Westfield Washington Historical Society Museum Grand Reopening

The REPORTER

The Grand Opening of the Westfield Washington Historical Society Museum will be held on Saturday, June 10 in conjunction with the Westfield City Market being held on the adjoining property. Official Ribbon cutting will be at 11 a.m., but the museum will be open for visitors before that at 9 a.m. The new museum is located at 130 Penn St., Westfield, which is on the back side of the Westfield City Hall building / Old Methodist Church. The new summer hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Pony rides will be available for children and there will be antique vehicles on display in the parking lot for visitor viewing. Refreshments will served to celebrate the event. Donations are welcome. New memberships and volunteers are also welcome.

On display will be:

- 1951 Studebaker, Westfield's third fire truck
- A Ford Model T
- A tractor

(Possibly more to come)

Event organizers welcome all to come and see the interesting artifacts preserved from the founding days of Westfield to present day. Learn the story of the town and how it has changed since 1834. Much work over several months has been completed to move items, collections and furniture and to create new exhibits and displays for all ages to enjoy. You will be surprised to find out what a special and unique town Westfield is.

Volunteer for study of Monon Greenway in Carmel next week

The REPORTER

Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) is seeking volunteers to assist with a 2017 trail study that will occur from June 5 to June 11 along the Monon Greenway in Carmel. This is CCPR's second round of participation in the trail study this year. The survey will be conducted by the Eppley Institute through Indiana University. The survey's intention is to collect information regarding trail use, benefits and economic value and measure health factors as related to trail usage. This study follows up the nationally acclaimed 2001 Indiana Trails Study that provided valuable data to trail managers, trail advocates and the State of Indiana.

Volunteers are welcome to work along the trail individually or in pairs and will have a variety of two-hour shifts from which to choose. Weekday morning, midday and afternoon shifts are available. There will also be a short training session at a time and date to be determined. Registered volunteers will be notified when the training is scheduled.

Where the sidewalk ends . . .

By JANET HART LEONARD

My dearest Aleksa,
For eighteen years I've been giving you advice. I remember, when you were little, telling you to stop walking where the sidewalk ends. In just a few days you will walk across the stage to receive your high school diploma. A new sidewalk begins.

Aleksa, the old sidewalk will end but I'm going to tell you to keep walking towards the new one. I won't be there to hold your hand but I will forever hold your heart.

Look both ways at the choices you have. If you make a wrong choice it is okay. Lesson learned. Keep walking and remember that mistakes will make you stronger . . . and wiser.

Find a career that you love. Don't let money determine your happiness nor your value. No job is perfect. I repeat, no job is perfect.

Look for the positive in each day. Look for ways to help others. It is there you will find contentment.

Don't look around at what others are achieving and find yourself envying them. Your success will look different than theirs.

Give others grace. Even more importantly, give yourself grace. You can't be everything to everyone.

Choose a spouse who holds your hand as well as your heart . . . with gentle reassurance that you matter.

Pay close attention to the traffic in your life. You know, your community, the people who will either build you up or tear you down. Never be afraid to leave a relationship of any kind.

Always remember it is not your job to make someone happy. Happiness is a choice we all have to make.

If someone makes you feel "less than" then remember you are always "more than" enough for the people who matter.

Stay out of the lane where everyone is on a fast track. You won't want to miss the scenery of the moment.

Don't be afraid of detours. It often is there that you find where you were destined to be.

Your habits will determine your success. Always start the day by making your bed and saying your prayers. Trust me on

Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville holding Deb Castino Memorial Golf Outing

The REPORTER

The Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville (BGCN) will host the 2017 Deb Castino Memorial Golf Outing on Tuesday, June 13 at Harbour Trees Golf Club. UBS Financial Services – Andrew Cornell will be the Title Sponsor for this year's event. The outing will kick-off at 10:30 a.m. with check-in and warm-up followed by a lunch at 11:30 a.m., provided by Subway and a shotgun start at noon.

"The Deb Castino Memorial Golf Outing, benefitting the Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville, has a long history of providing necessary funding to the Club. Last year, 2,120 members came to the Club at a cost of only $45 for the year, while the true cost of a membership is $428 per year. This outing is a great opportunity for businesses and citizens of Hamilton County to give back and support the kids," said BGCN Board Member and Committee Chairman, Jeff McIntyre, of Citizens Energy Group.

Golfers will have the opportunity to compete in additional contests to include a poker run, basketball shootout, putting contest, and the legendary water tower shot. Prizes for these contests have been generously provided by local businesses and restaurants. The outing will wrap up

The closure will occur from 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. both Monday and Tuesday nights.

Overnight closure of 5 Points intersection

The REPORTER

The City of Noblesville will close the intersection of Greenfield Avenue, Christian Avenue and 10th Street from 9 p.m. Monday, June 5 to 5 a.m. Tuesday, June 6. The overnight closure is to allow pipe crossing as work on the new roundabout continues. Roadways will have barricades and flaggers ahead of the work to assist traffic, which will be able to navigate around the adjacent streets.

The 5 Points roundabout began construction approximately one month ago and is scheduled to be completed by early- to mid-July. The new design provides a safe, effective intersection without a stoplight and creates a new southern gateway into the City of Noblesville.

State Road 37 traffic lanes shift in Noblesville next week

The REPORTER

Construction contractors plan to shift State Road 37 traffic lanes next week for the second phase of a $1.5 million drainage structure construction project between 146th Street and Greenfield Avenue in Noblesville.

White Construction plans alternating lane closures on northbound and southbound State Road 37 from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m. on Tuesday, June 6 and Wednesday, June 7. Crews will be shifting traffic lanes from the right shoulders toward the median.

The first phase of construction, which started in May, shifted two lanes in each direction toward the right shoulders to provide room for construction in the median. The second phase will shift traffic toward the median to allow construction to be completed along the outside shoulders. All work on the project is expected to be complete this summer.

Motorists can learn about highway work zones and other traffic alerts at indot.carsprogram.org, 1-800-261-ROAD (7623) or 511 from a mobile phone.

Tolling I-65, I-70 across Indiana

The REPORTER

The Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) is taking steps to potentially turn I-65 and I-70 into toll roads across the state and to expand each from four to six lanes.

A Request for Information (RFI) for Interstate Tolling and National Environmental Policy Act studies has been posted on the INDOT website.

According to the RFI, "House Enrolled Act 1002, signed by Governor Holcomb on April 27, 2017, requires the INDOT to perform feasibility studies and seek a Federal Highway Administration waiver to toll interstate highways. INDOT anticipates pursuing a broad interstate bridge tolling program under 23 U.S.C. 129."

INDOT says the purpose of this RFI is, "To generate information to assist INDOT with planning an expeditious and effective tolling program deployment approach that can be expanded in a consistent manner."

INDOT plans to advertise a Request For Proposals (RFP) to select several consultant teams to prepare environmental studies and other project development documentation for each of the following interstate corridors:

1. I-65 from I-90 to I-465
2. I-65 from I-465 to the Ohio River
3. I-70 from the Illinois State line to I-465
4. I-70 from I-465 to the Ohio State line
5. I-65 and I-70 within I-465
6. I-94 from the Illinois State line to the Michigan State line.

The proposed actions are reconstruction and tolling of applicable bridges within the corridors and expansion of the current four-lane roadway sections to six lanes.

Toll roads in Indiana are nothing new—the Indiana East-West Toll Road already runs approximately 157 miles from the Illinois state line to the Ohio state line and has been in operation since 1956.

"Major Moves" was the name of a plan conceived by Governor Mitch Daniels and enacted by the Indiana General Assembly to lease the toll road for 75 years to an Australian-Spanish consortium for an upfront payment of $3.8 billion. The proceeds funded a portion of the extension of I-69 through southwestern Indiana as well as a number of other highway projects throughout the state.

Income from this new toll road project would potentially help manage and upgrade Indiana roads and bridges.

Investigate your curiosity at Conner Prairie GOLF

The REPORTER

The fifth annual Curiosity Fair is June 10 and 11 at Conner Prairie and will feature hands-on activities, interactive presentations and demonstrations that encourage people to explore interests, ask questions and discover more about the world around them.

Sponsored by Kroger and Dow Agro-Sciences, Curiosity Fair runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days and is free for Conner Prairie members and with paid admission to the museum. Admission prices are $17 for adults, $16 for seniors ages 65 and older and $12 for youth ages 2 to 12.

show, and his high-flying, acrobatic canines will perform multiple shows both days. Scientists with Eli Lilly will perform colorful chemical demonstrations and explosive experiments during their "Chemistry is a Blast" shows.

Inside the SportsZone, guests can interact with the Indianapolis Colts, Indiana Pacers, Indianapolis Indians, Indiana Fuel and Indy Eleven professional sports teams and experience the beauty and grace of rhythmic gymnastics.

"Conner Prairie's mission is to inspire curiosity and foster learning. Curiosity Fair does just that," said Gail Brown, who manages the event. "Guests of all ages can explore science, chemistry, astronomy, robotics and technology, nature and much more. We have an array of new experiences and activities planned and a host of new exhibitors this year."

Last year, nearly 3,000 attended the weekend festival. For a complete list of Curiosity Fair activities, visit <http://bit.ly/2qWzM6r>.

Spanning nearly 1,000 wooded acres in central Indiana, Conner Prairie welcomes nearly 400,000 visitors of all ages annually. As Indiana's first Smithsonian Institute affiliate, Conner Prairie offers various outdoor, historically themed destinations and indoor experiential learning spaces that combine history and art with science, technology, engineering and math to offer an authentic look into history that shapes society today.

here in Carmel," said Rachael Fleck, volunteer project coordinator. "Volunteers will help us a lot with the data collection in this groundbreaking study. It would be difficult to accomplish without them."

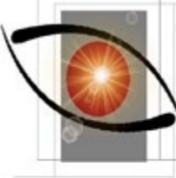

Those interested in volunteering for this project should register online at carmelclayparks.com/volunteer. There will be a total of four, seven-day data collection periods. The first data collection period occurred in April, and two more collection periods will take place later this year in August and October. Trail counters will also be utilized along the nine trails to capture head counts. Data from the trail counters will be used to compare user patterns statewide.

About Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation

Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) holds the Gold Medal Award for Excellence in Park and Recreation Management by the American Academy for Park and Recreation Administration (AAPRA) in partnership with the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) for parks serving populations of 75,001 to 150,000. As an accredited agency, the department serves the recreation, fitness, and nature needs of the community, manages and develops existing spaces and resources and creates a sustainable future for parks and recreation programs through a financially viable and environmentally conscious parks system. CCPR manages and maintains more than 500 park acres and numerous recreation facilities, including the Monon Community Center and The Waterpark. In addition, CCPR has partnered with Carmel Clay Schools to establish Extended School Enrichment (ESE), a before and after-school care program for K-6 students located at all eleven Carmel elementary schools. The Summer Camp Series is a component of ESE that offers 12 different summer camps accommodating children ages 5 to 15. For more information, visit carmelclayparks.com.

Purdue Master Gardener Program seeks new volunteers on Aug. 14

The REPORTER

Beginning Aug. 14 the Purdue Master Gardener Program intern training will be offered for residents of Hamilton County and surrounding areas. "The purpose of the Master Gardener Program is to help others grow. The members of the Hamilton County program are a vibrant and active group that annually donate over 10,000 volunteer hours on approved projects throughout the county," said Diane Turner, Master Gardener Coordinator with Purdue Extension.

Training will be held from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Monday evenings (one Saturday workshop is included) at the Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds, 2003 Pleasant St., Noblesville. Participants will be exposed to a wide range of subjects including understanding soil and basics of plant science, diagnosis of plant problems, using pesticides safely and growing healthy vegetable, flower, landscape and/or fruit plants.

The Purdue Master Gardener Program is a volunteer training program that provides a learning framework for participants to increase their knowledge on a wide variety of horticultural subjects. In turn, participants represent Purdue University as volunteers, sharing knowledge while providing leadership and service in educational gardening activities within their communities.

Materials and expenses for the series of classes cost $150 per participant. This expense fee covers such items as reference notebooks, mailings and name badges. These materials all become part of the participants personal collection.

While the class will be encouraged to create new educational outreach programs, there are already plenty of opportunities for which volunteers are needed. Some of these projects include helping with the annual plant sale, staffing information booths at gardening events, teaching public education classes, speaking to local clubs and organizations and hands-on demonstration gardens.

The Purdue Master Gardener Program is an educational outreach of the Purdue Cooperative Extension Service. To obtain an application about the Purdue Master Gardener Program, please contact Purdue Extension Hamilton County at (317) 776-0854. For more information about Purdue Extension in Hamilton County, visit www.extension.purdue.edu/hamilton.

this. It will make a difference.

Pray each day that you will make a difference in someone's life. Look for ways to do so. And thank the people who make a difference in your life.

Always have a current library card and read for fun, not just for what you have to study.

Read the newspaper, a real one that you hold. Don't rely on a screen to give you all the facts. Remember that in this day and age the news you see and hear is just someone's opinion about what is happening. Gather the facts and determine your own opinion.

Be careful of whose influence you find yourself under. Sometimes you must close the umbrella of their influence. It may be scary to find yourself in a brief thunderstorm, but better than years of a tsunami.

Listen to the opinion of others and learn to disagree agreeably. If a difference of opinion separates you from someone maybe they were meant to be in your life for just a season.

Don't ever let anyone put you down for how you feel. They don't wear your shoes. They don't know your story.

Don't let regrets, jealousy or anger take residence in your heart. Pick your battles. Sometimes you stand your ground and sometimes you just walk away.

Alecksa, your voice is quiet but it has much to say. Don't let anyone talk for you or over you.

Don't forget to call your Grandma. Five minutes out of your day will make her day. She just wants to hear your voice and thoughts. She wants to know what is going on beyond the end of her sidewalk.

I love you Aleckska and I'll always be your cheerleader and will be waiting . . . where my sidewalk ends.

Love and prayers,
 Grandma Janet

DIY projects to improve your outdoor living space

StatePoint

Are you taking advantage of your yard and maximizing its potential as a living space? All you need is a bit of time and energy to transform your yard into the perfect place to spend time with family and friends.

"There are so many projects homeowners can do themselves to increase the appeal and usability of their outdoor living space," says Doug Scott, landscape designer and blogger behind "Redeem Your Ground."

A new, free six-part how-to video series from Exmark, a leading manufacturer of lawn care equipment, can help. "Done-in-a-Weekend" offers DIY projects that empower almost any homeowner to improve their yards and enjoy the payoff of their work for years to come. To get you started, here are a few ideas from the on-line series.

Get Cozy

A portable fire pit is a cozy gathering space that's simple and cost-effective to create. First, select a location and obtain any necessary building or fire permits. It's best if the fire pit is set at least 10 feet away from your home, fence and other manmade structures. The space should be about 15 to 18 feet in diameter, which allows for five to six feet for the fire pit itself and another five to six feet around the perimeter for seating and mobility. Mark the space then prepare the general area by raking away debris and leveling the ground. Use fire-resistant materials such as mini slate chips, stone or brick to create the floor of the pit. Then, select seating and other accessories to give this space the same cozy feel as any room of your home.

Connect the Dots

Walkways and paths can enhance the beauty and functionality of your yard, tying together outdoor spaces. Gravel and mulch are cost-effective materials that are easy to install. To kick it up a notch, use paving stones, which are more durable and less likely to cause drainage problems. Before starting, call 811 to have all utilities located and marked. Then, measure and mark the locations of your walkways.

Use a sod cutter to remove existing sod and make room for the walkway to be installed. Next, level and prepare the area. After laying the pavers, fill the joints with sand and install a soldier course along the border to tie the walkway together. Finally, compact the entire walkway so it's level with adjoining surfaces, eliminating trip hazards.

Layer Up

Select and install plants that vary in form, size, color and leaf structure to help you create the dream outdoor space. Seek plant varieties well-suited for your growing conditions. Note, this will change as you move around the yard, as sun exposure varies. Also, when planning, keep in mind that plants will be larger once they mature.

To complete these projects and all standard yard care maintenance, be sure to use high-quality equipment designed to help you work faster, not harder. For more project ideas and videos, visit WeAreExmark.com/diy.

With the right tools and inspiration, you can make more of your outdoor spaces, simply and cost-effectively.

Aging eyes: three ways seniors can protect their vision

StatePoint

While you may take healthy eyes for granted, it's important to know that as you age, you become more susceptible to conditions that can impair your vision. The effects of vision loss can be devastating, harming one's quality of life and independence.

Fortunately, there are proactive steps you can take to see better and help keep eyes healthy.

1. Annual ophthalmology appointment. Regular ophthalmological exams are critical, especially for seniors. Even if you think your vision is unchanged, it's important to make an appointment annually. A thorough eye exam not only assesses prescription updates, it includes a range of tests looking for signs of cataracts, glaucoma and macular degeneration. Catching these issues early means earlier intervention and a greater chance at preserving your vision.

2. Monitor and treat macular degeneration. Over 15 million Americans have macular degeneration (AMD), a progressive disease which can lead to severe central vision blind spots in both eyes. In the most advanced form, End-Stage AMD, it becomes difficult or impossible to recognize faces, read, watch TV or complete tasks requiring detailed vision. However, new advances are helping those living with macular degeneration. For example, the CentraSight treatment program uses a pea-sized telescope implant. Implanted in one eye only, the FDA-approved and Medicare-eligible device is proven to restore vision and improve quality of life those 65 and older. The other eye remains "as-is," to maintain the patient's peripheral vision, because some is lost in the operated eye after the out-patient surgery.

"Remarkably, within a few weeks after the telescope implant surgery, my mom was able read her newspapers from front to back, every little thing. Thankfully, she is also back to knitting and together we are watching English football on the weekends. It's a huge relief to both of us that the surgery and training was a success," said Jennifer Rowe of North Carolina.

After surgery, people work with a low vision therapist to learn how to use their new vision, practicing looking at things that are stationary or moving. The telescope implant is not a cure for End-Stage AMD. As with any medical intervention, potential risks and complications exist with the telescope implant. Possible side effects include decreased vision or vision impairing corneal swelling. Individual results may vary.

To learn more, visit CentraSight.com or call 877-99-SIGHT

3. Eat right. Certain nutrients have been identified as good for eye-health. Be sure to get plenty of zinc, Vitamins E and C, lutein and zeaxanthin in your diet. While supplements can help you ensure you meet your daily requirements, you can also seek out foods that contain these nutrients. Sweet potatoes, flax seeds, leafy greens, eggs, citrus and nuts are all good choices. The good news is that these items can be good for your overall health as well.

Girls state track and field

Royals finish as team runners-up, HSE and NHS get two event wins each

Reporter photos by Kent Graham

The Noblesville 4x800 relay team ran away with the state championship in that event at Saturday's IHSAA girls track and field state meet at Indiana University. The Millers finished that race in a time of 9:07.69.

While an all-time great runner from Pike sprinted her way into the record books Saturday at the IHSAA girls track and field state meet, Hamilton Southeastern and Noblesville athletes also marked their names in history.

The Royals finished as state runners-up for the first time ever at the meet, which took place at Indiana University. Southeastern scored 46 points, behind only Warren Central's 55, which gave the Warriors back-to-back state championships. The Royals won two events and won five more medals.

First was the pole vault, where sophomore Kennedy Drish leaped over all contenders with a best vault of 12 feet. Her teammate Jessica Bray placed fifth in the pole vault, giving HSE 15 crucial team points.

Southeastern also triumphed in the 4x100 relay. The team of Olivia Burgess, Tierra Sydnor, Mia Mackenzie and Camille Christopher finished that race in 47.19 seconds.

The relay was one of three medals earned by Christopher and Mackenzie. Christopher also placed fourth in the 100 dash and sixth in the 200 dash. Mackenzie, meanwhile, took third in the 100 hurdles, then placed sixth in the 300 hurdles.

Fishers finished eighth as a team with 27 points. The Tigers had two third-place finishes. First, the 4x100 relay team of Paris Carver, Danielle Harrison, Kayla Crose and Tamia Perryman took third in that event. Miya Wai would later finish third in the 3200 run.

Perryman picked up two more medals in the sprints, taking eighth in the 200 and ninth in the 100. Kamyia Lapsley finished sixth in the 800 run to earn a place on the podium, then got another medal as part of the fourth-place 4x400 team. Lapsley ran with Harrison, Arianna Noble and Crose.

The Millers and Carmel tied for 10th place by scoring 22 points each. Noblesville had two state champions at the meet.

First was the 4x800 relay. The team of Maria Anderson, Susanna Sharples-Gordon, Abi Little, Kat Dombroski came together for a well-deserved state championship, clocking in at 9:07.69. Over in the field, sophomore Shelby Tyler emerged at the top of a highly-talented field to win the high jump. Tyler's winning leap was 5 feet, 10 inches.

Anderson picked up a second medal at the meet, placing eighth in the 400 dash.

The Greyhounds were led by pole vaulter Kara Deady, who took second in that event. Christina Geisler finished fifth in the 3200, and Reagan Hune helped out with a sixth-place medal in the 400.

Carmel's 4x800 relay squad of Anna Morozov, Sydney Haines, Izza Khurram and Phoebe Bates took seventh in that event. Amiyah James earned a ninth-place medal in the high jump, and Rachel Anderson took ninth in the 1600.

Westfield scored six points at state, led by the sixth-place 4x800 relay team of Lauren Bailey, Sydney Spears, Gabby Brown and Gabby Dilick. The Shamrocks' Emily Robertson placed ninth in the 300 hurdles, and joined Hannah Fife, Brown and Spears to take ninth in the 4x400 relay.

Guerin Catholic's Megan Slamkowski finished fifth in the 1600 run, giving the Golden Eagles five team points.

Sheridan's Brittany Welch placed 15th in the long jump.

Pike's Lynna Irby swept the 100, 200 and 400 dashes, marking the fourth consecutive year that she won all four events. Irby's state championship total of 12 moved her ahead of the great North Central runner Maicel Malone, who would go on to win a gold medal in the 4x400 relay at the 1996 Atlanta Summer Olympics.

Hamilton County results now follow:

Team scores (Top 10 and all county) 1. Warren Central 55, 2. Hamilton Southeastern 46, 3. Brebeuf Jesuit 33, 4. Ben Davis 31, 5. Pike 30, T6. Fort Wayne Northrop 29; Crown Point 29, T8. Fishers 27; Zionsville 27, T10. Carmel 22; Noblesville 22. T37. Westfield 6, T40. Guerin Catholic 5.

The Carmel girls tennis team won its ninth state championship Saturday, toughing out the hot weather conditions and two of the best teams in the state at North Central's Barbara Wynne Tennis Center. The Greyhounds beat Cathedral in the semi-finals and Providence in the championship.

Carmel toughs out another state championship

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

The Carmel girls tennis team may make winning state championships look easy, but any Greyhound will tell you that it's more difficult than it looks.

Top-ranked Carmel won its ninth state girls tennis title Saturday at North Central's Barbara Wynne Tennis Center, getting past No. 2 (and defending champion) Cathedral 4-1 in the semi-finals, then taking care of No. 4 Providence in the final.

"There were ups and downs," said Carmel coach Spencer Fields. "To dig in the way they did today. To really keep cheering for each other and keep their body language positive and stay cool, it was some really awesome tennis today."

The toughness that the Greyhounds showed was personified by their No. 1 singles player, Lauren Lemonds. The junior battled through cramps, but yet was somehow able to play the maximum number of sets (six) to win both of her matches.

Lemonds squeaked past defending singles champion, Cathedral's Maeve Koscielski, in the semi-finals, 3-6, 7-5, 7-6, with the tiebreak going to 7-5. Lemonds then overcame the feisty Halli Trinkle of Providence, finding a third-set groove to win 6-4, 3-6, 6-2.

The wins are significant because Lemonds is now eligible for the individual singles tournament, which takes place next weekend. As the undefeated No. 1 singles player from the state champion team, Lemonds will be the top seed in the tournament.

Carmel's No. 1 doubles team of Grace

Marchese and Julia Miller also qualified for the individual event, with much less drama than Lemonds had to endure. Marchese and Miller won both their Saturday matches by identical scores of 6-4, 6-2.

In the other matches, No. 2 singles Kiersten Carlson won a tough straight-setter over the Irish's Meg Coleman in the semis, 7-5, 6-4. Carlson had a routine win in the final, beating the Pioneers' Natalie Boesing 6-1, 6-4.

At No. 2 doubles, Cece Katz and Apurva Manas needed a tiebreak to win the first set against Cathedral, but then breezed through the remainder of the day with the loss of only three more games. Katz and Manas won the second set over the Irish 6-1, 6-1.

No. 3 singles Zoe Woods had a tough match against the Irish, battling Claire Koscielski before falling 6-4 in the third (there is no shame in losing to a Koscielski.) But Woods, the lone senior in Carmel's line-up, finished her high school career on a high note, walking away a 6-1, 6-0 winner over the Pioneers' Clare Hooper.

"Three for four's not bad," said Woods, referring to the state championships Carmel won in 2014 and 2015 - she was a member of both teams. Woods will play college tennis at the University of Dayton.

"It's really fun," said Woods. "This year especially was really fun with Kiersten and Lauren being at singles."

With the win, the 'Hounds completed an undefeated dual meet season at 19-0. The Carmel athletic program also collected its seventh state championship of the school year, matching its own record from 2011-12.

SEMI-FINAL MATCH

Softball semi-state

Royals drop final to Crown Point

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

Hamilton Southeastern ran into a tough Crown Point team Saturday evening in the championship game of the Harrison semi-state, falling 3-0.

It had already been an eventful day for both teams: The No. 3 Bulldogs needed 13 innings to knock off No. 1 Penn 2-1 in the day's first semi-final, which resulted in the Royals' semi-final with Homestead being delayed almost two hours. But Southeastern made up for that, beating the Spartans 13-0 in a five-inning game.

Crown Point rode a dominant pitching effort by Ashley Holloway to its win over the Royals. Holloway struck out 16 batters and only allowed HSE one hit, a second-inning single by Ashton Kiehl. The Bulldogs then scored one run each in the first, third and fifth innings.

"We knew it coming in," said Royals coach David Cook. "We chased some balls out of the zone. She kept us off-balance."

Southeastern stayed in the game thanks to its own star pitcher, Alexis Macha. The senior had five strikeouts of her own and allowed the Bulldogs just five hits for the game. Cook said that Macha "was right there with" Holloway.

In the semi-final, the Royals led 7-0 after three innings, then poured in another six runs in the top of the fifth inning. Abby Taylor and Ahliza Moore both had three hits, while Kiehl hit a triple and a double to total four RBIs for the game. Taylor also smacked a triple and a double, while Nicole Lang hit one triple and Moore had a double. Macha threw 10 strikeouts for the game, allowing just four hits.

"We hit the ball top to bottom," said Cook. "We got two hits out of Kaelin Wincek in the No. 8 spot, we got three hits out of Ahliza Moore in the 9 spot."

Southeastern finished its season with an 18-9 record.

Tigers' regional comeback falls just short

The Fishers baseball team's historic season came to an end Saturday, as the Tigers fell to Hoosier Crossroads Conference rival Zionsville 4-3 in the championship game of the Lafayette Jeff regional at Loeb Stadium.

The Eagles jumped out to a 3-0 lead after two innings, then added another run in the third. Fishers got on the board in the top of the fifth after Jack Roudebush hit a sacrifice fly to score Matthew Wolff.

The Tigers made one last push in the top of the seventh. A single by Andy Bennett scored two runs to get Fishers within 4-3, and the Tigers then got runners on first and second after Craig Yoho was hit by a pitch. But a strikeout ended the game.

Wolff finished 3-for-3, while Roudebush was 2-for-2 at the plate. Yoho also hit a first-inning double.

Luke Duermit pitched the complete game, striking out five.

In the morning semi-final game, Fishers beat Huntington North 2-0. The Tigers scored one run each in the first and fourth innings.

Caleb Brenzewski batted in Fishers' first run, getting Andy Bennett home with a single. Kiel Brenzewski got the second run home, driving a single into center field to score Collin Statz. Kiel also hit a sixth-inning double, making him 2-for-3 for the game.

Ryan Metz pitched a complete game, giving up only five hits.
