Westfield's chief of staff completes...

Harvard executive leadership course

Burtron

Westfield's chief of staff, Todd Burtron, has completed a week-long intensive training course in executive leadership at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.

The course, called Leadership Decision Making: Optimizing Organizational Performance, utilizes theories from psychology, behavioral economics, and neuroscience, to teach leaders effective ways to answer tough questions, improve the accuracy of estimates, and structure effective negotiations.

"Westfield strives to create an atmosphere of continuous professional improvement amongst our leadership team," Mayor Andy Cook said.

"Todd's participation in this program is just one example of how we are creating a more effective organization to better serve our residents and businesses."

Participants in the decision making program were selected from across the globe and have the ability to interact with colleagues from diverse backgrounds and professions, as well as utilize cutting edge research from experts in various fields.

The Kennedy School of Government was opened in 1936, and re-named after the former president in 1966. It is located on the famed Harvard University campus in Cambridge, Mass.

Sheridan man dies in Thursday morning crash

A Sheridan man died Thursday morning after a single-vehicle crash just south of Sheridan.

Shortly after 8 a.m., Hamilton County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to the 22800 block of Mule Barn Road on a report of a vehicle inverted in a field. Responding officers found a blue Chrysler PT Cruiser on its left side in a hay field. Witnesses at the crash scene stated the vehicle was travelling southbound on Mule Barn Road when it crossed the center line and ran through several yards before hitting a tree, rolling over, and landing on its side.

The driver of the vehicle, identified as James E. Gallimore, age 59 of Sheridan, was pinned inside the vehicle when first responders arrived. Mr. Gallimore succumbed to his injuries at the scene before he could be extricated from the vehicle. According to an initial crash report, Gallimore did not appear to be wearing a safety belt at the time of the crash.

This is an open investigation by the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office. Toxicology and autopsy results are pending as investigators try to determine the cause of the crash or if medical issues possibly preceded the crash. Anyone with information should contact Deputy S. Goff at 317-773-1282.

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office was assisted by Sheridan Police and Fire Departments.

First Friday today...

Celebrate the holidays in Downtown Noblesville

Downtown Noblesville in December will be lit and full of joy and opportunities to shop and dine during the holidays. Join the celebration at Noblesville Main Street's First Friday event today from 5-8 pm as the "Shop Local" holiday promotion continues. Many merchants will have extended holiday hours. Main Street will host the Santa House and serve complimentary hot chocolate courtesy of Harbour Manor and The Lodge on the courthouse grounds. Musicians will be performing, chestnuts will be roasting and the public is invited to join us for a night of family-friendly holiday fun.

Then, shopping continues Saturday with the annual Holiday Market from 9 am to 2 pm at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds. This year's market will feature over 70 vendors with a wide variety of gift and food options. Local students will provide holiday music for the event and Noblesville Main Street will feature wreath sales as a fundraiser. Admission is $2 per person, but thanks to a promotion with Shop Your Spot, downloading their smartphone application can reduce that admission fee.

Riverview Health receives AchieveWELL certification

Riverview Health is pleased to announce it's among 35 Indiana organizations that qualified for the AchieveWELL certification by The Wellness Council of Indiana. Employers working toward a corporate culture that encourages and supports employee health through worksite wellness programs were eligible for this designation.

"Riverview Health is proud to be recognized as a Three-Star business by The Wellness Council of Indiana," said Mindi Matthews, director of Health & Wellness at Riverview Health. "The Three-Star rating is the required first step towards being awarded a Five-Star AchieveWELL certification."

"We're also excited to receive this award alongside Hamilton County," said Matthews. "Riverview Health and Hamilton County Government work together throughout the year to provide outstanding employee benefits and wellness programs for their employee populations."

Hamilton County also partners with Riverview Health in providing an employer-sponsored health center that allows medical plan participants access to high-quality and convenient health and wellness services.

AchieveWELL provides an independent assessment of wellness processes and is divided into three levels: Three-Star, Four-Star and Five-Star. The standards are progressive through the Five-Star Award.

Atlanta town meeting moved back a week

The regularly scheduled meeting on Dec. 22 for the Town of Atlanta has been canceled and rescheduled for 10 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 29 in order to sign the final claims for 2015 and conduct end of year business.

Empowering the artists that make them...

Heights Spanish Club selling 'pulseras' next week

From Monday, Dec. 7 to Wednesday, Dec. 9, Hamilton Heights High School's Spanish Club will be selling hand-woven bracelets, or 'pulseras' in Spanish, to empower the artists who make them in Nicaragua, Guatemala, and Uganda.

Student and teacher volunteers raise funds that benefit fair trade jobs, worker rights, sustainability, and education, while learning about the culture, lives, and struggles of Central Americans. The Pulsera Project's goal is to create a more just and colorful world by encouraging conscious consumerism and social enterprise.

The sale was organized through the Pulsera Project, a nonprofit organization that empowers and educates young people in the U.S. and Central America through pulsera sales.

Bill Helton

March 6, 1947 - December 2, 2015

Bill Helton, 68, of Noblesville, passed away on Wednesday, December 2, 2015 at his home. He was born on March 6, 1947 to Dorlene and Ruby (Hobbs) Helton in Benham, Kentucky.

Bill proudly served his country in the United States Army Airborne Division from 1971-1972 during the Vietnam War, and was awarded the Army Commendation Medal. He also served 2 years in the Air National Guard. Bill worked for 34 years as a machine builder of automated feeder machines for Matt's Welding Service, Fortville Feeders, and finally Advance Technology, retiring in 2009. He had a love and passion for his cars, enjoyed building things, and loved working with wood. Most of all, Bill was a loving family man.

He is survived by his wife, Audrey Helton; children, John (Carol) Cowan, Charles (Keiko) Cowan, and Tina (Tom) Clark; siblings, Frances (Bob) Pickel, Elmer (Amy) Helton, Junior (Eleanor) Helton, and Sue Rains (Alvin Trosper); and grandchildren, James Cowan, Dennis (Shari) Cowan, April Bryant, and Angela (Matthew) Faux.

In addition to his parents, Bill was preceded in death by his siblings, John Parks Helton, Lillie Mae Cottrell, and Jackie Helton.

Services will be held at 2:00 pm on Monday, December 7, 2015, at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan Street, in Noblesville, with visitation from 12:00 pm Noon to the time of service. Rev. Stanley R. Sutton will officiate. Burial will be at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Noblesville VFW Post #6246, 654 South 9th Street, Noblesville, IN 46060.

Condolences: www.randallroberts.com.

DAILY BIBLE VERSE

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

- Galatians 3:14

New "tow plows" hitting the road in East Central Indiana

Motorists in East Central Indiana should expect to see new larger plows on some highways this year during winter weather.

The "tow plows" allow one truck to plow and treat two lanes at once.

The tow plow provides motorists with more consistent driving conditions on multi-lane highways and optimizes use of fuel, equipment and labor.

The tow plow and material spreader are pulled behind and to the side of a standard yellow INDOT plow truck, and can be deployed or retracted by one driver using in-cab controls.

Drivers should watch for tow plows on Indiana's multi-lane roads. Except when stocking up on salt or fuel, or when redeployed to other parts of the state as needed, tow plows will be used on these highways in east central Indiana:

- Interstate 74 between I-465 and Greensburg
- Interstate 69 between State Road 32 and State Road 26
- State Road 3 between New Castle and Muncie
- U.S. 31 Kokomo freeway

Don't crowd the plows!

Motorists should be prepared to see tow plows during winter weather and practice safe driving habits near all snow plows. Drivers should not attempt to pass a tow plow if all lanes are blocked, but stay a safe distance and speed behind the plows. Road conditions are always better behind a plow at work than in front.

Stay back: Give snowplows room to work. The plows are wide and can cross lane markings, including the centerline and shoulder. Don't tailgate and try not to pass. If you must pass, take extreme caution and beware of snow coming off the plow.

Slow down: Snowplows travel below the speed limit. Be patient. They clearing roads of snow and ice and helping to keep you safe. Allow plenty of time. Remember, "Ice and snow, take it slow."

Make room: A snowplow operator's field of vision is restricted. You may see them, but they don't always see you. Keep your distance and watch for sudden stops or turns.

Move over for emergency vehicles!

Remember, Indiana's Move Over Law applies to snow plows and highway maintenance vehicles as well as emergency vehicles such as police, fire and ambulance. Roadside service and utility vehicles are also protected.

The Move Over Law requires motorists to approach cautiously when an emergency vehicle is stopped on two or four lane roadways with emergency lights flashing.

Change lanes away from the emergency vehicle if you can do so safely. If not, reduce your speed 10 mph under the posted speed limit and proceed with caution.

Is it sectional time?

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

There's a sectional flavor in December right here this weekend in basketball-crazy Hamilton County with Carmel, Noblesville and Fishers smack in the middle.

Britt Beery
Carmel

Zach Eaton
Fishers

Toss in a pair of early season conference matchups and it will be some kind of weekend.

Tonight, Noblesville will play at Fishers in a key Hoosier Crossroads Conference battle. Carmel will play at Lawrence Central in a big MIC headliner.

On Saturday, those long-time bitter Hamilton County and sectional rivals, Noblesville and Carmel, will slug it out at the Eric Clark Activity Center in Camel. Fisher will play NorthWood in a late afternoon (4:45 p.m.) contest to be played at Brownsburg.

Here is what the coaches have to say:

*Scott Heady,

Carmel: "This weekend will be a good indicator of where we are at this point early in the season, playing two very good teams.

"It's our first MIC game of the season, tonight at Lawrence Central. They are very athletic and experienced. They have two of the better guards we will face all season.

"Noblesville has one of the better players in the state in John Kiser. He can be a tough matchup.

"We are looking forward to the challenge

Brian McCauley, Noblesville. "This weekend is great opportunity for our team. It will be a very challenging early season test as we play two very good teams on the road."

*Joe Leonard, Fishers. "Shortridge (in the opener) was a chance to get our guys going, but nothing like playing Noblesville. We think Kiser is a great player and we think he has a good supporting cast. As always, it should be a great game.

Carmel is coming off a 57-53 win over Zionsville. Lawrence Central, Carmel's foe tonight, opened by blasting Brownsburg 66-45.

"Tonight we must limit turnovers and have a great team defensive game," Heady talked about the LC matchup.

McGwire Plumer will be one of the Millers heading to Fishers tonight and Carmel on Saturday night, a two-game swing against Hamilton County and possible sectional opponents.

"Noblesville will be fundamentally sound and play smart," said Heady of his contest with Noblesville.

The Noblesville-Fishers game tonight has become a real rivalry and tonight will be the start of the HCC for both teams. Fishers won 55-42 last year. Noblesville owns an 8-3 advantage in the series, including one sectional win.

"I was pleased with our team's effort our first game," said McCauley. "Just like every game, it revealed areas that we need to improve in."

Noblesville started with a 71-49 victory over Northwest. Fishers blasted Shortridge 88-34.

"Fishers has excellent depth, experience, skill and size," McCauley talked about the Tigers.

The Carmel-Noblesville game should shine a little light on the early season sectional picture. Carmel has beaten Noblesville four connective times.

The Northwood team Fishers will play Saturday is 2-0 with wins over Lakeland 74-58 and South Bend St. Joseph' 71-47.

Anderson Prep is 0-4...

Sheridan looks to improve

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Sheridan will have had 11 days since opening the season with an 87-49 loss to Rossville and a Saturday home game with Anderson Prep.

Coach Chris Schrank hopes the time was well used by his Blackhawks.

"We played real poorly and it didn't help that Rossville played really well," Schrank said. "They shot 60 percent and we shot 37 percent. We missed a few easy ones early and dug ourselves too big of a hole to climb out."

"I think the first game nervousness got the best of us. We just didn't execute our stuff in the way that we needed to in order to give ourselves a chance to win."

Anderson Prep has played four games, all losses. They lost to Alexandria 74-18, Cambridge City 68-38, Christel House 77-73 and Elwood 58-39.

"We've had a good week and half of practice and are focusing in on Anderson Prep Academy," Schrank continued. "We are familiar with each other as we just scrimmaged them two weeks ago. They are playing some new guys who are trying to find their way and they have a few young guys who are stepping up to varsity ball."

Schrank said this game is important to Sheridan to reset the team's identity and mindset.

"We need to play well and execute at a much higher level than we did against Rossville," said Schrank. "we need to be more aggressive on both ends of the floor. We need a play with a greater level of urgency than we did last week."

"We need to carry over the things we do in practice to game situations."

"If we do those things, I believe we will walk away with a win," Schrank added.

Shamrocks hope to end streak....

Last Westfield win 10 years ago

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

In past seasons, Westfield starting play in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference hasn't been a real good idea for the Shamrocks.

That's what new coach Shane Sumpter will do tonight; host the Eagles at The Rocks.

In all honestly, it has been a few years since Westfield has beaten the Eagles.

It was back in the 2005-06 season when Westfield last won over Zionsville. Joe Pearson was the coach. Westfield, on the way to what became a 14-8 season, edged Zionsville 58-56.

Kyle Nicole

Since that time Zionsville has won nine straight times over Westfield.

Tonight's game will be challenging for the Shamrocks, who opened their season with a 56-42 loss to a good Pendleton Heights team. Zionsville opened its season losing to Carmel 57-53.

"I thought our kids played hard with a lot of emotion," Sumpter talked about Westfield's opening loss. "Pendleton Heights is a good basketball team which knows who they are and trust in their system."

"We need to do a better job executing on the offensive end, playing with a little more poise. We had too many scoring droughts and wasted possessions."

Westfield will get its first look at Zionsville's Isaiah Thompson. A freshman, Thompson poured in 19 points in the Carmel game.

"On defense, in order to be successful we will need to contain their guards and limit their driving opportunities while still contesting their shots," Sumpter talked about how to defeat the Eagles. "Limiting deep post catches is a must and then finish every play with a block out and rebound."

A real offensive show could be a matchup of Zionsville's Thompson with Westfield ace Charlie Warner.

"Offensively," said Sumpter, "we need to have patience against their zone and work for great shots. We also must be prepared to lay with poise against their trapping M-M defense, and find the open man."

Southeastern opens HCC play...

Avon, Pendleton tough weekend

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Only into the third game of the season, Coach Brian Satterfield and his 2-0 Hamilton Southeastern Royals face quite a Friday night challenge, or two, or three.

The Royals will play their first road game of the season; face their first Hoosier Crossroads battle of the year; face an undefeated opponent, and will go up against a team which last year knocked off HSE in a 64-60 thriller.

Jack Davidson

Southeastern will travel to Avon.

That's how the weekend will begin. On Saturday, Southeastern will entertain a good Pendleton Heights team.

The Royals will go into the weekend with wins over Muncie Central 87-82 and Lake Central 49-31 under their belts.

"This will be our first road game," said Satterfield. "It will be interesting to see how the team handles that."

"We'll have to sprint back in transition to stop the pace Avon likes to play. All of their players like to get the ball and go and all can attack of the dribble."

Avon has defeated Plainfield 49-47 and Mooresville 78-67.

Saturday night home foe Pendleton Heights is 1-1 with a 60-51 loss to Anderson and a 50-42 win over Westfield.

Pendleton Heights is led by the 1-2 scoring punch of Kenton Dunham (18.5 points a game) and Mark Albers (17.5). Dunham is a 5-10 senior guard and Albers is a 6-4 junior.

Southeastern lost to Pendleton last season 62-30.

"Pendleton will be a challenge as they will present a different style from what we will see on Friday at Avon," said Satterfield. "This will be a good test to see how our players can adjust without practice time."

"Albers and Dunham make them go on offense. We will have to find a way to slow them down without letting the others hurt us."

Satterfield likes what he has seen from his Royals.

"I think we are improving," said the coach, "but we need to be a little smarter with our play at the offensive end. We have done a nice job in the second halves of both games, but we have not been very efficient on offense in the first half of both games."

"Our defense is making strides. We will have to continue to make strides in that area for both opponents this weekend," Satterfield added.

University is at home tonight ..

Trailblazers face 2 opponents

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Entering a pair of games this weekend – at home tonight against Central Christian and on the road Saturday at Speedway, University has a 2-1 record. The Trailblazers have defeated Shortridge 76-31 and Lutheran 48-32 and lost to Park Tudor 64-34.

Coach Brandon Lafferman credits much of the success to the team's defense.

"I am pleased with our defensive effort so far, especially in our game last Saturday against Lutheran," said the coach. "I thought we did a great job of making it tough on them to get anything easy at the rim. Hopefully, we can continue that into this weekend."

Sam Nerney

Tyler Wott

"Offensively, I expect us to get better each week."

Tonight, University will host a Central Christian team which went 0-23 last season and this season has jumped out of the gate with wins over Waldron 60-57 and International 47-44.

"Central Christian has a completely brand new group of players from a year ago," Lafferman looked at his foe. "Their roster is filled with talented young guards and they have a decent post payer, as well as some size. They play very hard. Hopefully, we can slow them down."

Central Christian was Baptist Academy last season and apparently has picked up some new players with the school's name change.

Saturday foe Speedway is 0-1 going into a game with Beech Grove tonight. They started the season with a 63-51 loss to North Montgomery.

"Speedway is always a challenging game for us," said Lafferman.

"Offensively, I expect us to get better each week," Lafferman continued. "We have a lot of young guys playing and they need time on the court to develop chemistry."

"I like the direction we are heading," the coach added.

‘Blazers overwhelm Anderson Prep

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

The University girls basketball team made a smashing debut in the Pioneer Conference Thursday.

The Trailblazers, playing their first-ever PAAC game, overwhelmed Anderson Prep Academy 60-26 at the U Center. Both teams play in the East Division, giving UHS a 1-0 record in that league so far. The 10-team Pioneer Conference is divided into two five-team divisions, with a playoff to decide the championship and other places on Jan. 16.

Caress

"The kids are playing hard," said 'Blazers coach Justin Blanding. "That's really all we're looking to do. So hopefully we can make some noise in the league."

University made plenty of noise Thursday. The Trailblazers shut out the Jets in the first quarter to the tune of 22-0. Emma Caress started the game with a pair of 3-pointers, while Riley Spitzberger converted the rare 4-point play - hitting a '3' while being fouled, then making the ensuing free throw. Honor Cosby scored four points as well in the quarter.

University did not permit APA any points until around the 4:55 mark of the second period, when the Jets scored a basket. That would be their only score of the first half, which ended with UHS ahead 36-2. The Trailblazers' lead ballooned to 52-9 after three quarters and at one point in the fourth they led 56-11.

"We wanted to get out early," said Blanding. "We've been having some slow starts, so we wanted to get out quick and just make sure that we're executing and working on our things and mainly hitting everything defensively."

Caress ended the game with 19 points, including four 3-pointers. Honor Cosby added eight points; she was one of 10 UHS players that scored. Honor and her older sister Cyan Cosby each grabbed five steals. Alexa Nealy crashed the boards, pulling down 10 rebounds, with Caress and Allie Towriss each getting six. Nealy and Maggie Klemasz both had two blocked shots.

The 'Blazers are back in action on Tuesday, hosting International.

Swimming

‘Rocks sweep Brownsburg, HH splits with Tipton

The Westfield swim teams swept a dual meet with Brownsburg on Thursday.

The Shamrock girls won 109-76. Adding two individual wins each for Westfield were Erin Verbrugge, Caroline Martin, and Ilsa Blansette. In addition to a great team effort on the individual side which saw every single swim contribute points to the team total, the women's team won all three relays. Special congrats to Ilsa Blansette, who swam her way to some of the hardest-fought victories for the 'Rocks on the night.

The Shamrock boys were 123-63 winners. Leading the charge individually were Chris Kenney, Nick Brauer, Matt Carr, Trevor Crupi, Cody Fenimore, Brett Calvin and Ethan Moe, all of whom earned individual wins. The Rocks showed some serious depth on the night, often earning big points with our second and third swimmers in each event. The Rocks took 1-2-3 in the 500 freestyle in one of their strongest efforts of the night.

Portland stops Pacers' win streak

By KYLE GRAND
Courtesy nba.com/pacers

Indiana's six-game winning streak came to an end, as the Pacers fell to the Portland Trailblazers 123-111 at the Moda Center. The Pacers have now lost seven straight in Portland.

Indiana got off to a quick start, jumping out to a 10-0 lead within the game's first two minutes. The Pacers hit 10 of their first 14 shots and held a 23-14 lead midway through the opening period. Behind 11 points from C.J. Miles, Indiana led 31-28 at the end of one.

The story of the second quarter was Pacers forward Chase Budinger. The long range specialist hit two 3-pointers and scored 10 total points to carry Indiana through the period. Shooting 51% from the floor, the Pacers never trailed in the first half.

Portland came out of the half a different team. The third quarter belonged to the home team until the final three minutes of the third quarter. The Pacers were down seven, but used a 6-0 run to get within a point. After a timeout, Portland responded with a 6-0 run of its own to go back up seven. Hot shooting defined the period for the Trailblazers, as they scored 41 in the quarter to lead 97-90 heading into the fourth.

In the early stages of the final quarter, Portland stretched its lead to 10, but Indiana didn't go away. The Pacers managed to cut the deficit to four with four minutes left. In response, Portland's Allen Crabbe made a triple and Mason Plumlee finished at the rim, pushing the lead back to nine, effectively shutting the door on the Pacers' chances.

Miles was Indiana's leading man tonight and continues to have a strong season. He scored a team-high 27, sinking eight threes in the process. After not making a field goal a night ago, George Hill righted the ship, scoring 18 on 7-of-17 shooting.

After a fantastic November where he was named Eastern Conference Player of the Month, Paul George struggled against Portland. He scored just 11 points, shooting 4-of-17 from the floor and 0-of-9 from beyond the arc.

Portland's C.J. McCollum and Damian Lillard were too much for Indiana to handle. The pair combined for 47 points, making eight 3-pointers between them. Allen Crabbe led Portland's bench with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting.

Walleye end Fuel home win streak with 4-2 victory

The Toledo Walleye put an end to the Indy Fuel's 6-game home winning streak to start the season with a 4-2 victory Thursday night at Indiana Farmers Coliseum.

Garrett Bembridge got the Fuel (9-8-2-0) on the board first with his team-leading eighth goal of the season at 9:35, batting home an Alex Lavoie chance to make it 1-0 Fuel.

Toledo (10-5-1-3) responded to tie the game in the second period on a Josh Shalla marker at 6:24.

Late in the third period the game got interesting. After Austin Wutherich scored to make it 2-1 Walleye at 17:38, Beau Schmitz took a delay of game penalty to put the Fuel on the power play just 14 seconds later. Off the resulting faceoff in the Wall-eye zone and with Fuel goalie Shane Owen (24 saves) on the bench for the extra attacker, Alden Hirschfeld fired the puck high and hard off the glass from deep in his own zone and the angle was perfect, finding the now-empty net to make it 3-1.

The Fuel were not daunted and managed a power play goal at 18:42 from Rhett Bly to draw back within a goal at 3-2, but once again with Owen out for the extra man Wutherich scored his second of the night to seal the game at 19:44.

Paul George named Eastern Conference Player of the Month

The Indiana Pacers' Paul George and the Golden State Warriors' Stephen Curry today were named the Kia NBA Eastern and Western Conference Players of the Month, respectively, for games played in October and November.

George led the Eastern Conference and ranked fourth in the NBA in scoring (27.2 ppg), helping the Pacers win 11 of 13 games after an 0-3 start. The 6-9 George also averaged 8.1 rebounds, 4.4 assists and 1.56 steals in 35.6 minutes per game. His 51 three-pointers placed him second in the East and tied for third in the NBA. George scored at least 20 points in 12 straight games to close out November, the longest streak of his career. The streak included a season-high 40-point performance in a 123-106 win over the Wizards on Nov. 24, the second 40-point game of his career.

Curry was the driving force behind the Warriors' record-setting 19-0 start, ranking first in the NBA in scoring (31.6 ppg) and three-pointers made (94). He hit 42 more triples than any other player for October and November, and his 77 three-pointers in November broke his own record for the most in a calendar month (75 in March 2015). Curry shot 51.2 percent from the field, 44.5 percent from three-point range and 94.1 percent from the free throw line. He scored at least 40 points five times, including an NBA-season-high 53 points in a 134-120 win at New Orleans on Oct. 31.
