Goals and new initiatives for 2016

Noblesville Main Street held their annual meeting at Forest Park Inn this past Friday morning. As part of this annual event, executive director Chris Owens gave a recap of the efforts of the previous year, including statistics on social media growth, community outreach that impacted 53 local non-profit groups around Noblesville and an enhanced marketing strategy using online media and video to help spread the message of downtown development.

Owens

“We made tremendous strides in communicating our vision and value in 2015,” according to Owens. “As our downtown expands, we will broaden our scope of service beyond events and programs to look at community building and improving quality of life.”

As part of the meeting, Noblesville Main Street recognized its partners in the White River Celebration, including Nickel Plate Arts, Schwartz’s Bait and Tackle, the City of Noblesville and Courtney’s Kitchen, with awards originally presented by Indiana Main Street for the Downtown Special Event of 2015. Other awards went to Restoration Church, honored as the 2015 Main Street Volunteer Group of the Year, Smith’s Jewelers, recognized as the 2015 Partner of the Year, and Jackie Bell, Promotions Committee Chair and owner of Primrose School, who was honored as the 2015 Board Member of the Year.

Noblesville Main Street is divided into four standing committees and specific goals were reviewed for each committee as part of the 2016 Work Plan. The Organization Committee will focus on fundraising and sponsorships in the second year of a comprehensive sponsorship program. The Design Committee works on downtown aesthetics and will implement a design guideline document compiled in 2015 in hopes of creating a complimentary local historic district to enhance preservation efforts. The Promotions Committee will oversee programming options and partnerships with Federal Hill Commons, which opening in 2016. Finally, the Economic Development Committee will take on two major goals this year, the first being a retail-incentive program to further develop Noblesville as a destination retail location. Additionally, this committee will partner with the City of Noblesville and Hamilton County Tourism to research activation and programming options for the north and east alleys in downtown.

The Noblesville Farmers Market was on the meeting agenda as well.

“I’m pleased to announce we will return to the overflow lot east of Riverview Health for one final year of the Farmers Market prior to the opening of Federal Hill Commons, our long-term home,” stated Owens.

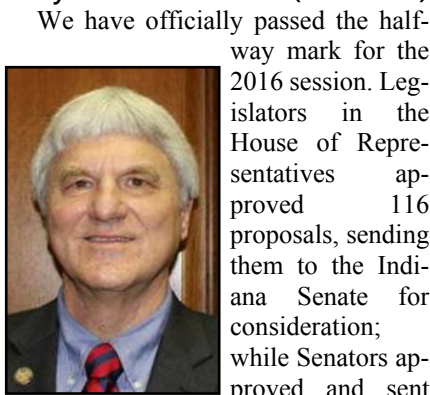

Registration for the Farmers Market will open first by invitation to vendors from 2015. Vendors from last year will have two weeks to register and secure their booth, subject to acceptance, before the application goes live to the public on Tuesday, March 1, 2016.

In closing remarks, Owens added that Noblesville Main Street membership and sponsorship opportunities are available and would be glad to discuss options for community support and engagement.

2016 session halftime report

By REP. TONY COOK (R-CICERO)

We have officially passed the half-way mark for the 2016 session. Legislators in the House of Representatives approved 116 proposals, sending them to the Indiana Senate for consideration; while Senators approved and sent 150 bills to the House for consideration. Main topics of the session include funding roads and curbing illegal drugs. House Republicans have been committed to passing a responsible, comprehensive and sustainable plan to address our state’s road and bridge funding needs with House Bill 1001. This bill focuses on three principles: fiscal responsibility, data-driven metrics and sustainability. It would also provide for personal income tax rate reductions that would be phased through 2025. Indiana’s transportation infrastructure affects every sector of our economy as well as helping to drive economic development. I am committed to supporting a safe and efficient transportation system without creating long-term debt for future generations.

Another proposal that passed through the House is HB 1110, which would provide local governments with nearly $550 million. This proposal would provide for a special distribution from each county’s local income tax trust account. A majority of the local Noblesville Recreation Director Nichole Haberlin shows the Web site where parents can register their children for this summer's Noble Kids Camp. Registration opened Friday, and Haberlin said most of it has been done online.

A new summer option...

Introducing Noble Kids Camp

By RICHIE HALL

If busy parents are looking for a way to keep their kids safe and entertained this summer, Noblesville Parks and Recreation has the answer: The Noble Kids Camp.

The camp is new to Noblesville Parks and Recreation this year, but is available to kids outside of Noblesville - " It's for anybody that needs it," said Noblesville Recreation Director Nichole Haberlin. The department's old camp was only a three-hour program, which proved inefficient for parents when it came to dropping off and picking up their children.

"So last year we introduced three week s of full-day camp, and parents loved it," said Haberlin. "We wanted to continue offering that option."

The first day of camp is June 6, and it runs through Aug. 5. Each week has a different theme; the first week is "Blast Off to Camp!" Camps run for the full week, Monday through Friday, except for the week of July 4. With the Independence Day holiday on Monday this summer, there's no camp on

Rep. Schaibley welcomes student pages to the Statehouse

State Sen. Luke Kenley (R-Noblesville) recently welcomed the following students to the Statehouse who served as Senate pages in January:

- Austin Duncan, from Noblesville, attends Noblesville East Middle School
- Haley Henzelman, from Noblesville, attends Noblesville High School
- Julia McNamee, from Westfield, attends Westfield Middle School
- Karis Jones, from Noblesville, attends Noblesville East Middle School
- Kymberlee Rhyne, from Noblesville, attends Indiana Academy for Science Mathematics and Humanities
- Mitchell Finley, from Carmel, attends Clay Middle School
- Scott Small, from Carmel, attends Guer-in High School

Pages spend a day at the Statehouse, touring the historic building, observing debates from the chamber floor and interacting with their state senators.

Students in grades six through 12 participate in the page program on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays during the legislative session.

To learn more about the Senate's page program, visit www.IndianaSenateRepublicans.com/page-program.

income tax revenue held in reserve by the state would be returned to local governments to be used at their discretion. Delaware County would receive about $1.9 million; Grant County would receive about $3.7 million; Hamilton County would receive about $57.8 million; Howard County would receive about $2.1 million; Madison County would receive about $7.7 million; and Tipton County would receive about $1.2 million. Locals may choose how to utilize the funds as they see fit, like investing in roads, bridges and infrastructure.

Another bill that passed through the House works to curb the production of meth in Indiana. Indiana's illegal drug epidemic is wreaking havoc on our communities and creating problems for law enforcement while straining the criminal justice system. Under HB 1390, consumers would be allowed to purchase medications containing PSE without a prescription if they have a prior relationship with a pharmacy or pur-

July 4 and 5. The remaining three days will feature specialty camps, called "Craft and Create" and "Foot Golf."

"Everything's going to be brand new to those campers. It's going to look different and there's going to be more structure," said Haberlin. "Every day's going to look very similar, with a different theme, versus in the past, counselors were doing a lot of planning and every day looked so completely different."

The camp is offered for kids who will be entering kindergarten through sixth grade for the 2016-17 school year. Camps will take place at Forest Park and Dillon Park, with the exception of the final week of camp, Aug. 1-5. That will take place at Dillon Park only; since Noblesville Schools will be back in session, but Carmel Clay and Westfield-Washington Schools will still be on summer vacation, Dillon Park is closer to families who live in the Carmel and Westfield districts.

While all day camps are the new selling point, half-day camps will still be available from 8 to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 to 4:15 p.m. Another option for parents is before/after care available starting at 7 a.m. and running until 6 p.m. One week of summer camp costs Noblesville residents $125 for all-day ($155 for nonresidents), $60 for half-day ($75 for nonresidents). Before care is $10 and after care is $15.

"For working parents, we wanted to be able to provide ability to drop off early and pick up late, and during that time it is true free time for the campers," Haberlin said of the before and after care options. "They'll definitely still be monitored and watched, but they can read, they can color, we'll have games out. But it's not going to be structured time."

Parents can register by going on to the Parks and Recreation Web site at <http://www.cityofnoblesville.org/parks/> - on the right side of the screen, there is a green diamond that says "Online Registration." A direct link is available by clicking here.

Donald J. Wells

July 27, 1936 - February 10, 2016

Donald J. Wells, 79, of Noblesville, passed away on February 10, 2016 with loved ones by his side. Don was born on July 27, 1936 in Indianapolis, Indiana to the late Clarence E. and Ruth C. (Matlock) Wells. He was affectionately referred to as “Chip” by his grandchildren and many friends. He graduated from Broad Ripple High School in 1954.

After a difficult childhood and losing his mother at a young age, Don read “The Power of Positive Thinking” by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale in his teen years. The tenets of this book became the guiding principles throughout his life and led to his ever-optimistic attitude. Don started his career in the wholesale food industry. He had an entrepreneurial spirit that led him to found, with three partners, a successful wholesale food company, Taurus Foods. After retiring from Taurus, his love of work and inability to sit still led him to begin another career, and he later retired from Clark Foodservice in South Bend, Indiana. Don was on the board of directors of Frosty Acre Brands and was involved for many years in the “Taste of Indianapolis.” Don was a freemason, a member of the Scottish Rite and the Murat Shrine. He was a member of the Murat Shrine mini-cycle parade unit and participated in many festivals and parades throughout the Midwest. He was also a member of Harbour Trees Golf Club.

Don resided in Noblesville for much of his adult life. He enjoyed boating and taught numerous people to water ski and wakeboard. Though he was a hacker, Don enjoyed a good round of golf and played on many prestigious courses around the country. He was an avid fan of motor sports and attended 50 consecutive Indianapolis 500 races. Don enjoyed traveling, and he and his wife, Jackie, traveled extensively around the world.

During his children’s youth, he was a little league baseball coach and a Cub Scout leader. He truly enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and attending their sporting and academic events and musical competitions. He was proud of the life that he built and the legacy that he leaves behind.

Don had a zest for life, an infectious laugh, was the life of the party and never met a stranger. Even during his illness, Don was always a positive person, and when asked how he was, he would normally respond that he was “Faaantastic!” Friends and loved ones say, “He was an awesome man. Always so kind and so joyful!”, “Uncle Don smiled with his eyes! From his heart to his lips to his eyes!!”, and “My life has been enriched by knowing you and what a kind soul you are!”

Don leaves behind his wife, Jackquelyn (Earley) Wells; his son, Don (Tricia); and his daughters, Lisa Corry, Beth (Gerald) McIntire and Amy (Len) Smith; grandchildren, Joshua (Kristen) Wells, Susan (Joey) Parr, Mitch (Dana) Corry, Madeline Corry, Alexandra and Chloe McIntire, Ethan Wells, Ian, Erin and Alaina Smith; and great grandchildren, Emma and Logan Wells. He is also survived by many loving extended family members. He was preceded in death by his sister, Norma O’Connor.

Family and friends may call from 2 pm to 5 pm on February 14, 2016 at Randall and Roberts Funeral Home, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville.

The family would like to thank the staff at Riverview Hospital Intensive Care Unit for the kind, compassionate care they provided to Don during his final days.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be made to a memorial scholarship fund in Don’s name to the Noblesville Schools Education Foundation, PO Box 724, Noblesville, IN 46061. Please reference the Donald J. Wells Memorial Scholarship in the memo line.

Huskies win over ‘Rocks

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Hamilton Heights played another game without the injured Hunter Crist and Sterling Weatherford missed a lot of playing time in the second half because of foul problems, but the Huskies still were able to pull out a 50-43 victory Friday evening at Westfield.

Robbie Lynch Westfield

“It was a big game for us,” said Heights coach Chad Ballenger. “Westfield and Heights are Hamilton County teams; the kids know each other.”

Austin Sauerteig picked up a lot of the offensive slack for Hamilton Heights, hitting 4-of-4 shots from 3-point territory and leading the Huskies in scoring with 15 points.

“Caymn Lutz didn’t score a lot tonight, but he turned in a strong defensive game on Westfield’s Charlie Warner, holding him to 9 points,” said Ballenger.

Weatherford scored 11 points and Max Wahl tossed in 10 to join Sauerteig in double figures.

Hamilton Heights led throughout the second half.

“We got up 22-20 at halftime and then had a nice 6-point run early in the second half,” Ballenger pointed out.

Robbie Lynch scored 11 points and Ian Kristensen added 10 to lead Coach Shane Sumpter’s Shamrocks.

Kristensen and Lynch each collected 5 rebounds to lead Westfield on the boards.

Weatherford and Lutz each pulled six rebounds for the Huskies.

Heights hit 18-of-37 shots, including a 6-of-9 night from 3-point range. The Huskies also stuck in 8-of-10 free throws.

Westfield was 19-of-40 from the floor. Hamilton Heights now is 13-7 for the season and has won four of its last five games. The Huskies have a tough home game tonight with Top 10 team Lawrence North.

“The kids are really excited to play Lawrence North,” said Ballenger.

Westfield, now 8-11 the year, next will play Feb. 16 at Frankton.

No Gunn for Royals ....

Carmel wins at HSE

A strong 16-8 run in the second quarter and then Carmel’s tough defense and tempo control enabled the Greyhounds to pull out a 47-42 victory Friday evening at Hamilton Southeastern.

Preston Flamion Carmel

For a third straight game, Southeastern played without injured Zach Gunn.

Coach Brian Satterfield’s Royals led 14-10 after one period before Carmel got control of the game in the second quarter. Down 17-15, the 'Hounds went on a 7-0 run, with Sterling Brown scoring five of those points. That gave Carmel a 22-17 lead, and they were able to hold that advantage for the remainder of the game.

"They had a good start," said Carmel coach Scott Heady of HSE. "They hit some shots early. We had a lot of good looks early and just missed them. They get a good lead there, and we were fortunate to go in at halftime with a lead. I think in the second half, defensively we were really good."

Jaylon Tapplar Southeastern

Southeastern did make a 7-0 run of its own at the end of the third quarter, cutting a 34-24 Carmel lead to 34-31. Greg Miller scored all seven points, finishing it off with a 3-pointer right at the end of the period.

But Garrett Covington answered with his own 3 at the start of the fourth, putting the 'Hounds back on top 37-31, and they led for the entire period.

Coach Scott Heady’s Greyhounds hit 16-41 shots, including netting 6-of-19 3-pointers. Carmel was 9-of-11 from the charity line.

Southeastern was 16-of-32 from the floor; made 2-of-6 attempts from 3-point range and was 8-of-13 shooting free throws.

Three Greyhounds scored in double figures, led by Sterling Brown with 14 points and then Garrett Covington and Preston Flamion with 10 points each.

Flamion had a strong game, dishing out 4 assists, pulling 4 rebounds and adding a pair of steals. Brown had 4 boards and 3 steals.

Without Gunn’s 18-point average in the lineup, Jaylon Tapplar picked up some of the slack for Southeastern, scoring 14 points. Greg Miller followed with 10 points.

"I thought we had a good week of practice, and the energy we had at the start of the game, I thought was good," said Royals coach Brian Satterfield. "Tapplar came in, and getting his first start of his career, gave us some great minutes."

Brennan Schofield, Southeastern’s other big man, also missed the game. Also missing from action was high-scoring Conner Rotterman.

Jack Davidson and Brock Burns shared rebounding honors for the Royals with 6 each. Davidson also dished out 3 of HSE’s five assists.

Carmel won for the 6th time in 7 games, and the Greyhounds now are 12-6 entering a tough match up with Fort Wayne Carroll tonight at the Eric Clark Activity Center.

Halbleib, Watson combine for 42...

University's defense solid in win over Warriors

Sophomores Emerson Halbleib and Josh Watson combined for 42 points as University combined hot shooting and a stingy defense for a 61-45 wire to wire win over Covenant Christian.

Halbleib had 22 points and 11 rebounds, making 9 of 11 field goal attempts and was a perfect 4-4 at the free throw stripe. Watson poured in 20 points on 8 of 11 shooting, including 4 of 6 three pointers.

University's defense held Covenant Christian 20 points under their 65 points per game average. The 15-4 Trailblazers have held 15 of their 19 opponents under their season average.

Josh Alford had 11 points and six rebounds, while Connor Holly had 8 points and handed out a season high 9 assists.

Junior Tyler Wott pulled down six rebounds and had three assists.

"We did a good job not letting their runs bother us" said University Coach Brandon Lafferman, who was also proud of his team's 15 assists on 24 field goals.

"Teamwork like tonight makes us a tough team to stop."

"I liked how Emerson (Halbleib) moved to the ball in the second half and I was impressed with Josh Watson's poise tonight. We also got some big minutes from Ajay Wooden in the fourth quarter."

The Blazers jumped out to a 5-0 lead behind a Holly basket and an Alford three pointer. UHS led 16-10 at the end of the first as Alford has seven points. University was 7 of 11 from the field in the first quarter.

Halbleib scored the first three baskets of the second quarter at University opened up a 22-10 lead with 6:41 remaining in the period, however the Trailblazers did not score again until Holly made two free throws with 24 seconds left. The tough University defense prevented Covenant Christian from getting off a shot on their final possession and took a 24-18 lead to the locker room.

The third quarter saw another hot start from Halbleib with three baskets in the first 2:30 of the period, off feeds from Alford and Holly and a rebound basket. Watson drilled a three pointer off another Holly assist and Halbleib fed Watson for a layin.

Halbleib's rebound basket and free throw gave University a 38-25 advantage with 3:35 left in the third quarter. The Warriors made another run to cut the lead to 42-37 at the end of third quarter.

The Trailblazers defense clamped down opening the fourth quarter, holding Covenant Christian to just one field goal in the first six minutes of the period to open up a 56-40 lead and University cleared the bench in the last two minutes.

University is next in action Saturday evening in the Pioneer Academic Athletic Conference third place game. The Trailblazers will face Central Christian at 7 p.m. at Shortridge High School.

After big Franklin Central comeback...

Golden Eagles win in overtime

Helt

Guerin Catholic's boys basketball team won a thrilling overtime game at Franklin Central 82-78.

The Golden Eagles played "their best first three quarters of the season" in the words of Coach Pete Smith. The Purple and Gold led 70-45 heading into the fourth quarter.

"And boy did we struggle and play a bad fourth quarter" Smith said. Guerin Catholic missed all five field goal attempts, missed two front ends of 1 and 1 and their last six free throw attempts, and committed ten turnovers. GC had to have a solid final minute defensively to force a missed shot by the Flashes at the regulation horn. Outscoring Smith's squad 27-2 in the stanza, the teams were tied 72-all.

In overtime, Cameron Lindley's left hand runner gave Guerin the lead, and Guerin's Christian Munson had back to back drives to extend the Golden Eagles lead to four points. Matthew Godfrey connected on 3-4 free throws and Jack Hanson 1-2 from the line to close out the contest.

Four players scored in double figures for the Golden Eagles, who have now won six games in a row to reach the .500 mark at 11-11. Godfrey finished with a career-high 27 points, as did Hansen with 22 points to go along with 10 rebounds. Munson had an efficient 16 points, missing only three shots. Rhett Helt, starting his first game in the absence of injured forward Calen Cunningham, had 11 points.

Stats for the game were unavailable at press time.

Lady Greyhounds regional bound...

Carmel opens at Kokomo at 10 a.m.

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

It goes without saying that Carmel has drawn the toughest route in today's IHSAA regional at Kokomo Memorial Gym. The Lady Greyhounds (22-4) will face Zionsville (20-3) in the 10 a.m. opener. Should Carmel advance the Greyhounds likely will face state powerhouse Homestead (24-2) in the 8 p.m. championship game. Homestead's first test is a 12 noon battle with East Noble (18-9).

For the present, Coach Tod Windlan is centering his thoughts on a young Zionsville team which many didn't expect to be a regional contender.

"Zionsville is playing very well and has a nice group of players who are very athletic," said the Carmel coach. "They have been playing with confidence and they shot the ball extremely well in the Kokomo Sectional. They are a young team, but they don't play like a young team. They are coached very well and they will be a quality opponent for us."

Zionsville's only losses have been to Lebanon 63-36, Westfield 42-24 and Noblesville 51-48. They start a senior, two sophomores and two freshmen. Their leading scorers are freshman Maddie Nolan (12.8) and sophomore Erin Patterson (10.1).

Carmel and Zionsville did not meet during the regular season. The Greyhounds twice defeated Westfield, 51-48 during the regular season and 47-43 in the championship game of the sectional. Carmel also defeated Noblesville, 56-48. Carmel did not play Lebanon, the third team to beat Zionsville.

Homestead is the regional favorite. "The regional is very strong and Homestead is a very good team and state runner up in 2015," Windlan said. "They have a veteran team with great experience."

Homestead has the top 1-2 scorers in the regional. Junior Karissa McLaughlin is averaging 25 points a game and junior Madisen Parker is scoring at a 14.3 clip. Homestead starts three juniors and two seniors.

Carmel has experience and youth. Windlan plans to open with junior Christy Olivia, senior Emily Kmec, senior Carrie Larson and sophomore guards Amy Dilk and Blake Smith.

Dilk leads the Greyhounds in scoring with an 11.7 average and Kmec is a step behind at 11.2. A four-year starter, Kmec is the regional's top rebounder at 6.9 and Smith is second at 6.3.

Dilk is second in the regional field with 108 assists and second in steals with 86.

"I believe we are playing good basketball right now," said Windlan, "and our defense has been extremely good and fun to watch. If we shoot the ball well today I think we will be a tough out."

Fuel fall in back-and-forth contest

A power play goal with under five minutes remaining in regulation was enough to give the ECHL-leading Missouri Mavericks (36-6-2-1) a 4-3 victory over the Indy Fuel (24-23-2-0) Friday night at Silverstein Eye Centers Arena, in the first leg of a three-game weekend series between the two clubs. The two clubs face off again Saturday and Sunday from Independence; the tripleheader marking the first half of a six-game, two-week road trip for Indy.

Mavericks defenseman Matt Finn weaved a shot through heavy traffic and behind goaltender Shane Owen with 4:57 left to play in the third period to swing a wildly entertaining affair in the favor of the home team. The Fuel proved they were more than capable of skating with the ECHL's top team, erasing three separate deficits through the first two periods and owning a 33-22 edge in shots on goal. The win brought Missouri's home record to a staggering 19-2-0-0, and gave the club a 3-0 lead in the season series over Indy.

Despite both sides being known for their strong defenses, the Fuel and Mavericks came out firing in a first period that saw each team net a pair. Both squads scored on their first shots of the night, as Missouri's Bryce Aneloski and Indy's Michael Colantone traded goals 1:07 apart in the early going to bring the game to a 1-1 tie. Aneloski chipped home the first of Ross Johnston's three assists Friday at 2:23, and Colantone had the quick answer on a great solo rush at 3:30.

Forward Reed Seckel reclaimed the lead for the Mavericks at 12:30 when he knocked in a loose rebound after his own shot handcuffed Owen. Traded from Indy to Missouri in December, Seckel had a monster night in his first game against his former club, tallying two goals, and assist and a +3 rating.

Colantone once again accounted for the equalizer, this time cashing in on a power play to make it a 2-2 game late in the opening frame. Daniel Ciampini threw the puck to Adam Lapsansky at the goal mouth, whose initial offering was denied by netminder Josh Robinson. The rebound went right to Colantone, who had a two-foot tap-in for his seventh goal of the season and second of the period at 16:43.

Seckel gave Missouri a 3-2 edge just 2:32 into the second period when he put back a fortuitous bounce. On an odd-man break, Johnston's drive hit a Fuel defenseman's stick and found Seckel's tape on the other side, who beat a diving Owen for his fourth goal of the campaign.

Again, Indy was able to respond in a hurry, tying the game a third time when Lapsansky ripped a slap shot through Robinson 1:12 after Seckel's go-ahead marker. Anders Franzon and Ciampini picked up the helpers on Lapsansky's sixth of the season, with both Ciampini (2a) and Lapsansky (1g, 1a) wrapping up multi-point nights.

The Fuel could not solve Robinson in the third, and the goaltender extended his ECHL-record winning streak to 20 games with a 30-save performance. Owen stopped 18 of 22 shots in the other end.

Each team finished 1-for-4 on the power play, with Missouri's game-winning tally on the extra man snapping a string of 28 straight kills for Indy. Prior to Friday, the Fuel hadn't allowed a power play goal since Jan. 17 against the Wheeling Nailers.
