Fiscal Conservatives of Hamilton County form new PAC

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryinFishers.com

A group calling itself "Fiscal Conservatives of Hamilton County" has formed a Political Action Committee (PAC). The organization says it will offer endorsements in the 2018 election round, but plans to become more involved in local elections set for 2019.

The PAC CEO will be local political activist David

Giffel. The Treasurer will be Bill Brown, a 2014 candidate for Fishers City Council. Members of the group include former Fishers Town Councilman Mike Colby, along with Greg Puls, former president of the Fishers GOP Club, and past county commissioner candidate and former local business owner Bill Smythe. All names included in the news release are from the Fishers area.

"The Fishers officials seeking re-election will be well funded by the vendors that do business with the city," said the news release from the PAC. "Fiscal Conservatives of Hamilton County PAC plans to solicit money from residents that wish to have a voice in the process and a change in direction. The PAC will be a vehicle for both local and county residents who fear being shown as contributing directly to the opponent of an incumbent."

The PAC says it plans to get to work on a web page and social media presence.

O'Malia's in Carmel to close July 8

By FRED SWIFT

O'Malia's Supermarket at Carmel will close July 8, a victim of the Marsh food stores bankruptcy. One Marsh store in the Fishers area will survive.

The O'Malia store was purchased several years ago by Marsh, but the name was so popular it was retained. Now the market at 126th and Gray Road will close July 8.

The Fishers Marsh at 116th and Brooks School Road has been purchased by Kroger, and will remain open, probably with a new name.

The other Marsh stores in Hamilton County are closing or have already closed including the one in Noblesville.

The Tipton Marsh has been bought by Kroger allowing Tipton County to keep a supermarket. When the bankruptcy was announced it was feared the Tipton store might close, leaving the entire county without a supermarket.

An estimated 250 Marsh employees in Hamilton County are losing their jobs as a result of the closings. Kroger, looking for employees, is expected to hire some of them.

HSE extends Bourff's contract

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryinFishers.com

The Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) School Board voted unanimously Wednesday night to extend the contract of Superintendent Allen Bourff through June 30, 2020.

Dr. Bourff will receive a 3.04 percent pay hike for the year beginning July 1, 2017, to an annual salary of $185,982.

He will also receive $12,382 in incentive compensation in line with his current contract with the school corporation, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017.

Allen Bourff has been superintendent of HSE Schools since January of 2015.

Before that, he was superintendent of the school corporation in Richmond, Indiana.

In other school board news: A major remodeling of the Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) Schools Administration Building will begin this summer, requiring a change of venue for the regular school Board meetings. Starting in July, HSE Board sessions will be held at the Hamilton Southeastern High School LGI Room #2, facing Olio Road. Meetings will return to the Administration Building in November, as the schedule stands now.

Local schools recognized for high AP scores

Six Hamilton County high schools were among 73 schools honored during Wednesday's Indiana AP Recognition Ceremony at the Statehouse, according to State Rep. Tony Cook (R-Cicero).

The Indiana Department of Education and Indiana College Board celebrated the success of these schools, where at least 25 percent of the graduating class earned a score of three or higher on at least one AP exam.

Hamilton County Schools honored were Carmel, Westfield, Fishers, Hamilton Southeastern, Noblesville and Westfield

"These schools continue to stand out academically in Indiana," Cook said. "I congratulate these young students for their hard work and dedication to their academic careers."

Cook said AP exams are tests taken by high school students after they complete a course designed to demonstrate they are prepared to handle college-level work. With a successful score, these students can also earn college credit. These exams are developed by the College Board, a mission-driven, not-for-profit organization that connects students to success and opportunity in higher education.

Bicycle Give Away at the Sheridan Public Library

The Sheridan Public Library is very pleased to announce a cooperative venture with the Biddle Memorial Foundation to give Sheridan residents, children as well as adults, a chance to win a brand new bicycle. The Foundation has proposed giving away up to 10 or 12 bikes and has asked the library to help them accomplish this task.

The contest will begin immediately. Residents are invited to visit the library and fill out a ticket which will then be placed into the jar with all the other completed tickets. Tickets have to be filled out legibly by hand (no computer generated labels, please) with first and last name, phone number and age. Participants may enter as many times as they want each time they visit the library but the entry tickets must be completed at the library.

The drawing for the bicycles will be Friday, July 14. Winners will be notified and asked to come to the library to receive an award certificate. With the certificate in hand, winners will meet with a representative from the Biddle Memorial Foundation at a designated retailer (probably Wal-Mart or Kmart) where they will pick the bike of their choice to take home with them.

According to library director Steve Martin, "We are very pleased to partner up with the Biddle Memorial Foundation in this venture. The Biddle family has a long history with the Sheridan community and this is a great expression of their warm generosity and continuing interest in our community. I hope our residents will take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to win a free bicycle."

The Sheridan Public Library is open Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The library is located at 103 W. First St. in beautiful uptown Sheridan, just on the country side of Hamilton County, Indiana.

Greenfield Avenue to close at roundabout construction overnight on June 19

The City of Noblesville will close Greenfield Avenue from 9 p.m. Monday, June 19 to 5 a.m. Tuesday, June 20 at the road's intersection with Christian Avenue and 10th Street. The overnight closure is to allow pipe crossing as work on the new roundabout continues. The roadway will have barricades and motorists will be able to navigate around the adjacent streets. Tenth Street will remain open, but will likely experience delays. Flaggers will be onsite to assist with traffic control.

The 5 Points roundabout began construction approximately one month ago and is scheduled to be completed within the next month. The new design provides a safe, effective intersection without a stoplight and creates a new southern gateway into the City of Noblesville.

The city of Westfield is launching Westfield Green, a new initiative designed to encourage environmentally friendly practices among residents and businesses within the community.

"Westfield Green is a way to help folks realize that even the little things they do every day can create a more environmentally healthy Westfield," Mayor Andy Cook said.

The campaign will feature informational pieces such as videos, infographics and other literature designed to educate Westfield residents and businesses of ways they can contribute to the overall health of the community. The city will also host educational events to highlight specific actions residents can take, such as seminars on native plantings and composting.

Longest Day fundraiser at The Barrington June 21

The Barrington of Carmel, an SQLC senior living community, is teaming up with the Alzheimer's Association and inviting the public to participate in its Longest Day fundraiser event on Wednesday, June 21 to raise money and awareness. The fundraiser is held annually on the summer solstice because the duration of this sunrise-to-sunset event symbolizes the challenging journey of those living with the disease. The event encourages thousands of people worldwide to do what they love and host their favorite activity, and the senior living community picked singing. They'll be hosting a cocktail party from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. with entertainment by Felix and Fingers Dueling Pianos. Attendees will enjoy cocktails, food and a live show featuring songs they love. The community's team, The Barrington Glee Club, set a goal to raise $1,600, but hopes that with the public's help they can exceed that. The event will bring out dozens of residents, associates, city leaders and Carmel first responders.

This is the first year for The Barrington of Carmel to host the event. It is open to the public, but those interested in attending will need to RSVP by calling (317) 810-1822. Worldwide, 47 million people are living with Alzheimer's and other forms of dementia, and The Barrington of Carmel wants those affected by the disease, including the community's memory support residents, to know they are not alone. June is also Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month, and The Barrington of Carmel is encouraging anyone who attends The Longest Day event to wear purple to show their support.

Don't let your investments take a "vacation"

By COREY SYLVESTER

It's summer again – time for many of us to take a break and possibly hit the open road. But even if you go on vacation, you won't want your investments to do the same – in summertime or any other season. How can you help make sure your portfolio continues to work hard for you all year long?

Here are a few suggestions:

• Avoid owning too many "low growth" investments. As you know, different investments have different characteristics and can help you in different ways. For example, you typically own stocks because you want them to grow in value so that you can eventually sell them for a profit. Other investments, such as certificates of deposit (CDs), provide you with a regular source of income and stability of principal – two valuable contributions to your portfolio. However, investments like CDs don't offer much in the way of growth. So if you own too many of them, you might be slowing your progress toward your important financial goals, such as a comfortable retirement.

You can maximize the productivity of your portfolio by owning a variety of investments – domestic stocks, international stocks, corporate bonds, U.S. Treasury securities, CDs and more. How much of each investment should you own? The answer depends on a variety of factors, including your age, income, risk tolerance, family situation and specific objectives. Over time, your ideal investment mix may change, but you'll likely need at least some growth potential at every stage of your life.

• Don't let your portfolio go "unsupervised." Your investment portfolio can be subject to "drift" if left alone for extended time periods. In fact, without your making any moves at all, your portfolio can move in directions that may not be favorable to you. Suppose you think your holdings should be made up of 70% stocks, but due to strong gains, your stocks now make up 80% of your portfolio. This development could lead to a risk level that feels uncomfortably high to you. That's why you should review your portfolio at least once a year, possibly with the help of a financial professional, to check your progress and make adjustments as needed.

• Don't stop at the nearest "resting place." Some people hope that if they can get that one "winner," they will triumph in the investment arena. But the ability to "get rich quick" is much more of a myth than a reality. True investment success typically requires patience, persistence and the resilience to continue investing even during market downturns.

In other words, investing is a long-term endeavor, and you need a portfolio that reflects this reality. The investment moves you make today may pay off for you decades from now. You need to establish your goals and keep them constantly in mind as you invest. And you will never really reach the end of your investment journey, because you'll need to make choices and manage your portfolio throughout your retirement years.

Hopefully, you will enjoy a pleasant vacation sometime this summer. But your investment portfolio shouldn't take time off.

Thanks to everyone who supported Casino Night including our primary corporate sponsors Meyer Najem Corporation, Indiana Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery Associates, Barnes & Thornburg LLP, Jensen/Brewer LLC, Heinzman Lights at Night, ARS Rescue Rooter and Honda of Fishers.

Head Football Coach Rick Wimmer said "TigerONE has been of great benefit to all of our athletic programs here at Fishers High School. In addition to providing scholarships for graduating seniors from a variety of sports, it has provided financial grants to numerous athletic teams for specific needs. For example, TigerONE recently helped the football program update our video technology and video equipment. The football program is very appreciative of the assistance TigerONE has provided to all FHS athletes and programs."

"TigerONE is a vital organization for the current and future success of Fishers Tigers Athletics. They are a tremendous asset to our school and community through their positive promotion of our athletic programs and the student-athletes that they serve," noted Michael Gaines, Head Girls Basketball Coach.

Head Baseball Coach Matt Cherry stated "Through the TigerONE Team Grants, we have fulfilled equipment needs and completed field renovations to improve the overall safety of our facility and to help make the overall experience for Fishers student-athletes even better. We are extremely grateful to TigerONE and to the many sponsors who support TigerONE and Fishers High School Athletics."

TigerONE is led by a group of parent volunteers and the Fishers High School athletic directors. The key objectives of TigerONE are to raise funds to benefit all Fishers High School student athletes, coaches, teams and booster clubs, to provide scholarships for graduating student-athletes and grants for FHS athletic teams.

ABOUT HERE COME THE MUMMIES

Here Come the Mummies is an eight-piece funk-rock band with a one-track mind, staying "under wraps" (quite literally) by portraying 5,000-year-old Egyptian Mummies. Since their discovery, Here Come The Mummies has opened for notable artists P-Funk, Al Green and Cheap Trick, rocked Super Bowl Village 2012, become a regular on The Bob and Tom Show, been invited to play Summer Camp Music Fest 2015/16, Common Ground 2015, Voodoo Fest 2015, Musikfest 2016, Summerfest and Riverbend 2016, Bunbury Music Festival 2016 and sold tickets by the thousands across large swaths of North America.

The group's single "Dirty Minds" has been featured on numerous television shows, including "Big Shots," "The Loop" and "Scrubs," as well as the soundtrack for the movie "Fired Up!" Some say the band members were cursed after deflowering a great Pharaoh's daughter, others claim they are reincarnated Grammy-Winning studio musicians. Regardless, HCTM's mysterious personas, cunning song-craft and unrelenting live show will bend your brain and melt your face. Get ready for Here Come The Mummies.

ABOUT DANNY GOKEY (Headliner of Contemporary Christian Music Festival)

America watched closely as Danny Gokey battled tragedy and won millions of hearts on his way to the finals of American Idol Season 8. His story was no secret: a onetime truck driver from Milwaukee, he'd married his high school sweetheart Sophia only to lose her, a victim of surgery gone bad, just a month before auditioning for the smash hit talent show.

That was enough to transfix viewers week after week. Add to that his singing - expressive, soulful, driven but yet in command of emotions that would have overpowered practically anyone else. The result was a performance that moved audiences to tears and inspired many to face adversity with greater courage.

Today Danny Gokey stands at a different place, wiser, stronger. He's married and has become a father. Once paled by clouds, his world now bathes in a brighter light - the same light that illuminates his extraordinary new album.

On Rise, Gokey refocuses. No longer is he fighting to get through round after round for Idol without succumbing to grief. Now, his passion is to touch people who like him have suffered moments of hopelessness. His mission is far from over, but what he achieves through his music, as an artist and a messenger, is another step towards this.

ABOUT THE WHY STORE (Headliner of Pepsi Indiana Music Festival)

The Why Store was formed in the late 1980s in Muncie. Lead by singer Chris Shaffer, the first album the band recorded was called, Welcome to the Why Store. One year later the band recorded Inside the Why Store. Both albums were successful across Indiana, and The Why Store began getting attention from record labels. In 1995, The Why Store signed to MCA's subsidiary Way Cool Music for their first major-label effort, a self-titled LP, which was released in 1996.

Their major label debut on MCA Records spawned several hits. The first single, "Lack Of Water", was a No. 1 hit on Triple-A Radio; the band performed "Surround Me" on Late Night with Conan O'Brien and saw their video for "Father" receive rotation on MTV2 and VH1. The Why Store was a Top 20 album for 1996 and went on to sell 200,000 copies.

In 2007, Shaffer has reincarnated The Why Store and is poised to break back into the scene with an exiting new album called VIM. Produced by Rusty Anderson, Paul McCartney's long time guitarist, VIM showcases Chris's passionate songwriting and refreshingly edgy vocal ability. "It was a magical experience, definitely the best thing I've ever done," says Shaffer. The Why Store is open for business.

USA Swimming standouts set to compete at Phillips 66 Nationals

The nation's top swimmers, including 2016 Olympic gold medalists, will square off with national titles and Team USA roster spots for next month's FINA World Championships up for grabs at USA Swimming's Phillips 66 National Championships, which open in Indianapolis on Tuesday, June 27, at the Indiana University Natatorium on the campus of IUPUI.

With many competing in the same pool for the first time since Team USA topped the medal table with 33 Olympic medals in Rio last summer, 30-plus members of the 2016 U.S. Olympic Team are expected to be in action in Indianapolis.

Defending individual event Olympic champions expected to compete include Anthony Ervin (Valencia, Calif./SwimMAC Carolina), Lilly King (Evansville, Ind./Indiana University), Katie Ledecky (Bethesda, Md./Stanford Swimming), Simone Manuel (Sugar Land, Texas/Stanford Swimming) and Ryan Murphy (Jacksonville, Fla./California Aquatics).

In total, more than 600 of the nation's top swimmers – including the likes of fellow Olympic medalists Nathan Adrian (Bremerton, Wash./California Aquatics), Matt Grevers (Lake Forest, Ill./Tucson Ford Dealers Aquatics), Kathleen Baker (Winston-Salem, N.C./SwimMAC Carolina) and Elizabeth Beisel (Saunderstown, R.I./Bluefish Swim Club) – are expected to swim in the five-day meet. Complete meet information is available online at usaswimming.org.

The competition opens on Tuesday, June 27, and runs through Saturday, July 1. Prelims begin each day of competition at 9 a.m. EDT, followed by finals at 6 p.m. All-session, single-day and single-session tickets are on sale now at usaswimming.org.

Current ticket specials for Phillips 66 Nationals include buy one, get one free using the code "BOGO," and 50 percent off groups of 20 or more tickets using the code "GROUP."

This meet serves as the qualifier for the U.S. team in the pool competition at the 2017 FINA World Championships, which runs from July 23-30 in Budapest, Hungary.

The winner of each Olympic event will claim an automatic spot on the roster, and a complete team selection procedure is outlined at usaswimming.org. Outside of the Olympic Games, the FINA World Championships are the sport's largest international competition.

Results at Phillips 66 Nationals also will qualify individuals for the U.S. rosters for the World University Games and FINA World Junior Championships – set for Aug. 23-28 in Indianapolis – later this summer.

Twelve hours of television coverage from Phillips 66 Nationals will be aired by NBC Sports Group with nightly broadcasts on NBC Sports Network and Universal HD and four hours of coverage on NBC on July 1-2. A webcast of the meet also will be available on usaswimming.org.

The Phillips 66 National Championships are part of the 2017 Team USA Summer Champions Series, presented by Comcast. The Champions Series showcases numerous Olympic sports throughout the season, highlighting the year-round quest of Team USA athletes to compete at the Olympic Games.
