last season.

"Both Kiser and Plumer played significant varsity minutes last season and will be required to provide quality minutes again this season," added the coach.

"Max Flinchum, Ryan Ogden, Nolan Ginther, Corby Mertens, Brandon Barthel, Grant Bullard, Blake Taylor and Nick Mills all gained valuable junior varsity experience and will be stepping into varsity roles this season," the coach added.

Newcomer Rico Duncan will also provide depth in the backcourt of Noblesville's program. Duncan is a 5-9 junior.

McCauley has said that Plumer, Ogden, Flinchum, Kiser and Ginther likely will be in the starting lineup when the Millers open play on Nov. 25 in The Mill against Indianapolis Northwest. They will host Indianapolis Howe on Nov. 28 before a Dec. 4 road trip to Fishers for a Hoosier Crossroad Conference opener.

Heights’ schedule brutal

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

“Our season expectations are high,” said Hamilton Heights coach Chad Ballenger, looking at his basketball team and the schedule the Huskies will face this season.

“Our schedule is brutal,” added the coach.

“We are looking at an exciting year. We have three very good players returning in senior Hunter Crist and juniors Sterling Weatherford and Caymn Lutz.

“Crist will enter the year with 901 career points. Weatherford and Lutz played great roles for us down the stretch and were a big reason we were sectional champions.”

Crist averaged 15.6 points, 4.4 rebounds and 2.4 assists. Weatherford scored at a 5.5 clip and averaged 4.0 rebounds. Lutz averaged 2.8 points a game.

“We are expecting big things from that trio and also from Alex Trachtman, Dustin Williams and TJ Freeland. They all have put time into the program, and we will benefit from that,” said Ballenger.

Trachtman and Williams are seniors and Freeland is a 6-5 junior.

“New to the varsity,” Ballenger added, “are juniors Max Wahl, Austin Sauerteig, Noah Wallace, Drake House, Clayton Worthman and sophomore Tyler Wiltermood. Worthman is 6-5.

“We play numerous ranked teams,” Ballenger continued. “On some nights we are going to be outmatched.

“I just want us to compete and see where we are,”.

Ballenger should find out early. The Huskies will open at home against Lebanon; face Mt. Vernon at the State Fairground Coliseum; and then go on the road for back to back battles at Guerin Catholic and North Central.

“I feel like we will be a very defined team,” Ballenger said. “Players are going to understand their roles. They know who our scorers are and understand it. Team chemistry will be a lot better than it has been in years.

“We need to find some rebounding and must keep players out of foul trouble. We will be undersized.

“Our wins might be down from previous years, but I think with the end result, we will have a chance based on our schedule.”

Ballenger believes the schedule will be fun for the Huskies.

“We are in a new conference, the Hoosier Conference,” he said. “We will have a conference tourney, and I love the format. We will play against some great competition and teams we have never faced. We will be playing Mt. Vernon at the Fairgrounds Coliseum. Great place to play. High school basketball has not been there in years. That will be a great experience for our kids. Mt. Vernon is a Top 5 team in the state. The game will be a true test for us early.”

Heights will play in the East Division of the conference along with Lewis Cass, Northwestern, Tipton and Western. Playing in the West will be Benton Central, Delphi, Lafayette Central Catholic, Rensselaer Central, Twin Lakes and West Lafayette.

Ballenger has set goals for his Huskies: 1, get better every day; 2, have fun; 3, winning season;

Hunter Crist averaged 15.6 points, 4.4 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game for Hamilton Heights last season, helping the Huskies to a sectional championship.

Moving up a notch....

No chance to repeat for Pete

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

After winning their second 3A state championship in 2015, the Guerin Catholic boys basketball team was mandated by the IHSAA to move up a class due to the Association’s success factor. Therefore, Coach Pete Smith’s team moves up to 4A for at least the next two season and will play in the Noblesville Sectional this March.

“Not many coaches and teams would likely be too thrilled to have an enrollment of 742 students and have to compete in a sectional that the next smallest school has 1,959 students and its’ largest has 5,000 students,” said Smith.

“But that’s not the case in Guerin’s camp,” Smith continued. “Our guys are looking forward to the challenge. We’ve approached it with our players as it’s pretty neat to have to play up. They’ve been working hard to become better so they can compete in 4A come tournament time.”

Five players graduated from last year’s state champions, including Indiana All-Star Matt Holba and Trester Award winner Matt Labus.

However, two starters return that Smith is very high on. Christian Munson was the team in scoring for much of last season before his average dropped after suffering a concussion in late January. He eventually returned to form and was a big key in the Golden Eagles’ tournament run in March. The three-year starter averaged 15 points a game, and Smith is predicting Munson’s scoring output will b even greater this season.

Point guard Cameron Lindley played all 32 minutes in the state championship win over Griffith. His surprise return to the hardwood this season after playing for the US National 20-under soccer team all summer and fall has been a big boost to the Golden Eagles’ chances. He averaged 4.3 assists per game while scoring 3.0 points. Smith said Lindley will be gone about seven games during the regular season for soccer commitments, but quickly added that those missed games come before the month of February.

Junior Matthew Godfrey begins his third season of varsity action after averaging 8.0 points a game. The southpaw combo guard also is the team’s top returning rebounder at 3.4 per contest. Another returning letter winner from last season, senior Calen Cunningham, is recovering from a broken left wrist incurred in AAU basketball. He averaged 3 pts and 2 rebounds in 28 contests. He’s scheduled to have the cast on at least another two weeks.

“Godfrey, Munson and Lindley are all projected to start the team’s opening scrimmage at Cathedral,” Smith said. “After that trio, it’s wide open for starting spots.

“We’re not as big as we’ve been in past seasons, so that’s a real concern as we look ahead to our sectional opponents,” said Smith. “Rebounding and defense are paramount for this team’s success. We’ll likely mix defenses a lot with line-up combinations to hide our lack of quickness and speed.”

The leading scorer on Guerin’s 14-6 freshman team last season was Jack Hansen. Smith thinks Hansen is improving each practice and believes the sophomore has a chance to play big minutes in Cunningham’s absence. Seniors Christian Daniels and Rhett Helt and junior Grant Fremion logged quality minutes for the 15-8 junior varsity team, and the coach says they’re also battling for starting spots.

Franklin Central, Roncalli and Marion are new to the schedule, as well as a trip to the McDonald’s Holiday Hoops Tournament in Vincennes. The past two seasons Smith’s team played in the Noblesville Holiday Tourney after playing four consecutive years in the Richmond Holiday Tourney.

“The last two seasons I think our guys missed the chance to bond and play in a different environment by playing in The Mill,” said Smith. “Noblesville did a great job hosting, but it will be a cool trip for our team to play four games and spend three night together in southern Indiana.”

Millers outrun Tigers, 80-68

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

If Tuesday's Noblesville-Lebanon girls basketball game was a track meet, the Millers proved they had the bigger kick at the end.

Shannon

O'Reilly

Conference play on Friday, against Brownsburg at The Mill.

The first quarter was a battle, and Noblesville led 9-8 with 3:10 remaining. But the Tigers scored eight unanswered points to jump ahead 16-9, and ended the period up 16-13.

Lebanon was led by its own standout senior, Kristen Spolyar. Headed to Butler next season, Spolyar seemingly scored at will throughout the game, and was the impetus behind the Tigers leading 25-17 at one point during the second quarter.

Lebanon led 32-25 late in the period, but the Millers erased that with shocking quickness literally in the final minute of the half. Noblesville out-pounced the Tigers, if you will, scoring 10 points to take a 35-32 lead. Shannon and Mallory Johnson each hit 3-pointers, and Emily Kiser and Katelyn O'Reilly added layins.

"I think we're used to playing at that speed, and after a while I think we wear down teams," said Millers coach Donna Buckley. "I think you saw it at the end of each half, each quarter. We're used to playing that way, and when you're not... You can start off playing that way for a while, and it's fun, but after a while, you get gassed."

Shannon had nine points at the half, but that was just a warm-up act. Alexis took over the game in the second half, scoring Noblesville's first six baskets for 12 points.

Shannon was scoring in every way imaginable - layin, jump shot, bank shot, putback. Her bucket off a steal moved the Millers ahead 47-41.

"It was super fun," said Shannon. The senior said her team knew the Tigers would be a difficult team to play, so they made sure to prepare yesterday.

"It was crazy out there, but you just have to zone out everyone and just focus on your teammates, and I think that was the big thing that we did, we just focused on each other and not everyone else around us," said Shannon.

Lebanon made another charge late in the third quarter, which ended with the game tied at 55-all. Spolyar made free throws to get the Tigers ahead 57-55, then 58-57, but with the score knotted at 59, Noblesville scored the next seven points.

O'Reilly did most of the damage on that one, scoring off a rebound, then making a 3-point play. Shannon's jumper got the margin up to 66-61. Lebanon was still within 68-65 with 2:50 remaining, but the Millers ended the game with a 12-3 run.

In all, Shannon scored 35 points. Only Spolyar had more, as she poured in 40 points. Shannon made 17 of 26 baskets, a stellar shooting performance of 65 percent.

O'Reilly also had an outstanding game, with 18 points, nine rebounds and two blocked shots. Kiser earned herself a double-double, with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Brooke Herron added seven points and also handed out six assists.

Noblesville will take a 4-1 record back to The Mill on Friday when it plays the Bulldogs.

Sheridan wins with defense....

'Hawks hold foe to 2 in 4th frame

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Jeff Guenther is one of those high school basketball coaches who following games goes to bed dreaming about defense, and he wakes up the following morning with defense and orange juice.

The Sheridan Lady Blackhawk coach Tuesday evening left Hobbs Memorial Gym a happy man, and the orange juice must be flowing this morning.

"We played 28 minutes of solid defense tonight," Guenther said after his Lady Blackhawks defeated Tri-West, 53-32.

It was a strange type of game. Sheridan led 15-2 after one quarter, but then just 27-18 at halftime and only 36-30 at the end of the third quarter.

Then came some super defense.

In the fourth quarter Tri-West scored just two points and that field goal came in the final 90 seconds.

"We struggled a little on offense, missing some shots," said Guenther. "But, the defense was good."

Audrey Reed led Sheridan's scoring with 24 points and Brittany Welch got into foul trouble early, missed most of the first half and was held to seven points. Reed nearly had a double-double, pulling 9 rebounds.

But, the Blackhawks showed lots of balance.

Six of the seven players used by Guenther scored.

Sophomore guard Cherysh Bishop scored 10 points, all in the first half in helping Sheridan get off to the quick lead.

Senior Morgan Leonard hit a pair of big 3-pointers in the fourth quarter.

Senior center Faith DeVaney scored all of her four points in the fourth period as Sheridan outscored Tri-West 17-2 in that quarter.

"Leonard's 3-pointers were big," Guenther said. "We've got kids still learning the varsity game and tonight they took some big steps."

The win evened Sheridan at 2-2 on the year with another evening home game Saturday against Elwood. Tri-West also is 2-2.
