Indiana Transportation Museum awaiting report...

No timetable for trains

By FRED SWIFT

Officials of the Indiana Transportation Museum (ITM) still do not know when they may be free to put trains back on the tracks of the Nickel Plate through Noblesville. Jeff Kehler, president of the ITM board, says his organization must await the report of an inspection commissioned by the Heritage Port Authority, owner of the rail line.

Presumably that inspection will be done next month. The ITM will then be responsible for making any repairs that the inspection shows to be necessary for safe operations. The Nickel Plate runs from downtown Indianapolis to Tipton. The transportation museum, headquartered at Forest Park, has been the sole user of the tracks and responsible for its maintenance under an agreement with the port authority.

Problems began early this year when disgruntled volunteers at the museum claimed the rails were not safe. The

The trains at the Indiana Transportation Museum will remain idle for an indefinite period. The Heritage Port Authority's safety concerns kept the FairTrain (pictured) from running during the Indiana State Fair; the ITM board president said the museum is waiting on an inspection report by the port authority in order to make any necessary repairs.

Looking north for opportunity

By MARY SUE ROWLAND

It has been a good summer for Hamilton County. Fishers latest award of "2016 Community of the Year"; Carmel hosting a National PGA Golf Championship Tour; Cicero offering fireworks, "Dine on the Causeway", the lake; Westfield's Grand Park Sports Complex with 400 acres of sports fields and facilities; Atlanta's

New Earth Festival attracting 100,000 visitors; Noblesville's Historic Town Square and more free family entertainment options in the County than any one family can do, so what is the problem?

As the County has grown from the early 1800's, the population and opportunity has continued to move south in Hamilton County. In the early days, the growth of settlements was in the northern part of the County such as Boxley, Atlanta, and Arcadia. Today, the northern communities have few tax dollars and little growth especially in Atlanta and Arcadia. Boxley has a few homes and that is about all.

Something of notice a couple weeks ago, was the Hamilton Heights Homecoming celebration that traveled through Arcadia as the kids rode and marched to the beat of the school band. The parade moved down the center of town to a cheering crowd of fans and parents. The parade passed building after building that still stands, boarded and closed. The once booming town with glass factories and industry is history in every sense of the word. Most of the downtown real estate is beyond repair with little hope

Grand Park news...

Indiana Soccer relocates headquarters to Grand Park Events Center

Grand Park has announced that Indiana Soccer Association (ISA) has relocated its headquarters to the Grand Park Events Center. Beginning in November, Indiana Soccer will also offer a variety of indoor soccer leagues for ages 8U through Adult with options for both full and small-sided play, Futsal and more.

“We’re excited to welcome Indiana Soccer to the Events Center,” said Westfield Mayor Andy Cook. “We have a longstanding relationship with the organization at Grand Park and we’re pleased that they are expanding their role at the park as the official indoor soccer provider of the Events Center.”

Indiana Soccer has played an integral role in developing the concept of the Grand Park Events Center into a world-class facility. The new indoor leagues being offered are an ideal complement to the existing 31 field sports outdoor fields that have already hosted several state, regional and national soccer events.

Dave Guthrie, Indiana Soccer Executive Director commented that “the Events Center at Grand Park is an amazing facility that offers almost unlimited options for use by the Indiana Soccer membership to train and compete so that player development opportunities are maximized during the 365-day calendar.”

The Grand Park Events Center features three indoor fields, which are all full-sided (110 yards x 73 yards). The roof is a minimum of 40 feet high to a maximum of 73 feet. The spectator concourses are 15 feet above the fields for excellent viewing of the activities. The Events Center also houses a full service restaurant on the main floor and a second floor grill with bar service and seating for up to 175 people overlooking the center field.

With limited space in each age group, the inaugural season is expected to fill up quickly. For more information, please visit:<http://www.soccerindiana.org/competition/indoor.aspx>.

Harvard educator, negotiator Daniel Shapiro to speak Oct. 26

Founder and Director of the Harvard International Negotiation Program Daniel Shapiro is coming to Westfield.

The author and award-winning negotiator will deliver two workshops at Grand Park on October 26. Titled “The Five Keys to Successful Negotiation,” Shapiro’s lecture and workshop will provide practical approaches to amplify leadership and influence – in business, government and life.

The event is a partnership between the City of Westfield and Hamilton County Leadership Academy.

“Dan Shapiro’s training will provide participants with a deep understanding of negotiation and emotional intelligence that will prove valuable to a variety of professions,” Westfield Chief of Staff Todd Burtron said. “I’ve enjoyed reading Dr. Shapiro’s work, and have had the opportunity to participate in his workshop. I can attest to the practical, everyday impact his knowledge can have on one’s work and life.”

“The Hamilton County Leadership Academy is excited to partner with the City of Westfield in hosting Daniel Shapiro,” HCLA Executive Director Jill Doyle said. “Negotiating skills are very important in any kind of leadership, including community leadership, and we hope our community takes advantage of learning from one of the experts in this field.”

Shapiro’s workshops will occur at 7:30 a.m. and noon on Oct. 26. To learn more and to select which workshop you’d like to attend, visit the HCLA signup page by clicking here.

The event is sponsored by Faegre Baker Daniels.

ROWLAND

of building a downtown again. Restaurants come and go, shops try but few people come.

What must those young impressionable minds thought the day of their homecoming parade? Perhaps, " Is that my future and my dream?"

Atlanta holds their Annual New Earth Festival each year and thousands come to the event with over 600 hundred vendors. Quite an accomplishment for such a small town. But who returns during the year? The money the town earns from the Festival goes toward financing the town for another year because the tax income does not cover the expenses of keeping the town going.

Should the southern successful cities with large budgets, plans and economic development departments look north to their Neighbors? These towns have little opportunity for growth or recovery. County government could be a strong and helpful partner to the communities to the north. For years and years, the northern towns have tried to do what it could but the battle is more difficult each year. People who live to the north love their towns and want them to be the best they can be. Without options found in other communities, people continue to live and enjoy the place they call home.

TRAINS

volunteers were discharged after the claims plus allegations of poor business practices. The Indiana Attorney General's office is reportedly looking into the business records, but have thus far reported nothing that the ITM is aware of, Kehler said.

The Federal Railroad Administration looked into the safety concerns, and reported finding no problems to the museum officials. But, the port authority, wanting to insure safety, suspended ITM's use of the rails until further inspection is done. As a result there was no FairTrain this year. ITM was hoping to get back on track after Labor Day, but that has not happened.

Running excursion trains both north and south provides a big part of the museum's revenue. Trains taking riders to dinner at Cicero and Atlanta, along with youngsters to a Pumpkin Patch, and later a Polar Bear Express are among the popular rides offered for many years. The trains are considered a tourist attraction for the county.

Still unknown is whether any trains will be able to run yet this year. That will depend on the release of the inspection report and amount of time it takes to make any repairs found to be needed.

Sheridan Youth Assistance partners with Chili’s

The Sheridan Youth Assistance Program is partnering with Chili's Restaurant for a "Give Back Program" to benefit the Hamilton County Harvest Food Bank.

Simply present a voucher at one of the following four Chili's locations any time and as many times as you like between Oct. 3 and 6: Noblesville, 16815 Mercantile Blvd.; Westfield, 14735 Thatcher Lane; Keystone, 3960 E. 82nd St.; Traders Point, 6020 W. 86th St.

It's best to present a new voucher to your server each time you dine, but vouchers can be reused. One voucher will work for an entire table.

Lisa Samuels, Early Intervention Advocate for the SYAP, said that if not for the food bank, "the Sheridan Youth Assistance would not have been able to provide a sack lunch every day during the summer for the 15 students from Sheridan that attended the Noblesville Boys and Girls Club. SYAP was able to transport and feed these students to give them a safe and engaging activity all summer."

Fifteen percent of your purchases will help fund the programs and partnerships that Hamilton County Harvest Food Bank utilize to fight hunger here in Hamilton County.

2016 Carmel on Canvas results

The third annual Carmel on Canvas plein air paint out was held Friday to Sunday, September 16-18. This open-air painting exhibition and competition took place on the sidewalks throughout the Carmel Arts & Design District.

"Carmel on Canvas is an event that is perfectly aligned with our strategy of using the arts as an economic development tool. It was wonderful to see so many artists travel to Carmel from across the Midwest to create works of art using Carmel's Arts & Design District as their inspiration. One of my favorite aspects of this event is that the artists interact with the public who are able to see the works of art created. Our desire is to grow this event to be the best plein air paint out in the country." said Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard.

The Carmel on Canvas plein air event hosted more than 70 highly acclaimed artists from the Midwest including Wisconsin, Chicago, Ft Wayne, Bloomington and other communities. The artists competed in a variety of plein air contests within the 3-day event. They registered in a division that matched their skill level; professional, non-professional, and teen. Rachel Perry, former fine art curator of the Indiana State Museum and author of numerous art articles and books, judged the artwork, with the exception of the Saturday morning Quick Paint.

This year, two new components were added to this annual event. On Saturday morning, a Quick Paint took place at the Carmel Farmers Market at Center Green. The winner of this contest was selected by visitors to the market, which raised community awareness of the event overall. The success of this Quick Paint made it clear that this element will be retained for next year's event.

The second new component that was incorporated into the event was the Sunday afternoon Art Fair where artists displayed and sold their work to visitors. Artists displayed creations from the Carmel on Canvas event as well as pieces from their broader scope of work.

The awards for the 2016 Carmel on Canvas are as follows:

- PROFESSIONAL DIVISION:
Grand Prize ($5000), Wyatt LeGrand, Bloomfield
2nd Place ($3000), Nancie Mertz, Chicago, IL

Another close one?

Westfield hosts Avon

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Just how much will an old heart take? Or, a young heart.

“We have lost two games in a row by a point, but we are staying positive,” said Westfield coach Jake Gilbert looking to this week’s home Hoosier Crossroads Conference game with Avon.

Looking at scores, Westfield could be in for another tight game.

Avon, for example, has defeated Hamilton Southeastern 31-28. Westfield lost to HSE 21-20. Westfield lost 29-28 in overtime to Brownsburg. Avon has lost to Brownsburg 30-22.

Avon is 3-3. The Orioles also have lost to Ben Davis 38-7 and to Whiteland 22-21. They have defeated Plainfield 35-31 and Fishers 38-3.

Westfield this week is ranked No. 5 in Class 5A behind Fort Wayne Snider, New Palestine, Bloomington South and Columbus East.

“We have lots of work to do to get better and we have to find ways to win the close one,” Gilbert talked about his 4-2 Shamrocks. “We still believe we can be a very good football team. We’ve just lost to a couple of good football teams.”

Westfield’s offense in six games has proven they can move the ball through the air and on the ground.

In five games (he missed one game by injury), senior quarterback Andy Sweet has hit on 42-of-78 passes for 679 yards. He has thrown for six touchdowns and has not been intercepted.

Sweet’s top receiver has been Evan Manley with 17 receptions for 362 yards and five of the Shamrocks’ seven aerial touchdowns. Jonathan Swidan has 10 catches for 146 yards.

Nate Froelich and Swidan have pounded the way on the ground. Froelich has carried 106 times for 628 yards and seven touchdowns and Swidan has carried 73 times for 379 yards and six scores.

Westfield has scored 16 times on the ground and seven times through the air.

Gilbert said Westfield will have to play well on defense.

“Avon has one of the best players in the state in Bryant Fitzpatrick,” pointed out the Westfield coach. “He’s explosive and dangerous. He plays running back and offensive linebacker and returns kicks.”

In 37 carries, Fitzpatrick has run for 288 yards and five touchdowns. Sampson James is Avon’s leading rusher with 343 yards in 84 carries.

The Orioles can sling the football. Quarterback Cameron Misner has connected on 65 passes in 146 attempts for 880 yards. He has tossed for 10 touchdowns and has been intercepted just two times. His leading receiver is Luke Shayotovich with 27 catches for 326 yards.

Avon has defeated Westfield two consecutive times, 35-20 last year and 23-6 two seasons ago. Westfield won 17-15 three years ago.

“Avon is a much younger team than usual, but they are still big, strong and fast, like always,” Gilbert added.

It's Carmel's homecoming ...

The Giants are coming

By DON JELLISON
Reporter Editor

Carmel's football program is a little different than many. For example, while many will select "cupcakes" for homecoming games, Carmel this Friday will celebrate homecoming by host long-time MIC Conference rival Ben Davis, which this week is tied for sixth in the Indiana Coaches Association's 6A poll.

Of course, there are few cupcakes on Carmel's schedule.

Another thing different about Carmel football. The Greyhounds are tied for No. 10 in the same poll. Despite only a 3-3 record.

Ben Davis is 4-2 but only 1-2 in the Giants' last three games. In comparing scores, Ben Davis has defeated Pike 48-14 and beaten Lawrence North 41-14 while losing to Center Grove 20-7. Carmel has beaten Pike 65-27 and lost to Center Grove 19-6 and to Lawrence North 27-20.

"Ben Davis is extremely talented and well-coached," Carmel coach John Hebert talked about the Giants. "Even in the games they lost, they played with great physicality and energy. They are certainly one of the top five teams in the state, in my opinion.

"Stopping their quarterback, Reece Taylor, will be a major challenge. The front seven of the Gants' defense is as good as anyone in the state," Hebert added.

Taylor is outstanding. He has completed 89-of-143 passes for 1,023 yards and seven touchdowns. He has carried the pigskin 64 times for 608 yards. His leading receiving is Noah Thomas with 20 catches for 195 yards.

Carmel is coming off a victory over North Central.

"Again, we did not get off to the fast start we sought," Hebert said. "Offensively, it took us several series before we established our game plan. Once we did that, our running game got going and we were able to establish a rhythm.

That running game is led by Jerome Halsell with 503 yards in 86 carries for a 5.8 yard average per trip. Camari Hunt has averaged 6.5 with 274 yards in 42 carries.

"Jalen Walker, Ethan Merriweather, Camari Hunt and Jerome Halsell made plays contributing to a 48-point production," said Hebert.

"Defensively, after a strong start, North Central's offense proved to be a challenge to stop. Jacob Abrams had a strong game, including a pass interception which led to a field goal and put us up 17-6 as the first half expired," said Hebert.

Carmel's passing game also has been outstanding. Ben McDonald is 73-for-110 for 939 yards and 14 touchdowns. He has been intercepted just two times.

Walker has 27 catches for 310 yards and seven touchdowns and Merriweather 19 receptions for 306 yards and five TDs.

Carmel has defeated Ben Davis two consecutive times, 35-21 last year and 37-14 two years ago. The Giants won 28-24 three seasons ago.

Soccer

Husky girls blast Anderson

The Hamilton Heights girls soccer team took care of Anderson 7-0 in a Monday match. "After periods of sluggishness in both halves, the Huskies put together a strong final 20 minutes," said Huskies coach Travis Kaufmann. "Heights played good combination possession while at their best which gave the Husky offense many opportunities." Makel Smith scored three goals for Heights, with Abby Hardacre, Madison Bickett, Katy Beery, and Elaina Page each getting one. Kinsey Dimmock had two assists and Audrie Catron and Bickett added one assist each. Jenna McGrew and Alyssa Irwin combined for the shutout in goal. "Irwin had a fantastic PK save to save the shutout," said Kaufmann. The Husky junior varsity team also won their match 2-0, behind goals from Jenna McGrew and Amanda Irwin. Carmel, the No. 2 ranked team in Class 2A, beat Westfield 6-0 in a Monday game. Katie Soderstrom and Jessica Dilger both scored two goals, with Emily Roberts and Bridget Mallin each getting one. Five different players had one assist. Ali James, Roberts, Soderstrom, Jessi Cowen and Kelsie James. Greyhound goalkeepers Nicole Vohs and Sydney Baines both had three saves. Libby Rismiller had two saves for the Shamrocks, with Catherine Parisi getting one. Carmel coach Frank Dixon said his team "accomplished two things" that will help it when post-season play begins next week: The Greyhounds got to play on Westfield's turf field a week before the Shamrocks host Sectional 17, "and we got significant playing time for almost everyone on the roster," said Dixon. "Westfield has a first generation turf field and it is extremely fast," said Dixon. "The girls were able to work on the pace of their passes as well as timing their runs. Getting everyone on that surface for an extended period will help our confidence and our touch." Carmel is now 12-2-1 and hosts Center Grove tonight.

BOYS SOCCER
Carmel, ranked No. 8 in 2A, played to a 1-1 tie on Monday with 2A No. 11 Center Grove. Brenno Pecora scored the Greyhounds' goal, with Jack Muller making the assist. Carmel is now 7-2-5 for the season. "Our transition from defending to getting forward into the attack is getting better and better," said 'Hounds coach Shane Schmidt. "I am proud of the entire team effort tonight."

Guerin Catholic, 2A's No. 18 team, played to a 1-1 tie with University Monday. The Trailblazers scored first: Ryan Williams got the goal off an assist by Sam Gailey. The Golden Eagles scored with less than three minutes left; Conor Murray found the back of the net off of Andrew Garvey's assist.

Hamilton Southeastern, ranked No. 12 in 2A, won its senior night game 1-0 over Noblesville Tuesday. Darion Ghaffari scored the Royals' goal. Ben Haxton had a solid game in goal to ensure a victory on senior night," said HSE coach Christopher White.

Westfield played Avon tough on Tuesday before falling to the 2A No. 4 Orioles 1-0. Shamrocks coach Myron Vaughn said his team "played well but could not get the tying goal despite creating multiple chances."
