Hamilton County-downtown line has new obstacle

By FRED SWIFT
The proposed rapid transit bus line connecting Hamilton County with downtown Indianapolis has encountered a new obstacle. Some residents of the Broad Ripple area have announced opposition to the transit plan's first phase called the Red Line.

The ever-changing plan calls for the first route to run along College Avenue between Broad Ripple and the University of Indianapolis on Indy's southside. This, of course, would not include Hamilton County. But, presumably a second phase would extend the route north, possibly to Westfield. Eventually it would extend south to Greenwood.

Advocates of the mass transportation system had earlier said they wanted to have a referendum on the ballot in Hamilton County (and possibly Marion County) in this year's election seeking voter approval of a partial financing for the bus transit.

The referendum would require a majority of voters to approve a 25 percent increase in the County Option Income Tax. To date there has been no request that it be placed on the ballot. Without this funding it is doubtful the Red Line route would come to Hamilton County.

Until the recent objections in Broad Ripple there had been no organized opposition to the plan. Brian McGuire of Indianapolis says opponents doubt there is sufficient ridership potential to warrant the expensive Red Line which would see electric buses making regular runs every few minutes to the downtown area.

Supporters of mass transit say bringing such a system to central Indiana would result in an easing of traffic congestion, reduce air pollution and cut fuel needs. They claim up to 170,000 people will eventually make use of the public transportation system including many commuters from Hamilton County.

McGuire's group predict the large number of buses will clog traffic on College and result in neighborhood streets being used as a bypass, eliminate parking spaces on College and block turn lanes.

Both sides in the debate are passing petitions which presumably will go to the Central Indiana Regional Transportation Authority. No exact timetable has been announced for beginning the Red Line project, but financing including federal funds, engineering and other preliminary work has yet to be accomplished.

In Hamilton County, Chambers of Commerce and political leaders in several communities including Noblesville have voiced support for the project which is ultimately supposed to provide wide areas of the county with commuter bus service. Earlier plans for a commuter train have been dropped from the overall proposal.

Make every nanosecond count

By SHARON MCMAHON

"Every nanosecond is a moment in history after it's passed."
Lt. Commander Data, Star Trek, The Next Generation

Motivation – don't we get just a little weary of hearing that word in the month of January? Every infomercial on dieting, exercising, organizing, taking a class, running a race, etc. just loves to tell us we need to get motivated! The unfortunate thing is that it is true. I have heard, overheard, and participated in many conversations the past few months about getting motivated in January. The object of that motivation is usually losing weight and/or getting more fit and healthy. Both good objectives for most of us out-of-shape Americans!

The demands of family, work, relationships, home ownership, pets, and anything else imaginable seem often to take precedent over those goals, however. Looking back at the month of October, for example...already passed, gone, done. We cannot go back in time. We cannot fit that workout we need into the month of October, because October is history.

What are you going to do with your "nanoseconds" today, tomorrow, and beyond? We humans often say that we don't have "time" to focus on preparing meals and eating healthy (do you have time to sit in a long line of cars in a drive-thru?) or that we just cannot seem to "fit in" that 20-30 minutes for a workout several times each week, but we seem to manage to carve out time for "American Idol" or NCIS, social media,

Woman escapes custody, is on the run

Police are looking for a woman who escaped custody Friday night.

Shortly after 11 p.m., deputies from the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office observed a red Dodge passenger vehicle northbound on Interstate 69 near the 210 mile marker. In running the car's license plate, the return showed the vehicle reported as stolen. The deputy, waiting for backup officers to arrive before making a traffic stop, followed the vehicle to a McDonalds restaurant near I-69 and State Road 38 in Pendleton where, assisted by officers from the Fishers Police Department and the Indiana State Police, a felony traffic stop was conducted. The driver and two passengers were removed from the vehicle during the stop.

A female passenger, identified by others in the vehicle as Tori Hostetler, was handcuffed and placed in the back seat of a Sheriff's Office patrol car while the other suspects involved were placed in other cars. During the investigation at the scene, Hostetler allegedly provided false identity information to the deputies. While the deputies were continuing their investigation, Hostetler was able to take the pa-

Jon Brown declares candidacy for Hamilton Superior Court 2 Judge

On January 13, 2016, Jon Brown, of Noblesville, filed his Declaration for Candidacy for the Republican nomination for Judge of Hamilton County Superior Court 2.

Jon has practiced law in Indiana since 1998 after graduating from Indiana University. He has practiced primarily in areas of civil litigation, including family law and tort litigation. Jon also served as a public defender in Hancock County from 1999 to 2006.

Currently, Jon operates the Bankruptcy Law Office of Jon Brown with its primary office located in Noblesville and a satellite office in Greenwood. His current practice includes the representation of individuals and businesses in the bankruptcy court and litigation involving debt collection and secured transactions. On occasion, Jon has also served as Judge Pro Tem in the Fishers City Court.

"I have a strong work ethic and appreciate the difficulties and problems people face. I have practiced law for nearly twenty years in counties across the state of Indiana. As a judge, I will be serving the taxpayers of Hamilton County. Many people rarely step foot in a courtroom, but when they do, they want to know the person sitting as judge will listen to what they have to say and give a decision that is not only fair to the parties, but also a decision that adheres to Indiana law."

Although born and raised in Arizona, he has called Indiana home for over 20 years, and he has lived in Noblesville since 1997. Jon attended Indiana University for law school. His wife, Molly, is an attorney working at Roche Diagnostics. Jon and Molly are currently working on restoring a home in historic Noblesville, where they live with their three sons and daughter. "Noblesville and Hamilton County are a great place to raise a family and it is nice to have planted some roots over the past twenty years," Jon says. Robert is a junior at Indiana University, while Mitchell and Sam attend Noblesville High School. Also, to their surprise, they welcomed the newest member of the family on December 30th with the birth of their daughter, Jane Elizabeth.

Jon has been actively involved in the community since moving to Noblesville. He has been a baseball coach at Noblesville Youth Baseball and Babe Ruth since 2000, and he has coached roughly 20-25 teams. He has been active as a board member with Noblesville Youth Baseball and has served the league in various capacities from Board Member, Fundraising Chair to Program Director. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees for the league. Additionally, Jon has been a volunteer basketball coach at the Noblesville Boys and Girls Club and helped as a parent volunteer with the Noblesville Elementary Football League. In addition to giving his time, Jon also is a perennial league sponsor with these youth sports organizations and others, including Noblesville Girls Softball.

In addition to spending a good portion of his volunteer time furthering youth sports, Jon has also dedicated countless hours to scouting. He served as Cubmaster for three years with Cub Scout Pack 211 at Hinkle Creek Elementary and now helps with Troop 101 at Noblesville First United Methodist Church where he currently serves as an adult leader. This Summer, Jon will be heading to the Philmont Scout Reservation in New Mexico with Troop 101 scouts for a 2-week high adventure trip.

Jon attends Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church in Noblesville and routinely serves as a lector at Mass on Sunday mornings. Jon also assisted with leading Christ Renews His Parish at OLG several years ago.

trol car in which she had been placed and leave the scene. A pursuit, beginning in Pendleton, ensued through Madison County and in to Henry County. The pursuit ended when Hostetler crashed near county roads 525 West and 200 North in Henry County.

After crashing the vehicle, Hostetler fled on foot and is currently being tracked by K9 officers. Hostetler is described as a white female, age 21, with shoulder length blonde hair, wearing a white or light gray long sleeve shirt, jeans, and possibly handcuffs. No weapons were taken from the patrol car and Hostetler is not believed to be armed. Hostetler is allegedly wanted on a warrant; however, the charges on the warrant are unavailable at this time.

The driver of the vehicle was taken into custody without incident.

video games – you get the picture. I can say with experience that through our youth and mid-years that those nanoseconds don't seem very important for most of us. However, as we begin to pass the "middle years" we realize that apart from health conditions beyond our control, most of us have not been the best stewards of our bodies. According to the Harvard School of Public Health, one of the most recent and careful global estimates finds that roughly 500 million adults are obese (defined as a body mass index, or BMI, of 30 or higher). That's almost 10 percent of men and 14 percent of women—and it's nearly double the rate of obesity in 1980. Nearly 1.5 billion adults were overweight or obese (defined as a BMI of 25 or higher.) If nothing is done to reverse the epidemic, more than 1 billion adults are projected to be obese by 2030.<sup>1</sup>

Obviously there is nothing we can do about the passing of time, but each day we all have a total of 24 hours, 1,440 minutes, 86,400 seconds, and a LOT of nanoseconds (One nanosecond is to one second as one second is to 31.71 years – so you do the math...!) Each day provides another opportunity to focus on some aspect of your health and well being – these opportunities may be short in duration around your busy schedule, but they do exist. As we take on this new year of 2016, remember that you can be in charge of increasing your fitness level, developing a healthier eating plan, and finishing up the year knowing that those nanoseconds have been well cared for along the way!

HSE, Fishers win in HCC

That moment when you hit a buzzer-beating, game-winning 3-pointer: Hamilton Southeastern’s Brennan Schofield’s shot sent the Royals to a 48-47 win over Zionsville and kept HSE undefeated and on top of the Hoosier Crossroads Conference.

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Like so many races in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference, this season’s basketball chase has developed into a Hamilton Southeastern-Fishers battle.

Cameron Wolter
Fishers

Zach Eaton
Fishers

Heading down the home stretch, here’s the picture: Southeastern 4-0, Fishers 3-1, Zionsville 2-1.

All of this developed last evening as Hamilton Southeastern edged Zionsville 48-47 at HSE and Fishers, on the road, edged Avon 65-62.

City neighbors, you think Fishers and Southeastern weren’t keeping tabs on what the other was doing?

Southeastern did it in story-book fashion when 6-6 sophomore Brennan Schofield fired through a 3-pointer at the gun.

“That just crushed us,” admitted Fishers coach Joe Leonard, who got the news headed back from Avon on a bus. “We were hoping Zionsville might get them. We need for someone to get them for us to catch them in the HCC.”

Somebody has to “get” Southeastern in order for Fishers to end, at the best, with a tie for the championship.

“They still have to play Noblesville, and Noblesville is playing well,” said Leonard.

Both teams won thrillers last night.

“(Trailing 47-45) We got a time out with eight seconds left. Schofield was our second option,” said Southeastern coach Brian Satterfield.

Schofield canned the 3-pointer.

The Royals were in celebration mode after Schofield’s game winning 3.

In the game Southeastern hit 10 3-pointers, 10-of-20, and the 6-6 Schofield (2-of-4) and 6-7 junior Zach Gunn (2-of-5) were responsible for four of those. Guard Jack Davidson stuck in 3-of-6.

Fishers didn’t need a last-second shot at Avon, but did need a final defensive stance. Avon turned over the basketball, preventing any late game-tying 3-pointer.

Fishers also hit 10 3-pointers in its victory.

“That’s a lot for us,” Leonard said.

Fishers got its 3-pointers in a different way than did Southeastern. Lance Dollison was 4-of-7 and then six difference Tigers connected on one each.

Zionsville did a great job slowing down Southeastern ace Zach Gunn, holding him to 2-of-9 shooting and 6 points. But, Gunn killed the Eagles on the boards, pulling in 15 rebounds.

Schofield, with his 10 points, was the only Royal in double figures. Greg Miller and Davidson each netted 9 points.

Southeastern got off to a great start, leading 13-7 after one quarter.

“We didn’t play well at the end of the half,” said Satterfield.

Southeastern went to the charity line only four times in the game and didn’t hit a single free throw, but was 19-of-45 overall from the field and 10-of-20 from 3-point range.

Leonard thought the Fishers win at Avon was a big one.

“We’re starting to jell,” said Leonard, “just in time to face Lawrence Central (Tuesday) and Lawrence North (Saturday) next week. That will be a real challenge.”

Jack Hansen (left) scored 18 points and Christian Munson added eight points during Guerin Catholic's Friday night win over Brebeuf Jesuit at the Eagles Nest. It's the fifth consecutive time that the Golden Eagles have beaten the Braves.

For the fifth straight time...

Guerin Catholic beats Brebeuf Jesuit

A packed Eagles Nest saw Guerin Catholic's Golden Eagles defeat Brebeuf Jesuit 56-49 Friday night in boys basketball.

Coach Pete Smith's Golden Eagles raced out to an 16-9 lead early in the second quarter. However, GC made only one of their first 12 shots in stanza, and Brebeuf (7-6) cut the lead to three at halftime.

The third quarter was a defensive battle, as the game's physicality increased. Brebeuf outscored Guerin 11-6 to take a 32-30 lead heading into the fourth quarter. However, in that pivotal final period, the Golden Eagles played their best fourth quarter of the season.

They outscoring the Braves 26-17 behind 20-of-24 free throw shooting. Smith said his team played with poise once getting the lead, and never relinquished it after getting ahead 35-34.

"It was our best effort defensively of the season," said Smith. "The guys did a better job of cutting off driving lanes. But we struggled stopping Broderick. He's really improved."

Smith was referring to 6'8" senior Matt Broderick, who finished with a game-high eight rebounds and tied for game honors in scoring with Golden Eagle Jack Hansen. The 6'5" sophomore's 18 points came despite battling foul trouble, and is a career high. He also grabbed six caroms.

Rhett Helt played well off the bench, scoring 14 points. He needed to, as Brebeuf held Christian Munson to eight points.

The Golden Eagles (6-11) will be back in action next Friday night, trying to defend its possession of the Bishop Cup, against Lafayette Central Catholic.

With toughness and efficiency...

‘Hounds upset No. 2 Pike

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

When the going got tough Friday night, Carmel got tough right back.

Flamion

The Greyhounds played an efficient, hard-nosed game against Pike, and they were rewarded with a 77-72 victory at Eric Clark Activity Center. Not only was it a nice Metropolitan Conference win, but it also came against the No. 2-ranked team in Class 4A, a Red Devils team that had won eight straight games and the Marion County Tournament.

"We played with big-time toughness," said Carmel coach Scott Heady. "That's a really good team. I mean, that might be one of the most talented teams that you were going to play all year."

The 'Hounds actually never trailed in the second half. The game was only tied once during that time, at 72-72 with 1:28 left after Pike's Justin Williams made three foul shots after being fouled while taking a 3-pointer.

Brown

But the Red Devils would not score again. Carmel hung on by being tough at the line, making 5-of-6 free throws in the final 53.2 seconds. Sterling Brown went 3-for-4, and Preston Flamion made 2-of-2. Flamion's foul shots came after he made a big rebound on a missed 3-point attempt by Pike.

The Greyhounds started the game well, leading 18-9 late in the first quarter. Carmel scored seven unanswered points to take that lead, with Flamion scoring five and Garrett Covington, a recent transfer from Georgia, adding a layin.

Covington

But the Red Devils ended the period on a 6-0 run, and extended that with another six points to begin the second quarter. The rest of the quarter was back-and-forth, but Covington's foul shots tied the game at 28-28, and Flamion's 3-pointer ensured that Carmel would not trail again, as it got the 'Hounds ahead 31-28. Darian Porch's two free throws made the halftime score 31-30.

Carmel began the second half with a 7-0 run, which put it ahead 38-30. While Pike always stayed within striking distance, Carmel was always able to come up with a necessary basket or pair of foul shots needed to stay ahead.

"We fought through our mistakes and our turnovers, and we just continued to go make plays," said Heady, who noted that Pike's pressure forced Carmel into a number of turnovers.

Example: The Red Devils' Justin Roberts did score five points in a row to get his team within one, 44-43, but Brown's 3-pointer made it 47-43 and a two possession game again. Pike made free throws to cut the lead to 47-46, Flamion stepped up with another 3. Flamion also made a 3-point play in the final minute of the third to make the three quarters score 56-50.

That lead carried Carmel through in the fourth period, with the Greyhounds still ahead 66-59 with 4:09 left to go. Pike made its push by outscoring Carmel 13-6 in a span of a little over two minutes, with Thomas scoring seven points and Williams six more. Both players hit 3s along the way.

But Carmel toughened up on the line to win.

"Down the stretch we hit free throws, finally," said Heady.

Flamion led Carmel with 32 points on a great shooting performance: He was 10-12, made all nine of his free throws and all three of his 3-point attempts. Brown added 20, while Covington scored 10. Carmel shot a blistering 74 percent (26-of-35) from the field.

The 'Hounds are back in action tonight, traveling to Brownsburg.

First conference win since 2012....

'Rocks defeat Brownsburg

Coach Shane Sumpter is cooking up some things which haven't been in the Shamrocks' kitchen for quite a few basketball games.

Last evening the Shamrocks on the road at Brownsburg picked up their first Hoosier Crossroads Conference victory since 2012 with a 47-38 win over the Bulldogs.

It was the first Westfield basketball win over Brownsburg since 2010.

The Shamrocks now have won three in a row and four of their last five game under Sumpter, who this year left an extremely strong Westfield girls program to move in as the school's head boys coach.

It was another defensive gem for Westfield.

After trailing 12-7 at the end of the first quarter, Westfield went on a 9-2 second period run to get back in the game and then outscored Brownsburg 19-11 in the fourth quarter to win going away.

"Tonight was a solid night for junior Jonah Welch," said Sumpter. Welch scored 10 points and collected six rebounds.

Senior Charlie Warner led Westfield in scoring with 14 points. Junior Ian Kristensen led the team in rebounding with seven and he also collected 10 points.

Westfield hit 16-of-28 field goal attempts.

Westfield, now 6-8 on the season after starting the year 0-3 and 1-5, is idle until next Friday when the Shamrocks have another conference game, hosting Avon.

Steph Curry too much for Pacers...

Golden State wins 40th game

By KYLE GRAND
Courtesy nba.com/pacers

For the 40th time this season the Golden State Warriors were on the winning side of things, after knocking off the Indiana Pacers 122-110 at the ORACLE Arena. Like most teams in the NBA, the Blue & Gold had no answer for Steph Curry. Last year's MVP finished with 39 points, 10 rebounds and 12 assists, his second triple-double of the season.

Indiana was within striking distance for most of the game, thanks to rookies Joe Young and Myles Turner, and Monta Ellis, but could never quite get over the hump.

In the fourth quarter, Indiana was able to keep the deficit under double-digits, but in the end, Golden State has the best record in the land for a reason. After an Ellis triple got Indiana within eight, a Shaun Livingston dunk and Curry 3-pointer off a fast break in a matter of seconds raised the lead to 13 with 4:15 remaining. Indiana wouldn't threaten the rest of the way.

Steve Kerr returned to Golden State's bench for the first time this season, and right off the bat, the Warriors welcomed him back with excellent play in the early going.

They jumped out to a 12-6 lead with 8:44 left in the first, forcing a Frank Vogel timeout. By the time the clock read 5:59, Golden State had extended its lead to 22-8, and Vogel used another timeout. Behind 13 first period points from Draymond Green, the Warriors led 32-18 at the end of the quarter.

The second unit, led by Turner and Young got Indiana back into the game in the second quarter. Young, who finished the half with 11, and Turner's 13 helped Indiana stay within striking distance. With just over six minutes to play, Indiana trailed by just 8.

The Pacers cut the lead to seven with under a minute left but a Curry triple pushed it back to 10. Then, Curry showed why he's one of the best shooters around. He nailed a 3/4 court heave at the buzzer to give Golden State a 13-point lead going into halftime.

Indiana got off to a great start in the third, as an 8-2 run, including six from Monta Ellis, cut the lead to seven with 9:30 on the clock. But a couple of Curry threes quickly ended Indiana's momentum and forced a timeout at the 6:26 mark, with the Warriors leading 73-61.

Ellis was on fire for the entire quarter, scoring 15 in the third, but his stellar shooting couldn't bring the Pacers any closer. When the third was over, Golden State led 88-75.

To start the fourth, it was the rookies leading the charge again. Turner hit a fadeaway jumper and Young added a three-point play, with a Lavoy Allen tip-in in between, to make it a six-point game with 10:30 to play, but that was the closest the Pacers would get in the final period of play.

Turner had another monster night, showing why Indiana selected him No. 11 overall in this year's NBA Draft. He finished with a career-high 31 points and eight rebounds. Turner's rookie partner in crime, Young, contributed 16 points and eight assists. Thanks to his sharpshooting third period, Ellis ended the night with 18 points.

Backing Curry were the other two pieces of Golden State's big three, Green and Klay Thompson. Green had 22 points and 11 rebounds, while Thompson added 18 points and five assists.
