Kenley: A final farewell

LUKE KENLEY
Indiana State Senator
(R-Noblesville)

As my time as a state lawmaker winds down, I want to take a moment to reflect on my time serving in the Indiana legislature – how I started, what I accomplished and who helped me along the way.

Prior to running for a State Senate seat, I grew a small family business and served as a Noblesville City Court judge. While I never considered myself a "political guy," at the recommendation of some in the community, I ran for the Senate in the early 1990s with

The future of Noblesville's infrastructure was the focus of this year's State of the City address.

Mayor Ditslear delivers annual 'State of the City' address

The REPORTER

Noblesville Mayor John Ditslear delivered his annual "State of the City" address to the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce last week at Harbour Trees Golf Club, 333 Regents Park Lane.

Noblesville's infrastructure was a featured section of this year's message.

The city is conducting an engineering survey and has budgeted $16 million for the State Road 37 project. Hamilton County and Fishers are providing an additional $4.5 million each to the northern section, but the city needs to work with its partners at the state level for funding options to deliver a free-flowing interchange system to help relieve traffic congestion.

"One of the most transformative projects facing the city in the coming years is State Road 37, the key north-south corridor through our community," Ditslear said.

Part of the State Road 37 southern project is the interchange at 146th Street. Storm drain work will begin in 2018 with construction to begin in 2019 or 2020. As this work is being done, the City of Noblesville is considering options for the nearby Herriman Boulevard and 146th Street intersection as a potential roundabout. Ditslear said these improvements "will assist with traffic flow in that area and infrastructure changes at Stony

Man dies in Arcadia car crash

The REPORTER

Hamilton County Sheriff's Office deputies are investigating a fatal crash that occurred on Wednesday, Sept. 27, at State Road 19 and 266th Street in Arcadia. Deputies were first called to the scene at approximately 11:23 a.m. on a report of a personal injury crash with a subject not responding and trapped in the vehicle.

the crash site reported a white 2001 GMC Jimmy, driven by Boyd K. Morris, 55, Cicero, was traveling westbound on 266th Street approaching SR 19 when, for an unknown reason, it left the north side of the roadway. The vehicle collided with an embankment on the east side of SR 19 before crossing the highway and eventually striking an unoccupied delivery truck parked at the Casey's on the northwest corner of the intersection. Medical personnel pronounced Morris dead at the scene of the crash. No one else was injured during the incident. This crash is under review by the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office Crash Investigation Team. Anyone with information concerning the incident is asked to contact the agency at 317-773-1282.

Trail plans continue to south . . .

Trains on Nickel Plate sought for next year

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Plans are coming together for re-introducing excursion train travel on the Nickel Plate north from Noblesville by late spring of next year, according to County Tourism Director Brenda Myers. A newly organized entity known as Nickel Plate Heritage Railroad Inc., will soon be entering a contractual agreement with the county port authority, owner of the tracks, for operating the train service.

Currently the Heritage Railroad leaders, assisted by the Tourism Bureau, are seeking funding for various improvements at the Arcadia depot and in Atlanta where trains will end their 12-mile run. Track repairs are also needed. All told about $1 million is expected to be required for the project.

In addition, rolling stock is being sought, possibly to be leased from various sources. What part, if any, the Indiana Transportation Museum will play has not been announced. The museum was denied access to the railroad last year due to safety concerns, but the organization has a considerable number of train cars and engines at its Forest Park facility.

Myers says Tourism's plan is to assist in boosting the tourism interest and economies of the northern Hamilton County communities of Atlanta, Arcadia and Cicero through which the Nickel Plate runs. She says trains will likely leave from Noblesville's pocket park near 8th and Clinton streets on their route north.

Meanwhile, preliminary plans are underway for development of the Nickel Plate walking trail and the removal of the railroad tracks between Pleasant Street and 146th Street. South of 146th the City of Fishers will develop the trail to 96th Street.

But don't plan hiking on the trail anytime soon. Noblesville city officials are concentrating on the Midland Trail, the second phase of which is scheduled to get underway next year. Eventually that trail will run east from Westfield to intersect the Nickel Plate at Pleasant Street. Apparently, the tracks will remain intact from Pleasant through downtown Noblesville.

While these plans are underway, the organization known as Save the Nickel Plate is waiting for the federal Surface Transportation Board to finish hearing comments from the public before making a decision on whether to grant a request to place the railroad in a "rail bank". The Hoosier Heritage Port Authority, as owners, have asked for this designation to preserve the right to return the rail right-of-way to a railroad should that be needed in the future. A so-called Light Rail commuter train has been envisioned in long-range mass transit studies.

Last week Save the Nickel Plate, which opposes conversion of the rail line to a Monon-type trail, elected Logan Day as president. He works in the railroad business at Kokomo and is a dedicated train enthusiast. The group has not announced what it might do toward saving the rail line after the Transportation Board makes its ruling.

The Fishers Police Department has arrested three people in a recent shooting. 16-year-old Alexander Lopez, 17-year-old Alan Mendez and 18-year-old Ivan Jeronimo were arrested in the case. Lopez and Mendez have been filed into adult court. All three of from Indianapolis.

The trio is believed to be behind a shooting in Fishers behind Which Wich Superior Sandwiches on Sept. 21.

Police responded to the shooting near 131st Street and State Road 37 just after 7 p.m. that evening.

Investigators found a man, identified as 18-year-old Jose Gomez of Fishers, shot behind the shop.

On Saturday, Sept. 23, a dive team found the gun believed to be involved in the shooting in a retention pond near 116th Street and Hazel Dell Road. A warrant

Lopez Mendez Jeronimo

Mendez faces the most serious of the charges, including attempted murder and robbery resulting in serious bodily injury.

Their charges are as follows:

- Jeronimo: robbery resulting in serious bodily

- Lopez: robbery resulting in serious bodily injury (aiding, inducing or causing), robbery armed with a deadly weapon (aiding, inducing or causing), aggravated battery (aiding, inducing or causing), theft (aiding, inducing or causing).

The Fishers Police Department says all three were taken into custody without incident.

HSE Board selects Hagerman Group

BY LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The Hagerman Group has been selected to be the "Construction Manager as Constructor" for the new, as yet unnamed, Hamilton Southeastern elementary school to be built on Cynthianne Road and Southeastern Parkway. The School Board approved Hagerman in a unanimous vote. HSE officials are hoping site preparation can begin on the new school as soon as November of this year.

In other school board items from last week's meeting:

- The proceeds of the land sale at 131st Street and Cumberland Road will be set aside in what is called a "Donation Account" aimed at matching money raised by local Parent Teacher Organizations (PTOs) for projects such as building and upgrading playgrounds.
- A cell tower contract with Central States was OK'd by the board. The tower will be constructed near Sand Creek Elementary School and will generate $10,000 per year in income to the school corporation, plus, the school system will receive 50 percent of any income gleaned from another carrier signing on to utilize that tower.

- Final approval was given to the new suicide awareness program, conforming to changes in state statutes.
- Superintendent Allen Bourff told the board attorney David Day is working with county officials to study changes in population that could require redistricting of the four school board member districts. There is not enough data yet available to determine whether redistricting is needed. The last redistricting was done in 2014.

Creek Business Park will greatly benefit those businesses and the thousands of people who depend on this intersection every day."

"In my opinion, Pleasant Street is just as important as improvements to State Road 37 and is one of our top priorities. The Pleasant Street project is vital to creating a connector between eastside and westside Noblesville while relieving traffic from State Road 32 and through our historic downtown square," Ditslear said.

Noblesville began preliminary planning this summer to widen and extend Pleasant Street from State Road 37 to Hague Road while improving pedestrian crossings. To better inform citizens of this project, the city will be hosting a public information meeting later this year or in early 2018. Another portion of the city's work on Pleasant Street is a planning and economic impact study of the corridor including Eighth Street, Southwest Quad neighborhood and downtown.

"It is time to bring some definite answers to residents who live along and near Pleasant Street, and to proceed toward the next objective, which is construction," Ditslear said.

The city is being proactive and in 2018 will convert the intersection of 19th and Pleasant streets into a roundabout. This project will be 80 percent funded by state grants. One major roundabout completed in 2017 was the Five Points intersection of Greenfield and Christian avenues and 10th Street. The improvement removed a stoplight and has decreased congestion along one of the city's main corridors.

Klipsch renamed Ruoff Home Mortgage Music Center

wishtv.com

The venue formerly known as Klipsch Music Center has a new name: Ruoff Home Mortgage Music Center.

The new name for the 24,000-seat facility was unveiled last week. This comes after the Fort-Wayne based Ruoff Home Mortgage and Live Nation agreed to an undisclosed multiyear sponsorship agreement.

"I can't tell you how many years, but I can tell you this: It's a good arrangement for the venue. It should give them stability for a long time to come," said Mark Music, CEO and president of Ruoff Home Mortgage Music Center.

"It's a challenge because we're trying to find a company that we think makes sense," said Marc Abend, regional vice president for Live Nation, the owners of the Noblesville amphitheater. "We love having partners that are entrenched in the community. It's nice having a company that has roots here in Indiana, and I think that the fans appreciate that, they recognize it."

Music and Abend admitted home mortgages and live concerts aren't quickly linked in the public's mind.

"They don't necessarily have to be in the exact same industry segment for it to necessarily be someplace where you want to have your name. You want eye-balls right?" Music said.

"Most people go to one show a year. That's what our statistics tell us. Every show is somebody's playoff game. Well, buying a house has that same feeling," Abend said. "So we're excited about that relationship."

The venue opened in 1989 under the name Deer Creek Music Center. Verizon Wireless took over sponsorship in 2001, with Klipsch Group Inc. changing the name again in 2011. Klipsch's five-year contract expired last year.

"Out of respect for the prior corporate partner, we had to be quiet and couldn't make much noise about it and so today we can finally stand on the rooftops and make it known," Music said.

Concertgoers in Indianapolis said while the name change wouldn't stop them from attending concerts, they remember previous names first.

"That is quite the mouthful. I'm still just going to be call it Verizon or Klipsch because I can remember that," one said.

"Doesn't roll off the tongue," said a young man. "I don't think the name would deter me from seeing the music." "It does seem a bit long. We'll figure out a short way to say it I'm sure. It's 2017," said another. "RHMMC? I can already see the hashtag."

The name change is effective immediately, and Live Nation representatives said the sign changes will occur throughout the fall and winter, with full branding ready for the start of the spring 2018 concert season.

Acts such as Bob Seger and the Silver Bullet Band, Metallica, Coldplay, Frank Sinatra and Kings of Leon have all played at the venue.

The venue recently wrapped up its 2017 concert season Sunday with a performance from Matchbox Twenty and the Counting Crows.

2018 will mark 30 years for the Noblesville venue.

Stony Creek second graders have the answers . . .

“What does Noblesville need?”

The REPORTER

Stony Creek Elementary second graders have been working for weeks to answer the question “what does Noblesville need?”

Students received the directive from

Mayor Ditslear and have been conducting research, including a field trip to downtown Noblesville, to develop their responses.

They recently presented their ideas to the Mayor, as well as other city and school leadership.

Just some of the ideas the students developed include an anti-littering initiative, candy store, dog camp, kids’ bank, community chalk board, bike share program and combination Mexican/Chinese restaurant.

The activity was an example of Noblesville Schools’ MillerShift innovative teaching and learning culture, designed to best prepare students for the future.

Ditch Road extension now open to traffic

The REPORTER

Last week, the city of Westfield officially opened the new extension for Ditch Road with a ribbon cutting ceremony.

“The northwest quadrant of Westfield is growing at a rapid pace and the new section of Ditch Road is necessary infrastructure to keep up with the growth in that area,” said Mayor Andy Cook. “The new roadway will now allow the city to close down Casey Road, which has become unrepairable over the years.”

Ditch Road connects to the new Casey Road roundabout, which opened to traffic just a few weeks ago.

Cost for construction was approximately $2.8 million. The extension adds a little more than 1.5 miles to Westfield’s road network. Casey Road is closed to traffic indefinitely.

Cicero’s plans for Red Bridge Park

By STU CLAMPITT
ReadTheReporter.com

Now that the fishing pier at Red Bridge Park is officially open to the public, Cicero Parks Superintendent Charlie Cambre and others are already working on the next enhancement: Indiana’s only handicap accessible kayak and canoe launch.

Miller

“In the next month of two Charlie is going to start the fundraising for the launch,” said Rusty Miller, Cicero Town Council member and parks department liaison.

This new handicap accessible kayak and canoe launch will be near the fishing pier.

Cambre

“It will be a universally accessible launch,” Cambre said. “To my understanding, it will be the only one in the state.”

Kayaking is popular in the Cicero area and a new launch could increase that.

“We get a lot of people kayaking on the weekends,” Miller told The Reporter. “We had to get approval from the Rosenberg family [to plan the new launch] and Charlie got us that approval. This will be a huge benefit. We may have to add more parking.”

Miller expects this new feature to be, “a huge attraction for Cicero and all of central Indiana.”

Cambre agreed that the need is already present.

“I’ve done the impact study for about ten years now and it needed an update, so I updated my five-year master plan,” Cambre explained. “We had about 30 people attend each session and we had about 70 people respond to an online questionnaire. Within that we had a lot of response for kayaking.”

That was no surprise, since kayakers are a common sight already.

“Kayaks are launching now off our property at Red Bridge Park,” Cambre said. “Since I have seen a lot of activity I got permission to get this done. Permission had to come from the Rosenberg family.”

Miller noted that the new launch, like the pier, will not come with a big price-tag for area taxpayers.

“We have a unique situation with our parks because we can sell gasoline and rent boat docks,” Miller explained. “Not too many communities have a situation like ours. That helps bring revenue to our parks. The marina helps fund the parks so we do not need to take much money out of our general fund for parks.”

The other reason this will not become a burden for taxpayers is Cambre’s fiscal responsibility.

“Charlie is very good with his budgets,” Miller said. “He controls his money well so we can do things like these project when we get grants. The Friends of the Parks do a lot of fundraising for us as well.”

While the details are no finalized yet, Shae Kmicikewycz is grant writer for this project, as she was for the newly opened fishing pier. Cambre and Miller both pointed to Kmicikewycz as a person without whom these projects would not come to fruition.

When asked how he came up with the idea of the state’s only universally accessible kayak launch, Cambre said he is always concerned about such things.

“I’m all about accessibility,” Cambre said. “That’s what the pier is. So, it only makes sense to make the launch accessible to everyone.”

Thanks to the help of over 170 IU Health volunteers, Cool Creek Park got a new, innovative Nature Play area, which is now open to the public.

IU Health, Hamilton County Parks join to create new special play area

The REPORTER

On Friday, Sept. 15, as part of the annual IU Health Day of Service initiative, more than 170 volunteers from IU Health North, Saxony, Tipton and several other IU Health Hospital facilities, joined with Hamilton County Parks and Recreation staff to transform an underutilized parcel of land in Cool Creek Park into an innovative new park feature – a nature play area. IU Health Saxony President Mike Harlowe was on hand to support his associates by donning gloves and working alongside volunteers as they labored throughout the day in warm and humid conditions.

The project included installing six separate play elements, designed to encourage children to enjoy unstructured play, in a natural environment. The elements are comprised of mostly natural resources removed during regular land management. The project was made possible through funding and the hard work and dedication provided by IU Health and their army of volunteers, in support of the Hamilton County Park staff. Additional support, materials and services were donated by BAM Outdoor, Elbert Construction and Kona Ice.

As another function of IU Health’s Day of Service, hospital volunteers at both IU Health North and Saxony campuses who were unable to attend the park work site stuffed and labeled 4,000 packets of milkweed seed that will be distributed as part of Hamilton County Parks’ Mission Monarch program. The intent of the program is to re-establish the monarch butterfly population that has shown an alarming decrease in recent years.

The nature play area is now open and best accessed via the road that runs past the Cool Creek Nature Center. It is hoped that this new addition to Cool Creek Park will serve as an innovative alternative to traditional play for Hamilton County children and families for years to come.

For more information about the Cool Creek Nature Play Area or Cool Creek Park, contact the staff at Cool Creek Nature Center, 317-774-2500, or Hamilton County Parks and Recreation at 317-770-4400.

County lost 19 men . . .

Vietnam TV series rekindles memories

The powerful mini-series, The Vietnam War, recently telecast on PBS, brings back sad memories to Americans old enough to remember the war. To those no more than 50 years old, it may be revealing if they have never heard the details of that long and desperate struggle.

Certainly the master history-teller Ken Burns gives us an in-depth and disturbing picture of the nation’s most unpopular war which ended with more than 58,000 Americans killed and seemingly nothing to show for so much sacrifice.

Several hundred young men from Hamilton County went into military service during the era, and 19 died in the decade-long struggle to keep Vietnam from Communist control. Those men’s names are found on the county war memorial on the Courthouse grounds. Many of them still have families living here.

I stopped at the memorial this week to copy the names. They are:

Roy Freeman, Daniel Biddle, David Coy, Steven Clark, Guy Jones, Gerald Johnson, Alan Bardach, Michael Randall, Thomas Bell, Daniel Terry, Nelson Hicks, Michael Lawhon, James Grant, Robert Shelton, Lawrence Gordon, Kenneth Oldham, Benjamin Scholley, Michael Farley and Charles Cupp.

The war was a tragic event which Americans have been led to believe we lost. Certainly we did not succeed in our goal to keep communists from ultimately taking control of South Vietnam. But, when the U.S.

withdrew in 1973 under terms of a negotiated peace agreement, South Vietnam was still non-communist.

During the following two years, the South suffered from poor leadership and serious military miscalculations despite American financial assistance and military training. In 1975 the regime collapsed and the communists took control.

We had backed the loser, no question about that. But, in the end it was the South Vietnamese who lost their war. Back home, Lyndon Johnson has generally been blamed for our involvement. There’s truth to that, although the U.S. had embarked on a slippery slope before Johnson’s presidency.

President Richard Nixon negotiated the peace agreement that brought about American withdrawal. But, Nixon was never a favorite of the anti-war movement and didn’t get much credit for ending U.S. involvement.

As Burns’ series points out, what made the whole Vietnam experience so painful at home was the split in the country between those who supported the war effort and those who opposed it. Although Hamilton County saw little of it, the anti-war demonstrations in 1968 made dramatic news. They were followed by the assassinations of Martin Luther King and Robert Kennedy and violent riots in many cities which had little if anything to do with the war.

Then came Watergate, also not war-related, but the combination of the whole series of tragic events cost the country dearly in lives, treasure and innocence.

For the more than half of the present American population who did not experience the Vietnam Era, perhaps it’s just as well they didn’t.

Honoring Senator Luke Kenley and his lifetime of achievements

Last Thursday night in the Farm Bureau building at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, there was a celebration of State Sen. Luke Kenley and his years of service to the State of Indiana. Around 350 of Luke's Statehouse colleagues, family and friends were present for the program. It was an evening full of wonderful tributes, gifts, reminiscing and even some poking fun. (ABOVE) State Rep. Kathy Richardson and former State Sen. Oh the places I remember . . .

From the Heart

JANET HART LEONARD

On a typical Tuesday morning you can find me in therapy. Well actually, I will be having breakfast at the Uptown Cafe with my best friend and sister from another mother, Patrice. The servers know us well. Miranda brings us lots of coffee. For a little over an hour we laugh, wipe tears and often take a trip down our shared Memory Lane.

Last Tuesday we had a therapy crasher . . . Perry Williams. It was okay since he is married to our other sister from another mother, Kathy Richardson Williams.

Perry asked if I knew how many people had read my column on the HCR Facebook page. My answer was no. When he told me that several thousand had done so I said, "Well I guess I better watch what and who I write about." Actually I was shocked.

Perry said that I had touched the memories and hearts of many who grew up here.

Isn't that what so much of "old" Noblesville is about? Creating memories. Building a community that treasures history. Caring about what we leave as our legacy. It's why so many never leave and why so many return to our little corner of the "Promise Land."

History, written by hardworking storekeepers, is still alive and living well in downtown Noblesville. The buildings still stand. They just have different names over the doors.

Some say Matteo's, others say the old J. C. Penney store. The Pickett Fence is known as the old Willits Store by "Old Noblesville."

Corner Cottage? The old Corner Drug Store. Weldy's Drugs? Hayden's Drug's on North 10th. Drug Stores had snack bars back in the day of my growing up. Cherry Phosphates or even Chocolate Cokes were served to all who sat at the counters. Just one long counter where folks grabbed a round seat just as soon as someone left.

Main Street Headquarters was the Ken-Lo Cafeteria, owned by Kenneth and Lois Hanna. Best sugar cream pie in town. Beans Cafeteria, where people were lined out the door on Saturday nights, was on North 9th Street just south of Clinton Street.

Did you realize that many of the city streets are named after presidents and trees? Some even predicted a presidential election after the streets were named. Nixon and Clinton.

Bill's Drive In. Ramsey's Restaurant. Sandwich Inn. Outside Inn Restaurant. Blue Ribbon Dairy . . . best ice cream in town. All these before fast food arrived in town. I know I've missed some that need mentioned. I know I will have people remind me on Facebook.

Syd's Bar, well, is still Syd's. Oh the stories that could be written by those behind the bar over the many years where beer was consumed and spilled by several generations.

I bought clothes at Mister Ed's, Nancy Lee's and Lords. I bought hose (before pantyhose) held up by a garter belt at G.C. Murphy's. Oh my goodness I doubt that my grandkids know what that is. Sheesh I doubt that my kids know what a garter belt is.

My mom and dad bought me Easter chicks at G.C. Murphy. You could get about anything there and what you could not find there was a few steps around the courthouse square at Kirk's Hardware. And to this day you can still find about anything for home repair at Kirk's.

I sure wish we still had the Diana Theater. Sunday afternoon I would be found either there or at the Rainbow Roller Rink. The Grand March was the highlight of the afternoon, especially if a boy asked you to skate with him.

Forest Park was as close as we ever got to an amusement park when I was a kid. The Crask Family had boat rides in small concrete pool of water, a small train with a track that wound throughout the south side of the playground, as well as pony rides. The ponies were brought from the farm every weekend morning.

Forest Park Pool was where I spent every weekday in the summer. Baby oil, Sun In Hair lightener, and frozen Zero Bars were "must haves" of the summer. My friends and I all had season passes. My goal was to someday jump off the high dive. Some goals are better off never reached.

So many memories were stirred up this week. Memories that I share with so many who know exactly what PR3.* means.

I love my Tuesday's with Patrice. I love the coffee at the Uptown. I love being a part of "Old Noblesville."

And yes, I am so old that I can say that I have driven a car over Potters Bridge. Oh the places I have been and thank you all for going back with me the past couple of weeks.

If you want to hear more . . . see you Tuesdays at the Uptown Cafe. Miranda, start the coffee!

the intent to help Hoosiers and move the state of Indiana forward.

As a new legislator, I started by addressing small issues within our state, but as my role grew in the Senate, so did my goals. Since 2009, I've chaired the Senate Committee on Appropriations, a role that is central to the creation of the state budget.

Education was always a top budget priority for me. I worked to ensure the citizens of our state had the opportunity to receive a quality education by providing ample funding for K-12 and higher education over the last 10 years and sponsoring legislation to create the College Choice 529 Direct Savings Plan, which gives parents a chance to receive up to a $1,000 credit on state taxes.

Along with a high-quality education, I wanted Hoosiers to be able to provide for themselves, so I authored a welfare reform bill that promoted work, self-sufficiency and personal responsibility of the recipient.

I also wanted to help Hoosiers financially by keeping taxes low. Over the years, I worked on legislative efforts to eliminate the state's inventory tax, permanently cap property taxes and sponsored legislation to do away with the state's inheritance tax.

One last thing I really wanted to accomplish before retirement was to help Indiana plan for our transportation infrastructure needs. In 2017, we created a $20 billion, 20-year road funding plan, which went into effect in July.

I am proud of my accomplishments, but without the help of many people along the way, I would not have been as successful.

I want to thank the state lawmakers on both sides of the aisle who have served with me over the years. Solving one issue at a time, we made Indiana the robust fiscal state it is today.

I want to thank the members of Indiana's executive branch who mentored and supported me over the last 25 years. Their hard work and dedication to our state is remarkable and I am proud of their service.

I want to thank those who served alongside me in my local precinct office. With their help, Senate District 20 has seen substantial growth and improvement. In the last few years alone, they have aided in the carousel rehabilitation at Forest Park and the construction of an Ivy Tech Community College.

Finally, I want to thank my constituents, whose input through emails, phone calls and meetings helped drive many of my legislative decisions.

Finally, I'd like to reflect on my fond memories interacting with young people and our future leaders at the Statehouse.

A longstanding tradition in the General Assembly is our page program, which allows young Hoosiers to visit the General Assembly during session and see firsthand how policy is made. In the last 10 years,

I have had a particularly high page participation rate.

In addition to meeting with the pages, I have also worked with interns since I started in the Senate. One of my favorite traditions is hosting the intern class every year at my home.

Finally, in 1999, I began the Luke Kenley Leadership Conference. Every year, I invited students from schools located in Senate District 20 to attend a conference at the Statehouse and learn about state and local government and leadership.

In meeting with so many young people, I have seen the energy and optimism they have to make Indiana an even better place. Now and in the future, Hoosiers are in great hands. My colleagues and I have worked to build a strong foundation for our state to continue to grow and develop, making Indiana a great place to live, work and raise a family.

I am proud to have been a state legislator. I am proud to be a Hoosier.

Royals dig deep late, overcome Millers

By CRAIG ADKINS

In a game where it was glaringly obvious that both of these two Hoosier Crossroads Conference rivals were in dire straits for a league win, something was bound to happen for one.

It happened for Hamilton Southeastern, who used a late score to get past Noblesville 13-10 Friday night at Reynolds Royals Stadium.

Noblesville was forced to punt on the opening drive and Hamilton Southeastern's Anthony Eggers returned the punt into Miller territory to the 42.

The Royals would find their way all the way down to the 1-yard line of Noblesville before they would be stopped by the Millers' defense on fourth and goal, just shy of the end zone.

The Millers would take over on their own one, but it wouldn't go too far. On the second play of the short-lived drive, Rutger Poiry came storming into the backfield and immediately tackled tailback Christian Collier in the end zone for a safety and a 2-0 Southeastern lead.

Forcing the Royals to go three and out, Noblesville punted, and was fortunate to recover a fumble at the HSE 42.

Just into the second quarter, Luke Blevins dove over the goal line from one yard out for a touchdown to put the Millers ahead 7-2.

The next HSE drive resulted in three plays and lining up to punt once again. Noblesville punt returner Wyatt Blades called for a fair catch, but tipped the ball, making it a live ball and the fumble was recovered by the Royals' Eric Dailey at the Miller 45. The next few plays fizzled out and the ball was punted back to Noblesville.

Trading punts twice each on four straight drives, it felt like someone had to get something right in the second quarter.

Noblesville got itself in position to put points on the board before halftime and they went to the trusty right foot of Jack Knight. The junior placekicker nailed a 47-yard field goal as time expired for a 10-2 Miller lead after two quarters.

It would feel like a tale of two halves offensively for the visiting Millers.

Starting their second series of the third in great field position at the HSE 38, Noblesville looked to be in a great spot to score again.

They must have been thinking a little ahead, as quarterback Grant Gremel tossed his first interception of the night to Isaiah Phillips.

The same result happened when the Millers had the ball again. This time, it was linebacker Anthony Eggers that snagged the pick.

Two interceptions by the HSE defense, but they wouldn't account for anything on the scoreboard for the Royals.

"We were way too casual. We were way too undisciplined on the offensive side of the ball and it led to us scoring 10 points, turning the ball over four times and not being able to have our defense's back," Noblesville head coach Jason Simmons on his team's overall play at Hamilton Southeastern on Friday night.

Casual is exactly how Southeastern saw Noblesville's defense playing and they were able to counter it with a little off the wall final half of the fourth quarter.

On first down at their own 37 to start the drive with 6:40 left, the HSE offense pulled a trick out of their playbook.

Nick Mutchner reeled in a screen pass in the right flat and quickly threw the ball for a double-pass to Stoa Slaybaugh up the field 41 yards, completely catching the Noblesville defense off guard.

The big double-pass helped set up Tyler Melser's 37-yard field goal that would cut the deficit in half at 10-5.

The Millers next possession started at their own 20 and would end right there, as tailback Luke Blevins fumbled the handoff from Gremel, giving Hamilton Southeastern the ball back, in prime position at the Miller 20.

Southeastern has experimented with both Kody Sparks and Cody Huppenthal playing quarterback for the Royals this season. Sparks has the better arm and Huppenthal can run with the ball. Plain and simple.

"We knew they were a different offense with him back there. We knew they were going to try to run the football more and he had some carries," Simmons on HSE's change to Huppenthal at QB in the final minutes of the game.

Following the Miller turnover, Huppenthal called his own number and bootlegged left to the far side of the field, racing and reaching the front corner of the end zone to put the Royals on top 11-10 with 3:18 left. Ben Boysen converted the two-point conversion with a run to the left corner, making it 13-10.

"That's the package we've got and we practice it all the time," Hamilton Southeastern head coach Scott May on the Royals late surge in the fourth with Huppenthal in at QB.

Trading punts again, which seemed to be a common theme most of the night, Noblesville had one final possession with 1:12 left, but had no timeouts and had to start from their own 11.

Gremel would try to put the Millers in position to either get into Knight's field range to tie or drive further in an effort to win the game, but neither became a factor.

Fishers hosts 5A No. 1 Roncalli...

Rebels run past Tigers in fourth quarter

Fishers engaged in a back-and-forth game with Roncalli on Friday before the Rebels took over in the fourth quarter and won 28-17 at Reynolds Tigers Stadium.

Roncalli, the No. 1-ranked team in Class 5A, led by 14-0 in the second quarter, but the Tigers worked their way back to within 14-10 by halftime. Emmanuel Davis took a kickoff return to the Tigers' 44-yard line, then Ben Norton got Fishers on the board with a 48-yard field goal.

On the next drive, Seth Sontich forced a fumble, which gave the Tigers good field position. Fishers took advantage, as Matt Wolff ran the ball in from six yards to score.

Fishers got its next score in the third quarter to take a 17-14 lead. HL Lewis made a 50-yard run to get the Tigers inside the Roncalli five, but a fumble gave the Rebels the ball back. Luke Uribe made two tackles to force a punt. Lewis took over again, making a long run to get the ball inside the red zone, then scoring from the eight-yard line.

Roncalli scored early in the fourth quarter to take back the lead, then the Rebels intercepted a Fishers pass to get the ball back. Roncalli scored on a long drive with under four minutes left in the game.

With the loss, Fishers dropped to 3-4 on the season. The Tigers will go on the road to Riverview Health Stadium in Westfield next week to face the Shamrocks in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game.

Fishers' Ben Norton kicked a 48-yard field goal to get the Tigers on the board during their Friday game with Roncalli at Reynolds Tigers Stadium.

Tipton stops Sheridan's win streak

Sheridan got off to a great start at Tipton Friday night.

Callahan

Unfortunately, the rest of the game was all about the Blue Devils. Tipton held the Blackhawks scoreless in the last three quarters and eventually won 34-14 at the Blue Devils' field. It was a game between two teams that are ranked No. 6 in their respective classes (Sheridan in 1A, Tipton in 2A).

The 'Hawks led 14-7 after the first quarter. Ange Gnamkey took a kickoff return from one end of the field to the other, scoring a 91-yard touchdown midway through the period. Late in the quarter, Joe Callahan scored on a six-yard run. Gunnar Williams kicked both extra points.

But the Blue Devils scored 13 points in the second period to take a 20-13 halftime lead, then added one touchdown each in the third and fourth quarters.

Penalties became an issue for both teams: Tipton had 12 for 100 yards, while Sheridan had nine flags for 126 yards.

"We just gave one away, really," said a disappointed Blackhawks coach Bud Wright after the game. "Too many penalties killed us. Penalty after penalty killed us."

Callahan was the leading rusher with 92 yards in 26 carries. Drake Delph went 7-of-14 from the air totaling 72 yards, with Cole Cummings making three of those catches.

The loss ended a five-game winning streak for Sheridan, which is now 5-2 on the season. The Blackhawks will travel to Eastern next Friday to finish out Hoosier Heartland Conference play. Sheridan is 5-0 in the HHC and has already clinched at least a share of the conference championship.

Golden Eagles fall at Brebeuf

The Guerin Catholic football team dropped its second game of the season Saturday, falling at Brebeuf Jesuit 21-7 in a Circle City Conference game.

The Braves scored in the first quarter, with the Class 3A No. 9 Golden Eagles answering early in the second period.

Luke Keller tossed a one-yard pass to Charles Bock in the end zone, and Thomas Kaser followed that up with an extra point kick.

But Brebeuf would score late in the quarter, then add another touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Braves allowed Guerin just 47 yards on the ground. Keller did have a good passing game, completing 13 of 23 attempts for 112 yards.

Korbin Lane made four catches for 31 yards. Kaser was the Golden Eagles' leading rusher, with 55 yards in 18 carries.

The loss dropped Guerin Catholic to 0-2 in conference play and 5-2 overall. The Golden Eagles are back home on Friday, welcoming Bowman Academy from Gary into the Eagles' Nest. Due to the time zone difference and travel considerations, kickoff for Friday's game will be at 8 p.m.

'Rocks fall to No. 9 Avon

Westfield dropped a Friday Hoosier Crossroads Conference game to Avon on the road, 24-6.

Hauser

The lone score for the Shamrocks against the Class 6A No. 9 Orioles came from senior Koby Hauser, who punched the ball in from the one-yard line early in the second quarter. Hauser would be Westfield's leading rusher, with 56 yards in 14 carries.

Cameron Nance had a fine game at quarterback, completing eight of 18 passes for 122 yards. Kaleb Pettijohn had six receptions for 94 yards.

In addition to his score, Hauser had a solid defensive game as well, making 14 total tackles - 11 solo, three assists. Cameron Frye had 1.5 tackles for a loss, and also made a quarterback sack for a loss of 14 yards.

Westfield is now 2-3 in conference play and 4-3 overall. The Shamrocks will finish up HCC competition for the season next Friday by hosting Fishers at Riverview Health Stadium.

'Hounds stopped by No. 1 Ben Davis

Carmel got the toughest assignment of any team in the state Friday, playing at Ben Davis, Class 6A's No. 1 team.

The Greyhounds, themselves ranked No. 7 in 6A, had a few good moments against the Giants, who ultimately prevailed 28-10. Ben Davis is unbeaten at 7-0 this season.

Carmel's points all came in the second half. Matt Fortier booted a 43-yard field goal midway through the first quarter. Then with 15 seconds left in the second period, Jake McDonald found Jack Rodimel for a six-yard touchdown pass. Fortier converted the extra point kick.

That got the 'Hounds within 21-10 at halftime, but they would get no closer. Ben Davis added another touchdown in the fourth quarter to make the score the final margin.

McDonald finished the game 10-of-20 from the air, totaling 92 yards. Dylan Downing was the leading rusher, traveling 115 yards on 32 carries.

Carmel is now 4-3 for the season, and 3-2 in the Metropolitan Conference. Next up for the Greyhounds is Warren Central, the No. 4 team in 6A, in a game next Friday at Carmel Stadium.

ROYALS

The junior QB would throw his third INT of the night, again to Isaiah Phillips, his second of the game. That would seal the Millers' fate and HSE would kneel to run the clock out.

Hamilton Southeastern (3-4, 2-3 HCC) will host Brebeuf Jesuit next Friday in their final regular season home game. Noblesville (1-6, 0-4 HCC) will also play their final game at home, hosting the surging Brownsburg Bulldogs (5-2, 3-1 HCC), who beat Zionsville 35-10 on Friday.

Huskies comeback falls one point short

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

Sometimes when you go for two, it works. Sometimes it doesn't.

Hamilton Heights went for two last year against Twin Lakes, and won the game. This year, the Huskies trailed the Indians 14-0 in the fourth quarter, but made a comeback by scoring two touchdowns.

After the second touchdown, Heights trailed 14-13 with 1:40 left in the game. The Huskies went for two, but this time it wasn't meant to be. Heights' pass was batted away by a Twin Lakes defender, and the Indians would hold on to win.

"The thought process is: One, we had some momentum coming in and scoring late there and having a chance to win," said Huskies coach Mitch Street. "And then secondly, playing that offense for four downs for 10 yards is tough. I think that's just really tough to do, and I'll ride that momentum most times."

"I've been fortunate enough to convert some of those and if you convert it, you look like a genius, and if you don't, you get a lot of second questions, myself included," said Street. "I made the decision and I'll live with it."

Both of Heights' touchdowns were passes from Tyler Andis to Michael Cross, who was named Homecoming King during halftime. Cross stepped up like royalty, making a 19-yard catch with 8:32 remaining, then a 16-yard reception with 1:40 left to set up the Huskies' two-point try.

"I thought our kids fought really hard," said Street. "I loved the way they just kept grinding to get themselves in the game. And there's been times this year when we've not been that team that's going to keep grinding. Tonight we did."

Andis had a great game, completing 9-of-18 passes for 160 yards. Camron Knott caught four of those passes, while Cross totaled three. Blake Weibel was the leading rusher with 48 yards on the ground.

The Huskies are 1-6 for the season. They are back at the Husky Dome next Friday to play Western in their final Hoosier Conference game of the season.

Girls golf state finals

'Rocks finish second for third straight year

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

As the second round of the IHSAA girls golf state finals finished up Saturday afternoon at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel, it also marked the end of an era.

The senior class that brought Westfield to new heights concluded its high school career, but not before collecting its third consecutive runner-up trophy. The Shamrocks finished with a team score of 638, nosing out three-time defending champion Evansville North by one stroke for second place.

Westfield was one of four Hamilton County teams at state: Fishers notched its best-ever finish at sixth, Carmel placed seventh and Hamilton Southeastern was eighth.

Zionsville won the state championship, outdistancing itself from the field pretty much from the first green in Friday's first round. The Eagles finished with a team score of 620, 18 strokes ahead of Westfield.

The Shamrocks wanted to win state too, of course, but Zionsville was simply too good. Instead, Westfield fought its way past the Evansville North Huskies, finally getting past them in the last few holes.

"Hats off to our kids that they clawed and grinded and made putts and made big shots to end up with the runner-up trophy again," said 'Rocks coach Trevor Neu. "So proud of these kids. So proud of what they've accomplished this year. It's been a really fun season."

Westfield's highest placer was sophomore Jocelyn Bruch, who tied for ninth individually by shooting a two-day total of 154. Bruch was named to the All-State team for the second year in a row.

"I struggled today, but I made some good putts to hang in there and finish in the top 10," said Bruch. "It was a blast. Our team is great, and it was just a lot of fun."

Senior Cailyn Henderson finished just outside the top 10 with a 156, but she also made the All-State team, which takes both the top 10 golfers at state plus 10 more based on points earned from tournaments throughout the year. This made Henderson 4-for-4 when it came to earning an All-State place.

"I had a pretty good run," said Henderson. "I slipped up this year, but that's just golf."

Henderson will play at Purdue University next fall. She joined Adrienne Montalone and Margaret Wentz as the senior golfers that played on each of Westfield's runner-up teams. Emma Clary was the fourth senior on the list, she played the state tournament for the second time this weekend.

"It was a really good ending for their chapter," said Neu.

The Tigers were playing at state for the third year in a row and their sixth-place performance was a one-spot improvement from last year. Fishers scored 658 for the weekend.

Leading the way was senior Morgan Lewis, who was the highest-placing individual from Hamilton County by taking sixth. Lewis also made the All-State team for the second year in a row.

"I was super excited," said Lewis. "I didn't know if our team was going to make it out this year, out of regionals, but we ended up making it out. We had a blast and it was really fun to come back for our senior year."

"She finished her round today with birdie-birdie-birdie to get that sixth place," said Fishers coach Danny Smith. "That was just a fantastic job of focusing and making it happen."

Lewis will play golf at Ball State next year. She was one of five seniors on the team - Grace Brooks, Kennedy Brooker, Brooke Wilson and Anna DelPrince were the others - who helped take Fishers to new level in girls golf.

"These girls have been incredible all season long," said Smith. "They've set goals, they've worked hard. We didn't think we'd be able to set as many records as we did again this year, because we set them all last year. We turned around and these girls, they've been focused and they wanted to get back here and they did it."

Carmel took seventh with a 662. Consistency has been the calling card for the Greyhounds, and they did it again by having three girls shoot 164: Junior Nina Hecht, freshman Katie Kuc and senior Erin Evans.

"Definitely consistent over the last two days, but we had some big numbers both days," said Carmel coach Kelly Kluesner. "The wind was definitely a challenge for us. The course played pretty tough. I'm proud of the girls for staying in there. They continued to fight 'til the end, so that's all we can ask for."

Hecht was named to the All-State team, earning that "I struggled a lot the past few days, but I hung in there, barely," said Hecht. She was also happy with how the season worked out - "I felt like it went pretty well," she said.

Hamilton Southeastern scored 667 to take eighth place. Senior Haleigh Gray led the Royals with a two-day score of 160.

Guerin Catholic sophomore Angelica Pfefferkorn played as an individual, finishing with a score of 162.

Boys tennis sectional

Carmel wins again, Fishers gets first-ever title

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

The Carmel tennis tradition added another championship Thursday, as the No. 1-ranked and defending state champion Greyhounds boys team won its 31st sectional title.

Carmel defeated No. 10 Guerin Catholic 5-0 at the Todd Witsken Tennis Center. It's the eighth consecutive title for the 'Hounds, and the 26th in the past 27 years.

Four of the five matches went quickly, but the No. 1 doubles match went the distance. The Greyhounds' Timmy Dixon and Drew Michael were involved in a battle with the Golden Eagles' Jacob Bratton and Wyatt Metzger that was tense and spirited.

Dixon and Michael won the first set 6-4, with Bratton and Metzger answering the call in the second set by taking a tiebreak 8-6. The Carmel duo got an early 3-0 advantage in the third set, and held off a late comeback by the GC team to win the set 6-3.

"Nothing's ever easy," said Greyhounds coach Spencer Fields. "Guerin knows us really well and has played as a top 10 team all year in the state. I think the team did well today. We're hitting our stride, we're gaining focus, we are playing good, solid tennis, high-percentage tennis. We're minimizing our errors, and that's causing some of the scores to be better. They seem easy, but they're never easy."

While the team result had long been decided, the No. 1 doubles match was important, as it keeps Dixon and Michael in contention for the individual doubles tournament. No. 1 singles Patrick Fletchall won his match 6-0, 6-1; he is the defending champion in the individual singles tournament.

Fletchall is a four-year player for Carmel, making him a four-year sectional champion.

"It means a lot," said Fletchall. "With Guerin in our sectional, it's always tough."

The Carmel boys tennis team won its eighth consecutive sectional championship Thursday at the Todd Witsken Tennis Center. The Greyhounds will travel to Kokomo next week for the regional.

Fletchall and Dixon are the only seniors on the Greyhounds' top seven.

"We have some great underclassmen that can lead the team the next few years," said Fletchall. "So it's just good to hand off the torch to them and see what they can do."

Next up for Carmel is the Kokomo regional, to be played Tuesday and Wednesday. The Greyhounds will play West Lafayette in Tuesday's semi-finals.

In last Wednesday's sectional semi-finals, Carmel beat University 5-0, while Guerin defeated Westfield 4-1. The Shamrocks' win was from No. 1 singles Parker Kalis; he will advance to this week's individual tournament.

Meanwhile, Fishers made school history Thursday by winning its first-ever boys tennis sectional championship.

The No. 8-ranked Tigers triumphed at the Hamilton Southeastern sectional, beating Noblesville 5-0. Fishers won all the matches in straight sets. The Tigers did get a battle at No. 1 doubles, as Ethan Fairfield and Sam Barrett were extended to 7-5 in the second set by the Millers' Ben Smith and Evan Voigt.

Fishers will next play at the North Central regional, which also takes place Tuesday and Wednesday. The Tigers will take on the No. 2-ranked Panthers in the Tuesday semi-finals.

In the sectional semi-finals, Noblesville beat Hamilton Heights 5-0, with Fishers defeating Hamilton Southeastern 3-2. The Royals' No. 1 doubles team of Mark Slaninka and Andrew Myers won their match and will advance to the individual tournament.

Fishers won its first-ever boys sectional championship Thursday. The Tigers won the Hamilton Southeastern sectional over Noblesville, and will play North Central in the regional semi-finals on Tuesday.

Girls soccer

Millers beat HSE for HCC championship

Call them fighters, call them comeback queens.

Above all, call the Noblesville girls soccer team Hoosier Crossroads Conference champions.

The Millers clinched the HCC title Wednesday night, coming back to beat Hamilton Southeastern 3-2 on the Royals field. With the win, Class 3A No. 6 Noblesville finished conference play at 4-0-2, getting past two more 3A powerhouses, the No. 8 Royals and No. 9 Zionsville in what had become a complicated three-team race for the HCC trophy.

"This team's fought all season," said Noblesville coach Mike Brady.

All of the goals were scored in the second half, this after a well-played first half that saw both teams have plenty of chances. Southeastern was the first to break through when sophomore Layla Brown tapped in the game's first goal in the 47th minute.

But a couple minutes later, Noblesville senior Abby Martin got a penalty kick opportunity, which she easily put into the net. That was with 31:51 left in the game. The Royals answered right away, with freshman Izzie Wallace firing in a goal exactly 39 seconds later. Brown had the assist.

Southeastern held the lead until the 17:42 mark, when Carly Hundall found the back of the net on a hard kick. That tied the game at 2-2, but a tie wouldn't win the Millers the conference. They had to win the game or else.

It took them a few minutes, but Noblesville got the winning goal, with junior Keeley Hoopingarner placing the ball into the net. That was with 6:37 left in the game, and the Millers held on from there.

"Keeley, like the rest of them, has that energy level that lifts everybody up," said Brady. The coach said that whenever Hoopingarner was on the field, good things happen for Noblesville - and they did on Wednesday night.

Right after the Millers completed their victory, many eyes were directed towards many phones to await the result of Wednesday's Zionsville-Brownsburg game. If the Eagles won, Noblesville would have to share the HCC crown.

But the No. 14 Bulldogs beat Zionsville 2-1, so the Millers had the championship all to themselves. Brady informed his team of the result, and the cheering started.

"Conference title is pretty impressive for this group, but it's something that we're going to enjoy right now, as you can see, and then we start training for the state tournament tomorrow," said Brady.

Noblesville finished its regular season 10-2-3, while Southeastern completed the regular season 11-5-1.
