Todd Young makes homecoming visit to Carmel

By FRED SWIFT

Todd Young, now a candidate for the U.S. Senate made a homecoming visit Monday when he appeared at a noon hour reception in Carmel. Young, currently is Indiana's 9th District congressman and seeks to replace retiring Sen. Dan Coats. He is running in the May 3rd Republican primary against Marlin Stutzman.

Young, now resides in Bloomington, but grew up in Carmel, graduating from Carmel High School in 1990.

Young's appearance brought out a large crowd at Woody's Library Restaurant during which the candidate offered remarks on his political agenda. A graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and Marine Corps veteran, the candidate was first elected to Congress in 2010. He practiced law in southern Indiana before his election. Young is married and father of four children.

The candidate calls himself "a conservative with solutions" for a number of the nation's problems and has authored various pieces of legislation dealing with economic issues. Young's parents, present at the Monday gathering, are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Young of Carmel. His father is a small business owner in Noblesville.

Carmel city counselor Sue Finkam hosted the meet-and-greet event attended by numerous high profile local officeholders. With roots in Hamilton County, Young's campaign staff is working the county intensely in hopes of producing a large plurality in the primary campaign with Stutzman.

County gets good COIT news

By FRED SWIFT

For Hamilton County, the news regarding a special distribution of County Option Income Tax (COIT) collections keeps getting better and better.

When the state legislature first announced it would distribute COIT trust fund balances, figures indicated the county's cities and towns along with county government would receive something over $57 million. This was money over and above regular annual distributions collected over several years, but held by the state in trust.

Now state officials have found the county is due $65,41,334, and not known originally is the fact that townships and library districts will also share in the windfall. Hamilton County gets the largest amount of any county in the state, says State Sen. Luke Kenley.

Legislation provides that 75 percent of the money is to be used on road improvement, a topic that became a major issue in the recent session of the legislature. Since townships and libraries do not maintain roads, their money will go into their respective Rainy Day Funds.

Complaint filed against Jackson Township

By JEFF JELLISON

The Hamilton County Reporter has learned a complaint has been filed with the Indiana Public Access Counselor against the Jackson Township Trustee's Office and the Jackson Township Board for violating the Access to Public Records Act and the Open Door Law.

The Jackson Township Board consists of Jeff Roberts, Glen Schwartz and Jerry Cook. Chris Miller serves as the Jackson Township Trustee.

The complaint alleges Jackson Township Trustee Chris Miller, Jackson Township Board President Jeff Roberts and board member Jerry Cook met with the township's financial advisor in regards to the dissolution of the Jackson Fire Territory. The complaint further alleges the decision to dissolve the fire territory was made during a meeting with no public notice.

The decision has sent the towns of Atlanta and Arcadia searching for alternate fire and paramedic services.

Filed along with the complaint to the Public Access Counselor were records of cell phone text messages allegedly sent between Trustee Miller and Roberts.

According to the complaint, the text messages outline a time, date and potential location of the meeting, along with comments allegedly made by Roberts to Miller that include statements by Roberts such as, "I've been talking with Glen on the phone. May want to delete some emails." Another message allegedly sent by Roberts to Miller stated, "I don't want to waste any more of our money on those retards because we've done this once before and they didn't understand that then it surely won't understand it now."

Miller has said publically the decision to withdraw from the fire territory was based on financial reasons; however, at a recent public meeting, when asked to produce a financial report, Miller stated, "I wasn't prepared to do that."

Both Miller and Roberts were asked via email by Hamilton County Reporter Publisher Jeff Jellison to comment on the complaint and the text messages. Miller issued a statement that said, "The Township is preparing a response to the Public Access Counselor." Roberts responded by stating, "The Township is making a response to the public access counselor on March 28, 2016. Until then, I cannot comment on that issue."

The Public Access Counselor is required to issue an advisory opinion within 30 business days of receipt of the complaint. The opinion is expected by April 21st.

County-Wide campaign asserts that teen dating violence is #NotOK

A new campaign takes a stand against teen dating violence in Hamilton County, Indiana, and asks residents to participate. The #NotOK Teen Dating Violence Campaign marks the first time a county-wide effort has been launched to address this form of domestic violence. In its efforts to communicate that teen dating violence is dangerous, prevalent and unacceptable, the campaign has adopted the hashtag and battle cry - #NotOK. This message will be announced at the first teen dating violence awareness rally for Hamilton County and will be featured in a stirring Facebook video.

The #NotOK Teen Dating Violence Awareness Rally will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, March 29, 2016, at Carmel City Hall. School administrators, law enforcement officers, service providers, and leaders from each of Hamilton County’s municipalities will gather to against teen dating violence. Attendees to rally will wear teal #NotOK t-shirts to visually demonstrate their disapproval of dating violence. Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard will participate in the rally and a local teen will share her personal experiences as a victim of dating violence.

A provocative component of the #NotOK Teen Dating Violence Campaign is a short video that demonstrates an alarming national statistic about teen dating violence and applies it to Hamilton County. The campaign asks Hamilton County residents to share the video on social media with the accompanying hashtag statement, #NotOK. Philip Paluso of Medium Cool Pictures in Fishers volunteered as the producer of the #NotOK video.

The #NotOK Teen Dating Violence Campaign was created as a community service project through the Hamilton County Leadership Academy. Five members of HCLA’s current class formed a project team to address domestic violence as an under-told issue in the county. The project team members are Hamilton County residents Adam Aasen, Tanya Hand, Jason King, Jocelyn Vare and Brittany Winebar. In-kind contributors are Hamilton County Leadership Academy, DCG: Digital Color Graphics and Bright Ideas in Broad Ripple.

The #NotOK Campaign’s video and messages are focused on a startling national statistic about the prevalence of dating violence. The campaign’s project team noted that Hamilton County couldn’t be immune from teen dating violence situations given the alarming fact that one in every three teen girls experiences it.

HCLA project team member Brittany Winebar is a Youth Advocacy Supervisor at Prevail, Inc., a Hamilton County that advocates and serves victims of crime and abuse. Winebar states, “Teen dating violence can take many forms- physical, sexual, emotional, or verbal abuse- or abuse that is online or through technology.”

The #NotOK Campaign shares a warning with Hamilton County residents and encourages conversations between peers, parents and teens. The project team hopes to recruit a Hamilton County organization to continue the #NotOK message into high schools and all neighborhoods of Hamilton County on an ongoing basis.

To view and share the video, visit www.facebook.com/NotOKwithMe. To take the online pledge, visit www.NotOKwithMe.org.

Teen Dating Violence Statistics

- One in three teen girls in the US is a victim of abuse from a dating partner, a figure that far exceeds rates of other types of youth violence. 1.
- Though 82% of parents feel confident that they could recognize the signs if their child was experiencing dating abuse, a majority of parents (58%) could not correctly identify all of the warning signs of abuse. 2.
- Indiana has the second-highest rate of forced sex among high school girls in the nation. 3.
- Only 33% of teens who were in an abusive relationship ever told anyone about the abuse. 4.

American Pickers coming to Hamilton County

By FRED SWIFT

The popular television show American Pickers is coming to Hamilton County next month to tape a segment for national viewing on the History Channel.

The Pickers will be at the Lake and Lodge Outfitters store in Arcadia, according to the business owner Gerry Hiatt. The exact dates of the taping and showing have not yet been announced.

Mike Wolfe and Frank Fritz are the pickers who appear regularly on the show which premiered in 2010. The two travel the country looking for antiques and collectables which they usually restore for resale. Their vigorous bargaining with owners is televised in the entertaining reality show.

The date for the segment from Lake and Lodge to be televised will be announced later. Hiatt said he was told six different visitors to his store had urged the Pickers producers to choose his store for the show.

Hamilton County softball

Fast start sends 'Hounds past HSE

Carmel scored four runs in the top of the first inning and never looked back Tuesday, as the Greyhounds won a big rivalry game with Hamilton Southeastern 6-3 at the Royals' field.

It was the season opener for both teams. Carmel scored its other two runs in the top of the third, with HSE getting on the board in the bottom of that inning. Julia Ranney had three hits for the 'Hounds, with Ava Walker and Celene Funke both batting in two runs. Funke also had two stolen bases.

Kristyn Eckl went the distance, with three strikeouts.

Southeastern got a double from Jordan Rager; she was one of four Royals to get a hit on the night. Alexis Macha threw 10 strikeouts.

Vargas has big game for Sheridan

A young Sheridan softball team got off to a rocky start as the Lady Blackhawks fell at home to Lebanon, 27-2.

"Payton Buckner debuted as starting pitcher for three innings after recovering from knee surgery and Audrey Reed showed great talent with her fastball and curve," said Sheridan first-year coach Mary Brunkhart.

"Our seniors were leaders, offering support and guidance for our young team. Although a tough loss against Lebanon, we have many underclassmen that were strong exhibiting strong arms and batting capabilities," the coach added.

The highlight for Sheridan was the hitting of sophomore Cassie Vargas, who was Sheridan's second-leading hitter last season. She nailed a home run in the fifth and had three hits and two RBIs.

Buckner and Landyn Cooper each banged out one hit.

Heights fall to Zionsville in opener

Zionsville jumped out to a 4-0 lead and went on to defeat Hamilton Heights 8-3 in the Lady Huskies' softball opener.

"We started out a little flat, maybe with some first games nerves having several girls in new positions, and we just couldn't recover," said Heights coach Landi Lockwood.

"We also made a couple of errors on defense that cost us a few runs. We didn't score a lot, which we are going to have to work on, but we did put the ball in play.

"We learned a lot, good and bad, which is only going to help us improve and move forward," the coach added.

Claire Schildmeier slugged a triple and Jessica Kaurich hit a double to lead the Lady Huskies.

Swartout, Ferrer lead Westfield

Westfield opened its season under new coach Brian Revercomb by ripping Monrovia 19-1 at The Rock in Westfield.

Twelve runs in the opening three innings allowed the Lady Rocks to put away Monrovia. An RBI double by Ashley Swartout, an RBI single by Cassidy Ferrer and a two-run home run by Kelsey Powers in the first inning followed by an RBI single from Alexis Hartman and RBI singles from Dory Thompson and Ferrer during the second inning helped Westfield put runs on the board. Swartout and Ferrer lifted Westfield. Swartout racked up seven RBIs on three hits. Ferrer recorded the win in the circle, allowing one run over four innings.

'Rocks get another run-rule win

Westfield won its second straight run-rule game Tuesday, overtaking Crawfordsville 10-0 in a home game.

The Shamrocks scored in all five innings. Westfield finished with a bang, as Claire Haffley's triple brought home Alexis McClure to scored the 10th run in the bottom of the fifth.

Ashley Swartout was 2-for-2, hitting her third home run of the season in the fourth inning. Dory Thompson also had two hits. Swartout and Lexey Falls each hit a double, and Hartman totaled two RBIs.

"Offensively we're hitting the ball well, seeing the ball, and I think it's helping us play better defense, which is going to win us games down the road," said Shamrocks' coach Brian Revercomb.

Right fielder Hartman had a big defensive play in the second inning, when she made a huge throw to the catcher Swartout to tag a Crawfordsville girl before she crossed the plate. Not only did it take away a run, it also got the 'Rocks the third out of the inning.

"Huge play for us," said Revercomb.

Cassidy Ferrer pitched all five innings, striking out five and allowing just four hits.

Schnaiter strikes out 12

Gabbi Schnaiter had a dominant season-opener from the circle, leading Fishers to a 4-2 victory at Kokomo on Monday.

Schnaiter tossed 12 strikeouts for the win, only giving up four hits on the night.

As for the 'Tigers' offense. Janey Schmidt was 2-for-3, getting half of Fishers' four hits. Schmidt also stole two bases. Briona Rance batted in two runs on a double.

Millers blast WeBo

Noblesville scored early and often in its season opener, cruising to a 16-3, five-inning win at Western Boone on Tuesday.

The Millers had their offense working, with 18 hits and 14 RBIs. Maddie Moore, Bri Tragesser and Julia Furiak all had three hits, with Moore and Tragesser batting in three runs each. All three of Tragesser's hits were doubles. Moore and Hayley Lutz both knocked in triples, while Brooke Herron and Furiak each had two doubles. Moore stole two bases.

Noblesville pitched by committee, with Kristin Melloh getting the win. She threw three no-hit innings, with three strikeouts. Herron and Kara Conger both pitched one inning.

Guerin falls to LC

Guerin Catholic opened its season Tuesday with a 10-1 loss at Lawrence Central.

The Bearcats scored four innings in the bottom of the third, and added another four in the sixth. The Golden Eagles scored their lone run in the top of the seventh inning, with Maddelyn Buckner batting Oksana Oleshchuk in.

Caitlin Collins hit a double for Guerin Catholic. Sarah Miller threw six strikeouts in four-and-a-third innings.

Experienced Millers ready...

For an exciting season

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

“We return a lot of players with varsity experience and have a lot of young untested talent as well.”

That’s the word from Noblesville baseball coach Justin Keever as he prepares his Millers for the start of the 2016 season.

The Millers will open on Monday, hosting New Castle at Dunker Field. After that, Noblesville will be off for a three day, four game swing into Tennessee.

Five returning Millers each played in 29 games last season. They include Travis Gilliam, who will be at shortstop or in left field, second baseman Michael Carmosino, right fielder Austin Shirley, third baseman Connor Christman and first baseman Bryce Masterson.

Masterson will share the first base duties with Ty Lindstrand. Gilliam or Neil Brown will be at short. Jackson Thurman will see playing time in left. Alex Cleverly will be behind the plate. Harris Camp will start in center field.

Gilliam hit .383 as a sophomore last year and led the team in runs scored with 28. Christman led the team in hitting with a .409 percentage. Masterson batted .299.

Keever says his pitching rotation will include Cory Conway, Clayton Marowski and either Kade Gorman or Tyler Owens.

Conway will be the ace of the staff. Last year he went 7-3; had a 1.55 ERA and fanned 93 batters in 63.1 innings.

“We will continue to grow as a team against a very tough non-conference schedule, in addition to our HCC gauntlet,” said Keever.

“I’m very excited about the leadership we’ve seen thus far.”

Varsity Roster

Seniors: Michael Carmosino, Ty Lindstrand, Austin Shirley, Clayton Marowski, Neil Brown, Julian Simac, Cory Conway, Nolan Vallier, Connor Christman, Bryce Masterson.

Juniors: Travis Gilliam, Alex Cleverly, Jackson Thurman, Michael Scalzo, Harris Camp, Dusti McLochlin.

New Albany's Langford paces IBCA Players of the Week

New Albany sophomore Romeo Langford poured in a school-record 46 points in a Class 4A semistate game to lead the recipients in the IBCA/Subway Player of the Week program for the week of March 14-19.

Langford is joined by Gary 21st Century Eugene German, Tri-West sophomore Tyler Watson and Bloomfield junior Chris Gilmore as honorees in the recognition program coordinated by the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association.

German received accolades for District 1. Watson is the winner for District 2. Langford and Gilmore shared the award for District 3.

Langford was phenomenal in propelling New Albany to an 82-64 victory over Southport. The 6-4 wing scored 46 points with nine rebounds as the Bulldogs (26-1) earned a date in the Class 4A state championship game. Langford made 15-of-24 shots, including 8-of-12 3-pointers, plus 8-of-10 free throws in his big game. The scoring output surpassed the old school best of 44 points that Langford had set earlier in the season against Scottsburg and Jennings County.

The 6-0 German totaled 42 points with five rebounds, three assists and one steal, but it was not enough as Gary 21st Century lost 102-80 to Liberty Christian. The Northern Illinois recruit hit 14-of-30 shots, 5-of-14 3-pointers and 9-of-11 free throws as the Cougars completed their season with a 20-7 record.

Watson scored 34 points, including 25 points after halftime, as Tri-West dropped a 74-71 decision in double overtime to Evansville Bosse. The 6-0 guard added five rebounds, three assists and two steals as the Bruins finished 22-7. Watson hit nine field goals, including 3-of-6 3-pointers, plus 13-of-18 free throws.

Gilmore dropped in 24 points with 13 rebounds, three assists and one steal as Bloomfield defeated West Washington 58-53 in a Class A semistate encounter. The 6-2 guard sank 9-of-13 shots, including six 3-pointers, in leading the Cardinals (26-3) to a State Finals berth.

This is the eighth season for the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association Player of the Week program and the fourth season it is presented by Subway Restaurants of Indiana, a banner partner of the IBCA. Subway, in its sixth season as an IBCA partner, encourages athletes to "train hard and eat fresh."

Player of the Week winners are chosen each week from each of the IHSAA's three districts. Boys' winners will be chosen from now through next week. The girls' season is complete.
