Make-A-Wish grants life-long dream . . .

Sheridan wish kid surprised with early acceptance to Purdue

The REPORTER

A Sheridan teenager learned that his wish to attend Purdue University will be coming true as Make-A-Wish® Ohio Kentucky & Indiana and Purdue University surprised him with the first admissions offer for the class of 2022, as well as tuition assistance, on Wednesday.

Stephen Quillen, 18, Sheridan, has a heart condition called hypertrophic cardiomyopathy. It has been his lifelong dream to attend Purdue University as his family has a long tradition of being Boilermakers. His father is a Purdue alum, his mother attended the university, and his grandmother, aunt and uncle are all graduates of the Purdue College of Pharmacy. While Stephen has undergone treatments for his heart condition, he also has realized his interest in pharmacy as it helps him understand what is going on with his body. As a result, he dreams of attending pharmacy school so he can go on to help others facing medical conditions, and his heartfelt wish was to have tuition assistance to make this dream come true.

During the wish reveal, Stephen was surprised with early admission to Purdue and a check for tuition assistance from Make-A-Wish.

"Each year, the Purdue Office of Admissions evaluates nearly 50,000 applications and among all of these, Stephen's stood out," said Kris Wong Davis, Purdue vice provost for enrollment management. "Through his application, we recognized him to be an exceptional young man who is using his personal challenges to learn, grow and contribute to his community and society as a whole. He is exactly the kind of student who excels at Purdue and we are thrilled for him to receive our first offer of admission to the Class of 2022."

the sleeper berth was uninjured.

was traveling west-bound in the east-bound lanes. The crash happened in the center lane of I-465 just east of the US 31 exit.

Schwartz elected Council president in split vote

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Steve Schwartz, Noblesville, was elected Wednesday as president of the Hamilton County Council on a 4-3 second ballot vote which revealed the deep division between factions on the seven-member council.

Traditionally the presidency of the council is rotated among the members. While under this arrangement it was Schwartz's turn to lead the council this year, outgoing president Fred Gwynn called for a secret paper ballot when members first voted.

Councilor Brad Beaver was nominated for president by councilor Rick McKinney. In the council's first secret ballot in memory, a 3-3 tie resulted with one abstention. The second ballot produced a 4-3 victory for Schwartz who then nominated Beaver for vice

Noblesville asks for housing feedback

The REPORTER

The City of Noblesville is seeking input from current and potential residents to establish a vision for its housing market. The city held a Housing Vision Study Input Session in mid-December and has created a short survey to gather additional public feedback for those who were unable to attend. The survey, which can be found online at surveymonkey.com/r/X3SW572, allows participants to share their thoughts and preferences on what type of housing should be planned in the city.

"Your input will be referenced in the ongoing Housing Vision Study," said Noblesville Planning Director Sarah Reed. "It is the city's goal to garner as much input as possible. Please feel free to share this survey with fellow peers, neighbors, friends, and family interested in the future of housing in Noblesville."

The survey will be available online through

Gas odor reported in Westfield home

The REPORTER

The Westfield Fire Department recently responded to a reported gas odor in a residence in the 700 block of Hampton Road. Five victims were located in a neighbor's house. All showed symptoms consistent with carbon monoxide

(CO) poisoning. An investigation of the home revealed high levels of carbon monoxide. Further investigation revealed a broken vent pipe coming from a gas heater. There were no carbon monoxide detectors in the home. No crew members were injured at the scene. All patients were transported to the hospital.

"This emphasizes the importance of having working CO detectors in the home," stated Public Information Officer Nick Southerland. "This family was extremely fortunate that someone woke up early for work and recognized the symptoms, otherwise the outcome could have been very different."

The ability of first responders to quickly recognize and treat the symptoms of CO poisoning was key in preventing this situation from becoming much worse.

Carbon monoxide

is a colorless, odorless, tasteless gas. It is often referred to as the silent killer. The most common symptoms of CO poisoning include headache, dizziness, weakness, upset stomach, vomiting, chest pain and confusion. CO detectors can be purchased at local home improvement stores. It is important to follow the manufacturer's recommendations for testing the alarm and replacing the end of its life cycle. If you think you may be having a CO emergency, please dial 9-1-1 and move to an area of fresh air immediately.

to honor the city's history. Noblesville previously completed a housing study indicating the housing demands and trends of the area in 2016. The study may be viewed at this link.

president, and he was elected.

By state law secret ballots are prohibited in public meetings, but Schwartz asked that the second ballot be taken by individual voice vote, making his election legitimate.

The council as fiscal body of the county has voted unanimously on many issues, but on some critical or controversial items the split has become obvious over the past few years. All seven members are Republicans.

In other action, the council re-appointed Carol Car-

Magic Thread Cabaret comes to Carmel

The REPORTER

After a successful debut weekend in Indianapolis, producing partners Dustin Klein and Tom Alvarez are pleased to announce they're bringing the 2018 Magic Thread Cabaret season to Carmel. The new venue is "The Cat," a 120-seat theatre on 1st Avenue, positioned between the hip Carmel Arts District and much-anticipated Monon Boulevard.

"The Cat is truly honored that Tom & Dustin chose us as their home," said Will Wood, founding artistic director. "The Cat, we hope, is known as a welcoming place for people with ideas. And this idea is a grand one!"

Magic Thread Cabaret will be a resident company of The Cat. The venue strives to be the "Off-Off-Broadway" of Carmel, giving artists a platform to perform to audiences in a trendy and intimate environment, where they can enjoy craft beer and wine surrounded by local, modern art for sale displayed gallery-style.

"We are very excited to bring Magic Thread Cabaret to Carmel," said Artistic Director Dustin Klein. "With the proximity of The Cat to the Center for the Performing Arts and home of the Great American Songbook Foundation, it just makes sense for us to attempt to draw fans of the Great American Songbook, whom that organization has developed so well in the Carmel area."

Klein & Alvarez, LLC produced the best-selling show of IndyFringe Festival 2016 and in early 2017, staged the world premiere of the full-length, top-selling "Calder, The Musical" that was recognized by theatre critics with two Mitty Awards for "Most Impressive Set Design" and "Most Impressive Original Production." Klein and Alvarez followed that creative endeavor with the debut of Magic Thread Cabaret in November 2017, featuring former Great American Songbook Youth Ambassador Lucas DeBard who was enthusiastically received in packed houses.

The inaugural show was made possible by the generous donations of arts patrons Frank and Katrina Basile, Christina Kite, Noble Consulting, Diane Meyer Simon, Rachel Simon and others. Magic Thread Cabaret is a non-profit venture that is fiscally sponsored by Fractured Atlas, the New York-based nonprofit technology company that provides business tools for artists.

The 2018 Magic Thread Cabaret season at The Cat will be memorable as four accomplished, young artists bring their diverse talents to Hamilton County audiences, with the aim of "Connecting songs to the soul."

"Klein & Alvarez Productions is very pleased that we can offer yet another live entertainment option to residents of Hamilton County and environs while providing further exposure to the urbane art form that is cabaret," said Tom Alvarez, managing director.

Katy Gentry has made her home on professional theatre stages for over 25 years. Mesmerizing audiences with the look, mannerisms and voice of Judy, Gentry moved some audience members to tears and all to their feet, earning her a theatre critics' Mitty Award for "Most Impressive Actress in a Lead Role." She was an original cast member in the world-premiere Johnny Cash musical Ring of Fire with Fireside Dinner Theatre and Circa '21 Playhouse, performing to sold-out audiences. Gentry has performed with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra in leading and supporting vocal roles sharing the stage with many acclaimed Broad-

Year of decision about your health

"You're going to be proud of me, Lucy ... I've decided that this next year is going to be my year of decision!"

— Charlie Brown

black sweater today) to critically important decisions regarding our health and relationships. For my intent here we will focus on decisions which may seem simplistic but can have a very positive effect on our fitness level and enjoyment of whatever stage of life in which we find ourselves. I am going to step out on a limb and use myself as an example ...

As a woman in my late sixties I sometimes have to ask myself "how in the world did I get here" as I often feel little differently than I did in my twenties ... and society has a tendency to push aging folks more and more into the background of life.

Many of us who reach this stage of life have serious health issues which we are forced to confront and handle the best we can with medication and medical assistance. Many of us are blessed that we do not take prescription medications and are able to maintain a positive level of energy most of the time. And, of course, most aging baby boomers fall somewhere in between the two. Whatever stage you are in (and I am speaking of the "60+" group here) you still have daily decisions to make about your health and fitness. If you are over sixty and you have not had a complete physical in some time, start there. Your physician will order bloodwork and give you an examination which may include heart monitoring and other exams based upon family medical history and your own considerations. A vision exam, dental work and a complete skin examination by a dermatologist are always a good idea.

Once you have these items behind you and are cleared by your physician it is time to make the decision to work with a certified nutrition consultant and perhaps a fitness trainer to take charge of your health and well-being to be the best you possible; not the twenty-something you but the current you. Fortunately many people approaching 70 are more active, healthy and enjoying life now than at any point in history. Make a decision this year to be the best you – not like a celebrity, or your neighbor, or best friend, but based on your own particular health and fitness decisions. Not only will you feel better, look better, and enjoy your life more completely, but your loved ones will benefit but the care you give yourself. Those we hold dear and who love us in return will benefit from our decision to evaluate and step forward in 2018 to an increased level of self-care and wellness.

In homage to my Scottish ancestry, I wish you all Bliadhna Mhath Ùr!

Rep. Richardson invites students to the Statehouse

The REPORTER

Applications are open for students interested in participating in the Indiana House Page Program during the 2018 legislative session, according to State Rep. Kathy Kream Richardson (R-Noblesville).

Pages have an opportunity to join Richardson during the legislative session and tour the governor's office, the Indiana Supreme Court and the House and Senate chambers.

"Serving as a page is a great opportunity for students to explore the Statehouse and learn about government," Richardson said. "The program really helps young people better understand the state legislature and how it works. Each session, I really look forward to meeting with students from our community."

To be a page, applicants should be between the ages of 13 and 18. Richardson said student pages receive an excused absence from school and groups can sign up to participate together.

The 2018 legislative session began Wednesday, Jan. 3, and must conclude by March 14. Richardson said page positions fill quickly and encouraged participants to apply early online at indianahouse-republicans.com/page-program or by calling 800-382-9841.

Webster defines the word "resolution" as it pertains to this article as "the act of finding an answer or solution to a conflict, problem, etc.: the act of resolving something ..." and we all know that there is an expectation of sorts that most of us will have at least one or two of those resolutions as we enter another new year. However, I like Charlie Brown's perspective much better as it relates to a "year of decision."

Our lives are made up of decisions from the moment we open our eyes in the morning until we enter dreamland that same evening. Decisions vary from the mundane and completely simplistic (do I wear a red sweater or a

Tigers sweep Mudsock meet

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

The Mudsock swim meet is in an interesting part of the calendar: The meet takes place on a Thursday evening, with the Hoosier Crossroads Conference meet on Saturday afternoon.

But there's no discussion of a quick turnaround from either Fishers or Hamilton Southeastern. There are trophies to be won, after all. And both schools were loud and intense both in and out of the pool during Thursday's meet at the Royals' beautiful new aquatic center.

The Tigers swept both the girls and boys meets, with the girls winning 102.5-83.5 and the boys placing first 104-82. Southeastern started the meet by taking both medley relays; couple that with third-place finishes and both teams led 10-4 early.

"I felt like at the start of the meet, we weren't quite as aggressive as what we really needed to be," said first-year Fishers coach Joe Keller. "Thus they won both the medley relays."

But Fishers went 1-2 in the next event, the girls 200 freestyle. Immediately afterwards, the Tigers' boys finished 1-2-3 in their 200 free race. That put Fishers on top in both meets, and it would hang on to the lead for the remainder of the meet.

"But the 200 freestyles, both girls and the guys, were outstanding and that really kick-started everything," said Keller.

The Tigers girls won seven events, starting with Hannah Pratt in the 200 free. She was the first of five different Fishers girls to win an individual race. The others were Corinne Yorkman in the individual medley, Amilia Nusbaum in the 100 free, Abby Jahns in the 500 free and Miya Wai in the breaststroke.

Nusbaum and Pratt also swam on the Tigers' two winning relays. First was the 200 free relay, in which Nusbaum and Pratt joined Ellen Fero and Kyla Srnckic to take that race. Nusbaum, Pratt and Jahns teamed with Morgan Booth for a win in the 400 free relay.

Meanwhile, Fishers' boys won eight events. Drake Stallworth and Kyle Haflich were double individual winners: Stallworth paced the 200 free and butterfly races, with Haflich finishing first in the IM and the backstroke.

Cole VanDevender ran away with the diving event, while Aaron Frollo was the 500 free winner and Noah Baldwin was first in the breaststroke. The Tigers finished the meet with a 400 free relay win; Nick Harris joined Stallworth, Frollo and Haflich to get that victory.

"I really felt like the kids raced," said Keller. "We've been talking a lot about swimming between the two lane lines, staying focused on what's between the two lane lines and developing a racer's mentality, taking care of ourselves and not worrying about what else is going on and just keeping the focus upon us and the team. And I thought they did that really well, and I felt like coming down the end, they were just really tough."

Winners for Southeastern's girls team were Emily Barnes in the 50 free, Sarah Ballard in diving, Hannah Pugh in the butterfly and Abby Harter in the backstroke. Harter, Pugh and Barnes joined Madison Kertin to win the medley relay.

DJ Rogers was a double winner for the Royals boys in the 50 and 100 freestyles. Blake Ratliff, Andrew Truxall, Keegan Streett and Andrew Christopher got the medley relay victory, while Connor Harrison, Christopher, Rogers and Evan Sellers finished first in the 200 free relay.

"I felt like we had some really shining moments, and then some not-so-good moments. I think it was kind of a mixed bag," said HSE coach Andy Pedersen.

Before the meet, both teams held a moment of silence for Robert "Dub" Clark, who passed away on Sunday. Clark and his family started and sponsored the Mudsock trophy.

"I want to thank Dub Clark and his family for making this all possible," said Pedersen. "I think it's a good rivalry, I think it's healthy and I think it's very positive and this rivalry never would've come about if not for the Clark family, especially Dub. So it was really nice to start the meet off with a moment of silence for him and just keep this all in perspective. It's a really big swim meet and all this, a lot of people here. This all started because a guy had a vision."

Late basket sends Warriors past Royals

The Hamilton Southeastern girls basketball team took a tough loss to Warren Central Thursday, 34-33 at the Royals' gym.

Class 4A No. 6-ranked Southeastern led 20-12 at halftime, but the Warriors worked their way back to take a 27-26 lead by the end of the third quarter. Warren led 32-28 late in the fourth, but the Royals got back in front after Tayah Irvin drained a 3-pointer and Amaya Hamilton made a layin with around three minutes left in the game. Neither team would score again until the Warriors made a layin with about four seconds remaining.

"I thought our girls did everything right," said HSE coach Chris Huppenthal. "Sometimes it just doesn't go the way you want it to."

Malea Jackson led the Royals with 12 points, including three 3-pointers. Irvin had two 3-pointers on her way to nine points. Hamilton grabbed seven rebounds with Irvin collecting five. Molly Walton handed out six assists, Irvin made four steals and Hamilton blocked three shots.

"I thought our kids did a lot of really good things today," said Huppenthal. "I thought they played hard."

Southeastern is now 13-5 and off until Friday, Jan. 12, when it travels to Westfield for a Hoosier Crossroads Conference girl-boy doubleheader. The girls game starts at 6 p.m., with the boys game to follow.

University breaks two records in win

It was a historic night at the U Center on Thursday, as University defeated Scecina Memorial 91-38 in a game that saw two records fall.

The night's first record fell in the first quarter, as senior guard Natalie Nickless became University's all-time record holder in 3-pointers made. Her first of five 3s on the night was her 129th career triple, breaking Tyler Diehl's boys and girls school record. The second record fell in the fourth quarter, as the Trailblazers pushed past the 84-point mark, ultimately scoring a program-best 91 points in Thursday's victory.

Despite missing starters Lily and Lucy Snyder, University (13-3) opened with a 11-0 run and cruised to a dominant victory — the Trailblazers led 24-7 after one quarter and 53-21 at the half. Nickless and junior guard Brooke Andrus did most of their damage earlier — each had 16 first-half points en route to 23- and 22-point outings, respectively. With sophomore forward and leading scorer Lindsey Syrek in foul trouble, junior guard Haley Tomlinson helped steady the Trailblazers, scoring 10 of her 12 points in the opening half. Despite the foul trouble, Syrek finished with 18.

University solidified its grasp on the game in the third and fourth quarter, pulling away for the 53-point victory. With the game out of reach in the fourth quarter, Trailblazers head coach Justin Blanding went to his bench, and freshman guard Ana Turner stepped up, scoring her first eight career varsity points in the game's final minutes.

The Trailblazers return to action Saturday, visiting Lebanon for a matinee contest — varsity tip is at 1:30 p.m.
