Veterans honored by Noblesville Lions Club

Photos provided

Local veterans were honored by the Noblesville Lions Club on Wednesday evening at the Jim Dandy restaurant located in Noblesville. A total of 35 veterans were honored with a free dinner and each had a chance to describe their individual service and share stories with friends. This has been a tradition for the Lions Club for several years. President Joe Arrowood presided over the meeting.

There were only a few empty seats for the Friday Veterans Day ceremony at Fishers City Hall. The Fishers Junior High School Choirs performed. Those assembled were military veterans, as well as others in attendance to honor veterans of America's Armed Forces.

Mayor Scott Fadness expressed his gratitude to all that have served. He said that the Memorial Day and Veterans' Day city observances are a way of showing the city's "unwavering appreciation for all that they have done."

El Ahlwardt was the Master of Ceremonies for the Veterans Day event. Also in attendance were members of the Fishers City Council, State Senator Victoria Spartz, State Representative Todd Huston and Jordan Isaacs, representing Indiana Senator Joe Donnelly.

Buckle up, stay safe, stay sober this holiday season

The REPORTER

Millions of Americans will travel our nation's highways this Thanksgiving holiday to visit family and friends. With more vehicles on the road, the chances of being involved in a crash increase greatly.

The Hamilton County Traffic Safety Partnership, a consortium of local law enforcement agencies, is joining more than 230 local law-enforcement agencies across the state to spot violations to Indiana's seat belt and impaired driving laws. Through the weekend after Thanksgiving, expect to see an increase in random patrols, saturation patrols and checkpoints. This overtime enforcement is supported with National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) funds administered by the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute (ICJI).

"Why are we advertising this enforcement blitz? To give drivers and their passengers fair warning and to make our roads as safe as possible," said Hamilton County Sheriff Mark Bowen. "Our officers live in the communities we serve and will be thankful this holiday if impaired-driving and unbuckled deaths never strike again."

It's the law

In every state, it is illegal to drive with a blood alcohol concentration of .08 or higher. In Indiana, drivers under 21 with a BAC of .02 or higher are subject to fines and a license suspension for up to one year.

Indiana has a primary seat-belt law, meaning that police officers may ticket unrestrained drivers or passengers, even if no other traffic violation has taken place. In addition, all passengers under age eight must be in an approved car seat or booster seat.

For more information about impaired driving visit on.IN.gov/drivesober and for more information about seat belts visit on.IN.gov/buckleup.

Seat belt tips

The ICJI and Purdue University Center for Road Safety estimate that about 93 percent of Hoosiers buckle up. The small number of drivers and passengers not wearing seat belts made up more than half of Indiana's fatal crashes in 2016. Below are tips for proper seat-belt use:

- Secure the lap belt across

Massive response to HSE school calendar survey

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

After 13,500 online survey responses, the Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) School Board discussed the school calendar Wednesday night but reached no decisions.

Here are some takeaways from the survey results, based on a presentation by Director of Educational Technology Jeff Harrison:

- 56 percent of those responding prefer a longer summer with shorter breaks, as opposed to shorter summers and longer breaks during the school year.
- 65 percent preferred a three-day Thanksgiving break (Wednesday, Thursday and Friday)
- A plurality of respondents (43 percent) disagreed with the statement that HSE should have a school calendar consistent with other Hamilton County School systems.
- Given four possible options for calendars, 33 percent voted to keep the current calendar, while 30 percent voted in favor of the current calendar with one important change... a full week off for Thanksgiving.

The board discussed moving fall break forward one week at the quarter break so students would not have homework. But there are issues with the timing of teachers submitting grades.

The 2018-2019 school year calendar has not been approved by the board. School administrators will be holding discussions with the Hamilton Southeastern Education Association about the calendar. Superintendent Allen Bourff says he will provide the board with a recommendation for a school calendar for 2018-2019, and some future school years as well, in December.

Donate cell phones at next Colts home game

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

There will be a large number of area Colts fans traveling toward Lucas Oil Stadium Nov. 12 to watch the home team take on the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fans are asked to bring along any used or unused cell phones, which will be used for domestic violence victims.

The Verizon Wireless Hopeline program allows individuals to donate non-longer-used wireless phones and accessories that directly benefit their local communities. Verizon turns these devices into support for local domestic violence organizations and programs.

Wireless phones and accessories – in any shape and from any carrier – can be donated on game day from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. outside Lucas Oil Stadium entrance gates where up to 30 volunteers will be assisting in the collection.

The fan donations will directly benefit survivors of domestic violence who live in transitional housing at Coburn Place in Indianapolis. Since opening in 1996, Coburn Place – which serves residents throughout Indiana – has provided 564,907 days and nights of housing to 708 adults and 1,148 children.

“Coburn Place wouldn’t exist to offer safe and secure housing with access to meaningful resources without donations like these,” said Julia Kathary, president and executive director of Coburn Place.

SAFETY

your hips and pelvis, below your stomach.

- Place the shoulder belt across the middle of your chest and rib cage, away from your neck.

- Never put the shoulder belt behind your back or under an arm.

- If your seat belt doesn’t fit you, or you have an older car with lap belts only, ask your dealer or vehicle manufacturer about seat-belt adjusters, extenders or retrofits.

Motor vehicle crashes are a leading and increasing cause of death for children ages one to 13. Below are tips for properly selecting, installing and using child safety seats:

- Choose the right car seat for a child’s height and weight at safecar.gov/therightseat.

- Use a rear-facing infant or convertible seat until a child reaches the seat’s upper height or weight limit. Rear-facing harness straps should originate at or below the child’s shoulders. And never install a rear-facing seat in front of an active air bag.

- Once a child outgrows a rear-facing car seat, he or she is ready for a forward-facing car seat with harness. Always use the tether strap when installing a front-facing car seat. Front-facing harness straps should originate at or above the child’s shoulders.

- Tightly secure car seats using either the seat belt or the lower anchors, but not both, and that they are threaded through the correct path. Make sure the straps are snug and free of twists and that the car seat doesn’t move more than one inch.

- Buckling your child correctly is just as important as installing the seat correctly. Seat belts and harness straps should be snug and free of twists. If you can pinch harness straps between your fingers, the harness is not tight enough.

- To receive timely recall information, register your car seat with the manufacturer or using the form at nhtsa.gov/document/car-seat-registration-form.

Sober driving tips

Crashes involving at least one alcohol-impaired driver resulted in 211 Hoosier deaths and nearly 2,100 injuries during 2016. And the Thanksgiving holiday is one of the deadliest times of year.

With all of today’s options for getting home safely, there’s no excuse for getting behind the wheel impaired as it endangers you and everyone else around you. Law enforcement recommends these safe alternatives to impaired driving:

- Designate, or be, a sober driver.
- Use public transportation.
- Call a cab or a ride-sharing service.

- Download the SaferRide mobile app on the Android Play Store or the Apple iTunes Store. This simple app only has three options: call a taxi, call a friend, and identify your location for pickup.

- Celebrate at home or a place where you can stay until sober.

- Throwing a party? Offer non-alcoholic beverages and plenty of food.

- Never provide alcohol to minors.

- Ask young drivers about their plans.

- Friend or family member about to drive? Take the keys and make alternate arrangements.

Impaired driving is three times more common at night than during the day. If you see an impaired driver, turn off the road away from the vehicle and call 911. Signs of impaired driving include:

- Weaving, swerving, drifting, or straddling the center line
- Driving at a very slow speed
- Braking erratically
- Making wide turns
- Stopping without cause
- Responding slowly to traffic signals
- Driving after dark with headlights off
- Almost striking an object or vehicle
- Driving on the wrong side of the road
- Turning abruptly or illegally

At this month's meeting, Women Who Care in Hamilton County will present a check for $3,100 to the Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development (HAND).

Women Who Care are helping HAND next week

The REPORTER

Over 100 Women Who Care in Hamilton County, Indiana ("Women Who Care"), is ready for their second meeting which will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 15 at The Noblesville Event Center, 2350 Corner St. The goal is straightforward: They meet four times per year and donate $100 to a local Hamilton County 501(c)(3) charity selected by vote at the meeting.

"Our primary goal is to be well over 100 women strong and make a difference while reaching all kinds of non-profits throughout Hamilton County. We want to get the word out to all women to come join us who live in Carmel, Westfield, Fishers, Cicero, Noblesville, Arcadia and Sheridan. Let's make an impact within our community!" said Mary Beth Woehrle, co-founder of Women Who Care.

During the November meeting, a $3,100 check will be presented to Hamilton County Area Neighborhood Development (HAND) and HAND will present how the money will be used. HAND was the selected charity at the first meeting held in August earlier this year. Voting for a new organization within Hamilton County to receive funds will also take place.

The Women Who Care concept began from the international organization 100 Who Care Alliance in 2006 when founder Karen Dunigan from Jackson, Mich., asked for help by trying to get cribs to needy mothers. She invited 100 women to a meeting and asked if they each could donate $100. Within the hour, they raised more than the $10,000 goal. The first 100 Women Who Care chapter was born.

Women Who Care was founded in January 2017 by Hamilton County residents Mary Beth Woehrle, Dana Randall and Carolyn Deines, and is one of about 500 chapters that raises funds for community organizations. During the quarterly meetings, members hear three presentations on local non-profits in need, vote and subsequently donate $100 which goes directly to the chosen non-profit.

"As I began hearing about this Women Who Care concept and talking to friends and community supporters, the more it felt like our calling and an attainable goal to reach 100+ women during our ongoing conversations of interest and excitement," said Woehrle. "What a difference $10,000+ in donations each quarter could make to non-profits all throughout Hamilton County. 100% of funds go directly to the chosen non-profit."

About Women Who Care

Women Who Care looks to increase their membership and help more non-profits within the community. To become a member with Women Who Care or to learn more, visit 100womenwhocarehamiltoncounty.com.

Women Who Care is organized and operated entirely by volunteers. Member commitment includes an annual membership that involves four quarterly meetings along with a donation of $100 per meeting ($400 annually). Memberships can be shared with a friend or sister if desired. The meetings are held at 6:30 p.m. at the Noblesville Event Center.

James Edward Hoff

March 25, 1939 – November 9, 2017

James Edward Hoff, 78, Noblesville, went to his Heavenly home on Thursday, November 9, 2017 at Riverwalk Village in Noblesville. He was born on March 25, 1939 to the late Randolph and Mary (Ross) Hoff in Indianapolis.

James was a veteran in the U.S. Army, U.S. Army Reserve and retired from the U.S. National Guard. He worked as a conductor for the railroad for 36 years. James has been an active member at First Church of the Nazarene and his favorite praise song was Days of Elijah, which is an example of his joyous life and a testament to his faith he lived out daily. James and Sherron enjoyed traveling, and enjoyed 12 cruises together.

He is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Sherron LeVerne Hoff; children, Holly Garrison (James), Mike Hoff, and James Hoff (Tami); six grandchildren, Michelle Graham (Shawn), April Haste (Michael), Jennifer Guilbeau (Eric), Brittany Hoff (Anastasios), Jessica Holman (Keith) and Jynson Hoff; and nine great-grandchildren, Alex Belcher, Nicole Haste, Isabella Guilbeau, Brooke Graham, Chloe Guilbeau, Sophia Underwood, Lily Guilbeau, James Holman and Matthew Holman.

A celebration of life service will be held at 1 p.m. on Monday, November 13, 2017 at First Church of the Nazarene, 1399 Greenfield Ave., Noblesville, with visitation from 11 a.m. to the time of service. Pastor Jesse Garner will officiate.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Indiana Parkinson Foundation, 10936 Gresham Place, Noblesville, IN 46060.

Randall & Roberts Funeral Homes has been entrusted with James' care.

Girls basketball

Millers tough out win at the Husky Dome

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

Noblesville girls basketball fans that went up to the Husky Dome Friday night may have noticed a few "interesting combinations" for the Millers during their game with Hamilton Heights.

Those are the words of Noblesville coach Donna Buckley. Her team was dealt a blow Thursday when a starter got injured. Nevertheless, the Millers toughed out a 56-49 win over the Huskies, holding off a Heights charge in the fourth period.

Noblesville was playing without Mallory Johnson, a starter for the Millers who had playing well in their first three games.

"Mallory got hurt right at the end of practice yesterday," said Buckley. Thus the different combinations for Noblesville. Buckley admitted that the team hadn't worked on those new combinations, but the team persevered - "to our kid's credit, they did a nice job for us," said the coach.

The first quarter was a back-and-forth one. Heights led 7-4 after Bayleigh Runner hit a 3-pointer, but the Millers' Maddie Knight answered with a 3 of her own, tying the game at 7-7.

Emily Kiser used a jumper and a free throw to get Noblesville ahead 10-7, but Runner drained a buzzer-beating shot from mid-court to tie the game at 10-all at the end of one.

The Millers opened the second quarter with a 9-0 run, with Knight adding five more points. Heights scored six unanswered points to cut Noblesville's lead to 21-17, but the Millers got those six points right back to take a 27-17 halftime lead. Emily Kiser made two baskets, and little sister Anna Kiser made a layin.

Noblesville led by as much as 38-17 midway through the third period. The Huskies made a 7-0 run to keep the game reasonable, at 38-24. Heights then slowly chipped away at the Millers' lead in the

Fishers falls to top-ranked Ben Davis

By JIM BELSER

Ben Davis lived up to the hype as the top-rated team in the state, as it took apart Fishers 50-7 Friday night in the Class 6A regional final at Fishers.

The Giants put forth a dangerous group of skilled players that can overwhelm a defense. And they did so against the Tigers, time and again. Their quickness and elusiveness often turned ordinary gains into long distance sprints with a trail of Fishers defenders in their wake.

Getting it in to their hands was Giants quarterback Reese Taylor, who passed for 225 yards and four touchdowns. Ben Davis got big plays from nearly all its receivers, but none was more lethal than Jermaine Hoskins. Hoskins pulled down receptions of 19, 25, 10 and 45 with two earning touchdowns.

"I was disappointed we didn't give them a better ball game, but they are the number one-ranked team and they are going to be a tough team for anybody to beat," Fishers coach Rick Wimmer said.

Defensively the Giants were good for a pair of interceptions and applied pressure to Fishers quarterback Jon Vore, sacking the junior three times on the night on blitzes. It was a dominating performance by Ben Davis that very few high school teams could have withstood.

Fishers running back Dylan Scally was the center of the Tigers offense as the Giants shut down the home team's passing attack. The sophomore pounded his way to 65 tough yards on 20 carries. It was a difficult night for Fishers quarterback Jon Vore, but still the junior managed 104 yards passing, including a nine-yard TD pass.

"Dylan's tough, he's done a good job for us, he's gotten an opportunity after a few injuries and has done well," Wimmer said.

Vore had a terrific third quarter, passing for 76 yards and producing the Tigers only score of the night. His nine-yard toss to Gregory King notched the score at a still respectable 29-7 halfway through the third.

"I am proud of what our group accomplished, winning the conference championship and a sectional, and doing it from a start that wasn't real positive, but I am proud of what they've been able to accomplish for the entire season," Wimmer said.

Things turned quickly in Ben Davis' direction in the first half and stayed that way through the first two quarters. Fishers quarterback Jon Vore was intercepted on the Tigers' first possession after a few positive yard plays. A Fishers receiver fell on the play and the Ben Davis defender was there for the pick off at 9:37 left of the first quarter.

A minute later Ben Davis scored its first touchdown on a one-yard running play. The Giants produced two 15 yard plus plays on the drive, leading to the score. Fishers managed to pick up a few first downs in the first quarter, largely behind the legs of running back Dylan Scally.

While Fishers kept things on the ground in the first half, Ben Davis went through the air. Giants quarterback Reese Taylor accumulated 54 yards on 5-of-8 passing in the first quarter. The Ben Davis air attack led to the Giants second touchdown, another short yardage run. It put the visitors up 14-0 with 2:52 left in the quarter.

The second quarter saw both teams go for it on fourth down. Ben Davis was unsuccessful, but the Tigers went 2-for-2 on theirs, including short snapping the ball to a Fishers runner after lining up for a punt. Scally of Fishers basted his way up the middle for five yards on the other successful fourth down conversion.

After two quarters it was 22-0 Ben Davis. The Giants started the third quarter off with a 50-yard touchdown reception and ended with another for 45. Ben Davis added two more TD passes in the fourth.

No decision yet on new HSE football coach

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

When Scott May announced he is resigning his job as head football coach Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) High School after 11 years at the helm, it didn't take long for the rumor mill to start up and speculate who May's successor will be.

Hamilton Southeastern School Board President Matt Burke addressed those rumors at the Wednesday night board meeting.

"There is a group of individuals in the community who believe the decision has already been made," said Burke. "I think what they are implying from that is they don't like what they believe that predetermined decision is going to be. And it's fair to say a decision has not been made."

School administrators, in answer to a question from board member Terry Tolle about the status of the head football coach opening, said the position was posted Wednesday morning.

'Hounds hold off Snider for 20th regional crown

The cold wasn't that bad, and the bus ride back from Fort Wayne didn't seem all that long Friday night for the Carmel football team.

That's because the Greyhounds returned home as regional champions for the fifth straight year. No. 10-ranked Carmel won the Class 6A regional by holding off No. 2 and previously unbeaten Fort Wayne Snider 22-21 in a dramatic game that was played at Northrop High School.

The 'Hounds are now 8-4, and will host Penn for next week's 6A north semi-state championship. The Kingsmen routed Crown Point 33-3 to win their regional.

As it turned out, the Carmel-Snider game would be decided in a manic third quarter. The score was tied 7-7 at halftime, and the Panthers struck first with two quick touchdowns to lead 21-7.

The Greyhounds started their run midway through the period, when Will Schmidt ran into the end zone from 11 yards. Matt Fortier made the extra point kick, and Carmel was now within 21-14. The 'Hounds set up the play when Jake McDonald made a 40-yard pass to Aiden Ellison. A couple minutes later, the Carmel defense stepped up, forcing Snider into a three-and-out. The Panthers tried to punt, but the snap went over the punters' head and out of the end zone. The result was a safety, inching the 'Hounds closer - 21-16.

The Greyhounds took the lead on another run by Schmidt, a 15-yard rush into the end zone. Snider blocked the extra-point attempt, but Carmel now held a one-point lead.

The 'Hounds would keep the lead all through the fourth quarter. Carmel's defense made a couple big plays, including a Ben Leary interception early in the period. The Greyhounds clinched the game when Snider fumbled with around a minute to go and Carmel recovered.

Both teams scored their first touchdown in the opening period. Schmidt did the honors for Carmel, punching the ball in from the one-yard line with under a minute to go. Fortier kicked the extra point.

McDonald had a solid game, going 12-for-21 with 123 yards to his credit.

Atticus Clouse made four catches. Schmidt finished the game with 51 yards in 14 carries, with Camari Hunt rushing 17 times for 56 yards. Dylan Downing made the most of his five rushes, totaling 45 yards. With the win, the 'Hounds claimed their fourth quarter, but Noblesville was able to put away the game from the free-throw line. Knight went 7-of-8 from the line in the fourth period, with Abby Haley going 4-for-4.

Knight finished the game with 18 points. "Her and Abby really stepped up and hit big free throws for us," said Buckley. "That was the difference in the game."

Emily Kiser was her usual dominant self, scoring 26 points and pulling 16 rebounds. Knight also had six rebounds and four assists.

Meanwhile, three Huskies players landed in double figures. Kayla Kirtley scored 14 points, Runner totaled 13, and Ana Collar joined Kiser in the double-double club with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Collar made back-to-back putbacks in the first quarter.

"I've got a locker room full of great girls," said Heights coach Keegan Cherry. "They didn't quit. They battled to the end. The reality of it is, when you've got a Division I like Kiser in the middle, she's a handful. I'm proud of them. Just a lot of little things throughout the course of the game."

The Millers are now 3-1 for the season, and are back at The Mill tonight to host Greenfield-Central. Tipoff is 7:30 p.m. Heights is 0-3, and travels to Guerin Catholic on Tuesday, also a 7:30 p.m. game.

UHS blasts Bulldogs in second half

Another game, another second-half rally - and another win for the University girls basketball team.

The Trailblazers improved to 3-0 by beating Clinton Central 58-23 on Friday. University was down 6-4 after the first quarter, then had the game tied at 14-14 by halftime.

The 'Blazers opened the third quarter with a 14-0 run, and cruised from there. The Bulldogs played a 1-3-1 trap game that limited University inside, and didn't allow its leading scorer Lindsey Syrek to get the ball - she only scored two points in the first half.

But Syrek scored the first basket of the second half, the Trailblazers got their pressure going, and that quickly turned the game in University's favor. Syrek exploded for 23 points in the second half, giving her a total of 25 for the game. Syrek reached double-double status with 15 rebounds and also made six steals.

Lily Snyder added eight points, while Lucy Snyder scored six. Brooke Andrus also added six points and dished out five assists.

University's next game is at Waldron on Tuesday.

Shamrocks win second straight game

Westfield scored its second straight victory on Friday, winning at New Castle 48-35.

The Shamrocks got out to an 11-4 lead after the first quarter, and maintained that advantage at halftime, 21-15. Westfield then outscored the Trojans 17-9 in the third quarter, using solid ball and help side defense and patient offense to secure the win. Annabelle O'Hair led the way for the 'Rocks, with 12 points and five rebounds. Megan Rops scored 10 points.

Pacers snap four-game losing streak

By KYLE GRAND
 Courtesy nba.com/pacers
 The Pacers snapped a four-game losing streak after handling the Chicago Bulls 105-87 in the United Center. At halftime the Pacers led 45-35, and though second half issues have plagued Indiana recently, that was not the case tonight.
 "What we've been trying to do the last couple of games is put together a full 48-minute game," Pacers head coach Nate McMillan said. "We've been getting off to good starts, we just haven't finished. I thought tonight we came out third quarter, tried to establish ourselves defensively again, and not give up anything easy."
 The start of the second half is where they really started to separate themselves from Chicago. Bojan Bogdanovich was red-hot, hitting three triples to score nine of Indiana's first 15 third quarter points. The third 3-pointer gave the Pacers a 60-42 lead and forced a Bulls timeout with 8:29 to go in the quarter.
 The Pacers pushed their lead to 23 before the Bulls started to fight back. By the 5:05 mark in the third the lead had been cut to 18 thanks to an 8-0 Chicago run.
 But the Pacers wouldn't give up any more ground after that. At the end of the third, Indiana led by 19, 80-61.

The final period was more of the same for the visitors. A Lance Stephenson layup with 9:01 to play put the Pacers up 23, and from there it was apparent that the route was official.
 "This is huge, man," Pacers guard Victor Oladipo said. "Just to kind of get our mojo back a little bit. That was a great win for us, great road win for us. We still need to continue to lean on each other. This is the first time we had everybody healthy. That's big, too. We just got to maintain that throughout the season."
 Indiana took an early lead thanks to Bogdanovich and Thaddeus Young. Behind their combined 13 points, the Pacers established a 16-10 lead with 5:57 to play in the first.
 After a break in the action, Indiana continued to roll offensively. A pair of Stephenson jump shots gave the Pacers a 27-14 lead with 1:01 to go in the opening period, and when the first was over, Indiana led 27-16.
 Indiana never trailed en route to its sixth victory of the season.
 Victor Oladipo led the Pacers with 25 points, six rebounds and six assists. Bogdanovich scored 22 and Young finished with 13 points.
