Sheriff's Office hosts "Shop for Kids"

Santa's helpers at the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office had a busy morning on December 12 as deputies, officers, and employees pitched-in for the annual Shop for Kids event. While Hamilton County is considered an affluent county by most, there are still those who are less fortunate and in need of assistance, especially during the holiday season. Members of the Sheriff's Office strive throughout the year to give back and pay forward to those in need and Shop for Kids is just one more way of contributing to area residents.

More than 40 area youth were matched with employees of the Sheriff's Office for the shopping trip to Target in Fishers. After meeting for an informal time to get to know each other with donuts and juice, kids were loaded up in squad cars for a special ride to the store. Once at Target, each child received $150 to spend on gifts and presents for themselves and their families. Many chose necessities such as shoes, clothes, and school supplies in addition to games, toys, and presents. For many, spending time shopping with a deputy was as memorable as the items that were purchased.

Threat of city services reduction

By MARY SUE ROWLAND

The citizens of Noblesville have just gotten their Christmas present from the Mayor and it is returning the payment of trash collection back to each household. Every budget cycle for the past 20 years has included discussion of the city using tax payer's dollars to pay for trash collection and how the city could use that money better. Somehow, the elected officials think the money comes from some source that does not belong to the tax payer. Actually, the payment for trash, as in all services, comes from the tax payer to the city in return for services provided. In all areas, the tax payer's money does come back to them as fire and police protection, road improvements, parks and all the things that citizens cannot do for themselves.

It is important, if the Mayor and Council vote to take away the trash collection payment by the city using tax payers money, to give the tax payer a sense that THERE money will be used wisely. No one can argue with adding police officers but has every option been exhausted to utilize the current number of officers? The tax payers would probably like to see more detail. The police department needs a new facility and have been asking for help with space needs and location for 10 years. Actually, exchanging a trash fee for a more efficient facility for the police could be more beneficial to public safety for the community than repaving alley's.

Tax caps have been a shock to the system of government but because of the caps government has been forced to rethink spending. When the discussion goes to "lean government", that is a statement that is subjective by all. Government has never run like a business or truly been "lean" because money flows from the tax payer to pay for services without much thought by the supplier of the revenue. That very process of not enough citizen involvement is the problem. Government is also very good about absorbing revenue and spending without the tax paying seeing specific results. Adding additional personal is a tough sell as is threatening the community with cutting services. Since, the city has experienced $30 million dollars of short fall in the last seven years, will the trash collection fee of $2.6 million really make a difference? If it will make a difference, for how long? The city has cut personnel and that is to be appreciated from the standpoint of saving dollars and it appears services have not suffered. The city currently has over 360 full time employees working hard for the community. That number is down from 389 employees not counting summer part time help. Reduction of employees is not

This I know...

It's the most wonderful time of the year. My past has taught me that quite well.

People are in a good mood (for the most part). The parties are scheduled where family and friends nibble on the best of the best delectable delights. Homes and businesses are decked out in lights and glitter as trees strut their stuff. And the holiday movies are on tv.

Sit me down with a cup of coffee with creme brulee creamer and add a cookie or two (or three) and I will tell you that life is good.

Thursday night I was wrapped up in the afghan that my mother crocheted for me. I feasted on a grilled peanut butter and jelly sandwich that my husband made for me. And what should to my wondering eyes should appear but the movie that told the story of Dolly Parton's Coat of many Colors. I was one happy lady.

It made me remember my family's heritage. My parents were raised in the hills of Kentucky. Life was simple. Dads ruled over the household but Mamas ruled over Dads. Truly, the hand that rocked the cradle ruled the world...with love.

Bicentennial celebration begins in Sheridan

Sheridan kicked off its celebration of the 2016 State of Indiana Bicentennial Year by reading a proclamation to the public at noon on Friday, December 11. The town then added the state Bicentennial Flag to the flag pole in front of the Town Hall. The Town Hall is located at 506 South Main Street in beautiful uptown Sheridan.

The coming year will be filled with a variety of activities in the community in celebration of this monumental year in Hoosier history. Many of the activities will be in conjunction with countywide events.

Don't let SAD make you sad this winter

By SHARON MCMAHON

"Sunshine is my quest." – Winston Churchill
December – a time for celebration, for joy, for time spent with friends and loved ones. All that is true, indeed. However for many people there are other issues to be faced between November – early March and that is my topic – SAD, or Seasonal Affective Disorder. While it is true that there are those who suffer from depression which is not seasonal, that is not something that I will address here and should be addressed only by those who are trained and licensed in that area.

SAD is a disorder that reflects the sometimes profound changes which light deprivation can cause in the brain. There are some who may be seriously affected by the decreased sunshine and shortened daylight hours in the winter months, and some who are only mildly affected yet still feel adverse outcomes of those shortened daylight hours. SAD begins and ends at about the same times every year. If you're like most people with SAD, your symptoms start in the fall and continue into the winter months; sapping your energy and making you feel moody. Treatment for SAD may include light therapy (phototherapy), psychotherapy and medications. Again, please contact your licensed health care professional for any of these recommendations or referrals. Symptoms specific to winter-onset SAD, sometimes called "winter blues," may include irritability, low energy, heavy or "leaden" feeling in the arms or legs, oversleeping and appetite changes which may include carb cravings. Additionally, increased stress or pressure due to holiday events or expectations, workplace year-end deadlines, and financial issues can contribute to seasonal despondency. Don't brush off that yearly feeling as simply a case of the "winter blues" or a seasonal funk that you have to tough out on your own. Take steps to keep your mood and motivation steady throughout the year. Up your fitness regimen or at least keep it steady during the winter months if your physical condition warrants. Walk whenever possible – outside if the weather cooperates, inside on a treadmill or shopping mall if needed. Stretching and flexibility are particularly important this time of year as we are usually bending, reaching, lifting items for decoration or to prepare for holiday company. Strength training is vitally important as well. Lift weights at least three times per week, using enough weight to challenge your muscles without overloading them. Not only will you feel more energetic and focused through the dark winter months, you will get a head start on your early spring training! Indulge in a few goodies through the holiday season but remember to be mindful of the refined carbohydrate treats and offset that indulgence with quality protein and complex carbs in your eating plan. If your physician approves a Vitamin D supplement, that may help you during the low sunshine days to come. And remember – after December 21st daylight hours will begin to increase! Warmest wishes from my home to yours this holiday season,

Sharon McMahon, CNWC

Hail and farewell at the Sheridan Public Library

The Sheridan Public Library is sad to bid farewell to Gayla McMurtry who has been faithfully serving the good citizens of Sheridan as a member of the public library Board of Trustees. First appointed by Hamilton County Commissioners in November, 1999, she has reached her state statute limitation of 16 years as a board member. The greatest accomplishment during her tenure on the board was the construction of the new library on West First Street. One of the saddest things to have happen was leaving the location of Main Street where the old Carnegie library was a fixture for over 90 years. McMurtry has been replaced on the board by Sheridan resident Katie Will. Will is a first grade teacher's aide at Sheridan Elementary. Will brings a life-long love and appreciation for libraries to the board where she will join 6 other community members to provide outstanding library service to the Sheridan community. Other current members of the Sheridan Public Library Board of Trustees are Matt Lenseigne, Lisa Samuels, Barb Hybarger, John Vincent, Loretta Sutherland and Anita Leonard. Library board members are appointed to 4-year terms and, by state statute, can only serve 4 consecutive terms for a total of 16 years. The Sheridan Public Library is located at 103 West First Street in beautiful uptown Sheridan, just on the country side of Hamilton County. Library hours are Monday through Thursday 10 am to 7 pm, Friday 10 am to 5:30 pm and 9 am to 1 pm on Saturday. The library is closed on Sunday.

Gayla McMurtry, left, welcomes Katie Will to the Sheridan Public Library Board of Trustees. Gayla is going off the board after 16 years of service to the Sheridan community and Katie will take her place. So, "Farewell to Gayla", and "Hail to Katie".

SHOP

Shop for Kids was established during the depths of the recession and has continued to grow each year. 2015 saw a record number of youth assisted and a record amount of money spent on purchases for the kids.

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office raises funds throughout the year to supply the thousands of dollars needed to run the Shop for Kids event. Donations come from business owners, individuals, and volunteer fundraising along with an annual softball game. Special thanks go to the Target employees who cheerfully accommodate the event along with supplying snacks and other items. Those interested in supporting Shop for Kids should send donations to Shop for Kids in care of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office.

Sunday was the day that everyone went to church, well almost everyone. A few Dads heard the sermons from outside the church windows. The sermons told how you should treat others but a Mama made sure that the kids understood. A Mama loved her kids with her cooking and sewing and her singing. Both hymns and made up songs tucked many a kid into bed at night.

A Mama set the temperature of the household. If the kids had no Mama then other Mamas took them under their wing to nurture and love them well. It was just something that was done back then.

Mamas tried to get their kids to see through to the heart of those who were angry. They taught their kids to love those who bullied them. Oh yes, sometimes it worked, sometimes it didn't, but mamas taught their kids to try.

Teachers were just "other Mamas" that provided a safe place for kids to be taught, not just by the books but by the heart. They saw the needs of their students and often went beyond the schoolhouse to teach them not just reading and writing and arithmetic but that they were loved and made to feel special.

Oh maybe things haven't changed all that much. Things just look different but Mamas still show their love by cooking and singing and well, some still sew. (I have a needle and some thread that are only used for fallen off buttons). This time of year I am in my happy place...the kitchen. I make homemade caramels, cinnamon candy and puppy chow mix. I sing and dance while I am in the kitchen...neither of which are always pretty. I pray that my kids know how much they are loved.

My Mama still crochets afghans that I know she prays over. I did not inherit the ability or the desire to do so. Mama used to make my dresses and I loved them. I guess you could call them "designer originals". She would add ric rack or lace or fancy buttons to make them extra special. One thing I have always known is that I am loved. Her chocolate grave and homemade biscuits also told me so.

Yes, back to my youth I go wonderin' once again to how my Mama loved me. She did without so I could have. She told me many stories from the Bible that taught me how loving well would bring me happiness. I live according to her words and that of the good book she taught me from. I still love to hear her pray for me and sing the hymns that tucked me into bed at night. What a Friend we have in Jesus. Silent Night. When the Roll is Called up Yonder. Amazing Grace.

Yes, my Mama taught me that Jesus loves me...but I know she does too. I just have to look back to the seasons of my youth to be reminded. I have so many memories to be proud of. I am so blessed to have more memories to make with her. Yes, I continue to be loved...this I know.

easy as in any operation but most private business has had to do the same. In general the way business is done today, less people are required to complete that same task.

Before services are taken away from the citizens or fees returned to the citizens, another budget review might be appropriate. An action by government with positive results could be starting each budget cycle from zero. Every item from paper clips to heavy equipment is reviewed. Could departments share large items that cost the city millions of dollars? Even though unspent money does go back into the general fund, more upfront discussion would reduce expenses. The city does provide services that can be charged back to the user. Those departments that can cash flow or even make money should. Is every dime collected that could be collected? Many services are provided that are not collected at all.

If money and services are the issue, then prove to the tax payer that everything is being done before the low "hanging fruit" such as the trash collection is taken away. The city increased its costs by becoming a second class city. Adding additional personal to cover the needs of the second class city and adding more council representatives has costs. Pushing responsibility back to the citizens for services should be the very last resort. Perhaps to some, $126.84 may not seem like a lot of money but the revenues that will add to the income side of the city budget is coming from the same tax payer as the $126.84 of new expense to pay for trash. Adding additional cost for trash collection to the wastewater will could result in more people just refusing to pay for either service. Every action has a reaction.

Hanging on for another year without passing trash collection back to the citizens might be a solution for now. The delay would give more time for discussion, another budget cycle for review, a chance for the newly elected council members to weigh in and finding a more compelling reason for the action in question. Actually the action is not in question, it can become reality with the wave of a hand. The next question is, "What is next?"

HAND partners dedicate senior housing in Sheridan

Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development (HAND) and its partners hosted a ribbon cutting at the most recent phase of Spicewood Gardens. Spicewood now includes 60 senior affordable apartments and represents HAND's largest development.

"It's been a rewarding process to work with our residents and the local leaders on building more units in this community," said Nate Lichti, Executive Director. "The demand for these units is incredible, and while we're grateful to dedicate these 8 units, we still have another 192 on our waiting list we can't forget about."

The development demonstrates HAND's continued commitment to quality, energy efficient housing, and HAND enjoyed their first time partnering with Meyer-Najem. "Meyer-Najem was professional, thorough, and worked tremendously well with our design team and neighbors," said Lichti. "As an example of how courteous and responsive they were, some of our residents are disappointed they won't have workers on site to bake cookies and chicken noodle soup for."

Construction of these apartments require participation and involvement from many partners, and many were on hand for the ribbon cutting. Financial support for the project came through the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority (IHCDA) and Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis (FHLBI) through the HOME and Affordable Housing Programs, respectively. Hamilton County contributed Community Development Block Grant funds to the project. Lake City Bank and the Indiana's Community Development Fund provided permanent financing for the development.

Lichti also reported, "Many of our constituents want us to break down how we fund these developments, so for this purpose, I'd like to report that 45% of the funding comes through federal grants, 40% from private grants, and 15% from debt."

HAND's Partners cut the ribbon at Spicewood Garden's Third Phase.

"This is a fairly typical plan for our smaller projects, but federal funding is really threatened," shared Lichti. "It's fiercely competitive and we need to make sure resources are available to address the tremendous needs in Hamilton County, and if not preserved, we will need to find or create alternative sources."

HAND is committed to serving Hamilton County and partners with communities in a number of ways. In 2016, HAND will continue providing home repair services through Helping HAND; partnering with neighborhoods through Neighborhoods NOW; and advocating for affordable housing development. It learns whether either of its prominent development proposals – Blackhawk Commons or Noblesville Granary - receive funding from the state in late February.

HAND invests in neighborhoods, provides housing solutions, and builds partnerships to improve the lives and build community in Hamilton County. Individuals interested in learning more can visit www.handincorporated.org or call 317-674-8108 for more information.

Sheridan Launch for Relay for Life is Friday

The Westfield-Sheridan Relay for Life will conduct a Sheridan Launch on Friday, December 18, at the Sheridan vs Eastern High School Boys' Basketball Game at Sheridan High School.

The Town of Sheridan will be signing up team members, the Sheridan Community School Team will be selling luminaries, and relay committee members will be passing out information about the May 20-21 Westfield-Sheridan Relay for Life. Committee members will also be available to assist anyone wanting to create a team and answer questions about sponsorships or relay events.

At half time of the varsity boys' basketball game, the Sheridan High School Athlete Relay Team will be conducting a three point Pepsi shoot-out. Money collected at this will be donated in name of SCS Superintendent, Dr. Dave Mundy, who has recently been diagnosed with cancer and has started his treatments and fight.

Come and enjoy a great basketball game and find out how you can assist in becoming part of a team to raise funds to help fight cancer.

Lt. Jon Williams, organizer of the Noblesville Shop with a Cop program since it began, welcomes a young girl and her parent to Meijer Saturday when she was checked in.

FOP #198 Lodge holds...

Noblesville Shop with a Cop program Saturday

The 18th annual Shop with a Cop program, led by the Noblesville Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 198, was held Saturday, Dec. 12 at the Noblesville Meijer store, 17000 Mercantile Blvd. This program provides underprivileged children in Noblesville and Noblesville Township with warm clothing to help them get through the winter months.

“It’s an opportunity to see in real time a positive impact in the community – even if it is just one or two children,” said NPD Lt. Jon Williams, who has coordinated the program every year since it began.

Williams said the Shop with a Cop participants – infants to 16 year olds – come from a holiday assistance list given to the Noblesville F.O.P. by Nancy Chance of Good Samaritan Network or from recommendations of police officers.

“All of the officers have been called to negative situations,” said Williams. “We like to think as police officers that in the larger scheme, we are making the world a better place. For this one to two hours time-frame you are making a difference that lasts a lot longer than this singular event.”

The children selected to participate in the program went shopping with their parent/guardian as well as a uniformed Noblesville police officers to pick out winter clothes including coats, gloves, shirts, pants, boots, underwear and pajamas. Because the event is held before the holidays, each child is given the opportunity to select a toy as well.

To assist the annual Shop with a Cop program, those who would like to donate are asked to make checks payable to “NFOP Lodge #198” and write “Shop with a Cop” in the check’s memo line. Checks should be mailed to: Shop With A Cop; Noblesville FOP 198; P.O. Box 2013; Noblesville, IN 46061-2013. Please note that Flinchum fires up Millers...

Noblesville gets hard-fought win at Anderson

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

Saturday night's game between Noblesville and Anderson at the Indians gym was a little bit of an "irresistible force meets immovable object" scenario.

Anderson had a tough inside presence, but the Millers more than made up for that with some hot shooting - especially from the hand of Max Flinchum. The junior knocked down six 3-pointers, which was a big part of Noblesville's 55-48 win over the Indians - a possible sectional opponent now.

Flinchum was brilliant in the first quarter, pouring in four of his long range shots and getting the Millers up 14-9 by the end of the quarter. Just for good measure, he added seven more points, including a fifth '3,' in the second period. That was the clear majority of Noblesville's 24-14 halftime lead.

"Max Flinchum came out, just had a tremendous first half," said NHS coach Brian McCauley. "He's capable of that. His teammates did a really good job of finding him. We did a good job of moving the basketball against their 1-3-1 and Max did a great job of being shot ready and knocking down a couple shots on the right wing, couple in the left corner."

Of course, everyone else on Noblesville's team helped out, too. John Kiser's first-quarter dunk erased the Indians' lone lead of the night, taking the Millers from being down 7-6 to being up 8-7. Corby Mertens hit a 3-pointer of his own in the second quarter. Noblesville's defense allowed Anderson just five points in that second period.

"I loved our energy, I loved our aggressiveness," said McCauley. "Obviously we got off to a tremendous start."

The Indians chipped away at the Millers' lead in the third quarter, scoring the first five points of the period. However, one more 3-pointer each from Mertens and Flinchum got Noblesville up by 11.

Anderson didn't go away, scoring five points at the end of the third to cut Noblesville's lead to 34-28. But Kiser took over in the fourth period: He had a coupd baskets, including a layin to get the Millers up 38-32.

With the score 40-36, Noblesville drained about 80 seconds of the clock, and then started doing its damage from the free throw line. Kiser alone was 9-of-10 from the line in the fourth period, with McGwire Plumer making all

Blue Devils too tough....

Tipton zaps Blackhawks

Undefeated Tipton nailed Sheridan in the first half and went on to a 75-32 victory over the Blackhawks Saturday evening at Hobbs Memorial Gym.

The Blue Devils led 17-4 after one quarter and went to halftime with a 37-12 advantage.

Weston Burtron, Sheridan's 6-6 junior center, tallied 11 points to lead the Blackhawks. Jack Waitt was next in the line with 9 points.

Waitt and Jake Chesney each grabbed four rebounds.

The Blackhawks hit 3-of-10 shots from 3-point range and overall shot 40 percent from the field. Sheridan hit just 1-of-5 free throws.

Sheridan ended a 3-game week with one victory.

Coach Chris Schrank's club is 2-3 on the year with another Friday/Saturday double-header coming up next weekend. Eastern will be in town on Friday and Taylor on Saturday as the Blackhawks face a pair of Hoosier Heartland Conference games.

Westfield trailed by 11...

'Rocks win in overtime

Lynch

The first boys basketball win at Westfield for former girls basketball coach Shane Sumpter was a barn burner Saturday evening as the Shamrocks won a 57-53 overtime thriller at New Palestine.

The Shamrocks trailed by 11 points in the fourth quarter and stormed back to win 57-53 in overtime.

A 3-pointer by Conner Osswald sent the game into overtime.

A Charlie Warner 3-pointer took the lead from the Dragons and a pair of free throws by Robbie Lynch cemented the win.

Westfield was led in scoring by Warner with 19 points. Osswald finished with 16.

Osswald hit a trio of pointers in the game. Sawyer Olsen pulled eight rebounds and Warner got six. Osswald dished out four assists.

Westfield will take its 1-3 record into a pair of tough games next weekend, playing at Noblesville on Friday and hosting undefeated Tipton on Saturday.

Huskies win big on road

Trachtman

Hamilton Heights turned a weekend double-header into two victories Saturday evening by winning a 58-41 decision at Tri-Central.

Sterling Weatherford, who hit the game winning shot on Friday in a 60-58 victory over Lewis Cass, drilled 27 points in the Huskies' Saturday win. He was 10-of-14 from the field, including a 2-for-3 night from 3-point range.

Hunter Crist, who canned 36 points on Friday, was held to 7 points, but Caymn notched 13 points to pick up the slack.

The Huskies hit 20-of-38 shots for a 52 percent night from the field. They were 12-of-15 from the free throw line.

Weatherford also pulled 9 of Heights' 28 rebounds and he collected a team-high 3 steals.

Crist dished out four assists and Alex Trachtman passed out 3.

It was a close game until the Huskies went on a 16-3 run in the third quarter.

Tri-Central led 12-11 after one period and trailed only 26-22 at halftime.

With the victory, Coach Chad Ballenger's squad moved to 4-2.

Hamilton Heights has another double-header this weekend, playing a Hoosier Conference game on Friday and hosing Noblesville on Saturday.

'Blazers battle, drop close one to No. 1 LC

The University Trailblazers dropped their second game of the season Saturday night losing a hard fought 67-52 to contest to the state's top ranked Class 1A team, Liberty Christian.

Watson

The Trailblazers gave the Lions all they could handle before an 11-0 Liberty Christian run over the last 1:58 of the game led to a final score that was not indicative of the closeness of the game.

Senior Connor Holly led University with 14 points before fouling out with 1:58 remaining. Holly added five rebounds, four assists and four steals.

Josh Alford and Josh Watson chipped in with 10 points each. Emerson Halblieb had eight points and seven rebounds. Zack Hodgkin scored six points and David Howard had four.

University controlled the first ten minutes of the game. Holly, Howard and Alford each had four points in the first quarter as University held a 12-7 lead after the opening period. A pair of Hodgkin free throws and back to back three pointers by Alford and Holly gave University their largest lead of the night at 20-10 with 5:55 to play in the second stanza.

University still had a 27-21 lead with 1:56 remaining in the half before Liberty

Christian scored the last 9 points of the half for a 30-27 advantage at the break.

The Lions controlled the third quarter, leading by as many as ten and holding a 48-40 lead at the end of the quarter. Liberty Christian scored the first two points of the fourth quarter before three pointers from Alford and Holly cut the lead to four with six minutes remaining.

The Trailblazers got within 53-52 on a pair of Halblieb free throws with four minutes remaining. University had the ball down 56-52 with just over two minutes remaining before a Liberty Christian steal led to a pair of free throws and the Trailblazers never scored again.

University is back in action Friday evening at home against Muncie Burris.

GC frustrated in second half...

Bearcats come back to beat Guerin Catholic

Muncie Central rallied from being down at halftime to beat Guerin Catholic in boys basketball action 80-68 Saturday night in the Eagles Nest.

Lindley

Christian Munson's eight first-quarter points generated a 20-16 first quarter lead for the Golden Eagles. And his lay-up at the halftime buzzer off one of Cameron Lindley's 10 assists kept Guerin Catholic (1-4) in the lead 38-37 at halftime.

But the Bearcats got red-hot in the third quarter, making 8 out of 11 shots, and pulled away in the second half. Keeping Coach Pete Smith's squad in striking distance was sophomore Jack Hansen's 15 points. He finished with team highs of 19 points and 6 rebounds. Munson totaled a season-low 15 points, while Calen Cunningham and Matthew Godfrey added 14 and 13 points.

Smith was pleased with his team's first half play, and their overall effort in the contest. "We did some really nice things the first half, but we failed to execute offensively in the second half," he said. "We struggled keep them off the offensive boards in the second half, as they had several second and third chance put backs. We had some bright spots though, and we'll work to build on them."

Lawrence North and Lafayette Jeff are next for the Golden Eagles next Friday and Saturday nights, respectively. "We're not getting many bounces our way, but you have to make those bounces, and we're not right now," added Smith.

Cool 3rd period in the Nest....

Lafayette Jeff comes back to win

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

What a difference a half can make.

Yount

In the first half of a Saturday afternoon tilt in the Eagles Nest,it looked as if the host Golden Eagles would fly away from visiting Lafayette Jeff.

Coach Scott Miller’s club led 14-6 after one quarter and 28-19 at halftime. At times in that first half It looked as if the Eagles would fly away from the Broncos.

All of that changed when Lafayette Jeff went on an 18-6 third quarter run. The visitors stayed out in front in the fourth quarter and pulled out a 61-56 victory in the Nest.

“We had another third quarter like that in the win over South Bend Riley. We came out with the victory in that game,” Miller said.

The Saturday loss broke as five-game Guerin Catholic win string and left the Eagles with a 7-3 record.

“We just came out of halftime flat,” Miller said. “We missed defensive assignments. We dug a hole in that third quarter and couldn’t dig out. We shot 26 percent from the field. You can’t win many games shooting 26 percent.

Wampler

“I don’t want to make excuses, but our girls were coming out a tough academic week,” Miller added.

Sarah Yount led Guerin in scoring with 23 points and Abbigail Wampler notched 12. Wampler hit a couple of 3-pointers to get her team back in the game in the fourth quarter after Lafayette Jeff went up by 10 points.

Two 3-pointers helped Jeff catch Guerin. Lafayette took its first lead with 1:10 left in the third frame on back to back 3-point shots.

Guerin Catholic has a challenging road ahead, playing five games in five days. The Eagles will play at Shenandoah on Dec. 19, host Concord on Dec.21, host a four-team tourney on Dec. 22 and then travel to Shelbyville on Dec.23.

In the first round of the Guerin Catholic Tourney, the Eagles will play Broad Ripple at 9 a.m. and Elkhart Central and Park Tudor will meet at 10:30 a.m.

Heights tries to ‘steal’ one from the Bulldogs...

Huskies fall to No. 3 Lapel

Hamilton Heights took on Lapel, the No. 3-ranked team in Class 2A on Saturday, and gave it a good fight.

Henson

But the Bulldogs, coming off of back-to-back losses this week, weren't about to lose a third game in a row. Instead, Lapel took a 24-10 lead into halftime, then held on in the second half to beat the Huskies 49-36.

The Bulldogs are now 8-2 for the season, while Heights dropped to 2-7.

Ana Collar led the Huskies with 15 points, with Kayla Kirtley scoring eight. Collar, Sydney Griffey and Abby Christensen each grabbed four rebounds. Heights played strong defense with a remarkable 17 steals; Bri Henson had seven takeaways and Collar made six.

The Huskies are off until next Saturday, when they travel to Zionsville to face a very good 4A Eagles team.

THE CITY OF NOBLESVILLE INDIANA

First PAAC loss of the season...

Liberty Christian stops UHS win streak

University saw a four-game win streak come to an end Saturday, falling to Liberty Christian 39-32 in a Pioneer Conference East game on the road.

The Trailblazers, now 2-1 in the PAAC East and 7-3 overall, never led in the game and trailed 14-6 after the first. University hung around, though, trailing only by 19-14 at halftime and 31-25 at the end of the third.

The 'Blazers were within 35-31 with 4:10 left after Cyan Cosby made a rebound basket, but UHS scored only one point the rest of the game.

Lily Snyder had a team-high nine point s for the Trailblazers, who play at Indiana School for the Deaf Thursday.

A boxscore for this game was not reported by press time.

Efficient Pistons beat Pacers

By KYLE GRAND
Courtesy nba.com/pacers

It was Star Wars night at the Palace at Auburn Hills, and the Force was clearly with Detroit, as the Pistons took care of the visiting Indiana Pacers 118-96. One day after limiting the Miami Heat to 83 points, the Pacers struggled mightily on defense. The Pistons' offense was efficient, shooting 50% from the floor and knocking down 13 3-pointers in the rout.

"Tonight was a disappointing effort on the defensive end," Pacers head coach Frank Vogel said. "We didn't get back well enough. We didn't talk and match up well enough. They were the more determined team tonight. Give them credit."

The early stages of the game were close as the first quarter was a back-and-forth affair. The Pacers closed the period on a 10-2 run to take a 29-28 lead into the second.

Indiana grew its lead to six early in the period, but Detroit rallied with a 10-0 run to take a 46-42 lead. Near the end of the quarter, Detroit's offense continued to shine as the Pistons orchestrated an 11-0 run, highlighted by triples from Reggie Jackson, Kentavious Caldwell-Pope and Ersan Ilyasova, to lead 66-55 at halftime.

In the third, Indiana's defensive problems escalated. Detroit outscored Indiana 16-7 out of the gate to push its lead to 19. From there, Detroit continued to get great looks and easy buckets, and when the third was said and done, Detroit had scored 37 points in the quarter and held a 102-79 advantage.

The fourth quarter was of little consequence as the Pacers couldn't make a significant cut into Detroit's substantial lead.

"They just played with energy, they pushed the tempo; they pushed the pace," Pacers forward Paul George said. "Once they figured out that's a way to gain an advantage they went with it. We couldn't stop them in the half court or in the fast break game which made it even tougher."

Indiana had no answer for Jackson. The reigning Eastern Conference Player of the Week dominated the game with 21 points and nine assists. Ilyasova added 20 points and five rebounds and Caldwell-Pope contributed 18 points, seven rebounds, eight assists and four steals.

For Indiana, George Hill was the leading scorer with 14 points. Paul George had a hard time finding the bottom of the net, finishing with 13 points on just 4-of-16 shooting.
