Carmel on Canvas starts today

The REPORTER

Watch art created before your very eyes at the fourth annual Carmel on Canvas plein air event – an open-air painting exhibition and competition on the sidewalks throughout the Carmel Arts & Design District. The event, which is free to spectators, runs Friday to Sunday, Sept. 15 to 17.

"We are excited to welcome back artists, local and regional, to Carmel on Canvas. This is a great event for our community, especially for families with small children who we hope become inspired to create their own art," said Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard.

Artists ranging from professionals to amateurs, including a teen division, will be painting at a variety of locations for the plein air event all day Friday and Saturday. The public is invited to come to the district and watch the painters set up their easels and paint their chosen subjects. The artists' works are for sale.

There will also be two quick paints, one on Saturday at the Carmel Farmers Market (5 Center Green) and one on Sunday on the southwest corner of Main Street and the Monon Greenway. Saturday is also the day for children to paint at the Kids Zone from noon to 3 p.m., with two locations in The District, including Magdalena Gallery of Art (27 E. Main St.) and Carmel Arts Council's Children's Art Gallery (40 W. Main St.).

The plein air artworks created on Friday and Saturday, along with the quick paint event on Sunday, will be judged by Shaun Thomas Dingwerth, who serves as the Executive Director of the Richmond Art Museum in Richmond, Ind. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Indiana University, Bloomington. He has also had articles published in national art magazines including Plein Air Magazine and Fine Art Connoisseur.

The plein air main event judging takes place at 6 p.m. Saturday with artists vying for a $5,000 grand prize, $2,000 for second place, $1,500 for third and $1,000 for fourth. Award winners will be announced at 7 p.m. on Saturday along Artists Lane (also known as 2nd Avenue NW) between Scotty's Brewhouse and the Monon Greenway. The paintings will also be available for viewing and for sale after the awards are presented.

Nickel Plate District sidewalks come to life at night this weekend in Fishers

The REPORTER

The sidewalks in the Nickel Plate District will glow this weekend thanks to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Indiana (BBBSCI) and BLASTmedia. Fishers Parks & Recreation is excited to partner with the local organizations as they decorate the sidewalks around the Nickel Plate District Amphitheater with glow-in-the-dark chalk from 2 to 4 p.m. today to raise awareness for the BBBSCI mission, just in time for one of Fishers Parks & Recreation's most popular events, Glow in the Park.

The free Glow in the Park event will bring over 2,000 children and families to the Nickel Plate District Amphitheater for a family-friendly night of fun from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. tomorrow. The event includes face painting, a graffiti wall, a live DJ, a neon splash zone and more (parent supervision is required). BBBSCI will also have a booth at the Glow in the Park event.

BBBSCI hopes the sidewalk chalk art will raise awareness about the organization in the Fishers community and recruit additional volunteers and mentors in the area. Of the 1,200 children that BBBSCI serves annually, only 150 are from Hamilton County, and 50 Hamilton County children are currently on the waitlist for mentors.

For more information about Glow in the Park, visit www.fishers.in.us/glowinthepark. To learn more about BBBSCI, please visit www.bbbsci.org and to learn more about BLASTmedia, visit www.blastmedia.com.

E-SPORTS

will provide leading-edge e-sports experiences, technology, content and development through leagues and tournaments. Player training and development programs will also be offered.

"When you mention gaming, people typically think of a kid playing an online game into the early morning hours – think again," said Rick Barretto, Game On chief visionary officer. "It is really a new frontier in entertainment, education and competition that attracts millions of participants, spectators and brands."

Mainstream business experts are declaring booming growth including Deloitte and AdAge along with sports and gaming leaders at Newszoo and Global Sports Insights. Exact growth projections vary, but recent revenue figures indicate that what once was a game sold for at-home enjoyment is now a major world-wide industry.

E-sports infrastructure is similar to that of more traditional sports. Competition venues, established professional and amateur status leagues, consistent regulations, dedicated sports media coverage, training programs and broadcast partnerships have all come to this platform. A recent international tournament took place in Seattle with 16 international professional teams, more than $23 million in prize money, thousands of in-person and online spectators and a full cadre of broadcast analysts.

Add to that leading sports leagues like the NBA, which are now sanctioning e-sports leagues, as an extension of their brand to engage a whole new fan base and stay relevant as technology continues to evolve.

High schools and colleges are declaring gaming a varsity sport, offering scholarships and creating national sanctioning bodies. These same colleges have upped their tech education offerings with New Media, Animation and Creative Digital Development degrees and concentrations. Game design, software developers, audio engineers, writers, translators, animation and musical opportunities are among the emerging e-sports careers.

Those same skills and education are now essential to the growing digital economy in central Indiana with thousands of tech and digital service sector jobs recently recruited.

Game On's forward-thinking leaders have seen first-hand that e-sports offers opportunities for participants and can help fill the economic, education and workforce development pipeline.

Community Health Network Foundation receives $100,000 grant to combat, prevent opioid addiction

The REPORTER

Community Health Network Foundation recently received a $100,000 grant from the Indiana Network for the Prevention and Treatment of Opioid Addiction (INPTOA) to combat and prevent opioid addiction in Central Indiana. The Foundation is also contributing $100,000 of its own funds to double the impact of this work.

The program is two-fold. First, trained Community Health Network staff will implement the "This is (Not) About Drugs" prevention program for students in sixth and ninth grades, overseen by a full-time prevention specialist who works in partnership with Community's school-based caregivers. The program will help educate students on the dangers of prescription and illegal substances and provide referrals and resources to those abusing or dependent on such substances. Second, a medical assistant will offer much-needed support at Community's Medication Assisted Treatment clinics, where providers prescribe long-acting medications including Vivitrol, Subutex and Suboxone. The goal will be to increase capacity at these sites of care and reach a higher volume of present and future clients suffering from addiction.

Funding will serve a nine-county Central Indiana region including Clinton, Hamilton, Hancock, Howard, Johnson, Madison, Marion, Shelby and Tipton counties. In total, efforts are expected to impact nearly 30,000 Hoosiers.

"Our state is facing a devastating opioid addiction epidemic," said George Hurd, vice president of Behavioral Health Services at Community Health Network. "Addressing this crisis means meeting the needs of those struggling with addiction today and offering the education necessary to prevent addiction tomorrow. This grant funding will help us do both, reaching more Hoosiers in an impactful and meaningful way, and we are grateful for the opportunity to serve our neighbors in this way."

In 2016, former Indiana Attorney General Greg Zoeller seeded the creation of a statewide network of Indiana foundations with a $500,000 matching grant from Indiana's Consumer Protection Education Fund. These foundations collectively matched $500,000 by Dec. 31, 2016. This network was named the INPTOA. The INPTOA's purpose is to provide single county and multi-county collaborative grants to assess, prevent, and treat opioid addiction, and provide community financial support for housing, employment, monitoring, and counseling. Their priority is placed on awarding grants to underserved areas of Indiana and for innovative approaches to addiction.

This network was found necessary because opioid abuse and addiction is a nationwide epidemic and Indiana is one of the most affected states.

In fact, as of 2014, Indiana ranked fifteenth worst in the nation for rate of overdose deaths and, since 1999, the number of deaths from overdose has risen by more than 500 percent. While the 2014 U.S. rate of drug overdose deaths stood at 14.7 per 100,000 people, Indiana's was at 18.2 per 100,000 people.

"The efforts we will be undertaking are all about preventing as much heartbreak as possible for Hoosiers and their families," said Joyce Irwin, president and CEO of Community Health Network Foundation. "We are honored to have received this funding from INPTOA and grateful to be able to match the financial support with our own funds thanks to the generosity of our donors. We look forward to stewarding this significant support in order to efficiently and effectively meet the needs of men, women and children in Central Indiana."

Residents at The Barrington of Carmel go for gold at Olympic games

The REPORTER

The Olympics are underway at The Barrington of Carmel. The games are a part of the Movement Matters campaign through Masterpiece Living, a foundational philosophy of the community which emphasizes physical health, spiritual fulfillment, intellectual challenge and social engagement as the key components to a successful aging and a better lifestyle.

The month-long campaign is centered on increased movement and overall well-being. Residents are divided into teams which compete against each other in eight Olympic games. The games are held every Wednesday and Friday in September and about 70 people, including assisted living and memory care residents from The Plaza Health Services at the Barrington, are signed up to participate. These are highly visual and fun events.

This year, the senior living community is inviting employees to play on the Olympic teams. An employee from each department will be on a resident team to play in the games and help their team win. The goal of the Olympic games is to motivate individuals to move more and sustain their increased movement throughout the year.

A county rivalry volleyball match went Hamilton Southeastern's way on Thursday, as the visiting Royals beat Westfield in straight sets, 25-19, 25-23, 25-15.

Southeastern had to get through a close second set with the Shamrocks, but were able to take control of the third set. Meredith Phillips led the hitting with 12 kills, and Lark Jones got some timely kills as well.

"I thought our kids did a nice job of closing the door," said HSE coach Jason Young. "It's been a focus since last Thursday night, about making sure that we finish when we have a team on the ropes. The kids did a really good job finishing off a team on the road. Westfield, much like us, is a young and talented team, so to get a win in conference is always good."

Grace Kane collected 17 digs, while Olivia Phillips dished out 33 assists. Taylor Shelton served two aces, with Jones and Zada Anderson both making 1.5 blocks.

As for the Shamrocks, Kinsey McAfee had six kills and 1.5 blocks, with Kenzie Daffinee hitting four aces. Claire Hindman collected seven digs, and Caroline Sinicki handed out 15 assists.

"I was a little disappointed with our play," said Westfield coach Michelle Mapes-Hewitt. "We struggled in the backcourt playing defense because we couldn't get a touch on the ball. And we haven't been playing that way. The last two matches we've played well, and tonight our wheels fell off. And that's a good HSE team. They put it to us tonight."

The Royals are now 11-7 and will play this Saturday at the Warren Central Invitational. The Shamrocks are 9-10; their next match is Wednesday at Muncie Burris.

Fishers blasted Brownsburg 25-6, 25-19, 25-17 on Thursday, improving to 3-1 in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference.

Mallory Hernandez hit 15 kills for the Tigers, with Audrey Haworth putting down 11. Haley Soper had seven kills and no hitting errors.

Hernandez hit four aces, regularly serving above 40 miles per hour. Rose Duffy hit three aces, with Julia Drozd serving two. Duffy also had 35 assists and 11 digs.

Elizabeth Weeks, Camryn Haworth and Soper all made two blocks in the game.

The Tigers host Pendleton Heights on Monday.

Carmel had a program sweep over Warren Central on Thursday.

The varsity Greyhounds won 25-6, 25-6, 25-12, improving to 3-1 in the Metropolitan Conference and 9-14 overall for the season. Carmel's junior varsity team swept the Warriors 25-5, 25-6, while the freshmen zoomed to a 25-9, 25-8 win.

The 'Hounds play their next match Tuesday at North Central.

Noblesville dropped a straight-set match to Zionsville, the No. 1 team in Class 4A, 25-14, 25-17, 25-22 on Thursday.

University fell to Liberty Christian in three sets Thursday, 25-11, 25-17, 25-15.

Boys soccer*Millers beat Cathedral, Huskies win in last minute

The Noblesville boys soccer team beat Cathedral 3-1 Thursday in an away game, marking its sixth win in the last seven games.

Jackson Latham scored the Millers' first goal, making good on a free kick. Latham then assisted the second goal, slotting a pass through to Kole Thompson, who put the ball past the Irish's on-rushing goalkeeper. Cathedral scored its goal in the first half on a penalty kick.

Josh Thorpe*Heights

Noblesville scored its third goal in the second half, with Latham assisting again. He ran down the left flank and sent a pass across the goal mouth to Nicolai Anderson, who kicked it into the back of the net.

The Millers are now, and will play two games at the Fort Wayne Canterbury Invite on Saturday. Noblesville takes on Northridge at 9 a.m. and Valparaiso at 1 p.m.

Hamilton Heights beat Northwestern 3-2 on Thursday thanks to a dramatic last-minute goal.

With 55 seconds left, the Huskies had the ball after the Tigers received a yellow card. Heights got the ball to Logan Fakes, who was taken out in the goal box. That gave the Huskies a penalty kick, and Josh Thorpe made it to give Heights the win.

The game was a roller coaster from the beginning.

The Tigers scored the first goal quickly, converting a corner kick three minutes into the game. The Huskies got the goal back soon thanks to the Stuart brothers: Freshman Caleb found junior Jackson for the score with 14 minutes left in the first half.

Northwestern took the lead back three minutes later by hitting a penalty kick. But Heights answered right away, tying the game at 2-2 after Drew Tomaszewski scored off a Logan Fakes assist. That would be the halftime score, with the Huskies outshooting the Tigers 9-2. Heights kept the pressure on in the second half, and eventually got the win.

"Player of the game could go to almost any of the Huskies, however, Jackson Stuart receives it tonight with his smart control and poise in the entire game," said Heights coach Derrick Dean.

University, the No. 3-ranked team in Class 1A, ran past Liberty Christian 4-0 on Thursday, clinching first place in the Pioneer Conference Division.

Ryan Williams scored two goals for the Trailblazers, with Sam Gailey and Jacob Masoncup each scoring one. University will play Central Christian at 2 p.m. Saturday at Davis Park in Anderson for the PAAC championship.

Darian Ghaffari*Southeastern

Carmel, ranked No. 19 in 3A, beat Warren Central 3-0 on Thursday.

Ben Clark, Caleb Hussain and Jackson Bruun all scored goals for the Greyhounds. Ben Godden and Sam Hildebrand each made one assist. Goalkeepers Jake Davis and Brody Sullivan split the shutout.

"I thought that as the game progressed, our ball movement and possession improved," said Carmel coach Shane Schmidt. "I was really happy with how we were switching the point of attack and our movement off the ball."

Hamilton Southeastern, ranked No. 4 in 3A, took care of Mount Vernon 6-1 on Thursday in the annual Pink Out game.

Darian Ghaffari, Kevin Leffers, Jacob White and Zaden Eby-Holmes all scored goals for the Royals, who are now 10-1-1 for the season. Southeastern plays at Pike on Saturday morning.

Guerin Catholic scored a 3-1 win over 3A No. 16 Avon Thursday.

Sam Grocki, Noah Dewaal and Andrew Garvey all scored goals for the 3A No. 14 Golden Eagles, who are now 8-1-1 for the season.

Boys tennis*Royals sweep, GC wins on Senior Night

Hamilton Southeastern swept Noblesville 5-0 in an all-county tennis meet Thursday.

The No. 22-ranked Royals won four of the five matches in straight sets. At No. 1 singles, the Millers' Jacob Hoffman won the first set 6-3, but HSE's McGuire Wolfe came back to win the next two sets.

"This was a big win for McGuire, and it was great to see him get over the hump tonight and put together a complete match," said Royals coach Kirk Webber.

Southeastern hosts the Hoosier Crossroads Conference tournament on Saturday.

No. 1 singles: McGuire Wolfe def. Jacob Hoffman 3-6, 6-4, 6-0

No. 2 singles: Elias Yarling def. Jackson Nance 6-0, 6-4

No. 3 singles: Otto Lutz def. Zach Greer 7-6 (0), 6-0

No. 1 doubles: Andrew Myers and Mark Slaninka def. Ben Smith and Evan Voigt 6-1, 6-0

Guerin Catholic won its Senior Night meet Thursday, beating No. 13 Cathedral 4-1.

The No. 6 Golden Eagles swept the doubles matches and also won at Nos. 1 and 3 singles.

"I was very pleased with the performance of our seniors tonight. All of our seniors were victorious in their matches tonight," said GC Coach Joe Lustig. "It is always nice to play well against a solid team like Cathedral."

No. 1 singles: Wyatt Metzger def. A. Wojtalik 6-3, 6-4

Wallace got her second goal with two minutes left in the first half, from a cross by Taylor Pozzebon, which made the halftime score 2-1.

In the second half, Katie Reed smashed in a goal from a Layla Brown assist. Brown then scored her own goal unassisted. Ava Keaffaber was next to score, with Maddie Bellaver providing the assist. Brown wrapped up the scoring with her second goal of the night, with Nathalie McLeish dishing out that assist.

"After the initial breakdown the defense played well on the night and 21 players saw varsity time," said HSE coach Greg Davidson.
