Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness welcomes Portillo's to Fishers during a ground breaking ceremony conducted on Friday.

Portillo's breaks ground in Fishers

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness recounted a story about meeting with some local residents, when an elderly couple approached him about three years ago and said, "Whatever you do, bring Portillo's to Fishers." He described the popularity of the Portillo's brand as "incredible."

He told that story at the Friday morning groundbreaking ceremony for the new Portillo's restaurant in Fishers, near I-69 and 116th Street.

Fadness talked about how the area around Portillo's is developing, just north of the IKEA store currently under construction. Top Golf is also under construction, just north of Portillo's.

Portillo's CEO Keith Kinsey called the groundbreaking a special day for his company. "This is such an appropriate spot for us," Kinsey said. "The community of Fishers, it fits us so well."

Kinsey also called his company all about the local community and employment. Portillo's is expected to hire approximately 200 people, many of them teens.

The Fishers location is expected to open in the fall. The chain is headquartered in Chicago.

It will be held at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds in Noblesville. This event gives kids a chance to see up close their favorite vehicles, some really big! They will have an opportunity to even sit in the vehicles and envision themselves driving the rigs.

Refreshments will be provided for a minimal charge. Tables will be available for businesses in the community to display their information for a donation fee.

All local Kiwanis proceeds are used to help with children's programs in the Hamilton County area.

Noblesville Main Street, City Of Noblesville, Chamber of Commerce partner for Downtown Business Summit

The REPORTER

Wednesday morning, Noble Coffee and Tea transformed into the host site for the first Downtown Business Summit, accommodating more than 60 guests and providing a venue for an exchange of information.

The summit was presented in partnership between the Economic Development team from the City of Noblesville, the Chamber of Commerce and the Economic Development Committee from Noblesville Main Street.

Attendees heard presentations on current and future initiatives from Alaina Shonkwiler, Assistant Director of Economic Development for the City of Noblesville, from Bob Dubois, President of the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce and from Chris Owens, CEO of Main Street.

In reflecting on the success of the summit, DuBois shared, "The positive energy in the room was fueled by solid reports on the more than a dozen initiatives underway to strengthen and enhance downtown Noblesville. The Chamber is excited to support and engage with Main Street and the City on these important efforts. Under this collaborative leadership, downtown Noblesville's future is bright."

The group's intent is for this to be the first of an annual or bi-annual gathering where valuable resources and information can be shared to strengthen

Timothy Renick, who has nearly two decades of experience heading up the Information Technology needs for county government in suburban St. Louis, has been appointed Director of Information and Communication Systems for the City of Carmel. Renick replaces Terry Crockett, who retired in May after serving the City for nearly 20 years.

Renick

"We are excited to welcome Timothy to Carmel. He brings a great deal of experience working for government operations on the Illinois side of St. Louis," said Mayor Jim Brainard. "We are sorry to see Terry Crockett leave after his many years of service, but we look forward to welcoming Timothy and his family to Carmel."

Renick served the IT needs of Madison County, Ill., government for nearly 20 years, the last four as its Director of Information Technology. During that time, he led the consolidation of all the county departments under the IT Department's technology support. He also created and implemented strategic technology plans for county-wide services and designed, created and ran the information security program.

Renick will oversee a department of 12 that provides services for both internal and external data management and communications needs for the City, including its public safety departments.

Renick and his wife Anne are in the process of relocating to Carmel.

Hamilton County Soil and Water receives grant from Legacy Fund

The REPORTER

Hamilton County Soil and Water Conservation District is pleased to announce it has received a $15,000 grant from Legacy Fund, the community foundation serving Hamilton County and an affiliate of the Central Indiana Community Foundation. This grant will support the District's Urban Agriculture program.

The Urban Agriculture program was started in 2016 with a grant from the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. The program builds on the success of the urban conservation program and supports backyard and community gardens across Hamilton County. Technical assistance is provided to help county residents start new vegetable and fruit gardens and improve their existing gardens. Comprehensive education and outreach programs are focused on alleviating food insecurity in the county and connecting residents with local food. Donations of fresh vegetables to local food pantries are supported by pairing businesses, community gardens, and service organizations with food pantries.

The Hamilton County Garden Network was created to support and connect the growing number of community gardens across the county.

"We are thrilled to receive this support from the Legacy Fund. We've made great strides combating food insecurity and supporting urban agriculture in the county with this program and these funds are critical to continuing that mission," said Claire Lane, Urban Conservationist.

More information about the services provided by the Soil and Water Conservation District, including info on the Urban Agriculture program and Hamilton County Garden Network can be found online at www.hamiltonswcd.org.

Legacy Fund, the community foundation serving Hamilton County and a Central Indiana Community Foundation affiliate, granted $124,500 to 16 not-for-profit organizations in May. Grants from Legacy Fund are made possible by the unrestricted Endowment for Hamilton County. Learn more at www.cicf.org.

Revisit your New Year's Resolutions

By SHARON McMAHON

"You are never too old to set another goal or to dream a new dream."
- C.S. Lewis

Well, we are facing that mid-point in our "New Year's Resolutions" we made just about six months ago. Some of you probably were gung-ho about those, noting the goals you have identified in one, or many, categories including career, family, financial, fitness and health, hobbies, etc. Some of you may have been more casual about your 2017 resolutions, with just a mental note and a wait-and-see attitude. However, I venture to say that we all had some ideas as we completed our holiday to-do lists and focused on the year ahead about what we wished to change, improve, omit, or add to our lives. What can happen – and often does happen – is that within a few months after we get excited about those resolutions we begin to realize that we have not yet started to make those changes. Or perhaps we did begin to (take your pick) incorporate a better eating plan, start an exercise program, schedule more time with the family, begin a job search, enroll in classes, etc. but as often happens, life intervenes and we just run out of steam.

Don't give up! Although we are at the halfway point, it is still 2017! Why not revisit those resolutions and goals, re-evaluate and consider your options. When we are at the beginning of a nice, shiny new year it is very easy to be a bit starry-eyed regarding those changes. In particular those of us "of a certain age" sometimes back off from making, or even considering, changes. I find in working with clients on their health and fitness goals that the wish for speedy results in both the way they look and feel can possibly undermine the continued quest to reach their goals. Those who stay focused and realize that a "quick fix" (and don't we get bombarded with those ads!) will never be the answer to obtaining a more fit and healthy body will most likely reach their fitness goals.

I believe that as long as we, regardless of our age, make a commitment to setting the goals and dreaming the dreams we will find that we can achieve much of what we desire. Here is a suggestion, and something I have done which I find helpful. Find a photo (you know what I mean, one of those "hard copy" photos that you can actually hold in your hand...) of yourself at an age when you felt optimistic, healthy, and excited about the future. That may be when you were 8, 12, 15 or 25, it doesn't matter, put that photo in a frame where you will see it every day. That person is YOU! It is never too late to take a deep breath, review that "list" you made six months ago and go forward. We all want to be happy, and we often believe that attaining whatever our goals or resolutions may be will offer that to us. I hope you continue your quest to better your life in whatever categories you believe need the most work. Another of my favorite quotes is offered by Eleanor Roosevelt - "Happiness is not a goal...it's a by-product of a life well lived." I hope you live well and healthy, and that the second half of 2017 is a good one for you, keeping your goals in front of you and moving toward them in a realistic, focused, and positive way. Happy New Year!

5 things to know if someone you love is addicted to painkillers

StatePoint

Fifty-two people die every day from opioid overdoses nationwide, and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported more than 12 million U.S. residents used prescription painkillers non-medically in the past year.

Unfortunately, even a small dosage can depress respiratory function, and these drugs can be especially dangerous when combined with other common substances like alcohol and sleeping pills. What's more, prescription drug abuse can be addictive, and even lead to heroin use.

If you love someone who may be addicted to prescription painkillers, here are five things the National Safety Council says you should know.

1. Addiction is a chronic disease that affects the brain. Addiction, like heart disease or diabetes, leads to increasingly poor health, and can be fatal if it's not effectively treated and managed. People who suffer from addiction still have self-worth and should be treated with dignity. Unfortunately, shame and discrimination prevent many individuals from seeking treatment. Recovery can be achieved in many different ways and all recovery efforts should be celebrated.

2. Medication Helps. Opioid and heroin addiction cause a chemical imbalance in the brain, which medication can help repair. There are three major medications typically used as part of a comprehensive treatment plan that includes counseling and participation in social support programs: Buprenorphine, methadone and naltrexone. Buprenorphine and methadone diminish the effects of withdrawal and cravings restoring brain chemistry. Naltrexone blocks the euphoric effects of opioids and heroin. Buprenorphine and naltrexone can be administered by health care providers. Methadone is delivered in specialized clinics.

3. Traditional treatments aren't always effective. Recovery is a lifelong journey. Unfortunately, some traditional treatments focus on quicker fixes like attempting it alone or by going cold turkey, which ultimately can be detrimental. Indeed, rates of relapse for people who have gone through in-patient treatment programs are up to 56 percent within the first year following discharge. However, medications, can offer longer-term solutions, and are often less expensive than in-patient treatment. If traditional substance abuse programs haven't worked, consider medication.

(c) AlexD75 - iStockPhoto.com

4. Support is critical. A failed cycle of detox and inpatient therapy, then relapse, can leave a person feeling hopeless. This is why support is critical. Doctors and treatment counselors are important, but even more so is a well-informed support group of family and friends.

"Addiction is not a broken arm that can be fixed. It's like being on a permanent diet with a piece of candy staring at you every day," says Avi Israel, a survivor advocate who lost his son after battling a prescription drug addiction. He advises friends and family of patients to, "Know the signs of addiction. Don't judge. Throw tough love out the window. Love. But love with structure."

5. Understanding addiction is crucial. Both patients and their friends and family should understand that addiction is a disease, and know what is needed to manage it.

"My son had Crohn's disease, and I knew everything about that. I wish I had known as much about addiction," says Israel.

There are more options than traditional 30-day-treatment programs and 12-step programs. In addition to medication, there are support programs like SMART recovery, which provide attendees with tools based on the latest scientific research, as well as a worldwide community with self-empowering, science-based support groups.

A road of recovery is paved by many people – not just those in recovery. With the right support systems in place, a successful and sober life is possible.

Tips for protecting your family against bug bites

StatePoint

From hikes to picnics to relaxing in the hammock, nothing ruins summer fun quite as fast as bug bites. Unfortunately, bug bites are more than just a nuisance. They can trigger allergic reactions in some people, and may transmit diseases like Zika Virus, Dengue Fever, West Nile Virus and Lyme Disease.

Taking these precautions this summer can help the whole family stay bite-free.

Drain the Swamp

Standing water can become a breeding ground for mosquitoes. Walk around your property after rainfall or after watering the lawn and take note of areas that are not draining properly or are catching and holding water in objects like garden buckets, lids and frisbees. The smallest puddle of water can breed mosquitos. Drain everything you find.

Choose the Right Bug Spray

Lyme Disease expert, Dr. Michael Jacobs, MD says "When shopping for insect repellents look for those with the active ingredients DEET or Picaridin, two of the most effective active ingredients at preventing bug bites. Stronger concentrations of the active ingredient in the formula will give you more hours of protection. For example, a 10 percent DEET or seven percent Picaridin formula provides one to two hours of protection, while higher concentrations provide protection for eight hours and longer."

Safe for pregnant and breast-feeding women, and a popular choice for families, Natrapel Tick & Insect Repellent uses the CDC recommended 20 percent Picaridin active ingredient and provides up to 12 hours of protection against mosquitoes and ticks. This formula is also safe on gear and comes in variety of sprays and wipes for easy application.

For outdoor enthusiasts, DEET is the best-selling active ingredient in the U.S. For a trusted choice, consider Ben's Tick & Insect Repellent, the first brand to register a 10-hour, 100 percent DEET formula with the EPA. The brand also offers an eight-hour, 30 percent DEET water-based formula that is made to evaporate slowly — so repellent stays on longer with little absorption into the skin.

Cover Up and Be Smart

Make your skin less vulnerable to bug bites with smart fashion choices. When outdoors, particularly in wooded areas, wear loose-fitting long sleeves and pants. Light colors are a good choice, as mosquitoes seem to prefer darker clothing.

Why Me?

Have you ever felt you were being eaten alive by mosquitoes, while everyone else around you remained unaffected? There are many factors that can make one person more appealing than another to mosquitoes. And some are beyond one's control, such as blood type and genetics. However, mosquitoes are attracted to sweat, so don't forget the deodorant. They also seem to prefer beer drinkers, according to a study by Japanese researchers.

Vacation or Staycation

Get savvy when traveling. Research your destination so you know what types of insects you can expect to encounter. Staying nearby? Remember, most species of mosquitoes in the U.S. are busiest at dusk. During those hours, take extra precautions to avoid becoming their meal.

This summer, stay safe and comfortable by thinking about these strategies. By doing so, you will keep the bugs at bay so you can play.

Carmel three-peats as state champion

The Carmel boys track and field team won its third consecutive state championship Friday at Indiana University. The Greyhounds scored 68 team points and won two individual events.

Carmel relied on its famous depth again and again, and the end result was a threepeat in Bloomington.

The Greyhounds won their third consecutive boys track and field state championship Friday evening at Indiana University. Carmel scored 68 points, comfortably ahead of Avon's 46 points. The 'Hounds won two events, were runners-up in two more, and scored points in four other events.

"We knew going into it that Avon was going to be the team to beat, but my kids understand what it takes to be a champion, and they didn't back down at all," said Greyhounds coach Ken Browner. "And you know when you look at what we did in the events, it was incredible. We were in 10 events and scored in eight, and didn't finish worse than sixth.

"The kids just refused to lose. People figured they had a chance to take us down, and the kids just didn't want that to happen."

Carmel began the meet with a win in the 4x800 relay. The team of Jon Balda, Trey Harris, Eli Konow and Kenji Tomozawa clocked in at 7:43.65.

Then, it was Ryan Lipe's meet. The senior won the pole vault, outdueling Frankfort's Colton Crum by clearing 17 feet, 3 inches on his first try. It was just one of four events that Lipe participated in at state. Lipe also picked up a runner-up finish in the 100 dash, then ran on Carmel's 4x100 and 4x400 relay teams, both of which placed sixth.

Browner said that Lipe came up to him at the end of the meet and told his coach he was running on the 4x400 - "it was all him, he forced his way on there," said Browner.

Alex Brown-Baez ran on both relays as well. Nick Smith and Jalen Walker completed the 4x100 foursome, while Andrew Fleck and Spencer Gudel were the other runners on the 4x400 relay,

Walker earned runner-up honors in the 300 hurdles, while Gudel placed third in the 400 dash. Ben Miller helped out with a third-place medal in the 3200 run, and Mitch Lipe joined his brother on the podium in the pole vault, finishing fourth. Bryce Sharp took sixth in the discus.

Westfield tied for 13th place at state by scoring 13 points. The Shamrocks were led by their 4x800 relay team, with Aaron Bennett, Desmond Herrell, Nicholas Leahy and Charlie Miller taking fourth place. Bennett and Miller also ran on Westfield's ninth-place 4x400 relay, joining Peyton Haack and Justin Mamaril.

That would be Mamaril's second medal of the day, as he took sixth place in the 300 hurdles. Evan Manley finished eighth in the 200 dash.

Hamilton Southeastern tied for 18th with 12 points, but got an event champion. Junior Gabe Fendel blasted his way to the 1600 run crown, sailing in with a time of 4:04.70, over eight seconds ahead of second place. Royals freshman Noah Malone finished eighth in the 100 dash.

Noblesville was also part of the 18th place tie, scoring 12 points with three medals. James Hardin took fifth in the 400 dash, while Drew Hartmann finished fifth in the shot put. Eric Hoffman ran his way to eighth place in the 3200 run.

Fishers tied for 23rd with nine points. Josh Roth finished sixth in the 3200, and joined Ethan Meyer, Andrew Runion and Peter Werling to take fifth in the 4x800 relay.

A complete list of results now follows:

Team scores (Top 10 and all county): 1. Carmel 68, 2. Avon 46, 3. North Central 43, 4. Chesterton 37, T5. Fort Wayne Northrop 31; Center Grove 31, 7. New Palestine 25, 8. Evansville Harrison 22, 9. Bloomington North 20, 10. Warren Central 19, T13. Westfield 13, T18.

Noblesville falls to Culver in close game

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

The Noblesville girls lacrosse team's spectacular season came to an end Friday, as the Millers lost a close game to Culver Academy 14-13 in the IHSWLA's north regional championship at the White River Elementary Soccer Field.

It was a back-and-forth game all the way through. The Eagles led 6-3 with 13:34 left in the first half before Noblesville went on a tear, scoring four goals to finish the half. Taylor Gysin had three of those goals, and provided the assist on the fourth, to Elle Palmer.

The Millers led 9-6, then 11-7 in the second half before Culver stormed back, scoring six of the next seven goals to take a 13-12 lead with 6:07 remaining. Grace Newman tied the game up again off a Gysin assist with 3:08 left, but the Eagles' Kirsten LoPrete scored the go-ahead goal with 28.1 seconds remaining, and held on from there.

"Culver's a great team, and they've had a great season this year," said NHS coach Veronica Mitchell. "They've got awesome leadership. So we knew we had to come and be ready to just play a full game with them, and we did. I'm proud of my team, I'm proud of what they've put forth out there."

Gysin and Palmer both scored four goals for Noblesville, while Mia Blackburn and Hannah Potter both added two goals.

Noblesville's Taylor Gysin won the Candi Parry Scholarship award following the Millers' north regional championship game with Culver Academy Friday night.

Newman scored one. Gysin handed out three assists, Potter and Newman both dished out two, and Hannah Natvig made one assist.

Meredith Hayes made four saves for the Millers. Gysin was sharp on draw control with seven, with Potter and Newman both getting three and Natvig making one.

Noblesville finished the season with a 12-3 record.

"I'm very proud of our girls," said Mitchell. "We did a very good job. We really came out and had a strong start to our season. We played team the way we should've played them. We were in some tough games that didn't turn out the way we needed them to."

"But our girls played every game hard, start to finish, and I'm very proud of them. And our senior leadership is something that a lot of teams don't get the level that we had. Those six girls are very special and they really left a mark on Noblesville Lacrosse."

After the game, Gysin was awarded the Candi Perry Scholarship, which is given to an outstanding lacrosse player. Mitchell said that "Taylor is a phenomenal lacrosse player, but more importantly, she just really gives back to the game. She's a wonderful girl who's going to go on to Cincinnati and play and do amazing things. She will be in the Army after she graduates. She's definitely deserving."

Noblesville and Culver were two of the final four teams in the state, with Cathedral and Bishop Chatard competing for the south regional title. The Irish won that game 18-8; Cathedral and Culver will play each other at 4:30 p.m. today at White River Elementary for the state championship.
