Coyotes continue to cause concern for Carmel citizens

By JENNY DREASLER
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Coyote sightings have some people in Carmel worried.

A recent video shared hundreds of times on social media has people talking about safety concerns in the area.

The video taken Tuesday morning by Jake Zimmer, 17, shows a coyote eating a squirrel in broad daylight.

People living in Carmel said the coyotes are becoming more bold and brazen.

"This one looked like the biggest one I've ever seen and it was eating a squirrel and that's what I thought was crazy about it," Zimmer said. "I've seen coyotes before. But, the fact it was eating a squirrel in front of me was crazy."

That bold behavior is becoming the norm as people who live in the Lakes at Hazel Dell said the coyotes are 'taking over the neighborhood' and with dangerous consequences. The neighborhood is off 126th Street and Hazel Dell Parkway.

Fishers Mental Health Task Force moves forward with stakeholder meeting

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

When Scott Fadness became mayor of Fishers in January 2015, his first major initiative was the Mental Health Task Force. The mayor is now in his fourth year in office and the task force continues to make progress.

Those involved in the mental health initiative gathered at Launch Fishers Friday morning for a progress report.

Perhaps the most telling piece of information shared during the session came from Fishers Fire Chief Steve Orusa. He told those assembled that there have been no teen suicides in the City of Fishers since 2014.

HSE Schools Superintendent Allen Bourff outlined how the recent referendum approved by local voters has allowed the school corporation to place more mental health professionals in the schools, with 13 therapists serving 21 school buildings. This allows earlier interventions when students need mental health treatment.

shooting in Parkland, Fla. The public debate has centered on firearms policy, but the mayor cited the strides the task force has made in allowing the many stakeholders, including the city and schools, to work together, is one way to intervene early when a teenager is troubled and in need of treatment. That can sometimes make the difference in preventing such situations, according to the mayor.

The Mental Health Task Force has accomplished much in nearly three-and-a-half years, but there is much more left to do.

Third in a series on the work of Noblesville's city departments . . .

Know your city: Noblesville Engineering

The following column is the third in a series on the various departments within the City of Noblesville, highlighting the hard work and dedication of the staff members who keep our community of 62,000 going strong.

Today's column focuses on a single department – and one whose work is necessary for anyone who drives, runs, walks, builds, works or lives within our city. That's why there is no such thing as a "slow season" for the Noblesville Engineering Department.

With a staff of 12 employees, and led by director John Beery, who has been with the city since 2006, Engineering manages the installation of all public works infrastructure for new residential, commercial and industrial developments – as well as the scoping, design, management and inspection of all capital improvement roadway projects.

Think of a massive infrastructure project like the proposed east-west corridor along Pleasant Street from State Road 37 to Hague Road with the White River in-between – and you can imagine the complexity of their many responsibilities; either through hands-on work, collaborating with other government units at the county, state and federal level; or overseeing consultants.

Local residents should appreciate the work of our engineering staff – even when you encounter "Road Closed" signs. Those signs mean improvements are coming, without which our city would literally grind to a halt.

Each year, the Engineering Department reviews and grades every city street and alley for the annual street rehabilitation list. The roads and alleys deemed highest priority based on a variety of technical factors are resurfaced first – not simply on the whim of an elected official. In 2017, Noblesville rehabbed 6.8 miles of roadway and 1.12 miles of alleys. And 2018 is following this same process.

Even as technical as their jobs are, there also is artistry to municipal engineering. Their work helps build greater pride in our community. Take a drive around the Five Hamilton County Sheriff deputies responded to a report of shots fired in the 300 block of West 206th Street at approximately 10:20 p.m. on Thursday, May 3. The 911 caller told dispatchers that a male subject was shot in the stomach.

Deputies arriving at the scene found a male victim with stab and slash wounds to various parts of his body, including the abdomen. First aid treatment was rendered by deputies until medics arrived. The victim was taken by air ambulance to St. Vincent Hospital on 86th Street for treatment of his injuries, which detectives indicated were not believed to be life threatening.

During the investigation, Brian Harris, 44, Sheridan, was identified as the alleged suspect in the attack. Investigators believe Harris slashed tires on a Property taxes are due Thursday, May 10. Payments can be made online, at participating local banks, via mail with a USPS postmark May 10 or earlier, dropped in the tax payment box located on the east side of the old courthouse near the door, or in person between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The Hamilton County Treasurer's Office, along with many other government offices, will be closed on Tuesday, May 8 for elections.

The Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program sends approximately 800 American scholars and professionals per year to approximately 130 countries, where they lecture and/or conduct re-

The Fulbright Program is the flagship international educational exchange program sponsored by the U.S. government and is designed to build lasting connections between the people of the United States and the people of other countries. Correction

In Friday, May 4 edition of the Hamilton County Reporter, Fred Swift published an article "Election campaign comes to climax Tuesday."

The article incorrectly stated, "At the township level, there is only one contest for trustee, it pits Robyn Cook of Atlanta against incumbent Chris Miller for Jackson Township trustee." This information was incorrect. Current Washington Township Trustee Danielle Carey Tolan is running against Marla Ailor.

The Reporter regrets the error.

Points intersection at South 10th Street, Greenfield and Christian avenues. I think you'll agree the roundabout with its brickwork and centerpiece monument is not only functional but cool looking.

In addition to "paving the way" for automobile travel, Engineering also manages the construction of new pedestrian trails to our already robust trail system – which takes time when projects require complicated right-of-way and property negotiations. 2017 alone saw the addition of 9.3 miles of trails, including the initial 1.4 miles of the Midland Trace Trail. A new trail head will soon open on Hazel Dell Road, and construction for the next phase of the Midland is already underway.

Another major responsibility of the Engineering Department is to develop procedures for prospective developments like the BorgWarner Technical Center, due to open in the coming months. And they provide construction management and support services for other city departments as well.

Everyone in the department would agree, though, that safety remains their top priority.

Whenever a new project is proposed, the first questions are always – what will the impact on traffic be? Is it safe? Historically, Noblesville experiences an average annual increase of about 50 traffic crashes for every 1,800 new residents. Engineering continuously reviews accident reports to evaluate steps that can be taken to reduce the number of crashes. Thankfully, despite our continued growth, the city experienced zero traffic fatalities in 2017.

Finally, the Engineering Department oversees the city's Municipal Separate Storm Sewer System (MS4) Program, and manages compliance for ADA and Title VI programs.

It's startling to see how much our city accomplishes with so lean a staff – and does so with great results that are evident in the quality of our roadways, trails, sidewalks, neighborhoods, developments and sewer system – thanks to the Noblesville Engineering Department and the limited tax dollars that fund their efforts.

Noblesville City Clerk speaks in support of Greg O'Connor

Dear Editor:
Over the past several years, I have sat in many meetings with Greg O'Connor, both public and executive session, for the Noblesville Common Council. Because I take minutes at these meetings, I have the privilege to observe those present.
I do not live in House District 29 and will not vote on that race, but I wanted to share my observations of Greg as a public servant on the Council.
Greg has always come prepared, having read through many pages of material. He consistently listens intently to all sides of any given issue. He is almost always one of the last to speak, and he does so thoughtfully. He has never been afraid to take on any hard issues, and his focus has been on what is right and what needs to be done, not on political expediency or what any particular group wants. I have seen him listen carefully to angry constituents who were yelling and rude to him, and a calm conversation resulted.

Greg knows how to work with a wide variety of people, and he knows how to get things done. He is knowledgeable, gracious, and productive. He is just the kind of person we need in the legislature to represent House District 29.
Sincerely,
Evelyn Lees

Teresa Vanzetta said her dog Teddy was attacked by coyotes in the neighborhood three years ago.
"They just got one bite into him and it got right here and it ripped from his belly all the way to around to his back," Vanzetta said. "We heard a loud screech. We ran out and there were two coyotes sitting there and he was laying on the ground and he wasn't moving. My husband went to go get him but the coyotes weren't moving."

To combat the problem in Carmel and across the state, the Indiana Department of Natural Resources proposed a new law. It would require animal control workers to kill raccoons, opossums and coyotes they trap. Right now, they have the option to release animals. You can give your feedback on the proposed nuisance animal rule.

It's a plan Vanzetta and many of her neighbors are on board with. While Vanzetta said Teddy has made a full recovery, she hopes the Natural Resources plan will prevent another family from going through what she did.
"They don't walk away when you're there," Vanzetta said. "They're not afraid of you! We need to be able to live in our own yards without fear."

vehicle at the location when he confronted and a fight ensued. Harris was later located in a nearby wooded area and was taken into custody. He was treated at St. Vincent Carmel Hospital for a large cut on his hand before being transported to jail.
The original 911 report of shots fired was made due to the discharge of a firearm during the altercation. No one was injured by a firearm. Investigators located a utility knife at the scene and believe it to have been used in the incident.
Brian Lee Harris was booked into the Hamilton

County Jail on multiple preliminary misdemeanor and felony charges of:
• Criminal Mischief,
• Battery with Serious Bodily Injury,
• Criminal Recklessness with a Deadly Weapon, and
• Aggravated Battery
No bail/bond amount was listed at the time of this release.
Since an arrest has been made in this case, any further questions should be addressed to the Hamilton County Prosecutor's Office.
A preliminary charge is merely an accusation. All subjects are innocent unless/until found guilty in a court of law.

CHUCK GOODRICH

JOB CREATOR

A successful local business leader and entrepreneur, Chuck Goodrich knows how to create good jobs and lay the foundation for a thriving economy.

CHUCK GOODRICH

LEADING ON JOB CREATION AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Chuck Goodrich has spent his career working to create jobs. So, Chuck knows that government doesn't create jobs; it's the hard work of entrepreneurs and business owners small and large that create opportunities for employment. Chuck is focused on reducing the size and scope of government so business can create local jobs.

Chuck Goodrich serves as the president and CEO of Gaylor Electric, Inc., one of the largest merit electrical companies in the Midwest. Chuck started at Gaylor as an intern in 1991 and worked his way up the ranks to become President of the company. Chuck has created over 700 jobs at Gaylor Electric and developed a pathway into construction for local high school students.

As our next State Representative, Chuck will focus on developing and training our workforce so Indiana continues to attract high demand and high wage jobs.

I'm tired of politicians talking about fixing problems. I'm ready to get to work to solve them.

Kristen Riley asks you to vote for her husband, Will Riley, on May 8

Dear Editor:
I have been married to Will Riley for 30 years. We first met in 1979 at North Central High School as sophomores. We both attended IU and graduated together in 1986. After graduation, I went to work in Indianapolis as a financial planner and Will went to law school, staying in Bloomington.

Will worked his first summer for the Indianapolis Parks Department as a camp counselor and saved his earnings to purchase my engagement and wedding rings. We were engaged in November of 1986 and married on January 2, 1988, during the Christmas season because the church was already decorated and we needed to save money.

Because I needed to commute to my job in Indianapolis and Will needed to continue with his classes in Bloomington, we rented an apartment in Martinsville. We had a wonderful time in Martinsville, enjoying the people and the small community. Will was always very approachable and genuinely interested in meeting the people among whom we lived and worshipped. We became very involved in our parish, and Will taught Sunday school for the time we lived there.

After law school, Will began practicing with Baker & Daniels, and we remained active in civic and charitable causes. I was a volunteer for many years at Saint Augustine Home for the Aged and volunteered at our parish, St. Simon, and our son's school in a variety of ways. Will served on the parish council, rendered pro bono services to our church community, and enthusiastically volunteered on school field trips. We also helped raise our niece during this time. She attended Cathedral High School and graduated from IU two years ago. She currently serves in the Peace Corps in Cambodia.

My husband has the intellect to be the next Judge in Hamilton County Superior Court 1, but most importantly he has the heart and the determination to do the job. One of my hobbies is reading about our Founding Fathers. I also love the music to Hamilton! One thing I took away from my reading is how passionately these men cared about our nation and the community where they lived.

Will loves this nation and where we live. He sees the law and the courts as one of the important ways we are kept free and safe. I know he will bring this passion to serving as a judge.

Please vote for my husband, Will Riley, on May 8 to be our next Hamilton County Superior Court 1 Judge.

Kristen Riley
Fishers

Retired Superior Court 2 Judge supports Will Riley

Dear Editor,
As a retired Hamilton County Superior Court Judge, many have approached me about who I believe the best candidate to fill the judicial vacancy left by Judge Steve Nation's retirement.

I have chosen to support Will Riley for Judge. My experience as a former judge in this county has shown me that his demeanor, extensive bench trial and jury trial experience in complex litigation and strong desire to serve his community make him the best candidate to fill Judge Nation's vacancy.

The same attributes that I have recognized in Will have also been recognized by others. Most recently, for example, Will was selected as a semi-finalist to sit on our Indiana Supreme Court. Will has also been selected by federal judges to serve as litigation chair for complex federal multi-district litigation. Finally, he was recently selected by our Indiana Supreme Court to serve as a judicial officer over an attorney disciplinary proceeding.

I wish all of the judicial candidates in this race the best of luck. Hamilton County is fortunate that its best and brightest are willing to serve its citizens.

Dear Residents of Hamilton County, I'd like to tell you why Ken Alexander, my husband, is the right person for Hamilton County Council. ‘Trash Bash!’ removes thousands of bags of litter from Hoosier highways

The REPORTER

With the month of May comes warmer weather across Indiana. INDOT reminds motorists that although these conditions invite motorists to roll down vehicle windows, it is against the law to litter by throwing trash out of vehicles.

INDOT has several beautification initiatives to help keep Indiana clean.

During INDOT’s annual Trash Bash! on April 13, INDOT maintenance staff across the state directed their efforts toward litter collection on roads with high-traffic volume, such as interstates and divided highways. Additionally, Adopt-a-Highway groups and other organizations and individuals joined forces to clean two-lane roads with lower traffic volume April 13-15 as part of Trash Bash!

“INDOT is proud to partner with individuals and groups to clean up litter and beautify the state,” said INDOT Commissioner Joe McGuinness. “Whether volunteers are interested in helping with one mile or 10 miles, INDOT welcomes the help of Hoosiers in making our roads look their best.”

The effort paid off, as hundreds of INDOT employees collected 2,857 bags of trash, or the equivalent of 724 cubic yards, on April 13. The non-INDOT volunteers gathered 600 bags of trash, the equivalent of 150 cubic yards, from April 13-15.

Besides Trash Bash!, INDOT offers opportunities for Hoosiers to help keep roadside areas clean year-round. The Adopt-a-Highway, Sponsor-a-Highway and newly formed Hoosier Gateways programs are ideal opportunities for volunteering or performing community service projects.

“We put in a huge effort for our crews to make our roadsides and communities more attractive,” said INDOT Roadside Maintenance Specialist Matt Kraushar. “We certainly succeeded, and we look to build on this to make next year even better.”

Indiana Attorney General shares state’s involving retail security programs

The REPORTER

At a national retail conference on Tuesday, Attorney General Curtis Hill shared legal perspectives on issues of law enforcement, loss prevention and store security relating to significant increases in property crimes committed against retailers. He participated in several panel discussions at the 2018

Retail Asset Protection Conference, sponsored by the Retail Industry Leaders Association.

Hill focused portions of his remarks on lessons learned in Indiana involving controversy over an anti-shoplifting program developed by Corrective Education Company (CEC) and implemented by Walmart at 36 Indiana locations. At the request of a prosecuting attorney, Hill conducted a review that included the cooperation of CEC and Walmart officials. He determined that the retailer had been offering to forgo contacting the police in exchange for suspects agreeing to enter into their program. This created issues under Indiana law, which is clear on the manner and authority in which retailers may lawfully detain shoplifting suspects and law enforcement’s role in that process. (Click here to see the Attorney General’s official opinion on the program.)

At the conference, Hill spoke of the need for strong relationships among retailers and law enforcement agencies. Afterward, he reiterated some of those same themes.

“Law enforcement and retail businesses share common ground in these matters,” Hill said. “For its part, the retailer wants to minimize financial loss and keep employees engaged in productive tasks other than surveilling and thwarting shoplifters. The police officer, meanwhile, wants to enforce the law, arrest individuals suspected of crimes and generally safeguard the rights and protections of citizens. When businesses and law enforcement speak openly and respectfully with one another, they can establish the kind of trust and collaboration that leads to effective results for all involved.”

John Dale Snethen III
September 8, 1941 – May 2, 2018

John Dale Snethen III, Sheridan, passed away on Wednesday morning, May 2, 2018, at St. Vincent Hospice Center in Indianapolis. Born September 8, 1941 in Lebanon, Ind., he was the son of the late John Dale Snethen II and Melva Grace (Foster) Snethen. After graduating from Sheridan H.S. with the Class of 1959, he continued forward with his studies at Ball State University. He proudly served his country as an M.P. with the United States Army during the Vietnam War.

John was known by many as the "Mayor of Sheridan". For 27 years he served the community of Sheridan as a member of the town council. He served as Council President for many of those years, as well as Police Commissioner. John was also a diehard Sheridan Blackhawk fan, never missing a game if it was at all possible. He also tried very hard to never miss a meeting of the Sheridan Coffee Club. He attended Six Points Wesleyan Church in Sheridan.

John had a strong work ethic and an entrepreneurial spirit. He sold cars for Hare Chevrolet and Norm's Auto Sales before deciding to open his own used car business. When he had some time to relax, he thoroughly enjoyed the chances he had to go fishing with some of his lifelong friends. There was one thing that could capture John's attention no matter what was going on, and that was his family. He loved looking after them. He was the family "fixer upper," and relished any opportunity to show them how to fix things. Any chance he had to impart his wisdom using the "watch and learn" method, was usually very educational – especially if you were the one that got to rush Poppy to the Emergency Room. You definitely learned a thing or two about field dressing a wound and the quickest routes to the hospital, whether you wanted to or not.

John is survived by his loving wife, Connie L. (Russell) Snethen. She and John were married on July 12, 1964. Also surviving are two sons, John Dale Snethen IV and wife Lisa, and Josh David Snethen, both of Sheridan; his daughter, Julie D. Childers and husband Jason of Sheridan; and five wonderful grandchildren, Hailey M. Snethen, Josie C. Childers, Justin J. Childers, J.D. Snethen and Janessa G. Snethen, who will all miss their Poppy very much.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and by his sister, Charlene Snethen.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, May 10, 2018, at Six Points Wesleyan Church, 1545 W. 226th St., Sheridan, with visitation from 4 p.m. until the time of service. Pastor Steve Martin will be officiating. Burial with Military Honors will be held at a later date at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan.

Hamilton County track and field meet

Reporter photos by Kent Graham

Hamilton Southeastern's Noah Malone (left) and Carmel's Phoebe Bates (above, with Carmel athletic director Jim Inskeep) were the high point-scorers at Friday's Hamilton County track and field meet.

Carmel sweeps, seven new records are set

By RICHIE HALL
Reporter Sports Editor

It was a beautiful night for the Hamilton County track and field meet Friday at Carmel Stadium, and it turned to be a historic night as well, as seven new records were set - including two that broke old records that had stood for decades.

Ladies first: The Carmel girls edged out Hamilton Southeastern 173-165, an eight point margin between two teams that could arguably be the two best in the state. The 'Hounds and the Royals won all but one of the events, including a tie for first in the pole vault. Carmel's Kara Deady and Southeastern's Jessica Bray both finished with vaults of 12 feet, 6 inches.

The Greyhounds were led by Phoebe Bates, who proved to be the iron woman of the meet. The sophomore swept the 800, 1600 and 3200 runs - that's a total of 14 laps around the track, or three and a half-miles. Bates took the 1600 run by seven and a half seconds, set a new meet record of 2:15.34 to win the 800. Bates bested the 25-year old record of Carmel's Amy Morris, who ran the race in 2:15.40 back in 1993. Minutes later, Bates cruised to a 25-second victory in the 3200.

Bates scored 30 points for Carmel at the meet, giving her the award for the highest girls point-scorer.

"I just took it race by race," said Bates. "The mile, I thought 'four laps,' then the 800, I was like 'Okay, this is only two laps,' and then the two-mile I just had eight more laps to get done."

Beverly Thompson and Olivia Elkin made a 1-2 sweep of the 300 hurdles, while Marie Kress took the shot put. Carmel also won the 4x800 relay to begin the meet, then finished the meet with a 4x400 relay victory; Reagan Hune pulled away at the end to seal the win.

"I think as a whole team, we did great," said 'Hounds coach Aaron McRill. "We knew HSE was a really, really good team. We just wanted to see how we would compare to them, and I think we stack up pretty good. So it's going to be a good tournament."

Southeastern was led by the great Camille Christopher, who was part of three new records in the meet. In doing so, the senior broke through time barriers in each of those events.

First in the 100 dash, Christopher delivered the county meet's first under-12 second time, winning that race in 11.95 seconds. Later, she placed first in the 200 dash in 24.96 seconds, the first sub-25 second result. In both cases, she broke her own record.

In between, Christopher teamed up with Olivia Burgess, Tierra Sydnor and Alyssa Barker to win the 4x100 relay in new record time of 47.72 - the first meet time under 48 seconds.

"It feels great," said Christopher. "It feels like I'm back in the mix and ready for state."

"I just haven't even processed the whole thing yet, honestly," said Barker, a freshman.

"I think we ran pretty good," said Sydnor, a junior. "We had little bobbles with the handoff and stuff, but we worked it out and we kept going. That's the best part about it."

Sydnor was a double winner, finishing first in the 400 dash and the long jump. Tayah Irvin triumphed in the 100 hurdles and Valerie Obear cruised to a win in the discus.

Noblesville's Shelby Tyler broke through the Carmel-HSE dominance to take the high jump. Tyler easily cleared 5 feet, 9 inches, breaking the old record set by another Miller, Rachel Mather, by one inch.

"It feels really good," said Tyler. "I've been training really hard for it and have gotten a lot of support from both parents, coaches, teammates. Everyone's been super helpful and that makes it fun and it makes it motivating."

In the boys meet, Carmel used its depth to win by a solid margin. The Greyhounds scored 158 points, with Fishers totaling 130 and HSE scoring 123.

The depth was necessary, as individual wins were hard to come by. All six participating schools scored at least one individual event victory.

Carmel began the meet by winning the 4x800 relay, then got 1-2 finishes in two events. Trey Harris placed first in the 1600 run with Eli Konow second, then Graham Hatfield won the discus, followed by Jon Williams.

"I thought the boys competed very well," said Greyhounds coach Ken Browner. "On paper, Fishers and HSE and us were separated by about three points. I was a little concerned, because I knew we weren't running some of our better kids today. But I knew with that, once we got into the competition, we had some really great performances from the young kids that never really get a chance to run in this kind of environment."

Southeastern won the most individual events, with six first-place finishes. That included a photo finish between the Royals' Noah Malone and the Tigers' HL Lewis in the 100 dash. Malone edged out Lewis by .01 seconds - 11.72 to 11.73. Both runners were under the old 100 dash record of 11.80, and it was indeed an old record: It was set by Carmel's Bill Davis back in 1982.

Malone also won the 200 dash, and was part of the Royals' winning 4x100 relay. As a result, he earned the trophy for the boys highest point scorer of the meet.

"It was tough," said Malone. "This is the most competition I've had all season. I had a PR in the 100 and overall it was a good meet."

Madison Norris cruised to victory in the 110 hurdles, also in a new meet record time of 14.22 seconds. That lowered the standard of HSE's Jeremiah Wright by one-tenth of a second. Nathan Smith took the 300 hurdle race, while Chase Maxey finished first in the long jump.

Fishers got two victories: DiSean Graham paced the 400 dash and Luke Martin won the shot put. Fourth-place Noblesville had three wins: Drew Herman took the high jump, freshman Andrew Anderson was first in the 800 run, and the Millers' 4x400 relay team edged out Carmel for a win in that event. Noblesville coach Jay Taylor said that his team "had some guys pull through big time" to win that race.

"Really pleased with how Andrew ran," said Noblesville coach Jay Taylor about the 800. "I'll tell you that Nick Dombroski was in that race as well, and he pulled through just as well as Andrew did, relative to himself."

Westfield's Peyton Haack finished first in the pole vault, while Guerin Catholic's Quinn Gallagher won the 3200 run, his first time as a county champion.

"It's pretty neat, because last year I got outkicked and then this year, it was really fun and I was ready for it," said Gallagher.

Orioles rally, send 'Rocks to HCC loss

By RICH TORRES

WESTFIELD – For the second straight night, the Westfield Shamrocks struck first, and right on cue, the Avon Orioles responded, yet again.

The Shamrocks built an early 1-0 lead and sophomore Zach Zaborowski tossed a quality start, but the visiting Orioles charged back in top of the sixth and the bullpen nailed it down as Avon won 3-2 on Friday night.

Avon (12-7) also rallied from a 1-0 deficit on Thursday night en route to a 6-3 victory, and once more swung the momentum to clinch its three-game Hoosier Crossroads Conference series with Westfield. The series finale is scheduled for noon at Avon on Saturday.

"It's very frustrating. We had a lot of opportunities to stay in this game even longer or maybe even come out with the win," Westfield senior Logan McClurg remarked after the Shamrocks dropped to 8-9 overall. "We just didn't execute when we needed to. It's a tough loss."

Avon's back-to-back HCC wins further cements its spot at third in the standings, while Westfield now sits at .500 with a 7-7 conference record.

The series loss was only Westfield's second this year after taking 2 of 3 from Zionsville, Hamilton Southeastern and Brownsburg.

"We just didn't get the timely hit today," Westfield head coach Ryan Bunnell said. "It's the little things, but the little things make big things happen."

McClurg supplied the Shamrock's biggest hit, leading off the bottom of the first with a triple. Sam Eaton put the Shamrocks on top 1-0 with an RBI groundout, but the bats fell silent afterwards until the bottom of the sixth.

Avon starter Connor Madding, who picked up his first win of the season, retired 14 consecutive hitters after Westfield put two on base in the first, including a Zach Collins walk.

Madding's 85-pitch performance kept the game close before the Orioles dialed in for their hurler with a three-run top of the sixth.

"He had good off-speed, not a lot of fastballs," said McClurg, who finished 1-for-2 with two runs scored. "He came with the off-speed, which was throwing us off. He's a good pitcher."

Zaborowski nearly matched Madding, going five innings behind 77 pitches. The right-hander struck out three, walked three and was charged with two earned runs – both crossing in the sixth after being relieved.

Madding struck out four, walked one and was credited with both Westfield runs.

The Shamrocks sliced the Orioles' lead 3-2 in the bottom of the sixth as McClurg scored from third base on a wild pitch by reliever Eric Ayler.

Westfield was in position to tie the game in the sixth after they chased Madding and drew a pair of walks with one out.

Zach Collins heightened the threat with a four-pitch walk and two outs, but Avon's second of three relievers, Jake Lingle, shut down the Shamrocks with a clutch strikeout.

"We had to have to have a better at-bat there in the sixth with the runners at second and third and two outs," Bunnell said. "Maybe it doesn't go, but to go down on three pitches. We kind of looked at two and chased a bad one. We had to have a better at-bat there."

Avon's Nolan Nihiser, who went 3-for-4 with two doubles, led off the top of the sixth with a single, and Braedon Payne was hit by a pitch before Zaborowski was lifted for Trey Anderson.

The Orioles advanced the runners with a sacrifice bunt by Max Pfladderer, setting up Connor Albert's game-tying two-run triple. Albert went 2-for-3.

"The Albert kid, we had him 0-2, and then we hung a breaking ball that should have been off the plate," Bunnell said. "We just didn't execute on some small things. Not a lot. We played a fairly clean game, but when you're in tight games against good teams, you have to execute on the little things."

Austin Baugh plated the decisive run with an RBI sacrifice bunt to bring home Albert before he halted Westfield's late comeback attempt on the mound.

The Shamrocks loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh following a leadoff single by Anderson, a one-out walk by Kyle Pepiot and a two-out free pass by McClurg.

Baugh, however, slammed the door. The right-hander took over for Lingle, and posted a strikeout and a walk before inducing a game-ending fielder's choice groundout.

McClurg led the Shamrocks with two walks. Zach Collins was 1-for-2 with a walk.

Westfield travels to Avon on Saturday and hosts Lapel on Tuesday before facing Class 4A No. 3 Fishers for their final HCC series beginning on Thursday at home.

"Hopefully, we can come up in those big opportunities or make those big plays we need for tomorrow to win that one," McClurg said.

Huskies drop tough game to Cardinal Ritter

Hamilton Heights lost a tough nine-inning game on Friday, falling to Cardinal Ritter 12-9.

The Huskies scored the game's first run, with Cole Meyer getting home in the bottom of the first inning. The Raiders tied things up in the second inning, then went ahead 2-1 in the third on a sacrifice fly.

Heights took the lead back in the bottom of the third. Luke Thesier scored on a passed ball, then Gabe Reel's sacrifice fly got Meyer home for his second run of the game.

A two-RBI single put Ritter back on top 4-3 in the fourth inning. The Huskies answered with three runs in the bottom of the fourth: Luke Stohler sent Michael Cross home on a right field hit, then Meyer knocked a triple to score Cobe Koors and Thesier. Heights now led 6-4.

Sam Fulton made the score 7-4 with a solo home run in the fifth inning. Ritter got a run back in the top of the sixth, then poured in four runs to take a 9-7 lead in the top of the seventh.

The Huskies answered in the bottom of the seventh: Fulton singled Sam Wahl home, then Reel scored on a wild pitch to tie the game at 9-9. The score would stay there until the ninth inning, when the Raiders got three runs.

"I hurt for our kids right now," said Heights coach JR Moffatt. "It's been a rough week. A couple of games we were in a position to win and couldn't quite finish. Offensively we are definitely improving. Thirteen hits against good pitching tonight. I'm really happy with our progress at the plate."

"Our issue is overall consistency. We do nothing easy. We put ourselves in a lot of unnecessary stressful situations. We've got to be better at mastering the routine plays. Some of it is inexperience, some of it is lack of focus and just not finishing plays. But tonight we had a lot more fight. There were several times we could have folded against a very good Ritter team. They have the majority of their guys back from last year's state championship team, they are very solid. So for us to keep fighting back and be in a position to win even in spite of our own miscues is pretty good. These guys are proud, they will figure it out."

Meyer finished the game 3-for-4, and also pitched five and a third innings, with eight strikeouts.

The Huskies are 8-8 and play at Madison-Grant on Monday.
