Hamilton County

One for the books

By MARY SUE ROWLAND

The election is over with many surprises all around for the voters. For the last 18 months, the discussion at most breakfast tables has been the election and the outcome. Thousands of early voters headed to the many early voting sites around the County in order to be heard. For the Hamilton County site, at the Judicial Center located in downtown Noblesville, the true phenomenon in addition to the large number of voters, was that everyone found a parking spot within walking distance to the voting place. At times, the action of parking was very creative. Voters could be in line for longer than the magic two hours allowed for parking, which could have resulted in a rush of parking tickets. Parking tickets make visitors to the downtown very unhappy so it could be the visiting voters may never return. If you got a parking ticket for doing your American duty of voting, give the city another try at another time.

Often, the downtown early voter's would see the County parking lots and determine that they were headed to vote at a County building, so the parking lot must be for them. The result was County employees calling in late because they could not find a parking space in THEIR lot. Parking has been the number one issue in the downtown for decades. When the horse and buggy was left in the barn and the car was the means of travel, parking became the issue then as it is now, even though the court house square has not gotten smaller or fewer spaces are available as one might deduct. The problem is that shoppers and visitors always want to park in front of the store intended as their destination.

People will walk a mile at the mall but not in the historic downtowns. The scream is, "There is no parking in the historic downtown". What they mean is, "There is not a parking spot in front of my favorite store or dining spot".

Another event that appears to be a mystery is the Annual Street Dance in downtown Noblesville. Organizers estimate the number of attendees in the thousands each year. But has anyone wondered where these thousands of families park? Like magic it works. With the ultimate parking test, just completed it appears there is no problem. Many many dollars have been spent on many many studies to determine how many spaces are open when and where and for how long. Save the tax payers money. The answer is clear there is no problem unless the visitor is unwilling to take a healthy walk to their destination in the beautiful historic old town

Cambria hotel & suites breaks ground in Grand Park

Another new hotel will soon be built on the campus of Westfield's Grand Park.

Choice Hotels International joined Ceres Enterprises, LLC and The Orlean Company for the groundbreaking of a new Cambria® hotel & suites property in Westfield on Friday.

Located along 186th Street, the hotel will be part of the Westfield Grand Park Village, directly across from Westfield's Grand Park Sports Campus. The 153-room Cambria Westfield is set to open in fall 2017.

At the event, project representatives and local officials discussed the impact this new hotel will have on the growth and appeal of the community, including Westfield Mayor Andy Cook.

"In an area with so much new development, Westfield is an ideal next stop for the Cambria hotels & suites brand," said Janis Cannon, senior vice president, upscale brands at Choice Hotels. "The Westfield property represents another example of Cambria's rapid expansion across the country, where we can provide an upscale offering suited for the needs of business and leisure travelers, in addition to sports teams."

The Cambria Westfield will feature 153 guest suites, a variety of food options including an outdoor food service area, a fitness center and indoor pool, and 3,800 square feet of meeting space.

"We could not be more excited to partner with Cambria hotels & suites on this venture, as we think this property will be a great addition to the Westfield community," said David Crisafi of Ceres Enterprises. "When it comes to the youth sports industry, this is certainly the place to be."

Hamilton Heights drama brings classic comedy into the 21st century

Photo provided

Hamilton Heights High School is performing an original play You {Still} Can't Take It With You, adapted from the famous comedy by Kauffman and Hart.

You Can't Take It With You has been one of the top 5 performed plays of the last century. It was turned into a famous Frank Capra film starring Jimmy Stewart. It has most recently been revived on Broadway, starring James Earl Jones. It has been beloved by generations of audiences as the quirky family that taught us all to not give up on our dreams.

Performing at 7 p.m. on Nov. 18 and 19 in the Hamilton Heights Auditorium, more than 40 students have come together to reimagine and bring this quirky family into the 21st century. The play is set in the current time: one of constant technological distractions, stressful jobs, and the pressure to do it all. The message of the original play remains the same: be wary of how you spend your time because no matter what material possessions or power you accumulate, "you still can't take it with you" when you're gone.

Tickets are $5 for students and $7 for adults. Tickets can be purchased the day of the show or in advance at the high school.

Letter to the Editor

Heartfelt Thanks to Hamilton County

The election results from Tuesday are still settling in and I feel truly blessed. I have been overwhelmed with the support I received from friends, clients, and my community over the past few year, but in particular, Tuesday, when I was elected to serve as Superior Court Judge in Hamilton County. I will continue to do my best to serve my community and the people of Hamilton County.

Thank you to those that worked the polls on my behalf. Thank you to those that came by my office over the past many weeks to pick up signs and spread the word for this campaign. I could not have done this without you.

I want to thank my family for dealing with my absence over the past several months. I know it wasn't easy for Molly Cue, particularly since she had a broken leg and a massively sprained ankle early in the year. To top things off, we had a newborn at home. I also want to thank my sons, Mitchell and Sam, and my newest, Jane Elizabeth, for their patience and lack of having dad around as much for the past several months. I want to thank Robert and his friends for their help as well.

I also want to thank David Najjar and Steve Kincaid. We all ran clean and professional campaigns, which is what the public should expect from all those that wish to be public servants, and it has been a pleasure to get to know them.

Thank you to all that came out to the polls. Every vote matters.

Carmel Drive/Range Line Road roundabout to open Thursday

The City of Carmel will celebrate a milestone when it completes the city's 100th roundabout at the intersection of Carmel Drive and Range Line Road. Carmel has more roundabouts than any city in America and Mayor Jim Brainard promotes their use for reasons of both safety and environmental impact whenever possible.

The new roundabout will open on Thursday in a ceremony that will take place from 4 to 7 p.m. Mayor Brainard will give remarks at 5 p.m.

The public is invited to celebrate the event. There will be live music, food, beverages, prize giveaways and opportunities for local businesses near the roundabout to be part of the celebration.

just like they do at the mall. In spite of the parking conclusion, another new study is due out soon from the City of Noblesville to once again define the parking problem. An earlier report did give some suggested changes that could help. One suggestion was to increase the parking time limit to three hours giving people time to shop and have lunch without darting out of the restaurant when the time is up and never finishing their dessert. That may appear counterproductive if the concern is parking turn over but it is a good idea for increased revenues to merchants. More parking time means more shopping time and more money spent.

A parking garage solution is not popular plus it is expensive and takes up a lot of land. Expanding surface parking, once again into neighborhoods is not a good option either. Now with the street crossings that require punching a button to activate the signal in order to cross does have some advantages. The new system might save time when rushing to your car to avoid the ever dreaded parking ticket, enjoy the experience. It is just part of visiting a historic downtown. By the way, it is worth the trip and the sometimes inconvenience of parking.

The holidays are coming and the downtown merchants and restaurants will appreciate your support and thanks for visiting Noblesville and voting.

City of Carmel honors veterans

The City of Carmel honored veterans Thursday at the annual Veterans Day Ceremony at The Tarkington Theater at The Center for The Performing Arts.

Mayor Jim Brainard was joined by keynote speaker Will Ellery, National VFW Teacher of the Year & Carmel High School Teacher; speaker John Govin, Carmel Police Department, U.S. Air Force, Air National Guard; the Carmel Elementary School Choir; Carmel American Legion Post 155 & Carmel VFW Post 10003; and the Actors Theatre of Indiana "Andrews Sisters." The winners of the Veterans Day Poster and Essay Contests were also recognized at the ceremony. Students from local elementary schools took part in the Poster Contest, while Middle School and High School students were asked to participate in the Essay Contest. This year's theme was "Respect, Honor & Gratitude."

Finalists for the poster contest were chosen by grade level from each participating school. Board members of the Carmel Arts Council selected one citywide winner in each grade from among the entries. The winning posters were chosen based on best representation of the theme, focus on veterans and creativity. They were displayed at the City's Veterans Day Ceremony and each student received a certificate of achievement from Mayor Brainard. The finalist posters are up for viewing at the Monon Community Center on the second floor's main hallway until Monday, Nov. 14. A list of Carmel Veterans Day Poster Contest winners as well as images of their posters can be found on the city's website at the following website: www.CarmelVeteransDay.org

The winners of the "Respect, Honor & Gratitude" Poster contest are as follows:

- Kindergarten: Savannah Badger, Forest Dale Elementary School
- 1st Grade: Josie Jack, Carmel Elementary School
- 2nd Grade: Maren Sander, Forest Dale Elementary School
- 3rd Grade: Aashrith Goli, Towne Meadow Elementary School
- 4th Grade: Erin Suhy, Carmel Elementary School
- 5th Grade: Summer Roberts, Carmel Elementary School

The panel of judges from Veterans Organizations chose the winning essays based on best representation of the theme, focus on veterans, strength of message, and proper use of grammar. Students were invited to read their winning essays during the ceremony and each received a certificate of achievement from Mayor Brainard. A list of the Carmel Veterans Day Essay Contest winners can be found on the city's website at www.CarmelVeteransDay.org

The winners of the "Respect, Honor & Gratitude" Essay contest are as follows:

- 6th Grade (Tie): Calista Anderson, Clay Middle School

- 6th Grade (Tie): Lauren Burley, Clay Middle School
- 6th Grade (Tie): Cooper Tilson, Clay Middle School
- 7th Grade: Daniel Tanner, Clay Middle School
- 8th Grade (Tie): Gabi Stigter, Clay Middle School
- 8th Grade (Tie): Joanna Thornburg, Clay Middle School
- 12th Grade: Abigail Leonard, Carmel High School

Poster contest winners in grades K-5 received $50 each and essay contest winners in grade 6-12 received $100 each, courtesy of PNC Bank.

"I am very pleased with the quality and depth of the posters and essays honoring our veterans. This year's theme helped students think about the sacrifices made by others to maintain their freedoms. By looking at the posters, and hearing the meaningful messages of the essays, it is obvious that these students understand what it means to be a veteran and the importance of thanking those who have served our country," said Mayor Jim Brainard.

Each veteran in attendance received a gift, courtesy of American Structurepoint. Vietnam Veterans also received a commemorative pin to recognize the 50th anniversary of the Vietnam War. In partnership with the U.S. Department of Defense, the City of Carmel is a member of the United States of America Vietnam War Commemoration program. Beginning this past March, the city agreed to conduct two programs a year, over the next three years, to recognize the Vietnam Veterans in our community.

Solid defense gives 'Rocks the trophy

Westfield's Koby Hauser, shown here in an earlier game, had five tackles for the Shamrocks in their 45-7 regional championship victory over Kokomo Friday.

A remarkable defensive effort gave the Westfield football team a Class 5A regional championship Friday at Riverview Health Stadium.

The Shamrocks beat Kokomo 45-7 to claim their first regional title since 2013. Westfield now advances to the semi-state, where it will host Fort Wayne Snider next Friday.

The 'Rocks led 17-7 at halftime. Westfield scored a first-quarter touchdown when Nate Froelich punched the ball in from the one-yard line, then Will Harrison kicked a 28-yard field goal.

The Wildkats answered with a touchdown in the second period, but the Shamrocks ended the half with a big score, as Josue Gonzalez took a 13-yard pass from Andrew Sweet in with 24 seconds left. That made the halftime score 17-7.

"I thought the drive right before half where we used all the clock and punched it in was a really important drive," said Westfield coach Jake Gilbert.

The 'Rocks added another touchdown in the third quarter - Froelich took the ball in from six yards - then fired up the afterburners in the fourth period by scoring three more TDs. Swidan got the ball in from the one-yard line early in the quarter, while Dorian Henson rushed 49 yards for a touchdown with 3:21 left.

In between Chris Zolto made a perfect interception with 7:34 left, and ran the ball in 56 yards to score. It was a fine example of how Westfield's defense played all night.

"I thought the defense was incredible," said Gilbert. "One play we gave up, but otherwise, gosh, what an amazing performance by the defense. We scored once defensively, we had four takeaways. We gave up hardly any yards, and they've got a great offense and an attack that's hard to stop. So I couldn't be prouder of our kids, just flying around on defense. Minus one mistake, we played about perfect."

Sweet rushed nine times for 76 yards, with Froelich's two touchdowns part of his 19 carries and 63 yards. Sweet was 6-of-15 passing for 68 yards. Harrison was 4-for-4 in extra points, while Alex Bates kicked the other two.

This is the fourth regional championship for the Shamrocks. In addition to their recent two 5A titles, Westfield also won Class 2A trophies in 1992 and 1993. The 'Rocks are 10-2 for the season.

Schmidt's two interceptions seal Carmel win

Carmel already had the regional championship in hand with Homestead, but the Greyhounds powered through the last three minutes of the third quarter to remove any doubt.

With a three-touchdown flourish, Carmel put the finishing touches on a 42-7 victory at the Spartans' field. The win gave the 'Hounds their fourth consecutive Class 6A regional championship, and sends them back home to Carmel Stadium next Friday to play Penn in the north semi-state.

The Greyhounds scored one touchdown each in the first and second quarter. Jerome Halsell ran the ball in from two yards midway through the first period, then quarterback Jake McDonald made an 18-yard rush to score with 4:21 left in the second.

McDonald went to the air in the third quarter, with Ethan Merriweather catching and scoring on a 15-yard pass early in the period. Homestead scored its only touchdown afterward, keeping it within 21-7.

But Jalen Walker got the advantage back up to 21 points by taking a nine-yard pass from McDonald in to score. Then Joey Schmidt made not one, but two interception returns for touchdowns. Schmidt's first pick six was a 30-yarder; he then grabbed another one for a 40-yard return with 30 seconds left in the quarter. The 42-7 lead held from there.

McDonald was 9-of-16 passing for 104 yards, with Walker making six catches for 63 yards. Will Schmidt was the leading rusher, with 55 yards in 12 carries. Connor Coghlan made all six extra point kicks.

This regional victory ties Carmel for most regionals won in IHSAA football history. It's the 19th overall title for the Greyhounds, matching the number of regional trophies won by Bishop Dwenger. Carmel is now 10-2 for the season.

Millers grind it out for victory over Huskies

For a girls basketball team as young as Noblesville is this season, every game has been a learning experience.

On Friday, the Millers learned they could win a grind-it-out contest, which is exactly what they had to do to beat Hamilton Heights 49-41 at The Mill. The win pulls Noblesville even to 2-2 on the season, while the Huskies are now 1-2.

"I think that's really important for our kids," said Millers coach Donna Buckley about winning Friday's battle. "Our first opponents have been very, very different. Very different styles. And so it's good for our kids to have to adjust in each game, especially such a young group, and to have to be mentally tough and fight different battles. It's fun to watch this group grow up."

Noblesville jumped out to a 9-2 lead in the first quarter after Heights scored the first basket of the game on an Ashton Runner layin. Kiser answered with four points for the Millers, Brooke Herron hit a layin, and Maddie Knight capped the run with a 3-pointer.

The Huskies went on a 7-0 run that bridged the first and second periods to tie the game at 9-9. Lauryn Wiley ended the first quarter with a layin, then Kayla Kirtley started the second period with a 3. A basket by Bayleigh Runner tied things up.

"Of those 32 minutes, probably 28 of them are really, really good," said Heights coach Keegan Cherry.

"I'm really happy with Bayleigh Runner. She's being asked to do an awful lot for this team. We're trying to manufacture points, so that puts a lot of pressure on her to get us into our sets and sort of always being on the same page with me. That's a difficult job for anybody, especially a freshman. I was happy for Kayla tonight, got to see some shots go in."

But Noblesville won the next battle, scoring eight unanswered points to take the lead for good. Knight made a layin, and then Mallory Johnson threw in consecutive 3-pointers. The Millers held on to lead 19-15 at halftime.

In the second half, Noblesville was able to make big shots any time Heights threatened. The Huskies got within 21-17, Sam Salmon hit a couple 3s. Kirtley made a basket to cut the Millers' lead to 27-21, then Kiser and Herron scored on layins to get Noblesville ahead by 10, 31-21.

The Millers' biggest lead was 34-23, after Kaylin Mertens drained a 3. Kirtley made a couple 3-pointers to get the Huskies within 35-30, but again, Noblesville always responded with big shots. Salmon and Knight hit fourth-quarter 3s.

Knight wound up the leading scorer with 12 points, while Salmon and Kiser each had nine. Kiser pulled nine rebounds as well. Knight and Herron each dished out five assists, while Kiser blocked three shots.

As for Heights, Kirtley scored 17 points, including four 3-pointers. Bayleigh Runner added nine points and handed out four assists, while Ashton Runner dished out five assists. Ana Collar pulled five rebounds.

Both teams are back in action on Tuesday. Noblesville hosts Lebanon, while the Huskies travel to Frankton.

Pacers fall to Philly in overtime

By GREG RAPPAPORT

On Wednesday against the 76ers, the Pacers trailed by six in the final minutes, but came back to win the game in overtime. On Friday night, Indiana did it again, trailing Philly by five in the final minutes and storming back to send it to OT. This time, however, it was the 76ers who prevailed in the extra period, outscoring the Pacers 9-5 in the final five minutes and winning the game 109-105, as the Pacers dropped to 0-5 on the road this season.

Joel Embiid, who finished the night with 25 points, scored five consecutive points in the overtime period, the last of which put the 76ers up by four. The Pacers took two 3-point shots to try to close the gap once more, but none would fall, as Philadelphia collected its first win of the 2016-17 season.

Midway through the fourth quarter, trailing the 76ers by two, Paul George drove to the hoop for a layup. On the following possession, Monta Ellis swiped an errant pass and took it the length of the court for a slam, giving Indiana an 86-84 lead.

That sequence ended up being the start of an 8-0 Pacers run, allowing Indiana to flip the script and take a six-point lead.

But Philly wasn't done.

A four-point play from Ersan Illysova, followed by a 3-pointer from Joel Embiid thrust the 76ers back into the lead, 91-90.

After another bucket pushed the margin to 93-90, Pacers head coach Nate McMillan called for a full timeout to reorganize for the final 3:20 of play.

The brief rest helped, because out of the stoppage, Jeff Teague drilled a 3-pointer to tie things up once more.

From there, however, Embiid collected a loose ball and slammed it home to put the 76ers up 99-95. A free throw from T.J. McConnell extended Philly's lead to five.

Things looked bleak for the Pacers at that point, but after a three-point play from Ellis, Jeff Teague snared a pass in the open floor, which led to George getting fouled with 2.8 second left. The Pacers were in the bonus, and PG sank both free throws, tying the game at 100-100.
