Commissioners: Glynn needs to do homework

The Hamilton County Board of Commissioners are writing in response to a recent article by County Councilman Fred Glynn regarding the Hamilton County Jail Complex Solar Project. We believe that additional facts and context would be helpful for Hamilton County taxpayers to determine if a state sanctioned guaranteed energy contract, generating an estimated net savings of over $12,500,000 over 25 years, is a good investment.

Utilities are the county's second highest expense right behind our employee salaries/benefits. As the executive body, the commissioners are always looking for opportunities to save money and reduce our risk of future expenditures. The commissioners began exploring energy savings opportunities for our buildings in 2013 and implemented several cost savings improvements. These improvements have resulted in energy savings of $225,000 per year by installing new interior & exterior LED lighting, efficient direct digital controls systems with night setback as well as heating & cooling system upgrades.

The commissioners originally brought the Jail Complex Solar Project to the council in 2015. Everyone agreed at that time the solar project was not a good investment in that it did not generate a sufficient rate of return. Three important things have changed since 2015 which both make the solar project extremely beneficial and which have accelerated the timeline for installation:

1. The technology and the capacity of the solar panels have been significantly improved and electric rates continue to escalate.

2. In 2017 the Indiana General Assembly passed SB309 reducing net metering from 30 years to 15 years. Solar projects

GOP not wise taking county for granted

The County Line
You've got to wonder about the reasoning used by some Republican candidates for major political office when they decline to appear at a function in Hamilton County. The county produces their party's greatest election pluralities of any county in Indiana.

But, two leading candidates for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate have passed up an opportunity to speak at the annual Sept. 21 Carmel GOP Pork Roast.

Hamilton Heights employee arrested

The REPORTER

On Tuesday, Sept. 5, investigators at the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office were contacted regarding allegations of possible criminal activity by an instructional assistant at Hamilton Heights High School. As a result of the information, an investigation was opened by detectives in conjunction with the Indiana Department of Child Services (DCS).

The investigation focused on a student complaint of criminal activity that occurred at Hamilton Heights High School between a female instructional assistant and a juvenile male student on Friday, Sept. 1. The complaint regarded the alleged showing of pornographic material to the student. DCS personnel along with Sheriff's Office detectives investigated the allegations and determined there was probable cause for the arrest of the instructional assistant.

On Wednesday, Sept. 6, April Moon Beeson, 42, Cicero, was arrested and initially charged with Dissemination of Matter or Conducting Performance Harmful to Minors, I.C. 35-49-3-3, a Class 6 Felony. Ms. Beeson was booked into the Hamilton County Jail and later released through the Pretrial Release Program with an initial hearing on Wednesday, Sept. 20.

According to Superintendent Dr. Derek Arrowood at Hamilton Heights Schools, Ms. Beeson

Long-time volunteer, donor Rollin Sage receives Jack Heiney Award for Philanthropic Leadership . . .

Community Health Network Foundation names recipient of philanthropic award

The REPORTER

Community Health Network Foundation officials today presented Rollin Sage with the Jack Heiney Award for Philanthropic Leadership. Sage, 86, is the eighth recipient of the award in its 19 years of existence.

Since the early 1980s, Sage has served in a variety of volunteer roles at both Community Hospital East and Community Hospital North. Currently, twice a week, he greets patients and guests at the main reception desk at Community Hospital North, helping to put them at ease in the hospital setting.

In his professional career, Sage served as a management professional and, since retirement, has applied his business skills in his work as a Community Hospital North Auxiliary Board member and past chair. His leadership has improved the auxiliary's participation and increased fundraising efforts, offering support for a variety of Community Health Network patients including Neonatal Intensive Care Unit mothers and nurses, oncology patients, babies born with neonatal abstinence syndrome and families grieving the loss of a loved one.

"Words can't express what this means to me," said Sage. "Mainly, I don't feel worthy of it, but I promise to live up to all of the expectations of this honor. Having known Jack Heiney personally, that makes this all the more special."

In addition to his contributions of time and talent, Sage has been a dedicated donor to Community Health Network Foundation since 1989. Most recently, Sage made a significant gift to the Community Hospital East Reinvestment Fund in memory of his daughter and son-in-law, both long-time employees at Community Health Network who passed away in recent years.

Sage's selfless generosity has been recognized by leaders across Community Health Network, including Joyce Irwin, Community Health Network Foundation's president and CEO.

"Rollin epitomizes what it means to be a servant leader, consistently placing the needs of others before his own," Irwin said. "I'm convinced he has never met a stranger, and his easy smile and good-natured humor brighten the day of all who meet him. While Community holds a special place in Rollin's heart, his service and contributions have undoubtedly made Community even more special for the patients and families who turn to us for care."

Sage's unwavering commitment to giving back through volunteerism is especially appreciated by Karen Hicks, Community's volunteer supervisor for the North campus.

"I have witnessed him give of his time and energy tirelessly over and over again," said Hicks. "In addition to his two evening shifts per week and work with the Auxiliary fundraisers, he has volunteered in countless instances to assist with special projects or events and has never turned away a fellow volunteer in need, whether it be providing a listening ear or using his van to assist with transportation."

Sage joins the ranks of seven past recipients of the Jack Heiney Award for Philanthropic Leadership:

John W. "Jack" Heiney (1998); Jeanette Reilly, PhD (1999); Gordon C. McLaughlin, MD (2000); Kathryn G. Betley (2003); Thomas A. Ferrara, MD (2006); Janet M. Bingle, MS, RN (2008) and Yvonne Shaheen (2014).

About The Jack Heiney Award for Philanthropic Leadership

The Jack Heiney Award for Philanthropic Leadership was established in 1998 by Community Health Network Foundation's board of directors to honor Heiney's long-term commitment to serving Community. The former president and CEO of Indiana Gas Company, Heiney provided four decades of unpaid volunteer service to many of Community's boards until he died in 2011. He and his wife, Betty, also donated more than $1 million to improve the health of the central Indiana communities that Community serves.

About Community Health Network Foundation

Community Health Network Foundation is the not-for-profit philanthropic organization of Community Health Network, Central Indiana's leader in providing convenient access to exceptional healthcare services, where and when patients need them. Donations support patients, caregivers and Central Indiana communities. For more information about Community Health Network Foundation, visit www.eCommunity.com/foundation or call (317) 355-GIVE.

3.8 million Hoosiers affected by Equifax data breach

The REPORTER

More than three million people living in Indiana had their personal information compromised after a massive data breach involving Equifax.

The breach could be one of the largest thefts involving social security numbers, with 143 million people across the country affected.

The credit reporting agency has records of people's personal and credit information. But hackers got ahold of that information and much more from mid-May through July. Equifax didn't find out about the problem until the end of July and confirmed the breach Thursday.

Equifax created a website for people to learn more about what happened and how you can check to see if your information was compromised.

So how can you check? You'll want to go on EquifaxSecurity2017.com. Once on the page, you have to click on "Potential Impact." From there, you have to enter your last name and the last six digits of your social security number.

If the website reports that your personal information may have been impacted by the security breach, there are a few options available to help protect your credit and your identity.

"One of the best ways to protect yourself — and this is in any situation even if there isn't any sort of breach — is to initiate a credit freeze," said Tim Maniscalco, who is the president and CEO of Better Business Bureau Serving Central Indiana.

Maniscalco said the process takes around 15 minutes and could save you a lot of trouble in the end.

"Once you freeze it, no one, including you, can get in it unless you unfreeze it," he explained.

Maniscalco said doing a credit freeze will prevent anyone from pulling your credit, opening a new account or applying for credit in your name.

Equifax is now offering people free identity theft protection and free credit monitoring.

COUNTY LINE

Many of the party's activists attend the function, folks who will have something to say about how Hamilton County goes in next year's primary and general elections. It's not the first time major candidates have missed events in the county. Top Republicans were scarce at local July 4 parades this year. But, Democrat Sen. Joe Donnelly was there. There are now six candidates in the race for the Republican senatorial nomination. The winner in the May primary will challenge the incumbent Sen. Donnelly. If it's a close race, Hamilton County can play a big role in that contest.

Luke Messer and Todd Rokita, both current congressmen, are seen as leading a large field of GOP candidates, but have both declined the Sept. 21 event.

Other candidates are Terry Henderson, a Hamilton County businessman; Mark Hurt, a Kokomo attorney; Mike Braun, a state representative from Jasper; and Andrew Takami, director of the Purdue Polytechnic Institute at New Albany.

Meanwhile, Donnelly has mounted an effective statewide public relations campaign, appearing at numerous functions including a few in Hamilton County. He will undoubtedly return to the county multiple times as election year nears.

In the 2016 senate race between Todd Young (R) and Evan Bayh (D), Young won the county by 37,002 votes. He was easily elected statewide, but in a close race as next year could be, the Hamilton County GOP margin could prove crucial.

All this makes one wonder why Republican candidates seem to take the county for granted while the Democrat is poised to chip away at his opposition's anticipated margin.

Donnelly is on the right track. So, one would think the GOP candidates would want to be in the county establishing name identity now and ultimately increase their plurality next year in friendly territory.

Passing up opportunities in Hamilton County such as the county fair, fish fries, the pork roast and other upcoming fall events could prove to be a big mistake. Next year, Donnelly and the Democrats will surely spend a lot of time here. Will the Republicans be here?

installed by Dec. 31, 2017 avoid the reduction and receive the 30-year net metering. If this project continues to be delayed past the end of the year, the county will lose $2,889,000.

3. Tariff petitions pending before the International Trade Commission, if passed before the purchase of the panels will increase the cost of the Solar Project by $1,200,000.

The utility savings generated will pay for solar project in less than 10 years. These funds are already in the County utility budgets and the solar project will not result in a tax increase, but rather a net savings. The other benefit is that the county would be taking control of their energy use and avoiding future utility increases.

Timeline:

- May 10, 2017 – Commissioner Altman personally met with Fred Glynn to explain the project and urgency to proceed.

- May 30, 2017 – County Council was provided information on Solar Project.

- June 7, 2017 – County Council was presented the Solar Project for consideration by Buildings & Grounds Supervisor Steve Wood.

- June 19, 2017 – County attorney Mike Howard sent memo to the Finance Committee.

- June 19, 2017 – Council Finance Committee Meeting.

- July 5, 2017 – Council was presented again about the time constraints and importance of this project.

- Aug. 2, 2017 – Council Meeting – Solar Project stayed tabled.

- Aug. 16, 2017 – Council Finance Committee Meeting.

As you can see from the timeline above, President Fred Glynn had plenty of time to review and ask questions about this project but he did not. To date, after multiple requests, Mr. Glynn has not contacted the Commissioners, the Hamilton County Building & Grounds Department, the engineering and installation contractor Johnson-Melloh or references provided by county staff.

The Hamilton County Commissioners fail to understand how any fiscally responsible County Council person would dismiss this project out of hand as a "pet project" without taking the time to review and discuss the same with the knowledgeable at hand.

Tigers hold Mudsock lead

All of the Mudsock fall sports competitions have been decided, and the Tigers have roared out to the lead.

Fishers won five of the eight Mudsock Trophies this fall. That gives the Tigers a head start on their try for the All-Sports trophy, which is awarded to the school that has the most individual sport Mudsock wins once the school year is complete.

Here's a list of Mudsock winners for the fall:

GIRLS GOLF - Fishers
BOYS TENNIS - Fishers
BOYS CROSS COUNTRY - Fishers
GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY - Southeastern
BOYS SOCCER - Southeastern GIRLS SOCCER - Southeastern
VOLLEYBALL - Fishers
FOOTBALL - Fishers

Southeastern recovered it, and managed to get down to the Tigers' 37 before turning it over on downs. But Fishers fumbled again, and the Royals got the ball back. This time, Southeastern took care of business, as three Sparks passes led to a touchdown. Nick Mutchner took a 22-yard throw in to the end zone. Tyler Melser booted the extra point, as he had with HSE's first touchdown.

The Royals then recovered an onside kick with just over two minutes remaining, and it looked like the comeback would be completed. But Fishers' defense put a stop to that immediately when Michael Prewitt intercepted an HSE pass on its first play of the drive.

"We really put our defense in a tough situation," said Wimmer.

The Tigers had the ball back with 2:15 left, but were starting perilously on their own seven-yard line. Fishers ground the ball down to fourth-and-one inch at the 16, but along the way got Southeastern to take its last timeout. On the fourth-down play, Wolff powered the ball two yards to get the first down. The Mudsock Trophy was once again in the hands of the Tigers.

"We had some miscues that we got to get corrected," said Wimmer. "But in the meantime, we feel very good about the way our kids competed tonight and they played hard."

Wolff and Jon Vore traded quarterback duties and both played well. Wolff was a perfect 5-for-5 and threw for 105 yards, while Vore went 7-of-13 and totaled 98 yards. HL Lewis led the rushing with 73 yards on 13 carries. Will Syrus made four catches for 105 yards.

Sparks compiled 122 yards passing for Southeastern, with Mutchner, Brett Cowan and Ben Boysen all making three catches. Jackson Sweeney, who had been out with an injury, returned to the game and gave the Royals a spark, with 24 yards in four carries.

"We got the onside kick, we got the ball, we got time, and the first play we throw a pick," said HSE coach Scott May. "Obviously, the first half, we didn't show up."

"But our kids didn't quit. I thought Sparks gave us a good fire there the second half. We came in, we moved the ball. That's what we got to do. We got to be able to move the ball."

The Tigers are now 2-2 and hold a 2-0 record in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference. They travel to Brownsburg next week. The Royals are 1-3 and 0-2 in the HCC, and will host Westfield next week.

Shamrocks overcome feisty Millers, stay unbeaten

By CRAIG ADKINS

It doesn't matter what the teams' records are each time they meet, because it simply doesn't matter. When Noblesville and Westfield meet on the football field, all else is put aside and it's a battle for the ages.

That's exactly what we were given at Riverview Health Stadium on Friday night in a topsy turvy, back and forth affair that eventually turned into a victory for the IFCA 6A No. 10 (AP No. 12) Westfield Shamrocks, 30-26.

The 'Rocks won the coin toss and chose to kickoff and defer to the second half and put Noblesville's offense to the test right away.

Nick Rusie fielded the opening kick and returned it to the 35, which would've been great field position, but he fumbled the ball and it was picked up by Westfield kicker Alex Bales.

Westfield had prime real estate at the Miller 42, but Bales missed a 47-yard field goal attempt, giving the ball back to Noblesville.

The Millers caught a break and kept the crazy train rolling in the early goings of the first quarter. On the fifth play of the drive, they added a litter trickery. Receiver Zach Gruver jogged in motion from right to left and took the handoff from Gremel. Next, he found a wide open Jaden Barrett for a

51-yard touchdown pass to give Noblesville the first score of the game to lead 7-0.

After forcing the Shamrocks to punt after three plays, the Millers got back to work on offense.

This time with a shorter field at Westfield's 45, Gremel called his own number and sprinted 26-yards into the end zone. A false start penalty backed the kick attempt back five yards and Jack Knight missed the PAT, but that still jumped Noblesville out to a 13-0 lead with 2:02 left in the first quarter.

"We were a different ball club, because our quarterback play was different. That's where it started for us," Noblesville head coach Jason Simmons pleased with the play of junior signal caller Grant Gremel.

"It felt like Grant accepted the challenge that was given to him this week. He really stepped up his level of play and made some big plays and we needed that to have a chance to compete," Simmons continued on Gremel's play.

The Shamrocks were able to put together a solid drive that lasted six plays and 80-yards, resulting in a Nate Froelich seven-yard TD run. Now, Westfield trailed 13-7.

Noblesville pulled off a great fake punt on their next series, as personal protector

Eddie Dziennik carried the ball eight yards, but the drive wouldn't get too much further as the Millers were forced to punt.

Westfield wasted no time at all taking the lead on their next possession. Quarterback Cam Nance took advantage of blown coverage in the Miller secondary and tossed a 72-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Dan Wheeler, giving the Shamrocks their first lead of the game at 14-13.

Trading three and out series and each having to punt, Noblesville had the ball back starting at their own 12. A penalty backed them up to the five yard line. The Millers were able to methodically make their way down the field to the Westfield 24. That set up shop for Gremel to call his own number for the second time in the half, finding his way to the end zone this time from 24-yards out and getting his Millers a 20-14 lead.

Junior Dorian Henson returned Knight's kickoff 35-yards to the Noblesville 40. The Shamrocks would get down far enough into Miller territory and Alex Bales nailed a 38-yard field goal to cut the lead to 20-17 at the half.

With as tight as this HCC game was, you would think that the third quarter might be when one of these two would break the game wide open. But, that didn't happen.

Neither would put any points on the board in the third, as they would waste the third frame with running the ball and trading punts.

On Westfield's second series of the fourth quarter, they had great field position at their own 46. This drive belonged to Cam Nance. He danced his way 21 yards to a TD to put the 'Rocks back in front 24-20 with 5:36 left.

The Millers put together a drive that would define their night offensively.

Starting at their own 24, Noblesville knew they had to not only score a touchdown, but mainly had to eat up as much clock as they could in the process.

They ate up 4:12 off of the clock and took a 26-24 lead with 1:39 left on a Luke Blevins two-yard TD run. Knight's kick was again no good, leaving the Millers up just two.

"I don't know. We always play that way. I think it's immaturity," Westfield head coach Jake Gilbert when asked why his Shamrocks get a slow start in the first half, but manage to still come out on top.

"We just have to grow up and start better," Gilbert continued on his team's slow start offensively.

Noblesville had given Westfield too

Huskies hammered by Tipton

By MICHELLE GARMON

As M.C. Hammer once rapped, "It's Hammer Time." Friday night was certainly that as Tipton's Class 2A No. 7 Blue Devils hammered away at the Hamilton Heights Huskies to the tune of a 31-7 victory and in doing so, took possession of "The Hammer."

The Huskies had had the traveling trophy for the past three seasons. Tipton's last win was 28-7 in 2013.

Perhaps more importantly, Tipton (4-0) opened Hoosier Conference East Division play with a win. Heights, meanwhile, fell to 0-2 in the HC East and 0-4 on the season.

"We didn't have a lot of things go our way from the start, pregame on," Hamilton Heights Coach Mitch Street said. "It's just the nature of football sometimes and the nature of our season right now."

The Huskies provided the Blue Devils with plenty motivation hours before the game, as two players painted 'The Rock,' honoring Tipton's winningest coach, Mike Tolle, orange.

The stunt proved to be costly in more ways than one as the players were discovered, forced to apologize to the former coach during pregame, had their helmets confiscated and were forced to watch from the sideline.

"It changed a lot," Heights' Street said. "One is a two-way starter and the other is an offensive starter. One of the kids is on special teams, a lot of them. It changes things. We had multiple plans coming into the game. When you lose two DBs, it changes what you can do and it changes our ability to put DBs out there that are prepared and ready to execute the plan, so it does hurt you."

"It's unfortunate, but it needed to be done. We lost two more. Shortly after the third quarter (started), we were down two more. We lost one right before the half and another one sometime there in the third quarter. Against a team that passes as well as Tipton does that makes it really, really difficult to be down four DBs."

Conversely, a lot of things went right for the Blue Devils as they amassed 502 yards of offense and surrendered just 172 yards — 41 of which came on one play — and forced three turnovers.

Tipton quarterback KJ Roudebush completed 20 of 37 passes for 325 yards and 2 TDs, while also throwing an interception. He also ran 12 times for 83 yards.

Aidan Moses was his favorite target last night, catching six passes for 183 yards. Caleb Burkett had five catches for 88 yards and 2 TDs, covering 10 and 18 yards.

Sebastian Connor added 45 rushing yards and a TD on 11 carries. Peyton Carter had seven carries for 23 yards and a TD.

"We went kind of brain dead on the last play of the half and they moved the ball a little bit on us the second half but our defense played at an awful high level tonight," Tipton Coach Aaron Tolle said.

"I thought we were just flying around and I thought we were extremely physical. I thought we flew to the ball and we hit. I think that wears on teams. We're just really fast, fly to the ball and are physical."

"It's nice to be able to count on your defense to keep Hamilton Heights' Camron Knott makes an interception during the first quarter of the Huskies' game with Tipton Friday night. Knott would also catch a 41-yard touchdown pass later in the game.

you in games until you find some things that your offense can do," the Tipton coach said. "I think that kind of happened tonight."

Perhaps the first play from scrimmage provided an omen the night might belong to Tipton as Roudebush had his pass deflected. But lineman Brogan Brown was there to catch the deflection. He lost a yard but a personal foul facemask penalty against the Huskies gave the Blue Devils a first down at the 39.

The very next play, Roudebush connected with Moses on a 48-yard pass play and another first down at the HH 13.

Heights' defense held, allowing a yard in three plays. But Tipton junior Nathan Slack split the uprights on a 29-yard field goal to put Tipton up 3-0 at the 10:50 mark.

Senior Grant Shively came up with a huge special teams play for Tipton as he sprinted across the field to chase down Heights' Isiah Campbell and make a touchdown-saving tackle on Campbell's kickoff return that went for 67 yards to the Tipton 18.

But the Huskies fumbled on the ensuing handoff and Tipton linebacker Chase London recovered the ball. The Blue Devils advance the ball down the field before Camron Knott intercepted Roudebush's pass at the Husky 11.

Seven plays later, Heights was forced to punt and the Blue Devils took over at their own 34. Eleven plays later, they were in the end zone.

A pass interference penalty against the Huskies aided the 66-yard drive that was capped by Carter's 7-yard TD scamper. Slack's PAT extended the lead to 10-0 just 37 seconds into the second quarter.

Roudebush had a critical play on the drive as he bulled his way forward for 2 yards on a fourth-and-inches.

Tipton's defense forced a three-and-out and following Knott's second punt of the game, the Blue Devils again took over at their own 34. And they marched down the field again. This time, Tipton overcame a holding penalty that came 5 yards behind the line of scrimmage.

Roudebush scrambled and found Moses along the sideline who came back to the ball to haul in a 16-yard pass on a third-and-10. The Tipton QB then ran for 15 yards on a third-and-7.

He and Moses again came up big, hooking up for 18 yards on a fourth-and-9. The play gave Tipton a first down at the Husky 13. Connor carried twice, scoring on a 7-yard run around right end. Slack's PAT extended the lead to 17-0 much time to put together one last drive.

The Shamrocks finessed their way down the field and before they knew it, they were staring at paydirt. Froelich ran up the gut for an 18-yard touchdown run with 0:19 left, putting Westfield up 30-26.

The game would be iced on Noblesville's last possession. Gremel dropped back and Owen McGraw intercepted his pass at the 46-yard line.

"We've been a great second half team all year, but we're confident coming out at halftime; we always are," Gilbert on his team's second half (mainly fourth quarter) surge.

Noblesville got some answers that they couldn't find during their first three weeks. Westfield once again figured out how to overcome their opponent for the fourth week in a row.

Noblesville (0-4, 0-2 HCC) heads home in Week 5 for Homecoming vs. Zionsville (2-2, 0-1 HCC), who came back to win at Brebeuf Jesuit, 21-18.

Westfield (4-0, 2-0 HCC) will continue its unbeaten ways, as they head to Hamilton Southeastern (1-3, 0-2 HCC). The Royals lost the Mudsock game at Fishers, 20-14. The Shamrocks have won 12 games in a row overall, dating back to last season.

HUSKIES

with 4:20 left to play in the first half. The two teams exchanged punts before Heights came up with its best and only scoring drive of the night. Taking over at the Tipton 47 with 1:15 on the clock, the Huskies needed four plays to reach the end zone.

DeShawn King ran twice for 2 yards. Tyler Andis then completed a 4-yard pass to Knott, leaving the Huskies with a fourth-and-4 with under 10 seconds on the clock. On the final play of the half, Andis hit Knott in stride down the Husky sideline. The 41-yard TD pass play and Owen Powell's PAT kick cut the lead to 17-7 as the teams went into halftime.

Heights was unable to keep the momentum as Tipton's defense forced a three-and-out to start the third quarter. The Blue Devil offense then put together a six-play, 58-yard scoring drive.

Roudebush completed a 14-yard pass to Luke Stoker. He then found Burkett on a 29-yard pass to give Tipton a first down at the HH 11. Connor carried for a yard before Roudebush dropped back and hit Burkett in the end zone. Slack's kick made it 24-7 with 8:10 remaining in the third quarter.

"We got a fortunate coverage, man cover able to get on top of that and able to execute it," HH's Street said of the Huskies' touchdown. "Our whole season has been, especially offensively, we do something really good and then we regress two or three steps and have a bad play. We're not quite talented enough at this point and time to overcome those mistakes."

"We're just real young and unable to overcome those self-inflicted mistakes. Tipton's a good football team but some of those mistakes were self-inflicted. You put yourself in a bind against a good team, it's hard to get out of. We continuously did that."

The Blue Devil defense forced another three-and-out. The offense then put together its final touchdown drive of the night going 75 yards in eight plays.

Connor began the drive with a 13-yard run. Roudebush added a 23-yard run on a third-and-2. Carter then gained 4 yards on a third-and-1. The very next play, Roudebush hit Burkett with an 18-yard TD pass. Slack's fourth PAT of the night made it 31-7.

Tipton's Connor and Hyatt Flanigan came up with interceptions on Heights' next two offense possessions. The Blue Devil defense then stopped the Huskies on downs on their final possession of the night.

"I thought they had a nice game plan," Tipton's Tolle said of the Huskies. "They have really, really big defensive linemen and they brought a lot of linebackers to get heat and they challenged our wideouts with man cover."

"They went one-on-one and to be honest, they did a pretty good job. We'll have to go back to the film and look at it because we'll see that again sometime."

Blake Weble led Heights' rushing attack with 14 carries for 58 yards. Ike Hooper had 17 yards on eighth carries and King 13 yards on five attempts. Anders was 5 of 14 for 92 yards and a TD. He also was picked twice. Knott finished with three catches for 47 yards and Brandon Garst had a 38-yard reception.

"We had six sophomores on the field on offense at one point tonight and that's tough, especially against a team as good as (Tipton)," Street said. "I'm not making excuses. But you can't replicate experience. They definitely have that going for them and they're going to be a force to reckon with in 2A."

Tipton takes its unbeaten mark on the road next week, traveling to Western for another conference showdown.

The Huskies travel to Northwestern for a conference tilt next Friday.

Sheridan stuns Carroll

Sheridan coach Bud Wright had this to say about the Blackhawks' Hoosier Heartland Conference win over Carroll Friday:

"That's the biggest win we've had since probably 2012," said the coach.

The Comets were ranked No. 2 in the Class 1A Associated Press poll and were 3-0 coming into the game. But Sheridan hung on and made a big defensive play in the waning seconds of the fourth quarter to upset Carroll 28-27 at Bud Wright Stadium.

The victory keeps the 'Hawks on top of the HHC standings at 3-0 and improves their record to 3-1 overall.

The big defensive play came from Ange Gnamky, who intercepted a pass on the Comets' final drive of the game.

"That was the ball game," said Wright. The coach credited Tanner Swindle with having "a heck of a ball game," and said the defensive backs had a great game in the second half.

"We really shut it down the second half," said Wright of Carroll's passing game. "We made a couple adjustments. I think they had 186 yards (passing) at halftime, and the second half they had minus four. The second half, we just completely shut them down."

On the offensive side, Joe Callahan was unstoppable. Callahan rushed for 232 yards on 47 carries, and scored all four of Sheridan's touchdowns. Callahan got three scores in the second quarter, then found the end zone in the fourth period.

Gunnar Williams kicked all four extra points.

The Blackhawks are home again next week, taking on Clinton Prairie. The Gophers are currently chasing Sheridan in the conference race at 2-0.

Greyhounds hold off Pike

Carmel scratched out a Metropolitan Conference win at Pike Friday, holding off the Red Devils 21-18.

The Greyhounds scored quickly out of the gate, with Camari Hunt zooming in 45 yards to the end zone, with Connor Coghlan converting the extra point kick. But Pike would score one touchdown each in the first and second quarters, taking a 12-7 halftime lead.

Carmel snapped back with two scores in the third quarter, both off Jake McDonald passes. Jack Rodimel picked up an eight-yard touchdown early in the period, with Hunt grabbing a 32-yard throw. Coghlan kicked both extra points.

Pike scored with 2:02 remaining and tried an onside kick, but Carmel recovered. That secured the Greyhounds' first MIC win of the year. Carmel is 1-1 in the MIC and now 2-2 overall.

Will Schmidt was the Greyhounds' leading rusher with 82 yards in 15 carries. Hunt finished with 78 yards in 13 rushes. Atticus Clouse had six receptions for 64 yards.
