Grand Park named official home to Indianapolis Colts Training Camp

The REPORTER

The city of Westfield and the Indianapolis Colts are forming a 10-year partnership, which names the Grand Park Sports Campus as the official host of the Colts training camp.

"When Grand Park opened three years ago it was meant to be the gem of youth sports," said Mayor Andy Cook. "This partnership to be the official home of the Indianapolis Colts training camp goes well beyond youth sports. To have an NFL team committed to Grand Park for a decade proves that our facility is not only a premiere venue for youth sports, but also for professional athletes."

"Holding training camp at Grand Park will give our team a chance to practice at a top notch facility in addition to giving us the chance to connect with our fans as we prepare for the season," said Colts General Manager Chris Ballard. "The venue is located in ideal proximity to our fan base and we feel this is an advantageous move for the Indianapolis Colts."

Mallery honored with Continental Award

Longtime county Board of Health Chairman Garrick Mallery was recognized by Hamilton County Commissioners on Aug. 28 with the Continental Award, the highest honor bestowed on residents who contribute to making our community a better place to live.

Mallery has been chairman of the Board of Health since 2003 — his second stint after leading the group for its first six years, from 1966 to 1972. He has been appointed to the board twice, serving a total of 43 years and helping to guide the

Fishers Council meetings soon to be live-streamed

By LARRY LANNAN

For many years, Fishers residents could view the old town council meetings by watching a live video stream provided on an Internet link through the municipal Web site. The audio and video equipment at City Hall, however, is aging and failing on a regular basis. Video live-streaming has not been available for some time.

At a recent Fishers City Plan Commission meeting, the projector providing video to the screen view for the audience failed, while the screen facing the commission members, facing the opposite direction, was working. The entire audience moved from their seats to the other side of the room in order to view the pictures of a proposal before the commission.

Mayor Scott Fadness said this is not what a city with a "tech-savvy" reputation should accept.

As a result, the Fishers Board of Public Works and Safety has approved a proposal to upgrade audio and video equipment at City Hall.

The new installation will replace the current projection screens with digital screens in the City Council Chambers as well as other locations in the building. The cameras used for recording and live-streaming events in the chambers will go from the current analog technology to digital.

These upgrades mean Fishers City Council meetings and other events in the chamber will have the capability to once again provide live-streaming over the Internet, as well as archiving for future viewing at a later time.

The new equipment should be in place and operating by sometime in November, at the latest, according to Fishers City Director of Information Technology Tracy Gaynor.

Shining light on solar debate

Commissioners: Glynn needs to do homework

The Hamilton County Board of Commissioners are writing in response to a recent article by County Councilman Fred Glynn regarding the Hamilton County Jail Complex Solar Project. We believe that additional facts and context would be helpful for Hamilton County taxpayers to determine if a state sanctioned guaranteed energy contract, generating an estimated net savings of over $12,500,000 over 25 years, is a good investment.

Utilities are the county's second highest expense right behind our employee salaries/benefits. As the executive body, the commissioners are always looking for opportunities to save money and reduce our risk of future expenditures. The commissioners began exploring energy savings opportunities for our buildings in 2013 and implemented several cost savings improvements. These improvements have resulted in energy savings of $225,000 per year by installing new interior & exterior LED lighting, efficient direct digital controls systems with night setback as well as heating & cooling system upgrades.

The commissioners originally brought the Jail Complex Solar Project to the council in 2015. Everyone agreed at that time the solar project was not a good investment in that it did not generate a sufficient rate of return. Three important things have changed since 2015 which both make the solar project extremely beneficial and which have accelerated the timeline for installation:

1. The technology and the capacity of the solar panels have been significantly improved and electric rates continue to escalate.

Hamilton County Commissioners

2. In 2017 the Indiana General Assembly passed SB309 reducing net metering from 30 years to 15 years. Solar projects installed by Dec. 31, 2017 avoid the reduction and receive the 30-year net metering. If this project continues to be delayed past the end of the year, the county will lose $2,889,000.

3. Tariff petitions pending before the International Trade Commission, if passed before the purchase of the panels will increase the cost of the Solar Project by $1,200,000.

The utility savings generated will pay for solar project in less than 10 years. These funds are already in the County utility budgets and the solar project will not result in a tax increase, but rather a net savings. The other benefit is that the county would be taking control of their energy use and avoiding future utility increases

Timeline

- May 10, 2017 – Commissioner Altman personally met with Fred Glynn to explain the project and urgency to proceed.
- May 30 – County Council was provided information on Solar Project.
- June 7 – County Council was presented the Solar Project for consideration by Buildings & Grounds Supervisor Steve Wood.

- June 19 – County attorney Mike Howard sent memo to the Finance Committee.

- June 19 – Council Finance Committee Meeting.

- July 5 – Council was presented again about the time constraints and importance of this project.

- Aug. 2 – Council Meeting – Solar Project stayed tabled.

- Aug. 16 – Council Finance Committee Meeting.

As you can see from the timeline above, President Fred Glynn had plenty of time to review and ask questions about this project but he did not. To date, after multiple requests, Mr. Glynn has not contacted the Commissioners, the Hamilton County Building & Grounds Department, the engineering and installation contractor Johnson-Melloh or references provided by county staff.

The Hamilton County Commissioners fail to understand how any fiscally responsible County Council person would dismiss this project out of hand as a "pet project" without taking the time to review and discuss the same with the knowledgeable at hand.

Glynn: Fiscal responsibility requires discipline, oversight

As you likely know, the Hamilton County Council is the fiscal body of our county government. As such, the Council is wholly and exclusively responsible to ensure taxpayer money is spent wisely. The Board of County Commissioners is the executive body, responsible for the execution of the funding we approve, and the day-to-day operation of county government. There are literally thousands of requests for money that come to the Council each year – many of them for worthy causes.

For that reason, it is very important for the Council to exercise discipline and oversight on every project, and consider the impact to taxpayers for years down the road. In government or business, oversight is important. A lack of oversight creates an imbalance of power, misplaced priorities, and – inevitably – financial mismanagement. As your County Councilman, and President of the County Council, I take seriously my job to protect your tax dollars. Our oversight function includes a requirement that we conduct an exacting and inquisitive approach to funding requests from the Commissioners, just like we do for others who come to us requesting county funds. Because when it comes to spending money – the buck stops with us.

Cooperation with the Commissioners is critical to success. We need to work together. We work with the Commissioners closely and always attempt to align our priorities during budget time. This past March, we met with the Commissioners and agreed on a group of projects that needed to be funded in 2017/2018. Those projects included the Logan Street pedestrian walkway for approximately $2 million, expansion of the judicial center at approximately $25 million and the highway 37 project which cost is yet to be confirmed. We also discussed a previously agreed upon priority of expanding the jail at approximately $10 to 12 million.

During that March meeting, we agreed with the Commissioners that the courthouse and jail expansions were a priority and would cost between $10 to 12 million for the jail and $25 million for the judicial center. Our Council Finance Committee took these estimates and worked with our financial consultant to find a way to fund these projects without raising your taxes or depleting our reserves. The first step to each project was an architectural/engineering design – which came to a cost of $500,000 for the courthouse and $700,000 for the jail.

After having released that $1.2 million for the architectural/engineering plans and not having final numbers yet to finish either, the Commissioners sprung a new set of funding requests onto the Council. One of those new requests is an $8 million request for the installation of solar panels on county property as an experiment in lowering the County's electric bill. While a worthy motivation, it is troubling that the Commissioners have asked us to fund new priorities outside of the budgetary priorities we agreed upon just six months ago – and without the benefit of the final cost on the cost of the courthouse and jail expansions.

FRED GLYNN
President, Hamilton County Council

The Commissioners presented the solar panel project as an "emergency" that could not wait until budget time next year because a state credit on how energy can be stored would expire at the end of the year. But this "emergency" could have easily been avoided had the project been presented in March along with the others, but it was not. This type of spending, outside of our budgetary priorities, is inconsistent with the disciplinary and resolve we have shown over the past several years to maximize the county's financial standing. It is easy to say "yes" to projects, but it's our job to "hold the line" on spending and stick with the contours of our budget even when the winds of spending blow and bluster.

As one vote out of seven, I have concerns with the solar projects outside of its absence from the budgetary talks. First, it is unclear whether it will create the savings that has been represented. The contract, in sum, makes savings promises but then provides multiple exceptions to those guarantees. Second, I worry how funding this project will impact our current tax levy when funded in conjunction with other projects like the courthouse and jail. In other words, if the courthouse and jail come in at steeper costs than predicted (which we all know is possible), we could find ourselves in a position where we must raise your taxes for the first time during my tenure on the Council. I refuse to be placed in that position.

Currently County Government is the only government body in Hamilton County that has seen a decrease in the amount of property taxes that we extract from our citizens over the past four years. This is due to fiscal responsibility which is driven by discipline and oversight. It is imperative that we await final numbers on the courthouse and jail before we consider anything else. That is what was agreed upon between the Council and Commissioners in March, and that is how I am going to proceed with my vote.

Bottom line, we should concentrate on finishing and funding the priorities we agreed upon in March before we begin additional "pet projects," as worthy as they may be. That is why I was elected, and that is the course I intend to pursue on your behalf.

City plans three more roundabouts by 2019

By FRED SWIFT

Noblesville is rapidly joining other cities in adopting the roundabout method of handling traffic at increasingly busy intersections. Three more roundabouts are planned in the city during the next two years.

Roundabouts were once controversial, but in recent years the driving public has appeared to become acclimated to the relatively new concept in traffic control.

No fewer than ten roundabouts have been built in the rapidly growing commercial and residential areas east of State Road 37, but until recently there were almost none in the so-called old city.

But, this year traffic circles opened on 10th Street, to the north at Cumberland Road and on the south at Greenfield Avenue. Technically, the one at Cumberland is a county, not a city, project.

To the northwest, a roundabout is now found at Carrigan and Hague roads. Now the city plans another at 19th and Pleasant streets for next year. Then, in 2019 two more will be under construction at Field Drive and Cumberland and at Greenfield Avenue and Howe Road. These projects for 2018-19 are being paid 80 percent with Metropolitan Planning (MPO) funds and 20 percent local funds.

Of course, other communities in Hamilton County have been rapidly building the now-common traffic circles since about 2000. Carmel claims to be the national leader in roundabouts with more than 100 and more are underway. Westfield and Fishers also have numerous roundabouts at major intersections.

Noblesville city officials have received generally favorable reviews on the recently opened roundabout at what was called the 'five-points' intersection of South 10th, Greenfield Avenue and Christian Avenue.

By 2020, motorists can expect to find elevated interchanges, a type of hybrid roundabout, on State Road 37 south to I-69. This huge project, financed largely with state funds, is designed to better move traffic on the extremely busy highway.

Soapbox racing comes to Westfield next month for one-day event

The REPORTER

Ladies and Gentlemen, start your engines and join the City of Westfield from 3 to 5 p.m. on Oct. 7 for a great day of soapbox racing in Westfield. Spectators are encouraged cheer on local children, families, businesses and non-profits as they race their hand-built derby cars in a bracketed heat.

The one-day track is set up in downtown Westfield and features a gravity powered start via two large flat-beds. Drivers are encouraged to wear costumes to match their car's theme. All cars will be displayed along "Gasoline Alley" as competitors compete to win the coveted people's choice award.

Event organizers say building a Derby Car can be simple with the right resources Whether you buy a stock car kit or build from scratch, please be sure to read the Official Derby Rule Book.

Derby officials have issued a rule change for this year: Due to increased competition, only cars that are categorized as CREATIVE CARS can use pushers. Pushers are two runners who can grab onto the car at a specific point and push the cars past the finish line. Often times the CREATIVE CARS need this boost due to their frame. In the past, Stock Cars and Creative Cars to have been permitted to use pushers.

Cook: Apply today to intern at the Indiana Statehouse

The REPORTER

Indiana House Republicans are now accepting internship applications for the 2018 legislative session, according to State Rep. Tony Cook (R-Cicero).

Cook said the House Republican Internship Program is a unique opportunity to participate in state government at the Indiana Statehouse while gaining valuable skills for the workforce. This paid program during the spring semester gives college students the chance to work one-on-one with state legislators while seeing firsthand how laws are made.

“Students have big responsibilities as an intern in the House of Representatives,” Cook said. “They will learn many different aspects of our state government, and be able to network and build relationships with leaders and their peers. This fast-paced environment will help students prepare for their future careers.”

Internships are open to college sophomores, juniors and seniors, graduate students and recent graduates of all majors. Students can apply for internships in a variety of areas, focusing on legislative, policy, fiscal policy and technology. These are full-time positions, Monday through Friday, lasting from January through mid-March.

In addition to getting paid $750 every two weeks, students can earn academic credit through their college or university and are eligible to apply for a competitive $3,000 scholarship to use toward undergraduate or graduate expenses. Cook said this one-of-a-kind experience also offers networking opportunities and could open the door to a career.

More information about the internship program or the application process can be found at indianahousepublicans.com/internship. The application deadline is Oct. 31.

State Rep. Tony Cook (R-Cicero) represents House District 32, which includes all of Tipton County and portions of Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Howard and Grant counties.

Facing the giant named Irma

My mind knows the scripture Psalms 62:2: "He only is my rock and my salvation. My stronghold. I shall not be shaken."

I've read that scripture many times. It has been one of my "go to" scriptures when my life hit rough waters.

This week rough waters hit, literally . . . Hurricane Irma. And I admit, I am a bit shaken.

Chuck and I have been in Tampa all week visiting our children and grandchildren who live there. What was supposed to be a week of fun and relaxation was anything but that.

Emily and her family moved there the first of August. This is their first hurricane, predicted to be the largest in Florida history.

Chuck and I helped prepare our house where Emily, Drew, Aiden and Leah are staying until their house, in Fishers, sells.

On Tuesday, we began standing in long lines for cases of water. Two per cart were handed out as the line twisted down the main aisle of Walmart to the back of the store and then up the meat aisle.

We shopped early on Wednesday and we were thankful that we did, as by Thursday evening the shelves were barren that held cans of vegetables or anything that could be heated on a gas grill or simply opened and eaten. Peanut butter . . . gone. Applesauce and individual fruit . . . none.

It was even more bizarre than when a blizzard is predicted here.

We stopped by Home Depot where only one generator remained. The plywood aisle was jammed with people. Sadly, there were few pieces of wood left there.

We waited in line at the gas station to gas up Emily's car after going by three stations that had signs, "NO GAS." We actually passed a station and saw a tanker filling up the tanks and we did a quick U-turn to be one of the first to get gas.

Chuck said he had never had his house take a direct hit since it was built in 1989. We pray it is still standing after Irma knocks on its door.

We made sure there were candles, batteries, wipes, flashlights etc. Believe me, we know the list and all the suggestions.

Then on Friday our flight left after four delays. That's right, we came back home as we were scheduled to do. It is always bittersweet to leave but this time it was just bitter. When Emily dropped us off I quickly went inside the airport to catch my breath . . . and wipe the tears.

This was hard. And so now we wait and we pray.

It's Saturday morning and the reports have gotten worse. Tampa will take a direct hit. 100+ mph winds and eight-foot water surges.

Emily and Drew are evacuating to a friend's house in Satellite Beach on the east side of Florida. He just built it to withstand a hurricane. It is furnished but not yet sold. They have packed their car with necessities that were quickly gathered up.

Chuck's sons and their families are hunkering down in their homes in Tampa . . . so far.

Chuck and I feel helpless. We just wait and worry and pray.

"Lord be with our families and please do not let them be shaken."

GOP not wise taking county for granted

You've got to wonder about the reasoning used by some Republican candidates for major political office when they decline to appear at a function in Hamilton County. The county produces their party's greatest election pluralities of any county in Indiana.

But, two leading candidates for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate have passed up an opportunity to speak at the annual Sept. 21 Carmel GOP Pork Roast.

Many of the party's activists attend the function, folks who will have something to say about how Hamilton County goes in next year's primary and general elections. It's not the first time major candidates have missed events in the county. Top Republicans were scarce at local July 4 parades this year. But, Democrat Sen. Joe Donnelly was there. There are now six candidates in the race for the Republican senatorial nomination. The winner in the May primary will challenge the incumbent Sen. Donnelly. If it's a close race, Hamilton County can play a big role in that contest.

Luke Messer and Todd Rokita, both current congressmen, are seen as leading a large field of GOP candidates, but have both declined the Sept. 21 event.

Other candidates are Terry Henderson, a Hamilton County businessman; Mark Hurt, a Kokomo attorney; Mike Braun, a state representative from Jasper; and Andrew Takami, director of the Purdue Polytechnic Institute at New Albany.

The County Line

Meanwhile, Donnelly has mounted an effective statewide public relations campaign, appearing at numerous functions including a few in Hamilton County. He will undoubtedly return to the county multiple times as election year nears.

In the 2016 senate race between Todd Young (R) and Evan Bayh (D), Young won the county by 37,002 votes. He was easily elected statewide, but in a close race as next year could be, the Hamilton County GOP margin could prove crucial.

All this makes one wonder why Republican candidates seem to take the county for granted while the Democrat is poised to chip away at his opposition's anticipated margin.

Donnelly is on the right track. So, one would think the GOP candidates would want to be in the county establishing name identity now and ultimately increase their plurality next year in friendly territory. Passing up opportunities in Hamilton County such as the county fair, fish fries, the pork roast and other upcoming fall events could prove to be a big mistake. Next year, Donnelly and the Democrats will surely spend a lot of time here. Will the Republicans be here?

Fishers approves work to begin on Britton Falls ADA ramps

By LARRY LANNAN
www.LarryInFishers.com

The City of Fishers awarded a bid of $115,848 Friday, Sept. 1 to begin the work replacing and repairing ramps in the Britton Falls neighborhood to bring them up to compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA). The Fishers Board of Works and Public Safety approved the bid at the recommendation of the City Engineering Department.

The construction work will be done through September and October, with some work possibly finishing up in November, according to City Engineering Department Director Jeff Hill.

The money to pay for this project will come from the city's surety fund. "It's not tax dollars that are being used, it's what developers pay-in when things like this occur," Mayor Scott Fadenness said at the board meeting.

‘You might as well like yourself’

“You might as well like yourself. Just think about all the time you’re going to have to spend with you. And if you don’t think too much of yourself, how do you expect others to?”

— Jerry Lewis as Prof. Kelp, “The Nutty Professor” 1963

I can’t say that I have always been a huge Jerry Lewis fan, but noted several insightful moments in the above named movie that really hit home. Although the movie was marketed as a comedy (and granted there are some funny moments!) it says so much more about both self-acceptance and society’s expectations of individuals.

I could also definitely go off on a political reverie here however will spare my readers that! Essentially what I wish to convey in this article is how many of us tie our self-perception to the perceptions and ideals of others – be that friends, family, or celebrity. Both men and women are prone to doing this but my experience is that women are more likely to have these issues of non-acceptance as it appears to their physical attributes or fitness levels.

In working with clients as a fitness instructor and nutrition/wellness consultant I have learned that most women seem to have an “ideal” that they have formulated over the years and often feel “less than” if they have not achieved that. And, frankly, I see this played out as I observe my friends, family, and random strangers I see in the grocery store. It can happen at every age level but more so as we enter our middle years and beyond that we “give up” and don’t feel it is helpful or important to work on our fitness level, our healthy eating plan (not a DIET!) and our mode of dress. When we give up on self-improvement the results are apparent to others, yes, but most importantly to ourselves and as the quote above indicates – think of all the time you get to spend with you! How we present ourselves in public reflects our own view of how we see ourselves. And how we think is likely to be reflected in how we feel, how we look, and most importantly our emotional and physical health. Age is not a factor; self-improvement is not just for the young!

Be Well

Using myself as an example, as a teenager and young adult I was very active and within my prescribed weight for my height. Moving forward, maintenance becomes important! Flexibility for coordination and balance, weight training for toned muscles and aerobic conditioning for heart and lungs are all needed on a regular basis, particularly as we age. While I have always been a vegetarian, as a young person I was not careful about balancing my eating for nutritional purposes and have always enjoyed dairy products and sweets. Although I do still sometimes enjoy those latter items, I do so only in moderation and work to make sure I am balancing with protein and complex carbohydrates as well as vitamin supplementation. Now – the last point of the top three issues, i.e., fitness, eating plan and mode of dress, please hear me out. Men and women PLEASE do not wear your pajamas in public! Sigh. Most often the way we present ourselves by our chosen mode of apparel sends a message to others and most importantly to us regarding the way we perceive ourselves. There are ways to present ourselves – dressed – which fit whatever our style may be: casual, professional, trendy, etc. that do not include sleepwear as streetwear. Clean, fitted, stylish and appropriate attire does not mean expensive wear. There are options for any budget.

I can guarantee that if you truly want to be the best YOU, to feel good, be healthy and look great, just move your body finding some activity that you enjoy that will also give you the rewards you deserve. Enjoy your occasional treats but provide your body with the energy and nutrition it deserves. And, finally, leave the loungewear at home and present yourself looking your best. You won’t regret it!

Here’s your retirement countdown

If you want to enjoy a comfortable retirement lifestyle, you don’t need to have been born rich or even to have earned scads of money during your working years. But you do need to make the right moves at the right time – which means you might want to start a “retirement countdown” well before you draw your final paycheck.

What might such a countdown look like? Here are a few ideas:

• Ten years before retirement – At this stage of your career, you might be at, or at least near, your peak earning capacity. At the same time, your kids may have grown and left the home and you might even have paid off your mortgage. All these factors, taken together, may mean that you can afford to “max out” on your IRA and your 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement plan. And that’s exactly what you should do, if you can, because these retirement accounts offer tax benefits and the opportunity to spread your dollars around a variety of investments.

• Five years before retirement – Review your Social Security statement

COREY SYLVESTER
Cicero Edward Jones

to see how much you can expect to receive each month at various ages. You can typically start collecting benefits as early as 62, but your monthly checks will be significantly larger if you wait until your “full” retirement age, which will likely be 66 (and a few months) or 67. Your payments will be bigger still if you can afford to wait until 70, at which point your benefits reach their ceiling. In any case, you’ll need to weigh several factors – your health, your family history of longevity, your other sources of retirement income – before deciding on when to start taking Social Security.

• One to three years before retirement – To help increase your income stream during retirement, you may want to convert some – but likely not all – of your growth-oriented investments, such as stocks and stock-based vehicles, into income-producing ones, such as bonds. Keep in mind, though, that even during your retirement years, you’ll still likely need your portfolio to provide you with some growth potential to help keep you ahead of inflation.

• One year before re- tirement – Evaluate your retirement income and expenses. It’s particularly important that you assess your health care costs. Depending on your age at retirement, you may be eligible for Medicare, but you will likely need to pay for some supplemental coverage as well, so you will need to budget for this.

Also, as you get closer to your actual retirement date, you will need to determine an appropriate withdrawal rate for your investments. How much should you take each year from your IRA, 401(k) and other retirement accounts? The answer depends on many factors: the size of these accounts, your retirement lifestyle, your projected longevity, whether you’ve started taking Social Security, whether your spouse is still working, and so on. A financial professional can help you determine an appropriate withdrawal rate.

These aren’t the only steps you need to take before retirement, nor do they need to be taken in the precise order described above. But they can be useful as guidelines for a retirement countdown that can help ease your transition to the next phase of your life.

Tigers hold off Royals for Mudsock Trophy

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

The 2017 Mudsock football game was an exciting one, but it was almost a repeat of a game that Fishers would rather forget.

The Tigers were cruising along Friday night at their own Reynolds Tigers Stadium, taking a 20-0 lead over Hamilton Southeastern going into the fourth quarter. The Royals mounted a furious comeback, but Fishers was able to hang on and win 20-14. It was the first time the Tigers claimed the Mudsock Trophy since 2014.

"Credit our defense," said Tigers coach Rick Wimmer. "Those kinds of things can happen to an offense. You can go into the tank a little bit and you got to lean on your defense, and that's what we had to do tonight. Our defense came through for us."

Fishers' offense was sharp in the first half. The Tigers got on the board late in the first quarter, when Matt Wolff scored on a quarterback draw, jogging in three yards for a touchdown.

Ben Norton made the extra point, and he would be called upon again early in the second period to nail an easy 25-yard field goal with 9:01 left. Wolff then struck again late in the quarter, when he found Collin Statz for 28-yard touchdown pass.

Just like before, Norton made the extra point. He also scored the last points of the first half, when he kicked in a 32-yard field goal with three seconds left.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but the fourth was a different story. Southeastern began a comeback that brought to mind the 2015 edition of the Mudsock game, when it trailed 28-0 at halftime but stormed back in the second half to win.

The Royals started their run on the ground, when Kody Sparks punched the ball into the end zone from the one-yard line with 7:28 left. Southeastern then held Fishers to a three-and-out, and the Tigers then fumbled the snap.

Southeastern recovered it, and managed to get down to the Tigers' 37 before turning it over on downs. But Fishers fumbled again, and the Royals got the ball back. This time, Southeastern took care of business, as three Sparks passes led to a touchdown. Nick Mutchner took a 22-yard throw in to the end zone. Tyler Melser booted the extra point, as he had with HSE's first touchdown.

The Royals then recovered an onside kick with just over two minutes remaining, and it looked like the comeback would be completed. But Fishers' defense put a stop to that immediately when Michael Prewitt intercepted an HSE pass on its first play of the drive.

"We really put our defense in a tough situation," said Wimmer.

The Tigers had the ball back with 2:15 left, but were starting perilously on their own seven-yard line. Fishers ground the ball down to fourth-and-one inch at the 16, but along the way got Southeastern to take its last timeout. On the fourth-down play, Wolff powered the ball two yards to get the first down. The Mudsock Trophy was once again in the hands of the Tigers.

"We had some miscues that we got to get corrected," said Wimmer. "But in the meantime, we feel very good about the way our kids competed tonight and they played hard."

Wolff and Jon Vore traded quarterback duties and both played well. Wolff was a perfect 5-for-5 and threw for 105 yards, while Vore went 7-of-13 and totaled 98 yards. HL Lewis led the rushing with 73 yards on 13 carries. Will Syrus made four catches for 105 yards.

Reporter photos by Kirk Green

The Fishers football captains accept the Mudsock Trophy from Jeanne and Robert "Dub" Clark after the Tigers defeated Hamilton Southeastern 20-14 Friday night in the annual Mudsock game.

Sparks compiled 122 yards passing for Southeastern, with Mutchner, Brett Cowan and Ben Boysen all making three catches. Jackson Sweeney, who had been out with an injury, returned to the game and gave the Royals a spark, with 24 yards in four carries.

"We got the onside kick, we got the ball, we got time, and the first play we throw a pick," said HSE coach Scott May. "Obviously, the first half, we didn't show up. "But our kids didn't quit. I thought Sparks gave us a good fire there the second half. We came in, we moved the ball. That's what we got to do. We got to be able to move the ball."

The Tigers are now 2-2 and hold a 2-0 record in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference. They travel to Brownsburg next week. The Royals are 1-3 and 0-2 in the HCC, and will host Westfield next week.

Shamrocks overcome feisty Millers, stay unbeaten

By CRAIG ADKINS

It doesn't matter what the teams' records are each time they meet, because it simply doesn't matter. When Noblesville and Westfield meet on the football field, all else is put aside and it's a battle for the ages.

That's exactly what we were given at Riverview Health Stadium on Friday night in a topsy turvy, back and forth affair that eventually turned into a victory for the IFCA 6A No. 10 (AP No. 12) Westfield Shamrocks, 30-26.

The 'Rocks won the coin toss and chose to kickoff and defer to the second half and put Noblesville's offense to the test right away.

Nick Rusie fielded the opening kick and returned it to the 35, which would've been great field position, but he fumbled the ball and it was picked up by Westfield kicker Alex Bales.

Westfield had prime real estate at the Miller 42, but Bales missed a 47-yard field goal attempt, giving the ball back to Noblesville.

The Millers caught a break and kept the crazy train rolling in the early goings of the first quarter. On the fifth play of the drive, they added a litter trickery. Receiver Zach Gruver jogged in motion from right to left and took the handoff from Gremel. Next, he found a wide open Jaden Barrett for a 51-yard touchdown pass to give Noblesville the first score of the game to lead 7-0.

After forcing the Shamrocks to punt after three plays, the Millers got back to work on offense.

This time with a shorter field at Westfield's 45, Gremel called his own number and sprinted 26-yards into the end zone. A false start penalty backed the kick attempt back five yards and Jack Knight missed the PAT, but that still jumped Noblesville out to a 13-0 lead with 2:02 left in the first quarter.

"We were a different ball club, because our quarterback play was different. That's where it started for us," Noblesville head coach Jason Simmons pleased with the play of junior signal caller Grant Gremel.

"It felt like Grant accepted the challenge that was given to him this week. He really stepped up his level of play and made some big plays and we needed that to have a chance to compete," Simmons continued on Gremel's play.

The Shamrocks were able to put together a solid drive that lasted six plays and 80-yards, resulting in a Nate Froelich seven-yard TD run. Now, Westfield trailed 13-7.

Noblesville pulled off a great fake punt on their next series, as personal protector Eddie Dziennik carried the ball eight yards, but the drive wouldn't get too much further as the Millers were forced to punt.

Westfield wasted no time at all taking the lead on their next possession. Quarterback Cam Nance took advantage of blown coverage in the Miller secondary and tossed a 72-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Dan Wheeler, giving the Shamrocks their first lead of the game at 14-13.

Trading three and out series and each having to punt, Noblesville had the ball back starting at their own 12. A penalty backed them up to the five yard line. The Millers were able to methodically make their way down the field to the Westfield 24. That set up shop for Gremel to call his own number for the second time in the half, finding his way to the end zone this time from 24-yards out and getting his Millers a 20-14 lead.

Junior Dorian Henson returned Knight's kickoff 35-yards to the Noblesville 40. The Shamrocks would get down far enough into Miller territory and Alex Bales nailed a 38-yard field goal to cut the lead to 20-17 at the half.

With as tight as this HCC game was, you would think that the third quarter might be when one of these two would break the game wide open. But, that didn't happen.

Neither would put any points on the board in the third, as they would waste the third frame with running the ball and trading punts.

On Westfield's second series of the fourth quarter, they had great field position at their own 46. This drive belonged to Cam Nance. He danced his way 21 yards to a TD to put the 'Rocks back in front 24-20 with 5:36 left.

Noblesville's Luke Blevins looks to dodge a tackle as Westfield's Jeremiah Edwards (34) and Seth Tackett (27) defend.

The Millers put together a drive that would define their night offensively.

Starting at their own 24, Noblesville knew they had to not only score a touchdown, but mainly had to eat up as much clock as they could in the process.

They ate up 4:12 off of the clock and took a 26-24 lead with 1:39 left on a Luke Blevins two-yard TD run. Knight's kick was again no good, leaving the Millers up just two.

"I don't know. We always play that way. I think it's immaturity," Westfield head coach Jake Gilbert when asked why his Shamrocks get a slow start in the first half, but manage to still come out on top.

"We just have to grow up and start better," Gilbert continued on his team's slow start offensively.

Noblesville had given Westfield too much time to put together one last drive.

The Shamrocks finessed their way down the field and before they knew it, they were staring at paydirt. Froelich ran up the gut for an 18-yard touchdown run with 0:19 left, putting Westfield up 30-26.

The game would be iced on Noblesville's last possession. Gremel dropped back and Owen McGraw intercepted his pass at the 46-yard line.

"We've been a great second half team all year, but we're confident coming out at halftime; we always are," Gilbert on his team's second half (mainly fourth quarter) surge.

Noblesville got some answers that they couldn't find during their first three weeks. Westfield once again figured out how to overcome their opponent for the fourth week in a row.

Noblesville (0-4, 0-2 HCC) heads home in Week 5 for Homecoming vs. Zionsville (2-2, 0-1 HCC), who came back to win at Brebeuf Jesuit, 21-18.

Westfield (4-0, 2-0 HCC) will continue its unbeaten ways, as they head to Hamilton Southeastern (1-3, 0-2 HCC). The Royals lost the Mudsock game at Fishers, 20-14. The Shamrocks have won 12 games in a row overall, dating back to last season.

Huskies hammered by Tipton

By MICHELLE GARMON

As M.C. Hammer once rapped, "It's Hammer Time."

Friday night was certainly that as Tipton's Class 2A No. 7 Blue Devils hammered away at the Hamilton Heights Huskies to the tune of a 31-7 victory and in doing so, took possession of "The Hammer."

The Huskies had had the traveling trophy for the past three seasons. Tipton's last win was 28-7 in 2013.

Perhaps more importantly, Tipton (4-0) opened Hoosier Conference East Division play with a win. Heights, meanwhile, fell to 0-2 in the HC East and 0-4 on the season.

"We didn't have a lot of things go our way from the start, pregame on," Hamilton Heights Coach Mitch Street said. "It's just the nature of football sometimes and the nature of our season right now.

The Huskies provided the Blue Devils with plenty motivation hours before the game, as two players painted 'The Rock,' honoring Tipton's winningest coach, Mike Tolle, orange.

The stunt proved to be costly in more ways than one as the players were discovered, forced to apologize to the former coach during pregame, had their helmets confiscated and were forced to watch from the sideline.

"It changed a lot," Heights' Street said.

"One is a two-way starter and the other is an offensive starter. One of the kids is on special teams, a lot of them. It changes things. We had multiple plans coming into the game. When you lose two DBs, it changes what you can do and it changes our ability to put DBs out there that are prepared and ready to execute the plan, so it does hurt you.

"It's unfortunate, but it needed to be done. We lost two more. Shortly after the third quarter (started), we were down two more. We lost one right before the half and another one sometime there in the third quarter. Against a team that passes as well as Tipton does that makes it really, really difficult to be down four DBs."

Conversely, a lot of things went right for the Blue Devils as they amassed 502 yards of offense and surrendered just 172 yards — 41 of which came on one play — and forced three turnovers.

Tipton quarterback KJ Roudebush completed 20 of 37 passes for 325 yards and 2 TDs, while also throwing an interception. He also ran 12 times for 83 yards.

Aidan Moses was his favorite target last night, catching six passes for 183 yards. Caleb Burkett had five catches for 88 yards and 2 TDs, covering 10 and 18 yards.

Sebastian Connor added 45 rushing yards and a TD on 11 carries. Peyton Carter had seven carries for 23 yards and a TD.

Perhaps the first play from scrimmage provided an omen the night might belong to Tipton as Roudebush had his pass deflected. But lineman Brogan Brown was there to catch the deflection. He lost a yard but a personal foul facemask penalty against the Huskies gave the Blue Devils a first down at the 39.

The very next play, Roudebush connected with Moses on a 48-yard pass play and another first down at the HH 13.

Heights' defense held, allowing a yard in three plays. But Tipton junior Nathan Slack split the uprights on a 29-yard field goal to put Tipton up 3-0 at the 10:50 mark.

Senior Grant Shively came up with a huge special teams play for Tipton as he sprinted across the field to chase down Heights' Isiah Campbell and make a touchdown-saving tackle on Campbell's kickoff return that went for 67 yards to the Tipton 18.

But the Huskies fumbled on the ensuing handoff and Tipton linebacker Chase London recovered the ball. The Blue Devils advance the ball down the field before Camron Knott intercepted Roudebush's pass at the Husky 11.

Seven plays later, Heights was forced to punt and the Blue Devils took over at their own 34. Eleven plays later, they were in the end zone.

A pass interference penalty against the Huskies aided the 66-yard drive that was capped by Carter's 7-yard TD scamper. Slack's PAT extended the lead to 10-0 just 37 seconds into the second quarter.

Roudebush had a critical play on the drive as he bulled his way forward for 2 yards on a fourth-and-inches.

Tipton's defense forced a three-and-out and following Knott's second punt of the game, the Blue Devils again took over at their own 34. And they marched down the

'Hawks stun Carroll HUSKIES

Sheridan coach Bud Wright had this to say about the Blackhawk's Hoosier Heartland Conference win over Carroll Friday:

Callahan

"That's the biggest win we've had since probably 2012," said the coach.

The Comets were ranked No. 2 in the Class 1A Associated Press poll and were 3-0 coming into the game. But Sheridan hung on and made a big defensive play in the waning seconds of the fourth quarter to upend Carroll 28-27 at Bud Wright Stadium.

The victory keeps the 'Hawks on top of the HHC standings at 3-0 and improves their record to 3-1 overall.

The big defensive play came from Ange Gnamky, who intercepted a pass on the Comets' final drive of the game.

"That was the ball game," said Wright. The coach credited Tanner Swindle with having "a heck of a ball game," and said the defensive backs had a great game in the second half.

"We really shut it down the second half," said Wright of Carroll's passing game. "We made a couple adjustments. I think they had 186 yards (passing) at halftime, and the second half they had minus four. The second half, we just completely shut them down."

On the offensive side, Joe Callahan was unstoppable. Callahan rushed for 232 yards on 47 carries, and scored all four of Sheridan's touchdowns. Callahan got three scores in the second quarter, then found the end zone in the fourth period.

Gunnar Williams kicked all four extra points.

The Blackhawks are home again Friday, taking on Clinton Prairie. The Gophers are 2-0 in the conference.

field again. This time, Tipton overcame a holding penalty that came five yards behind the line of scrimmage.

Roudebush scrambled and found Moses along the sideline who came back to the ball to haul in a 16-yard pass on a third-and-10. The Tipton QB then ran for 15 yards on a third-and-7.

He and Moses again came up big, hooking up for 18 yards on a fourth-and-9. The play gave Tipton a first down at the Husky 13. Connor carried twice, scoring on a 7-yard run around right end. Slack's PAT extended the lead to 17-0 with 4:20 left to play in the first half.

The two teams exchanged punts before Heights came up with its best and only scoring drive of the night. Taking over at the Tipton 47 with 1:15 on the clock, the Huskies needed four plays to reach the end zone.

DeShawn King ran twice for 2 yards. Tyler Andis then completed a 4-yard pass to Knott, leaving the Huskies with a fourth-and-4 with under 10 seconds on the clock. On the final play of the half, Andis hit Knott in stride down the Husky sideline. The 41-yard TD pass play and Owen Powell's PAT kick cut the lead to 17-7 as the teams went into halftime.

Heights was unable to keep the momentum as Tipton's defense forced a three-and-out to start the third quarter. The Blue Devil offense then put together a six-play, 58-yard scoring drive.

Roudebush completed a 14-yard pass to Luke Stoker. He then found Burkett on a 29-yard pass to give Tipton a first down at the HH 11. Connor carried for a yard before Roudebush dropped back and hit Burkett in the end zone. Slack's kick made it 24-7 with 8:10 remaining in the third quarter.

"We got a fortunate coverage, man cover able to get on top of that and able to execute it," HH's Street said of the Huskies' touchdown. "Our whole season has been, especially offensively, we do something really good and then we regress two or three steps and have a bad play. We're not quite talented enough at this point and time to overcome those mistakes.

"We're just real young and unable to overcome those self-inflicted mistakes. Tipton's a good football team but some of those mistakes were self-inflicted. You put yourself in a bind against a good team, it's hard to get out of. We continuously did that."

The Blue Devil defense forced another three-and-out. The offense then put together its final touchdown drive of the night going 75 yards in eight plays.

Blake Webel led Heights' rushing attack with 14 carries for 58 yards. Ike Hooper had 17 yards on eighth carries and King 13 yards on five attempts. Anders was 5 of 14 for 92 yards and a TD. He also was picked twice. Knott finished with three catches for 47 yards and Brandon Garst had a 38-yard reception.

"We had six sophomores on the field on offense at one point tonight and that's tough, especially against a team as good as (Tipton)," Street said. "I'm not making excuses. But you can't replicate experience. They definitely have that going for them and they're going to be a force to reckon with in 2A."

The Huskies travel to Northwestern for a conference tilt Friday.

GC remains perfect

Guerin Catholic scored an easy win at the Eagles Nest Friday, sailing past Indianapolis Howe 54-14.

Kaser

With the win, the Golden Eagles are now 4-0 for the season.

Guerin was in control from the beginning, scoring 48 points in the first half. Thomas Kaser scored GC's first touchdown on a four-yard run, then Luke Keller found Brendan Downey for a 40-yard pass play. Dylan Crossen added a two-yard running score, and Roc Ricker took a 54-yard punt return into the end zone.

Seven different players scored touchdowns for Guerin Catholic. Korbin Lane added a touchdown reception early in the second quarter, then Crossen notched his second TD with a 29-yard run. Nick Demas grabbed a touchdown pass from Christian Gelov to make the score 48-0.

Jagger Albert added a fourth-quarter touchdown with 2:10 to go.

Kaser finished with 57 yards with four rushes, with Crossen getting 54 on just three carries. Keller made five of six passes for 58 yards, with Gelov completing two. Seven different Golden Eagles made one reception.

Guerin will play at Broad Ripple Friday.

Mudsock Week...

No. 1 Royals win boys soccer trophy

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

The Mudsock game is challenging enough, but the Hamilton Southeastern boys soccer team had to embrace a second challenge Tuesday night when hosting its rival Fishers.

The Royals entered the game as the No. 1 ranked team in Class 3A. Southeastern did indeed embrace both challenges, soaring to a 5-1 victory over the Tigers.

"HSE's never been ranked No. 1, so these players have never experienced it," said Royals coach Chris White. "So we're embracing it. It was something they've wanted to have. Coming out and getting a goal early helped settle things."

White said he thought it helped that his team's first game as No. 1 was against Fishers, so the Royals had to be ready for their big rival - "you had to be prepared, no arrogance about it," said the coach.

The game was played in front of a packed Royals soccer stadium.

"It's a fun rivalry," said HSE coach Chris White. "Emotions are high. I thought first half we played with a lot of emotion and let the emotion control us. We didn't play very smart. I thought second half we played like we're capable of. Did some really nice things. Our seniors led the way."

One of those seniors is Matt Kuster, who scored three of the Royals' five goals. He got the first goal early in the first half, and that 1-0 score would be the halftime margin. Kuster quickly got two more goals in the back of the net in the second half to put his team ahead by the comfortable margin of 3-0.

"It's my senior year," said Kuster, who noted that this was his first-ever "hat trick."

"I want it to be the best moment of my high school career," he said. "It was great, it was phenomenal."

"He's one of our emotional leaders," said White. "He's our leading scorer last year. Him and Darian Ghaffari, two up top for us, are having phenomenal years. Every game, the different one steps up. He had a great game and a lot of it is just effort and just finishing it. That's kind of how he plays all the time."

Fishers got on the board around the middle of the second half when Zach Peskin placed a free kick into the net. But the Royals responded right away, with Chayton Davidson and Toni Vrkic scoring two goals in a matter of minutes.

"This group is a great group of guys," said White. "They're very competitive. So it's not something you have to say."

Tigers coach Robbie Pels said his team looked good in the first half after Southeastern scored its first goal.

"The rest of the first half, I thought we looked really threatening," said Pels. "I thought we looked really threatening, and just couldn't break through. They organized at halftime, come out and get another goal. And I think after that, our heads dropped. Being away, pressure of the rivalry, our heads dropped, and they're too good. They're too good, they took advantage of that and they put four more in the back of the net in 10 minutes. I'm happy with our first-half performance, but we got a lot of work to do."

Wallace scores twice for victorious HSE girls soccer

This year's Mudsock girls soccer game ended with the same score as last year's game, which made Hamilton Southeastern happy.

The Royals beat Fishers 3-1 at the Tigers' stadium to retain the Mudsock trophy, and give Southeastern another victory this week. Mudsock week continues tonight with volleyball at HSE and football at Fishers on Friday.

Class 3A No. 9-ranked Southeastern scored two of its goals in the first half. Ava Keaffaber got the first goal off an assist by freshman Izzy Wallace, who would score the Royals' second goal with 18:40 left in the half.

Wallace found the back of the net again in the second half, scoring seven and a half minutes into the half.

"Izzy's a fantastic player," said Royals coach Greg Davidson. "She's fun to watch. We love her passion to score. She's always either trying to find herself a way to score, or somebody else. She's a great addition to our team."

"I'll take her for another three years," said Davidson.

As one would expect in a rivalry game, Fishers didn't give up. The 3A No. 12 Tigers scored with 24 minutes left in the game, with Maddie Essick getting the goal. Davidson said that at that point, his team had to "now pay a lot more attention to defense," which the Royals did, ensuring the win.

"This is our ninth ranked opponent in a row," said Davidson. "We feel like we've been battle tested. Last weekend (at the Zionsville Invitational), I rested some girls and we lost some close games against top teams from Ohio. But that helped us as well. I think games like this just help us come tournament time to have emotion, to be able to withstand that emotion and still play the game of soccer and not let emotions play us more than the game."

Greyhounds hold off Pike

Carmel scratched out a Metropolitan Conference win at Pike Friday, holding off the Red Devils 21-18.

The Greyhounds scored quickly out of the gate, with Camari Hunt zooming in 45 yards to the end zone, with Connor Coghlan converting the extra point kick. But Pike would score one touchdown each in the first and second quarters, taking a 12-7 halftime lead.

Carmel snapped back with two scores in the third quarter, both off Jake McDonald passes. Jack Rodimel picked up an eight-yard touchdown early in the period, with Hunt grabbing a 32-yard throw. Coghlan kicked both extra points.

Pike scored with 2:02 remaining and tried an onside kick, but Carmel recovered. That secured the Greyhounds' first MIC win of the year. Carmel is 1-1 in the MIC and now 2-2 overall.

Will Schmidt was the Greyhounds' leading rusher with 82 yards in 15 carries. Hunt finished with 78 yards in 13 rushes. Atticus Clouse had six receptions for 64 yards.

The 'Hounds will return to Carmel Stadium next Friday to host Lawrence North.

The Fishers volleyball team came from behind to win the Mudsock trophy over Hamilton Southeastern Thursday, dropping the first two sets before winning the next three for a five-set victory. The Tigers are shown here with Jeanne and Robert "Dub" Clark, whose family sponsors the Mudsock competitions.

Fishers volleyball makes comeback

Thursday's Mudsock volleyball match between Fishers and Hamilton Southeastern may go down in history as the most dramatic ever.

The Tigers were down two sets to none, but came back to stun the Royals in five sets. The final score was 22-25, 16-25, 25-15, 25-23, 15-5. Fishers not only won itself the Mudsock trophy, but it also helped the school out: The Tigers now lead 4-3 in the overall Mudsock standings, with football to be played tonight.

"The scoreboard reflected our play," said Fishers coach Steven Peek. "We did not put forth enough effort in certain areas, came right back out in the third and started doing it, and I think that then that spurred us on forward."

Southeastern won a hard-fought first set, then had it a little easier in the second set. A key play was Meredith Phillips and Lark Jones teaming up for consecutive blocks to give HSE a 15-8 lead. The Royals won the last four points of the set, with Bria King hitting a kill and Grace Kane serving an ace that got Southeastern to set point.

The Tigers began to regroup in the third set. Fishers set the tone right away, with Elizabeth Weeks and Camryn Haworth making two blocks in a row for the first two points.

The Tigers built their lead progressively: A 5-1 advantage became 9-4, then 15-8, then 22-11. Mallory Hernandez helped out with timely kills, and Haley Soper hit the spike that got Fishers ahead 22-11. Rose Duffy tipped the ball over on set point to get the Tigers their first set.

The fourth set was a battle. The Royals led 4-1 after Taylor Shelton put down consecutive kills, and led by as much as 13-9.

But Fishers roared back to an 18-14 lead, taking nine of the next 10 points. Camryn Haworth started the run with a kill, Audrey Haworth helped out with an ace, and Weeks provided a tip kill along the way.

Southeastern came back to tie at 18-18, aided by a Shelton ace. The Tigers responded by winning three straight points - two Hernandez kills and a Duffy/Soper block. Fishers never trailed again, although the Royals fought off two set points before the Tigers finally grabbed the set.

"The fourth was tight, and I think that's just because HSE's a really good team," said Peek.

After that, Fishers zoomed through the fifth set. Hernandez pounded down three kills while helping the Tigers take a 10-2 lead. Emma Rosenberg served an ace along the way. On match point, Soper made a net tip that secured the victory.

"Everyone was just so happy and getting excited after every point, so that's kind of how we won," said Hernandez.

Hernandez wound up with 27 of Fishers' 61 kills.

"It was just really awesome having a great student section and a lot of people cheering," said Hernandez.

Audrey Haworth served three aces. Weeks totaled three blocks, with Camryn Haworth making 2.5 blocks.

"Camryn Haworth has a great serving run at least twice every match," said Peek. "And she absolutely was a big reason why we won the fifth set by such a margin."

Rosenberg made 21 digs, with Duffy getting 16 digs, putting her over 100 in that category for the season. Duffy also handed out 50 assists.

Shelton hit 21 kills for the Royals, with King putting down 10. Kane scooped up 24 digs, with Olivia Phillips handing out 41 assists.

"Obviously was a heartbreaking finish," said Southeastern coach Jason Young. "Three weeks ago we saw them, they beat us pretty handily in two. So we've made some improvements over the last few weeks."

"We had our chances, obviously, in set four. But we're young and we're learning how to win. It's a process. It's a process that's going to take time."

Carmel wins close battle at Harbour Trees

In a field full of great golf teams, Carmel won a close championship at the Noblesville Invitational, which took place Saturday at Harbour Trees Golf Course.

"The course played tough today but the team stayed focused and battled until the end," said 'Hounds coach Kelly Kluesner.

The Tigers also had a golfer in the third-place tie: Morgan Lewis carded a 79. Hamilton Southeastern's Haleigh Gray got a piece of the third-place tie as well with her 79. The Royals were fourth as a team with a score of 339. Grace Brooks scored a new personal-best 80 for Fishers.

(2) any other costs incurred by the county that are directly attributable to the tax sale; and
(E) any unpaid costs due under IC 6-1.1-24-2(c) from a prior tax sale.

No property listed below shall be sold if, at any time before the sale, the Total Amount for Judgment is paid in full. If the real property is sold in the tax sale, the amount required to redeem such property will be 110% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, if redeemed not more than six (6) months after the date of sale, or 115% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, if redeemed more than six (6) months after the date of sale, plus the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the real property plus five percent (5%) per annum interest on the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the property. Minimum bid amounts are prescribed by law and are subject to change prior to the auction date.
