Riverview Health Foundation reaches milestone

Photo provided

Riverview Health Foundation and its Board of Directors recently presented Riverview Health with a check for $500,000 to support the purchase of a new large-bore MRI machine, the renovation of the hospital's atrium and several other projects. This is the 10th consecutive year Riverview Health Foundation has gifted $500,000 or more to Riverview Health.

"As the philanthropic arm of Riverview Health, we are grateful for the opportunity to contribute money toward building healthy lives together," said Megan Wiles, Riverview Health Foundation executive director. "None of this would be possible without the support of the community and our generous donors."

In 2016, Riverview Health Foundation will celebrate its 40th anniversary of supporting Riverview Health and enhancing patient experience through philanthropic efforts and fundraising. The Foundation has gifted more than $12 million to Riverview Health for building projects—such as the Women's Pavilion and Emergency Center— as well as equipment and programs for patients. The Foundation will celebrate these accomplishments at the 40th Anniversary Gala on Saturday, Sept. 17, 2016.

Nickel Plate Arts to feature 12 months of Bicentennial-inspired exhibits

Nickel Plate Arts is jumping into 2016 with a new series of kids' classes, exhibits celebrating Indiana's statehood and more in hipstoric downtown Noblesville. Unplug and create.

2016 MONTHLY BICENTENNIAL EXHIBITS

To mark Indiana's 200 years of statehood, each of Nickel Plate Arts' 2016 exhibits will explore our rich history, promising present and glittering future. Some of our exhibits will connect themes we have explored in the past to the Bicentennial, while others will be entirely new.

The Healing Power of Art, Jan. 2-30

From Jan. 2 to 30, we will celebrate art's powerfully therapeutic qualities during The Healing Power of Art, an exhibition of art, in all mediums, that has an emotional significance to the artist and/or represents a healing journey. The Healing Power of Art will be open every Wednesday-Friday, noon-5 p.m., and Saturdays, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

By exploring the healing powers of art through the eyes of local Indiana artists, we will take a closer look at how 200 years of history have included many ups and downs for the Hoosier state, during which art has served as a salve or solution. Relying on art's healing power can better equip us for our future in Indiana and provide an opportunity for self-reflection and therapy.

As part of the show, local art therapist Gina Baird will provide an interactive art assemblage. The community is encouraged to participate in Baird's project during a reception on Friday, Jan. 8, 6-9 p.m., when we invite the public to bring small items (charms, beads, material/fabric, copies of photos, obituaries, poems, etc.) that are symbolic to them and that they associate with fortitude: the act of

Letter to the Editor...

Another view on trash fees

Dear Editor,

For some reason the Mayor and his office including the Planning dept , Engineering Department, Police Department and now Council who I might add all seem to use the old and worn out talking points are getting a large advantage with the Reporter and other publications promoting the Mayors ridiculous trash fee proposal and money grab. I wonder if all these letters were written on city time.

ANOTHER VIEW AND OPINION FOLLOWS :

My current taxes paid already pay for this trash removal service. FRONT PAGE HEADLINES. REALLY?

The elected and bureaucrats seem to be great in discussing the fear factor or the sky is falling logic when neither exist. I could go on and on about double taxation regarding the to be proposed fee that the Mayor several years ago previously agreed he would never bring up again. The dollar amount in this discussion is small change within the overall budget of Noblesville and the priorities identified by the mayor as being important. Redundancies and as per most voters more police not needed.

Other priorities including Forest Hill Park and numerous other projects and TIFs including the Blue Sky project have taken City funds as priorities and now the city wants more? All previous expenditures were his call and decision but now wants more dollars from fees (When is a tax not a tax? When it's called a fee - Politico talk) to fund other projects identified as needed now and in prior years. Now the unknown projects have become a priority per the Mayor's commentary/editorials including past and present writings, Council outgoing President and incoming Council President, who I might add was on Council when Mayor made statement , Engineering Dept, Police Chief plus other employees of the city. How can that be? Rainy Day? Big savings account of city? Etc. Etc. Why? Isn't all that money property of the taxpayer?

Were these recent opinion letters from city employees/departments written on city time using city equipment? Just a few thoughts!

Take a look at 8th street from Conner south to Division Street. Awful may be a fair description or choice of words to describe this roadway for the past 7-10 years. Did I not also read recently that the City was to receive many more dollars from the state as a result of the $ 400 million road and bridge repair program with the funds to be released in the near future? Don't recall the share for Noblesville but Carmel was to receive 24 million plus as I recall. What is that money to be used for ? Why was Noblesville not included in the complete discussion of the State Road 37 overhaul project?

Same ole, same ole if you ask me and many other voters! I guess a logical question or statement could have been made or presented during the last Primary when the newly sworn in council were all running for office. As I recall nothing was said regarding charging residents fees for services the city feels or deems are important! Politics as usual and with no stopping it will just continue until the well is completely dry! Currently our tax rate is one of the highest in the County and now just pass onto residents the disguised taxes as fees for collection of the trash? What's next?

Manage with what you have just like all individual households in Noblesville!

Make a style statement: Top interior design trends to try in 2016

(StatePoint) Each January, people make vows to eat right and save money. But what goals are set for their homes?

"The New Year brings fresh perspective and is the perfect time to experiment with décor," says Taniya Nayak, interior designer and DIY television personality.

Here are six home décor trends Nayak predicts will be filling your Pinterest feed in 2016.

Nature's Patterns

For clean interior spaces with lots of detail, try simple designs inspired by nature, such as honeycombs, florals and leaves.

"Pair these with neutral colors for a soothing atmosphere, or blow them up and paint them in a bright color for a bold statement," says Nayak.

You can also integrate natural patterns through accent pieces, such as light fixtures that have reflective metals to mimic sparkling water, or a textured jute rug.

Presswork Palette

Generate conversation and set the tone for your space by incorporating text into your décor -- think monograms, family names or inspirational quotes.

"Use various fonts and sizes to create different moods," says Nayak. "Letters can be sharp and defined to create a contemporary and stylish aesthetic, or soft and casual for an elegant and timeless feel."

Digitally Defined

"Geometric shapes and angles have become associated with technology; evoking creativity and innovative design," says Nayak.

Incorporate this trend with geometric floor tiles in different colors. Or use pixilation for a modern, clean look. Pixelated artwork made up of monochromatic cubes can be simplistic and versatile.

Fresh and Fab

Multiple bright colors mixed together elevate the mood in any space. Paint a bold accent wall for an eye-catching statement. Or brightly paint a piece of antique furniture for an unexpected combination of modern and traditional.

"When it comes to painting an accent wall or furniture, one of the most important tools you need is a premium painter's tape, like FrogTape brand painter's tape," advises Nayak.

10 tips to stick with your New Year's weight loss resolutions

(StatePoint) Millions of Americans will make the resolution this New Year to lose weight. But goal setting is the easy part. Staying on the weight loss track and maintaining that weight loss is where the challenges begin.

Here are 10 tips to help you stick with your weight loss resolution this New Year and beyond.

- Drink up: Hunger and thirst can often be confused, so stay hydrated. But remember, beverages are not a place to splurge on a ton of calories. Drink water. For a flavor boost, add fresh fruit slices or mint leaves.
- Snack mindfully: It is all too easy to derail an otherwise flawless diet by bingeing at snack time. Be mindful of your snacks, and make sure they offer nutritional value and are designed to keep you satisfied until your next meal.

- Sleep: Studies show a link between sleep deprivation and excess pounds. While there are many theories as to why this is, at the very least, getting enough sleep will promote clear-headed, healthful choices throughout the day.
- Jumpstart your weight loss: Studies show that early weight loss is a predictor of long-term success. Look for programs that keep you motivated, like Nutrisystem Turbo10, which delivers up to a 10-pound weight loss and up to five inches lost overall in the first month of dieting.
- Eat small: Research suggests that eating smaller, balanced meals throughout the day promotes greater weight loss and maintenance. Schedule meals every two to three hours, six times a day.

- Get moving: Exercise doesn't have to be daunting! Get started with 10-minute sessions, three times a day. Movement sets your metabolism in motion so make sure it's a consistent part of your weight loss efforts.
- Eat out, right: Restaurant portions can be monstrous. Set aside half the meal and save it for later. Avoid key menu terms like "breaded," "fried," "crispy," and "smothered." At buffets, fill your first plate up entirely with greens before moving on to other options.
- Embrace setbacks: Sometimes diets get temporarily thrown off course by a missed workout or a second slice of birthday cake.

Rather than throwing in the towel entirely, view the setback for what it really is, a temporary hiccup.

- Be accountable: Keep a food and exercise diary to reinforce good habits. Log food, drinks, activity, weight and more to stay accountable.
- Seek support: Weight loss and maintenance is no cakewalk. Turn to weight loss counselors, dietitians and online communities for support with your weight loss journey. The counselors at Nutrisystem for example, are available seven days a week. For more information, visit Nutrisystem.com.

With the right attitude and the right tools, you can make 2016 the year you finally lose the weight for good.

Helpful hints to make your money resolutions stick

(StatePoint) If your 2016 resolution is to spend less and save more, you're not alone. A quarter of US consumers are making money-saving resolutions, according to Nielsen surveys.

While everyone sets out with the best of intentions, the truth is that only eight percent of us are successful at achieving our New Year's goals, according to research published in the University of Scranton Journal of Clinical Psychology. With a little preparation you can be the exception to the rule.

- Prioritize goals: While you may think that saving money, getting promoted at work and earning a significant pay increase sound like great aspirations, you may be biting off more than you can chew. Instead of making a long list of possible resolutions, determine one or two top priorities so you can fully devote yourself to those goals.
- Make Measurable, Attainable Resolutions: Once you've set your money-saving goals, determine how you'll measure success. For example, if you are saving for your dream vacation, determine how much to set aside for the trip and how much to save each month to reach that goal. Then, set short- and long-term milestones to help you stay motivated.
- Save for a rainy day: Putting away a small amount every week for emergencies can add up to big savings in the long run.
- Replace household items: Even though your refrigerator or fixtures may be working fine, they may be using more energy or water than they should. To save on water bills choose a quality faucet with a lower flow rate. For example, the new Kaden high-arc pull-down kitchen faucet from Moen offers a low flow rate with a sleek design that's easy on the wallet. It's long-lasting, too, which also saves money in the long run, as it's offered in Moen's exclusive Spot Resist Stainless finish, which helps resist fingerprints and water spots to maintain the brilliance of the fixture.

- Repurpose your stuff: One way to save is by repurposing what you already own. Use the New Year as a time to clean out closets, empty storage units and breathe new life into items by refinishing furniture or updating existing pieces of clothing. You can even sell clothes you don't wear as often through your own shop on websites like eBay or Poshmark.
- Heat up your savings: If you rely on oil to heat your home, contact your energy provider to determine whether you can pre-pay to lock into lower rates. This way, you won't have to worry about rising prices when the temperatures go down.

Setting achievable goals and planning ahead can help you stick with your resolution to save money.

Surface tapes can be used on a variety of surfaces and help deliver sharp lines, so your handiwork looks professional.

Textured Terrain
From transformed wood pallets to worn leather or tin ceilings, aged raw materials offer texture and help give a space dimension.

"Incorporate it into an application where you wouldn't typically think to use the material," suggests Nayak. "For example, use concrete on a wall instead of the floor."

Home décor items can easily be made to look aged by adding paint and other finishes for a distressed look.

Global Style
Create a warm, friendly space with a parade of patterns from different cultures.

"Don't be afraid to mix multiple prints within a space," says Nayak. "Tie these patterns together by carrying a similar color throughout each element in the room."

"When trying a new trend, make sure it accurately represents your style -- and remember you don't have to go all out," adds Nayak. "Any concept can be incorporated as little or as much as you'd like."

This New Year, update your home and accomplish your resolution in style.

Big Saturday for the boys...

Fishers will travel to Carmel

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

The holiday basketball season is not yet over. Not by a long run in boys basketball in Hamilton County. There are two big games on Saturday.

Saturday, at The Mill, Noblesville will get a chance it didn't get in the recent Noblesville Holiday Tourney. The Millers will host Bloomington South and legendary coach J. R. Holmes, a man who in 33 years at the school has won 581 games and in 46 years overall has posted 724 victories.

In two tries at beating Bloomington South, the Millers are 0-2, losing 60-42 last year and 56-50 two years ago.

Noblesville is coming out of its tourney with a 5-4 record, having lost to Fort Wayne South 73-70 in overtime and to Columbus East 70-61 in two overtimes and finishing up with a 53-39 win over Avon.

Coach Brian McCauley's Millers have lost four games by a total of 20 points, and two in overtime.

Bloomington South is 7-4. In the Panthers' last six games they have lost only to Lawrence North 35-32 in the Noblesville Tourney. In the same tourney, Bloomington South defeated Avon 78-69 and Chesterton 61-51.

Also on Saturday, this one in the Eric Clark Activity Center in Carmel, the Greyhounds will entertain sectional rival Fishers.

Carmel has beaten the Tigers three consecutive times. The last meeting, in the sectional, Coach Scott Heady's Greyhounds edged Coach Joe Leonard's Tigers 56-48 in two overtime.

Fishers' last victory over Carmel was a 63-57 regular season decision three years ago.

Carmel is 4-3. The Greyhounds did not play in a holiday tourney, instead beating Anderson, also a sectional opponent, 69-45.

Fishers played in the North Central Tourney and lost to North Central 74-51 and to Centerville, Ohio, 52-46.

The Tigers have lost five straight since opening the season with three consecutive wins.

Hamilton County girls also have a busy Saturday, including two tourneys.

On Saturday, University will play in the Speedway Tourney and Sheridan will play in the Plainfield Tourney.

At Speedway, University will meet Speedway at 10 a.m. followed by a game between Rising Sun and North Putnam. The consolation tilt is set for 2:30 p.m. and the championship game for 4 p.m.

Sheridan will play Plainfield at 10 a.m. and Vincennes Lincoln will take on Martinsville at noon. Consolation action is set for 6 pm and the championship game for 8 p.m.

Two other single games are on the Saturday menu. Guerin Catholic will play at Bloomington North at 1:30 p.m. and Fishers will host Center Grove at 1:30 p.m.

Fishers' Cameron Wolter is averaging 12.5 points and 8.5 rebounds per game for the Tigers.

Carmel's Sterling Brown is averaging 12.7 points per game for the Greyhounds, who host Fishers tonight.

HSE beats SB Washington at Huntington North tourney

The Hamilton Southeastern boys basketball team finished play at the Huntington North Tournament on a high note, beating South Bend Washington 76-57 on Wednesday.

Greg Miller scored 19 points for the Royals, while Austin Etherington added 11 points. Etherington also grabbed nine rebounds, with Brennan Schofield getting seven.

The Royals were 2-2 at the tournament, beating Norwell and losing close games to Merrillville and the host Vikings. HSE coach Brian Satterfield said his team played well in three of the four games.

"Overall, some players grew in areas needed for us to continue to get better as a team as we start the second half of our season," said Satterfield. He said his team has a "tough January" and will play back-to-back games over the next three weekends, starting next Friday with Lawrence Central, which just won the Hall of Fame Classic.

"This will be a good and tough test for us," said Satterfield.

Rookie Colantone scores first pro goal...

Komets steal back half of home-and-home from Fuel

Rookie Mike Colantone scored his first professional goal for the Indy Fuel but it wasn't enough as the Fort Wayne Komets nabbed the back end of a home-and-home series at Indiana Farmers Coliseum with a 2-1 win.

Colantone scored on a wrist shot from the slot, beating Komets goaltender Pat Nagle (32 saves) low to the stick side to make it 1-0 Fuel at 17:49 of the second period.

Indy found itself down five-on-three just over two minutes later and the Komets' top-ranked power play cashed in at 19:34 to tie the game right before intermission on Mike Embach's 13th of the season, his eighth on the power play.

In the third, Domenic Alberga converted for the game-winning goal when Embach's initial shot deflected off a Fuel defenseman, hit the goalpost behind Shane Owen (26 saves) and ricocheted out the other side. Alberga put it home for his second goal of the season.

The Fuel would have chances to tie the game for the rest of regulation including at 11:25 when Ben Marshall was awarded a penalty shot. But Marshall's wrist shot missed low to the stick side and the Komets preserved the lead.

Indy will now welcome the Wichita Thunder for the team's only appearance at Indiana Farmers Coliseum this season at 7:35 pm. The Morellis Cleaners Pre-game Show starts 15 minutes before every puck drop on CBS Sports 1430.
