Riverview Health announces new Chief Medical Officer

Riverview Health announced Eric Marcotte, MD, will be its new Chief Medical Officer. After more than 40 years practicing medicine, current CMO, John Paris, MD, will retire from Riverview Health on June 30, 2017.

A search committee comprised of medical staff leadership, Riverview Health board members and administrative personnel selected Dr. Marcotte for his diverse skill set, thoughtful approach to problem solving, communication expertise and excellent clinical abilities.

Marcotte

and excited for what he will bring to the position," said Seth Warren, Riverview Health President and CEO. "Dr. Paris will help transition Dr. Marcotte during the next few months to ensure a seamless change-over."

Dr. Paris joined Riverview Health in 2000 as Director of Cardiac Surgery. He helped start the open-heart surgery program at Riverview Health in 2002, which ended in 2015. Dr. Paris has served as CMO of Riverview Health since 2004.

Paris

"I have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunities and challenges I've had here, and it has been an honor and a pleasure to serve three CEOs and the Board of Trustees," Dr. Paris said. "I thank my administrative colleagues, the medical staff and all the people who have worked so hard to support me. Without them, I could not have been successful. Dr. Marcotte will be an outstanding addition to the team. He is a fine physician and an equally fine gentleman. I wish him all the best in a difficult job."

Dr. Marcotte is a board-certified family medicine physician at Sheridan Family Medicine, a part of Riverview Health Physicians. He will continue to see patients while also performing his duties in the role of CMO. A graduate of Indiana University School of Medicine, Dr. Marcotte has been on staff at Riverview Health since 2007 and has served on numerous committees. Dr. Marcotte lives in Westfield with his wife, Mary.

"After considering several qualified candidates, we're confident in Dr. Marcotte's talents and excited for what he will bring to the position," said Seth Warren, Riverview Health President and CEO. "Dr. Paris will help transition Dr. Marcotte during the next few months to ensure a seamless change-over."

Gary Reynolds hands reins to daughter...

Change in leadership at Reynolds Farm Equipment

Reynolds Farm Equipment has announced Chief Marketing Officer Mitch Frazier will be Chief Executive Officer and Reynolds' owner Gary Reynolds' daughter, Angela Hungate, will take over as President of the company.

The Indianapolis Business Journal reported, Gary Reynolds will transition to Chairman of the Board once Frazier moves into his new position.

Hungate will be the senior Reynolds family member handling daily business operations, which include sales processes and settlement operations management.

Reynolds is one of the nation's largest John Deere dealerships and has been in business since 1955. Reynolds' corporate headquarters is located in Atlanta and has locations in Fishers, Lebanon, Mooresville and Muncie, Nicholasville, Kentucky and Xenia, Ohio.

Deputy Moxy joins Hamilton County Sheriff's Department

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Department announced its newest member of the Patrol K9 Division, Deputy Moxy. Moxy is a 3-month old female black lab who has started training with her handler, Deputy Nate Biddle. Moxy will specialize in tracking and narcotics detection. She is expected to hit the road and begin work in late spring or summer of 2017 at which time Deputy Biddle's current partner, Waldo, will retire.

Persistent snow to affect commutes today

Cold temperatures are ushering in a variety of winter weather conditions that will impact highway travel in much of Indiana today.

In addition to lake-effect snow along the Michigan border, southern Indiana communities including Bedford, Vincennes and Seymour will see their first significant snow of the season with 3-4 inches predicted. Persistent snowfall is predicted elsewhere in Indiana.

Drivers should plan now to reduce their speed, allow more following distance and reschedule optional trips for everyone's safety, including their loved ones and first responders.

Yellow plow trucks ready

The Indiana Department of Transportation is monitoring multiple weather forecasts and readying yellow plow trucks to clear and treat interstates, U.S. highways and state routes before snow begins to accumulate. Each plow route takes two to three hours to complete with salt assisting in melting between passes.

Granular salt and salt brine chemically lower the temperature at which snow and ice melt. With temperatures predicted to remain well below freezing, drivers are warned that salt will be less effective in closing the gap.

In addition, persistent snow is predicted

Loose leaf pickup to end Friday, Noblesville residents encouraged to bag leaves

The Noblesville Street Department will stop collecting piles of loose leaves on Friday, Jan. 6. The process was originally scheduled to end on Dec. 2, but because of the later than normal fall of leaves and milder weather, the street department has continued to collect leaves when possible.

Street Department Commissioner Patty Johnson said that residents who do not have their leaves collected by Friday afternoon are asked to bag them. Residents are also asked not to rake piles now as there is no guarantee that leaf vacuums will make it to your residence in time. Vacuums will be in service through the week as weather permits.

Bagged leaves will be picked up on the same day as residents' regular trash day but not necessarily the same time since leaves are collected by the street department and not Republic Services. Please make sure that leaves are only bagged in the free,

Red Cross issues an emergency call for blood donations

The American Red Cross has a severe winter blood shortage and is issuing an emergency call for blood and platelet donors to make a donation appointment now and help save patient lives.

Hectic holiday schedules for many regular blood donors contributed to about 37,000 fewer donations in November and December than what was needed. Snowstorms and severe weather have also impacted donations. Nearly 100 blood drives were forced to cancel in December, resulting in more than 3,100 blood donations going uncollected.

"Blood and platelet donations are critically needed in the coming days so that patients can continue to receive the lifesaving treatments they are counting on," said Rodney Wilson, communications manager for Red Cross Indiana-Ohio Blood Services Region. "We encourage donors to invite a family member or friend to donate with them to help meet patient needs. Right now, blood and platelet donations are being distributed to hospitals faster than they are coming in."

How to help
Find a blood donation opportunity and schedule an appointment to donate by using the free Blood Donor App, visiting redcrossblood.org or calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767). The Red Cross is extending hours at many donation sites for more donors to give blood or platelets. Overall, the Red Cross has added nearly 200 hours to blood donation centers and community blood drives across the country over the next few weeks. Donation appointments and completion of a RapidPass online health history questionnaire are encouraged to help speed up the donation process.

"In about an hour, you can help save someone's life. This simple act can have a profound impact on another human being," said Wilson.

Hamilton County residents have several upcoming blood donation opportunities. Here's a list of nearby places and times:

- Fishers
Saturday, Jan. 7: 12 p.m. - 4 p.m., Kroger, 11700 Olivo Road
- Carmel
Friday, Jan. 13: 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., St. Vincent Heart Center, 10580 North Meridian
- Friday, Jan. 13: 12 p.m. - 4 p.m., Penske Automotive Group, 4140 East 96th St
- Pendleton
Monday, Jan. 9: 1:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m., First United Methodist Church Pendleton, 225 West State Street
- Indianapolis north side
Saturday, Jan. 21: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.,

Marriott North, 3645 River Crossing Parkway

Who blood donations help
Every two seconds, someone in the U.S. needs blood. Accident and burn victims, heart surgery and organ transplant patients, and patients receiving treatment for leukemia, cancer or sickle cell disease may all require blood to save their lives.

The treatments high school freshman Payton Kannarr receives to fight leukemia cause her blood counts to drop. She currently receives platelet transfusions weekly and red blood cells about every two weeks.

"We have seen firsthand the incredible need for blood products as we have been on this four-year roller coaster journey," said Amy Kannarr, Payton's mom. "Through the care and compassion of donors, Payton has been able to enjoy life as a teenager."

biodegradable bags provided by the city and are placed separately from trash containers. Residents may set out as many biodegradable bags as necessary, but each bag must weigh no more than 40 pounds. Bags are available free of charge to Noblesville residents at all fire stations, City Hall (16 South 10th St.), street department (1575 Pleasant St.), parks department (701 Cicero Road) and the Hamilton County Household Hazardous Waste Center (1717 Pleasant St.).

Neither loose leaves nor bagged leaves will be picked up in alleys. Pickups will only be in front of a resident's house. For more information about the leaf program, contact the Street Department at (317) 776-6348.

William D. "Dave" Hungate

October 13, 1950 - January 2, 2017

William D. "Dave" Hungate, 66, of Greenfield, passed away on Monday, January 2, 2017 at Hancock Regional Hospital in Greenfield. He was born on October 13, 1950 to William and Ruby (Caplinger) Hungate in Beech Grove, Indiana.

Dave was a 1968 graduate of Beech Grove High School, and proudly served his country aboard a WWII air craft carrier, the USS Hancock, in the United States Navy during the Vietnam conflict. He retired in 2012 after 44 years at Safeway Foods (formerly Standard Food Grocery) first as a store clerk, finally working his way up to store manager. Dave was a former member of UFCW Local 700 (United Food & Commercial Worker Union), and enjoyed assembling model airplanes, trains and ships. In his earlier married years, his pride & joy was his 1968 Dodge Charger. Dave was a fan of the Indiana Pacers, Indianapolis Colts, and the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. He loved reading, working & being outside, and grilling the best hamburgers every Sunday. Dave enjoyed going on cruises with his wife and listening to talk radio. He also loved animals, especially the strays who miraculously found their way to his home.

Dave is survived by his wife, Kathy (Delaney) Hungate; daughter, Karen Hungate; sister-in-law, Sandy Weber; as well as nieces, Amy and Jennifer. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his mother- and father-in-law; and several aunts and uncles.

Services will be held at 12:00 Noon on Friday, January 6, 2017 at Randall & Roberts Fishers Mortuary, 12010 Allisonville Road in Fishers, with visitation one hour prior to the service. Pastor Tim Kirk will officiate. Burial will be at Oaklawn Memorial Gardens in Indianapolis.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Cancer Society, 5635 W 96th Street, Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN 46278.

A Final Word on a True American Patriot

By MARY SUE ROWLAND

In 2000, Irv Heath sat down and shared his WWII memories that included Charles DeGaulle, Bing Crosby, General Patton, Normandy and The Battle of the Bulge. On December 22, 2016 at the age of 98, Irv Heath passed away and took his memories with him. Irv Heath was a PATRIOT including his last day. No question.

You see, Irv remembered everything from the war days. If the sun was shining or if it was a rainy day and how he felt serving his country so far from home. He never questioned the cause, it was for his country and he was proud. He was assigned to the 4th Armored Division and before the war was over he earned the Bronze Star, two Purple Hearts and a WWII Victory Medal. It was just after the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor that Irv signed up for the Army. On Dec. 27, 1943, Irv was sent to England after officers training in the US. The 4th Armored Division landed at Utah Beach in Normandy, France on July 11, 1944 just 36 days after the invasion by Allied forces.

As a Second Lieutenant, he was assigned to Company D, 35th Tank Battalion of the 4th Armored Division. He led a platoon in a light tank company, one that would help make history. He was in Paris to see the 1945 Bastille Day celebration that included a welcome for French General Charle DeGaulle. Bing Crosby performed for the troops from a stage made from a captured German trailer, Irv remembered.

November, 1944 was cold and wet in the Lorraine region of France where the 4th Armored Division waited for orders for a new offensive. They set up log bunkers with tent tops to keep the rain out. They even used old WWI bunkers for protection. It was December, 1944 when German forces surrounded and threatened to destroy the 101st Airborne Division in Bastogne, Belgium that Patton's 3rd Army spearheaded by the 4th Armored Division broke through the German lines to rescue the embattled Americans. Leading the 4th Division into Bastogne on Christmas was Irv Heath's 35th Tank Battalion. This action was a turning point in what would become known as "The Battle of the Bulge". It was December 25th, 1944. He remembered every detail of the day including the weather, the sequence of events and his unit's successes. The kitchen vehicles delivered turkey dinners to the tankers on Christmas Eve which was a fond memory. On December 26th, the weather improved allowing transport planes to drop supplies. It was a beautiful sight to Irv. On December 27th, enemy fire wounded Irv and he was flown to an Army hospital in Wales where he spent the next two months. By 1945, Irv Heath had been awarded a Bronze Star, two Purple Hearts, five Campaign Stars and a European Campaign Ribbon. He served with occupation forces in southern Germany also. Before leaving Germany Irv's Company C of the 35th Tank Battalion left a memorial behind for the 25 brave men who died in action during the drive into Germany. Irv Heath returned home on September 7, 1945 after serving 21 months overseas.

(In Irv Heath's office, hung a map showing the movements of the 4th Armored Division from France through Germany). He never forgot why he fought and who he fought for... a true PATRIOT who returned home to continue his leadership for his community for the balance of his life.

To Irv and all the others, thank you more than anyone can say for your service and for protecting America. Without you and your dedication to the values that we hope will live forever, nothing would be the same today. Irv, we will never forget.

A historical note: The Civil War began April 12, 1861. Names like President Lincoln, General Grant and Lee brought the war to an end on April 9, 1865 with the surrender of General Lee. The bloodiest war in American history, it is estimated 750,000 Americans serving on both sides lost their lives. Two hundred seventy-seven Hamilton County citizens died in the Civil War, 420 per day. WWII was the next most lives lost, at 297 deaths per day or 405,000 lives lost total. Hamilton County had 48 citizens lost in WW II.

Millers dominate Senior Night game

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

There's nothing better than a big win on Senior Night.

The Noblesville girls basketball team made sure it would get to experience that feeling Wednesday night. The Millers trounced Kokomo 72-37, getting the big win after honoring its two seniors, Brooke Herron and Sam Salmon.

Both players figured prominently in the Noblesville victory. Herron scored 13 points on 5-of-5 shooting from the free throw line. Salmon drained three 3-pointers, all of them in the second quarter, a period when the Millers outscored the Wildkats 20-4.

"I shot it pretty well, but the teammates found me, and it was a great game by the team," said Salmon.

Noblesville had control of this game early, leading 9-2 in the first quarter. Kokomo got as close as 11-8, but a quick 8-0 run ended the period, giving the Millers a 19-8 lead. That set up the huge second quarter, which ended with Noblesville scoring 12 straight points to give itself a 39-12 halftime advantage.

"I thought we played well," said Millers coach Donna Buckley. "We just played aggressive. I thought we wore them down with just our speed and getting up and down the floor in transition."

The Wildkats closed the gap a little in the third quarter, but Noblesville never let its lead drop below 20 points. A big help was two quick baskets off steals, with Maddie Knight and Emily Kiser scoring one right after the other.

"Emily dominated, really owned the paint, and they really had no answer for her," said Buckley.

The Millers led 49-29 late in the third, and went on a 13-0 run that stretched into the fourth quarter. Mallory Johnson helped out with a 3-pointer, and Kiser added four more points. Kiser finished the game with her customary double-double, 18 points and 13 rebounds.

With about three minutes left in the game, Buckley turned things over to the freshmen, and they played some solid minutes. Anna Kiser scored on a putback, and Abby Haley added a pair of free throws. All the while, the upperclassmen were cheering them on.

"I loved it," said Herron. "It was awesome. And I knew once we were on the bench that we better get our butts up and cheer for them, because they always cheer for us, and it was very exciting to see."

Herron finished the game with seven rebounds, and also handed out four assists. Emily Kiser blocked five shots, while Johnson made three blocks.

Zach Gunn breaks sets new HSE rebounding record

Hamilton Southeastern senior basketball star Zach Gunn broke the all-time Royals rebounding record last week at the Huntington North/Columbia City Tournament.

Gunn grabbed 12 rebounds in HSE's game with New Haven to surpass 1977 Royals graduate Larry Raymer as the school's all-time leading rebounder. Gunn currently has 667 career rebounds. He scored 90 points and pulled down 37 rebounds in HSE's four games, helping the Royals win the tournament championship.

Fishers freshmen boys beat Ben Davis

The Fishers freshman boys basketball team got a win at Ben Davis Tuesday night, 41-31.

The Tigers handled the Giants' press in the first quarter, which ended with Fishers leading 9-3. The Tigers led 17-15 at halftime, then fell behind 24-21 after three quarters.

But Fishers finished the fourth quarter strong, outscoring Ben Davis 21-7. The Tigers took advantage of the Ben Davis press and had multiple layups to put the game out of reach.

Fishers will play at Pike at 6 p.m. Friday.
