HAND wins Indiana Landmarks' Servaas Memorial Award for preservation

The REPORTER

Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development Inc. was recognized Sept. 10 at Indiana Landmarks' annual meeting, where HAND won a Servaas Memorial Award for achievement in historic preservation.

Given annually to a not-for-profit organization, the award recognizes HAND's work restoring three abandoned buildings and revitalizing a block of downtown Noblesville. Now known as Roper Lofts and Roper Capstone, the buildings at 347, 304 and 388 S. 8th Street were transformed into a total of 14 affordable apartments as well as office space for HAND and the Shepherd's Center of Hamilton County.

Indiana Landmarks' awards panel applauded HAND's restoration standards and its commitment to combining low-income housing, preservation and community revitalization.

Also honored at the meeting were Fountain County

Solar project approved, train tracks tabled

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Council, at its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, approved initial funding for what will be one of the state's largest solar projects.

The Council approved $328,000 of the estimated $8 million project, which provided Hamilton County Building and Ground Supervisor Steve Wood the down payment required to order the solar panels that will power the jail.

Prior to the council's vote Councilman Brad Beaver stated, "This is a lease to purchase agreement for approximately $8 million. We would substitute what we are paying annually for the lease to purchase payments. It will all be financed out of our current utility costs."

County should be fiscally strong in 2018

The REPORTER

On Wednesday, the Hamilton County Council began finalizing a budget that many of the council members feel will keep the county in the black for 2018.

"Smooth" is how Councilman Steve Schwartz described Wednesday's budget meeting. "I'm proud of the Council for working together on this budget. I'm also very impressed with our department heads for the work they've done prior to today's meeting. We have many department heads that are recognized statewide and nationally. They are the best of the best and Hamilton County would not be what it is today without them."

"Overall a very positive day," stated Councilman Rick McKinney following the budget meeting. "I feel we are going to wind up in a strong fiscal position for next year and we will be adding new positions to several departments to keep up with growth." McKinney also complimented department heads. "We have some very experienced department heads that came to the budget meeting prepared."

A public hearing on the budget will be conducted at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 4 with a budget adoption meeting scheduled for 8:30 a.m. on Monday, Oct. 16.

Remembering Jack Marks with Ringo

I was sorry to hear this week of the passing of Jack Marks, Noblesville resident and former State Police Trooper. Jack was what I consider the ideal state trooper during his 25-year career working mostly in Hamilton County. He was from what I'd consider the 'old school' of law enforcement, conducting good police work along with one-on-one public relations.

It was a time when state troopers would stop by the Ledger newspaper office to share information on accident reports, criminal activity and the like. As a new reporter at the Ledger I met Jack and the other troopers who worked the area.

FRED SWIFT

One of the best stories I recall about Jack involved him bringing Beatle Ringo Starr to Noblesville. That was in 1964 while the Beatles were making one of their first American appearances, playing the Indiana State Fair.

Jack was on the security detail for the wildly popular British band.

Early one morning Ringo asked Jack if he could take a ride around the area to see the Speedway, the downtown sights, etc. Jack asked if Ringo, a city boy from Liverpool, would also like to visit the Marks' farm. Ringo, having probably never seen a working farm, agreed he'd like that. Jack surprised his family when he came home with the famous Beatle. Apparently Jack's 11-year old daughter was much more impressed than his wife who was busy trying to get horses ready for the State Fair. But, Ringo got to ride a horse briefly, according to those who were present.

Later, Jack and Ringo stopped at Ben's Island restaurant in Carmel for breakfast. Patrons were surprised to say the least, but the young entertainer signed several autographs for adoring fans. So, I think the encounter between Jack and Ringo is not only historically interesting, but shows a lot about Jack's kind and friendly nature, going above and beyond to show hospitality to a visitor.

The project passed the Council with a 6-1 vote. Councilman Fred Glynn casted the single opposing vote.

In other business, council members tabled a request from Hamilton County Tourism Director Brenda Myers. Myers, representing the Tourism Bureau and new railway operator of the Nickel Plate Heritage Railroad, was seeking a $750,000 loan from the council to repair 12 miles of track from Noblesville to Atlanta.

The Tourism Bureau serves as the technical advisor, fundraiser, guide, grant writer and marketing advisor for Nickel Plate Heritage Railroad.

Myers stated revenue from the railway would be used to pay back the loan and would be guaranteed by the hotel tax that currently funnels to the Tourism Bureau through the County.

Council members agreed they needed more information from their attorney before they could move forward with Myers’ request.

Man held at gunpoint in Westfield home robbery, three arrested

www.wishtv.com

A Westfield man said he was held at gunpoint in his own home.

Now three men are facing burglary, robbery and confinement charges.

It happened around 3 p.m. Monday at a home on English Green Drive.

People who live in the area told 24-Hour News 8 they are glad police made arrests in this case, but they're still shocked it even happened in the first place.

"You think you live in a very safe community and you always want to protect your children and then, when you hear about something like this, it's just very unsettling," said Rachel Seewald, a neighbor.

It all started with a knock on the door. Police said three men went up to a home complaining of car trouble. When the man inside opened the door for them, police said the three forced their way in and held the man at gunpoint.

The three have been identified by police as Jordan Bright, Dominique Dunn and Lajohn Wilson Jr.

According to court documents, home surveillance video showed the men gathering electronics and other items before leaving. At one point, the men even forced the homeowner to help gather items for them to take.

As it turns out, one of those items is exactly what led police to them. Detectives used the victim's iCloud account and tracked the location of his stolen cellphone.

Detectives then initiated a traffic stop with Fishers

Police Department and arrested the three in a traffic stop. According to court documents, stolen electronics and loaded guns were found in their car. That car had also been reported as stolen in an unrelated case.

Police have not said if they believe this crime was random or targeted, but those living in the area said it serves as a good reminder to always be cautious.

"We've got a security system, but we will continue to be very aware of our surroundings and, you know, always look out for our neighbors and again just be very vigilant," Seewald said.

According to court documents, after being arrested Wilson apologized to police for his actions. He told a detective he could not get a job because of a battery conviction and back child support.

Bright told police the victim in the home had a gun as well. He said the incident was not a robbery.

Bright, Wilson and Dunn have all been charged with burglary, armed robbery, criminal confinement, theft, pointing a firearm and auto theft.

Weight loss tips to fit into your favorite jeans

StatePoint

Are your favorite pair of jeans sitting in your closet waiting to be worn again? If so, you're not alone.

More than three in five American women (62 percent) own jeans that no longer fit them, according to a new survey conducted on behalf of Nutrisystem by Harris Poll. And on average, they say they would have to lose 16.8 pounds in order to fit into their favorite pair.

Trying on those jeans and not fitting into them can be frustrating, but being geared with the right tips can help you get on the weight loss track and back in those jeans.

• Eat Smart and Often. Aim to eat smaller meals every two to three hours, six times a day so that you don't binge or overdo it. You'll feel full and satisfied, which will help you make smarter choices.

• Be Prepared. Always keep a baggie of your favorite snacking veggies handy in the car, at work and on-the-go. If you feel a craving, snack on those carrot sticks guilt-free.

• Don't Go at It Alone. Losing weight isn't exactly a cakewalk. But it doesn't have to be impossible. Find a weight loss plan that works for you and fits in with your lifestyle. Programs, like Nutrisystem, ensure you feel satisfied throughout the day and take the guesswork out of dieting, making it easier to stick with the plan and drop those pounds.

• Drink Up. "Hunger and thirst are easily confused, so stay hydrated. But don't make the mistake of drinking your calories. Opt for water," says Courtney McCormick, corporate dietitian at Nutrisystem.

If you're looking for a more flavorful option, add fresh fruit slices, a few squeezes of lemon or some sprigs of mint leaves.

• Stay Committed. You owe it to yourself to focus on your health. Making changes is never easy at first, but hang in there. Your results will fuel your continued commitment.

More tips and inspiration, as well as recipes, can be found at leaf.nutrisystem.com.

If you have a pair of favorite jeans beckoning to you from your closet, don't despair. With the right tools and healthy habits, you'll be flaunting those jeans in no time.

Millers tie with Zionsville, Royals stay unbeaten in HCC

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

There are five ranked girls soccer teams in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference, so of course any game between them is going to be close.

Noblesville, ranked No. 6 in Class 3A, hosted 3A No. 13 Zionsville Wednesday for the Millers' Senior Night game at the White River Elementary fields, which ended in a 1-1 tie. It was an intense, well-played contest, but the scoring all happened during the last few minutes of the first half.

Noblesville got on the board first with 3:07 left in the first half. After a handball call on the Eagles, the Millers were given a free kick opportunity just outside the goal box. Jewell Hudson took the kick, and soon was given an assist, as she touched the ball to Carly Hudnall, who put the ball in the back of the net.

Zionsville scored minutes later, however, when a corner kick resulted in the ball rolling into the net. That was with 47.1 seconds left in the half, and neither team scored in the second half.

"It was a conference game, they're always going to be battles," said Millers coach Mike Brady. "One goal is not going to be enough against a team like Zionsville, and we let down just enough for them to get that goal. We pressed in the second half. I thought we had better opportunities, but again, we didn't capitalize and we go home this evening with a tie."

Still, Noblesville remains unbeaten for the season at 8-0-3. The Millers are 2-0-2 in HCC play.

In other Wednesday Hoosier Crossroads Conference games...

Hamilton Southeastern beat Westfield 5-0. In the first half, the 3A No. 8 Royals scored their first goal on a header by Ava Keaffaber, with the assist from Molly Harris on a cross. Claire Wilkinson got the second goal, putting a Taylor Pozzebon assist into

In the second half, Wilkinson scored her second goal of the game on a long shot, with Pozzebon assisting. Pozzebon then got HSE's final goal of the game, with Madison Dalton assisting.

"The defense sure put on a show, defending well 1v1 and communicating nicely to ensure the shutout," said Royals coach Greg Davidson.

The win keeps HSE unbeaten in the conference at 4-0.

Fishers defeated Brownsburg 2-1 on Wednesday.

After a scoreless first half, Dianna Rollag got the 3A No. 13 Tigers on the board with a goal in the 66th minute. The 3A No. 10 Bulldogs tied the game minutes later, but Gretchen Mills gave Fishers the victory, putting the game-winner in the back of the net with 10 seconds remaining.

Moving to the Metropolitan Conference, Carmel continued to roll in MIC play by beating Warren Central 6-1 on Wednesday.

Katie Soderstrom scored two goals for the 3A No. 3 Greyhounds, with Kelsie James, Ashley Witucki, Elizabeth Hargis and Tess Nihill each getting one goal. Assists came from Kate Donovan, James, Lucy Lyon, Katie Soderstrom, Naomi Mann and Susie Soderstrom.

Emily Melchi and Autumn Ackerman both had one save.

"Warren Central is always a very organized and disciplined team," said Carmel coach Frank Dixon. "We are usually able to wear them down and the second half goals show we did that with some success."

The Greyhounds are now 10-1-1, and 6-0 in conference play.

University defeated Park Tudor 2-0 in a Wednesday away game.

Tessa Hudson scored the Trailblazers' first goal, which came off a double assist: Lillian Klesz played a ball to the corner to Kenzie Allen, who sent it across the box to Hudson. Halfway through the second half, Lily Snyder sent a ball to Klemesz, who found Halle Von Ah for the score.

University also played tough defense to ensure the shutout.

"Juniors Brooke Andrus, Hallie Harrison, Meredith Malott, and Lucy Snyder each played an excellent game in the back," said UHS coach Maddy MacAllister.

Rivalries, Homecoming highlight Week 5

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

The best part about Hamilton County football is that there's always a rivalry game for someone to enjoy on a Friday night.

This week, another in-county contest takes place between Westfield and Hamilton Southeastern. The Royals host this Hoosier Crossroads Conference game at Reynolds Royals Stadium on Friday in what is also Southeastern's Homecoming game.

The Shamrocks, ranked No. 8 in the IFCA Class 6A coaches poll, will come into the 7 p.m. kickoff still on their long win streak. Westfield has won 12 games in a row dating back to Sept. 30 and including last year's 5A state championship. The 'Rocks are 4-0 to start this season, including three wins by a touchdown or less.

"I'm proud of our team for pulling out these close games," said Westfield coach Jake Gilbert. "Good teams win the close ones. That's life in the HCC. Last year, three of our six conference games were decided by one point. We are so young, I do hope that the experience of winning these type of games helps us down the road and in tournament play."

Last year's game between the Shamrocks and HSE was one of those close ones, with the Royals pulling it out 21-20. Westfield held off Noblesville 30-26 last week, helped by two touchdowns from Nate Froelich. The senior star has now found the end zone four times this season, and has rushed for 484 yards in total.

Quarterback Cameron Nance has also come into his own. He has passed for 510 yards and five touchdowns this season, but

Westfield's Cameron Nance (left) has emerged as a dual scoring threat for the Shamrocks this season. Nance has passed for five touchdowns and rushed for three more. Westfield plays at Hamilton Southeastern on Friday.

also has run for three touchdowns.

"Westfield does a nice job on offense mix in run and pass and now have a threat of a QB running option," said Southeastern coach Scott May. "Our defense has done a good job versus the run this year but have given up too much on long balls on pass. We must get better on pass defense."

The Royals almost made a comeback in last week's Mudsock game, roaring back with two touchdowns in the fourth quarter before falling to Fishers 20-14.

"I really like HSE's defense," said Gilbert. "They have a few studs over there for sure in May, Norris, their corner, etc. They take a lot away from you offensively. On offense, it looks like they found their QB and Sweeney is now back at running back. I expect them to be much improved on offense."

HOMECOMING FOR NOBLESVILLE

Westfield's win sent Noblesville to an 0-4 record. The Millers want to win, and what better time to get that first victory than at their Homecoming game?

Noblesville hosts Zionsville at Hare Chevrolet Field Friday night. Due to the Homecoming festivities, the game will kick off at 7:30 p.m. The Millers have had successful Homecoming games over the years: Last year they beat Hamilton Heights 38-7, while two years ago they defeated the Eagles 23-21 in a dramatic game in front of a packed house.

"The festivities that come along with Homecoming are a reminder of the community support that we have," said Noblesville coach Jason Simmons. "Our level of emotion has varied throughout the season. We need to continue to grow and embrace the opportunities we have to represent our community and play this great game."

Last year, the Millers played at Zionsville and won 45-24. The Eagles are 2-2, with wins over Pike and Brebeuf Jesuit, and losses to Lebanon and Westfield. Simmons called Zionsville, which is receiving votes in the 5A poll, "a very talented football team" that has gotten better every week.

"They have a lot of weapons on offense, and their QB does an outstanding job of putting their playmakers in positions to make those plays," said Simmons. "They will really stress us with the size of their offensive line, speed on the perimeter, and the size of their tight end down the seam. They don't have a lot of weaknesses on offense. They are very multiple on defense which also causes concerns. They are aggressive on the front end. They have gotten better every week on the back end. Their special teams force opponents to be disciplined and sound. They have explosive playmakers on special teams and they use their scheme to try and gain advantages."

RIVALRIES

Quarterback Grant Gremel has continued to improve each week. Against the Shamrocks, Gremel broke through for two rushing touchdowns and remains fourth on the county passing list at 474 yards. Luke Blevins also had a rushing score, and is among the top receivers in the county with eight catches this season.

'HOUNDS HOST WILDCATS

Carmel will try to get above the .500 mark this Friday by taking on Lawrence North. This Metropolitan Conference game starts at 7 p.m. at Carmel Stadium in what will be the Greyhounds' Homecoming game.

The Wildcats are an improved team this season. They started off 2-0 with victories over Noblesville and Brownsburg, then lost close games to Lawrence Central and much-improved North Central.

"Lawrence North is a very physical and well-coached football team," said Greyhounds coach John Hebert. "In all four of their games they have brought the fight to their opponents on both sides of the ball.

We will have to play with great spirit and soundness of assignment to slow down their offense. Their defense is very good as well. We'll need to be very focused in order to execute effectively."

Carmel, ranked No. 9 in the 6A poll, is 2-2 and 1-1 in the MIC, coming off a close victory at Pike 21-18 last week. Jake McDonald threw two touchdowns, including one to Camari Hunt, who also scored a rushing TD. McDonald has thrown for 515 yards and four touchdowns this season.

'HAWKS SEEK CONTROL OF HHC

Sheridan is presently in the driver's seat of the Hoosier Heartland Conference standings, and are looking to put more distance ahead of the pack this Friday when Clinton Prairie comes to Bud Wright Stadium.

The Blackhawks are tied for No. 6 in the Class 1A coaches poll. They are coming off a huge win at Carroll last week, where they upset the Comets 28-27. Carroll was ranked No. 2 in the 1A Associated Press poll last week.

Wright said his team was still flying high after beating the Comets, and said the 'Hawks were having "some pretty good practices" this week.

"I just hope it carries over to the game," said Wright. He noted that his team needs to come down to earth "and take care of business this week."

Sheridan is 3-1, and so is Clinton Prairie. The Gophers are averaging 44.5 points per game, with wins over Frontier (60-45), Clinton Central (34-20) and Tri-Central (48-34). Even in its lone loss to Arlington, Prairie still scored 36 points.

"They got a good-sized team," said Wright. "They got a big running back. He's a four-year starter both offensively and defensively."

Sheridan's Joe Callahan had a huge game last week against Carroll, running in four touchdowns. Callahan is now at 623 yards rushing for the season, and his six rushing TDs leads the county. Gunnar Williams kicked four extra points to put himself at 40 total points for the season.

TIGERS ON THE ROAD

Fishers is also flying high after last week's Mudsoc win. The Tigers travel to Brownsburg this week to continue HCC play.

Fishers is 2-2, dropping its first games to North Central and Pike before beating Noblesville and Southeastern. The Bulldogs are also 2-2, with wins over Bloomington South and Franklin Community, but losses to Lawrence North and Avon; Brownsburg dropped a 62-27 decision to the Orioles last week.

"They are a team with very good speed and athleticism at the skill positions," said Tigers coach Rick Wimmer of the Bulldogs. "Their offensive line has good size and mobility. I am very impressed with their defensive front. They are a very good team."

Fishers has been successful with its two-quarterback set up this season. Matt Wolff was 5-for-5 last week against HSE, both rushing for and passing for a touchdown. Jon Vore, meanwhile, continues to lead the county passing ranks, with 517 yards and five TDs this season.

HUSKIES HEAD TO NORTHWESTERN

Hamilton Heights is searching for its first win of the season. The 0-4 Huskies will travel to Northwestern Friday for a 7 p.m. Hoosier Conference game.

The Tigers are 3-1. They won their first three games, over Clinton Central, Twin Lakes and Benton Central, before dropping their conference opener to Lewis Cass 30-15 last week.

The Huskies have fallen to Mount Vernon, Kokomo, Cass and Tipton. Still, there is talent on the Heights roster. Blake Webel has established himself as a solid runner, with 278 season yards and three touchdowns.

"We have seen some growth in our team on a weekly basis," said Heights assistant coach Ross Eckart on the Hamilton County Football Coaches Show on Hamilton County Television. "We're getting closer to where we want to be."

GOLDEN EAGLES AT BROAD RIPPLE

Guerin Catholic is unbeaten in four games this year, and will try to make it five when it travels to Broad Ripple Friday for a 7 p.m. game.

The Rockets are 0-4, having lost to Heritage Christian, Crispus Attucks, Noblesville Home School and Eastern Hancock. The Golden Eagles, meanwhile, have beaten Martinsville, Lafayette Central Catholic, Heritage Christian and Indianapolis Howe.

Guerin has the county's leading point scorer and rusher, who are one and the same. Thomas Kaser is up to 41 points, with four touchdowns, two field goals and 11 extra points. Kaser has earned all four of his TDs on the ground, where he has compiled 650 yards.

Despite the success, GC coach Tom Dilley said on the HCTV Coaches Show that there is still room for his team to grow.

"Our kids played hard and we still made a lot of mistakes," said Dilley. "But it's every week. We're just trying to get better."
