The County Line

Senior Citizens Organization could be on the move

By FRED SWIFT

The future of the Noblesville Senior Citizen Organization's home is of great concern to members of the group which provides social diversion for the area's aging population.

For the past 40 years the Senior Citizens have operated from a building they built on county property along Cumberland Road north of the county sheriff's department.

When a long-term lease on the land expired last year, the county renewed a lease but only on a year-to-year basis. The reason is that county officials believe the two acre parcel will eventually be needed for expansion of facilities whether it be an expanded jail, a home for abused women or a new home for the Noblesville Police Department.

Jim Gorby, a Senior Citizens Organization member, wants the see the seniors' building remain or arrangements made for another home with county help. He says Senior Citizens has only about $68,000 which is not nearly enough to replace current facilities.

Gorby says the demise of the organization would adversely affect the health and happiness of many older residents. Ultimately, it looks like a bleak future.

But, County Commissioner Steve Dillinger says the county has no intention of putting the seniors "out in the cold." He says there are no immediate plans that require use of the land on which the Senior Citizens building is located.

On Monday, June 13 there is a meeting of commissioners with experts who will present recommendations for providing more jail space. This need arises from recent state legislation that mandates counties to house convicted felons with sentences of less than a year rather than send them to state institutions.

This concerns Gorby who feels the need for more space by the sheriff's department will ultimately push the seniors out. He feels that if the organization cannot stay, the county should assist in providing a new facility that is conveniently located and measures up to the standards of the present building.

Dillinger says commissioners are on record as saying they would work with the organization to try to find a new home if and when a move becomes necessary. "That is still our intention."

At 4 p.m. the dancing begins with house music and then at 5 p.m. Noblesville DJ Gene Ott will start the evening on the main stage to get the crowd moving.

"Main Street is proud to welcome LemonWheel a previous Street Dance headliner back to the stage in downtown. They'll entertain with a great selection of music and have fun interacting with the crowd," explained Chris Owens, Noblesville Main Street executive director.

"I have so many fun memories of the two Noblesville Street Dances LemonWheel played in 2011 and 2012. Each time we have played, I recall, the warm daylight quickly turns to a fun summer night breeze and then the crowd really gathers in close to the stage giving the best feeling as a performer," said Lisa Sells, founder of Lemon-

LemonWheel

Wheel. "Watching the crowd dancing and singing along, giving the feeling that you are really doing what you set out to do, pleasing the crowd with a variety of music that brings joy and great memories."

In addition to all of the fun activities that attendees have come to expect, many are returning favorites: a marketplace of retail vendors, a beer garden area is planned and Wafford Theater is presenting a FREE showing of the movie Minions at dusk at a location to be announced later. Bring your blankets and chairs and enjoy. The Kids Zone will be open from 4 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. with games, prizes and activities for kids. Schaibley recognizes local schools for academic excellence

State Rep. Donna Schaibley (R-Carmel) honored Carmel, Westfield and Zionsville high schools on being recognized for their high scores on the Advanced Placement (AP) exam over the past three years.

Wednesday at the Statehouse, 51 high schools received recognition at the 2016 Indiana Advanced Placement Ceremony to highlight their academic success. Each school had at least 25 percent of their graduating classes earning a three or higher on the AP exam. The tests are scored on a 1 to 5 scale.

“This shows that our community, schools and teachers care about our students’ future as they go on to further their education,” Schaibley said. “Our students are ahead of the game with college credit already built up before graduating from high school.”

Carmel and Zionsville high schools have been recognized for high achieving AP students the past six years. Westfield alone last year had 51 percent of their students pass the AP exam.

AP exams are administered every year in Indiana high schools. These exams contain college-level questions to test students’ abilities to perform at the next level.

Royals, Millers' Parker Deakyne advance to state

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

Just as it had been in some of the Thursday IHSAA boys golf regionals, Friday's Muncie Central regional at The Players Club in Yorktown saw razor-thin margins for winning and advancing to the state finals.

Hamilton Southeastern will be back at state, which takes place next Tuesday and Wednesday at Carmel's Prairie View Golf Club. The Royals finished as runners-up at The Players Club, with only Bishop Chatard ahead of them. Both teams scored 306; the Trojans won on the fifth man score.

Yorktown secured third place, and the final advancing spot to state, with a 307. Mount Vernon was fourth with a 309, which shows how close the regional was. Noblesville finished sixth as a team, but advanced an individual, Parker Deakyne, to state.

The meet was delayed by three hours due to persistent thunderstorms that rudely showed up a little before sunrise. That made a long day already longer; Southeastern was on the bus to go to The Players Club at 5:30 a.m., "but we've been up since way before that," said HSE coach David Young.

"It's hard to just cool your jets and pick right back up, but they really did a great job," said Young.

Southeastern played consistently, toughing out the fatigue and the wet conditions. Cedric McAree was the Royals' low man, finishing with a 74. That score tied him for fifth individually. Drew Alexander followed that with a 76, and Jake Hutmacher scored 77.

"From looking at the scores at least, there's obviously an advantage to the later tee times, once the course actually dried out more," said Young. "But I think we handled that well."

Southeastern earned a spot at state for the eighth time in school history, and their upcoming appearance will stretch their state-qualifying streak to four. The Royals placed fourth at last year's state meet, and are focused on improving on that this year.

"That's our focus," said Young. "We got fourth last year, so there's absolutely no reason why we shouldn't be better than that this year."

As usual, the presence of so many good teams and only three state-qualifying spots available means that many good teams were shut out of advancing to state. One of those teams was Noblesville, which carded a 313 to finish sixth - again, that should tell even the most casual golf fan just how tough this regional is.

It was disappointing for the Millers, who were coming off their first sectional championship since 2005 just four days before. But Noblesville will have a golfer at state: Parker Deakyne shot a 74, tying with

After a long day, the Hamilton Southeastern boys golf team was finally able to relax after the Muncie Central regional Friday at The Players Club in Yorktown. The Royals finished second at the regional and qualified for next week's IHSAA state tournament at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel.

McAree for fifth place individually. Deakyne was one of the five individuals to qualify for state on a non-advancing team.

"Obviously I'm ecstatic that I'm going to be playing, but I really want to go with my team," said Deakyne. "But it's just not going to happen today."

Clay Merchant, a freshman, carded a 76 for Noblesville.

"Our ultimate goal is always to get to the state tournament," said Millers Sewell. "We fell short this year. The kids are disappointed. We are disappointed."

"But, we can't sit back and say it's a total loss. We had a lot of good memories from this year. We played a lot of good golf, it just wasn't today."

The Millers still have a young team and will return several golfers, although they will graduate senior Collin Kinkead.

"He's been a kid that's been here for four years for us," said Sewell. "He's played varsity all those times, and he is somebody that everybody can look up to. They can go to him for advice."

"He's going to be missed," said Sewell, who called Kinkead "that linchpin for us, that anchor for us" that was an integral part of the Millers' team.

Fishers placed 13th as a team. Shivom Patel led the Tigers with a 77.

Hamilton Heights had an individual at regional: Jesse Reed scored 84.

34=73, Mason Rader (Centerville) 37-36=73, Parker Deakyne (Noblesville) 36-38=74, Will Dant (Mount Vernon) 37-38=75, won playoff to advance.

Southeastern scores: Cedric McAree 38-36=74, Drew Alexander 37-39=76, Jake Hutmacher 39-38=77, Will Kirchmer 40-39=79, Nick Kuster 45-38=83.

Other Noblesville scores: Clay Merchant 38-38=76, Jacob Deakyne 40-40=80, Collin Kinkead 43-40=83, Mitchell Compton 45-45=90.

Fishers scores: Shivom Patel 38-39=77, Nick Fisher 42-40=82, Garrett Allen 40-43=83, Drake Anderson 43-47=90, Noah Chamberlin 49-43=92.

SVRA Brickyard Vintage Racing Invite is next week at IMS

Speedway, Indiana native Freddy Niblack will be participating in next week's SVRA Brickyard Vintage Racing Invitational scheduled for June 15-19 at the Indy Motor Speedway.

World-class vintage racing returns for a third time to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Over 500 vintage race cars will take center stage on both the road course and the historic oval during the weekend, offering drivers and the fans the widest variety of motor racing available anywhere. In 2016, the event honors the 100th running of the Indy 500 as well as showcasing a wide variety of racing cars, including those that competed in past Indianapolis 500s, NASCAR, Formula One, Can-Am, SCCA, and Trans-Am events.

For more information on the race, please visit <http://www.svra.com/events/2016-brickyard-vintage-racing-invitational/>

Freddy began racing at age 7, where he slipped behind the wheel of a quarter midget for his first competitive driving experience. He raced quarter midgets until he was 16 years old and turned his interest to racing midgets, legend cars and Go-Karts. At age 20, Niblack turned his focus and attended the Skip Barber Racing School and began racing Super Vee, and Mini Indy Cars. In 1991, his continued interest in different styles of racing led him to England where he raced Formula 3 and Formula 4, on tracks such as Snetterton, Donington and Silverstone. He continued racing in England until 1993 when he was diagnosed with stage 3 Squamous Cell Carcinoma.

After his cancer diagnosis Niblack returned to the U.S. to undergo surgery, chemotherapy and radiation. His battle with his cancer led to a male mastectomy and a break from his early racing career to focus on his health and recovery.

In 2015, after his long fight with Stage 3 Squamous Cell Carcinoma and the result of a male mastectomy, Niblack decided he was ready to return and continue in his pursuit to race. He returned to Skip Barber School of Racing where he competed in the Skip Barber Summer Series and won the Summer Series. Niblack also attended the Allen Berg Racing School in September 2015 where he went through intensive training and successfully completed the course and gained his SCCA Pro Competition license. After receiving his license Niblack raced in the West Coast Formula Mazda Championship and placed 3rd.

Niblack then signed with Top Kart USA (McLaughlin Motorsports) to compete in the 2016 Pro Mazda Championship Series. Recently, in March 2016, Niblack attended an advanced driving course at Seat Time American Racing School at Charlotte Motor Speedway, Charlotte North Carolina where he began practice and testing to work toward gaining his ARCCA license.
