Carmel ‘Green Teen’ program wins President’s award, trip to White House

The Carmel Green Teen Micro-Grant Program, an organization founded and administered by middle and high school students in Carmel, has been awarded the 2015 President’s Environmental Youth Award by the EPA for Region 5. Representatives of the Board accepted the award at a ceremony at the White House in Washington DC on August 16, 2016.

The award recognizes the Carmel Green Teens’ ongoing work to “make Carmel greener, one youth project at a time.” Grants are given up to $1,000 each to youth-led groups for projects that support the environment and promote sustainability in Carmel. Six projects were funded in 2015, including a butterfly garden, an educational “Earth Fair”, and four projects promoting recycling and refillable water bottles at various Carmel schools.

“Carmel Green Teens has inspired countless youth to make a difference in our community,” said Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard. “I have watched the program grow and expand through the years thanks to dedicated board members and the financial sponsorship from the City of Carmel Utilities. The projects they have funded and students they have mentored have made a positive impact to both the environment and Carmel community.”

Sweetie says: Help your pets watch their weight

By “SWEETIE” MCMAHON
“If your dog is fat, you aren’t getting enough exercise.”
~ Author unknown

Sweetie here! My human mom and dad, Sharon and Bruce, are off on a trip so once again I am tasked to bring you some insights into my canine world and, hopefully, with some suggestions for your four-legged family members as well. Although I miss my human parents, my pet sitter Katie is awesome and loves to spoil us!

About the quote noted above...I hope no one takes offense! I have heard it said in the human world that “old folks” get to speak their mind so considering that I am now, in human years, 112 (I just turned “Sweet Sixteen” this year!) I am taking advantage of that. However, for this article let’s use the word “overweight” as the word “fat” is often used in a very hurtful and derogatory way and that is truly not my intention. According to www.petobesityprevention.com, over 57% of dogs are overweight/obese, while the percentage is even higher for cats! This condition brings about osteoarthritis, Type 2 diabetes, cancer, heart disease, and kidney failure. These may sound all too familiar to the humans as well!

In my last article I was remiss to mention that my human Dad, Bruce, is the one who prepares breakfast every morning for me, the “other” dog Guy, and Leo the cat – he is our chef and primary caretaker of the “potty” requirements!

Although my humans make sure I get some daily exercise (I have, after all, maintained my svelte figure in my advanced years!) and watch my diet (no human food for me!) I do, of course, have my health issues due to age which include cataracts, poor hearing, and some general arthritis. Thankfully I have my monthly heartworm meds and my monthly “anti-parasite” meds which help to keep me feeling pretty good overall. But back to the weight issue ...of course I know my furry friends are not reading this article but those of you who are, do yourself and your best furry buddy a favor and get out to take those walks, play ball, and just romp around! (Cat owners, as you know, your play schedule with your cat depends ENTIRELY on their schedules...I’m just sayin’) And, frankly, cat obesity rates are even higher than dogs’ rates. Back to the “senior” dog category, we also need a little more patience and understanding to go along with a healthy diet, disease preventatives, and that all-important exercise. If any of you have been in the role of caretaker of an elderly human there are actually many similarities. As a “senior” I like to nap a little more often, walk a little more slowly, and continue to enjoy my cuddles on a regular basis. Additionally a trip to the grooming salon makes me feel just a bit better and more attractive, not so different are we? We canines are also pack-oriented and want to be with our families, not stuck outside in a dog house – that makes for a lonely life, as well as being dangerous in extreme heat or cold weather.

Finally, I feel I need to put in my plug for all my brothers and sisters (cats too!) who are desperately hoping for a home as they wait patiently in the animal shelters around the country. The shelters do the best they can but nothing can take the place of a real family who loves unconditionally. As a dog who had a rough start in life (yes I am “purebred” but believe me that did not prevent the abuse I endured) and was blessed to find my forever home at the age of 5 (or 35 in dog years!) I can say from first-hand experience that there are some really good future family members out there who are in need of a great home – and it is never necessary to spend a lot of money for that forever friend and family member! The shelters and rescue groups will work with you to make a good match, so please adopt!

Your friend,
Sweetie McMahon

INDOT pulls back road, lane and ramp closures for holiday weekend traffic

The Indiana Department of Transportation announces that State Farm Insurance has renewed its exclusive sponsorship of Hoosier Helper urban freeway patrols just in time for Labor Day weekend travels. The sponsorship will support and supplement Hoosier Helper freeway service patrols for three years beginning Sept. 1, with an option to extend the agreement for an additional three years.

State Farm sponsors similar service patrols in a dozen other states and responded to INDOT’s February request for proposals. Under the sponsorship, State Farm logos will continue to be displayed on Hoosier Helper vehicles, operator uniforms and signs delineating the Hoosier Helper service areas.

“Our support of the Indiana DOT Hoosier Helper program embodies our ‘good neighbor’ philosophy,” said Ed Gold, State Farm advertising director. “It also underscores the continued commitment State Farm has to auto safety, while helping people recover from the unexpected, which is the heart of the State Farm mission.”

About 20 Hoosier Helper vehicles patrol heavily-traveled interstates in Indianapolis, Northwest Indiana and Southern Indiana near Louisville. Last year, Hoosier Helpers assisted more than 61,000 motorists.

“Hoosier Helpers provide a wonderful service to the public by keeping urban interstates flowing, reducing pollution, assisting motorists in times of need and saving lives,” said INDOT Commissioner Brandye Hendrickson. “Partnering with State Farm promotes the mission of the INDOT’s Hoosier Helpers while providing these services at the lowest cost to taxpayers.”

Safety break at Plainfield Rest Area

Ahead of Labor Day travels, INDOT and State Farm will host a “Safety Break” from 1 to 4 p.m. this Thursday, Sept. 1 at the I-70 westbound rest area at Mile 64 near Plainfield. The Safety Break will feature Hoosier Helpers and other INDOT vehicles on display, fun family-friendly activities and giveaways to Help life go right™ on the road. To access the Safety Break from I-70 eastbound, turn left through the State Road 267 Exit 66 and re-enter I-70 westbound.

Road work suspended

Whether you’re vacationing, visiting family and friends, or just passing through this Labor Day travel holiday, INDOT urges drivers to plan extra travel time, to stay informed on road conditions and to drive safely.

Most highway maintenance activities and construction projects will halt work during the holiday weekend to increase mobility and safety. INDOT directs its contractors to pull back barriers and barricades to the safest extent possible to accommodate the anticipated increase in holiday travel. Some restrictions will remain in place due to ongoing road construction, including:

Northern Indiana

- Sections of I-94 in LaPorte County are reduced to two lanes in each direction for rehabilitation from U.S. 421 (Exit 40) near Michigan City to the Michigan State line. Some U.S. 20/35 ramps are closed with posted detours.
- Sections of I-94 in Lake County are reduced to three lanes in each direction for maintenance of three bridges between the Illinois state line and S.R. 912/Cline Avenue (Exit 5).
- U.S. 31 is reduced to one lane in each direction for road construction between U.S. 30 and 4A Road near Plymouth.

- I-69 lanes are shifted between Union Chapel Road (Exit 317) near Fort Wayne and County Road 11A (Exit 326) near Garrett for a bridge replacement project.
- I-469 near Fort Wayne is reduced to one lane in each direction between State Road 1 (Exit 6) and U.S. 27/33 (Exit 11) for road construction.
- The U.S. 24 ramp entering I-65 northbound at Exit 201 is closed for reconstruction.

Central Indiana

- I-70 is reduced to one lane in each direction between Terre Haute/Riley (Exit 11) and Brazil (Exit 23) for overlay maintenance on two bridge decks.
- Sections of State Road 37 from Bloomington to just south of Martinsville are reduced to one lane in each direction for Interstate 69 construction.
- U.S. 31 is reduced to one lane in each direction with no access to State Road 28 near Tipton for interchange construction.

Southern Indiana

- I-65 is reduced to two lanes in each direction between Eastern Boulevard (Exit 1) and the Kentucky state line for Ohio River Bridge construction.
- I-65 lanes are shifted for two modernization projects between Sellersburg (Exit 9) and State Road 56 (Exit 29) near Scottsburg.
- Sections of I-64 in Perry and Spencer counties are reduced to one lane in each

MetroNet installing fiber optic lines in Carmel

Local residents should be aware that a private company is installing fiber optic lines in neighborhoods throughout the city. This is not a City of Carmel project, however, we wanted residents to be aware that they will be seeing some activity on their streets, sidewalks and in their yards, within the legal utility easements recorded with each property deed.

The company currently doing this work is MetroNet, a fiber optic service provider of internet, TV, and phone services. The company provided the following information to be shared:

STATEMENT FROM METRONET

With construction beginning, you'll start to see our teams in the area. These construction teams may need to come onto the easements located on residential properties. Rest assured, the construction phase is temporary and we'll do our best to minimize any impact to your property. We want to prepare you for the construction phase, and have outlined the following details to help set the right expectations:

1. All underground utilities will be located before any construction begins. You could see flags and spray paint in your yard, and along the road and sidewalks. Once you see flags and spray paint, you can expect to see construction teams in approximately 1-2 weeks.

- Sections of U.S. 41 near Vincennes are reduced to one lane in each direction for bridge construction, including at the U.S. 50 interchange.
- U.S. 41 from Virginia Ave to I-69 in Evansville is reduced to one lane for pavement rehabilitation.
- State Road 237 has a temporary signal controlling two-way traffic at the Ohio River bridge in Cannelton during bridge rehabilitation.
- State Road 154 has a temporary signal controlling two-way traffic at the Wabash River bridge in Hutsonville and is closed between State Road 63 and U.S. 41 for bridge construction.

Celebrate responsibly

The Indiana State Police, the Governor's Council on Impaired & Dangerous Driving and the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute are participating in the national and statewide 2016 Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over enforcement mobilization occurring Aug. 12 through Sept. 5. Officers will join more than 250 state and local law enforcement agencies, and thousands more across the country, to conduct high-visibility patrols encouraging drivers against drinking and driving.

Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over is an annual enforcement effort supported by federal funding allocated to Indiana State Police from the Traffic Safety division of ICJI. Officers will work overtime to conduct sobriety patrols and checkpoints around the clock. According to ICJI, in 2015, there were 4,828 alcohol-impaired collisions in Indiana, resulting in 92 fatalities. This is a 26.5 percent decrease in the number of alcohol-impaired collisions, and a 9 percent decrease in resulting fatalities, from 2014.

Indiana law enforcement agencies have been actively involved in the Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign for over 20 years.

For more information regarding the Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over enforcement mobilization campaign, please visit www.nhtsa.gov/drivesober.

DAILY BIBLE VERSE

And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

- Matthew 9:3

50 Years Ago

News: Quoting in part a Mother Goose saying: "There's a heap of oats, peas, beans and barley" stored in the bins on Bill Harger's farm. And that ain't the half of it: before he's through there will be a lot more. While this attempt at rhyme falls far short of its mark, the grain storage project Harger and Son are undertaking scores a real bull's eye. Five new "Stormor" grain silos have been erected on the Harger Farm east of Noblesville on Ind. 32.

Sports: Noblesville's Millers stumbled into a hole in the first eight minutes of a football game with strong and talented North Central Conference Marion Friday evening and could never recover as the visiting Giants stormed to a 31-to-6 victory.

Moriden America plans to create 32 jobs by next year

The effect of the Subaru's Lafayette assembly facility continues to bring more employment to Central Indiana, as another company announced plans to create more jobs.

Moriden America will add 32 new positions by next year. Moriden is based in Japan, but has a facility in Carmel, at 9760 Mayflower Park Drive on the city's far west side.

The Indiana Economic Development Corporation announced the employment news in a press release on its website. "Today Hoosiers across the state are witnessing the impact of Subaru's significant commitment to growing in Indiana," said Governor Mike Pence in the press release. "In addition to creating more than 1,000 new jobs in Lafayette, Subaru's growth has a ripple effect on its suppliers, including Moriden America, which is ramping up production and adding more manufacturing jobs. Indiana's world-class automotive supply chain ranks third in the nation for car and truck production and is a key contributor to the state's overall economy, which has added nearly 150,000 new Hoosier jobs since 2013."

The release also said that Moriden America, which it describes as "a manufacturer of cargo systems and interior trim for the automotive industry," is currently hiring for production and quality control positions, with plans to add additional second-shift production positions next year. Interested applicants may apply by sending a resume to jnickels@moridenamerica.com.

Moriden America has been headquartered in the state since 1990, but moved into its current working space in July 2015.

"A little more than a year after moving its American headquarters to Carmel, we are pleased to see that Moriden America is already expanding its manufacturing operations to better serve the Subaru operation in Lafayette," said Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard in the press release. "This is good news for Carmel and our family of national and international businesses who have chosen to grow their business here."

2. Next, our construction team will begin digging to find the existing underground utilities. Because we have to cross the utilities when we lay piping, it is necessary to know exactly where they are and is required by law.

3. Once actual construction of our 100 percent fiber optic network begins in your neighborhood, teams will begin placing pipes underground and pulling fiber through them. The timeline for completion varies depending on the size of your neighborhood, weather, and similar variables related to establishing the network. Once complete, your home will be ready for MetroNet services.

4. After the construction process is finished, MetroNet will rake, seed and straw your lawn in the areas where digging occurred.

10,000 expected at Mudsock

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Next Monday, Labor Day Week, will provide lots of excitement for Hamilton Southeastern and Fishers students. It will be Mudsock Week. In 2007, Fishers and Hamilton Southeastern began competing for the traveling trophy known as the Mudsock Award. Why Mudsock? Fishers years ago was known as Mudsock. Each varsity sport competes for an individual traveling Mudsock trophy and the winning team earns one point for its school. The school with the most points keeps the larger Mudsock Award for one year.

The Mudsock Award and trophies are sponsored by the Robert “Dub” and Jeanne Clark family, which, of course, makes the honor even more special. Southeastern currently is gunning for its 10th straight championship. Here’s the upcoming schedule: Sept. 6, boys soccer at Fishers. Sept. 7, girls soccer at Southeastern. Sept. 8, volleyball at Fishers. And, of course, the big one. Sept. 9 will be the football battle between the Royals and the Tigers. The Mudsock points for boys and girls cross country are usually decided at the Hamilton County Championships at White River Elementary in Noblesville. This event was rained out and will not be rescheduled. Therefore, for 2016, the cross country Mudsock points will be determined by the Royals and Tigers finish on the same course, White River, at the Hoosier Crossroads Conference championships on Saturday, Oct. 1. Southeastern officials already are predicting a sellout crowd of 10,000 when the football game is held on Sept. 9 at Reynolds Royals Stadium. Pre-sale tickets ($5) have gone on sale. Tickets will be limited to the first 8,000 sold. HSE all-sport passes, football season passes and punch card may be shown at the gate. Tickets are being sold in the main office at Southeastern High School (entrance 1) during school hours. Students may purchase tickets during the school day in the athletic office or the main office. Also, Hamilton Southeastern Schools Foundation will sell a limited number of VIP tickets which include exclusive, adult only end zone seating. VIP guests will enjoy complimentary goodies from Coca-Cola, Aurelio’s Pizza, Jack’s Donuts, Moe’s Southwest Grill, Sundaes and Wings Etc. in the Citizens State Bank hospitality tent.
