Noblesville offers 'Frozen' fun

The REPORTER

The Federal Hill Commons Ice Plaza opened Friday at 11 a.m., offering residents a new outdoor recreational activity this winter in downtown Noblesville. Friday's theme was the Disney film Frozen. The temporary ice rink will be open daily through Jan. 8, 2018, except on Christmas Day.

"Federal Hill Commons was designed to be a year-round park, so we are happy to offer this winter activity for people to enjoy this great downtown asset and we know the excitement for ice skating has grown as the rink has been constructed during the past two weeks," Mayor John Ditslear said.

Through Christmas Eve, Ice Plaza hours will be 3 to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Friday through Sunday. After Christmas, hours will be extended for enjoyment

HSE honors Zimmerman Moeller student fund winner for solar project

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

You may not automatically associate Intermediate School and solar energy, but a teacher at Sand Creek Intermediate has done just that. Jennifer Suskovich has secured foundation funding for such a project. Her students will be using solar energy to power lights in their own classroom.

The solar project was recognized at the Nov. 20 HSE School Board meeting.

Here is a description of the project from the HSE Schools Foundation news release:

Students will hypothesize locations that provide maximum amount of energy and then use this data to graph the amount of time solar energy illuminate the classroom versus electricity. Ultimately, Ms. Suskovich hopes students will design a system that moves with the sun and provides the maximum amount of solar energy to power the classroom.

This specific philanthropy project was created through the HSE Schools Foundation and funded by two members of the Fishers City Council, Todd Zimmerman and Eric Moeller. The fund is aimed at providing high school students with a hands on, real-world community service experience while also benefiting local schools and

George Kristo retires after 22 years of service

George Kristo, a familiar face to countless Hamilton County young people and a veritable "fixture" at the Government and Judicial Center, is retiring as director of the Council on Alcohol and Other Drugs. For 22 years Kristo has headed the group with the simple, but difficult mission of "reducing and preventing consumption of alcohol and the use of illegal drugs" by county youth.

FRED SWIFT

Kristo says he will retire in early January. Although approaching his 80th birthday, Kristo seems younger in appearance and attitude, probably because of his association with much younger people. His is a one-man operation which supports the North Suburban Alcoholics Anonymous Club, the DARE program, Hamilton County Drug Court, the local schools' Red Ribbon program, Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) and arranges for the County Youth Service Award, which grants an annual scholarship to a local high school graduate.

For many years George and his late wife, Dr. Linda Kristo, hosted an alcohol-free New Years Eve party for county teenagers. But, the party will not be held this year due to Kristo's retirement and various timing problems.

George and his wife came to the area in 1990 from Toledo, Ohio, following his 32-year career with insurance giant Blue Cross. Since arriving in Noblesville, he has been involved with various community activities including the County Historical Society, Noblesville Main Street and as a member of Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church.

In retirement George plans to remain in Noblesville and continue his volunteer work at a local nursing home. His successor as council director will be selected by the council board of directors chaired by Superior Court Judge Steve Nation.

during winter break. It will open daily at 11 a.m. and will close at 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and at 11 p.m. Friday through Sunday. The rink will close early at 6 p.m. on Christmas Eve and 8 p.m. on New Year's Eve. All ages are welcome to participate and rental ice skates range from kid to adult sizes. Skating aids are available for children needing extra support while on the ice.

Admission is $12 and allows for untimed skating all day. Guests may bring their own skates if they prefer, but renting skates is included in the admission fee. Admission rates of $10 are available for groups of 10 or more and also to those patrons that participate on special themed skate nights.

Special event and themed nights will include food trucks and other fun activities starting at 6 p.m. on Fridays. Theme Nights include: Nov. 25 – Small Business Saturday; Dec. 1 – Elf Party and Noblesville Fire Department Toy Drive; Dec. 8 – Flannel Frost; Dec. 15 – Grinch and Ugly Sweaters; Dec. 22 – Cake and Skate; and Dec. 29 – Public Safety Night.

Tickets may be purchased online at federalhillcommons.com/iceplaza to bypass the ticket line at the ice rink; however, the discounted $10 tickets will only be available at the rink. 10K on opening day for Christkindlmarkt

After a successful opening day with nearly 10,000 visitors, the Carmel Christkindlmarkt and The Ice at Center Green will open again at 1 p.m. to kick off the Thanksgiving weekend with new holiday traditions in Carmel. The venues will be open from 1 to 10 p.m. Saturday and from 1 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

There is no admission fee to the Christkindlmarkt, but there are fees associated with ice skating and skate rentals. Go to TheIceAtCenterGreen.com/rates-fees for more information.

In order to improve your experience, the City of Carmel is adding new street signs to help direct visitors who may not be familiar with the area. Those signs will direct incoming traffic off Keystone Parkway or U.S. 31 to Range Line Road and the entrance to the new Veterans Way Garage, the most convenient place to park for the Christkindlmarkt and Ice at Center Green.

The garage is located south of the roundabout at City Center Drive (126th Street) and Range Line Road behind Graeter's Ice Cream shop, 864 S. Range Line Road. Veterans Way Garage is a short walk through Carmel City Center to Center Green.

All market huts are equipped to handle cash and credit card transactions. There is also an ATM on site. If you plan to skate, you may bring your own skates and only pay for time on the ice. There is also a skate rental shop. Restrooms are conveniently located just west of the Monon Greenway at Center Green. There are fire pits and heaters on the grounds of the Christkindlmarkt, but please dress appropriately for cold weather.

Fishers road construction updates, week of Nov. 27

The REPORTER

126th Street

Expect periodic lane restrictions at 126th Street and Hoosier Road through the end of the year while work is completed on a new traffic signal.

116th Street

Periodic lane restrictions will occur on 116th Street east of Allisonville Road as the contractor repairs concrete curbs and ramps and begins resurfacing work on the roadway. Restrictions will be in place between 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The City greatly appreciates residents' patience with construction noise.

Interstate 69

Improvements are currently underway to rehabilitate existing bridges, pavement and drainage structures along the 15-mile stretch of interstate. Two lanes of traffic in each direction of I-69 are currently shifted to accommodate construction of the additional travel lanes. Signs direct large trucks to use the left lane while traffic is shifted toward the right shoulder through the work zone.

The speed limit is reduced to 60 mph and further reduced to 50 mph when workers are present. I-69 is expected to open to three lanes in each direction between State Road 37 and State Road 38 before the end of this year. Questions about this project should be directed to INDOT at east-centralin@indot.in.gov or 1-855-463-6848.

State Road 37

Geotechnical drilling

began along the State Road 37 corridor in May as part of the final design phase of State Road 37 Improvement Project. Lane and shoulder restrictions will be active through November as crews finish drilling. The State Road 37 improvement project is a $124 million joint project between Fishers, Hamilton County, Noblesville and INDOT. Questions or concerns may be directed to drivefishers@fishers.in.us.

Outside of Fishers

Cyntheanne Road between 146th Street and 156th Street will be closed until Dec. 1 to replace the bridge over Keiser Drain. Please contact Hamilton County Highway Department at 317-773-7770 with any questions.

WHY MANY HOOSIERS ARE NOW USING THE FUNERAL TRUST AS A BETTER OPTION

Many Hoosiers today have decided to fund a Funeral Trust, rather than go to a Funeral Home for pre-planning purposes.

The funds in a Funeral Trust are probate-free, guaranteed on a tax-free basis, and exempt from spend-down requirements if you ever have to go into a nursing home.

If you want the peace of mind that comes from knowing the cost of your final expenses will be always be covered, The Funeral Trust is the ideal solution. Find out more today.

Girls basketball

No. 1 'Hounds win showdown with No. 4 Royals

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

Friday may have been all about the best deals in the shopping malls, but there was also an important basketball game to be played between two Class 4A powerhouses.

The top-ranked Carmel girls traveled to No. 4 Hamilton Southeastern for a rare Friday afternoon contest. After a tight first half, the Greyhounds turned up their pressure defense (again) in the third quarter, and that turned out to be the difference in a 58-44 victory. Carmel is still unbeaten for the season at 8-0.

"This is a tough game to play," said Greyhounds coach Tod Windlan. "You're talking about Thanksgiving, and the next day you're playing on Black Friday at 2:30 in the afternoon. It's more of a mental state of mind getting ready to play the game than anything."

Both teams struggled with their shooting in the first quarter before getting it together by the period's end. After trading baskets (and the lead) for the first part, Carmel made the first run of the game midway through the quarter: Amy Dilk hit a 3-pointer, and Tomi Taiwo followed that with a traditional three-point play.

That put the 'Hounds up 11-6, but the Royals answered with a 7-0 run that carried into the second quarter. Sydney Parrish and Amaya Hamilton made first-period jumpers, then Molly Walton sank a 3-pointer that got HSE up 13-11.

Carmel led 17-16 midway through the period, then scored six unanswered points to lead 23-16. Four of those points came from back-to-back layins by Jasmine McWilliams - who was just getting started. The Royals cut the Greyhounds lead slightly by halftime, which saw Carmel ahead 26-23.

The 'Hounds opened the second half by running off 11 straight points, zooming ahead 37-23 before HSE called timeout with 4:39 left in the quarter. Taiwo began the run with (what else?) a 3-pointer, and closed it with a layin. Reagan Hune added a couple of layins as well.

"Our JV kids are really aggressive kids, so our practices have been really good," said

Carmel's Reagan Hune (center) made a pair of key third-quarter baskets to help the Greyhounds on an 11-0 run. Carmel took control in that period and went on to beat Hamilton Southeastern 58-44 in a Friday game. Also pictured are Carmel's Tomi Taiwo (22) and Southeastern's Tayah Irvin (21) and Sydney Parrish (33).

Windlan. "It wears people down."

Later on in the quarter, Carmel used another 8-0 run to take its largest lead of the game, 47-28. McWilliams again chipped in consecutive baskets, the second one off a Taiwo steal.

"I thought she was outstanding and I thought our guards were really good," said Windlan of McWilliams. The sophomore wound up with a double-double, scoring 12 points and pulling 11 rebounds.

"She's more confident in what she's doing," said Windlan. "She just keeps getting better each day for us. I thought Reagan Hune and Molly Gillig were outstanding guarding Parrish tonight."

Carmel led 51-36 midway through the fourth quarter. Southeastern made one last run at that point, scoring eight straight points to get within 51-44 at the 2:46 mark. Tayah Irvin helped out with a 3-pointer.

But the 'Hounds ended the comeback hopes by scoring the game's last seven points. McWilliams made all four of her foul shots during the final 1:34 of the game.

Taiwo led Carmel's scoring with 20 points, including three 3-pointers. She also had six rebounds and six steals. Dilk finished with 15 points, seven assists and six rebounds. McWilliams had four steals, while Gillig dished out four assists.

Walton led Southeastern's scoring with 11 points, with Parrish scoring nine and Irvin adding eight. Walton also reached double-double status by grabbing 10 rebounds, while Amaya Hamilton had five rebounds.

"Molly Walton gave us about everything she could," said Huppenthal. "Her fight the whole game was what you want to see in a kid and you wish it would be contagious to other kids. Tayah Irvin the same thing. I thought Tayah's fight throughout the whole game was good. You wish some other kids would go ahead and see that, and you wish it would be contagious to them. But it just wasn't today."

Carmel is back in action on Tuesday when it plays a Metropolitan Conference game at Lawrence North. The Royals, now 6-2 for the season, host Noblesville on Wednesday in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game.

Balanced effort leads Pacers to fifth straight win

The Pacers are officially on a roll. Indiana (11-8) won its fifth straight game on Friday night, using a balanced effort to handle the Toronto Raptors (11-7) in a 107-104 win at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

The Pacers have now won five straight games, their longest winning streak of the season.

Victor Oladipo had a team-high 21 points to lead six Pacers players in double figures, but it was Lance Stephenson who carried Indiana to victory down the stretch.

Tied at 92 with midway through the fourth quarter, the Pacers took the lead for good on Thaddeus Young's three-point play. After two free throws by Myles Turner, Stephenson took over.

First, the fan favorite buried a 3-pointer from the right wing, stretching out his arms in celebration as the ball swished through the net. Then, he grabbed a demonstrative defensive rebound, dribbled back down the court and buried another triple from the left wing, forcing a Toronto timeout and sending the near-capacity crowd into hysterics.

"I get my energy from the crowd," Stephenson said after the game. "When the crowd tells me 'Let's go, get it going,' I just feel like the power is in me."

The Blue & Gold seemingly had locked up a victory at that point, but Toronto reeled off eight unanswered points to make it a one-possession game with under two minutes to play.

Once again, Stephenson had an answer, this time knocking down a three from the left corner to push the lead back to six. But the Raptors rallied once more, as dunks by Serge Ibaka and Norman Powell made it a 106-104 game with 31.8 seconds remaining.

After a timeout, Stephenson's contested jumper came out short as the shot clock expired, springing the fastbreak for Toronto.

But All-Star DeMar DeRozan missed a layup in traffic and Turner secured the rebound for Indiana.

Darren Collison made just one of two free throws on the other end, but Fred VanVleet missed a three at the buzzer and the Pacers survived to come away with the win.

Stephenson scored 13 of his 18 points in the fourth quarter and also collected six of his seven rebounds in the final period.

"He was making plays in the fourth quarter that I think broke Toronto's runs," Pacers head coach Nate McMillan said after the win. "We put the ball in his hands and he did a good job of shooting with confidence and that was the difference in the game."

Carrying a four-game winning streak into the game, the Pacers kept rolling in the opening minutes of Friday's contest. Toronto actually scored the game's first five points, but the Blue & Gold quickly answered with a 12-0 run, knocking down five consecutive shots.

The Raptors rallied to tie the game at 14, but Indiana responded once again. Oladipo, Young, and Darren Collison took turns knocking down 3-pointers on consecutive possessions to spark a 13-0 Pacers run.

Toronto's second unit, however, closed the opening frame with an 11-2 run to help the visitors climb back within striking distance.

The Raptors continued their charge, reeling off an extended 17-3 spurt as the Pacers endured a prolonged shooting slump, missing 20 of 24 shots at one point. Toronto, which had trailed by as many as 13 points in the first quarter, led by as many as 12 in the second and took a 60-50 lead into the break.

Indiana's wings sparked a quick comeback for the home team in the third quarter. Oladipo scored the Pacers' first seven points of the second half and then Bojan Bogdanovic scored their next eight, tying the game at 65 with a three-point play with 6:48 remaining in the third.

The Pacers re-took the lead on a pair of free throws by Domantas Sabonis with 3:20 left in the frame and entered the final quarter with an 81-80 advantage.

The hosts quickly extended their lead to six points and remained in front until VanVleet's layup tied the game at 92 with 6:06 remaining.

"We talk about the three C's of being calm, clear and consistent and they showed that in the second half," McMillan said.

"They calmed down to start the third quarter and regained the lead.

"We were clear with what we wanted to do in attacking them and we stayed consistent with that. That showed growth against a very good team in our execution."

Bogdanovic finished with 19 points on 8-of-16 shooting, while Collison added 17 points and eight assists. Sabonis had 13 points and six rebounds despite going just 2-for-10 from the field. Young was the final Pacers player in double figures, stuffing the stat sheet with 12 points, nine rebounds, three assists, and four steals.
